The Apostolic Bible

Complete English Edition

87 books

Father Michael

Contents

Genesis	5
Exodus	88
Leviticus	155
Numbers	205
Deuteronomy	275
Joshua	333
1 Judges	374
2 Judges	412
Ruth	450
1 Samuel	455
2 Samuel	503
1 Kings	545
2 Kings	595
1 Chronicles	640
2 Chronicles	686
1 Esdras	739
2 Esdras	764
Ezra	801
Nehemiah	817
Esther	838
Judith	854
1 Tobit	877
2 Tobit	892
1 Maccabees	909
2 Maccabees	959
3 Maccabees	994
4 Maccabees	1009
Psalms	1034
Odes	1139

Contents

Proverbs	1153
Ecclesiastes	1193
Song of Solomon	1205
Job	1211
Wisdom of Solomon	1255
Sirach	1278
Psalms of Solomon	1338
Hosea	1354
Amos	1365
Micah	1374
Joel	1381
Obadiah	1386
Jonah	1388
Nahum	1391
Habakkuk	1394
Zephaniah	1398
Haggai	1402
Zechariah	1405
Malachi	1418
Isaiah	1422
Jeremiah	1496
Baruch	1572
Lamentations	1580
Letter of Jeremiah	1587
Ezekiel	1591
1 Susanna	1666
2 Susanna	1669
1 Daniel	1673
2 Daniel	1699

Contents

1 Bel and the Dragon	1725
2 Bel and the Dragon	1728
Matthew	1731
Mark	1784
Luke	1818
John	1874
The Acts	1917
Romans	1972
1 Corinthians	1994
2 Corinthians	2015
Galatians	2028
Ephesians	2035
Philippians	2043
Colossians	2048
1 Thessalonians	2053
2 Thessalonians	2058
1 Timothy	2061
2 Timothy	2067
Titus	2071
Philemon	2074
Hebrews	2076
James	2092
1 Peter	2098
2 Peter	2104
1 John	2108
2 John	2114
3 John	2115
Jude	2116
Revelation	2118

Genesis

Chapter 1

1 In the beginning, God made the heaven and the earth.

2 But the earth was invisible and unprepared, and darkness was over the abyss, and the Spirit of God was moving over the water.

3 And God said: Let light come to be, and light came to be.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God separated the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light day, and he called the darkness night. Evening and morning happened: Day One.

6 And God said: Let there come to be a firmament in the midst of the water, and let it divide water from water: and it happened this way.

7 And God made the firmament, and God divided the water which was below the firmament from the water which was above the firmament.

8 And God called the firmament heaven, and God saw that it was good. Evening and morning happened: The Second Day.

9 And God said: Let the water beneath the heaven be gathered into one gathering, and let dry land appear, and the water beneath the heaven was gathered together into their gatherings, and the dry land appeared.

10 And God called the dry land earth, and he called the gatherings of the waters the seas. And God saw that it was good.

11 And God said: Let the earth bring forth vegetation: plants with seeds of the same kind of plant, and fruit trees with fruit containing seeds of the same kind of tree on the earth: and it happened this way.

12 And the earth grew plants: plants that produce seeds of the same kind of plant, and fruit-growing trees that produce fruit containing seeds of the same kind of fruit tree on the earth: And God saw that it was good.

13 And evening and morning happened: the Third Day.

14 And God said let there come to be lights in the firmament of heaven, for the illumination of the earth: For the distinguishing of the middle of the day from the middle of the night. And let them be for signs, seasons, days, and years.

15 And let them be for illumination in the firmament of heaven, so as to shine upon the earth: and it happened this way.

16 And God made the stars and two great lights, the greater for ruling the day, and the lesser for ruling the night.

17 And God placed them in the firmament of heaven so as to shine upon the earth.

18 To rule the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good.

19 And evening and morning happened: The Fourth Day.

20 And God said: let the waters bring forth crawling creatures with souls, and living flying creatures that fly over the earth along the firmament of the heaven. And it happened this way.

21 And God made the large sea creatures: Every kind of living and creeping creature that the waters brought forth, and every kind of flying creature: And God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying: Increase, multiply, and fill the waters in the seas. And let the flying creatures multiply upon the earth.

23 And evening and morning happened: The Fifth Day.

24 And God said: let the earth bring forth living creatures with souls: four footed creatures, creeping creatures, and wild animals each according to their own kind: and it happened this way.

25 And God made the wild animals of the earth according to their kind, and the livestock according to their kind, and all the creatures that crawl on the earth according to their kind. And God saw that it was good.

26 And God said: let us make man according to our image and according to our likeness, and let them rule the fish of the sea, the flying creatures of the sky, the livestock, and all the creatures that crawl upon the earth.

27 And God made the man in the image of God: he made them male and female.

28 And God blessed them, saying: Increase, multiply, and fill the earth. Rule over it, and rule the fish of the sea, and the flying creatures in the sky, and all the livestock, and every creature that crawls on the earth.

29 And God said: Behold, I have given you every seed producing plant on earth, and every fruit tree that grows fruits containing seeds as food for you.

30 And to all the wild animals on earth, and to all the flying creatures in the sky, and to every creature that crawls on earth that has a soul, I have given every green plant as food. And it happened this way.

31 And God beheld that all of the things he had made were exceedingly good. And evening and morning happened: The Sixth Day.

Chapter 2

1 And the heaven and the earth were finished, and the whole cosmos of them.

2 And on the Sixth Day God finished the works which he made, and he rested on the Seventh Day from all the works which he made.

3 And God blessed the Seventh Day and sanctified it, because in it God ceased from all his works that he began to do.

4 This is the book of the genesis of heaven and earth, when they were made, the day God made the heaven and the earth,

5 And every green plant of the field before growing on the earth, and every plant of the field before it sprang up, for God had not yet caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no man to cultivate the earth.

6 But a spring was flowing up from the earth and watering the whole face of the earth.

7 And God formed the man from the dust of the earth, and breathed onto his face the breath of life, and the man became a living soul.

8 And towards the east the Lord God planted a paradise in Eden, and placed the man he had made there.

9 And God caused every tree beautiful to behold and good for food to spring up from the earth, and the tree of life in the middle of paradise, and the tree of knowing knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river flows from Eden to water the paradise; thence it is divided into four heads.

11 The name of one is Phison, this is the one which encircles all the land of Evilat, where there is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good, and there is carbuncle and green stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Geon, this one encircles all of the land of Ethiopia.

14 And the third river is the Tigris, this one flows across from the Assyrians. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

15 And the Lord God took the man that he made, and placed him in paradise to cultivate it and to guard it.

16 And the Lord God commanded Adam, saying, you shall eat from every tree in paradise.

17 But you shall not eat from the tree of knowing good and evil, and whatever day you eat from it, you shall die the death.

18 And the Lord God said: it is not good for the man to be alone, let us make a suitable helper for him.

19 And God formed all the beasts of the field and birds of heaven from the earth, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them, and every living soul was named whatever Adam called it.

20 And Adam called names for all the cattle and for all the flying creatures of heaven and for all the beasts of the field, but for Adam no helper like him was found. –

21 And God cast a trance upon Adam, and put him to sleep; and he took one of his sides and filled up flesh in its place.

22 And the Lord God built the side, which he took from Adam, into a woman and brought her to Adam.

23 And Adam said: This now is bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken from her man.

24 Because of this, a man will leave his father and his mother and will be joined to his woman, and the two will be one flesh.

25 And the two were naked, both Adam and his woman, and they were not ashamed.

Chapter 3

1 But the serpent was the most discerning of all the beasts upon the earth, which the Lord God made; and the serpent said to the woman: Why is it that God said: You shall certainly not eat from every tree that is in the paradise?

2 And the woman said to the serpent: From fruit of a tree of the paradise we shall eat,

3 but from fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the paradise, God said: You shall not eat from it, nor shall you touch it at all, lest you die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman: You shall not die the death;

5 for God knew that on whatever day you eat from it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasing for the eyes to see, and it was beautiful for understanding; and having taken from its fruit, she ate. And she also gave to her man with her, and they ate.

7 And the eyes of the two were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they sewed leaves of a fig tree and made girdles for themselves.

8 And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the paradise toward evening, and both Adam and his woman hid themselves from the face of the Lord God in the midst of the tree of the paradise.

9 And the Lord God called Adam and said to him: Adam, where are you?

10 And he said to him: I heard your voice while you were walking in the paradise, and I was afraid, because I am naked, and I hid myself.

11 And he said to him: Who announced to you that you are naked? Did you eat from the tree of which I commanded you—this alone—not to eat from it?

12 And Adam said: The woman whom you gave with me, she gave me from the tree, and I ate.

13 And the Lord God said to the woman: What is this you did? And the woman said: The serpent deceived me, and I ate.

14 And the Lord God said to the serpent: Because you did this, accursed are you from all the cattle and from all the beasts of the earth; upon your breast and your belly you shall go, and earth you shall eat all the days of your life.

15 And I will set enmity between you and between the woman, and between your seed and between her seed; he will watch your head, and you will watch his heel.

16 And to the woman he said: Multiplying, I will multiply your sorrows and your groaning; in sorrows you shall bear children. And your turning will be toward your man, and he will rule over you.

17 But to Adam he said: Because you listened to the voice of your woman and ate from the tree of which I commanded you—this alone—not to eat from it, accursed is the earth in your works; in sorrows you shall eat it all the days of your life.

18 It will cause thorns and thistles to spring up for you, and you shall eat the grass of the field.

19 In the sweat of your face you shall eat your bread until your returning to the earth from which you were taken; because you are earth, and into earth you will depart. –

20 And Adam called the name of his woman Life, because she was the mother of all the living.

21 And the Lord God made tunics of skin for Adam and his woman and clothed them. –

22 And God said: Behold, Adam has become as one of us, to know good and evil, and now, lest he stretch out his hand and take from the tree of life and eat and live forever.

23 And the Lord God sent him out from the paradise of delight to work the earth from which he was taken.

24 And he cast Adam out and settled him opposite the paradise of delight, and appointed the cherubim and the flaming sword that turns, to guard the way of the tree of life.

Chapter 4

1 Now Adam knew Eva his woman, and having conceived she bore Cain and said: I acquired a man through God.

2 And she added to bear his brother Abel. And Abel became a shepherd of sheep, but Cain was working the earth.

3 And it happened after days that Cain brought from the fruits of the earth a sacrifice to the Lord,

4 and Abel also brought from the firstborn of his sheep and from their fat portions. And God looked upon Abel and upon his gifts,

5 but to Cain and to his sacrifices he did not attend. And Cain was exceedingly grieved, and his face fell.

6 And the Lord God said to Cain: Why have you become deeply grieved, and why has your face fallen?

7 Is it not that, if you offer rightly but do not divide rightly, you sinned? Be still; his turning is toward you, and you shall rule over him.

8 And Cain said to Abel his brother: Let us go through into the plain. And it happened while they were in the plain that Cain rose against Abel his brother and killed him.

9 And God said to Cain: Where is Abel your brother? But he said: I do not know. Am I my brother’s guard?

10 And God said: What did you do? A voice of your brother’s blood cries to me from the earth.

11 And now, accursed are you from the earth, which opened wide her mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand;

12 because you work the earth, it will no longer continue to give its strength to you; groaning and trembling you will be upon the earth.

13 And Cain said to the Lord: My guilt is greater than that I be forgiven;

14 if you cast me out today from the face of the earth, and from your face I shall be hidden, then I will be groaning and trembling upon the earth, and it will be that everyone finding me will kill me.

15 And the Lord God said to him: Not so; everyone who kills Cain shall suffer seven avenging penalties. And the Lord God placed a sign for Cain so that no one finding him would kill him.

16 And Cain went out from the face of God and dwelt in the land of Naid opposite Edem.

17 And Cain knew his woman, and having conceived she bore Enoch; and he was building a city, and he named the city after the name of his son Enoch.

18 And to Enoch was born Gaidad, and Gaidad begot Maiel, and Maiel begot Mathousala, and Mathousala begot Lamech.

19 And Lamech took two women for himself; the name of the one was Ada, and the name of the second Sella.

20 And Ada bore Jobel; he was the father of those dwelling in tents, cattle breeders.

21 And the name of his brother was Joubal; he was the one who demonstrated psaltery and lyre.

22 And Sella also bore Thobel, and he was a hammering smith of bronze and iron; and the sister of Thobel was Noema.

23 And Lamech said to his women: Ada and Sella, hear my voice; women of Lamech, give ear to my words, because I killed a man for a wound to me and a young man for a bruise to me,

24 because vengeance has been exacted seven times from Cain, but seventy-seven times from Lamech.

25 And Adam knew Eva his woman, and having conceived she bore a son and named his name Seth, saying: For God raised up another seed for me in place of Abel, whom Cain killed.

26 And to Seth there came to be a son, and he named his name Enos; he hoped to call upon the name of the Lord God.

Chapter 5

1 This is the book of the genesis of men; on the day God made Adam, according to God’s image he made him;

2 male and female he made them, and he blessed them. And he named their name Adam on the day he made them.

3 And Adam lived two hundred thirty years and begot according to his form and according to his image, and named his name Seth.

4 And the days of Adam after his begetting Seth were seven hundred years, and he begot sons and daughters.

5 And all the days of Adam which he lived were nine hundred thirty years, and he died.

6 And Seth lived two hundred five years and begot Enos.

7 And Seth lived after his begetting Enos seven hundred seven years, and he begot sons and daughters.

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred twelve years, and he died.

9 And Enos lived one hundred ninety years and begot Cainan.

10 And Enos lived after his begetting Cainan seven hundred fifteen years, and he begot sons and daughters.

11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred five years, and he died.

12 And Cainan lived one hundred seventy years and begot Maleleel.

13 And Cainan lived after his begetting Maleleel seven hundred forty years, and he begot sons and daughters.

14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred ten years, and he died.

15 And Maleleel lived one hundred sixty-five years and begot Jared.

16 And Maleleel lived after his begetting Jared seven hundred thirty years, and he begot sons and daughters.

17 And all the days of Maleleel were eight hundred ninety-five years, and he died.

18 And Jared lived one hundred sixty-two years and begot Enoch.

19 And Jared lived after his begetting Enoch eight hundred years, and he begot sons and daughters.

20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty-two years, and he died.

21 And Enoch lived one hundred sixty-five years and begot Mathousala.

22 And Enoch pleased God for two hundred years after his begetting Mathousala, and he begot sons and daughters.

23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty-five years.

24 And Enoch pleased God and was not found, because God transferred him.

25 And Mathousala lived one hundred sixty-seven years and begot Lamech.

26 And Mathousala lived after his begetting Lamech eight hundred two years, and he begot sons and daughters.

27 And all the days of Mathousala which he lived were nine hundred sixty-nine years, and he died.

28 And Lamech lived one hundred eighty-eight years and begot a son

29 and named his name Noah, saying: This one will give us rest from our works and from the sorrows of our hands and from the earth which the Lord God cursed.

30 And Lamech lived after his begetting Noah five hundred sixty-five years, and he begot sons and daughters.

31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred fifty-three years, and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah begot three sons: Sem, Cham, Japheth.

Chapter 6

1 And it happened when men began to become many upon the earth, and daughters were born to them.

2 And the sons of God, seeing the daughters of men, that they were beautiful, took women for themselves from all whom they chose.

3 And the Lord God said: My spirit shall certainly not remain in these men forever, because they are flesh; but their days will be one hundred twenty years.

4 Now the giants were upon the earth in those days and after that, whenever the sons of God would go in to the daughters of men and would beget for themselves; those were the giants of old, the renowned men.

5 And the Lord God, seeing that the evils of men had multiplied upon the earth, and that everyone carefully thinks in his heart upon evil things all the days,

6 then God considered that he had made man upon the earth, and he pondered.

7 And God said: I will wipe away man whom I made from the face of the earth, from man as far as cattle and from creeping creatures as far as the flying creatures of heaven, because I became angry that I made them.

8 But Noah found grace before the Lord God.

9 Now these are the generations of Noah. Noah was a just man, being perfect in his generation; Noah pleased God.

10 And Noah begot three sons: Sem, Cham, Japheth.

11 But the earth was corrupted before God, and the earth was filled with injustice.

12 And the Lord God saw the earth, and it was corrupted, because every flesh corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said to Noah: The time of every man has come before me, because the earth was filled with injustice from them; and behold, I am destroying them and the earth.

14 Therefore make yourself an ark from squared timbers. You shall make the ark into nests and asphalt it inside and outside with asphalt.

15 And thus you shall make the ark: the length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, and the width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

16 Gathering together, you shall make the ark, and you shall finish it to a cubit above. And you shall make the door of the ark from the sides; with lower, second, and third stories you shall make it.

17 But I, behold, am bringing the flood, water upon the earth, to destroy every flesh in which there is a spirit of life beneath heaven; and whatever is upon the earth will come to an end.

18 And I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall enter into the ark, you and your sons and your woman and the women of your sons with you.

19 And from all the cattle and from all the creeping creatures and from all the beasts and from every flesh, two by two from all you shall bring into the ark, so that you may nourish them with yourself; male and female they shall be.

20 From all the birds, the flying creatures according to kind, and from all the cattle according to kind, and from all the creeping creatures that creep upon the earth according to their kind, two by two from all will enter toward you to be nourished with you, male and female.

21 And you shall take for yourself from all the foods which you will eat and gather them to yourself, and it shall be for you and for them to eat.

22 And Noah did all things, as many as the Lord God commanded him; thus he did.

Chapter 7

1 And the Lord God said to Noah: Enter, you and all your house, into the ark, because I saw you as just before me in this generation.

2 And from the clean cattle bring in toward you seven by seven, male and female, but from the cattle that are not clean two by two, male and female,

3 and from the clean flying creatures of heaven seven by seven, male and female, and from the flying creatures that are not clean two by two, male and female, to sustain seed upon all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I am bringing rain upon the earth for forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe away every thing that has arisen which I made from the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did all things, as many as the Lord God commanded him.

6 Now Noah was six hundred years old, and the flood of water came to be upon the earth.

7 And Noah and his sons and his woman and the women of his sons with him entered into the ark because of the water of the flood.

8 And from the flying creatures and from the clean cattle and from the cattle that were not clean and from all the creeping creatures upon the earth,

9 two by two they entered toward Noah into the ark, male and female, just as God commanded him.

10 And it happened after the seven days that the water of the flood came to be upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year in the life of Noah, in the second month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, on that day all the springs of the abyss burst, and the floodgates of heaven were opened,

12 and the rain came upon the earth for forty days and forty nights.

13 On that day Noah, Sem, Cham, Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah’s woman and the three women of his sons with him entered into the ark.

14 And all the beasts according to kind and all the cattle according to kind and every creeping creature moving upon the earth according to kind and every flying creature according to kind

15 entered toward Noah into the ark, two by two from every flesh in which there is a spirit of life.

16 And those entering, male and female from every flesh, entered, just as God commanded Noah. And the Lord God closed the ark from outside him.

17 And the flood came to be for forty days and forty nights upon the earth, and the water multiplied and lifted the ark, and it was raised from the earth.

18 And the water prevailed and multiplied exceedingly upon the earth, and the ark was borne above the water.

19 And the water prevailed exceedingly, exceedingly upon the earth and covered all the high mountains which were beneath heaven.

20 The water was raised fifteen cubits above and covered all the high mountains.

21 And every flesh moving upon the earth died—of the flying creatures and the cattle and the beasts—and every creeping creature moving upon the earth, and every man.

22 And all things that have breath of life, and everyone who was upon dry land, died.

23 And he wiped away every standing thing which was upon the face of all the earth, from man as far as cattle and creeping creatures and the flying creatures of heaven, and they were wiped away from the earth. And Noah alone was left, and those with him in the ark.

24 And the water was raised upon the earth for one hundred fifty days.

Chapter 8

1 And God remembered Noah and all the beasts and all the cattle and all the flying creatures and all the creeping creatures, as many as were with him in the ark; and God brought a wind upon the earth, and the water subsided,

2 and the springs of the abyss and the floodgates of heaven were covered, and the rain from heaven was held back.

3 And the water was receding as it went from the earth; the water receded and diminished after one hundred fifty days.

4 And the ark settled in the seventh month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the water, as it went, diminished until the tenth month; but in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, the heads of the mountains were seen. –

6 And it happened after forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark which he made,

7 and sent out the raven to see whether the water had abated; and having gone out, it did not return until the water dried from the earth.

8 And he sent out the dove after it to see whether the water had abated from the face of the earth;

9 and the dove, not finding a resting place for its feet, returned to him into the ark, because water was over every face of all the earth; and stretching out his hand, he took it and brought it in to himself into the ark.

10 And having waited yet another seven days, he again sent the dove out from the ark.

11 And the dove returned to him toward evening and had an olive leaf, a twig, in its mouth, and Noah knew that the water had abated from the earth.

12 And having waited yet another seven days, he again sent the dove out, and it did not continue to return to him any more. –

13 And it happened in the six hundred first year in the life of Noah, in the first month, on the first of the month, that the water disappeared from the earth; and Noah uncovered the roof of the ark which he made and saw that the water had disappeared from the face of the earth.

14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, the earth was dried.

15 And the Lord God said to Noah, saying:

16 Come out from the ark, you and your woman and your sons and the women of your sons with you,

17 and bring out with yourself all the beasts, as many as are with you, and every flesh from flying creatures as far as cattle, and every creeping creature moving upon the earth; and increase and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah and his woman and his sons and the women of his sons with him came out, 19 and all the beasts and all the cattle and every flying creature and every creeping creature moving upon the earth according to their kind came out from the ark.

20 And Noah built an altar to God and took from all the clean cattle and from all the clean flying creatures and offered whole burnt offerings upon the altar.

21 And the Lord God smelled a scent of fragrance, and the Lord God, having considered, said: I will no longer continue to curse the earth because of the works of men, because the mind of man is carefully set upon evil things from youth; therefore I will no longer continue to strike every living flesh as I did.

22 All the days of the earth, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and spring, day and night, shall not cease.

Chapter 9

1 And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them: Increase and multiply and fill the earth and rule over it.

2 And your terror and fear will be upon all the beasts of the earth and upon all the birds of heaven and upon all the things moving upon the earth and upon all the fish of the sea; I have given them under your hands.

3 And every creeping thing that is living shall be food for you; as the green plants, I have given you all things.

4 Only, flesh with blood of life you shall not eat.

5 For indeed your blood, that of your souls, I will require; from the hand of every beast I will require it, and from the hand of a man, a brother, I will require the soul of man.

6 The one pouring out a man’s blood shall be poured out in exchange for his blood, because in God’s image I made man.

7 But you, increase and multiply and fill the earth and multiply upon it.

8 And God said to Noah and to his sons with him, saying:

9 I, behold, raise up my covenant with you and with your seed after you,

10 and with every living soul with you, from birds and from cattle and all the beasts of the earth, as many as are with you, from all those who came out from the ark.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you, and every flesh will no longer die from the water of the flood, and there will no longer be a flood of water to destroy all the earth. –

12 And the Lord God said to Noah: This is the sign of the covenant which I give between me and you and between every living soul which is with you, into eternal generations.

13 I place my bow in the cloud, and it shall be a sign of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall be, when I gather clouds over the earth, that my bow will be seen in the cloud,

15 and I will remember my covenant which is between me and you and between every living soul in every flesh, and the water will no longer become a flood so as to wipe away every flesh.

16 And my bow will be in the cloud, and I will see it so as to remember an eternal covenant between me and between every living soul in every flesh which is upon the earth.

17 And God said to Noah: This is the sign of the covenant which I set between me and between every flesh which is upon the earth.

18 Now the sons of Noah who came out from the ark were Sem, Cham, Japheth; Cham was the father of Chanaan.

19 These three are the sons of Noah; from these they were scattered over all the earth.

20 And Noah began to be a man cultivating the earth, and he planted a vineyard.

21 And he drank from the wine and became drunk and was stripped naked in his house.

22 And Cham, the father of Chanaan, saw the nakedness of his father and, having gone out, announced it to his two brothers outside.

23 And Sem and Japheth, having taken the garment, placed it upon their two backs and went backward-facing and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward-facing, and they did not see the nakedness of their father.

24 And Noah sobered up from the wine and knew what his younger son had done to him,

25 and he said: Accursed is Chanaan; a servant, a household slave, he shall be to his brothers.

26 And he said: Blessed be the Lord, the God of Sem, and Chanaan shall be his servant.

27 May God broaden for Japheth, and let him dwell in the houses of Sem, and let Chanaan become their servant.

28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred fifty years.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred fifty years, and he died.

Chapter 10

1 Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah—Sem, Cham, Japheth—and sons were born to them after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth: Gamer and Magog and Madai and Jovan and Elisa and Thobel and Mosoch and Thiras.

3 And the sons of Gamer: Aschanaz and Riphath and Thorgama.

4 And the sons of Jovan: Elisa and Tharsis, Kitians, Rhodians.

5 From these the islands of the nations were separated in their land, each according to language, in their tribes and in their nations.

6 And the sons of Cham: Chous and Mesraim, Phoud and Chanaan.

7 And the sons of Chous: Saba and Evila and Sabatha and Regma and Sabacatha. And the sons of Regma: Saba and Dadan.

8 And Chous begot Nebrod. He began to be a giant upon the earth.

9 He was a giant hunter before the Lord God; therefore they will say: Like Nebrod, a giant hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babylon and Orech and Archad and Chalanne in the land of Sennaar.

11 From that land Assour went out and built Nineve and the city Rooboth and Chalach,

12 and Dasem between Nineve and Chalach; this is the great city. –

13 And Mesraim begot the Loudeim and the Enemetiim and the Labiim and the Nephthaliim,

14 and the Patrosoniim and the Chasloniim, from where the Phylistiim went out from there, and the Caphthoriim. –

15 And Chanaan begot Sidon the firstborn and the Chettite,

16 and the Jebousite and the Amorrite and the Gergesite,

17 and the Evite and the Aroukite and the Asennite,

18 and the Aradian and the Samarite and Amathi. And after this the tribes of the Chananeans were scattered,

19 and the boundaries of the Chananeans came to be from Sidon until coming to Gerara and Gaza, until coming to Sodoma and Gomorra, Adama and Seboim, as far as Lasa. –

20 These are the sons of Cham in their tribes, according to their languages, in their countries and in their nations.

21 And to Sem also, the father of all the sons of Eber and brother of Japheth the elder, sons were born.

22 The sons of Sem: Ailam and Assour and Arphaxad and Loud and Aram and Cainan.

23 And the sons of Aram: Os and Oul and Gather and Mosoch.

24 And Arphaxad begot Cainan, and Cainan begot Sala, and Sala begot Eber.

25 And to Eber came to be two sons; the name of the one was Phalek, because in his days the earth was divided, and the name of his brother was Jektan.

26 And Jektan begot Elmodad and Saleph and Asarmoth and Jarach,

27 and Odorra and Aizel and Dekla,

28 and Abimeel and Sabeu,

29 and Ouphir and Evila and Jobab. All these were sons of Jektan.

30 And their dwelling was from Masse until coming to Sophira, a mountain of the east.

31 These are the sons of Sem in their tribes, according to their languages, in their countries and in their nations.

32 These are the tribes of the sons of Noah according to their generations, according to their nations; from these the islands of the nations were scattered upon the earth after the flood.

Chapter 11

1 And the whole earth was one lip, and one voice for all.

2 And it happened, when they moved from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Sennaar and dwelt there.

3 And a man said to his neighbor: Come, let us make bricks and bake them with fire. And the brick became stone for them, and asphalt was their clay.

4 And they said: Come, let us build for ourselves a city and a tower whose head will be as far as heaven, and let us make a name for ourselves before being scattered over the face of all the earth.

5 And the Lord descended to see the city and the tower which the sons of men built.

6 And the Lord said: Behold, one race and one lip belong to all, and this they began to do; and now nothing of all that they may set themselves to do will fail them.

7 Come, and having descended, let us confuse their tongue there, so that each may not hear the voice of his neighbor.

8 And the Lord scattered them from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city and the tower.

9 Because of this its name was called Confusion, because there the Lord confused the lips of all the earth, and from there the Lord God scattered them over the face of all the earth.

10 And these are the generations of Sem. Sem was one hundred years old when he begot Arphaxad, in the second year after the flood.

11 And Sem lived five hundred years after his begetting Arphaxad, and he begot sons and daughters, and he died.

12 And Arphaxad lived one hundred thirty-five years and begot Cainan.

13 And Arphaxad lived four hundred thirty years after his begetting Cainan, and he begot sons and daughters, and he died. And Cainan lived one hundred thirty years and begot Sala. And Cainan lived three hundred thirty years after his begetting Sala, and he begot sons and daughters, and he died.

14 And Sala lived one hundred thirty years and begot Eber.

15 And Sala lived three hundred thirty years after his begetting Eber, and he begot sons and daughters, and he died.

16 And Eber lived one hundred thirty-four years and begot Phalek.

17 And Eber lived three hundred seventy years after his begetting Phalek, and he begot sons and daughters, and he died.

18 And Phalek lived one hundred thirty years and begot Ragau.

19 And Phalek lived two hundred nine years after his begetting Ragau, and he begot sons and daughters, and he died.

20 And Ragau lived one hundred thirty-two years and begot Serouch.

21 And Ragau lived two hundred seven years after his begetting Serouch, and he begot sons and daughters, and he died.

22 And Serouch lived one hundred thirty years and begot Nachor.

23 And Serouch lived two hundred years after his begetting Nachor, and he begot sons and daughters, and he died.

24 And Nachor lived seventy-nine years and begot Thara.

25 And Nachor lived one hundred twenty-nine years after his begetting Thara, and he begot sons and daughters, and he died.

26 And Thara lived seventy years and begot Abram and Nachor and Arran.

27 Now these are the generations of Thara. Thara begot Abram and Nachor and Arran, and Arran begot Lot.

28 And Arran died before Thara his father in the land in which he was born, in the country of the Chaldeans.

29 And Abram and Nachor took women for themselves; the name of Abram’s woman was Sara, and the name of Nachor’s woman was Melcha, daughter of Arran, father of Melcha and father of Jescha.

30 And Sara was barren and did not bear children.

31 And Thara took Abram his son and Lot, son of Arran, son of his son, and Sara his daughter-in-law, woman of Abram his son, and brought them out from the country of the Chaldeans to go into the land of Chanaan; and he came as far as Charran and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Thara in Charran were two hundred five years, and Thara died in Charran.

Chapter 12

1 And the Lord said to Abram: Go out from your land and from your kin and from the house of your father into the land which I may show you;

2 and I will make you into a great nation and bless you and magnify your name, and you shall be blessed;

3 and I will bless those blessing you, and those cursing you I will curse; and in you all the tribes of the earth will be blessed.

4 And Abram went just as the Lord spoke to him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he went out from Charran.

5 And Abram took Sara his woman and Lot the son of his brother and all their possessions, as many as they acquired, and every soul which they acquired in Charran, and they went out to go into the land of Chanaan, and they came into the land of Chanaan. –

6 And Abram traveled through the land along its length as far as the place Sychem, at the high oak; and the Chananeans then dwelt in the land.

7 And the Lord appeared to Abram and said to him: To your seed I will give this land. And there Abram built an altar to the Lord who appeared to him.

8 And he departed from there to the mountain east of Baethel and set up his tent there, Baethel toward the sea and Angai toward the east; and there he built an altar to the Lord and called upon the name of the Lord.

9 And Abram struck camp and, having gone, encamped in the wilderness.

10 And a famine came upon the land, and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there, because the famine grew strong upon the land.

11 And it happened when Abram drew near to enter into Egypt that Abram said to Sara his woman: I know that you are a woman beautiful in face;

12 therefore it will be, whenever the Egyptians see you, that they will say: This is his woman, and they will kill me, but they will preserve you.

13 Therefore say: I am his sister, so that it may be well for me because of you, and my soul will live on account of you.

14 And it happened when Abram entered into Egypt that the Egyptians, seeing the woman, that she was exceedingly beautiful,

15 and the rulers of Pharao saw her and praised her to Pharao and brought her into the house of Pharao.

16 And they treated Abram well because of her, and he came to have sheep and calves and donkeys, male servants and female servants, mules and camels.

17 And God tested Pharao and his house with great and evil tests concerning Sara, the woman of Abram.

18 And Pharao called Abram and said: What is this you did to me, that you did not announce to me that she is your woman?

19 Why did you say: She is my sister? And I took her for myself as a woman. And now, behold, your woman is before you; take her and run away.

20 And Pharao commanded men concerning Abram, to escort him and his woman and all that he had, and Lot with him.

Chapter 13

1 And Abram went up from Egypt, he and his woman and all that was his and Lot with him, into the wilderness.

2 And Abram was exceedingly rich in cattle and silver and gold.

3 And he went from where he came, into the wilderness as far as Baethel, as far as the place where his tent formerly was, between Baethel and Angai,

4 to the place of the altar which he made there at first; and there Abram called upon the name of the Lord.

5 And Lot, who was journeying with Abram, had sheep and cattle and tents.

6 And the land did not have room for them to dwell together, because their possessions were many, and they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a conflict between the shepherds of Abram’s cattle and the shepherds of Lot’s cattle; and the Chananeans and the Pherezites then dwelt in the land.

8 And Abram said to Lot: Let there be no conflict between me and you and between my shepherds and your shepherds, because we are men, brothers.

9 Is not, behold, all the land before you? Separate from me; if you go to the left, I will go to the right, but if you go to the right, I will go to the left.

10 And Lot, lifting his eyes, saw all the region of the Jordan, that all of it was irrigated—before God destroyed Sodoma and Gomorra—like the paradise of God and like the land of Egypt until coming to Zogora.

11 And Lot chose for himself all the region of the Jordan, and Lot departed from the east, and they separated, each from his brother.

12 And Abram dwelt in the land of Chanaan, but Lot dwelt in a city of the region and tented in Sodoma.

13 But the men in Sodoma were evil and exceedingly sinful before God.

14 And God said to Abram after Lot separated from him: Looking up with your eyes, see from the place where you now are toward north and southwest and east and sea;

15 because all the land which you see, I will give it to you and to your seed forever.

16 And I will make your seed like the sand of the earth; if anyone is able to count the sand of the earth, then your seed will be counted.

17 Rise and travel through the land, both its length and its width, because I will give it to you.

18 And Abram, having moved his tent, came and dwelt beside the oak Mamre, which was in Chebron, and there he built an altar to the Lord.

Chapter 14

1 And it happened in the reign of Amarfal king of Sennaar, Arioch king of Ellasar and Chodollogomor king of Ailam and Thargal king of nations

2 made war with Balla king of Sodoma and with Barsa king of Gomorra and Sennaar king of Adama and Symobor king of Seboim and the king of Balak [this is Segor].

3 All these agreed together at the salt ravine [this is the sea of salts].

4 For twelve years they served Chodollogomor, but in the thirteenth year they revolted.

5 And in the fourteenth year Chodollogomor and the kings with him came and cut down the giants in Astaroth Karnain and strong nations together with them and the Ommaeans in the city Saue,

6 and the Chorraeans in the mountains of Seir as far as the terebinth of Pharan, which is in the wilderness.

7 And having returned, they came to the spring of Judgment [this is Kades] and cut down all the rulers of Amalek and the Amorrites dwelling in Asasanthamar.

8 And the king of Sodoma and the king of Gomorra and the king of Adama and the king of Seboim and the king of Balak [this is Segor] went out and drew themselves up against them for war in the salt valley,

9 against Chodollogomor king of Ailam and Thargal king of nations and Amarfal king of Sennaar and Arioch king of Ellasar, the four kings against the five.

10 And the salt valley was wells, wells of asphalt; and the king of Sodoma and the king of Gomorra fled and fell there, but those remaining fled into the hill country.

11 And they took all the horse of Sodoma and Gomorra and all their foods and departed.

12 And they also took Lot, the son of Abram’s brother, and his baggage and went away, for he was dwelling in Sodoma.

13 And one of those who were saved arrived and announced it to Abram the passer. Now he dwelt by the oak of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eschol and brother of Aunan, who were sworn allies of Abram.

14 And Abram, hearing that Lot his brother had been taken captive, counted his own homeborn men, three hundred eighteen, and pursued after them as far as Dan.

15 And he fell upon them at night, he and his servants, and struck them and pursued them as far as Choba, which is to the left of Damascus.

16 And he returned all the horse of Sodoma, and returned Lot his brother and his possessions and the women and the people.

17 And the king of Sodoma went out to meet him—after his returning from the cutting down of Chodollogomor and the kings with him—to the valley Saue [this was the plain of the king].

18 And Melchisedek king of Salem brought out breads and wine; and he was priest of God Most High.

19 And he blessed Abram and said: Blessed is Abram by God Most High, who created heaven and earth,

20 and blessed is God Most High, who delivered your enemies under your hand. And he gave him a tenth from all.

21 And the king of Sodoma said to Abram: Give me the men, but take the horse for yourself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodoma: I will stretch out my hand toward God Most High, who created heaven and earth,

23 if I take from a cord as far as a shoe-fastener from all that is yours, so that you may not say: I made Abram rich;

24 except what the young men ate and the share of the men who journeyed with me—Eschol, Aunan, Mamre—these shall take a share.

Chapter 15

1 And after these words a word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, saying: Do not be afraid, Abram; I defend you. Your reward will be exceedingly great.

2 And Abram says: Master, what will you give me? But I am being released childless, and the son of Masek, my homeborn woman, is this Damascus Eliezer.

3 And Abram said: Since you did not give me seed, my homeborn servant will inherit me.

4 And immediately a voice of the Lord came to him, saying: This one will not inherit you, but one who will come out from you, he will inherit you.

5 And he brought him outside and said to him: Look up now into heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them. And he said: Thus shall your seed be.

6 And Abram believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness.

7 And he said to him: I am God who brought you out from the country of the Chaldeans so as to give you this land to inherit.

8 And he said: Master, Lord, according to what shall I know that I will inherit it?

9 And he said to him: Take for me a three-year-old heifer and a three-year-old goat and a three-year-old ram and a turtledove and a dove.

10 And he took all these for him and divided them in the middle and placed them facing one another, but he did not divide the birds.

11 And birds came down upon the bodies, their divided pieces, and Abram sat together with them.

12 And near sunset a trance fell upon Abram, and behold, a great dark fear was falling upon him.

13 And it was said to Abram: Knowing, you shall know that your seed will be a sojourner in a land not its own, and they will enslave them and harm them and humble them for four hundred years.

14 But the nation which they may serve, I will judge; and after these things they will come out here with much baggage.

15 But you will depart to your fathers with peace, buried in a good old age.

16 And in the fourth generation they will return here, for the sins of the Amorrites have not yet been filled up until now.

17 And when the sun was becoming toward setting, a flame came to be, and behold, a smoking oven and torches of fire which passed between these divided pieces.

18 On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying: To your seed I will give this land, from the river of Egypt as far as the great river, the river Euphrates,

19 the Kainites and the Kenezites and the Kedmoneans,

20 and the Chettites and the Pherezites and the Raphain,

21 and the Amorrites and the Chananeans and the Evites and the Gergesites and the Jebousites.

Chapter 16

1 Now Sara, the woman of Abram, did not bear for him. And she had an Egyptian female servant whose name was Agar.

2 And Sara said to Abram: Behold, the Lord has shut me up from bearing; therefore go in to my female servant, so that you may father children from her. And Abram listened to the voice of Sara.

3 And Sara, the woman of Abram, took Agar the Egyptian, her own female servant—after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Chanaan—and gave her to Abram her man, to him as a woman.

4 And he went in to Agar, and she conceived and saw that she had in the womb, and her mistress was dishonored before her.

5 And Sara said to Abram: I am wronged from you. I gave my female servant into your bosom, but seeing that she had in the womb, I was dishonored before her. May God judge between me and you.

6 And Abram said to Sara: Behold, your female servant is in your hands; deal with her as may be pleasing to you. And Sara harmed her, and she fled from her face.

7 And an angel of the Lord found her at the spring of water in the wilderness, at the spring on the way to Sour.

8 And the angel of the Lord said to her: Agar, female servant of Sara, from where are you coming, and where are you going? And she said: I am fleeing away from the face of Sara my mistress.

9 And the angel of the Lord said to her: Return to your mistress and be humbled under her hands.

10 And the angel of the Lord said to her: Multiplying, I will multiply your seed, and it will not be numbered because of the multitude.

11 And the angel of the Lord said to her: Behold, you have in the womb and will bear a son, and you shall call his name Ismael, because the Lord listened to your humiliation.

12 He will be a rustic man; his hands will be against all, and the hands of all against him, and he will dwell before the face of all his brothers.

13 And Agar called the name of the Lord who was speaking to her: You are God who looked upon me; because she said: For even face-to-face I saw him who appeared to me.

14 Because of this she called the well Well Where I Saw Face-to-face; behold, it is between Kades and Barad.

15 And Agar bore a son for Abram, and Abram called the name of his son, whom Agar bore for him, Ismael.

16 And Abram was eighty-six years old when Agar bore Ismael for Abram.

Chapter 17

1 And Abram came to be ninety-nine years old, and the Lord appeared to Abram and said to him: I am your God; be well pleasing before me and become blameless,

2 and I will set my covenant between me and between you and multiply you exceedingly.

3 And Abram fell upon his face, and God spoke to him, saying:

4 And I, behold, my covenant is with you, and you shall be father of a multitude of nations.

5 And your name will no longer be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham, because I have made you father of many nations.

6 And I will increase you exceedingly, exceedingly, and make you into nations, and kings will come out from you.

7 And I will establish my covenant between me and between you and between your seed after you throughout their generations, as an eternal covenant, to be God of you and of your seed after you.

8 And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land in which you sojourn, all the land of Chanaan, as an eternal possession, and I will be God to them. –

9 And God said to Abraham: But you shall preserve my covenant, you and your seed after you throughout their generations.

10 And this is the covenant which you shall preserve between me and you and between your seed after you throughout their generations: every male of yours shall be circumcised,

11 and you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and it shall be as a sign of a covenant between me and you.

12 And every male child of yours eight days old shall be circumcised throughout your generations, the homeborn of your house and the one bought with silver from any foreigner’s son who is not from your seed.

13 With circumcision shall the homeborn of your house and the one bought with silver be circumcised, and my covenant shall be upon your flesh as an eternal covenant.

14 And an uncircumcised male who will not be circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin on the eighth day—that soul will be utterly destroyed from its race, because he scattered my covenant.

15 And God said to Abraham: Sara your woman—her name shall not be called Sara, but Sarra shall be her name.

16 And I will bless her and give you a child from her; and I will bless him, and he will become nations, and kings of nations will be from him.

17 And Abraham fell upon his face and laughed and said in his mind, saying: Will one be born to a hundred-year-old, and will Sarra, being ninety years old, give birth?

18 And Abraham said to God: Let this Ismael live before you.

19 And God said to Abraham: Yes; behold, Sarra your woman will bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac, and I will establish my covenant with him as an eternal covenant and with his seed after him.

20 And concerning Ismael, behold, I listened to you. Behold, I have blessed him, and I will increase him and multiply him exceedingly. He will beget twelve nations, and I will make him into a great nation.

21 But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarra will bear for you at this time in the other year.

22 And he finished speaking to him, and God ascended from Abraham.

23 And Abraham took Ismael his son and all his homeborn men and all those bought with silver and every male of the men in Abraham’s house and circumcised their foreskins at the time of that day, just as God spoke to him.

24 And Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he circumcised the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ismael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 At the time of that day Abraham and Ismael his son were circumcised;

27 and all the men of his house and the homeborn and those bought with silver from foreign nations, he circumcised them.

Chapter 18

1 And God appeared to him by the oak Mamre while he was sitting at the door of his tent at midday.

2 And looking up with his eyes, he saw, and behold, three men stood above him; and seeing them, he ran from the door of his tent to meet them and bowed to the earth

3 and said: Lord, if indeed I found grace before you, do not pass by your servant.

4 Let water now be taken, and let them wash your feet, and cool yourselves under the tree;

5 and I will take bread, and you will eat, and after this you will pass on into your way, for this reason you turned aside toward your servant. And they said: Do thus, just as you have said.

6 And Abraham hurried to the tent to Sarra and said to her: Hurry and mix three measures of fine flour and make ash-cakes.

7 And Abraham ran to the cattle and took a tender and good calf and gave it to the servant, and he hurried to prepare it.

8 And he took butter and milk and the calf which he prepared and set them before them, and they ate; and he stood beside them under the tree.

9 And he said to him: Where is Sarra your woman? And answering, he said: Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said: Returning, I will come to you at this time, at the appointed hour, and Sarra your woman will have a son. And Sarra heard at the door of the tent, being behind him.

11 And Abraham and Sarra were old, advanced in days, and it had ceased for Sarra to have the things of women.

12 And Sarra laughed within herself, saying: It has not yet happened to me until now, and my lord is old.

13 And the Lord said to Abraham: Why is it that Sarra laughed within herself, saying: Will I then truly give birth? But I have grown old.

14 Is a word powerless with God? At this time, at the appointed hour, I will return to you, and Sarra will have a son.

15 But Sarra denied it, saying: I did not laugh, for she was afraid. And he said: No, but you laughed.

16 And the men, rising up from there, looked down upon the face of Sodoma and Gomorra, and Abraham journeyed with them, escorting them.

17 And the Lord said: Shall I hide from Abraham my servant the things which I am doing?

18 And Abraham, coming to be, will be a great and numerous nation, and in him all the nations of the earth will be blessed.

19 For I knew that he will command his sons and his house after him, and they will guard the ways of the Lord, to do righteousness and judgment, so that the Lord may bring upon Abraham all the things which he spoke to him.

20 And the Lord said: The cry of Sodoma and Gomorra has multiplied, and their sins are exceedingly great;

21 therefore, having gone down, I will see whether they are being completed according to their cry which is coming to me, but if not, so that I may know.

22 And the men, turning away from there, came into Sodoma, but Abraham was standing before the Lord.

23 And Abraham drew near and said: Surely you will not destroy a righteous one together with an impious one, and the righteous one will be as the impious one?

24 If there are fifty righteous ones in the city, will you destroy them? Will you not spare the whole place on account of the fifty righteous ones, if they are in it?

25 In no way will you act according to this word, to kill a righteous one together with an impious one, and the righteous one will be as the impious one. In no way; will you, the one judging all the earth, not do judgment?

26 And the Lord said: If I find in Sodoma fifty righteous ones in the city, I will spare the whole place because of them.

27 And Abraham answered and said: Now I began to speak to the Lord, but I am earth and ashes.

28 But if the fifty righteous ones are diminished by five, will you destroy all the city because of the five? And he said: I will certainly not destroy it if I find forty-five there.

29 And he continued still to speak to him and said: But if forty are found there? And he said: I will certainly not destroy it on account of the forty.

30 And he said: Let it not be, Lord, if I speak: But if thirty are found there? And he said: I will certainly not destroy it if I find thirty there.

31 And he said: Since I have to speak to the Lord: But if twenty are found there? And he said: I will certainly not destroy it on account of the twenty.

32 And he said: Let it not be, Lord, if I speak yet once: But if ten are found there? And he said: I will certainly not destroy it on account of the ten.

33 And the Lord departed when he ceased speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Chapter 19

1 And the two angels came into Sodoma at evening; and Lot was sitting by the gate of Sodoma. And Lot, seeing them, rose up to meet them and bowed with his face to the earth

2 and said: Behold, lords, turn aside into the house of your servant and lodge and wash your feet, and having risen early, you will depart into your way. But they said: No, but we will lodge in the square.

3 And he pressed them strongly, and they turned aside toward him and entered into his house. And he made a drinking feast for them and baked unleavened loaves for them, and they ate.

4 Before they lay down, the men of the city, the Sodomites, surrounded the house, from young man as far as elder, all the people together,

5 and they called Lot out and said to him: Where are the men who entered toward you at night? Bring them out toward us, so that we may have intercourse with them.

6 And Lot went out toward them to the forecourt, and he shut the door behind him.

7 And he said to them: By no means, brothers; do not act wickedly.

8 And I have two daughters who have not known a man; I will bring them out toward you, and use them just as may please you. Only do nothing unjust to these men, for this reason they came under the shelter of my beams.

9 But they said: Stand away there. You alone came to sojourn; surely also to judge judgment? Therefore now we will harm you more than them. And they pressed the man Lot exceedingly and drew near to crush the door.

10 But the men, stretching out their hands, drew Lot inward toward themselves into the house and shut the door of the house.

11 And they struck the men who were at the door of the house with blindness, from small as far as great, and they were exhausted seeking the door.

12 And the men said to Lot: Is there anyone of yours here—sons-in-law or sons or daughters? Or if anyone else of yours is in the city, bring them out from this place,

13 because we are destroying this place, because their cry was raised before the Lord, and the Lord sent us to wipe it out.

14 And Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law who had taken his daughters and said: Rise and go out from this place, because the Lord is wiping out the city. But he seemed to be joking before his sons-in-law.

15 And when dawn was coming, the angels hurried Lot, saying: Arise, take your woman and your two daughters whom you have, and go out, lest you perish together with the lawless deeds of the city.

16 And they were troubled; and the angels seized his hand and the hand of his woman and the hands of his two daughters, when the Lord spared him.

17 And it happened when they brought them outside that they said: Saving, save your own soul. Do not look around to the things behind, nor stand in all the region; save yourself to the mountain, lest you be taken along with them.

18 And Lot said to them: I beg, Lord;

19 since your servant found mercy before you and you magnified your righteousness which you do upon me, for my soul to live, but I will not be able to be brought safely to the mountain, lest the evil things overtake me and I die,

20 behold, this city is near for me to take refuge there, and it is small; there I will be saved. Is it not small? And my soul will live.

21 And he said to him: Behold, I have marveled at your face also in this matter, so as not to overthrow the city concerning which you spoke.

22 Therefore hurry to be saved there, for I will not be able to do a thing until you enter there. Because of this he called the name of that city Segor.

23 The sun came out upon the earth, and Lot entered into Segor,

24 and the Lord rained sulfur and fire upon Sodoma and Gomorra from the Lord out of heaven,

25 and overthrew these cities and all the surrounding region and all those dwelling in the cities and all the things springing up from the earth.

26 And his woman looked to the things behind and became a pillar of salt.

27 And Abraham rose early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the Lord,

28 and he looked upon the face of Sodoma and Gomorra and upon the face of the land of the region and saw, and behold, a flame of the earth was ascending like steam of a furnace.

29 And it happened, when the Lord wiped out all the cities of the surrounding region, that God remembered Abraham and sent Lot out from the midst of the overthrow when the Lord overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt.

30 And Lot went up from Segor and sat in the mountain, and his two daughters with him, for he was afraid to dwell in Segor. And he dwelt in the cave, he and his two daughters with him.

31 And the elder said to the younger: Our father is older, and there is no one upon the earth who will go in toward us, as is fitting to all the earth.

32 Come, and let us give our father wine to drink and lie with him, and let us raise up seed from our father.

33 And they gave their father wine to drink on this night, and the elder went in and lay with her father that night, and he did not know when she lay down and rose.

34 And it happened on the next day that the elder said to the younger: Behold, I lay yesterday with our father. Let us give him wine to drink this night also, and go in and lie with him, and let us raise up seed from our father.

35 And on that night also they gave their father wine to drink, and the younger went in and lay with her father, and he did not know when she lay down and rose.

36 And the two daughters of Lot conceived from their father.

37 And the elder bore a son and called his name Moab, saying: From my father. He is the father of the Moabites until today.

38 And the younger also bore a son and called his name Amman, Son of My Race. He is the father of the Ammanites until today.

Chapter 20

1 And Abraham moved from there into the land toward the southwest and dwelt between Kades and Sour and sojourned in Gerara.

2 And Abraham said concerning Sarra his woman: She is my sister, for he was afraid to say: She is my woman, lest the men of the city kill him because of her. And Abimelech king of Gerara sent and took Sarra.

3 And God entered toward Abimelech in sleep at night and said: Behold, you are dying concerning the woman whom you took, but she is one who lives with a man.

4 But Abimelech had not touched her, and he said: Lord, will you destroy an ignorant and righteous nation?

5 Did he not say to me: She is my sister? And she said to me: He is my brother. In a clean heart and in righteousness of hands I did this.

6 And God said to him in sleep: I also knew that you did this in a clean heart, and I spared you so that you would not sin against me; because of this I did not permit you to touch her.

7 But now give the woman back to the man, because he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live; but if you do not give her back, know that you will die, you and all that is yours.

8 And Abimelech rose early in the morning and called all his servants and spoke all these words into their ears, and all the men were exceedingly afraid.

9 And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him: What is this you did to us? Did we perhaps sin against you, that you brought upon me and upon my kingdom a great sin? A deed which no one will do, you have done to me.

10 And Abimelech said to Abraham: What did you see that you did this?

11 And Abraham said: For I said: Perhaps there is no reverence for God in this place, and they will kill me on account of my woman.

12 For indeed she truly is my sister from my father, but not from my mother; and she became my woman.

13 And it happened when God brought me out from my father’s house that I said to her: This righteousness you shall do upon me: in every place into which we may enter there, say of me: He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech took one thousand didrachmas, sheep and calves and male servants and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and he gave Sarra his woman back to him.

15 And Abimelech said to Abraham: Behold, my land is before you; dwell wherever may please you.

16 And to Sarra he said: Behold, I have given one thousand didrachmas to your brother; these shall be for you as honor of your face and for all the women with you; and speak truth in all things.

17 And Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his woman and his female servants, and they bore children;

18 because, shutting, the Lord shut every womb from outside in the house of Abimelech on account of Sarra, the woman of Abraham.

Chapter 21

1 And the Lord visited Sarra, just as he said, and the Lord did to Sarra just as he spoke,

2 and having conceived, Sarra bore a son for Abraham in his old age, at the time just as the Lord spoke to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son who came to be for him, whom Sarra bore for him, Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised Isaac on the eighth day, just as God commanded him.

5 And Abraham was one hundred years old when Isaac his son came to be for him.

6 And Sarra said: The Lord made laughter for me; for whoever may hear will rejoice with me.

7 And she said: Who will announce to Abraham that Sarra nurses a child? For I bore a son in my old age.

8 And the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great reception on the day Isaac his son was weaned.

9 And Sarra saw the son of Agar the Egyptian, who came to be for Abraham, playing with Isaac her son,

10 and she said to Abraham: Cast out this female servant and her son, for the son of this female servant will not inherit with my son Isaac.

11 And the word appeared exceedingly hard before Abraham concerning his son.

12 And God said to Abraham: Let the word not be hard before you concerning the child and concerning the female servant. As many things as Sarra may say to you, listen to her voice, because in Isaac seed will be called for you.

13 And the son of this female servant also, I will make him into a great nation, because he is your seed.

14 And Abraham rose in the morning and took breads and a skin of water and gave them to Agar and placed them and the child upon her shoulder and sent her away. And having departed, she wandered in the wilderness by the Well of the Oath.

15 And the water failed from the skin, and she threw the child beneath one fir tree.

16 And having departed, she sat opposite him far away, about a bowshot, for she said: I shall certainly not see the death of my child. And she sat opposite him, and the child, crying aloud, wept.

17 And God listened to the voice of the child from the place where he was, and an angel of God called Agar from heaven and said to her: What is it, Agar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of your child from the place where he is.

18 Rise, take the child and hold him with your hand, for I will make him into a great nation.

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of living water and went and filled the skin with water and gave the child a drink.

20 And God was with the child, and he grew. And he dwelt in the wilderness and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Pharan, and his mother took a woman for him from the land of Egypt.

22 And it happened at that time that Abimelech and Ochozath his bride-conductor and Phicol the commander-in-chief of his force said to Abraham, saying: God is with you in all things which you may do.

23 Now therefore swear to me by God that you will not wrong me nor my seed nor my name, but according to the righteousness which I did with you, you will do with me and with the land in which you sojourned.

24 And Abraham said: I will swear.

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech concerning the wells of water which Abimelech’s servants took away.

26 And Abimelech said to him: I did not know who did this thing, nor did you announce it to me, nor did I hear except today.

27 And Abraham took sheep and calves and gave them to Abimelech, and both made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the sheep alone.

29 And Abimelech said to Abraham: What are these seven ewe lambs of the sheep which you set alone?

30 And Abraham said: You shall take these seven ewe lambs from me so that they may be a testimony for me that I dug this well.

31 Because of this he named the name of that place Well of the Oath, because there both swore.

32 And they made a covenant at the Well of the Oath. And Abimelech and Ochozath his bride-conductor and Phicol the commander-in-chief of his force rose and returned into the land of the Phylistiim.

33 And Abraham planted a field at the Well of the Oath and there called upon the name of the Lord, Eternal God.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the land of the Phylistiim many days.

Chapter 22

1 And it happened after these words that God was testing Abraham and said to him: Abraham, Abraham. And he said: Behold, I am here.

2 And he said: Take your beloved son, whom you loved, Isaac, and go into the high land and offer him there as a whole burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I may tell you.

3 And Abraham rose in the morning and saddled his donkey; and he took with himself two servants and Isaac his son, and having split wood for a whole burnt offering, he rose and went and came to the place which God told him.

4 And on the third day Abraham looked up with his eyes and saw the place from far away.

5 And Abraham said to his servants: Sit here with the donkey, but I and the child will go through as far as there, and having worshiped, we will return to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the whole burnt offering and placed it upon Isaac his son; and he also took the fire in hand and the knife, and the two went together.

7 And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, saying: Father. And he said: What is it, child? And he said: Behold, the fire and the wood; where is the sheep for a whole burnt offering?

8 And Abraham said: God will see for himself a sheep for a whole burnt offering, child. And both went together

9 and came to the place which God told him. And there Abraham built an altar and placed the wood, and having bound together the feet of Isaac his son, he placed him upon the altar above the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched out his hand to take the knife to slaughter his son.

11 And an angel of the Lord called him from heaven and said to him: Abraham, Abraham. And he said: Behold, I am here.

12 And he said: Do not lay your hand upon the child, nor do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, you, and did not spare your beloved son because of me.

13 And Abraham looked up with his eyes and saw, and behold, one ram held in a plant Sabek by the horns. And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it as a whole burnt offering in place of Isaac his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place The Lord Saw, so that they may say today: In the mountain the Lord appeared.

15 And an angel of the Lord called Abraham a second time from heaven,

16 saying: By myself I swore, says the Lord, because you did this thing and did not spare your beloved son because of me,

17 surely indeed, blessing, I will bless you, and multiplying, I will multiply your seed like the stars of heaven and like the sand beside the lip of the sea, and your seed will inherit the cities of the adversaries.

18 And in your seed all the nations of the earth will be blessed, because you listened to my voice.

19 And Abraham returned to his servants, and rising, they went together to the Well of the Oath. And Abraham dwelt at the Well of the Oath.

20 And it happened after these words that it was announced to Abraham, saying: Behold, Melcha also has borne sons to Nachor your brother:

21 Ox the firstborn and Baux his brother and Kamouel the father of Syrians,

22 and Chasad and Azau and Phaldas and Jedlaph and Bathouel;

23 and Bathouel begot Rebekka. These are eight sons whom Melcha bore to Nachor, the brother of Abraham.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Rheuma, also bore Tabek and Gaam and Tochos and Mocha.

Chapter 23

1 And the life of Sarra was one hundred twenty-seven years.

2 And Sarra died in the city Arbok, which is in the hollow [this is Chebron], in the land of Chanaan. And Abraham came to lament Sarra and mourn.

3 And Abraham rose from his dead body and said to the sons of Chet, saying:

4 I am a sojourner and a stranger with you; therefore give me a possession for a tomb among you, and I will bury my dead away from me.

5 And the sons of Chet answered Abraham, saying:

6 No, lord; but hear us. You are a king from God among us; bury your dead in our chosen tombs, for no one of us will withhold his tomb from you so as to bury your dead there.

7 And Abraham rose and bowed to the people of the land, the sons of Chet,

8 and Abraham spoke to them, saying: If you have it in your soul that I bury my dead away from my face, hear me and speak concerning me to Ephron the son of Saar,

9 and let him give me the double cave which is his, which is at the edge of his field; for silver of its worth, let him give it to me among you as a possession for a tomb.

10 And Ephron was sitting in the midst of the sons of Chet; and Ephron the Chettite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Chet and of all those entering into the city, saying:

11 Be with me, lord, and hear me. I give you the field and the cave which is in it; before all my fellow citizens I have given it to you. Bury your dead.

12 And Abraham bowed before the people of the land

13 and said to Ephron in the ears of the people of the land: Since you are for me, hear me; take the silver of the field from me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying:

15 No, lord; I have heard. Land worth four hundred didrachmas of silver—what might this be between me and you? But you, bury your dead.

16 And Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham paid Ephron the silver which he spoke in the ears of the sons of Chet, four hundred didrachmas of silver approved by merchants.

17 And the field of Ephron which was in the double cave, which is opposite Mamre, stood confirmed—the field and the cave which was in it and every tree which was in the field, which is within its boundaries all around—

18 as a possession for Abraham before the sons of Chet and all those entering into the city.

19 After these things Abraham buried Sarra his woman in the cave of the double field, which is opposite Mamre [this is Chebron], in the land of Chanaan.

20 And the field and the cave which was in it were confirmed for Abraham as a possession for a tomb from the sons of Chet.

Chapter 24

1 And Abraham was old, advanced in days, and the Lord blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his house, who ruled all that was his: Place your hand under my thigh,

3 and I adjure you by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you do not take a woman for my son Isaac from the daughters of the Chananeans among whom I dwell,

4 but you shall go into my land, where I came to be, and into my tribe, and from there you shall take a woman for my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said to him: Perhaps the woman is not willing to go with me back into this land; shall I return your son into the land from where you came out?

6 And Abraham said to him: Attend to yourself, lest you return my son there.

7 The Lord, the God of heaven and the God of earth, who took me from the house of my father and from the land in which I was born, who spoke to me and swore to me, saying: To you and to your seed I will give this land—he will send his angel before you, and from there you shall take a woman for my son Isaac.

8 But if the woman is not willing to go with you into this land, you shall be clean from this oath; only do not return my son there.

9 And the servant placed his hand under the thigh of Abraham his lord and swore to him concerning this word.

10 And the servant took ten camels from the camels of his lord and some of all the good things of his lord with himself, and rising, he went into Mesopotamia, into the city of Nachor.

11 And he made the camels lie outside the city beside the well of water toward evening, when the women drawing water go out.

12 And he said: Lord, God of my lord Abraham, prosper me before you today and do mercy with my lord Abraham.

13 Behold, I am standing at the spring of water, and the daughters of those dwelling in the city are going out to draw water,

14 and it shall be that the maiden to whom I may say: Incline your jug so that I may drink, and she may say to me: Drink, and I will give your camels a drink until they cease drinking—this one you prepared for your servant Isaac, and by this I will know that you did mercy to my lord Abraham.

15 And it happened before he finished speaking in his mind that, behold, Rebekka came out, who was born to Bathouel, son of Melcha the woman of Nachor, the brother of Abraham, having the jug upon her shoulders.

16 And the maiden was exceedingly beautiful in appearance; she was a virgin, a man had not known her. And having descended to the spring, she filled the jug and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her and said: Give me a little water to drink from your jug.

18 And she said: Drink, lord. And she hurried and lowered the jug upon her arm and gave him a drink,

19 until he ceased drinking. And she said: I will also draw water for your camels until they all drink.

20 And she hurried and emptied the jug into the watering trough and ran again to the well to draw and drew water for all the camels.

21 And the man was studying her and remaining silent, to know whether the Lord had prospered his way or not.

22 And it happened when all the camels ceased drinking that the man took gold earrings, each a drachma in weight, and two bracelets for her hands, ten gold pieces in their weight.

23 And he questioned her and said: Whose daughter are you? Announce it to me. Is there a place with your father for us to lodge?

24 And she said to him: I am a daughter of Bathouel, the son of Melcha, whom she bore to Nachor.

25 And she said to him: There is both much straw and fodder with us, and a place to lodge.

26 And the man, being well pleased, worshiped the Lord

27 and said: Blessed is the Lord, the God of my lord Abraham, who did not forsake his righteousness and truth toward my lord. The Lord prospered me into the house of my lord’s brother.

28 And the girl ran and announced these words in the house of her mother.

29 And Rebekka had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran outside to the man at the spring.

30 And it happened when he saw the earrings and the bracelets upon the hands of his sister, and when he heard the words of Rebekka his sister, saying: Thus the man spoke to me, that he came to the man as he was standing by the camels at the spring,

31 and said to him: Come, enter. Blessed is the Lord. Why are you standing outside? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels.

32 And the man entered into the house and unsaddled the camels. And he gave straw and fodder to the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men with him.

33 And he set breads before them to eat. And he said: I shall certainly not eat until I speak my words. And they said: Speak.

34 And he said: I am a servant of Abraham.

35 And the Lord blessed my lord exceedingly, and he was exalted; and he gave him sheep and calves, silver and gold, male servants and female servants, camels and donkeys.

36 And Sarra, the woman of my lord, bore one son to my lord after he grew old, and he gave him as many things as were his.

37 And my lord made me swear, saying: You shall not take a woman for my son from the daughters of the Chananeans among whom I sojourn in their land, 38 but you shall go into the house of my father and into my tribe and from there take a woman for my son.

39 And I said to my lord: Perhaps the woman will not go with me.

40 And he said to me: The Lord, before whom I was well pleasing, will send his angel with you and prosper your way, and you shall take a woman for my son from my tribe and from the house of my father.

41 Then you shall be innocent from my curse; for whenever you come into my tribe and they do not give her to you, then you shall be innocent from my oath.

42 And coming today to the spring, I said: Lord, God of my lord Abraham, if you are prospering my way upon which I am now going,

43 behold, I am standing at the spring of water, and the daughters of the men of the city will go out to draw water, and it shall be that the maiden to whom I may say: Give me a little water to drink from your jug,

44 and she may say to me: You also drink, and I will draw water for your camels—this is the woman whom the Lord prepared for his own attendant Isaac, and by this I will know that you have done mercy to my lord Abraham.

45 And it happened before I finished speaking in my mind that immediately Rebekka came out, having the jug upon her shoulders, and went down to the spring and drew water. And I said to her: Give me a drink.

46 And hurrying, she lowered her jug from herself and said: You drink, and I will give your camels a drink. And I drank, and she gave my camels a drink.

47 And I asked her and said: Whose daughter are you? And she said: I am the daughter of Bathouel, the son of Nachor, whom Melcha bore to him. And I placed the earrings upon her and the bracelets around her hands.

48 And being well pleased, I worshiped the Lord and blessed the Lord, the God of my lord Abraham, who prospered me in a way of truth, to take the daughter of my lord’s brother for his son.

49 If therefore you are doing mercy and righteousness toward my lord, announce it to me; but if not, announce it to me, so that I may turn to the right or to the left.

50 And Laban and Bathouel answered and said: This command came out from the Lord; therefore we will not be able to speak against you, evil for good.

51 Behold, Rebekka is before you; take her and run away, and let her be a woman for your lord’s son, just as the Lord spoke.

52 And it happened when the servant of Abraham heard these words that he worshiped the Lord upon the earth.

53 And the servant brought out vessels of silver and gold and clothing and gave them to Rebekka, and he gave gifts to her brother and her mother.

54 And he and the men who were with him ate and drank and lay down. And rising in the morning, he said: Send me out, so that I may depart to my lord.

55 But her brothers and her mother said: Let the maiden remain with us about ten days, and after these things she will depart.

56 But he said to them: Do not hold me back, and the Lord has prospered my way; send me out, so that I may depart to my lord.

57 And they said: Let us call the girl and ask her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekka and said to her: Will you go with this man? And she said: I will go.

59 And they sent out Rebekka their sister and her possessions and the servant of Abraham and those with him.

60 And they blessed Rebekka their sister and said to her: You are our sister; become thousands of myriads, and let your seed inherit the cities of the adversaries.

61 And Rebekka and her maidens rose and mounted the camels and went with the man, and the servant took Rebekka and departed.

62 And Isaac was journeying through the wilderness by the Well of the Vision; and he dwelt in the land toward the southwest.

63 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field toward evening, and looking up with his eyes, he saw camels coming.

64 And Rebekka, looking up with her eyes, saw Isaac and jumped down from the camel

65 and said to the servant: Who is that man journeying in the field to meet us? And the servant said: He is my lord. And she took the veil and wrapped herself.

66 And the servant recounted to Isaac all the things which he did.

67 And Isaac entered into the house of his mother and took Rebekka, and she became his woman, and he loved her; and Isaac was comforted concerning Sarra his mother.

Chapter 25

1 And Abraham, in addition, took a woman whose name was Chettoura.

2 And she bore him Zemran and Jexan and Madan and Madiam and Jesbok and Soue.

3 And Jexan begot Saba and Thaiman and Daidan; and the sons of Daidan came to be Ragouel and Nabdeel and Assouriim and Latousiim and Loomim.

4 And the sons of Madiam: Gaipha and Apher and Enoch and Abira and Elraga. All these were sons of Chettoura.

5 And Abraham gave all his possessions to Isaac his son,

6 and Abraham gave gifts to the sons of his concubines and sent them away from Isaac his son while he was still living, toward the east, into a land of the east.

7 And these are the years of the days of Abraham’s life, as many as he lived: one hundred seventy-five years.

8 And failing, Abraham died in a good old age, old and full of days, and was added to his people.

9 And Isaac and Ismael his sons buried him in the double cave, in the field of Ephron the son of Saar the Chettite, which is opposite Mamre,

10 the field and the cave which Abraham acquired from the sons of Chet; there they buried Abraham and Sarra his woman.

11 And it happened after Abraham died that God blessed Isaac his son; and Isaac dwelt beside the Well of the Vision.

12 Now these are the generations of Ismael the son of Abraham, whom Agar the female servant of Sarra bore for Abraham,

13 and these are the names of the sons of Ismael, by name according to his generations: the firstborn of Ismael, Nabaioth, and Kedar and Nabdeel and Massam,

14 and Masma and Idouma and Masse,

15 and Choddad and Thaiman and Jetour and Naphes and Kedma.

16 These are the sons of Ismael, and these are their names in their tents and in their settlements: twelve rulers according to their nations.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ismael: one hundred thirty-seven years; and failing, he died and was added to his race.

18 And he dwelt from Evilat as far as Sour, which is opposite Egypt, until coming toward the Assyrians; before the face of all his brothers he dwelt.

19 And these are the generations of Isaac the son of Abraham. Abraham begot Isaac.

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekka, daughter of Bathouel the Syrian from Mesopotamia and sister of Laban the Syrian, as a woman for himself.

21 And Isaac entreated the Lord concerning Rebekka his woman, because she was barren; and God listened to him, and Rebekka his woman conceived.

22 And the children were leaping within her; and she said: If it is going to be thus for me, why is this to me? And she went to inquire from the Lord,

23 and the Lord said to her: Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples will be separated from your belly; and a people will surpass a people, and the greater will serve the lesser.

24 And the days for her to give birth were fulfilled, and behold, there were twins in her belly.

25 And the firstborn son came out reddish, all hairy like a hide; and he named his name Esau.

26 And after this his brother came out, and his hand was holding the heel of Esau; and he called his name Jacob. And Isaac was sixty years old when Rebekka bore them.

27 And the young men grew, and Esau was a man knowing how to hunt, a rustic, but Jacob was a simple man dwelling in a house.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because his game was food for him; but Rebekka loved Jacob.

29 And Jacob boiled a boiled dish; and Esau came from the field, failing,

30 and Esau said to Jacob: Give me a taste from this red boiled dish, because I am failing. Because of this his name was called Edom.

31 And Jacob said to Esau: Give me your birthright today.

32 And Esau said: Behold, I am going to die, and why is this birthright for me?

33 And Jacob said to him: Swear to me today. And he swore to him; and Esau gave the birthright to Jacob.

34 And Jacob gave Esau bread and a boiled dish of lentils, and he ate and drank and rose and went away; and Esau treated the birthright as worthless.

Chapter 26

1 And a famine came upon the land besides the former famine which came in the time of Abraham; and Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Phylistiim in Gerara.

2 And the Lord appeared to him and said: Do not go down into Egypt; but dwell in the land which I may tell you.

3 And sojourn in this land, and I will be with you and bless you; for to you and to your seed I will give all this land, and I will establish my oath which I swore to Abraham your father.

4 And I will multiply your seed like the stars of heaven and give to your seed all this land, and in your seed all the nations of the earth will be blessed,

5 because Abraham your father listened to my voice and guarded my directives and my commandments and my ordinances and my laws.

6 And Isaac dwelt in Gerara.

7 And the men of the place questioned him concerning Rebekka his woman, and he said: She is my sister, for he was afraid to say: She is my woman, lest the men of the place kill him concerning Rebekka, because she was beautiful in appearance.

8 And he spent a long time there; and Abimelech king of Gerara, peering through the window, saw Isaac playing with Rebekka his woman.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac and said to him: Then indeed she is your woman; why is it that you said: She is my sister? And Isaac said to him: For I said: Lest I die because of her.

10 And Abimelech said to him: What is this you did to us? One of my race almost lay with your woman, and you brought ignorance upon us.

11 And Abimelech commanded all his people, saying: Everyone who touches this man or his woman will be liable to death.

12 And Isaac sowed in that land and found in that year barley bearing a hundredfold; and the Lord blessed him.

13 And the man was exalted and, proceeding, became greater until he became exceedingly great.

14 And he came to have livestock of sheep and livestock of cattle and much agriculture. And the Phylistiim envied him,

15 and all the wells which the servants of his father dug in the time of his father, the Phylistiim stopped them and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said to Isaac: Depart from us, because you became exceedingly more powerful than we.

17 And Isaac departed from there and lodged in the ravine of Gerara and dwelt there.

18 And again Isaac dug the wells of water which the servants of Abraham his father dug and the Phylistiim stopped after Abraham his father died, and he named names for them according to the names which Abraham his father named.

19 And the servants of Isaac dug in the ravine of Gerara and found there a well of living water.

20 And the shepherds of Gerara fought with the shepherds of Isaac, asserting that the water was theirs; and he called the name of the well Injustice, for they wronged him.

21 And Isaac departed from there and dug another well, and they also disputed concerning that one; and he named its name Enmity.

22 And he departed from there and dug another well, and they did not fight concerning it; and he named its name Broad Place, saying: Because now the Lord has widened for us and increased us upon the earth.

23 And he went up from there to the Well of the Oath.

24 And the Lord appeared to him on that night and said: I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not be afraid, for I am with you and have blessed you, and I will multiply your seed because of Abraham your father.

25 And he built an altar there and called upon the name of the Lord and pitched his tent there; and the servants of Isaac dug a well there.

26 And Abimelech went to him from Gerara, and Ochozath his bride-conductor and Phicol the commander-in-chief of his force.

27 And Isaac said to them: Why did you come to me? But you hated me and sent me away from you.

28 And they said: Seeing, we have seen that the Lord was with you, and we said: Let a curse come to be between us and between you, and we will make a covenant with you,

29 that you will not do evil with us, since we did not abhor you, and in the manner that we treated you well and sent you away with peace. And now you are blessed by the Lord.

30 And he made a reception for them, and they ate and drank.

31 And rising in the morning, a man swore to his neighbor, and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him with safety.

32 And it happened on that day that the servants of Isaac arrived and announced to him concerning the well which they dug, and they said: We did not find water.

33 And he called it Oath; because of this the name of the city is Well of the Oath until today.

34 And Esau was forty years old and took as a woman Joudin the daughter of Beer the Chettite and Basemmath the daughter of Ailon the Evaean.

35 And they were quarreling with Isaac and Rebekka.

Chapter 27

1 And it happened after Isaac grew old and his eyes were dulled from seeing that he called Esau his elder son and said to him: My son. And he said: Behold, I am here.

2 And he said: Behold, I have grown old and do not know the day of my end.

3 Now therefore take your equipment, both the quiver and the bow, and go out into the field and hunt game for me,

4 and make delicacies for me, as I love, and bring them to me so that I may eat, that my soul may bless you before I die.

5 And Rebekka heard Isaac speaking to Esau his son. And Esau went into the field to hunt game for his father.

6 And Rebekka said to Jacob her lesser son: See, I heard your father speaking to Esau your brother, saying:

7 Bring me game and make delicacies for me, and having eaten, I will bless you before the Lord before I die.

8 Now therefore, son, listen to me, according to the things which I command you,

9 and having gone to the sheep, take for me from there two tender and good kids, and I will make them into delicacies for your father, as he loves,

10 and you shall bring them in to your father, and he will eat, so that your father may bless you before he dies.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekka his mother: Esau my brother is a hairy man, but I am a smooth man.

12 Perhaps my father will feel me, and I will be before him as one treating him with contempt, and I will bring a curse upon myself and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said to him: Your curse be upon me, child; only listen to my voice, and having gone, bring them to me.

14 And having gone, he took and brought them to his mother, and his mother made delicacies just as his father loved.

15 And Rebekka took the good robe of Esau her elder son, which was with her in the house, and clothed Jacob her younger son,

16 and she placed the skins of the kids upon his arms and upon the bare parts of his neck,

17 and she gave the delicacies and the breads which she made into the hands of Jacob her son.

18 And he brought them in to his father. And he said: Father. And he said: Behold, I am here. Who are you, child?

19 And Jacob said to his father: I am Esau your firstborn. I did just as you spoke to me. Rise, sit and eat from my game, so that your soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said to his son: What is this which you found quickly, O child? And he said: That which the Lord your God delivered before me.

21 And Isaac said to Jacob: Draw near to me, and I will feel you, child, whether you are my son Esau or not.

22 And Jacob drew near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said: The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he did not recognize him, for his hands were hairy like the hands of Esau his brother; and he blessed him.

24 And he said: Are you my son Esau? And he said: I am.

25 And he said: Bring it near to me, and I will eat from your game, child, so that my soul may bless you. And he brought it near to him, and he ate; and he brought wine in to him, and he drank.

26 And Isaac his father said to him: Draw near to me and kiss me, child.

27 And drawing near, he kissed him, and he smelled the scent of his garments and blessed him and said: Behold, the scent of my son is like the scent of a full field which the Lord blessed.

28 And may God give you from the dew of heaven and from the richness of the earth and a multitude of grain and wine.

29 And let nations serve you, and rulers will bow to you; and become lord of your brother, and the sons of your father will bow to you. The one cursing you is accursed, but the one blessing you is blessed.

30 And it happened after Isaac ceased blessing Jacob his son, and it happened as Jacob went out from the face of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came from the hunt.

31 And he also made delicacies and brought them to his father and said to his father: Let my father rise and eat from the game of his son, so that your soul may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said to him: Who are you? And he said: I am your firstborn son Esau.

33 And Isaac was astonished with exceedingly great astonishment and said: Who then is the one who hunted game for me and brought it in to me? And I ate from all before you came and blessed him, and let him be blessed.

34 And it happened when Esau heard the words of Isaac his father that he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter voice and said: Bless me also, father.

35 And he said to him: Your brother came with deceit and took your blessing.

36 And he said: Rightly was his name called Jacob, for he has heeled me already, this second time; he has taken both my birthright and now my blessing. And Esau said to his father: Did you not leave a blessing for me, father?

37 And Isaac answered and said to Esau: If I made him your lord and made all his brothers his household servants and supported him with grain and wine, then what shall I do for you, child?

38 And Esau said to his father: Is there only one blessing with you, father? Bless me also, father. And when Isaac was pierced, Esau cried aloud and wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered and said to him: Behold, from the richness of the earth shall your dwelling be, and from the dew of heaven above.

40 And upon your sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother; but it will be that whenever you take him down, you will loosen his yoke from your neck.

41 And Esau held a grudge against Jacob concerning the blessing with which his father blessed him; and Esau said in his mind: Let the days of mourning for my father draw near, so that I may kill Jacob my brother.

42 And the words of Esau her elder son were announced to Rebekka, and sending, she called Jacob her younger son and said to him: Behold, Esau your brother threatens you, to kill you.

43 Now therefore, child, listen to my voice and rise and flee into Mesopotamia to Laban my brother, into Charran,

44 and dwell with him some days until the wrath

45 and the anger of your brother turn away from you, and he forgets the things you have done to him, and sending, I will summon you from there, lest I be made childless from both of you in one day.

46 And Rebekka said to Isaac: I am vexed with my life because of the daughters of the sons of Chet; if Jacob takes a woman from the daughters of this land, why should I live?

Chapter 28

1 And Isaac summoned Jacob and blessed him and commanded him, saying: You shall not take a woman from the daughters of Chanaan.

2 Rise and flee into Mesopotamia, into the house of Bathouel the father of your mother, and take for yourself from there a woman from the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.

3 And may my God bless you and increase you and multiply you, and you shall become congregations of nations.

4 And may he give you the blessing of Abraham my father, to you and to your seed after you, to inherit the land of your sojourning which God gave to Abraham.

5 And Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went into Mesopotamia to Laban the son of Bathouel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekka, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

6 And Esau saw that Isaac blessed Jacob and that he went away into Mesopotamia of Syria to take for himself a woman from there, and that when he blessed him he commanded him, saying: You shall not take a woman from the daughters of Chanaan,

7 and that Jacob listened to his father and his mother and went into Mesopotamia of Syria.

8 And Esau saw that the daughters of Chanaan were evil before Isaac his father,

9 and Esau went to Ismael and took Maeleth, daughter of Ismael the son of Abraham and sister of Nabaioth, in addition to his women, as a woman.

10 And Jacob went out from the Well of the Oath and went into Charran.

11 And he met a place and slept there, for the sun set; and he took from the stones of the place and placed one toward his head and slept in that place.

12 And he dreamed, and behold, a ladder fixed in the earth, whose head reached into heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending upon it.

13 And the Lord had stood upon it and said: I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. Do not be afraid. The land upon which you sleep, I will give it to you and to your seed.

14 And your seed will be like the sand of the earth and will be broadened toward the sea and toward the southwest and toward the north and toward the east, and in you all the tribes of the earth will be blessed, and in your seed.

15 And behold, I am with you, guarding you throughout every way wherever you may go, and I will return you into this land, because I shall certainly not abandon you until I do all the things which I spoke to you.

16 And Jacob awoke from his sleep and said: The Lord is in this place, but I did not know.

17 And he was afraid and said: How fearsome is this place. This is none other than a house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose in the morning and took the stone which he placed there toward his head and set it as a pillar and poured oil upon its top.

19 And Jacob called the name of that place House of God; and Oulamlous was formerly the name of the city.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying: If the Lord God is with me and guards me on this way which I am going and gives me bread to eat and a garment to put around myself,

21 and returns me with safety into the house of my father, then the Lord shall be God for me,

22 and this stone which I set as a pillar shall be a house of God for me, and of all the things which you may give me, I will tithe a tenth of them to you.

Chapter 29

1 And Jacob, lifting his feet, went into a land of the east toward Laban the son of Bathouel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekka, mother of Jacob and Esau.

2 And he sees, and behold, a well in the plain, and there were three flocks of sheep resting upon it; for from that well they gave the flocks a drink, and there was a large stone upon the mouth of the well.

3 And all the flocks would be gathered there, and they would roll the stone from the mouth of the well and give the sheep a drink and restore the stone upon the mouth of the well to its place.

4 And Jacob said to them: Brothers, from where are you? And they said: We are from Charran.

5 And he said to them: Do you know Laban the son of Nachor? And they said: We know him.

6 And he said to them: Is he healthy? And they said: He is healthy. And behold, Rachel his daughter was coming with the sheep.

7 And Jacob said: There is still much day; it is not yet time for the cattle to be gathered. Give the sheep a drink and depart and pasture them.

8 And they said: We will not be able until all the shepherds are gathered and they roll the stone from the mouth of the well, and then we will give the sheep a drink.

9 While he was still speaking to them, Rachel the daughter of Laban was also coming with the sheep of her father, for she pastured the sheep of her father.

10 And it happened when Jacob saw Rachel, daughter of Laban the brother of his mother, and the sheep of Laban the brother of his mother, that Jacob drew near and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well and gave the sheep of Laban, the brother of his mother, a drink.

11 And Jacob kissed Rachel and, crying out with his voice, wept.

12 And he announced to Rachel that he was the brother of her father and that he was a son of Rebekka, and running, she announced these words to her father.

13 And it happened when Laban heard the name of Jacob, the son of his sister, that he ran to meet him and embraced him and kissed him and brought him into his house. And he recounted to Laban all these words.

14 And Laban said to him: You are from my bones and from my flesh. And he was with him a month of days.

15 And Laban said to Jacob: Because you are my brother, you will not serve me for nothing; announce to me what your wage is.

16 And Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leia, and the name of the younger Rachel.

17 And the eyes of Leia were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in form and lovely in appearance.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel and said: I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter.

19 And Laban said to him: It is better for me to give her to you than for me to give her to another man; dwell with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they were before him like a few days because of his loving her. –

21 And Jacob said to Laban: Give back my woman, for my days have been fulfilled, so that I may go in to her.

22 And Laban gathered all the men of the place and made a wedding.

23 And evening came, and Laban took Leia his daughter and brought her in to Jacob, and Jacob went in to her.

24 And Laban gave Zelpha his female servant to Leia his daughter as her female servant.

25 And morning came, and behold, it was Leia. And Jacob said to Laban: What is this you did to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? And why did you deceive me?

26 And Laban said: It is not thus in our place, to give the younger before the elder.

27 Therefore complete the seven days of this one, and I will also give you this one in exchange for the labor which you will work with me for yet another seven years.

28 And Jacob did thus and completed the seven days of this one, and Laban gave him Rachel his daughter as his woman.

29 And Laban gave Balla his female servant to Rachel his daughter as her female servant.

30 And he went in to Rachel; and he loved Rachel more than Leia, and he served him another seven years.

31 And the Lord, seeing that Leia was hated, opened her womb; but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leia conceived and bore a son to Jacob; and she called his name Rouben, saying: Because the Lord saw my humiliation; now my man will love me.

33 And Leia conceived again and bore a second son to Jacob and said: Because the Lord heard that I am hated, he also gave me this one; and she called his name Symeon.

34 And she conceived yet again and bore a son and said: At the present time my man will be toward me, for I bore him three sons; because of this she called his name Levi.

35 And conceiving yet again, she bore a son and said: Now yet this time I will acknowledge the Lord; because of this she called his name Juda. And she stopped bearing.

Chapter 30

1 And Rachel, seeing that she had not borne for Jacob, envied her sister and said to Jacob: Give me children; but if not, I will come to an end.

2 And Jacob became angry with Rachel and said to her: Am I in place of God, who deprived you of fruit of the belly?

3 And Rachel said to Jacob: Behold, my female servant Balla; go in to her, and she will bear upon my knees, and I also will have children from her.

4 And she gave him Balla her female servant as a woman for him; and Jacob went in to her.

5 And Balla the female servant of Rachel conceived and bore a son to Jacob.

6 And Rachel said: God judged for me and listened to my voice and gave me a son; because of this she called his name Dan.

7 And Balla the female servant of Rachel conceived yet again and bore a second son to Jacob.

8 And Rachel said: God helped me, and I joined in contest with my sister and prevailed; and she called his name Nephthali.

9 And Leia saw that she stopped bearing, and she took Zelpha her female servant and gave her to Jacob as a woman.

10 And Jacob went in to her, and Zelpha the female servant of Leia conceived and bore a son to Jacob.

11 And Leia said: In fortune; and she named his name Gad.

12 And Zelpha the female servant of Leia conceived and bore yet a second son to Jacob.

13 And Leia said: Blessed am I, because the women call me blessed; and she called his name Aser.

14 And Rouben went in the days of the wheat harvest and found mandrake apples in the field and brought them to Leia his mother. And Rachel said to Leia: Give me some of your son’s mandrakes.

15 And Leia said: Is it not enough for you that you took my man? Will you also take the mandrakes of my son? And Rachel said: Not so; let him lie with you this night in exchange for the mandrakes of your son.

16 And Jacob entered from the field at evening, and Leia went out to meet him and said: You shall come in to me today, for I have hired you in exchange for the mandrakes of my son. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God listened to Leia, and conceiving, she bore a fifth son to Jacob.

18 And Leia said: God gave my wage in return for my giving my female servant to my man; and she called his name Issachar, which is Wage.

19 And Leia conceived yet again and bore a sixth son to Jacob.

20 And Leia said: God has given me a good gift; at the present time my man will choose me, for I bore him six sons. And she called his name Zaboulon.

21 And after this she bore a daughter and called her name Dina.

22 And God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb,

23 and conceiving, she bore a son to Jacob. And Rachel said: My God removed my reproach;

24 and she called his name Joseph, saying: May God add another son for me.

25 And it happened when Rachel bore Joseph that Jacob said to Laban: Send me away, so that I may depart into my place and into my land.

26 Give back my women and the children for whom I have served you, so that I may depart; for you know the service which I have served you.

27 And Laban said to him: If I found grace before you, I would have divined; for God blessed me at your entrance.

28 Specify your wage to me, and I will give it.

29 And Jacob said to him: You know the things for which I have served you and how many of your cattle were with me;

30 for the things which were yours before me were few, and they increased into a multitude, and the Lord blessed you at my foot. Now therefore, when will I also make a house for myself?

31 And Laban said to him: What shall I give you? And Jacob said to him: You shall give me nothing. If you do this thing for me, I will again shepherd your sheep and guard them.

32 Let all your sheep pass today, and separate from there every gray sheep among the lambs and every white-spotted and speckled one among the goats; it shall be my wage.

33 And my righteousness will answer for me on the day tomorrow, because my wage is before you: every one which is not speckled and white-spotted among the goats and gray among the lambs will be stolen if found with me.

34 And Laban said to him: Let it be according to your word.

35 And on that day he separated the speckled and white-spotted male goats and all the speckled and white-spotted female goats and every one which had white in them and every one which was gray among the lambs, and he gave them by the hand of his sons.

36 And he set a journey of three days between them and between Jacob; and Jacob shepherded the remaining sheep of Laban. –

37 And Jacob took for himself green rods of storax and walnut and plane tree, and Jacob peeled them with white peelings, stripping off the green; and the white which he peeled appeared variegated upon the rods.

38 And he placed the rods which he peeled in the troughs of the watering basins, so that whenever the sheep came to drink before the rods, when they came to drink,

39 the sheep might conceive at the rods; and the sheep bore white-spotted and variegated and ash-colored speckled young.

40 And Jacob separated the lambs and set before the sheep a white-spotted ram and every variegated one among the lambs; and he separated flocks for himself by themselves and did not mix them with the sheep of Laban.

41 And it happened at the time when the sheep that were becoming pregnant conceived that Jacob placed the rods before the sheep in the troughs, so that they might conceive by the rods.

42 But whenever the sheep bore, he did not place them; and the unmarked became Laban’s, but the marked Jacob’s.

43 And the man became exceedingly, exceedingly rich, and he came to have many cattle and cattle and male servants and female servants and camels and donkeys.

Chapter 31

1 And Jacob heard the words of Laban’s sons, saying: Jacob has taken all the things of our father, and from the things of our father he has made all this glory.

2 And Jacob saw the face of Laban, and behold, it was not toward him as yesterday and the third day.

3 And the Lord said to Jacob: Return into the land of your father and into your generation, and I will be with you.

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leia into the field where the flocks were,

5 and said to them: I see the face of your father, that it is not toward me as yesterday and the third day; but the God of my father was with me.

6 And you yourselves know that I have served your father with all my strength.

7 But your father deceived me and changed my wage of ten lambs, and God did not permit him to harm me.

8 If he would say thus: The variegated shall be your wage, then all the sheep would bear variegated young; but if he would say: The white shall be your wage, then all the sheep would bear white young.

9 And God took away all the cattle of your father and gave them to me.

10 And it happened when the sheep were conceiving that I saw them with my eyes in sleep, and behold, the male goats and the rams mounting the sheep and the female goats were white-spotted and variegated and ash-colored speckled.

11 And the angel of God said to me in sleep: Jacob. And I said: What is it?

12 And he said: Look up with your eyes and see the male goats and the rams mounting the sheep and the female goats, white-spotted and variegated and ash-colored speckled, for I have seen as many things as Laban is doing to you.

13 I am God who appeared to you in Place of God, where you anointed a pillar for me and vowed a vow to me. Now therefore rise and go out from this land and depart into the land of your birth, and I will be with you.

14 And Rachel and Leia answered and said to him: Is there still a portion or inheritance for us in the house of our father?

15 Have we not been regarded by him as foreigners? For he sold us and devoured our silver with devouring.

16 All the wealth and the glory which God took away from our father shall be for us and for our children. Now therefore do as many things as God has said to you.

17 And Jacob rose and took his women and his children upon the camels,

18 and led away all his possessions and all his baggage which he acquired in Mesopotamia, and all that was his, to depart to Isaac his father in the land of Chanaan.

19 And Laban had gone to shear his sheep; and Rachel stole the idols of her father.

20 And Jacob concealed from Laban the Syrian by not announcing to him that he was fleeing,

21 and he fled, he and all that was his, and crossed the river and rushed toward the mountain Galaad.

22 And it was announced to Laban the Syrian on the third day that Jacob had fled,

23 and taking all his brothers with himself, he pursued after him a journey of seven days and overtook him at the mountain Galaad.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in sleep at night and said to him: Guard yourself, lest you speak evil things with Jacob.

25 And Laban overtook Jacob; and Jacob pitched his tent in the mountain, but Laban stationed his brothers in the mountain Galaad.

26 And Laban said to Jacob: What did you do? Why did you secretly flee and carry me off by theft and lead away my daughters like captives of the sword?

27 And if you had announced it to me, I would have sent you away with gladness and with music, drums and lyre.

28 I was not deemed worthy to kiss my children and my daughters. But now you acted senselessly.

29 And now my hand has strength to harm you; but the God of your father spoke to me yesterday, saying: Guard yourself, lest you speak evil things with Jacob.

30 Now therefore you have gone, for with desire you desired to depart into the house of your father; why did you steal my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban: For I said: Lest you take your daughters away from me, and all that is mine.

32 Recognize what of yours is with me and take it. And he did not recognize anything with him. And Jacob said to him: With whomever you may find your gods, he shall not live before our brothers. But Jacob did not know that Rachel his woman stole them.

33 And Laban entered and searched the house of Leia and did not find them; and going out from the house of Leia, he searched the house of Jacob and the house of the two female servants and did not find them. And he also entered into the house of Rachel.

34 But Rachel took the idols and put them into the saddles of the camel and sat upon them.

35 And she said to her father: Do not bear it heavily, lord; I am not able to rise before you, because the custom of women is mine. And Laban searched in the whole house and did not find the idols.

36 And Jacob became angry and fought with Laban; and Jacob answered and said to Laban: What is my injustice and what is my sin, that you pursued after me

37 and searched all my vessels? What did you find from all the vessels of your house? Place it here before my brothers and your brothers, and let them expose what is between the two of us.

38 These twenty years I have been with you; your sheep and your female goats did not become childless; the rams of your sheep I did not eat.

39 What was caught by a beast I did not bring to you; I paid from myself the thefts of day and the thefts of night.

40 By day I was scorched by heat and by night by frost, and sleep departed from my eyes.

41 These twenty years I have been in your house; I served you fourteen years in exchange for your two daughters and six years among your sheep, and you deceived me concerning my wage by ten lambs.

42 If the God of my father Abraham and the Fear of Isaac had not been for me, now you would have sent me away empty. God saw my humiliation and the toil of my hands and rebuked you yesterday.

43 And Laban answered and said to Jacob: The daughters are my daughters, and the sons my sons, and the cattle my cattle, and all the things which you see are mine and my daughters'. What shall I do to these today, or to their children whom they bore?

44 Now therefore come, let us make a covenant, I and you, and it shall be a testimony between me and you. And he said to him: Behold, no one is with us; see, God is witness between me and you.

45 And Jacob took a stone and set it as a pillar.

46 And Jacob said to his brothers: Gather stones. And they gathered stones and made a mound, and ate and drank there upon the mound. And Laban said to him: This mound testifies between me and you today.

47 And Laban called it Mound of the Testimony, but Jacob called it Mound Witness.

48 And Laban said to Jacob: Behold, this mound and this pillar which I set between me and you; this mound testifies and this pillar testifies. Because of this its name was called Mound Testifies, 49 and The Vision, of which he said: May God look between me and you, because we will depart from one another.

50 If you humiliate my daughters, if you take women in addition to my daughters, see, no one is with us.

52 For if I do not cross toward you, nor you cross toward me, this mound and this pillar for evil,

53 the God of Abraham and the God of Nachor will judge between us. And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.

54 And Jacob sacrificed a sacrifice in the mountain and called his brothers, and they ate and drank and slept in the mountain.

Chapter 32

1 And Laban rose in the morning and kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them, and Laban turned and departed to his place.

2 And Jacob departed on his own way. And looking up, he saw an encampment of God encamped, and the angels of God met him.

3 And Jacob said when he saw them: This is an encampment of God; and he called the name of that place Encampments.

4 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, into the land Seir, into the country Edom,

5 and commanded them, saying: Thus you shall say to my lord Esau: Thus says your servant Jacob: I sojourned with Laban and delayed until now,

6 and I came to have cattle and donkeys and sheep and male servants and female servants, and I sent to announce it to my lord Esau, so that your servant may find grace before you.

7 And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying: We came to your brother Esau, and behold, he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men with him.

8 And Jacob was exceedingly afraid and perplexed. And he divided the people with him and the cattle and the sheep into two encampments,

9 and Jacob said: If Esau comes into one encampment and cuts it down, then the second encampment will be for being saved.

10 And Jacob said: God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, Lord who said to me: Run away into the land of your birth, and I will do you good,

11 it is enough for me from all the righteousness and from all the truth which you did for your servant; for with my staff I crossed this Jordan, but now I have become two encampments.

12 Deliver me from the hand of my brother Esau, because I am afraid of him, lest he come and strike me and mother upon children.

13 But you said: Well, I will do you good and make your seed like the sand of the sea, which will not be numbered because of the multitude.

14 And he slept there that night. And he took from the things he was carrying as gifts and sent them to Esau his brother:

15 two hundred female goats, twenty male goats, two hundred sheep, twenty rams,

16 thirty nursing camels and their children, forty cattle, ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals.

17 And he gave each flock separately by the hand to his servants. And he said to his servants: Go before me and make a space between flock and flock.

18 And he commanded the first, saying: If Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying: Whose are you, and where are you going, and whose are these things going before you?

19 You shall say: They are your servant Jacob’s; he has sent gifts to my lord Esau, and behold, he is behind us.

20 And he commanded the first and the second and the third and all those going behind these flocks, saying: According to this word speak to Esau when you find him,

21 and you shall say: Behold, your servant Jacob is arriving behind us. For he said: I will propitiate his face with the gifts going before his face, and after this I will see his face, for perhaps he will accept my face.

22 And the gifts were passing before his face, but he slept that night in the encampment.

23 And rising that night, he took his two women and the two female servants and his eleven children and crossed the crossing of Jabok.

24 And he took them and crossed the torrent and caused all that was his to cross.

25 And Jacob was left alone, and a man was wrestling with him until morning.

26 And he saw that he was not able against him, and touched the breadth of his thigh, and the breadth of Jacob’s thigh became numb while he wrestled with him.

27 And he said to him: Send me away, for dawn has risen. But he said: I shall certainly not send you away unless you bless me.

28 And he said to him: What is your name? And he said: Jacob.

29 And he said to him: Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel shall be your name, because you were strong with God and powerful with men.

30 And Jacob asked and said: Announce your name to me. And he said: Why is it that you ask my name? And he blessed him there.

31 And Jacob called the name of that place Appearance of God; for I saw God face to face, and my soul was saved.

32 And the sun rose upon him when he passed the Appearance of God; and he was limping on his thigh.

33 Because of this the sons of Israel certainly do not eat the sinew which became numb, which is upon the breadth of the thigh, until this day, because he touched the breadth of Jacob’s thigh, the sinew, and it became numb.

Chapter 33

1 And Jacob looked up and saw, and behold, Esau his brother was coming, and four hundred men with him. And Jacob further divided the children among Leia and Rachel and the two female servants.

2 And he placed the two female servants and their sons first, and Leia and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last.

3 But he himself went ahead before them and bowed down upon the ground seven times, until he drew near to his brother.

4 And Esau ran to meet him, and embracing him, he kissed him and fell upon his neck; and both wept.

5 And looking up, he saw the women and the children and said: What are these to you? And he said: The children with whom God had mercy on your servant.

6 And the female servants and their children drew near and bowed down.

7 And Leia and her children drew near and bowed down; and after these Rachel and Joseph drew near and bowed down.

8 And he said: What are all these encampments to you, which I met? And he said: That your servant may find grace before you, lord.

9 And Esau said: I have plenty, brother; let what is yours be yours.

10 And Jacob said: If I have found grace before you, receive the gifts from my hands; because of this I saw your face as one might see the face of God, and you will be well pleased with me.

11 Take my blessings, which I brought you, because God had mercy on me and I have all things. And he pressed him, and he took them.

12 And he said: Having set out, we shall journey straight ahead.

13 But he said to him: My lord knows that the children are more tender and the sheep and the cattle are giving birth under my care; if therefore I drive them hard for one day, all the livestock will die.

14 Let my lord go ahead before his servant, and I will strengthen myself on the way according to the slow pace of the journey before me and according to the foot of the children, until I come to my lord at Seir.

15 And Esau said: I will leave with you some of the people who are with me. But he said: Why this? It is enough that I found grace before you, lord.

16 And Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

17 And Jacob departed for Tents; and he made houses for himself there, and for his livestock he made tents. Because of this he called the name of that place Tents.

18 And Jacob came to Salem, a city of Sikima, which is in the land of Chanaan, when he came from Mesopotamia of Syria, and he encamped facing the city.

19 And he acquired the portion of the field where he set his tent there from Emmor, the father of Sychem, for a hundred lambs.

20 And he set up an altar there and called upon the God of Israel.

Chapter 34

1 And Dina, the daughter of Leia, whom she bore to Jacob, went out to observe closely the daughters of the inhabitants.

2 And Sychem the son of Emmor, the Chorrite, the ruler of the land, saw her, and taking her, he slept with her and humbled her.

3 And he attended to the soul of Dina the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the maiden and spoke to her according to the mind of the maiden.

4 And Sychem spoke to Emmor his father, saying: Take this young woman for me as a wife.

5 And Jacob heard that the son of Emmor had defiled Dina his daughter; but his sons were with his livestock in the plain, and Jacob kept silent until they came.

6 And Emmor the father of Sychem went out to Jacob to speak to him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came from the plain; and when they heard, the men were pierced, and it was exceedingly grievous to them, because he had done a shameful thing in Israel by sleeping with the daughter of Jacob; and it shall not be so.

8 And Emmor spoke to them, saying: Sychem my son chose your daughter in his soul; therefore give her to him as a wife.

9 Intermarry with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for your sons.

10 And dwell among us, and behold, the land is broad before you; dwell and trade upon it and acquire possessions in it.

11 And Sychem said to her father and to her brothers: May I find grace before you, and whatever you say, we will give.

12 Increase the dowry greatly, and I will give it, whatever you tell me, and you shall give this girl to me as a wife.

13 But the sons of Jacob answered Sychem and Emmor his father with guile and spoke to them, because they had defiled Dina their sister.

14 And Symeon and Levi, the brothers of Dina and sons of Leia, said to them: We shall not be able to do this thing, to give our sister to a man who has a foreskin; for it is a reproach to us.

15 In this we shall be made like you and dwell among you, if you also become as we are, by having every male of yours circumcised.

16 And we will give our daughters to you, and from your daughters we will take wives for ourselves, and we will dwell beside you and be as one race.

17 But if you do not listen to us, to be circumcised, we will take our daughters and go away.

18 And the words were pleasing before Emmor and before Sychem the son of Emmor.

19 And the young man did not delay to do this thing, for he was devoted to the daughter of Jacob; and he was the most honored of all those in the house of his father.

20 And Emmor and Sychem his son came to the gate of their city and spoke to the men of their city, saying:

21 These men are peaceful with us; let them dwell upon the land and trade upon it, and behold, the land is broad before them. We will take their daughters as wives for ourselves, and we will give our daughters to them.

22 Only in this will the men be made like us, so as to dwell with us and be one people: in every male of ours being circumcised, just as they themselves are circumcised.

23 And will not their livestock and their possessions and their quadrupeds be ours? Only in this let us be made like them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And all who went out through the gate of their city listened to Emmor and Sychem his son, and every male circumcised the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And it happened on the third day, when they were in pain, that the two sons of Jacob, Symeon and Levi, the brothers of Dina, each took his sword and entered the city securely and killed every male.

26 And they killed both Emmor and Sychem his son by the edge of the sword, and they took Dina from the house of Sychem and went out.

27 And the sons of Jacob went in upon the wounded and plundered the city in which they had defiled Dina their sister.

28 And they took their sheep and their cattle and their donkeys, both whatever was in the city and whatever was in the plain.

29 And they took captive all their bodies and all their baggage and their women, and they plundered both whatever was in the city and whatever was in the houses.

30 And Jacob said to Symeon and Levi: You have made me hated, so that I am evil to all those who inhabit the land, among both the Chanaanites and the Pherezites; but I am few in number, and when they gather against me, they will cut me down, and I shall be wiped out, I and my house.

31 But they said: Shall they use our sister as a prostitute?

Chapter 35

1 And God said to Jacob: Arise, go up to the place Baethel and dwell there, and make an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you were running away from the face of Esau your brother.

2 And Jacob said to his house and to all those with him: Remove the foreign gods that are with you from your midst, and cleanse yourselves and change your robes.

3 And arising, let us go up to Baethel and make an altar there to the God who listened to me in the day of affliction, who was with me and brought me safely through the way in which I journeyed.

4 And they gave Jacob the foreign gods that were in their hands and the earrings that were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the terebinth in Sikima and destroyed them until this day.

5 And Israel departed from Sikima, and the fear of God came upon the cities around them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Israel.

6 And Jacob came to Louza, which is in the land of Chanaan, which is Baethel, he and all the people who were with him.

7 And he built an altar there and called the name of the place Baethel; for there God appeared to him when he was running away from the face of Esau his brother.

8 And Debbora, the nurse of Rebekka, died below Baethel under the oak, and Jacob called its name Oak of Mourning.

9 And God appeared to Jacob while he was still in Louza, when he arrived from Mesopotamia of Syria, and God blessed him.

10 And God said to him: Your name is Jacob; your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel shall be your name.

11 And God said to him: I am your God; increase and multiply; nations and congregations of nations will be from you, and kings will come out from your loin.

12 And the land that I have given to Abraham and Isaac, I have given it to you; it shall be yours, and to your seed after you I will give this land.

13 And God went up from him, out of the place where he spoke with him.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he spoke with him, a stone pillar, and he poured a libation upon it and poured oil upon it.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place in which God spoke with him there Baethel.

16 And Jacob departed from Baethel and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Gader. And it happened when he drew near Chabratha, to come into the land Ephratha, that Rachel gave birth and had a difficult labor in the birth.

17 And it happened while she was giving birth with difficulty that the midwife said to her: Take courage, for this one also is a son for you.

18 And it happened as she let go her soul—for she was dying—that she called his name Son of My Pain; but his father called him Benjamin.

19 And Rachel died and was buried on the road to Ephratha [this is Bethlehem].

20 And Jacob set up a pillar upon her memorial; this is the pillar of Rachel’s memorial until this day.

22 And it happened when Israel dwelt in that land that Reuben went and slept with Balla, his father’s concubine; and Israel heard, and it appeared evil before him. And the sons of Jacob were twelve.

23 The sons of Leia: Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn, Symeon, Levi, Judas, Issachar, Zabulon.

24 And the sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

25 And the sons of Balla, the female servant of Rachel: Dan and Nephthali.

26 And the sons of Zelpha, the female servant of Leia: Gad and Aser. These are the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Mesopotamia of Syria.

27 And Jacob came to Isaac his father at Mambre, to the city of the plain [this is Chebron], in the land of Chanaan, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 And the days of Isaac that he lived were a hundred eighty years.

29 And expiring, he died and was added to his race, older and full of days; and Esau and Jacob his sons buried him.

Chapter 36

1 And these are the generations of Esau [he is Edom].

2 And Esau took women for himself from the daughters of the Chanaanites: Ada the daughter of Ailon the Chettite, and Elibema the daughter of Ana the son of Sebegon the Evite,

3 and Basemmath the daughter of Ismael, the sister of Nabaioth.

4 And Ada bore Eliphas to Esau, and Basemmath bore Raguel,

5 and Elibema bore Jeous and Jeglom and Kore. These are the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Chanaan.

6 And Esau took his women and his sons and his daughters and all the bodies of his house and all his possessions and all his livestock and everything that he acquired and everything that he procured in the land of Chanaan, and he journeyed from the land of Chanaan, away from the face of Jacob his brother.

7 For their possessions were too many for them to dwell together, and the land of their sojourning was not able to bear them because of the multitude of their possessions.

8 And Esau dwelt on Mount Seir [Esau himself is Edom].

9 And these are the generations of Esau, the father of Edom, on Mount Seir,

10 and these are the names of the sons of Esau: Eliphas the son of Ada, the woman of Esau, and Raguel the son of Basemmath, the woman of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphas were: Thaiman, Omar, Sophar, Gothom, and Kenez.

12 And Thamna was a concubine of Eliphas the son of Esau, and she bore Amalek to Eliphas. These are the sons of Ada, the woman of Esau.

13 And these are the sons of Raguel: Nachoth, Zare, Some, and Moze. These were the sons of Basemmath, the woman of Esau.

14 And these were the sons of Elibema, the daughter of Ana the son of Sebegon, the woman of Esau; and she bore Jeous and Jeglom and Kore to Esau. –

15 These are the rulers, the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphas, the firstborn of Esau: ruler Thaiman, ruler Omar, ruler Sophar, ruler Kenez, 16 ruler Kore, ruler Gothom, ruler Amalek. These are the rulers of Eliphas in the land of Idoumea; these are the sons of Ada.

17 And these are the sons of Raguel, the son of Esau: ruler Nachoth, ruler Zare, ruler Some, ruler Moze. These are the rulers of Raguel in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Basemmath, the woman of Esau.

18 And these are the sons of Elibema, the woman of Esau: ruler Jeous, ruler Jeglom, ruler Kore. These are the rulers of Elibema. –

19 These are the sons of Esau, and these are their rulers. These are the sons of Edom.

20 And these are the sons of Seir the Chorrite who inhabits the land: Lotan, Sobal, Sebegon, Ana,

21 and Deson and Asar and Rison. These are the rulers of the Chorrite, the son of Seir, in the land of Edom.

22 And the sons of Lotan were: Chorri and Aiman; and the sister of Lotan was Thamna.

23 And these are the sons of Sobal: Golon and Manachath and Gaibel, Soph and Oman.

24 And these are the sons of Sebegon: Aie and Onan. This is Onas, who found Jamin in the wilderness when he was tending the draft animals of Sebegon his father.

25 And these are the sons of Ana: Deson; and Elibema was a daughter of Ana.

26 And these are the sons of Deson: Amada and Asban and Jethran and Charran.

27 And these are the sons of Asar: Balaan and Zoukam and Jooukam and Oukan.

28 And these are the sons of Rison: Os and Aram. –

29 These are the rulers of Chorri: ruler Lotan, ruler Sobal, ruler Sebegon, ruler Ana,

30 ruler Deson, ruler Asar, ruler Rison. These are the rulers of Chorri in their rulerships in the land of Edom.

31 And these are the kings who reigned in Edom before a king reigned in Israel.

32 And Balak the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dennaba.

33 And Balak died, and Jobab the son of Zara from Bosorra reigned instead of him.

34 And Jobab died, and Asom from the land of the Thaimanites reigned instead of him.

35 And Asom died, and Adad the son of Barad, who cut down Madiam in the plain of Moab, reigned instead of him, and the name of his city was Geththaim.

36 And Adad died, and Samala from Masekka reigned instead of him.

37 And Samala died, and Saul from Rooboth by the river reigned instead of him.

38 And Saul died, and Balaennon the son of Achobor reigned instead of him.

39 And Balaennon the son of Achobor died, and Arad the son of Barad reigned instead of him, and the name of his city was Phogor; and the name of his woman was Maitabeel, the daughter of Matraith the son of Maizoob.

40 These are the names of the rulers of Esau in their tribes, according to their place, in their territories and in their nations: ruler Thamna, ruler Gola, ruler Jether,

41 ruler Elibemas, ruler Elas, ruler Phinon,

42 ruler Kenez, ruler Thaiman, ruler Mazar,

43 ruler Megediel, ruler Zaphoim. These are the rulers of Edom in the inhabited places in the land of their possession. This is Esau, the father of Edom.

Chapter 37

1 And Jacob dwelt in the land where his father sojourned, in the land of Chanaan.

2 And these are the generations of Jacob. Joseph was seventeen years old, shepherding the sheep with his brothers while young, with the sons of Balla and with the sons of Zelpha, the women of his father; and Joseph brought an evil reproach to Israel their father.

3 And Jacob loved Joseph beyond all his sons, because he was a son of old age to him; and he made him a multicolored tunic.

4 And when his brothers saw that their father loved him from among all his sons, they hated him and were not able to speak anything peaceful to him.

5 And Joseph dreamed a dream and reported it to his brothers,

6 and he said to them: Hear this dream that I dreamed.

7 I thought we were binding bundles in the midst of the plain, and my bundle arose and stood upright, and your bundles turned around and bowed down to my bundle.

8 And his brothers said to him: Reigning, will you reign over us, or ruling, will you rule us? And they added still more to their hatred of him because of his dreams and because of his words. –

9 And he saw another dream and related it to his father and to his brothers and said: Behold, I dreamed another dream, as though the sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me.

10 And his father rebuked him and said to him: What is this dream that you dreamed? Having come, shall we indeed come—I and your mother and your brothers—to bow down to you upon the ground?

11 And his brothers envied him, but his father preserved the word.

12 And his brothers journeyed to shepherd the sheep of their father in Sychem.

13 And Israel said to Joseph: Are not your brothers shepherding in Sychem? Come, I will send you to them. And he said to him: Behold, I am here.

14 And Israel said to him: Go and see whether your brothers and the sheep are healthy, and report to me. And he sent him from the valley of Chebron, and he came to Sychem.

15 And a man found him wandering in the plain; and the man questioned him, saying: What are you seeking?

16 And he said: I am seeking my brothers; report to me where they are shepherding.

17 And the man said to him: They have departed from here, for I heard them saying: Let us journey to Dothaim. And Joseph journeyed after his brothers and found them in Dothaim.

18 And they foresaw him from far away, before he drew near to them, and they plotted evil to kill him.

19 And each said to his brother: Behold, that dreamer is coming.

20 Now therefore, come, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits, and we will say: An evil beast devoured him. And we will see what his dreams will be.

21 But Reuben heard and rescued him from their hands and said: We shall not strike him to death.

22 And Reuben said to them: Do not shed blood; cast him into this pit in the wilderness, but do not bring a hand upon him—so that he might rescue him from their hands and restore him to his father.

23 And it happened when Joseph came to his brothers that they stripped Joseph of the multicolored tunic that was around him,

24 and taking him, they threw him into the pit; and the pit was empty and had no water.

25 And they sat down to eat bread, and looking up with their eyes, they saw, and behold, Ismaelite travelers were coming from Galaad, and their camels were loaded with incense and resin and stacte; and they were journeying to bring them down into Egypt.

26 And Judas said to his brothers: What use is it if we kill our brother and hide his blood?

27 Come, let us sell him to these Ismaelites, but let our hands not be upon him, because he is our brother and our flesh. And his brothers listened.

28 And the Madianite men, the merchants, were passing by, and they pulled and brought Joseph up out of the pit and sold Joseph to the Ismaelites for twenty gold pieces, and they brought Joseph down into Egypt.

29 And Reuben returned to the pit and did not see Joseph in the pit, and he tore his garments.

30 And he returned to his brothers and said: The boy is not here; and I, where am I to go now?

31 And taking the tunic of Joseph, they slaughtered a kid of the goats and stained the tunic with the blood.

32 And they sent the multicolored tunic and brought it to their father and said: We found this; recognize whether it is the tunic of your son or not.

33 And he recognized it and said: It is the tunic of my son; an evil beast devoured him, a beast seized Joseph.

34 And Jacob tore his garments and put sackcloth upon his loin and mourned his son for many days.

35 And all his sons and daughters gathered and came to comfort him, and he did not wish to be comforted, saying: I shall go down to my son mourning, into Hades. And his father wept for him. –

36 And the Madianites sold Joseph in Egypt to Petephres, the eunuch of Pharao, the chief cook.

Chapter 38

1 And it happened at that time that Judas went down from his brothers and arrived as far as a certain Odollamite man whose name was Iras.

2 And Judas saw there the daughter of a Chanaanite man whose name was Saua, and he took her and went in to her.

3 And conceiving, she bore a son and called his name Er.

4 And conceiving again, she bore a son and called his name Aunan.

5 And adding again, she bore a son and called his name Selom. And she was in Chasbi when she bore them.

6 And Judas took a woman for Er his firstborn, whose name was Thamar.

7 And Er, the firstborn of Judas, became evil before the Lord, and God killed him.

8 And Judas said to Aunan: Go in to the woman of your brother, and perform the duty of a brother-in-law with her, and raise up seed for your brother.

9 But Aunan, knowing that the seed would not be his, would, whenever he went in to the woman of his brother, pour it out upon the ground so as not to give seed to his brother.

10 And it appeared evil before God that he did this, and he put this one to death also.

11 And Judas said to Thamar his daughter-in-law: Sit as a widow in the house of your father until Selom my son becomes grown. For he said: Lest this one also die like his brothers. And Thamar went away and sat in the house of her father.

12 And the days were multiplied, and Saua the woman of Judas died; and being comforted, Judas went up to those shearing his sheep, he and Iras his shepherd, the Odollamite, to Thamna.

13 And it was reported to Thamar his daughter-in-law, saying: Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Thamna to shear his sheep.

14 And removing the garments of her widowhood from herself, she put on a veil and beautified herself and sat by the gates of Ainan, which is on the way to Thamna; for she saw that Selom had become grown, but he had not given her to him as a woman.

15 And Judas saw her and thought her to be a prostitute, for she had covered her face, and he did not recognize her.

16 And he turned aside from the road toward her and said to her: Allow me to go in to you; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said: What will you give me if you go in to me?

17 And he said: I will send you a kid of the goats from the sheep. And she said: If you give a pledge until you send it.

18 And he said: What pledge shall I give you? And she said: Your ring and necklace and the staff that is in your hand. And he gave them to her and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

19 And arising, she went away and removed the veil from herself and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judas sent the kid from the goats by the hand of his shepherd, the Odollamite, to recover the pledge from the woman, and he did not find her.

21 And he questioned the men from the place: Where is the prostitute who was in Ainan by the road? And they said: There was no prostitute here.

22 And he returned to Judas and said: I did not find her, and the men from the place say that there is no prostitute here.

23 And Judas said: Let her have them, but let us not perhaps be laughed at; I sent this kid, but you did not find her.

24 And it happened after three months that it was reported to Judas, saying: Thamar your daughter-in-law has prostituted herself, and behold, she is pregnant from prostitution. And Judas said: Bring her out, and let her be burned.

25 And as she was being led away, she sent to her father-in-law, saying: By the man whose these things are, I am pregnant. And she said: Recognize whose ring and necklace and staff these are.

26 And Judas recognized them and said: Thamar has been justified rather than I, because I did not give her to Selom my son. And he did not add again to know her.

27 And it happened when she was giving birth, and there were twins in her womb.

28 And it happened while she was giving birth that one put his hand out first; and the midwife took it and bound scarlet upon his hand, saying: This one will come out first.

29 But when he drew his hand back, immediately his brother came out. And she said: Why was a barrier cut through because of you? And she called his name Phares.

30 And after this his brother came out, upon whose hand was the scarlet; and she called his name Zara.

Chapter 39

1 And Joseph was brought down into Egypt, and Petephres, the eunuch of Pharao, the chief cook, an Egyptian man, acquired him from the hand of the Ismaelites who brought him down there.

2 And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a man succeeding, and he came to be in the house beside his Egyptian lord.

3 And his lord knew that the Lord was with him, and whatever he did, the Lord prospered it in his hands.

4 And Joseph found grace before his lord and was pleasing to him, and he appointed him over his house, and everything that was his he gave through the hand of Joseph.

5 And it happened after he was appointed over his house and over everything that was his that the Lord blessed the house of the Egyptian because of Joseph, and the blessing of the Lord came to be in all his possessions in the house and in the field.

6 And he entrusted everything that was his into the hands of Joseph, and he knew nothing of his own affairs except the bread that he himself ate. And Joseph was handsome in form and exceedingly beautiful in appearance.

7 And it happened after these words that the woman of his lord cast her eyes upon Joseph and said: Sleep with me.

8 But he did not wish to, and he said to the woman of his lord: If my lord knows nothing in his house because of me and has given everything that is his into my hands,

9 and nothing in this house is above me, nor has anything been withheld from me except you, because you are his woman, then how shall I do this evil thing and sin before God?

10 And when she spoke to Joseph day after day, he did not listen to her, to sleep with her, to be with her. –

11 And it happened on a certain such day that Joseph entered the house to do his works, and no one of those in the house was inside,

12 and she dragged him by his garments, saying: Sleep with me. And leaving his garments in her hands, he fled and went out outside.

13 And it happened when she saw that he had left his garments in her hands and fled and went out outside,

14 that she called those who were in the house and spoke to them, saying: See, he brought a Hebrew servant in to us to mock us; he came in to me, saying: Sleep with me, and I cried out with a great voice.

15 And when he heard that I raised my voice and cried out, he left his garments beside me and fled and went out outside.

16 And she leaves the garments beside herself until the lord came to his house.

17 And she spoke to him according to these words, saying: The Hebrew servant whom you brought in to us came in to me to mock me and said to me: I shall sleep with you.

18 But when he heard that I raised my voice and cried out, he left his garments beside me and fled and went out outside.

19 And it happened when his lord heard the words of his woman, as many as she spoke to him, saying: Thus your servant did to me, that he became angry with wrath.

20 And the lord of Joseph took him and cast him into the fortress, into the place in which the prisoners of the king are held there in the fortress.

21 And the Lord was with Joseph and poured mercy over him and gave him grace before the chief jailer.

22 And the chief jailer gave the prison through the hand of Joseph, and all those who had been led away, as many as were in the prison, and everything that they do there.

23 The chief jailer of the prison knew nothing because of him, for everything was through the hand of Joseph, because the Lord was with him; and whatever he did, the Lord prospered it in his hands.

Chapter 40

1 And it happened after these words that the chief wine-pourer of the king of Egypt and the chief baker sinned against their lord, the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharao was angry with his two eunuchs, with the chief wine-pourer and with the chief baker,

3 and he placed them in custody beside the jailer, in the prison, in the place where Joseph had been led away, there.

4 And the chief jailer entrusted them to Joseph, and he attended them; and they were days in custody. –

5 And both saw a dream, each his dream, in one night, the vision of his dream—the chief wine-pourer and the chief baker, who belonged to the king of Egypt, who were in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in to them in the morning and saw them, and they were troubled.

7 And he questioned the eunuchs of Pharao who were with him in custody beside his lord, saying: Why are your faces gloomy today?

8 And they said to him: We saw a dream, and there is no one interpreting it. And Joseph said to them: Is not their explanation through God? Therefore relate them to me. –

9 And the chief wine-pourer related his dream to Joseph and said: In my sleep a vine was before me,

10 and in the vine were three stems, and it was blooming, having produced shoots; the clusters of grapes were ripe.

11 And the cup of Pharao was in my hand, and I took the cluster of grapes and squeezed it into the cup and gave the cup into the hands of Pharao.

12 And Joseph said to him: This is its interpretation: the three stems are three days.

13 Yet three days, and Pharao will remember your office and restore you to your office of chief wine-pourer, and you will give the cup of Pharao into his hand according to your former office, as you were pouring wine.

14 But remember me through yourself when it becomes well for you, and you will do mercy with me and remind Pharao about me and bring me out of this fortress.

15 For by theft I was stolen from the land of the Hebrews, and here I did nothing, but they cast me into this pit. –

16 And the chief baker saw that he had interpreted rightly and said to Joseph: I also saw a dream, and I thought I was carrying three baskets of coarse loaves upon my head,

17 and in the upper basket were some of all the kinds that King Pharao eats, the work of a baker, and the birds of heaven were devouring them from the basket above my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said to him: This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days.

19 Yet three days, and Pharao will remove your head from you and hang you upon wood, and the birds of heaven will eat your flesh from you. –

20 And it happened on the third day—it was the birthday of Pharao—and he made a drinking feast for all his servants. And he remembered the office of the chief wine-pourer and the office of the chief baker in the midst of his servants,

21 and he restored the chief wine-pourer to his office, and he gave the cup into the hand of Pharao,

22 but he hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 But the chief wine-pourer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Chapter 41

1 And it happened after two years of days that Pharao saw a dream. He thought he was standing upon the river,

2 and behold, as though from the river seven cows were coming up, beautiful in appearance and choice in flesh, and were grazing in the marsh grass.

3 And seven other cows were coming up after these from the river, ugly in appearance and thin in flesh, and were grazing beside the cows by the lip of the river.

4 And the seven cows that were ugly and thin in flesh devoured the seven cows that were beautiful in appearance and choice. And Pharao awoke. –

5 And he dreamed a second time, and behold, seven ears of grain were coming up on one stalk, choice and beautiful.

6 And seven other ears, thin and wind-blasted, were sprouting after them.

7 And the seven thin and wind-blasted ears swallowed the seven choice and full ears. And Pharao awoke, and it was a dream.

8 And morning came, and his soul was troubled; and sending, he called all the interpreters of Egypt and all its wise men, and Pharao related the dream to them, and there was no one who could report it to Pharao.

9 And the chief wine-pourer spoke to Pharao, saying: I call my sin to remembrance today.

10 Pharao was angry with his servants and placed us in custody in the house of the chief cook, both me and the chief baker.

11 And we saw a dream in one night, both I and he; we each saw according to his own dream.

12 And a young man was there with us, a Hebrew servant of the chief cook, and we related them to him, and he interpreted them for us.

13 And it happened just as he interpreted them for us; thus it also came to pass: I was restored to my office, but that one was hanged.

14 And Pharao sent and called Joseph, and they brought him out of the fortress and shaved him and changed his robe, and he came to Pharao.

15 And Pharao said to Joseph: I have seen a dream, and there is no one interpreting it; but I have heard people saying about you that when you hear dreams, you interpret them.

16 And Joseph answered Pharao and said: Without God, the salvation of Pharao will not be answered.

17 And Pharao spoke to Joseph, saying: In my sleep I thought I was standing beside the lip of the river,

18 and as though from the river seven cows were coming up, beautiful in appearance and choice in flesh, and were grazing in the marsh grass.

19 And behold, seven other cows were coming up behind them from the river, evil and ugly in appearance and thin in flesh, such as I did not see uglier than these in the whole land of Egypt.

20 And the seven ugly and thin cows devoured the first seven beautiful and choice cows,

21 and they entered their bellies, and it did not become evident that they had entered their bellies, and their appearances were ugly just as at the beginning. And having awakened, I slept,

22 and again I saw in my sleep, and as though seven ears of grain were coming up on one stalk, full and beautiful.

23 And seven other ears, thin and wind-blasted, were sprouting next to them.

24 And the seven thin and wind-blasted ears swallowed the seven beautiful and full ears. Therefore I spoke to the interpreters, and there was no one who could report it to me.

25 And Joseph said to Pharao: The dream of Pharao is one. As many things as God is doing, he has shown to Pharao.

26 The seven beautiful cows are seven years, and the seven beautiful ears are seven years; the dream of Pharao is one.

27 And the seven thin cows coming up behind them are seven years, and the seven thin and wind-blasted ears will be seven years of famine.

28 And as for the word that I have said to Pharao: As many things as God is doing, he has shown to Pharao.

29 Behold, seven years are coming, a great abundance in all the land of Egypt.

30 But seven years of famine will come after these, and they will forget the fullness in the whole land of Egypt, and the famine will consume the land.

31 And the abundance will not be recognized upon the land because of the famine that will be after these, for it will be exceedingly severe.

32 And concerning the dream of Pharao being repeated twice: it is because the word from God will be true, and God will hasten to do it.

33 Now therefore, look for a prudent and intelligent man and appoint him over the land of Egypt.

34 And let Pharao act and appoint district rulers over the land, and let them take a fifth of all the produce of the land of Egypt during the seven years of abundance.

35 And let them gather all the foods of these seven coming good years, and let the grain be gathered under the hand of Pharao; let foods be guarded in the cities.

36 And the foods will be kept for the land for the seven years of famine that will be in the land of Egypt, and the land will not be destroyed in the famine.

37 And the words were pleasing before Pharao and before all his servants.

38 And Pharao said to all his servants: Shall we find such a man, who has the spirit of God in him?

39 And Pharao said to Joseph: Since God has shown you all these things, there is no man more prudent and intelligent than you.

40 You will be over my house, and all my people will obey at your mouth; only in the throne will I be above you.

41 And Pharao said to Joseph: Behold, today I appoint you over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharao removed the ring from his hand and put it upon the hand of Joseph, and clothed him in a linen robe and put a golden collar around his neck.

43 And he mounted him upon his second chariot, and a herald proclaimed before him; and he appointed him over the whole land of Egypt.

44 And Pharao said to Joseph: I am Pharao; without you no one will lift his hand in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharao called the name of Joseph Psonthomphanech; and he gave him Asenneth, the daughter of Petephre, priest of the City of the Sun, as a woman for him.

46 And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharao, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the face of Pharao and passed through all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven years of abundance the land produced bundles.

48 And he gathered all the foods of the seven years in which there was abundance in the land of Egypt and placed the foods in the cities; the foods of the fields around each city he placed in it.

49 And Joseph gathered grain like the sand of the sea, exceedingly much, until they were not able to count it, for there was no number.

50 And two sons were born to Joseph before the seven years of famine came, whom Asenneth the daughter of Petephre, priest of the City of the Sun, bore to him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasse, because: God made me forget all my pains and all the things of my father.

52 And he called the name of the second Ephraim, because: God increased me in the land of my humiliation.

53 And the seven years of abundance that came to be in the land of Egypt passed.

54 And the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph said. And famine came to be in all the land, but in all the land of Egypt there were breads.

55 And all the land of Egypt hungered, and the people cried to Pharao concerning breads; and Pharao said to all the Egyptians: Go to Joseph, and whatever he tells you, do.

56 And the famine was upon the face of all the land; and Joseph opened all the granaries and sold to all the Egyptians.

57 And all the regions came into Egypt to buy from Joseph, for the famine prevailed in all the land.

Chapter 42

1 And Jacob saw that there was a sale in Egypt and said to his sons: Why are you idle?

2 Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down there and buy us a little food, so that we may live and not die.

3 And the ten brothers of Joseph went down to buy grain from Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, the brother of Joseph, he did not send with his brothers, for he said: Lest some weakness happen to him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy with those who were coming, for the famine was in the land of Chanaan.

6 And Joseph was ruler of the land; he was the one selling to all the people of the land. And the brothers of Joseph came and bowed down to him upon their faces upon the ground.

7 And Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, and he estranged himself from them and spoke harsh things to them and said to them: From where have you come? And they said: From the land of Chanaan, to buy food.

8 And Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.

9 And Joseph remembered the dreams that he himself had seen and said to them: You are spies; you have come to examine the tracks of the country.

10 And they said: No, lord; your servants came to buy food.

11 We are all sons of one man; we are peaceful; your servants are not spies.

12 And he said to them: No, but you came to see the tracks of the land.

13 And they said: We, your servants, are twelve brothers in the land of Chanaan, and behold, the youngest is with our father today, but the other does not exist.

14 And Joseph said to them: This is what I have said to you, saying that you are spies.

15 By this you will be made manifest: by the health of Pharao, you shall certainly not leave from here unless your youngest brother comes here.

16 Send one from among you and take your brother, but you are to be led away until your words become manifest, whether you speak truth or not; but if not, by the health of Pharao, surely you are spies.

17 And he placed them in custody for three days.

18 And he said to them on the third day: Do this and you will live—for I fear God—

19 if you are peaceful, let one of your brothers be held in custody, but you yourselves walk and carry away the purchase of your grain-ration,

20 and bring your youngest brother to me, and your words will be believed; but if not, you will die. And they did so. –

21 And each said to his brother: Yes, for we are in sin concerning our brother, because we overlooked the affliction of his soul when he pleaded with us, and we did not listen to him; on account of this, this affliction has come upon us.

22 And Reuben answered and said to them: Did I not speak to you, saying: Do not wrong the boy? And you did not listen to me; and behold, his blood is sought.

23 But they did not know that Joseph was hearing, for the interpreter was between them.

24 And Joseph turned away from them and wept. – And again he came to them and spoke to them, and he took Symeon from them and bound him before them.

25 And Joseph commanded that their vessels be filled with grain and that each one’s silver be returned into his sack and that provisions be given to them for the way. And thus it came to be for them.

26 And placing the grain upon their donkeys, they went away from there. –

27 And one loosened his purse to give fodder to his donkeys where they lodged, and he saw the bundle of his silver, and it was on top of the mouth of the purse.

28 And he said to his brothers: My silver was returned to me, and behold, this is in my purse. And their heart was astonished, and they were troubled with one another, saying: What is this that God has done to us?

29 And they came to Jacob their father in the land of Chanaan and reported to him everything that had happened to them, saying:

30 The man, the lord of the land, has spoken harsh things to us and placed us in custody as men spying out the land.

31 And we said to him: We are peaceful; we are not spies.

32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; the one does not exist, but the youngest is with our father today in the land of Chanaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the land, said to us: By this I will know that you are peaceful: leave one brother here with me, but take the purchase of the grain-ration of your house and go away,

34 and bring your youngest brother to me, and I will know that you are not spies but are peaceful, and I will restore your brother to you, and trade in the land.

35 And it happened while they were emptying their sacks that the bundle of each one’s silver was in their sack; and they and their father saw the bundles of their silver and were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said to them: You have made me childless; Joseph does not exist, Symeon does not exist, and you will take Benjamin. All these things have come upon me.

37 And Reuben spoke to his father, saying: Kill my two sons if I do not bring him to you; give him into my hand, and I will bring him back to you.

38 But he said: My son shall not go down with you, because his brother died and he alone has been left; and it will happen that he is afflicted by weakness on the way in which you journey, and you will bring my old age down with sorrow into Hades.

Chapter 43

1 And the famine grew strong upon the land.

2 And it happened when they finished eating the grain that they had brought from Egypt that their father said to them: Go again and buy us a little food.

3 And Judas spoke to him, saying: With a testimony the man testified to us, saying: You shall not see my face unless your youngest brother is with you.

4 If therefore you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you.

5 But if you do not send our brother with us, we will not journey, for the man said to us: You shall not see my face unless your youngest brother is with you.

6 And Israel said: Why did you harm me by reporting to the man whether you had a brother?

7 And they said: Questioning, the man questioned us and our family, saying: Is your father still living? Do you have a brother? And we reported to him according to this questioning. Surely we did not know that he would say to us: Bring your brother.

8 And Judas said to Israel his father: Send the boy with me, and arising, we shall journey, so that we may live and not die, both we and you and our baggage.

9 And I receive responsibility for him; seek him from my hand. If I do not bring him to you and stand him before you, I will have sinned against you all the days.

10 For if we had not delayed, we would already have returned twice.

11 And Israel their father said to them: If it is so, do this: take some of the fruits of the land in your vessels and bring gifts down to the man—some resin and honey, incense and stacte and terebinth and nuts.

12 And take double silver in your hands; return with you the silver that was returned in your purses, lest perhaps it was a mistake.

13 And take your brother, and arise and go down to the man.

14 And may my God give you grace before the man and send away your one brother and Benjamin; but as for me, just as I have been made childless, I have been made childless.

15 And the men took these gifts and took the double silver in their hands and Benjamin, and arising, they went down into Egypt and stood before Joseph.

16 And Joseph saw them and Benjamin his brother from the same mother and said to the one over his house: Bring the men into the house, and slaughter sacrifices and prepare, for the men will eat breads with me at midday.

17 And the man did just as Joseph said and brought the men into the house of Joseph. –

18 And when the men saw that they had been brought into the house of Joseph, they said: Because of the silver that was returned in our purses at the beginning, we are being brought in, to accuse us falsely and attack us, to take us as servants, and our donkeys.

19 And approaching the man who was over the house of Joseph, they spoke to him in the gateway of the house,

20 saying: We beseech you, lord; we came down at the beginning to buy food.

21 And it happened when we came to lodge and opened our purses that here was the silver of each one in his purse; and our silver by weight we have now returned in our hands.

22 And we brought other silver with ourselves to buy food; we do not know who put the silver into our purses.

23 And he said to them: Mercy be to you; do not fear. Your God and the God of your fathers gave you treasures in your purses, but I have received your silver as approved payment. And he brought Symeon out to them, 24 and he brought water to wash their feet and gave fodder to their donkeys.

25 And they prepared the gifts until Joseph came at midday, for they heard that he was going to eat lunch there.

26 And Joseph entered the house, and they brought him the gifts that they had in their hands into the house and bowed down to him upon their faces upon the ground.

27 And he questioned them: How are you? And he said to them: Is your elderly father, whom you mentioned, healthy? Is he still living?

28 And they said: Your servant our father is healthy; he is still living. And he said: Blessed is that man by God. And bending down, they bowed down to him.

29 And Joseph looked up with his eyes and saw Benjamin his brother from the same mother and said: Is this your youngest brother, whom you said you would bring to me? And he said: May God have mercy on you, child.

30 And Joseph was troubled—for his inward parts were twisting over his brother—and he sought to weep; and entering the private chamber, he wept there.

31 And washing his face, he came out and restrained himself and said: Set out breads.

32 And they set out for him alone, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians dining with him by themselves; for the Egyptians were not able to eat breads together with the Hebrews, for it is an abomination to the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his seniority and the youngest according to his youth; and the men were astonished, each toward his brother.

34 And they lifted portions from him toward themselves; but the portion of Benjamin was made greater than the portions of all, fivefold compared with theirs. And they drank and became drunk with him.

Chapter 44

1 And Joseph commanded the one who was over his house, saying: Fill the purses of the men with as much food as they are able to carry, and put each one’s silver at the mouth of his purse,

2 and put my silver cup into the purse of the youngest, along with the price of his grain. And it happened according to the word of Joseph, just as he said. –

3 The morning dawned, and the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.

4 And when they had gone out of the city [they were not far away], Joseph said to the one over his house: Arise, pursue after the men and overtake them, and say to them: Why is it that you repaid evil in place of good?

5 Why did you steal my silver cup? Is this not that in which my lord drinks? And by divination he practices divination in it. You have brought to completion evil things that you have done.

6 And finding them, he spoke to them according to these words.

7 And they said to him: Why does the lord speak according to these words? May it not happen that your servants do according to this word.

8 If we returned to you from the land of Chanaan the silver that we found in our purses, how could we steal silver or gold from the house of your lord?

9 With whomever among your servants the cup is found, let him die; and we also will be servants to our lord.

10 And he said: Even now, as you say, so it will be; the man with whom the cup is found, he will be my servant, but you will be clean.

11 And they hastened, and each brought his purse down upon the ground, and each opened his purse.

12 And he searched, beginning from the eldest until he came to the youngest, and he found the cup in the purse of Benjamin.

13 And they tore their garments, and each placed his purse upon his donkey, and they returned to the city.

14 And Judas and his brothers entered to Joseph while he was still there, and they fell before him upon the ground.

15 And Joseph said to them: What is this deed that you have done? Do you not know that by divination a man such as I practices divination?

16 And Judas said: What shall we answer our lord, or what shall we speak, or how shall we be justified? But God has found the unrighteousness of your servants. Behold, we are household servants to our lord, both we and he with whom the cup was found.

17 And Joseph said: May it not happen to me to do this thing; the man with whom the cup was found, he will be my servant, but you go up with salvation to your father.

18 And Judas drew near to him and said: I beseech you, lord, let your servant speak a word before you, and do not be angry with your servant, because you are with Pharao.

19 Lord, you questioned your servants, saying: Do you have a father or a brother?

20 And we said to the lord: We have an elderly father and a younger child of old age for him, and his brother died, and he alone was left to his mother, and his father loved him.

21 And you said to your servants: Bring him down to me, and I will care for him.

22 And we said to the lord: The child will not be able to leave his father; but if he leaves his father, he will die.

23 But you said to your servants: Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall not add again to see my face.

24 And it happened when we went up to your servant, namely our father, that we reported the words of the lord to him.

25 And our father said to us: Walk again; buy us a little food.

26 But we said: We will not be able to go down; but if our youngest brother goes down with us, we will go down, for we will not be able to see the face of the man if our youngest brother is not with us.

27 And your servant our father said to us: You know that my woman bore me two.

28 And the one went out from me, and you said that he had become beast-eaten, and I have not seen him still even now.

29 If therefore you take this one also from my face and some weakness happens to him on the way, then you will bring my old age down with sorrow into Hades.

30 Now therefore, if I enter to your servant, namely our father, and the boy is not with us—his soul hangs from this one’s soul—

31 then it will happen when he sees that the boy is not with us that he will die, and your servants will bring the old age of your servant, namely our father, down with pain into Hades.

32 For your servant has received responsibility for the boy from the father, saying: If I do not bring him to you and stand him before you, I will have sinned against the father all the days.

33 Now therefore, I will remain beside you as a servant in place of the boy, a household servant of the lord; but let the boy go up with his brothers.

34 For how shall I go up to the father when the boy is not with us? Let me not see the evils that will find my father.

Chapter 45

1 And Joseph was not able to endure all those standing beside him, but said: Send everyone away from me. And no one was still standing beside Joseph when he made himself known to his brothers.

2 And he let out his voice with weeping; and all the Egyptians heard, and it became audible in the house of Pharao.

3 And Joseph said to his brothers: I am Joseph. Is my father still living? And his brothers were not able to answer him, for they were troubled.

4 And Joseph said to his brothers: Draw near to me. And they drew near. And he said: I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore, do not be grieved, nor let it appear hard to you that you sold me here, for God sent me before you for life.

6 For this is the second year that famine is upon the land, and there are still five years remaining in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest.

7 For God sent me before you so that a remnant of you might be left upon the earth and to nourish a great remnant of you.

8 Now therefore, you did not send me here, but rather God; and he made me as a father to Pharao and lord of all his house and ruler of all the land of Egypt.

9 Therefore hasten and go up to my father and say to him: Thus says your son Joseph: God made me lord of all the land of Egypt; therefore come down to me and do not remain.

10 And you will dwell in the land of Gesem of Arabia and will be near me, you and your sons and the sons of your sons, your sheep and your cattle and whatever is yours.

11 And I will nourish you there—for there are still five years of famine—so that you are not wiped out, you and your sons and all your possessions.

12 Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of Benjamin my brother, that it is my mouth speaking to you.

13 Therefore report to my father all my glory that is in Egypt and everything that you saw, and hasten and bring my father down here.

14 And falling upon the neck of Benjamin his brother, he wept over him, and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 And kissing all his brothers, he wept over them; and after these things his brothers spoke to him.

16 And the report was spread into the house of Pharao, saying: The brothers of Joseph have come. And Pharao and his attendants rejoiced.

17 And Pharao said to Joseph: Say to your brothers: Do this: load your conveyances and go away into the land of Chanaan,

18 and take your father and your possessions and come to me, and I will give you some of all the good things of Egypt, and you will eat the marrow of the land.

19 And you, command these things: that they take wagons from the land of Egypt for your children and your women, and take up your father and come.

20 And do not spare your goods with your eyes, for all the good things of Egypt will be yours.

21 And the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them wagons according to the things spoken by Pharao the king and gave them provisions for the way.

22 And he gave double robes to all, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred gold pieces and five changes of robes.

23 And to his father he sent the same, and ten donkeys carrying some of all the good things of Egypt and ten she-mules carrying breads for his father for the way.

24 And he sent his brothers away, and they journeyed; and he said to them: Do not be angry on the way.

25 And they went up from Egypt and came into the land of Chanaan to Jacob their father,

26 and they reported to him, saying: Your son Joseph is living, and he rules all the land of Egypt. And the mind of Jacob was beside itself, for he did not believe them.

27 And they spoke to him all the things spoken by Joseph, as many as he had said to them. And when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to take him up, the spirit of Jacob their father was rekindled.

28 And Israel said: It is great to me if Joseph my son is still living; I will journey and see him before I die.

Chapter 46

1 And Israel departed, he and all that was his, and came to the Well of the Oath and sacrificed a sacrifice to the God of his father Isaac.

2 And God spoke to Israel in a vision of the night, having said: Jacob, Jacob. And he said: What is it?

3 saying: I am the God of your fathers; do not be afraid to go down into Egypt, for there I will make you into a great nation.

4 And I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will bring you up to the end, and Joseph will lay his hands upon your eyes.

5 And Jacob arose from the Well of the Oath, and the sons of Israel took up their father and their baggage and their women upon the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him.

6 And taking up their possessions and all the property that they had acquired in the land of Chanaan, they entered into Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him,

7 sons and the sons of his sons with him, daughters and the daughters of his sons; and he brought all his seed into Egypt.

8 And these are the names of the sons of Israel who entered into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: the firstborn of Jacob, Reuben.

9 And the sons of Reuben: Enoch and Phallous, Asron and Charmi.

10 And the sons of Symeon: Jemouel and Jamin and Aod and Jachin and Saar and Saul, the son of the Chanaanite woman.

11 And the sons of Levi: Gerson, Kaath, and Merari.

12 And the sons of Judas: Er and Aunan and Selom and Phares and Zara; and Er and Aunan died in the land of Chanaan. And the sons of Phares were Asron and Jemouel.

13 And the sons of Issachar: Thola and Phoua and Jasoub and Zambram.

14 And the sons of Zabulon: Sered and Allon and Aloel.

15 These are the sons of Leia whom she bore to Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, and Dina his daughter; all the souls, sons and daughters, were thirty-three. –

16 And the sons of Gad: Saphon and Aggis and Saunis and Thasoban and Aedis and Aroedis and Aroelis.

17 And the sons of Aser: Jemna and Jesoua and Jeoul and Baria, and Sara their sister. And the sons of Baria: Chobor and Melchiel.

18 These are the sons of Zelpha, whom Laban gave to Leia his daughter, who bore these to Jacob, sixteen souls. –

19 And the sons of Rachel, the woman of Jacob: Joseph and Benjamin.

20 And sons were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt, whom Asenneth the daughter of Petephre, priest of the City of the Sun, bore to him: Manasse and Ephraim. And sons were born to Manasse, whom his Syrian concubine bore to him: Machir; and Machir begot Galaad. And the sons of Ephraim, the brother of Manasse: Soutalaam and Taam. And the sons of Soutalaam: Edem.

21 And the sons of Benjamin: Bala and Chobor and Asbel. And the sons of Bala were Gera and Noeman and Anchis and Ros and Mamphin and Ophimin; and Gera begot Arad.

22 These are the sons of Rachel whom she bore to Jacob; all the souls were eighteen. –

23 And the sons of Dan: Asom.

24 And the sons of Nephthali: Asiel and Goyni and Issaar and Syllem.

25 These are the sons of Balla, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, who bore these to Jacob; all the souls were seven. –

26 And all the souls who entered with Jacob into Egypt, those who came out from his thighs, apart from the women of the sons of Jacob—all the souls were sixty-six.

27 And the sons of Joseph who were born to him in the land of Egypt were nine souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob who entered into Egypt were seventy-five.

28 And he sent Judas before him to Joseph to meet him by the City of Heroes, into the land of Ramesses.

29 And Joseph yoked his chariots and went up to meet Israel his father by the City of Heroes, and when he appeared to him, he fell upon his neck and wept with greater weeping.

30 And Israel said to Joseph: I will die from now on, since I have seen your face, for you are still living.

31 And Joseph said to his brothers: I will go up and report to Pharao and say to him: My brothers and the house of my father, who were in the land of Chanaan, have come to me.

32 And the men are shepherds—for they were men who raise livestock—and they have brought the livestock and the cattle and all that is theirs.

33 Therefore, if Pharao calls you and says to you: What is your occupation?

34 then you shall say: We your servants are men who raise livestock, from childhood until now, both we and our fathers, so that you may dwell in the land of Gesem in Arabia; for every shepherd of sheep is an abomination to the Egyptians.

Chapter 47

1 And Joseph came and reported to Pharao, saying: My father and my brothers and their livestock and cattle and all that is theirs have come from the land of Chanaan, and behold, they are in the land of Gesem.

2 And he took five men from among his brothers and stood them before Pharao.

3 And Pharao said to the brothers of Joseph: What is your occupation? And they said to Pharao: Your servants are shepherds of sheep, both we and our fathers.

4 And they said to Pharao: We have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for the livestock of your servants, for the famine has grown strong in the land of Chanaan; now therefore, we your servants will dwell in the land of Gesem.

5 And Pharao said to Joseph: Let them dwell in the land of Gesem; and if you know that there are capable men among them, appoint them rulers of my livestock. And Jacob and his sons came into Egypt to Joseph, and Pharao king of Egypt heard. And Pharao spoke to Joseph, saying: Your father and your brothers have come to you.

6 Behold, the land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best land.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father and stood him before Pharao, and Jacob blessed Pharao.

8 And Pharao said to Jacob: How many are the years of the days of your life?

9 And Jacob said to Pharao: The days of the years of my life in which I sojourn are a hundred thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life; they have not reached the days of the years of the life of my fathers, the days in which they sojourned.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharao and went out from him.

11 And Joseph settled his father and his brothers and gave them a holding in the land of Egypt, in the best land, in the land of Ramesses, just as Pharao commanded.

12 And Joseph measured grain to his father and his brothers and all the house of his father, grain according to each body.

13 And there was no grain in all the land, for the famine grew exceedingly strong; and the land of Egypt and the land of Chanaan failed because of the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered all the silver found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Chanaan for the grain that they were buying and that he was measuring to them, and Joseph brought all the silver into the house of Pharao.

15 And all the silver from the land of Egypt and from the land of Chanaan failed. And all the Egyptians came to Joseph, saying: Give us breads, and why should we die before you? For our silver has failed.

16 And Joseph said to them: Bring your livestock, and I will give you breads in exchange for your livestock, if the silver has failed.

17 And they brought the livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them breads in exchange for the horses and in exchange for the sheep and in exchange for the cattle and in exchange for the donkeys, and he nourished them with breads in exchange for all their livestock in that year. –

18 And that year went out, and they came to him in the second year and said to him: Lest we be destroyed from our lord; for if the silver and the possessions and the livestock have failed to you the lord, then nothing is left for us before our lord except our own body and our land.

19 Therefore, so that we do not die before you and the land is made desolate, acquire us and our land in exchange for breads, and we and our land will be servants of Pharao. Give seed so that we may sow and live and not die, and the land will not be made desolate.

20 And Joseph acquired all the land of the Egyptians for Pharao, for the Egyptians sold their land to Pharao because the famine prevailed over them; and the land became Pharao’s.

21 And he enslaved the people to him as servants, from the extremities of the boundaries of Egypt as far as the extremities,

22 apart from the land of the priests alone; Joseph did not acquire this, for Pharao gave a gift to the priests as an allowance, and they ate the allowance that Pharao gave them; because of this, they did not sell their land.

23 And Joseph said to all the Egyptians: Behold, today I have acquired you and your land for Pharao; take seed for yourselves and sow the land.

24 And it shall be that of its produce you will give the fifth part to Pharao, but the four parts will be for you yourselves, for seed for the land and for food for you and all those in your houses.

25 And they said: You have saved us; we have found grace before our lord, and we will be servants of Pharao.

26 And Joseph set it for them as an ordinance until this day over the land of Egypt, to give a fifth to Pharao, apart from the land of the priests alone; it was not Pharao’s.

27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt upon the land of Gesem, and they inherited upon it and increased and multiplied exceedingly. –

28 And Jacob lived on in the land of Egypt for seventeen years; and the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were a hundred forty-seven years.

29 And the days of Israel drew near for him to die, and he called his son Joseph and said to him: If I have found grace before you, put your hand under my thigh and do mercy and truth with me, that you not bury me in Egypt.

30 But I will sleep with my fathers, and you will carry me from Egypt and bury me in their tomb. And he said: I will do according to your word.

31 And he said: Swear to me. And he swore to him. And Israel bowed down upon the tip of his staff.

Chapter 48

1 And it happened after these words that it was reported to Joseph: Your father is ill. And taking his two sons, Manasse and Ephraim, he came to Jacob.

2 And it was reported to Jacob, saying: Behold, your son Joseph is coming to you. And Israel strengthened himself and sat upon the bed.

3 And Jacob said to Joseph: My God appeared to me in Louza in the land of Chanaan and blessed me,

4 and said to me: Behold, I will increase you and multiply you and make you into congregations of nations, and I will give this land to you and to your seed after you as an eternal holding.

5 Now therefore, your two sons who were born to you in Egypt before I came to you in Egypt are mine; Ephraim and Manasse will be mine as Reuben and Symeon.

6 But the offspring whom you beget after these will be yours; they will be called upon the name of their brothers in their inheritances.

7 And as for me, when I was coming from Mesopotamia of Syria, Rachel your mother died in the land of Chanaan as I was drawing near, by the hippodrome, Chabratha of the land, on the way to Ephratha; and I buried her on the road of the hippodrome [this is Bethlehem]. –

8 And Israel saw the sons of Joseph and said: Who are these to you?

9 And Joseph said to his father: They are my sons, whom God gave me here. And Jacob said: Bring them near to me, so that I may bless them.

10 And the eyes of Israel had grown heavy from old age, and he was not able to see; and he brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

11 And Israel said to Joseph: Behold, I was not deprived of your face, and behold, God showed me also your seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from his knees, and they bowed down to him upon their faces upon the ground.

13 And Joseph took his two sons, Ephraim in his right hand, to the left of Israel, and Manasse in his left hand, to the right of Israel, and brought them near to him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it upon the head of Ephraim—but he was the younger—and his left hand upon the head of Manasse, crossing his hands.

15 And he blessed them and said: The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac were pleasing, the God who nourishes me from youth until this day,

16 the angel who delivers me from all evils, may he bless these children; and my name and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac shall be called upon them, and may they be multiplied into a great multitude upon the earth.

17 And Joseph saw that his father had laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, and it appeared grievous to him; and Joseph took hold of his father’s hand to remove it from the head of Ephraim to the head of Manasse.

18 And Joseph said to his father: Not so, father, for this one is the firstborn; place your right hand upon his head.

19 And he did not wish to, but said: I know, child, I know. This one also will become a people, and this one also will be exalted, but his younger brother will be greater than he, and his seed will become a multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them on that day, saying: In you Israel will be blessed, with people saying: May God make you as Ephraim and as Manasse. And he placed Ephraim before Manasse. –

21 And Israel said to Joseph: Behold, I am dying, and God will be with you and return you to the land of your fathers.

22 And I give you Sikima as an exceptional portion beyond your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorrites with my sword and bow.

Chapter 49

1 And Jacob called his sons and said: Gather together, so that I may report to you what will meet you at the last of the days.

2 Assemble and hear, sons of Jacob; hear Israel your father.

3 Reuben, you are my firstborn, my strength and the beginning of my children, hard to endure and hard, self-willed.

4 You acted outrageously like water; do not boil over. For you went up upon the bed of your father; then you defiled the bedding where you went up.

5 Symeon and Levi are brothers; they brought unrighteousness to completion by their choice.

6 May my soul not come into their counsel, and may my liver not rest upon their conspiracy, because in their anger they killed men, and in their desire they hamstrung a bull.

7 Accursed is their anger, because it is self-willed, and their wrath, because it was hardened. I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.

8 Judas, may your brothers praise you; your hands are upon the back of your enemies; the sons of your father will bow down to you.

9 Judas is a lion’s whelp; from a shoot, my son, you went up. Reclining, you slept like a lion and like a whelp; who will awaken him?

10 A ruler will not fail from Judas, nor a leader from his thighs, until the things laid up for him come, and he is the expectation of nations.

11 He binds his colt to a vine and the foal of his donkey to the tendril; he will wash his robe in wine and his wrapping in the blood of a grape.

12 His eyes are gladdened from wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk.

13 Zabulon will dwell by the sea, and he will be by a harbor of ships, and he will extend as far as Sidon.

14 Issachar desired the good, resting between the inheritances.

15 And seeing that the rest was good and that the land was rich, he put his shoulder to labor and became a man who works the land.

16 Dan will judge his own people, as also one tribe in Israel.

17 And let Dan become a serpent upon the road, sitting in ambush upon the path, biting the heel of a horse, and the rider will fall backward.

18 I await the salvation of the Lord.

19 Gad—a raiding party will raid him, but he will raid them at their heels.

20 Aser—his bread is rich, and he will give delicacy to rulers.

21 Nephthali is a loosened stem, bestowing beauty in the produce.

22 A son increased is Joseph, a son increased, envied, my youngest son; return to me.

23 Against him those taking counsel reviled, and masters of arrows held hostility toward him.

24 And their bows were crushed with power, and the sinews of the arms of their hands were loosened through the hand of the mighty one of Jacob; from there is the one who strengthened Israel.

25 From the God of your father; and my God helped you and blessed you with a blessing of heaven above and a blessing of the earth possessing all things, for the sake of the blessing of breasts and womb,

26 the blessing of your father and your mother. It prevailed over the blessings of the permanent mountains and over the blessings of the ever-flowing dunes; they will be upon the head of Joseph and upon the crown of the brothers whom he led.

27 Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; in the morning he will still eat, and by evening he will distribute food.

28 All these are the twelve sons of Jacob, and these things their father spoke to them and blessed them; each according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he said to them: I am being added to my people; bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Chettite,

30 in the double cave opposite Mambre in the land of Chanaan, the cave that Abraham acquired from Ephron the Chettite as a possession for a memorial.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarra his woman; there they buried Isaac and Rebekka his woman; and there I buried Leia, 32 in the possession of the field and the cave that is in it, from the sons of Chet.

33 And Jacob ceased commanding his sons, and lifting his feet onto the bed, he expired and was added to his people.

Chapter 50

1 And Joseph fell upon the face of his father and wept over him and kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants, the embalmers, to embalm his father, and the embalmers embalmed Israel.

3 And they completed forty days for him, for thus the days of burial are counted; and Egypt mourned him for seventy days.

4 And when the days of mourning had passed, Joseph spoke to the mighty men of Pharao, saying: If I have found grace before you, speak about me in the ears of Pharao, saying:

5 My father made me swear, saying: In the memorial that I dug for myself in the land of Chanaan, there you shall bury me. Now therefore, I will go up and bury my father and return.

6 And Pharao said: Go up; bury your father, just as he made you swear.

7 And Joseph went up to bury his father, and all the servants of Pharao and the elders of his house and all the elders of the land of Egypt went up with him,

8 and all the household of Joseph and his brothers and all his paternal house; but they left the kindred and the sheep and the cattle behind in the land of Gesem.

9 And chariots and horsemen also went up with him, and the encampment became exceedingly great.

10 And they arrived at the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and they mourned him with a great and exceedingly strong mourning; and he made mourning for his father for seven days.

11 And the inhabitants of the land of Chanaan saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad and said: This is a great mourning for the Egyptians. Because of this he called its name Mourning of Egypt, which is beyond the Jordan.

12 And his sons did so for him and buried him there.

13 And his sons took him up into the land of Chanaan and buried him in the double cave, the cave that Abraham acquired from Ephron the Chettite opposite Mambre as a possession for a memorial.

14 And Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and those who had gone up with him to bury his father.

15 And when the brothers of Joseph saw that their father had died, they said: Perhaps Joseph may bear a grudge against us and repay us as repayment all the evils that we displayed to him.

16 And they came to Joseph, saying: Your father made us swear before he died, saying:

17 Thus say to Joseph: Forgive them their unrighteousness and their sin, because they displayed evil things to you; and now accept the unrighteousness of the attendants of the God of your father. And Joseph wept while they were speaking to him.

18 And coming to him, they said: Here we are, your household servants.

19 And Joseph said to them: Do not fear, for I am God’s.

20 You planned against me for evil things, but God planned concerning me for good things, so that it might become as today, that many people might be nourished.

21 And he said to them: Do not fear; I will nourish you and your households. And he comforted them and spoke into their heart.

22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his brothers and all the household of his father. And Joseph lived a hundred ten years.

23 And Joseph saw children of Ephraim as far as the third generation, and sons of Machir the son of Manasse were born upon the thighs of Joseph.

24 And Joseph spoke to his brothers, saying: I am dying; but with a visitation God will visit you and bring you up from this land into the land that God swore to our fathers Abraham and Isaac and Jacob.

25 And Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying: In the visitation with which God visits you, you shall also carry my bones up from here with you.

26 And Joseph died, a hundred ten years old; and they buried him and placed him in the coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Chapter 1

1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who had entered into Egypt together with Jacob their father—each entered with his whole household—

2 Reuben, Symeon, Levi, Judas,

3 Issachar, Zabulon, and Benjamin,

4 Dan and Nephthali, Gad and Aser.

5 And Joseph was in Egypt. And all the souls from Jacob were seventy-five.

6 And Joseph died, and all his brothers and all that generation.

7 But the sons of Israel increased and multiplied and became abundant and grew exceedingly, exceedingly strong, and the land multiplied them.

8 And another king arose over Egypt who did not know Joseph.

9 And he said to his nation: Behold, the race of the sons of Israel is a great multitude and is stronger than we.

10 Come therefore, let us act craftily toward them, lest they multiply and, whenever war happens to us, these also be added to the adversaries, and having made war against us, they depart from the land.

11 And he set overseers of the works over them so that they might afflict them in the works; and they built fortified cities for Pharao: Pithom and Ramesses and On, which is the City of the Sun.

12 But according as they humbled them, by so much they became more numerous and grew exceedingly, exceedingly strong; and the Egyptians abhorred the sons of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians oppressed the sons of Israel by force

14 and pained their life with hard works, with clay and brickmaking and all the works in the plains, according to all the works with which they enslaved them by force.

15 And the king of the Egyptians spoke to the midwives of the Hebrews, to the one of them whose name was Sepphora, and the name of the second was Phoua,

16 and he said: When you serve as midwives to the Hebrew women and they are about to give birth, if it is male, kill it, but if female, preserve it alive.

17 But the midwives feared God and did not do according as the king of Egypt commanded them, and they kept the males alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called the midwives and said to them: Why is it that you did this deed and keep the males alive?

19 And the midwives said to Pharao: The Hebrew women are not like the women of Egypt, for they give birth before the midwives enter to them; and they were giving birth.

20 And God did well to the midwives, and the people multiplied and grew strong exceedingly.

21 Since the midwives feared God, they made houses for themselves. –

22 And Pharao commanded all his people, saying: Every male that is born to the Hebrews, throw into the river; and every female, keep it alive.

Chapter 2

1 And there was someone from the tribe of Levi who took one of the daughters of Levi and had her.

2 And she conceived and bore a male; and seeing that it was handsome, they sheltered it for three months.

3 But when they were no longer able to hide it, his mother took a basket for him and coated it with asphalt-pitch and put the child into it and placed it in the marsh beside the river.

4 And his sister was watching from far away to learn what would happen to him.

5 And the daughter of Pharao came down to bathe at the river, and her maidens were walking beside the river; and seeing the basket in the marsh, she sent the maiden and took it up.

6 And opening it, she sees a child crying in the basket, and the daughter of Pharao spared him and said: This is one of the children of the Hebrews.

7 And his sister said to the daughter of Pharao: Do you want me to call for you a nursing woman from the Hebrews, and she will nurse the child for you?

8 And the daughter of Pharao said to her: Go. And the young woman went and called the mother of the child.

9 And the daughter of Pharao said to her: Keep this child for me and nurse it for me, and I will give you the wage. And the woman took the child and nursed it.

10 And when the child had grown, she brought him to the daughter of Pharao, and he became a son to her; and she named his name Moses, saying: I took him up out of the water.

11 And it happened in those many days, when Moses had become grown, that he went out to his brothers, the sons of Israel. And observing their labor, he sees an Egyptian man beating a certain Hebrew, one of his own brothers, the sons of Israel.

12 And looking around here and there, he sees no one, and striking the Egyptian, he hid him in the sand.

13 And going out on the second day, he sees two Hebrew men fighting and says to the one doing wrong: Why do you strike your neighbor?

14 And he said: Who appointed you ruler and judge over us? Do you wish to kill me in the manner that you killed the Egyptian yesterday? And Moses was afraid and said: Has this matter thus become manifest?

15 And Pharao heard this matter and sought to kill Moses; but Moses withdrew from the face of Pharao and dwelt in the land of Madiam. And coming into the land of Madiam, he sat upon the well.

16 And the priest of Madiam had seven daughters who were shepherding the sheep of Jothor their father; and coming, they were drawing water until they filled the troughs to give the sheep of Jothor their father a drink.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses arose and rescued them and drew water for them and gave their sheep a drink.

18 And they came to Ragouel their father; and he said to them: Why is it that you hastened to come today?

19 And they said: An Egyptian man rescued us from the shepherds and drew water for us and gave our sheep a drink.

20 And he said to his daughters: And where is he? And why have you thus left the man behind? Therefore call him, so that he may eat bread.

21 And Moses was settled beside the man, and he gave out Sepphora his daughter to Moses as a woman.

22 And the woman conceived and bore a son, and Moses named his name Gersam, saying: I am a sojourner in a foreign land.

23 And after those many days the king of Egypt died. And the sons of Israel groaned because of the works and cried out, and their cry went up to God because of the works.

24 And God listened to their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob.

25 And God looked upon the sons of Israel and became known to them.

Chapter 3

1 And Moses was shepherding the sheep of Jothor his father-in-law, the priest of Madiam, and he led the sheep beneath the wilderness and came to Mount Choreb.

2 And an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire from the bush, and he sees that the bush burns with fire, but the bush was not burned up.

3 And Moses said: Passing by, I will see this great vision, why the bush is not burned up.

4 And when the Lord saw that he was drawing near to see, the Lord called him from the bush, saying: Moses, Moses. And he said: What is it?

5 And he said: Do not draw near here; loosen the sandal from your feet, for the place in which you stand is holy ground.

6 And he said to him: I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. And Moses turned his face away, for he was reverent about looking directly before God.

7 And the Lord said to Moses: Seeing, I saw the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their cry because of the taskmasters, for I know their pain.

8 And I came down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them out of that land and bring them into a good and large land, into a land flowing with milk and honey, into the place of the Chanaanites and Chettites and Amorrites and Pherezites and Gergesites and Evites and Jebousites.

9 And now, behold, the cry of the sons of Israel has come to me, and I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.

10 And now come, I will send you to Pharao king of Egypt, and you shall bring my people, the sons of Israel, out of the land of Egypt. –

11 And Moses said to God: Who am I, that I should journey to Pharao king of Egypt and that I should bring the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt?

12 And God spoke to Moses, saying: I will be with you, and this is the sign for you that I am sending you out: when you bring my people out of Egypt, you will also serve God on this mountain.

13 And Moses said to God: Behold, I will go to the sons of Israel and will say to them: The God of your fathers has sent me to you. They will ask me: What name is to him? What shall I say to them?

14 And God said to Moses: I am the One Who Is. And he said: Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel: The One Who Is has sent me to you.

15 And God said again to Moses: Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel: The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my eternal name and a memorial of generations to generations.

16 Therefore go and gather the council of elders of the sons of Israel and say to them: The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying: With a visitation I have visited you and whatever has happened to you in Egypt.

17 And I said: I will bring you up from the affliction of the Egyptians into the land of the Chanaanites and Chettites and Amorrites and Pherezites and Gergesites and Evites and Jebousites, into a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And they will listen to your voice; and you and the council of elders of Israel shall enter to Pharao king of Egypt, and you shall say to him: The God of the Hebrews has called us to himself; therefore let us journey a journey of three days into the wilderness so that we may sacrifice to our God.

19 But I know that Pharao king of Egypt will not permit you to journey unless with a mighty hand.

20 And stretching out my hand, I will strike the Egyptians with all my wonders that I will do among them, and after these things he will send you away.

21 And I will give grace to this people before the Egyptians; and when you run away, you will not go away empty.

22 A woman shall ask from her neighbor and her tentmate vessels of silver and gold and clothing, and you will place them upon your sons and upon your daughters, and you will plunder the Egyptians. –

Chapter 4

1 And Moses answered and said: If therefore they do not believe me or listen to my voice—for they will say: God has not appeared to you—what shall I say to them?

2 And the Lord said to him: What is this thing in your hand? And he said: A staff.

3 And he said: Throw it upon the ground. And he threw it upon the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it.

4 And the Lord said to Moses: Stretch out your hand and take hold of the tail. Therefore he stretched out his hand and took hold of the tail, and it became a staff in his hand,

5 so that they may believe you, that the Lord, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.

6 And the Lord said to him again: Bring your hand into your bosom. And he brought his hand into his bosom; and he brought his hand out from his bosom, and his hand became as snow.

7 And he said: Again bring your hand into your bosom. And he brought his hand into his bosom; and he brought it out from his bosom, and again it was restored to the color of his flesh.

8 But if they do not believe you or listen to the voice of the first sign, they will believe you because of the voice of the last sign.

9 And it shall be that if they do not believe you because of these two signs or listen to your voice, you shall take some of the water of the river and pour it upon the dry land, and the water that you take from the river will become blood upon the dry land. –

10 And Moses said to the Lord: I beseech you, Lord, I am not sufficient before yesterday, nor before the third day, nor since you began to speak to your attendant; I am thin-voiced and slow-tongued.

11 And the Lord said to Moses: Who gave a mouth to man, and who made one hard of hearing and deaf, seeing and blind? Is it not I, God?

12 And now journey, and I will open your mouth and instruct you in what you are about to speak.

13 And Moses said: I beseech you, Lord, select another who is capable, whom you will send.

14 And the Lord became angry with wrath at Moses and said: Is not Aaron your brother, the Levite, here? I know that speaking, he will speak for you; and behold, he will go out to meet you, and seeing you, he will rejoice within himself.

15 And you shall speak to him and give my words into his mouth; and I will open your mouth and his mouth and instruct you in what you shall do.

16 And he will speak for you to the people, and he will be a mouth for you, but you will be for him the things pertaining to God.

17 And you shall take in your hand this staff that was turned into a serpent, with which you will perform the signs.

18 And Moses journeyed and returned to Jothor his father-in-law and said: I will journey and return to my brothers who are in Egypt and see whether they are still living. And Jothor said to Moses: Walk in health.

19 And after those many days the king of Egypt died. And the Lord said to Moses in Madiam: Walk; go away into Egypt, for all those seeking your life have died.

20 And Moses took his woman and his children and mounted them upon the draft animals and returned into Egypt; and Moses took the staff from God in his hand.

21 And the Lord said to Moses: As you journey and return into Egypt, see that you perform before Pharao all the wonders that I gave into your hands; but I will harden his heart, and he shall certainly not send the people away.

22 And you shall say to Pharao: Thus says the Lord: Israel is my firstborn son.

23 And I said to you: Send my people away so that they may serve me; therefore, if you do not wish to send them away, behold, I will kill your firstborn son.

24 And it happened on the way, at the lodging place, that an angel of the Lord met him and sought to kill him.

25 And Sepphora took a pebble and circumcised the foreskin of her son and fell at the feet and said: The blood of the circumcision of my child has stood.

26 And he went away from him, because she said: The blood of the circumcision of my child has stood.

27 And the Lord said to Aaron: Journey to meet Moses in the wilderness. And he journeyed and met him at the mountain of God, and they kissed one another.

28 And Moses reported to Aaron all the words of the Lord for which he had sent him, and all the signs that he had commanded him.

29 And Moses and Aaron journeyed and gathered the council of elders of the sons of Israel.

30 And Aaron spoke all these words that God had spoken to Moses, and he performed the signs before the people.

31 And the people believed and rejoiced, because God had visited the sons of Israel and because he had seen their affliction; and the people bent down and bowed.

Chapter 5

1 And after these things Moses and Aaron entered to Pharao and said to him: Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: Send my people away so that they may keep a festival to me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharao said: Who is he whose voice I shall hear, so as to send away the sons of Israel? I do not know the Lord, and I will not send Israel away.

3 And they say to him: The God of the Hebrews has called us to himself; therefore we shall journey a journey of three days into the wilderness so that we may sacrifice to our God, lest death or slaughter meet us.

4 And the king of Egypt said to them: Why, Moses and Aaron, do you turn my people away from the works? Go away, each of you to his works.

5 And Pharao said: Behold, now the people are very numerous; shall we therefore make them cease from the works?

6 And Pharao commanded the taskmasters of the people and the scribes, saying:

7 It shall no longer be added to give straw to the people for brickmaking, just as yesterday and the third day; let them journey and gather straw for themselves.

8 And you shall impose upon them the quota of brickmaking that they themselves make each day; you shall take nothing away, for they are idle. Because of this they have cried out, saying: Let us journey and sacrifice to our God.

9 Let the works of these men be made heavy, and let them be concerned with these and not be concerned with empty words.

10 And the taskmasters and the scribes were hurrying them and spoke to the people, saying: Thus says Pharao: I no longer give you straw.

11 You yourselves journey and gather straw for yourselves from wherever you may find it, for nothing is taken away from your quota.

12 And the people were scattered in all Egypt to gather stubble for straw.

13 And the taskmasters were hurrying them, saying: Complete the works required each day, just as also when the straw was given to you.

14 And the scribes of the race of the sons of Israel who had been appointed over them by the overseers of Pharao were flogged, saying: Why did you not complete your quotas of brickmaking, just as yesterday and the third day, and that of today?

15 And the scribes of the sons of Israel entered and cried out to Pharao, saying: Why do you do thus to your household servants?

16 Straw is not given to your household servants, and they tell us to make the brick, and behold, your servants have been flogged; therefore you will wrong your people.

17 And he said to them: You are idle; you are idlers. Because of this you say: Let us journey and sacrifice to our God.

18 Now therefore, journey and work; for the straw will not be given to you, and you will render the quota of brickmaking.

19 And the scribes of the sons of Israel saw themselves in evils when they were told: You shall not leave off the daily requirement of brickmaking.

20 And they met Moses and Aaron coming to meet them as they were going out from Pharao,

21 and they said to them: May God see you and judge, because you made our odor abominable before Pharao and before his attendants, to give a broadsword into his hands to kill us.

22 And Moses returned to the Lord and said: Lord, why did you harm this people? And why did you send me?

23 And since I journeyed to Pharao to speak in your name, he has harmed this people, and you did not rescue your people.

Chapter 6

1 And the Lord said to Moses: Already you will see what I will do to Pharao, for with a mighty hand he will send them away, and with a high arm he will drive them out of his land.

2 And God spoke to Moses and said to him: I am the Lord.

3 And I appeared to Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, being their God, and I did not disclose to them my name, Lord.

4 And I established my covenant with them so as to give them the land of the Chanaanites, the land in which they have sojourned, in which they also sojourned upon it.

5 And I listened to the groaning of the sons of Israel, whom the Egyptians enslave, and I remembered your covenant.

6 Walk; speak to the sons of Israel, saying: I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from the oppression of the Egyptians and rescue you from slavery and redeem you with a high arm and great judgment.

7 And I will take you to myself as a people for me and will be your God, and you will know that I am the Lord your God who brought you out from the oppression of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you into the land into which I stretched out my hand to give it to Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and I will give it to you as an inheritance. I am the Lord.

9 And Moses spoke thus to the sons of Israel, and they did not listen to Moses because of smallness of soul and because of the hard works.

10 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

11 Enter; speak to Pharao king of Egypt so that he may send the sons of Israel away from his land.

12 And Moses spoke before the Lord, saying: Behold, the sons of Israel did not listen to me, and how will Pharao listen to me? And I am speechless.

13 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron and commanded them concerning Pharao king of Egypt so as to send the sons of Israel away from the land of Egypt.

14 And these are the chiefs of their paternal houses. The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Enoch and Phallous, Asron and Charmi. This is the family of Reuben.

15 And the sons of Symeon: Jemouel and Jamin and Aod and Jachin and Saar and Saul, the one from the Phoenician woman. These are the paternal families of the sons of Symeon.

16 And these are the names of the sons of Levi according to their families: Gedson, Kaath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were a hundred thirty-seven.

17 And these are the sons of Gedson: Lobeni and Semei, the houses of their paternal family.

18 And the sons of Kaath: Ambram and Issaar, Chebron and Oziel. And the years of the life of Kaath were a hundred thirty years.

19 And the sons of Merari: Mooli and Omousi. These are the paternal houses of Levi according to their families.

20 And Ambram took Jochabed, the daughter of the brother of his father, for himself as a woman, and she bore him Aaron and Moses and Mariam their sister. And the years of the life of Ambram were a hundred thirty-two years.

21 And the sons of Issaar: Kore and Naphek and Zechri.

22 And the sons of Oziel: Elisaphan and Setri.

23 And Aaron took Elisabeth, the daughter of Aminadab, the sister of Naasson, as a woman for himself, and she bore him Nadab and Abioud and Eleazar and Ithamar.

24 And the sons of Kore: Asir and Elkana and Abiasaph. These are the generations of Kore.

25 And Eleazar the son of Aaron took one of the daughters of Phoutiel as a woman for himself, and she bore him Phinees. These are the beginnings of the paternal family of the Levites according to their generations.

26 This is Aaron and Moses, to whom God said to bring the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt with their force.

27 These are the ones speaking with Pharao king of Egypt, and they brought the sons of Israel out of Egypt; it is Aaron and Moses.

28 On the day when the Lord spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,

29 the Lord also spoke to Moses, saying: I am the Lord; speak to Pharao king of Egypt as many things as I say to you.

30 And Moses said before the Lord: Behold, I am thin-voiced, and how will Pharao listen to me?

Chapter 7

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Behold, I have made you a god to Pharao, and Aaron your brother will be your prophet.

2 And you shall speak to him everything that I command you, but Aaron your brother will speak to Pharao so as to send the sons of Israel away from his land.

3 But I will harden the heart of Pharao and multiply my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharao will not listen to you; and I will lay my hand upon Egypt and bring out with my force my people, the sons of Israel, from the land of Egypt with great vengeance.

5 And all the Egyptians will know that I am the Lord, stretching out my hand upon Egypt, and I will bring the sons of Israel out from their midst.

6 And Moses and Aaron did just as the Lord commanded them; thus they did.

7 And Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron his brother was eighty-three years old, when he spoke to Pharao.

8 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

9 And if Pharao speaks to you, saying: Give us a sign or a wonder, then you shall say to Aaron your brother: Take the staff and throw it upon the ground before Pharao and before his attendants, and it will become a dragon.

10 And Moses and Aaron entered before Pharao and his attendants and did so, just as the Lord commanded them; and Aaron threw the staff before Pharao and before his attendants, and it became a dragon.

11 And Pharao called together the sophists of Egypt and the sorcerers, and the enchanters of the Egyptians also did likewise with their sorceries.

12 And each threw his staff, and they became dragons; and Aaron’s staff swallowed their staffs.

13 And the heart of Pharao grew strong, and he did not listen to them, just as the Lord had spoken to them.

14 And the Lord said to Moses: The heart of Pharao has been made heavy so as not to send the people away.

15 Walk to Pharao in the morning; behold, he goes out to the water, and you shall stand to meet him at the lip of the river, and you shall take in your hand the staff that was turned into a serpent.

16 And you shall say to him: The Lord, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying: Send my people away so that they may serve me in the wilderness. And behold, you have not listened until now.

17 Thus says the Lord: By this you will know that I am the Lord. Behold, I strike with the staff in my hand upon the water that is in the river, and it will change into blood.

18 And the fish that are in the river will die, and the river will stink, and the Egyptians will not be able to drink water from the river.

19 And the Lord said to Moses: Say to Aaron your brother: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt and over their rivers and over their channels and over their marshes and over all their standing water, and it will become blood. And blood came to be in all the land of Egypt, both in wood and in stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, just as the Lord commanded them; and lifting with his staff, he struck the water that was in the river before Pharao and before his attendants and changed all the water that was in the river into blood.

21 And the fish that were in the river died, and the river stank, and the Egyptians were not able to drink water from the river, and the blood was in all the land of Egypt.

22 And the enchanters of the Egyptians also did likewise with their sorceries; and the heart of Pharao was hardened, and he did not listen to them, just as the Lord said.

23 And Pharao turned and entered his house and did not set his mind even on this.

24 And all the Egyptians dug around the river so as to drink water, and they were not able to drink water from the river.

25 And seven days were completed after the Lord struck the river.

26 And the Lord said to Moses: Enter to Pharao and say to him: Thus says the Lord: Send my people away so that they may serve me.

27 But if you do not wish to send them away, behold, I strike all your borders with frogs.

28 And the river will belch out frogs, and they will go up and enter into your houses and into the private chambers of your bedchambers and upon your beds and into the houses of your attendants and your people and in your doughs and in your ovens.

29 And the frogs will go up upon you and upon your attendants and upon your people.

Chapter 8

1 And the Lord said to Moses: Say to Aaron your brother: Stretch out your staff with your hand over the rivers and over the channels and over the marshes, and bring up the frogs.

2 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt and brought up the frogs; and the frog was brought up and covered the land of Egypt.

3 And the enchanters of the Egyptians also did likewise with their sorceries and brought the frogs up upon the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharao called Moses and Aaron and said: Pray concerning me to the Lord, and let him remove the frogs from me and from my people, and I will send the people away, and let them sacrifice to the Lord.

5 And Moses said to Pharao: Appoint for me when I shall pray concerning you and concerning your attendants and concerning your people, to make the frogs disappear from you and from your people and from your houses; only in the river will they be left.

6 And he said: Tomorrow. Therefore he said: As you have spoken, so that you may know that there is no other except the Lord.

7 And the frogs will be removed from you and from your houses and from the farmsteads and from your attendants and from your people; only in the river will they be left.

8 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharao; and Moses cried out to the Lord concerning the appointed limit of the frogs, as Pharao had appointed.

9 And the Lord did just as Moses said, and the frogs died from the houses and from the farmsteads and from the fields.

10 And they gathered them into heaps upon heaps, and the land stank.

11 And Pharao saw that there was relief, and his heart became heavy, and he did not listen to them, just as the Lord had spoken.

12 And the Lord said to Moses: Say to Aaron: Stretch out your staff with your hand and strike the dust of the land, and there will be gnats among both the humans and the quadrupeds and in all the land of Egypt.

13 Therefore Aaron stretched out the staff with his hand and struck the dust of the land, and the gnats came to be among both the humans and the quadrupeds, and in all the dust of the land the gnats came to be in all the land of Egypt.

14 And the enchanters also did likewise with their sorceries to bring out the gnat, and they were not able. And the gnats came to be among the humans and among the quadrupeds.

15 Therefore the enchanters said to Pharao: This is the finger of God. And the heart of Pharao was hardened, and he did not listen to them, just as the Lord had spoken.

16 And the Lord said to Moses: Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharao; and behold, he will go out to the water, and you shall say to him: Thus says the Lord: Send my people away so that they may serve me in the wilderness.

17 But if you do not wish to send my people away, behold, I send the dog-fly upon you and upon your attendants and upon your people and upon your houses, and the houses of the Egyptians will be filled with the dog-fly, and the land upon which they are.

18 And on that day I will distinguish the land of Gesem, upon which my people are, where the dog-fly will not be, so that you may know that I am the Lord, Lord of all the earth.

19 And I will make a distinction between my people and between your people; and tomorrow this sign will be upon the land.

20 And the Lord did so, and the dog-fly came as a multitude into the houses of Pharao and into the houses of his attendants and into all the land of Egypt, and the land was destroyed by the dog-fly.

21 And Pharao called Moses and Aaron, saying: Go and sacrifice to your God in the land.

22 And Moses said: It is not possible for it to be so, for we will sacrifice the abominations of the Egyptians to the Lord our God; for if we sacrifice the abominations of the Egyptians before them, we will be stoned.

23 We will journey a journey of three days into the wilderness and sacrifice to the Lord our God, just as he told us.

24 And Pharao said: I will send you away, and sacrifice to the Lord your God in the wilderness, but do not extend far in journeying; therefore pray concerning me to the Lord.

25 And Moses said: Here, I will go out from you and pray to God, and the dog-fly will go away from you and from your attendants and your people tomorrow. Do not add again, Pharao, to deceive by not sending the people away to sacrifice to the Lord.

26 And Moses went out from Pharao and prayed to God.

27 And the Lord did just as Moses said and removed the dog-fly from Pharao and his attendants and his people, and not one was left.

28 And Pharao made his heart heavy on this occasion also and did not wish to send the people away.

Chapter 9

1 And the Lord said to Moses: Enter to Pharao and say to him: Thus says the Lord, the God of the Hebrews: Send my people away so that they may serve me.

2 Therefore, if you do not wish to send my people away but still retain them,

3 behold, the hand of the Lord will be upon your livestock in the fields, upon the horses and the draft animals and the camels and cattle and sheep: an exceedingly great death.

4 And at that time I will make a distinction between the livestock of the Egyptians and between the livestock of the sons of Israel; not one thing from all that belongs to the sons of Israel will die.

5 And God set a limit, saying: Tomorrow the Lord will do this thing upon the land.

6 And the Lord did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of the Egyptians died, but none of the livestock of the sons of Israel died.

7 And Pharao saw that none of all the livestock of the sons of Israel had died, and the heart of Pharao became heavy, and he did not send the people away.

8 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: Take for yourselves hands full of furnace soot, and let Moses sprinkle it toward heaven before Pharao and before his attendants.

9 And let it become dust upon all the land of Egypt, and there will be ulcers upon the humans and upon the quadrupeds, blisters boiling up among both the humans and the quadrupeds and in all the land of Egypt.

10 And he took the furnace soot before Pharao, and Moses sprinkled it toward heaven, and there came to be ulcers, blisters boiling up, among the humans and among the quadrupeds.

11 And the sorcerers were not able to stand before Moses because of the ulcers, for the ulcers came to be among the sorcerers and in all the land of Egypt.

12 But the Lord hardened the heart of Pharao, and he did not listen to them, just as the Lord commanded.

13 And the Lord said to Moses: Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharao and say to him: Thus says the Lord, the God of the Hebrews: Send my people away so that they may serve me.

14 For at this present time I am sending all my encounters into your heart and those of your attendants and your people, so that you may know that there is no other like me in all the earth.

15 For now, sending my hand, I will strike you and your people with death, and you will be destroyed from the earth.

16 And because of this you were preserved, so that I may display my strength in you and so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth.

17 Still, therefore, you lay hold of my people so as not to send them away.

18 Behold, at this hour tomorrow I rain exceedingly much hail, such as has not come to be in Egypt from the day it was founded until this day.

19 Now therefore, hasten to gather your livestock and whatever is yours in the field, for all the humans and livestock, whatever is found in the field and does not enter a house, when the hail falls upon them, will die.

20 The one among the attendants of Pharao who feared the word of the Lord gathered his livestock into the houses.

21 But the one who did not apply his mind to the word of the Lord left the livestock in the fields. –

22 And the Lord said to Moses: Stretch out your hand toward heaven, and there will be hail upon all the land of Egypt, upon the humans and the livestock and every plant that is upon the land.

23 And Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and the Lord gave voices and hail, and the fire was running upon the land, and the Lord rained hail upon all the land of Egypt.

24 And there was hail and fire flaming in the hail; and the hail was exceedingly, exceedingly great, such as had not come to be in Egypt since a nation came to be upon it.

25 And the hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt, from human to livestock, and the hail struck every plant in the field, and the hail shattered all the trees in the fields.

26 Only in the land of Gesem, where the sons of Israel were, did the hail not come to be.

27 And Pharao sent and called Moses and Aaron and said to them: I have sinned this time; the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are impious.

28 Therefore pray concerning me to the Lord, and let the voices of God and the hail and fire cease; and I will send you away, and you shall no longer add to remain.

29 And Moses said to him: When I go out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the Lord, and the voices will cease, and the hail and the rain will be no more, so that you may know that the earth is the Lord’s.

30 And as for you and your attendants, I know that you have not yet feared the Lord.

31 And the flax and the barley were struck, for the barley was standing and the flax was seeding.

32 But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they were late.

33 And Moses went out from Pharao, outside the city, and spread out his hands to the Lord, and the voices and the hail ceased, and the rain no longer dripped upon the land.

34 And Pharao saw that the rain and the hail and the voices had ceased, and he added to sin and made his heart and the heart of his attendants heavy.

35 And the heart of Pharao was hardened, and he did not send the sons of Israel away, just as the Lord had spoken to Moses.

Chapter 10

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Enter to Pharao, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his attendants so that these signs may come upon them in succession,

2 so that you may relate in the ears of your children and to the children of your children as many things as I have mocked the Egyptians with, and my signs that I performed among them, and you will know that I am the Lord.

3 And Moses and Aaron entered before Pharao and said to him: Thus says the Lord, the God of the Hebrews: How long do you not wish to show regard for me? Send my people away so that they may serve me.

4 But if you do not wish to send my people away, behold, at this hour tomorrow I bring a great locust upon all your borders.

5 And it will cover the face of the land, and you will not be able to look down at the land, and it will devour all the remainder of the land that was left, which the hail left for you, and it will devour every tree growing for you upon the land.

6 And your houses and the houses of your attendants and all the houses in all the land of the Egyptians will be filled, which your fathers and their forefathers have never seen from the day they came to be upon the land until this day. And Moses turned away and went out from Pharao.

7 And the attendants of Pharao say to him: How long will this be a stumbling block to us? Send the men away so that they may serve their God. Or do you wish to know that Egypt has perished?

8 And they returned both Moses and Aaron to Pharao, and he said to them: Journey and serve your God; but who and who are those journeying?

9 And Moses says: We will journey with the young and the elders, with our sons and daughters and sheep and cattle, for it is a festival of the Lord our God.

10 And he said to them: Let it be so; may the Lord be with you. As I send you, shall I not also send your baggage? See that evil lies before you.

11 Not so; but let the men journey, and serve God, for this is what you yourselves seek. And they drove them out from the face of Pharao. –

12 And the Lord said to Moses: Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt, and let the locust go up upon the land and devour every plant of the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail left behind.

13 And Moses raised the staff toward heaven, and the Lord brought a south wind upon the land that whole day and whole night; morning came, and the south wind took up the locust

14 and brought it up upon all the land of Egypt, and it settled upon all the borders of Egypt, exceedingly great. Before it no such locust had come to be, and after these things it will not be so.

15 And it covered the face of the land, and the land was destroyed; and it devoured every plant of the land and all the fruit of the trees that had been left by the hail. Nothing green was left among the trees or among any plant of the field in all the land of Egypt.

16 And Pharao hastened to call Moses and Aaron, saying: I have sinned before the Lord your God and against you.

17 Therefore accept my sin still now and pray to the Lord your God, and let him remove this death from me.

18 And Moses went out from Pharao and prayed to God.

19 And the Lord changed it to a strong wind from the sea, and it took up the locust and cast it into the Red Sea, and not one locust was left in all the land of Egypt.

20 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharao, and he did not send the sons of Israel away.

21 And the Lord said to Moses: Stretch out your hand toward heaven, and let darkness come to be upon the land of Egypt, a palpable darkness.

22 And Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and darkness, gloom, and storm came to be upon all the land of Egypt for three days.

23 And no one saw his brother for three days, and no one rose from his bed for three days; but for all the sons of Israel there was light in all the places in which they were.

24 And Pharao called Moses and Aaron, saying: Walk; serve the Lord your God. Only leave behind the sheep and the cattle, and let your baggage run away with you.

25 And Moses said: But you also will give us whole burnt offerings and sacrifices that we will make to the Lord our God.

26 And our livestock will journey with us, and we will not leave a hoof behind, for from them we will take to serve the Lord our God; but we do not know what we shall serve to the Lord our God until we come there.

27 But the Lord hardened the heart of Pharao, and he did not wish to send them away.

28 And Pharao says: Go away from me; take heed to yourself not to add again to see my face. On whatever day you appear to me, you will die.

29 And Moses says: You have spoken; I will no longer appear to you face to face.

Chapter 11

1 And the Lord said to Moses: I will bring one more plague upon Pharao and upon Egypt, and after these things he will send you away from here; and when he sends you away, he will drive you out with everything, with an expulsion.

2 Therefore speak secretly into the ears of the people, and let each man ask from his neighbor and a woman from her neighbor vessels of silver and gold and clothing.

3 And the Lord gave grace to his people before the Egyptians, and they lent to them; and the man Moses became exceedingly great before the Egyptians and before Pharao and before all his attendants.

4 And Moses said: Thus says the Lord: About the middle of the night I am entering into the midst of Egypt,

5 and every firstborn in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharao who sits upon the throne as far as the firstborn of the maidservant who is beside the mill, and as far as the firstborn of every livestock animal.

6 And there will be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as has not come to be and such as will no longer be added.

7 But among all the sons of Israel a dog will not growl with its tongue, from human to livestock, so that you may know how greatly the Lord will distinguish between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these servants of yours will come down to me and bow down to me, saying: Go out, you and all your people whom you lead; and after these things I will go out. And Moses went out from Pharao with wrath.

9 And the Lord said to Moses: Pharao will not listen to you, so that multiplying, I may multiply my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt.

10 And Moses and Aaron performed all these signs and wonders in the land of Egypt before Pharao; but the Lord hardened the heart of Pharao, and he did not wish to send the sons of Israel away from the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying:

2 This month is for you the beginning of months; it is the first for you among the months of the year.

3 Speak to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying: On the tenth of this month, let them each take a sheep according to their paternal houses, each a sheep according to a house.

4 But if those in the house are too few so as not to be sufficient for a sheep, he shall take together with himself his neighbor who is near him, according to the number of souls; each shall be counted for the sheep according to what is sufficient for him.

5 The sheep shall be perfect, male, a year old, for you; you shall take it from the lambs and the kids.

6 And it shall be kept for you until the fourteenth of this month, and all the multitude of the congregation of the sons of Israel shall slaughter it toward evening.

7 And they shall take some of the blood and place it upon the two doorposts and upon the lintel in the houses in which they eat it.

8 And they shall eat the meats in this night; roasted with fire, they shall eat them with unleavened bread upon bitter herbs.

9 You shall not eat any of them raw or boiled in water, but only roasted with fire, the head together with the feet and the entrails.

10 You shall not leave any of it until morning, and you shall not break a bone of it; but the things left from it until morning you shall burn up with fire.

11 And thus you shall eat it: your loins girded, and the footwear on your feet, and the staffs in your hands; and you shall eat it with haste. It is a pascha to the Lord.

12 And I will pass through the land of Egypt in this night and strike every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from human to livestock, and among all the gods of the Egyptians I will execute vengeance. I am the Lord.

13 And the blood will be for you as a sign upon the houses in which you are there, and I will see the blood and shelter you, and there will not be among you a plague for destruction when I strike in the land of Egypt.

14 And this day will be a memorial for you, and you shall keep it as a festival to the Lord throughout all your generations; you shall keep it as an eternal ordinance.

15 For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and from the first day you shall make yeast disappear from your houses; every soul who eats yeast will be utterly destroyed from Israel, from the first day until the seventh day.

16 And the first day shall be called holy, and the seventh day shall be called holy for you; you shall do no servile work on them, except as many things as will be prepared for every soul—this alone shall be prepared by you.

17 And you shall keep this commandment, for on this day I will bring your force out of the land of Egypt, and you shall make this day an eternal ordinance throughout your generations.

18 Beginning on the fourteenth day of the first month, from evening you shall eat unleavened bread until the twenty-first day of the month, until evening.

19 For seven days yeast shall not be found in your houses; every soul who eats something leavened will be utterly destroyed from the congregation of Israel, both among the resident aliens and the natives of the land.

20 You shall not eat anything leavened; in every dwelling place of yours you shall eat unleavened bread.

21 And Moses called all the council of elders of the sons of Israel and said to them: Go away and take a sheep for yourselves according to your families, and sacrifice the pascha.

22 And you shall take a bundle of hyssop and, dipping it in some of the blood beside the door, touch the lintel and both doorposts with some of the blood that is beside the door; but none of you shall go out through the door of his house until morning.

23 And the Lord will pass by to strike the Egyptians and will see the blood upon the lintel and upon both doorposts, and the Lord will pass by the door and will not permit the destroyer to enter your houses to strike.

24 And you shall keep this word as an ordinance for yourself and for your sons forever.

25 And if you enter into the land that the Lord gives you, just as he spoke, you shall keep this service.

26 And it shall be, if your sons say to you: What is this service?

27 Then you shall say to them: This pascha is a sacrifice to the Lord, as he sheltered the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt when he struck the Egyptians but rescued our houses. And the people bent down and bowed.

28 And the sons of Israel went away and did just as the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron; thus they did.

29 And it happened in the middle of the night that the Lord struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharao who sat upon the throne as far as the firstborn of the captive woman who was in the pit, and as far as the firstborn of every livestock animal.

30 And Pharao arose by night, and all his attendants and all the Egyptians, and a great cry came to be in all the land of Egypt, for there was no house in which there was not someone dead.

31 And Pharao called Moses and Aaron by night and said to them: Arise and go out from my people, both you and the sons of Israel; walk and serve the Lord your God, just as you say.

32 And take up your sheep and cattle and journey, and bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were forcing the people with haste to drive them out of the land, for they said: We are all dying.

34 And the people took up the dough before it was leavened, their kneading bowls bound in their garments upon their shoulders.

35 And the sons of Israel did just as Moses commanded them, and they asked from the Egyptians vessels of silver and gold and clothing.

36 And the Lord gave grace to his people before the Egyptians, and they lent to them; and they plundered the Egyptians.

37 And the sons of Israel departed from Ramesses to Sokchotha, about six hundred thousand men on foot, apart from the baggage.

38 And a great mixed company went up together with them, and sheep and cattle and exceedingly many livestock animals.

39 And they baked the dough that they had brought out of Egypt into unleavened baked cakes, for it was not leavened; for the Egyptians drove them out, and they were not able to remain, nor did they prepare provisions for themselves for the way.

40 And the dwelling of the sons of Israel, which they dwelt in the land of Egypt and in the land of Chanaan, was four hundred thirty years.

41 And it happened after the four hundred thirty years that all the force of the Lord went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night of advance-watch for the Lord so as to bring them out of the land of Egypt; that night is this advance-watch for the Lord, so as to be for all the sons of Israel throughout their generations.

43 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: This is the law of the pascha: no foreigner shall eat of it.

44 And every household servant of someone, or one bought with silver, you shall circumcise him, and then he shall eat of it.

45 A sojourner or a hired worker shall not eat of it.

46 It shall be eaten in one house, and you shall not carry any of the meats outside from the house; and you shall not break a bone of it.

47 All the congregation of the sons of Israel shall perform it.

48 And if any proselyte approaches you to perform the pascha to the Lord, you shall circumcise every male of his, and then he shall approach to perform it and will be just as the native of the land; no uncircumcised person shall eat of it.

49 There shall be one law for the inhabitant and for the proselyte who approaches among you.

50 And the sons of Israel did just as the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron for them; thus they did. –

51 And it happened on that day that the Lord brought the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt with their force.

Chapter 13

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Sanctify to me every firstborn, the first-generated that opens every womb among the sons of Israel, from human to livestock; it is mine.

3 And Moses said to the people: Remember this day in which you came out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of slavery, for with a mighty hand the Lord brought you out from here; and yeast shall not be eaten.

4 For today you are going out, in the month of the new things.

5 And it shall be whenever the Lord your God brings you into the land of the Chanaanites and Chettites and Evites and Gergesites and Amorrites and Pherezites and Jebousites, which he swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall perform this service in this month.

6 For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, but on the seventh day is a festival of the Lord.

7 You shall eat unleavened bread for the seven days; nothing leavened shall be seen with you, nor shall yeast be yours within all your borders.

8 And on that day you shall report to your son, saying: Because of this the Lord God acted for me as I was going out from Egypt.

9 And it shall be a sign for you upon your hand and a memorial before your eyes, so that the law of the Lord may be in your mouth; for with a mighty hand the Lord God brought you out of Egypt.

10 And you shall keep this law according to the appointed times of seasons, from days to days.

11 And it shall be when the Lord your God brings you into the land of the Chanaanites in the manner that he swore to your fathers and gives it to you,

12 that you shall set apart every male that opens a womb to the Lord; every one that opens a womb from the herds or among your livestock, as many as are born to you, the males, you shall sanctify to the Lord.

13 Every one that opens the womb of a donkey you shall exchange for a sheep; but if you do not exchange it, you shall redeem it. Every human firstborn among your sons you shall redeem.

14 And if your son asks you after these things, saying: What is this? Then you shall say to him: With a mighty hand the Lord brought us out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of slavery.

15 And when Pharao was hardened about sending us away, he killed every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of humans as far as the firstborn of livestock. Because of this I sacrifice to the Lord every male that opens a womb, and I will redeem every firstborn of my sons.

16 And it shall be as a sign upon your hand and an immovable thing before your eyes, for with a mighty hand the Lord brought you out of Egypt.

17 And when Pharao sent the people away, God did not guide them by the way of the land of the Phylistiim, because it was near; for God said: Lest the people repent when they see war and return to Egypt.

18 And God led the people around by the way into the wilderness, toward the Red Sea. And in the fifth generation the sons of Israel went up from the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with himself, for with an oath Joseph had made the sons of Israel swear, saying: With a visitation the Lord will visit you, and you shall also carry my bones up from here with you.

20 And the sons of Israel departed from Sokchoth and encamped in Othom beside the wilderness.

21 And God was leading them, by day in a pillar of cloud to show them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire.

22 The pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night did not fail before all the people.

Chapter 14

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and let them turn back and encamp opposite the farmstead, between Magdolum and the sea, opposite Beelsepphon; before them you shall encamp by the sea.

3 And Pharao will say to his people: These sons of Israel are wandering in the land, for the wilderness has shut them in.

4 But I will harden the heart of Pharao, and he will pursue after them; and I will be glorified in Pharao and in all his army, and all the Egyptians will know that I am the Lord. And they did so.

5 And it was reported to the king of the Egyptians that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharao and his attendants was changed toward the people, and they said: What is this that we have done, sending the sons of Israel away so as not to serve us?

6 Therefore Pharao yoked his chariots and took all his people away with himself,

7 and he took six hundred chosen chariots and all the horse force of the Egyptians and captains over all of them.

8 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharao king of Egypt and of his attendants, and he pursued after the sons of Israel; but the sons of Israel were going out with a high hand.

9 And the Egyptians pursued after them and found them encamped beside the sea, and all the horse force and the chariots of Pharao and the riders and his army were opposite the farmstead, across from Beelsepphon.

10 And Pharao was drawing near; and the sons of Israel looked up with their eyes and see, and the Egyptians encamped behind them, and they were exceedingly afraid. And the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord.

11 And they said to Moses: Was it because tombs do not exist in the land of Egypt that you brought us out to put us to death in the wilderness? What is this that you did to us by bringing us out of Egypt?

12 Was this not the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying: Let us be, so that we may serve the Egyptians? For it is better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in this wilderness.

13 And Moses said to the people: Take courage; stand and see the salvation from God that he will perform for us today. For in the manner that you have seen the Egyptians today, you shall no longer add again to see them for all time.

14 The Lord will fight for you, and you will be silent.

15 And the Lord said to Moses: Why do you cry out to me? Speak to the sons of Israel, and let them decamp.

16 And you, lift with your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and rend it, and let the sons of Israel enter into the midst of the sea along the dry land.

17 And behold, I will harden the heart of Pharao and of all the Egyptians, and they will enter after them; and I will be glorified in Pharao and in all his army and in his chariots and horses.

18 And all the Egyptians will know that I am the Lord when I am glorified in Pharao and in his chariots and horses.

19 And the angel of God who was going before the encampment of the sons of Israel departed and journeyed behind them; and the pillar of cloud also departed from before their face and stood behind them.

20 And it entered between the encampment of the Egyptians and between the encampment of Israel and stood; and darkness and gloom came to be, and the night passed, and they did not mix with one another the whole night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the Lord drove the sea with a violent south wind the whole night and made the sea dry, and the water was split.

22 And the sons of Israel entered into the midst of the sea along the dry land, and the water was a wall for them on the right and a wall on the left.

23 And the Egyptians pursued and entered after them, all the horse force of Pharao and the chariots and the riders, into the midst of the sea.

24 And it happened in the morning watch that the Lord looked upon the encampment of the Egyptians in the pillar of fire and cloud and threw the encampment of the Egyptians into confusion.

25 And he bound the axles of their chariots and led them with force. And the Egyptians said: Let us flee from the face of Israel, for the Lord fights for them against the Egyptians.

26 And the Lord said to Moses: Stretch out your hand over the sea, and let the water be restored and cover the Egyptians, both the chariots and the riders.

27 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and toward day the water was restored to its place; and the Egyptians fled under the water, and the Lord shook the Egyptians off into the midst of the sea.

28 And the water turned back and covered the chariots and the riders and all the force of Pharao who had entered after them into the sea, and not even one of them was left.

29 But the sons of Israel journeyed through dry land in the midst of the sea, and the water was a wall for them on the right and a wall on the left.

30 And the Lord rescued Israel on that day from the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead beside the lip of the sea.

31 And Israel saw the great hand, the things that the Lord did to the Egyptians; and the people feared the Lord and believed God and Moses his attendant.

Chapter 15

1 Then Moses and the sons of Israel sang this song to God and spoke, saying: Let us sing to the Lord, for he has been gloriously glorified; horse and rider he cast into the sea.

2 He became a helper and protector to me for salvation; this is my God, and I will glorify him, the God of my father, and I will exalt him.

3 The Lord crushes wars; Lord is his name.

4 The chariots of Pharao and his force he cast into the sea; chosen riders, captains, he drowned in the Red Sea.

5 He covered them with the sea; they sank into the deep like a stone.

6 Your right hand, Lord, has been glorified in strength; your right hand, Lord, shattered enemies.

7 And by the multitude of your glory you crushed the adversaries; you sent your wrath, and it devoured them like stubble.

8 And through the breath of your anger the water stood apart; the waters congealed like a wall, the waves congealed in the midst of the sea.

9 The enemy said: Pursuing, I will overtake; I will divide spoils; I will fill my soul; I will kill with my sword; my hand will have dominion.

10 You sent your wind; the sea covered them. They sank like lead in violent water.

11 Who is like you among gods, Lord? Who is like you, glorified among holy ones, wondrous in glories, performing wonders?

12 You stretched out your right hand; the earth swallowed them.

13 In your righteousness you guided this people of yours whom you redeemed; by your strength you called them into your holy lodging.

14 Nations heard and became angry; pangs seized the inhabitants of Phylistiim.

15 Then the rulers of Edom hastened, and trembling seized the rulers of the Moabites; all the inhabitants of Chanaan melted.

16 May fear and trembling fall upon them; by the greatness of your arm, let them become stone until your people pass by, Lord, until this people of yours whom you acquired pass by.

17 Having brought them in, plant them on the mountain of your inheritance, in your prepared dwelling place that you worked, Lord, a sanctuary, Lord, that your hands prepared.

18 The Lord reigns for the age and upon the age and still.

19 For the horse of Pharao entered with the chariots and riders into the sea, and the Lord brought the water of the sea upon them; but the sons of Israel journeyed through dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 And Mariam the prophet, the sister of Aaron, took the hand-drum in her hand, and all the women went out behind her with hand-drums and dances.

21 And Mariam began for them, saying: Let us sing to the Lord, for he has been gloriously glorified; horse and rider he cast into the sea.

22 And Moses led the sons of Israel away from the Red Sea and brought them into the wilderness of Sour; and they journeyed three days in the wilderness and did not find water to drink.

23 And they came to Merra and were not able to drink from Merra, for it was bitter; because of this the name of that place was named Bitterness.

24 And the people were grumbling against Moses, saying: What shall we drink?

25 And Moses cried out to the Lord; and the Lord showed him a piece of wood, and he cast it into the water, and the water was made sweet. There he set ordinances and judgments for him, and there he tested him.

26 And he said: If by hearing you hear the voice of the Lord your God and do the things pleasing before him and incline your ear to his commandments and keep all his ordinances, I will not bring upon you any disease that I brought upon the Egyptians; for I am the Lord who heals you.

27 And they came to Ailim, and there were twelve springs of waters and seventy trunks of palm trees there; and they encamped there beside the waters.

Chapter 16

1 And they departed from Ailim, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel came into the wilderness of Sin, which is between Ailim and Sina, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had gone out of the land of Egypt.

2 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel was grumbling against Moses and Aaron.

3 And the sons of Israel said to them: Would that we had died, struck by the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat at the pots of meats and ate breads to fullness, because you brought us out into this wilderness to kill all this congregation with famine.

4 And the Lord said to Moses: Behold, I rain breads for you from heaven, and the people will go out and gather what is for the day, day by day, so that I may test them, whether they will walk by my law or not.

5 And it shall be on the sixth day that they will prepare whatever they bring in, and whatever they gather day by day will be double.

6 And Moses and Aaron said to all the congregation of the sons of Israel: In the evening you will know that the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt,

7 and in the morning you will see the glory of the Lord when he listens to your grumbling against God; but what are we, that you grumble against us?

8 And Moses said: When the Lord gives you meats in the evening to eat and breads in the morning to fullness, because the Lord listens to your grumbling that you grumble against us—but what are we? For your grumbling is not against us but against God.

9 And Moses said to Aaron: Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel: Approach before God, for he has listened to your grumbling.

10 And while Aaron was speaking to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, they turned toward the wilderness, and the glory of the Lord appeared in a cloud.

11 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

12 I have listened to the grumbling of the sons of Israel. Speak to them, saying: Toward evening you shall eat meats, and in the morning you shall be filled with breads; and you will know that I am the Lord your God.

13 And evening came, and a quail came up and covered the encampment; morning came as the dew was coming to rest around the encampment,

14 and behold, upon the face of the wilderness was something thin, like white coriander, like frost upon the land.

15 And when the sons of Israel saw it, they said one to another: What is this? For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them: This is the bread that the Lord gave you to eat.

16 This is the word that the Lord commanded: Gather some of it, each according to those due, a gomor per head according to the number of your souls; each gather with your tentmates.

17 And the sons of Israel did so and gathered, one the much and one the less.

18 And measuring with the gomor, the one with the much had no surplus, and the one with the less had no lack; each gathered according to those due with himself.

19 And Moses said to them: Let no one leave any of it for the morning.

20 And they did not listen to Moses, but some left some of it for the morning; and it boiled forth worms and stank, and Moses was embittered at them.

21 And they gathered it morning by morning, each what was due to him; but when the sun grew warm, it melted.

22 And it happened on the sixth day that they gathered double what was needed, two gomors for one; and all the rulers of the congregation entered and reported to Moses.

23 And Moses said to them: This is the word that the Lord spoke: Tomorrow is sabbaths, a holy rest to the Lord. As many things as you bake, bake, and as many things as you boil, boil; and leave all the surplus in storage for the morning.

24 And they left some of it for the morning, just as Moses commanded them; and it did not stink, nor did a worm come to be in it.

25 And Moses said: Eat today, for today is sabbaths to the Lord; it will not be found in the field.

26 For six days you shall gather; but on the seventh day is sabbaths, because there will be none on it.

27 And it happened on the seventh day that some of the people went out to gather and did not find any.

28 And the Lord said to Moses: How long do you not wish to listen to my commandments and my law?

29 See, for the Lord gave you the sabbaths on this day; because of this he gave you on the sixth day breads for two days. Each of you shall sit in your houses; let no one go out from his place on the seventh day.

30 And the people kept sabbaths on the seventh day.

31 And the sons of Israel named its name man; and it was like white coriander seed, and its taste was like a cake with honey.

32 And Moses said: This is the word that the Lord commanded: Fill the gomor with man for storage throughout your generations, so that they may see the bread that you ate in the wilderness when the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said to Aaron: Take one golden jar and put a full gomor of man into it, and you shall store it before God for preservation throughout your generations.

34 In the manner that the Lord commanded Moses, Aaron also stored it before the testimony for preservation.

35 And the sons of Israel ate the man for forty years, until they came into inhabited land; they ate the man until they arrived at a part of Phoenicia.

36 And the gomor was a tenth of the three measures.

Chapter 17

1 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel departed from the wilderness of Sin according to their encampments through the word of the Lord and encamped in Raphidin; but there was no water for the people to drink.

2 And the people were reviling Moses, saying: Give us water so that we may drink. And Moses said to them: Why do you revile me, and why do you test the Lord?

3 And the people thirsted there for water, and the people were grumbling there against Moses, saying: Why is this, that you brought us up from Egypt to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?

4 And Moses cried out to the Lord, saying: What shall I do with this people? Yet a little, and they will stone me.

5 And the Lord said to Moses: Go before this people, and take with yourself some of the elders of the people; and take in your hand the staff with which you struck the river and journey.

6 Here, I stand before you there upon the rock in Choreb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out from it, and my people will drink. And Moses did so before the sons of Israel.

7 And he named the name of that place Temptation and Reviling because of the reviling of the sons of Israel and because they tested the Lord, saying: Is the Lord among us or not?

8 And Amalek came and was making war against Israel in Raphidin.

9 And Moses said to Jesus: Choose capable men for yourself and go out and array yourself against Amalek tomorrow, and behold, I will stand upon the top of the hill, and the staff of God will be in my hand.

10 And Jesus did just as Moses told him, and going out, he arrayed himself against Amalek; and Moses and Aaron and Or went up upon the top of the hill.

11 And it happened that whenever Moses raised his hands, Israel was growing strong; but whenever he lowered his hands, Amalek was growing strong.

12 And the hands of Moses were heavy; and taking a stone, they placed it under him, and he sat upon it, and Aaron and Or were supporting his hands, one from here and one from there; and the hands of Moses became supported until the setting of the sun.

13 And Jesus routed Amalek and all his people with slaughter of the sword.

14 And the Lord said to Moses: Write this down as a memorial in a book and give it into the ears of Jesus, because: With an obliteration I will obliterate the memorial of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an altar to the Lord and named its name My Lord Is Refuge, 16 because with a hidden hand the Lord wages war upon Amalek from generations to generations.

Chapter 18

1 And Jothor the priest of Madiam, the father-in-law of Moses, heard everything that the Lord did for Israel his own people, for the Lord brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 And Jothor the father-in-law of Moses took Sepphora the woman of Moses after her dismissal,

3 and his two sons; the name of one of them was Gersam, saying: I was a sojourner in a foreign land.

4 And the name of the second was Eliezer, saying: For the God of my father is my helper and rescued me from the hand of Pharao.

5 And Jothor the father-in-law of Moses went out, and the sons and the woman, to Moses into the wilderness where he had encamped at the mountain of God.

6 And it was reported to Moses, saying: Behold, Jothor your father-in-law is coming to you, and your woman and your two sons with him.

7 And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down to him and kissed him, and they greeted one another; and he brought him into the tent.

8 And Moses related to his father-in-law everything that the Lord had done to Pharao and the Egyptians for the sake of Israel, and all the toil that had come to them on the way, and that the Lord rescued them from the hand of Pharao and from the hand of the Egyptians.

9 And Jothor was astonished at all the good things that the Lord had done for them, that he rescued them from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharao.

10 And Jothor said: Blessed is the Lord, because he rescued his people from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharao.

11 Now I know that the Lord is great beyond all the gods, because of this, because they set themselves upon them.

12 And Jothor the father-in-law of Moses took whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for God; and Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat bread together with the father-in-law of Moses before God.

13 And it happened after the next day that Moses sat together to judge the people; and all the people stood beside Moses from morning until evening.

14 And Jothor saw everything that he was doing for the people and says: What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone, but all the people stand beside you from morning until afternoon?

15 And Moses says to his father-in-law: Because the people come to me to seek judgment from God.

16 For whenever a dispute comes to be for them and they come to me, I judge each and instruct them in the ordinances of God and his law.

17 And the father-in-law of Moses said to him: You do not do this thing rightly.

18 With destruction you will be utterly destroyed by something unbearable, both you and all this people who are with you. This matter is heavy for you; you will not be able to do it alone.

19 Now therefore, listen to me, and I will counsel you, and God will be with you. You be for the people the things pertaining to God, and you shall bring their words to God.

20 And you shall testify to them the ordinances of God and his law and indicate to them the ways in which they will journey and the works that they will do.

21 And look out for yourself from all the people capable men who fear God, righteous men who hate pride, and you shall appoint them over them as rulers of thousands and rulers of hundreds and rulers of fifties and rulers of tens.

22 And they will judge the people at every hour; but the weighty matter they will bring to you, and the short judgments they will judge themselves, and they will lighten it from you and help you.

23 If you do this thing, God will strengthen you, and you will be able to stand, and all this people will come to their own place with peace.

24 And Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law and did as many things as he told him.

25 And Moses chose capable men from all Israel and made them rulers of thousands and rulers of hundreds and rulers of fifties and rulers of tens over them.

26 And they judged the people at every hour; but every weighty matter they brought to Moses, and every light matter they judged themselves.

27 And Moses sent his own father-in-law away, and he went away into his land.

Chapter 19

1 And in the third month of the exodus of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, on this day, they came into the wilderness of Sina.

2 And they departed from Raphidin and came into the wilderness of Sina, and Israel encamped there opposite the mountain.

3 And Moses went up into the mountain of God; and God called him from the mountain, saying: Thus you shall speak to the house of Jacob and report to the sons of Israel:

4 You yourselves have seen as many things as I have done to the Egyptians, and I took you up as though upon wings of eagles and brought you to myself.

5 And now, if by hearing you hear my voice and keep my covenant, you will be for me a peculiar people from all the nations, for all the earth is mine.

6 And you will be for me a royal priesthood and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the sons of Israel.

7 And Moses came and called the elders of the people and set before them all these words that God had commanded him.

8 And all the people answered with one accord and said: Everything that God said we will do, and we will hear. And Moses brought the words of the people to God.

9 And the Lord said to Moses: Behold, I am coming to you in a pillar of cloud, so that the people may hear me speaking to you and may believe you forever. And Moses reported the words of the people to the Lord.

10 And the Lord said to Moses: Go down and testify to the people and purify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments.

11 And let them be ready for the third day, for on the third day the Lord will come down upon Mount Sina before all the people.

12 And you shall mark off the people all around, saying: Take heed to yourselves not to go up into the mountain or touch any part of it; everyone who touches the mountain will die by death.

13 A hand shall not touch him, for he will be stoned with stones or shot down with a missile; whether livestock animal or human, he shall not live. When the voices and the trumpets and the cloud depart from the mountain, those shall go up upon the mountain.

14 And Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified them, and they washed their garments.

15 And he said to the people: Become ready for three days; do not approach a woman.

16 And it happened on the third day, when it became near dawn, that there were voices and lightning and a dark cloud upon Mount Sina; the sound of the trumpet sounded loudly, and all the people in the encampment were terrified.

17 And Moses brought the people out from the encampment to meet God, and they stood beneath the mountain.

18 And all Mount Sina was smoking because God had come down upon it in fire, and the smoke was rising like the smoke of a furnace, and all the people were exceedingly astonished.

19 And the sounds of the trumpet were advancing, exceedingly stronger; Moses was speaking, and God was answering him by a voice.

20 And the Lord came down upon Mount Sina, upon the top of the mountain; and the Lord called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

21 And God spoke to Moses, saying: Go down and testify to the people, lest they draw near to God to observe and a multitude of them fall.

22 And let the priests who draw near to the Lord God be sanctified, lest the Lord destroy some from among them.

23 And Moses said to God: The people will not be able to go up to Mount Sina, for you testified to us, saying: Mark off the mountain and sanctify it.

24 And the Lord said to him: Walk; go down and come up, you and Aaron with you. But let not the priests and the people force their way to go up to God, lest the Lord destroy some from among them.

25 And Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

Chapter 20

1 And the Lord spoke all these words, saying:

2 I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of slavery.

3 There shall be no other gods for you except me. –

4 You shall not make for yourself an idol or any likeness of as many things as are in heaven above and as many things as are on the earth below and as many things as are in the waters beneath the earth.

5 You shall not bow down to them, nor shall you ever serve them, for I am the Lord your God, a jealous God, repaying the sins of fathers upon children as far as the third and fourth generation to those who hate me,

6 and doing mercy to thousands, to those who love me and those who keep my ordinances. –

7 You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain, for the Lord will certainly not cleanse the one who takes his name in vain. –

8 Remember the day of the sabbaths, to sanctify it.

9 For six days you shall labor and do all your works.

10 But on the seventh day are sabbaths to the Lord your God. You shall not do any work on it, you and your son and your daughter, your servant and your female servant, your ox and your draft animal and all your livestock and the proselyte who sojourns within you.

11 For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth and the sea and everything in them, and he rested on the seventh day; because of this the Lord blessed the seventh day and sanctified it. –

12 Honor your father and mother, so that it may become well for you and so that you may become long-lived upon the good land that the Lord your God gives you. –

13 You shall not commit adultery. –

14 You shall not steal. –

15 You shall not murder. –

16 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor, false testimony. –

17 You shall not desire the woman of your neighbor. You shall not desire the house of your neighbor, nor his field, nor his servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his draft animal, nor any of his livestock, nor as many things as belong to your neighbor.

18 And all the people were seeing the voice and the flashes and the voice of the trumpet and the smoking mountain; and being afraid, all the people stood far away.

19 And they said to Moses: You speak to us, and do not let God speak to us, lest we die.

20 And Moses says to them: Take courage, for God has come to you for the sake of testing you, so that his fear may be among you, so that you do not sin.

21 And the people stood far away, but Moses entered into the gloom where God was.

22 And the Lord said to Moses: Thus you shall speak to the house of Jacob and report to the sons of Israel: You have seen that I have spoken to you from heaven.

23 You shall not make silver gods for yourselves, and you shall not make golden gods for yourselves.

24 You shall make an altar of earth for me and sacrifice upon it your whole burnt offerings and your salvation offerings, your sheep and your calves, in every place where I name my name there; and I will come to you and bless you.

25 But if you make an altar of stones for me, you shall not build them hewn, for you have laid your dagger upon them, and they have been defiled.

26 You shall not go up by steps upon my altar, so that you do not uncover your indecency upon it.

Chapter 21

1 And these are the ordinances which you shall set before them.

2 If you acquire a Hebrew servant, he shall serve you six years; but in the seventh year he shall go away free, without payment.

3 If he enters alone, he shall also go out alone; but if a woman enters with him, the woman shall also go out with him.

4 But if his master gives him a woman, and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and the children shall belong to his master, but he alone shall go out.

5 But if the servant, answering, says: I have loved my master and the woman and the children; I do not run away free;

6 his master shall bring him to the judgment seat of God and then shall bring him to the door, to the doorpost, and his master shall pierce his ear with the awl, and he shall serve him for the age. –

7 But if anyone sells his own daughter as a household servant, she shall not go away as the female slaves run away.

8 If she does not please her master, to whom he had agreed upon her for himself, he shall ransom her; but he has no authority to sell her to a foreign nation, because he dealt faithlessly with her.

9 But if he agrees upon her for his son, he shall do for her according to the ordinance of daughters.

10 But if he takes another for himself, he shall not deprive her of what is due, her clothing, and her marital intercourse.

11 But if he does not do these three things for her, she shall go out freely, without silver.

12 But if anyone strikes someone and he dies, he shall be put to death by death;

13 but if he did not do it willingly, but God delivered him into his hands, I will give you a place to which the killer shall flee.

14 But if anyone sets upon his neighbor to kill him by deceit and seeks refuge, you shall take him from my altar to put him to death. –

15 Whoever strikes his father or his mother shall be put to death by death.

16 Whoever speaks evil of his father or his mother shall end by death. –

17 Whoever steals someone from the sons of Israel and, having overpowered him, sells him, and he is found with him, let him end by death. –

18 But if two men revile one another and someone strikes his neighbor with a stone or with his fist, and he does not die but is laid upon the bed,

19 if the man rises up and walks outside upon a staff, the one who struck him shall be guiltless; only he shall repay his lost time and the medical expenses. –

20 But if anyone strikes his servant or his female servant with a rod, and he dies under his hands, vengeance shall be exacted by judgment.

21 But if he survives one day or two, he shall not be avenged, for he is his silver. –

22 But if two men fight and strike a woman who has a child in the womb, and her child comes out not fully formed, he shall be fined with a fine; whatever the woman's husband imposes, he shall give according to assessment;

23 but if it was fully formed, he shall give life in exchange for life,

24 eye in exchange for eye, tooth in exchange for tooth, hand in exchange for hand, foot in exchange for foot,

25 burn in exchange for burn, wound in exchange for wound, bruise in exchange for bruise. –

26 But if anyone strikes the eye of his household servant or the eye of his female attendant and blinds it, he shall send them away free in exchange for their eye.

27 But if he knocks out the tooth of his household servant or the tooth of his female attendant, he shall send them away free in exchange for their tooth.

28 But if an ox gores a man or a woman and the person dies, the ox shall be stoned with stones, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the master of the ox shall be guiltless.

29 But if the ox was a gorer before yesterday and before the third day, and they testify to its master, and he does not remove it, but it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its master shall also die.

30 But if a ransom is imposed upon him, he shall give a ransom for his soul, as much as they impose upon him.

31 But if it gores a son or a daughter, they shall do to him according to this ordinance.

32 But if the ox gores a servant or a female servant, he shall give their master thirty didrachmas of silver, and the ox shall be stoned. –

33 But if anyone opens a pit or quarries a pit and does not cover it, and a calf or a donkey falls there,

34 the master of the pit shall repay; he shall give silver to their master, but the dead animal shall be his. –

35 But if anyone's ox gores his neighbor's ox and it dies, they shall sell the living ox and divide its silver, and they shall divide the dead ox.

36 But if the ox is known to be a gorer before yesterday and before the third day, and they have testified to its master, and he does not remove it, he shall repay ox in exchange for ox, but the dead one shall be his.

37 But if anyone steals a calf or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he shall repay five calves in exchange for the calf and four sheep in exchange for the sheep.

Chapter 22

1 But if the thief is found in the breaking-in and, being struck, dies, there is no bloodguilt for him;

2 but if the sun rises upon him, he is guilty and shall die in return. But if he has nothing, let him be sold in exchange for the theft.

3 But if he is caught and the stolen thing is found alive in his hand, from a donkey as far as a sheep, he shall repay them double. –

4 But if anyone grazes down a field or a vineyard and lets his animal graze down another field, he shall repay from his field according to its produce; but if it grazes down the whole field, he shall repay the best of his field and the best of his vineyard. –

5 But if fire goes out and finds thorns and sets fire to a threshing floor or ears of grain or a field, the one who kindled the fire shall repay. –

6 But if anyone gives his neighbor silver or vessels to keep, and it is stolen from the man’s house, if the one who stole is found, he shall repay double;

7 but if the one who stole is not found, the master of the house shall come before God and shall swear that surely he himself has not acted wickedly regarding the whole deposit of his neighbor.

8 For every specified wrongdoing concerning calf and pack animal and sheep and garment and every loss that is alleged, whatever it may be, the judgment of both shall come before God, and the one convicted through God shall repay his neighbor double. –

9 But if anyone gives his neighbor a pack animal or a calf or a sheep or any beast to keep, and it is broken or dies or becomes captive, and no one knows,

10 there shall be an oath of God between both that surely he himself has not acted wickedly regarding the whole deposit of his neighbor; and thus its master shall accept it, and he shall not repay.

11 But if it is stolen from him, he shall repay its master.

12 But if it becomes caught by a beast, he shall bring it to the prey and shall not repay. –

13 But if anyone borrows from his neighbor, and it is broken or dies or becomes captive, but its master is not with it, he shall repay;

14 but if its master is with it, he shall not repay; but if it is hired, it shall be to him in exchange for its hire.

15 But if anyone deceives an unbetrothed virgin and lies with her, with a dowry he shall endow her as a woman for himself.

16 But if her father refuses with a refusal and is not willing to give her to him as a woman, he shall repay silver to the father according to the amount that is the dowry of virgins. –

17 You shall not preserve sorcerers alive. –

18 Everything that lies with livestock—you shall kill them by death. –

19 The one who sacrifices to gods shall be destroyed by death, except to the Lord alone.

20 And you shall not mistreat a resident alien, nor shall you oppress him; for you were resident aliens in the land of Egypt. –

21 You shall not mistreat any widow or orphan;

22 but if with wickedness you mistreat them and, crying out, they cry out to me, I will hear their voice with hearing,

23 and I will be angry with wrath and kill you with the sword, and your women shall be widows and your children orphans. –

24 But if you lend silver to your poor brother beside you, you shall not be one who presses him; you shall not impose interest upon him.

25 But if you take your neighbor’s garment as a pledge, before the setting of the sun you shall return it to him;

26 for this is his covering, this alone is the garment of his nakedness; in what will he sleep? Therefore, if he cries out to me, I will hear him, for I am merciful. –

27 You shall not revile gods, and you shall not speak evil of rulers of your people. –

28 You shall not delay the firstfruits of your threshing floor and winepress; you shall give me the firstborn of your sons.

29 Thus you shall do with your calf and your sheep and your pack animal; seven days it shall be under its mother, but on the eighth day you shall give it to me. –

30 And you shall be holy men to me. And you shall not eat flesh caught by a beast; cast it to the dog.

Chapter 23

1 You shall not accept a vain report. You shall not agree with the unjust person to become an unjust witness.

2 You shall not be with the majority for evil. You shall not join with a multitude to turn aside with the majority, so as to pervert judgment.

3 And you shall not show mercy to a poor person in judgment. –

4 But if you encounter your enemy’s ox or his pack animal wandering, by turning it back you shall return it to him.

5 But if you see your enemy’s pack animal fallen under its load, you shall not pass it by, but you shall raise it together with him. –

6 You shall not distort the judgment of a poor person in his judgment.

7 You shall withdraw from every unjust word; you shall not kill an innocent and righteous person, and you shall not justify the impious person because of gifts.

8 And you shall not receive gifts, for gifts blind the eyes of those who see and ruin righteous words. –

9 And you shall not oppress a resident alien; for you know the soul of the resident alien, for you yourselves were resident aliens in the land of Egypt.

10 Six years you shall sow your land and gather its produce;

11 but in the seventh you shall make a release and leave it, and the poor of your nation shall eat, and the wild beasts shall eat the things left over. Thus you shall do with your vineyard and your olive grove. –

12 Six days you shall do your works, but on the seventh day there shall be rest, so that your ox and your pack animal may rest, and so that the son of your female servant and the resident alien may breathe. –

13 Guard all the things that I have said to you. And you shall not remember the name of other gods, nor shall it be heard from your mouth.

14 Three seasons of the year you shall keep a feast to me.

15 Guard the feast of unleavened bread to perform it; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, just as I commanded you, at the season of the month of the new things, for in it you came out of Egypt. You shall not appear before me empty.

16 And you shall make the feast of harvest of the first produce of your works, whatever you sow in your field, and the feast of completion at the departure of the year, in the gathering of your works from your field.

17 Three seasons of the year every male of yours shall appear before the Lord your God.

18 For when I drive out nations from your presence and broaden your boundaries, you shall not sacrifice the blood of my sacrifice upon leaven, nor shall the fat of my feast sleep until morning.

19 You shall bring the firstfruits of the first produce of your land into the house of the Lord your God. You shall not boil a lamb in its mother’s milk.

20 And behold, I send my angel before your face, that he may guard you on the way, so that he may bring you into the land that I prepared for you.

21 Attend to yourself and hear him, and do not disobey him; for he will certainly not withdraw from you, for my name is upon him.

22 If by hearing you all hear my voice, and you do all that I command you, and you all keep my covenant, you all shall be to me a special people beyond all the nations, for all the earth is mine; and you all shall be to me a royal priesthood and a holy nation. These words you shall say to the sons of Israel: If by hearing you all hear my voice, and you do all that I say to you, I will be an enemy to your enemies and I will oppose those who oppose you.

23 For my angel shall go, leading you, and shall bring you to the Amorrite and Chettite and Pherezite and Chanaanite and Gergesite and Evite and Jebousite, and I will wipe them out.

24 You shall not worship their gods, nor shall you serve them; you shall not act according to their works, but with tearing down you shall tear down, and with crushing you shall crush their pillars.

25 And you shall serve the Lord your God, and I will bless your bread and your wine and your water, and I will turn sickness away from you.

26 There shall be no barren or sterile one upon your land; I will fulfill the number of your days.

27 And I will send fear leading you, and I will astound all the nations into whom you enter, and I will make all your adversaries fugitives.

28 And I will send the hornets before you, and they shall drive the Amorrites and the Evites and the Chanaanites and the Chettites away from you.

29 I will not drive them out in one year, lest the land become desolate and the beasts of the land become many against you;

30 little by little I will drive them away from you, until you increase and inherit the land.

31 And I will set your boundaries from the Red Sea as far as the sea of Phylistiim and from the wilderness as far as the great river Euphrates; and I will deliver into your hands those settled in the land and drive them away from you.

32 You shall not agree to a covenant with them and with their gods,

33 and they shall not settle in your land, so that they do not cause you to sin against me; for if you serve their gods, these will be a stumbling block to you.

Chapter 24

1 And he said to Moses: Go up to the Lord, you and Aaron and Nadab and Abioud and seventy of the elders of Israel, and they shall worship the Lord from afar;

2 and Moses alone shall draw near to God, but they shall not draw near; and the people shall not go up together with them.

3 And Moses entered and recounted to the people all the words of God and the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, saying: All the words that the Lord spoke we will do and we will hear.

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord. And rising early in the morning, Moses built an altar beneath the mountain and twelve stones for the twelve tribes of Israel;

5 and he sent out the young men of the sons of Israel, and they offered whole burnt offerings and sacrificed calves as a sacrifice of salvation to God.

6 And Moses, taking half of the blood, poured it into bowls, but half of the blood he poured toward the altar.

7 And taking the book of the covenant, he read it into the ears of the people, and they said: All the things that the Lord spoke we will do and we will hear.

8 And Moses, taking the blood, scattered it over the people and said: Behold the blood of the covenant that the Lord made with you concerning all these words.

9 And Moses and Aaron and Nadab and Abioud and seventy of the council of elders of Israel went up,

10 and they saw the place where the God of Israel stood; and the things beneath his feet were like a work of sapphire brick and like the appearance of the firmament of heaven in its purity.

11 And not even one of the chosen of Israel was missing; and they appeared in the place of God and ate and drank.

12 And the Lord said to Moses: Go up to me into the mountain and be there; and I will give you the stone tablets, the law and the commandments, which I wrote to legislate for them.

13 And Moses rose, and Jesus who stood beside him, and they went up into the mountain of God;

14 and they said to the elders: Remain quiet here until we return to you; and behold, Aaron and Or are with you; if a judgment happens to anyone, let them approach them.

15 And Moses and Jesus went up into the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

16 And the glory of God descended upon Mount Sina, and the cloud covered it six days; and the Lord called Moses on the seventh day from the midst of the cloud.

17 And the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a burning fire upon the summit of the mountain before the sons of Israel.

18 And Moses entered into the midst of the cloud and went up into the mountain and was there on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Chapter 25

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and take firstfruits for me from all those to whom it seems good in their heart, and you shall receive my firstfruits.

3 And this is the firstfruit that you shall receive from them: gold and silver and bronze,

4 and hyacinth and purple and double scarlet and spun linen and goat hair,

5 and red-dyed ram skins and hyacinth-colored skins and incorruptible wood,

7 and sardius stones and stones for engraving for the shoulder piece and the full-length robe.

8 And you shall make a sanctuary for me, and I will appear among you;

9 and you shall make for me according to all that I show you on the mountain: the model of the tabernacle and the model of all its vessels; thus you shall make it.

10 And you shall make an ark of testimony from incorruptible wood, two cubits and a half in length and a cubit and a half in width and a cubit and a half in height.

11 And you shall overlay it with pure gold, outside and inside you shall overlay it; and you shall make twisted golden moldings for it all around.

12 And you shall hammer out for it four golden rings and place them upon the four sides, two rings upon the one side and two rings upon the second side.

13 And you shall make carrying poles of incorruptible wood and overlay them with gold;

14 and you shall insert the carrying poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark with them;

15 the carrying poles shall remain immovable in the rings of the ark.

16 And you shall put into the ark the testimonies that I give you.

17 And you shall make a propitiatory covering of pure gold, two cubits and a half in length and a cubit and a half in width.

18 And you shall make two golden cherubim, worked in relief, and you shall place them on both sides of the propitiatory;

19 one cherub shall be made from this side and one cherub from the second side of the propitiatory; and you shall make the two cherubim upon the two sides.

20 The cherubim shall extend their wings above, overshadowing the propitiatory with their wings, and their faces shall be toward one another; the faces of the cherubim shall be toward the propitiatory.

21 And you shall place the propitiatory upon the ark above; and you shall put into the ark the testimonies that I give you.

22 And I will be known to you from there and will speak to you from above the propitiatory, between the two cherubim that are upon the ark of testimony, and according to all that I command you for the sons of Israel.

23 And you shall make a table of pure gold, two cubits in length and a cubit in width and a cubit and a half in height.

24 And you shall make twisted golden moldings for it all around.

25 And you shall make for it a rim a handbreadth all around; and you shall make a twisted molding for the rim all around.

26 And you shall make four golden rings and place the rings upon the four parts of its feet,

27 beneath the rim, and the rings shall be sockets for the carrying poles, so as to carry the table with them.

28 And you shall make the carrying poles from incorruptible wood and overlay them with pure gold, and the table shall be carried with them.

29 And you shall make its dishes and censers and libation vessels and cups, with which you shall pour libations in them; you shall make them of pure gold.

30 And you shall place upon the table breads set before the face, before me continually.

31 And you shall make a lampstand from pure gold; you shall make the lampstand worked in relief: its stem and branches and bowls and knobs and lilies shall be from it.

32 And six branches shall go out from its sides, three branches of the lampstand from its one side and three branches of the lampstand from the second side.

33 And three bowls shaped like small nuts in the one branch, a knob and a lily; thus for the six branches going out from the lampstand.

34 And in the lampstand there shall be four bowls shaped like small nuts; in the one branch, its knobs and its lilies.

35 The knob beneath the two branches shall be from it, and a knob beneath the four branches shall be from it; thus for the six branches going out from the lampstand.

36 Their knobs and their branches shall be from it; the whole shall be worked in relief from one piece of pure gold.

37 And you shall make its seven lamps; and you shall set the lamps, and they shall shine from one face.

38 And you shall make its oil-drawer and its supports from pure gold.

39 All these vessels: a talent of pure gold.

40 See that you make them according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain.

Chapter 26

1 And you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains from spun linen and hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet; you shall make them with cherubim, the work of a weaver.

2 The length of the one curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of the one curtain shall be four cubits; the same measure shall be for all the curtains.

3 And five curtains shall be holding onto one another, one from the other, and five curtains shall be joined, one to the other.

4 And you shall make hyacinth loops for them upon the edge of the one curtain, from the one part at the joining, and thus you shall make upon the edge of the outer curtain at the second joining.

5 You shall make fifty loops for the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops from the part of the curtain at the joining of the second; facing one another, they shall meet one another, each one.

6 And you shall make fifty golden rings and join the curtains, one to the other, with the rings, and the tabernacle shall be one. –

7 And you shall make coverings of hair as a cover over the tabernacle; you shall make them eleven coverings.

8 The length of the one covering shall be thirty cubits, and the width of the one covering four cubits; the same measure shall be for the eleven coverings.

9 And you shall join the five coverings together and the six coverings together; and you shall fold the sixth covering double at the face of the tabernacle.

10 And you shall make fifty loops upon the edge of the one covering in the middle at the joining, and you shall make fifty loops upon the edge of the covering that joins the second.

11 And you shall make fifty bronze rings and join the rings from the loops and join the coverings, and it shall be one.

12 And you shall put beneath the excess among the coverings of the tabernacle; the half of the covering that remains you shall cover down, and the excess of the coverings of the tabernacle you shall cover down behind the tabernacle;

13 a cubit from this side and a cubit from that side, from the part of the coverings exceeding the length of the coverings of the tabernacle, shall cover over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, so that it may cover it.

14 And you shall make a covering for the tabernacle of red-dyed ram skins and upper coverings of hyacinth-colored skins above. –

15 And you shall make pillars for the tabernacle from incorruptible wood;

16 you shall make the one pillar ten cubits, and the width of the one pillar a cubit and a half;

17 two tenons for the one pillar, meeting one another; thus you shall make for all the pillars of the tabernacle.

18 And you shall make pillars for the tabernacle, twenty pillars from the side toward the north.

19 And you shall make forty silver bases for the twenty pillars, two bases for the one pillar for both its parts, and two bases for the one pillar for both its parts.

20 And for the second side, the one toward the south, twenty pillars;

21 and their forty silver bases, two bases for the one pillar for both its parts, and two bases for the one pillar for both its parts.

22 And from the back of the tabernacle, along the part toward the sea, you shall make six pillars.

23 And you shall make two pillars upon the corners of the tabernacle from the rear,

24 and it shall be equal below; in the same manner they shall be equal from the capitals into one joining; thus you shall make for both, let them be for the two corners.

25 And there shall be eight pillars, and their silver bases sixteen; two bases for the one pillar for both its parts, and two bases for the one pillar. –

26 And you shall make bars from incorruptible wood, five for the one pillar from the one side of the tabernacle,

27 and five bars for the pillar on the second side of the tabernacle and five bars for the rear pillar, on the side of the tabernacle toward the sea;

28 and let the middle bar between the pillars pass through from the one side to the other side.

29 And you shall overlay the pillars with gold and make their rings golden, into which you shall insert the bars, and you shall overlay the bars with gold.

30 And you shall erect the tabernacle according to the appearance shown to you on the mountain. –

31 And you shall make a veil from hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet and spun linen; you shall make it a woven work with cherubim.

32 And you shall place it upon four pillars of incorruptible wood overlaid with gold; and their capitals shall be golden, and their four bases silver.

33 And you shall place the veil upon the pillars and bring the ark of testimony there, inside the veil; and the veil shall divide for you between the holy place and between the Holy of Holies.

34 And you shall cover the ark of testimony with the veil in the Holy of Holies.

35 And you shall place the table outside the veil and the lampstand opposite the table, on the part of the tabernacle toward the south, and you shall place the table on the part of the tabernacle toward the north.

36 And you shall make a screen from hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet and spun linen, the work of an embroiderer.

37 And you shall make five pillars for the screen and overlay them with gold, and their capitals shall be golden, and you shall cast five bronze bases for them.

Chapter 27

1 And you shall make an altar from incorruptible wood, five cubits in length and five cubits in width—the altar shall be square—and three cubits in height.

2 And you shall make the horns upon the four corners; its horns shall be from it; and you shall cover them with bronze.

3 And you shall make a rim for the altar and its cover and its bowls and its flesh-hooks and its fire-pan; and you shall make all its vessels bronze.

4 And you shall make for it a bronze grate of network work; and you shall make for the grate four bronze rings upon the four sides.

5 And you shall put them beneath the grate of the altar below; and the grate shall be as far as the middle of the altar.

6 And you shall make carrying poles for the altar from incorruptible wood and cover them around with bronze.

7 And you shall insert the carrying poles into the rings, and let the carrying poles be along the sides of the altar when it is carried.

8 You shall make it hollow, built of boards; according to what was shown to you on the mountain, thus you shall make it.

9 And you shall make a court for the tabernacle; for the side toward the southwest wind, the hangings of the court shall be from spun linen, a length of one hundred cubits for the one side;

10 and their pillars twenty, and their bases twenty, of bronze, and their rings and clasps silver.

11 Thus for the side toward the east wind there shall be hangings, a length of one hundred cubits; and their pillars twenty, and their bases twenty, of bronze, and the rings and the clasps of the pillars and their bases plated with silver.

12 And the width of the court toward the sea shall have hangings of fifty cubits; their pillars ten, and their bases ten.

13 And the width of the court toward the south shall have hangings of fifty cubits; their pillars ten, and their bases ten.

14 And the height of the hangings for the one side shall be fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their bases three.

15 And for the second side, the height of the hangings shall be fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their bases three.

16 And for the gate of the court there shall be a covering, its height twenty cubits, from hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet and spun linen, with the embroidery of a needleworker; their pillars four, and their bases four.

17 All the pillars of the court all around shall be plated with silver, and their capitals silver, and their bases bronze.

18 And the length of the court shall be one hundred by one hundred, and the width fifty by fifty, and the height five cubits, from spun linen, and their bases bronze.

19 And all the construction and all the implements and the stakes of the court shall be bronze.

20 And you, command the sons of Israel, and let them take for you clear, pure, beaten oil from olives for light to burn, so that a lamp may burn continually.

21 In the tabernacle of testimony, outside the veil that is over the covenant, Aaron and his sons shall keep it burning from evening until morning before the Lord; an eternal ordinance for your generations from the sons of Israel.

Chapter 28

1 And you, bring near to yourself both Aaron your brother and his sons from the sons of Israel to serve me as priests: Aaron and Nadab and Abioud and Eleazar and Ithamar, sons of Aaron.

2 And you shall make a holy vestment for Aaron your brother, for honor and glory.

3 And you shall speak to all those wise in understanding, whom I filled with a spirit of perception, and they shall make the holy vestment of Aaron for the holy place, in which he shall serve me as priest.

4 And these are the vestments that they shall make: the breastpiece and the shoulder piece and the full-length robe and a tasseled tunic and a turban and a sash; and they shall make holy vestments for Aaron and his sons, for them to serve me as priests.

5 And they shall take the gold and the hyacinth and the purple and the scarlet and the linen. –

6 And they shall make the shoulder piece from spun linen, the woven work of an embroiderer;

7 two shoulder pieces joining one another shall be for him, hanging from the two parts;

8 and the woven fabric of the shoulder pieces that is upon it shall be of the same workmanship, from it, of gold and hyacinth and purple and finely spun scarlet and spun linen.

9 And you shall take the two stones, emerald stones, and engrave in them the names of the sons of Israel,

10 six names upon the one stone and the remaining six names upon the second stone, according to their births.

11 As the work of the stonecutter’s craft, an engraving of a seal, you shall thoroughly engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel.

12 And you shall place the two stones upon the shoulders of the shoulder piece; they are stones of memorial for the sons of Israel; and Aaron shall take up the names of the sons of Israel before the Lord upon his two shoulders, as a memorial concerning them.

13 And you shall make small shields from pure gold;

14 and you shall make two fringed pieces from pure gold, interwoven with flowers, a work of braiding; and you shall place the braided fringed pieces upon the small shields along their shoulder pieces from the front. –

15 And you shall make an oracle of judgments, the work of an embroiderer; according to the pattern of the shoulder piece you shall make it; from gold and hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet and spun linen you shall make it.

16 It shall be square, doubled, a span in length and a span in width.

17 And you shall weave into it fabric studded with stones in four rows. One row of stones shall be sardius, topaz, and emerald, the one row;

18 and the second row, carbuncle and sapphire and jasper;

19 and the third row, ligure, agate, and amethyst;

20 and the fourth row, chrysolite and beryl and onyx; covered with gold, let them be bound in gold according to their row.

21 And the stones shall be twelve, from the names of the sons of Israel, according to their names; engravings of seals, each according to the name, let them be for the twelve tribes.

22 And you shall make upon the oracle braided fringes, a work of chainwork from pure gold.

29 And Aaron shall take the names of the sons of Israel upon the oracle of judgment, upon his breast, when he enters into the holy place, as a memorial before God.

29 a And you shall place the fringes upon the oracle of judgment; you shall place the chainwork upon both sides of the oracle, and you shall place the two small shields upon both shoulders of the shoulder piece toward the front.

30 And you shall place upon the oracle of judgment the Manifestation and the Truth, and it shall be upon the breast of Aaron when he enters into the holy place before the Lord; and Aaron shall bear the judgments of the sons of Israel upon his breast before the Lord continually. –

31 And you shall make a full-length undergarment, entirely hyacinth-colored.

32 And its neck opening shall be from it, in the middle, having a border around the neck opening, the work of a weaver, the joining woven together from it, so that it may not tear.

33 And upon the hem of the undergarment below you shall make small pomegranates, as of a blossoming pomegranate, from hyacinth and purple and finely spun scarlet and spun linen, upon the hem of the undergarment all around; and in the same pattern, golden pomegranates and bells between them all around;

34 beside a golden pomegranate, a bell and a flower upon the hem of the undergarment all around.

35 And when Aaron ministers, his sound shall be audible when he enters into the holy place before the Lord and when he goes out, so that he does not die. –

36 And you shall make a plate of pure gold and imprint in it the imprint of a seal: A Holy Thing of the Lord.

37 And you shall place it upon spun hyacinth, and it shall be upon the miter; it shall be upon the front of the miter.

38 And it shall be upon the forehead of Aaron, and Aaron shall bear away the offenses of the holy things, whatever the sons of Israel sanctify, of every gift of their holy things; and it shall be upon the forehead of Aaron continually, acceptable for them before the Lord. –

39 And the tassels of the tunics shall be from linen; and you shall make a linen turban and shall make a sash, the work of an embroiderer.

40 And for the sons of Aaron you shall make tunics and sashes, and you shall make turbans for them, for honor and glory.

41 And you shall clothe Aaron your brother with them and his sons with him; and you shall anoint them and fill their hands and sanctify them, so that they may serve me as priests.

42 And you shall make linen breeches for them to cover the nakedness of their flesh; they shall be from the waist as far as the thighs.

43 And Aaron and his sons shall have them when they enter into the tabernacle of testimony or when they approach to minister at the altar of the holy place, and they shall not bring sin upon themselves, so that they do not die; an eternal ordinance for him and for his seed after him.

Chapter 29

1 And these are the things that you shall do for them to sanctify them, so that they may serve me as priests. You shall take one calf from the cattle and two unblemished rams,

2 and unleavened loaves mixed with oil and unleavened flatcakes anointed with oil; you shall make them from fine wheat flour.

3 And you shall place them upon one basket and bring them upon the basket, and the calf and the two rams.

4 And you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the doors of the tabernacle of testimony and wash them with water.

5 And taking the vestments, you shall clothe Aaron your brother with the full-length tunic and the shoulder piece and the oracle, and you shall join the oracle to the shoulder piece for him.

6 And you shall place the miter upon his head and place the plate, the Holy Thing, upon the miter.

7 And you shall take from the oil of anointing and pour it upon his head and anoint him.

8 And you shall bring his sons near and clothe them with tunics,

9 and you shall gird them with the sashes and place the turbans around them, and the priesthood shall be theirs for me for the age. And you shall perfect the hands of Aaron and the hands of his sons.

10 And you shall bring the calf to the doors of the tabernacle of testimony, and Aaron and his sons shall place their hands upon the head of the calf before the Lord, beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony;

11 and you shall slaughter the calf before the Lord beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony.

12 And you shall take from the blood of the calf and place it upon the horns of the altar with your finger; but all the remaining blood you shall pour out beside the base of the altar.

13 And you shall take all the fat upon the belly and the lobe of the liver and the two kidneys and the fat upon them and place them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the calf and the skin and the dung you shall burn with fire outside the camp, for it is of sin.

15 And you shall take the one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall place their hands upon the head of the ram;

16 and you shall slaughter it, and taking the blood you shall pour it toward the altar all around.

17 And you shall divide the ram limb by limb and wash the inward parts and the feet with water and place them upon the divided parts together with the head.

18 And you shall offer the whole ram upon the altar as a whole burnt offering to the Lord for an odor of sweetness; it is a sacrifice to the Lord.

19 And you shall take the second ram, and Aaron and his sons shall place their hands upon the head of the ram;

20 and you shall slaughter it and take from its blood and place it upon the lobe of Aaron’s right ear and upon the tip of his right hand and upon the tip of his right foot, and upon the lobes of the right ears of his sons and upon the tips of their right hands and upon the tips of their right feet.

21 And you shall take from the blood from the altar and from the oil of anointing and sprinkle it upon Aaron and upon his vestment and upon his sons and upon the vestments of his sons with him, and he shall be sanctified, and his vestment and his sons and the vestments of his sons with him; but you shall pour the blood of the ram toward the altar all around.

22 And you shall take from the ram its fat and the fat covering the belly and the lobe of the liver and the two kidneys and the fat upon them and the right arm—for this is a perfection—

23 and one loaf made with oil and one flatcake from the basket of unleavened things set before the Lord,

24 and you shall place all the things upon the hands of Aaron and upon the hands of his sons and shall separate them as a separation before the Lord.

25 And you shall take them from their hands and offer them upon the altar of whole burnt offering for an odor of sweetness before the Lord; it is an offering to the Lord.

26 And you shall take the breast from the ram of perfection, which belongs to Aaron, and shall separate it as a separation before the Lord, and it shall be a portion for you.

27 And you shall sanctify the breast as a separation and the arm of the removal offering, which was separated and which was removed from the ram of perfection, from Aaron and from his sons,

28 and it shall be an eternal ordinance for Aaron and his sons from the sons of Israel; for this is a removal offering, and it shall be a removal offering from the sons of Israel, from the sacrifices of salvation of the sons of Israel, a removal offering to the Lord. –

29 And the vestment of the holy place, which belongs to Aaron, shall be for his sons after him, for them to be anointed in them and to perfect their hands.

30 For seven days the priest who is in his place from among his sons shall wear them, he who shall enter into the tabernacle of testimony to minister in the holy places.

31 And you shall take the ram of perfection and boil the flesh in a holy place,

32 and Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the loaves in the basket beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony;

33 they shall eat those things by which they were sanctified, to perfect their hands, to sanctify them; and a foreigner shall not eat from them, for they are holy.

34 But if anything remains from the flesh of the sacrifice of perfection and from the loaves until morning, you shall burn the remaining things with fire; it shall not be eaten, for it is a sanctified thing.

35 And thus you shall do for Aaron and his sons according to all the things that I commanded you; for seven days you shall perfect their hands.

36 And you shall make the calf of sin on the day of cleansing and shall cleanse the altar when you sanctify upon it, and you shall anoint it so as to sanctify it.

37 For seven days you shall cleanse the altar and sanctify it, and the altar shall be holy of the holy; everyone who touches the altar shall be sanctified.

38 And these are the things that you shall make upon the altar: two unblemished year-old lambs each day upon the altar continually, a continual offering.

39 The one lamb you shall make in the morning, and the second lamb you shall make in the evening;

40 and a tenth of fine flour mixed with beaten oil, a fourth of a hin, and a libation of wine, a fourth of a hin, for the one lamb;

41 and the second lamb you shall make in the evening; according to the morning sacrifice and according to its libation you shall make it, for an odor of sweetness, an offering to the Lord,

42 a continual sacrifice for your generations at the doors of the tabernacle of testimony before the Lord, where I will be known to you from there so as to speak to you.

43 And I will appoint myself there for the sons of Israel and will be sanctified in my glory;

44 and I will sanctify the tabernacle of testimony and the altar; and I will sanctify Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests.

45 And I will be called upon among the sons of Israel and will be their God,

46 and they shall know that I am the Lord their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt to be called upon for them and to be their God.

Chapter 30

1 And you shall make an altar of incense from incorruptible wood; and you shall make it

2 a cubit in length and a cubit in width—it shall be square—and two cubits in height; its horns shall be from it.

3 And you shall overlay them with pure gold, its grate and its walls all around and its horns, and you shall make for it a twisted golden rim all around.

4 And you shall make two pure golden rings beneath its twisted rim; you shall make them on the two sides, on the two flanks; and they shall be clasps for the rods, so as to carry it with them.

5 And you shall make rods from incorruptible wood and overlay them with gold.

6 And you shall place it opposite the veil that is over the ark of the testimonies, among which I will be known to you from there.

7 And Aaron shall burn upon it fine compound incense; morning by morning, whenever he prepares the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it,

8 and whenever Aaron kindles the lamps in the evening, he shall burn incense upon it; an incense of continuity continually before the Lord for their generations.

9 And you shall not offer upon it another incense, an offering, a sacrifice; and you shall not pour a libation upon it.

10 And Aaron shall make atonement upon it, upon its horns, once in the year; from the blood of the cleansing of sins of atonement, once in the year he shall cleanse it for their generations; it is Holy of Holies to the Lord.

11 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

12 If you take the reckoning of the sons of Israel in their visitation, then each shall give a ransom for his soul to the Lord, and there shall not be a fall among them in their visitation.

13 And this is what they shall give, as many as pass through the visitation: half of the didrachma, which is according to the holy didrachma; twenty obols are the didrachma, and the half of the didrachma is an offering to the Lord.

14 Everyone who passes through into the visitation, from twenty years old and above, shall give the offering to the Lord.

15 The one who is rich shall not add, and the one who is poor shall not lessen from the half of the didrachma when giving the offering to the Lord, to make atonement for your souls.

16 And you shall take the silver of the offering from the sons of Israel and give it for the service of the tabernacle of testimony, and it shall be a memorial for the sons of Israel before the Lord, to make atonement for your souls.

17 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

18 Make a bronze washing basin and a bronze base for it, so as to wash; and you shall place it between the tabernacle of testimony and between the altar and shall pour water into it,

19 and Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet from it with water.

20 Whenever they enter into the tabernacle of testimony, they shall wash with water and shall certainly not die; or whenever they approach the altar to minister and to offer the whole burnt offerings to the Lord,

21 they shall wash their hands and their feet with water; whenever they enter into the tabernacle of testimony, they shall wash with water, so that they do not die; and it shall be an eternal ordinance for them, for him and his generations after him.

22 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

23 And you, take spices: the flower of selected myrrh, five hundred shekels, and half this amount of fragrant cinnamon, two hundred fifty, and fragrant cane, two hundred fifty,

24 and iris, five hundred holy shekels, and a hin of oil from olives,

25 and you shall make it a holy anointing oil, a perfumed ointment by the craft of a perfumer; it shall be a holy anointing oil.

26 And with it you shall anoint the tabernacle of testimony and the ark of testimony,

27 and the lampstand and all its vessels and the altar of incense,

28 and the altar of whole burnt offerings and all its vessels and the table and all its vessels and the washing basin and its base,

29 and you shall sanctify them, and they shall be Holy of Holies; everyone who touches them shall be sanctified.

30 And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons and sanctify them to serve me as priests.

31 And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying: This shall be for you a holy oil, an ointment of anointing, for your generations.

32 It shall not be anointed upon human flesh, and according to this composition you shall not make the same for yourselves; it is holy and shall be a sanctified thing for you.

33 Whoever makes the same and whoever gives from it to a foreigner shall be utterly destroyed from his people. –

34 And the Lord said to Moses: Take spices for yourself, stacte, onycha, perfumed galbanum, and transparent frankincense; it shall be equal for equal;

35 and they shall make with them incense, a perfumed work of a perfumer, mixed, pure, a holy work.

36 And you shall beat some of these fine and place it opposite the testimonies in the tabernacle of testimony, from where I will be known to you from there; it shall be Holy of Holies for you.

37 You shall not make incense for yourselves according to this composition; it shall be a sanctified thing for you to the Lord;

38 whoever makes the same so as to smell it shall perish from his people.

Chapter 31

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Behold, I have called by name Beseleel the son of Ouri, the son of Or, of the tribe of Judas,

3 and I have filled him with a divine spirit of wisdom and understanding and knowledge in every work,

4 to devise and to master-build, to work the gold and the silver and the bronze and the hyacinth and the purple and the spun scarlet and the spun linen,

5 and the works of stonecutting and the works of carpentry in wood, to work according to all the works.

6 And I have given him also Eliab the son of Achisamach from the tribe of Dan, and to everyone understanding in heart I have given understanding, and they shall make all the things that I commanded you:

7 the tabernacle of testimony and the ark of the covenant and the propitiatory upon it and the equipment of the tabernacle,

8 and the altars and the table and all its vessels and the pure lampstand and all its vessels,

9 and the washing basin and its base,

10 and the ministering vestments of Aaron and the vestments of his sons for them to serve me as priests,

11 and the oil of anointing and the compound incense of the holy place; according to all that I commanded you, they shall make them.

12 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

13 And you, command the sons of Israel, saying: See that you also keep my Sabbaths; it is a sign with me and among you for your generations, so that you may know that I am the Lord who sanctifies you.

14 And you shall keep the Sabbaths, because this is a holy thing of the Lord for you; the one who profanes it shall be put to death by death; everyone who does work on it, that soul shall be utterly destroyed from the midst of his people.

15 Six days you shall do works, but on the seventh day there shall be Sabbaths, a holy rest for the Lord; everyone who does work on the seventh day shall be put to death by death.

16 And the sons of Israel shall keep the Sabbaths, to perform them for their generations; an eternal covenant.

17 It is an eternal sign in me and the sons of Israel, because in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he ceased and rested.

18 And when he ceased speaking to him on Mount Sina, he gave Moses the two tablets of testimony, stone tablets written by the finger of God.

Chapter 32

1 And when the people saw that Moses had delayed to come down from the mountain, the people assembled around Aaron and said to him: Rise and make gods for us who shall go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us out of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.

2 And Aaron says to them: Remove the golden earrings that are in the ears of your women and daughters and bring them to me.

3 And all the people removed the golden earrings that were in their ears and brought them to Aaron.

4 And he received them from their hands and shaped them with the engraving tool and made them into a molten calf and said: These are your gods, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar opposite it, and Aaron proclaimed, saying: A feast of the Lord is tomorrow.

6 And rising early on the next day, he offered whole burnt offerings and brought a sacrifice of salvation, and the people sat down to eat and drink and rose to play.

7 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Go quickly from here; descend, for your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, have acted lawlessly;

8 they quickly transgressed from the way that you commanded them; they made a calf for themselves and have worshiped it and have sacrificed to it and said: These are your gods, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.

10 And now let me be, and being angered with wrath against them, I will wipe them out and make you into a great nation.

11 And Moses entreated before the Lord God and said: Why, Lord, are you angered with wrath against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great strength and with your high arm?

12 Lest the Egyptians say: With wickedness he brought them out to kill them in the mountains and to consume them from the earth. Cease from the anger of your wrath and be propitious concerning the wickedness of your people,

13 remembering Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, your household servants, to whom you swore by yourself and spoke to them, saying: I will greatly multiply your seed like the stars of heaven in multitude, and all this land that you said you would give to their seed, and they shall possess it for the age.

14 And the Lord was propitiated concerning the wickedness that he said he would do to his people.

15 And Moses, turning back, came down from the mountain, and the two tablets of testimony were in his hands, stone tablets inscribed on both their parts, written on this side and on that side;

16 and the tablets were a work of God, and the writing is a writing of God carved in the tablets.

17 And Jesus, hearing the voice of the people crying out, says to Moses: A voice of war is in the camp.

18 And he says: It is not the voice of those beginning a song in strength, nor the voice of those beginning a song in defeat, but I hear the voice of those beginning a song in wine.

19 And when he drew near the camp, he sees the calf and the dances, and Moses, angered with wrath, threw the two tablets from his hands and shattered them beneath the mountain.

20 And taking the calf that they made, he burned it in fire and ground it fine and scattered it upon the water and made the sons of Israel drink it.

21 And Moses said to Aaron: What did this people do to you, that you brought a great sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said to Moses: Do not be angry, lord; for you know the impulse of this people.

23 For they say to me: Make gods for us who shall go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us out of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.

24 And I said to them: If anyone has pieces of gold, remove them. And they gave them to me; and I threw them into the fire, and this calf came out.

25 And Moses saw that the people had been scattered—for Aaron had scattered them, a delight to their adversaries—,

26 and Moses stood at the gate of the camp and said: Whoever is for the Lord, let him come to me. Therefore all the sons of Levi gathered to him.

27 And he says to them: Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: Let each one place his own double-edged sword upon his thigh, and pass through and return from gate to gate through the camp, and let each one kill his brother and each one his neighbor and each one the one nearest him.

28 And the sons of Levi did as Moses spoke to them, and about three thousand men from the people fell on that day.

29 And Moses said to them: You filled your hands today for the Lord, each one with his son or his brother, so that a blessing may be given upon you.

30 And it happened after the morrow that Moses said to the people: You have sinned a great sin; and now I will go up to God, so that I may make atonement concerning your sin.

31 And Moses returned to the Lord and said: I beg, Lord; this people has sinned a great sin and made golden gods for themselves.

32 And now, if you forgive their sin, forgive; but if not, wipe me out from your book that you wrote.

33 And the Lord said to Moses: If anyone has sinned before me, I will wipe him out from my book.

34 But now go, descend, and guide this people into the place that I told you; behold, my angel goes before your face; and on whatever day I visit, I will bring their sin upon them.

35 And the Lord struck the people concerning the making of the calf that Aaron made.

Chapter 33

1 And the Lord said to Moses: Go, ascend from here, you and your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, into the land that I swore to Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, saying: I will give it to your seed.

2 And I will send my angel together before your face, and he shall drive out the Amorrite and Chettite and Pherezite and Gergesite and Evite and Jebousite.

3 And I will bring you into a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will certainly not go up together with you, because you are a stiff-necked people, lest I utterly consume you on the way.

4 And when the people heard this evil word, they mourned in mourning garments.

5 And the Lord said to the sons of Israel: You are a stiff-necked people; see that I do not bring another blow upon you and utterly consume you; now therefore remove the vestments of your glories and the adornment, and I will show you what I will do to you.

6 And the sons of Israel removed their adornment and their array from Mount Choreb.

7 And Moses, taking his tent, pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and it was called the tabernacle of testimony; and it happened that everyone seeking the Lord went out to the tabernacle outside the camp.

8 And whenever Moses entered the tabernacle outside the camp, all the people stood watching, each one beside the doors of his tent, and they observed Moses departing until he entered the tabernacle.

9 And whenever Moses entered the tabernacle, the pillar of cloud descended and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and he spoke to Moses;

10 and all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the door of the tabernacle, and all the people stood and worshiped, each one from the door of his tent.

11 And the Lord spoke to Moses face to face, as if someone would speak to his own friend. And he would depart into the camp, but the attendant Jesus, the young son of Nave, did not go out from the tabernacle.

12 And Moses said to the Lord: Behold, you say to me: Bring up this people; but you have not shown me whom you will send together with me; but you said to me: I know you beyond all, and you have grace with me.

13 If therefore I have found grace before you, reveal yourself to me; let me see you knowingly, so that I may be one who has found grace before you, and so that I may know that this great nation is your people.

14 And he says: I myself will go before you and give you rest.

15 And he says to him: If you yourself do not go, do not bring me up from here;

16 and how shall it be truly known that I have found grace with you, I and your people, except by your going together with us? And I and your people shall be glorified beyond all the nations that are upon the earth.

17 And the Lord said to Moses: I will also do for you this word that you have spoken; for you have found grace before me, and I know you beyond all.

18 And he says: Show me your own glory.

19 And he said: I will pass before you in my glory and will call by my name, Lord, before you; and I will show mercy to whomever I show mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I have compassion.

20 And he said: You will not be able to see my face; for a man shall certainly not see my face and live.

21 And the Lord said: Behold, there is a place beside me; you shall stand upon the rock;

22 and whenever my glory passes, I will place you in a cleft of the rock and cover you with my hand over you until I pass;

23 and I will remove my hand, and then you shall see my back parts, but my face shall not appear to you.

Chapter 34

1 And the Lord said to Moses: Hew two stone tablets for yourself, just as the first ones, and go up to me into the mountain, and I will write upon the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you shattered.

2 And be ready for the morning, and you shall go up upon Mount Sina and stand there for me upon the summit of the mountain.

3 And let no one go up with you, nor let anyone appear on the whole mountain; and let neither the sheep nor the cattle graze near that mountain.

4 And he hewed two stone tablets just as the first ones; and rising early, Moses went up into Mount Sina, just as the Lord commanded him; and Moses took the two stone tablets.

5 And the Lord descended in a cloud and stood beside him there; and he called by the name of the Lord.

6 And the Lord passed before his face and called: The Lord, the God compassionate and merciful, longsuffering and abundant in mercy and true,

7 and preserving righteousness and doing mercy to thousands, taking away lawlessness and injustice and sins, and he will not cleanse the guilty, bringing the lawlessness of fathers upon children and upon children’s children, upon the third and fourth generation.

8 And Moses, hastening, bowed toward the earth and worshiped,

9 and said: If I have found grace before you, let my Lord go together with us; for the people are stiff-necked, and you shall take away our sins and our lawlessness, and we shall be yours.

10 And the Lord said to Moses: Behold, I establish a covenant for you; before all your people I will do glorious things that have not happened in all the earth and in any nation, and all the people among whom you are shall see the works of the Lord, because the things that I will do for you are marvelous.

11 You attend to all the things that I command you. Behold, I drive out before you all the Amorrite and Chanaanite and Chettite and Pherezite and Evite and Gergesite and Jebousite;

12 attend to yourself, lest you establish a covenant with those settled upon the land into which you enter, lest it become a stumbling block for you among you all.

13 You shall tear down their altars and crush their pillars and cut down their groves and burn the carved images of their gods with fire.

14 For you shall certainly not worship another god; for the Lord God is a jealous name, he is a jealous God.

15 Lest you establish a covenant with those settled with the foreigners upon the land, and they prostitute themselves after their gods and sacrifice to their gods and call you and you eat from their sacrifices,

16 and you take from their daughters for your sons and give from your daughters to their sons, and your daughters prostitute themselves after their gods and make your sons prostitute themselves after their gods.

17 And you shall not make molten gods for yourself.

18 And you shall keep the feast of unleavened bread; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, just as I commanded you, at the season in the month of the new things; for in the month of the new things you came out of Egypt.

19 Every male that opens the womb is mine: the firstborn of a calf and the firstborn of a sheep.

20 And you shall redeem the firstborn of a pack animal with a sheep; but if you do not redeem it, you shall give its price. You shall redeem every firstborn of your sons. You shall not appear before me empty.

21 Six days you shall work, but on the seventh you shall rest; at sowing and at harvest you shall rest.

22 And you shall make for me a feast of weeks, the beginning of the wheat harvest, and a feast of gathering while the year is midway.

23 Three seasons of the year every male of yours shall appear before the Lord, the God of Israel;

24 for whenever I drive out the nations before your face and broaden your boundaries, no one shall covet your land whenever you go up to appear before the Lord your God three seasons of the year.

25 You shall not slaughter the blood of my incense offerings upon leaven. And the sacrifices of the feast of Pascha shall not sleep until morning.

26 You shall place the first produce of your land in the house of the Lord your God. You shall not bring a lamb in its mother’s milk.

27 And the Lord said to Moses: Write these words for yourself; for upon these words I have established a covenant for you and for Israel.

28 And Moses was there before the Lord forty days and forty nights; he did not eat bread and did not drink water; and he wrote these words upon the tablets of the covenant, the ten words. –

29 And as Moses was coming down from the mountain, the two tablets were upon the hands of Moses; and while he was coming down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the appearance of the complexion of his face had been glorified while he spoke to him.

30 And Aaron and all the elders of Israel saw Moses, and the appearance of the complexion of his face had been glorified, and they were afraid to draw near him.

31 And Moses called them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation turned toward him, and Moses spoke to them.

32 And after these things all the sons of Israel approached him, and he commanded them all the things that the Lord spoke to him on Mount Sina.

33 And when he ceased speaking to them, he placed a covering upon his face.

34 But whenever Moses entered before the Lord to speak to him, he removed the covering until he went out. And going out, he spoke to all the sons of Israel the things that the Lord commanded him, 35 and the sons of Israel saw the face of Moses, that it had been glorified, and Moses placed a covering upon his own face until he entered to speak together with him.

Chapter 35

1 And Moses gathered the whole congregation of the sons of Israel and said to them: These are the words that the Lord said to do.

2 Six days you shall do works, but on the seventh day there shall be rest, a holy thing, Sabbaths, a rest for the Lord; let everyone who does work on it end.

3 You shall not kindle fire in any of your dwellings on the day of the Sabbaths; I am the Lord.

4 And Moses said to the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, saying: This is the word that the Lord commanded, saying:

5 Take from yourselves a removal offering for the Lord; all who accept in the heart shall bring the firstfruits to the Lord: gold, silver, bronze,

6 hyacinth, purple, finely spun double scarlet and spun linen and goat hair,

7 and red-dyed ram skins and hyacinth-colored skins and incorruptible wood,

9 and sardius stones and stones for engraving for the shoulder piece and the full-length robe.

10 And let everyone wise in heart among you come and work all the things that the Lord commanded:

11 the tabernacle and the side curtains and the coverings and the stretchers and the bars and the pillars,

12 and the ark of testimony and its carrying poles and its propitiatory and the veil,

12 a And the hangings of the court and its pillars and the emerald stones and the incense and the oil of anointing,

13 and the table and all its vessels,

14 and the lampstand of light and all its vessels,

16 and the altar and all its vessels,

19 and the holy vestments of Aaron the priest and the vestments in which they shall minister in them and the tunics for the sons of Aaron for the priesthood and the oil of anointing and the compound incense. –

20 And the whole congregation of the sons of Israel went out from Moses,

21 and each brought the things that their heart bore, and as many as it seemed good to in their soul brought a removal offering to the Lord for all the works of the tabernacle of testimony and for all its services and for all the vestments of the holy place.

22 And the men brought from the women; everyone to whom it seemed good in the understanding brought seals and earrings and rings and braided ornaments and bracelets, every golden vessel, and all who brought removal offerings of gold to the Lord.

23 And everyone with whom linen and hyacinth-colored skins and red-dyed ram skins were found brought them.

24 And everyone removing a removal offering of silver and bronze brought the removal offerings to the Lord, and those with whom incorruptible wood was found for all the works of the construction brought it.

25 And every woman wise in understanding to spin with her hands brought the things they had spun: the hyacinth and the purple and the scarlet and the linen;

26 and all the women to whom it seemed good in their understanding, with wisdom, spun the goat hair.

27 And the rulers brought the emerald stones and the stones of filling for the shoulder piece and for the oracle,

28 and the compounds and the oil of anointing and the compound of incense.

29 And every man and woman whose understanding bore them, having entered to do all the works that the Lord commanded to be done through Moses, the sons of Israel brought a removal offering to the Lord.

30 And Moses said to the sons of Israel: Behold, God has called by name Beseleel the son of Ouri, the son of Or, from the tribe of Judas,

31 and filled him with a divine spirit of wisdom and understanding and knowledge of all things,

32 to master-build according to all the works of master-building, to make the gold and the silver and the bronze,

33 and to work stone as a stonecutter and to work the wood and to make every work of wisdom;

34 and indeed he gave it to him in his understanding to teach, both to him and Eliab the son of Achisamach from the tribe of Dan;

35 he filled them with wisdom and understanding of mind, to understand how to make the works of the holy place and the woven and embroidered things, to weave with the scarlet and the linen, to make every work of master-building and embroidery.

Chapter 36

1 And Beseleel and Eliab and everyone wise in understanding, to whom wisdom and knowledge had been given among them to understand how to make all the works according to the holy duties, did according to all that the Lord commanded.

2 And Moses called Beseleel and Eliab and all those possessing wisdom, to whom God had given knowledge in the heart, and all those willingly desiring to approach the works so as to complete them,

3 and they received from Moses all the removal offerings that the sons of Israel had brought for all the works of the holy place to make them, and they still continued to receive the things offered by those bringing them morning by morning.

4 And all the wise people making the works of the holy place came, each according to his own work that they were working,

5 and they said to Moses: The people are bringing an abundance beyond the works that the Lord commanded to be made.

6 And Moses commanded and proclaimed in the camp, saying: Let man and woman no longer work for the firstfruits of the holy place; and the people were prevented from offering any more.

7 And the works were sufficient for them to make the construction, and they left over besides.

8 And everyone wise among those working made the holy vestments that belong to Aaron the priest, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

9 And they made the shoulder piece from gold and hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet and spun linen.

10 And the plates of gold were cut into threads so as to be woven together with the hyacinth and the purple and with the finely spun scarlet and with the spun linen, a woven work;

11 they made it with shoulder pieces joining from both parts,

12 a woven work braided together with one another, in itself from itself; they made it according to its workmanship from gold and hyacinth and purple and finely spun scarlet and spun linen, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

13 And they made both emerald stones clasped and set around with gold, engraved and carved with the carving of a seal from the names of the sons of Israel;

14 and he placed them upon the shoulders of the shoulder piece, stones of memorial for the sons of Israel, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

15 And they made an oracle, a woven work with embroidery, according to the work of the shoulder piece, from gold and hyacinth and purple and finely spun scarlet and spun linen;

16 they made the oracle square and doubled, a span in length and a span in width, doubled.

17 And fabric studded with stones in four rows was woven into it; one row of stones was sardius and topaz and emerald, the one row;

18 and the second row, carbuncle and sapphire and jasper;

19 and the third row, ligure and agate and amethyst;

20 and the fourth row, chrysolite and beryl and onyx, encircled with gold and bound with gold.

21 And the stones were twelve, from the names of the sons of Israel, from their names, inscribed as seals, each from his own name, for the twelve tribes.

22 And they made braided fringes upon the oracle, a work of braiding from pure gold;

23 and they made two golden small shields and two golden rings and placed the two golden rings upon both ends of the oracle;

24 and they placed the braids of gold upon the rings on both parts of the oracle,

25 and the two braids into the two joinings, and they placed them upon the two small shields and placed them upon the shoulders of the shoulder piece opposite, toward the front.

26 And they made two golden rings and placed them upon the two wings at the edge of the oracle, upon the edge of the rear of the shoulder piece, inside.

27 And they made two golden rings and placed them upon both shoulders of the shoulder piece, below it toward the front, at the joining above the woven band of the shoulder piece.

28 And he fastened the oracle from the rings upon it to the rings of the shoulder piece, held together by the hyacinth and braided into the fabric of the shoulder piece, so that the oracle would not loosen from the shoulder piece, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

29 And they made the undergarment beneath the shoulder piece, a woven work entirely hyacinth-colored;

30 and the neck opening of the undergarment was interwoven and knitted in the middle, having an unbreakable border around the neck opening.

31 And upon the hem of the undergarment below they made small pomegranates, as of a blossoming pomegranate, from hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet and spun linen,

32 and they made golden bells and placed the bells upon the hem of the undergarment all around, between the small pomegranates;

33 a golden bell and a small pomegranate upon the hem of the undergarment all around for ministering, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

34 And they made woven linen tunics for Aaron and his sons,

35 and the turbans from linen and the miter from linen and the breeches from spun linen,

36 and their sashes from linen and hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet, the work of an embroiderer, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses.

37 And they made the golden plate, a separation of the holy place, from pure gold; and he wrote upon it letters imprinted as a seal: A Holy Thing to the Lord;

38 and they placed a hyacinth hem upon it so that it would lie upon the miter above, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses.

Chapter 37

1 And they made ten curtains for the tabernacle,

2 the length of the one curtain twenty-eight cubits—they were all the same—and the width of the one curtain four cubits.

3 And they made the veil from hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet and spun linen, a woven work with cherubim,

4 and they placed it upon four incorruptible pillars overlaid with gold, and their capitals were golden, and their four bases silver.

5 And they made the veil of the door of the tabernacle of testimony from hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet and spun linen, a woven work with cherubim,

6 and its five pillars and the rings; and they overlaid their capitals and their clasps with gold, and their five bases were bronze.

7 And they made the court; the hangings of the court toward the southwest wind were from spun linen, one hundred by one hundred,

8 and their pillars twenty, and their bases twenty;

9 and the side toward the north one hundred by one hundred, and their pillars twenty, and their bases twenty;

10 and the side toward the sea had curtains of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their bases ten;

11 and the side toward the east was fifty cubits,

12 hangings of fifteen cubits along the rear, and their pillars three, and their bases three,

13 and upon the second rear, on this side and that side along the gate of the court, curtains of fifteen cubits, and their pillars three, and their bases three.

14 All the curtains of the court were from spun linen,

15 and the bases of the pillars bronze, and their loops silver, and their capitals plated with silver, and the pillars plated with silver, all the pillars of the court. –

16 And the veil of the gate of the court was the work of an embroiderer, from hyacinth and purple and spun scarlet and spun linen, twenty cubits in length, and the height and the width five cubits, equal to the hangings of the court;

17 and their pillars four, and their four bases bronze, and their loops silver, and their capitals plated with silver;

18 and they themselves plated with silver, and all the stakes of the court all around bronze.

19 And this is the arrangement of the tabernacle of testimony, just as it was ordered to Moses for the ministry to belong to the Levites through Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

20 And Beseleel the son of Ouri from the tribe of Judas made it just as the Lord commanded Moses,

21 and Eliab the son of Achisamach from the tribe of Dan, who master-built the woven and needleworked and embroidered things, to weave with the scarlet and the linen.

Chapter 38

1 And Beseleel made the ark,

2 and he overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside.

3 And he cast four golden rings for it, two upon the one side and two upon the second side,

4 wide enough for the carrying poles so as to carry it with them.

5 And he made the propitiatory above the ark from gold,

6 and the two golden cherubim,

7 one cherub upon the one end of the propitiatory and one cherub upon the second end of the propitiatory,

8 overshadowing the propitiatory with their wings.

9 And he made the table that is set forth from pure gold;

10 and he cast four rings for it, two upon the one side and two upon the second side, wide enough so as to carry it with the carrying poles in them.

11 And he made the carrying poles of the ark and of the table and overlaid them with gold.

12 And he made the vessels of the table, both the dishes and the censers and the cups and the libation vessels in which he shall pour with them, golden.

13 And he made the lampstand that gives light, golden, with a solid stem,

14 and the branches from both its parts;

15 from its branches the shoots protruding, three from this side and three from that side, equal to one another;

16 and their lamp-cups, which are upon the ends, nut-shaped from them; and the settings from them, so that the lamps may be upon them, and the seventh setting from the end of the lamp-cup upon the summit above, solid, entirely golden;

17 and seven golden lamps upon it and its golden tongs and their golden oil-drawers.

18 This one plated the pillars with silver and cast golden rings for the pillar and overlaid the bars with gold and overlaid the pillars of the veil with gold and made the loops golden.

19 This one also made the rings of the tabernacle golden, and the rings of the court, and bronze rings for stretching the covering above.

20 This one cast the silver capitals of the tabernacle and the bronze capitals of the door of the tabernacle and the gate of the court, and made silver loops for the pillars upon the pillars; this one plated them with silver.

21 This one also made the stakes of the tabernacle and the stakes of the court bronze.

22 This one made the bronze altar from the bronze fire-pans that belonged to the men who rebelled with the congregation of Kore.

23 This one made all the vessels of the altar and its fire-pan and the base and the bowls and the flesh-hooks bronze.

24 This one made for the altar an appendage, a work of network, below the fire-pan under it as far as its middle, and placed upon it four bronze rings from the four parts of the appendage of the altar, wide enough for the bars so as to carry the altar with them.

25 This one made the holy oil of anointing and the compound incense, a pure work of a perfumer.

26 This one made the bronze washing basin and its bronze base from the mirrors of the women who fasted, who fasted beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony on the day when he set it up;

27 and he made the washing basin so that Moses and Aaron and his sons might wash their hands and their feet from it; when they entered into the tabernacle of testimony or whenever they approached the altar to minister, they washed from it, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

Chapter 39

1 All the gold that was worked for the works, according to all the workmanship of the holy things, came to twenty-nine talents and seven hundred twenty shekels of the gold of the firstfruit, according to the holy shekel;

2 and the removal offering of silver from the inspected men of the congregation was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels,

3 one drachma per head, half of the shekel according to the holy shekel, from everyone passing through the visitation, from twenty years old and above, for six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

4 And the one hundred talents of silver were for casting the one hundred capitals of the tabernacle and for the capitals of the veil, one hundred capitals for the one hundred talents, a talent for each capital.

5 And the one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels they made into the loops for the pillars, and he overlaid their capitals with gold and adorned them.

6 And the bronze of the removal offering was seventy talents and one thousand five hundred shekels.

7 And he made from it the bases of the door of the tabernacle of testimony,

8 and the bases of the court all around and the bases of the gate of the court and the stakes of the tabernacle and the stakes of the court all around,

9 and the bronze appendage of the altar and all the vessels of the altar and all the implements of the tabernacle of testimony.

10 And the sons of Israel did just as the Lord commanded Moses; thus they did.

11 And the remaining gold of the removal offering they made into vessels for ministering with them before the Lord.

12 And the remaining hyacinth and purple and scarlet they made into ministering vestments for Aaron, so as to minister in them in the holy place.

13 And they brought the vestments to Moses and the tabernacle and its vessels and the bases and its bars and the pillars,

14 and the ark of the covenant and its carrying poles,

15 and the altar and all its vessels and the oil of anointing and the compound incense,

16 and the pure lampstand and its lamps, lamps of burning, and the oil of light,

17 and the table of the presentation and all its vessels and the breads set forth,

18 and the vestments of the holy place that belong to Aaron and the vestments of his sons for the priesthood,

19 and the hangings of the court and the pillars and the veil of the door of the tabernacle and of the gate of the court and all the vessels of the tabernacle and all its implements,

20 and the leathers, the red-dyed ram skins, and the coverings of hyacinth-colored skins and the upper coverings of the remaining things,

21 and the stakes and all the implements for the works of the tabernacle of testimony;

22 all that the Lord commanded Moses, thus the sons of Israel made all the equipment.

23 And Moses saw all the works, and they had made them in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses, thus they made them; and Moses blessed them.

Chapter 40

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 On day one of the first month, at the new moon, you shall erect the tabernacle of testimony,

3 and you shall place the ark of testimony and cover the ark with the veil,

4 and you shall bring in the table and set forth its presentation, and you shall bring in the lampstand and place its lamps,

5 and you shall place the golden altar for burning incense opposite the ark and place a covering of the veil upon the door of the tabernacle of testimony,

6 and you shall place the altar of offerings beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony,

8 and you shall surround the tabernacle and sanctify all its things all around.

9 And you shall take the oil of anointing and anoint the tabernacle and all the things in it and sanctify it and all its vessels, and it shall be holy.

10 And you shall anoint the altar of offerings and all its vessels and sanctify the altar, and the altar shall be Holy of Holies.

12 And you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the doors of the tabernacle of testimony and wash them with water,

13 and you shall clothe Aaron with the holy vestments and anoint him and sanctify him, and he shall serve me as priest;

14 and you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics,

15 and you shall anoint them in the manner that you anointed their father, and they shall serve me as priests; and it shall be that an anointing of priesthood is theirs for the age, for their generations.

16 And Moses did all the things that the Lord commanded him; thus he did.

17 And it happened in the first month, in the second year of their going out of Egypt, at the new moon, that the tabernacle was erected;

18 and Moses erected the tabernacle and placed the capitals and inserted the bars through and erected the pillars,

19 and stretched the curtains over the tabernacle and placed the covering of the tabernacle upon it above, just as the Lord commanded Moses. –

20 And taking the testimonies, he put them into the ark and placed the carrying poles beneath the ark,

21 and he brought the ark into the tabernacle and placed the covering of the veil and covered the ark of testimony, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses. –

22 And he placed the table in the tabernacle of testimony upon the side of the tabernacle of testimony toward the north, outside the veil of the tabernacle,

23 and set forth upon it the breads of the presentation before the Lord, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses. –

24 And he placed the lampstand in the tabernacle of testimony, on the side of the tabernacle toward the south,

25 and placed its lamps before the Lord, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses. –

26 And he placed the golden altar in the tabernacle of testimony opposite the veil,

27 and burned the compound incense upon it, just as the Lord commanded Moses. –

29 And he placed the altar of offerings beside the doors of the tabernacle,

33 and erected the court all around the tabernacle and the altar. And Moses completed all the works.

34 And the cloud covered the tabernacle of testimony, and the tabernacle was filled with the glory of the Lord;

35 and Moses was not able to enter into the tabernacle of testimony, because the cloud overshadowed it and the tabernacle was filled with the glory of the Lord.

36 And whenever the cloud rose from the tabernacle, the sons of Israel broke camp with their equipment;

37 but if the cloud did not rise, they did not break camp until the day on which the cloud rose;

38 for a cloud was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was upon it by night before all Israel in all their departures.

Leviticus

Chapter 1

1 And the Lord called Moses back and spoke to him from the tabernacle of testimony, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: If a man from among you presents gifts to the Lord, from the livestock, from the cattle and from the sheep, you shall present your gifts.

3 If his gift from the cattle is a whole burnt offering, he shall present an unblemished male; he shall bring it to the door of the tabernacle of testimony, acceptable before the Lord.

4 And he shall place his hand upon the head of the offering, acceptable for him to make atonement concerning him.

5 And they shall slaughter the calf before the Lord, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall bring the blood and pour the blood upon the altar all around, the one at the doors of the tabernacle of testimony.

6 And having skinned the whole burnt offering, they shall divide it limb by limb,

7 and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall place fire upon the altar and heap wood upon the fire,

8 and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall heap the divided parts and the head and the fat upon the wood that is upon the fire that is upon the altar,

9 but they shall wash the inward parts and the feet with water, and the priests shall place all the things upon the altar; it is an offering, a sacrifice, an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

10 But if his gift to the Lord is from the sheep, from the lambs or from the kids, as a whole burnt offering, he shall present it as an unblemished male and place his hand upon its head.

11 And they shall slaughter it beside the altar toward the north before the Lord, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall pour its blood upon the altar all around.

12 And they shall divide it limb by limb, and the head and the fat, and the priests shall heap them upon the wood that is upon the fire upon the altar.

13 And they shall wash the inward parts and the feet with water, and the priest shall bring all the things and place them upon the altar; it is an offering, a sacrifice, an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

14 But if you offer an offering from the flying creatures as a gift to the Lord, then he shall bring his gift from the turtledoves or from the pigeons.

15 And the priest shall bring it to the altar and pinch off the head, and the priest shall place it upon the altar and drain the blood toward the base of the altar.

16 And he shall remove the crop together with the feathers and cast it beside the altar toward the east, into the place of the ashes.

17 And he shall break it from the wings and shall not divide it, and the priest shall place it upon the altar upon the wood that is upon the fire; it is an offering, a sacrifice, an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

Chapter 2

1 But if a soul offers a gift, a sacrifice to the Lord, his gift shall be fine flour, and he shall pour oil upon it and place frankincense upon it; it is a sacrifice.

2 And he shall bring it to the sons of Aaron, the priests, and taking from it a handful full of the fine flour together with the oil and all its frankincense, the priest shall place its memorial upon the altar; a sacrifice, an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

3 And the remainder from the sacrifice shall be for Aaron and his sons; Holy of Holies from the sacrifices of the Lord. –

4 But if you offer a gift, a sacrifice baked in an oven, a gift to the Lord from fine flour, it shall be unleavened loaves mixed with oil and unleavened flatcakes anointed throughout with oil. –

5 But if your gift is a sacrifice from a pan, it shall be fine flour mixed with oil, unleavened;

6 and you shall break them into pieces and pour oil upon them; it is a sacrifice to the Lord. –

7 But if your gift is a sacrifice from a grate, fine flour shall be made with oil.

8 And he shall bring the sacrifice that he makes from these things to the Lord; and he shall bring it to the priest, and approaching the altar,

9 the priest shall remove its memorial from the sacrifice, and the priest shall place it upon the altar; an offering, an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

10 But the thing remaining from the sacrifice shall be for Aaron and his sons; Holy of Holies from the offerings of the Lord.

11 Every sacrifice that you offer to the Lord you shall not make leavened; for you shall not bring any leaven or any honey from it to offer to the Lord.

12 As a gift of firstfruit you shall bring them to the Lord, but it shall not be brought up upon the altar as an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

13 And every gift of your sacrifice shall be salted with salt; you shall not cease the salt of the covenant of the Lord from your sacrifices; upon every gift of yours you shall bring salt to the Lord your God. –

14 But if you offer a sacrifice of first produce to the Lord, new roasted groats, pounded, to the Lord, then you shall bring the sacrifice of the first produce,

15 and you shall pour oil upon it and place frankincense upon it; it is a sacrifice.

16 And the priest shall offer its memorial from the groats together with the oil and all its frankincense; it is an offering to the Lord.

Chapter 3

1 But if his gift to the Lord is a sacrifice of salvation, if he presents it from his cattle, whether male or female, he shall present it unblemished before the Lord.

2 And he shall place his hands upon the head of the gift and slaughter it beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall pour the blood upon the altar of whole burnt offerings all around.

3 And they shall present from the sacrifice of salvation an offering to the Lord: the fat covering the belly and all the fat upon the belly,

4 and the two kidneys and the fat upon them that is upon the thighs and the lobe upon the liver [together with the kidneys he shall remove it],

5 and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall offer them upon the altar, upon the whole burnt offerings, upon the wood that is upon the fire upon the altar; an offering, an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

6 But if his gift is from the sheep, a sacrifice of salvation to the Lord, he shall bring it, male or female, unblemished.

7 If he presents a lamb as his gift, he shall present it before the Lord,

8 and he shall place his hands upon the head of his gift and slaughter it beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall pour the blood upon the altar all around.

9 And he shall bring from the sacrifice of salvation an offering to God: the fat and the unblemished loin [together with the loin muscles he shall remove it] and the fat of the belly,

10 and both kidneys and the fat upon them that is upon the thighs and the lobe upon the liver [removing it together with the kidneys],

11 the priest shall offer it upon the altar; an odor of sweetness, an offering to the Lord.

12 But if his gift is from the goats, then he shall present it before the Lord,

13 and he shall place his hands upon its head, and they shall slaughter it before the Lord beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall pour the blood upon the altar all around.

14 And he shall offer from it an offering to the Lord: the fat covering the belly and all the fat upon the belly,

15 and both kidneys and all the fat upon them that is upon the thighs and the lobe of the liver [together with the kidneys he shall remove it],

16 and the priest shall offer it upon the altar; an offering, an odor of sweetness to the Lord. All the fat belongs to the Lord;

17 an ordinance for the age for your generations in every dwelling of yours: you shall not eat any fat or any blood.

Chapter 4

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: If a soul sins involuntarily before the Lord from the ordinances of the Lord that ought not to be done, and does any one of them;

3 if the anointed high priest sins so that the people sin, then for his sin that he sinned he shall present an unblemished calf from the cattle to the Lord for his sin.

4 And he shall present the calf beside the door of the tabernacle of testimony before the Lord and place his hand upon the head of the calf before the Lord and slaughter the calf before the Lord.

5 And the anointed priest whose hands have been perfected, taking from the blood of the calf, shall bring it into the tabernacle of testimony;

6 and the priest shall dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle from the blood seven times before the Lord, along the holy veil;

7 and the priest shall place some of the blood of the calf upon the horns of the altar of compound incense before the Lord, which is in the tabernacle of testimony; and all the blood of the calf he shall pour out beside the base of the altar of whole burnt offerings, which is beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony.

8 And he shall remove from it all the fat of the calf of sin: the fat covering the inward parts and all the fat upon the inward parts,

9 and the two kidneys and the fat upon them that is upon the thighs and the lobe upon the liver [together with the kidneys he shall remove it],

10 in the manner that it is removed from the calf of the sacrifice of salvation, and the priest shall offer it upon the altar of offering.

11 And the skin of the calf and all its flesh together with the head and the extremities and the belly and the dung,

12 and they shall carry the whole calf outside the camp into a clean place, where they pour out the ashes, and burn it upon wood with fire; it shall be burned upon the outpouring of the ashes.

13 But if the whole congregation of Israel is involuntarily ignorant and a matter escapes the eyes of the congregation, and they do one of all the commandments of the Lord that shall not be done, and they trespass,

14 and the sin in which they sinned becomes known to them, then the congregation shall present an unblemished calf from the cattle for the sin and present it beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony.

15 And the elders of the congregation shall place their hands upon the head of the calf before the Lord and shall slaughter the calf before the Lord.

16 And the anointed priest shall bring some of the blood of the calf into the tabernacle of testimony;

17 and the priest shall dip his finger into some of the blood of the calf and sprinkle seven times before the Lord, directly before the veil of the holy place;

18 and the priest shall place some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of compound incense offerings that is before the Lord, which is in the tabernacle of testimony; and all the blood he shall pour toward the base of the altar of offerings that is beside the door of the tabernacle of testimony.

19 And he shall remove all the fat from it and offer it upon the altar;

20 and he shall do with the calf in the manner that he did with the calf of sin, thus it shall be done; and the priest shall make atonement concerning them, and the sin shall be forgiven them.

21 And they shall carry the whole calf outside the camp and burn the calf in the manner that they burned the former calf. It is the sin of the congregation.

22 But if the ruler sins and involuntarily does one of all the commandments of the Lord their God that shall not be done, and sins and trespasses,

23 and the sin in which he sinned becomes known to him, then he shall bring his gift, a male kid from the goats, unblemished.

24 And he shall place his hand upon the head of the kid, and they shall slaughter it in the place where they slaughter the whole burnt offerings before the Lord; it is sin.

25 And the priest shall place some of the blood of the thing of sin with his finger upon the horns of the altar of whole burnt offerings; and all its blood he shall pour out beside the base of the altar of whole burnt offerings.

26 And he shall offer all its fat upon the altar, like the fat of a sacrifice of salvation. And the priest shall make atonement concerning him from his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 But if one soul from the people of the land sins involuntarily by doing one of all the commandments of the Lord that shall not be done, and trespasses,

28 and the sin in which he sinned becomes known to him, then he shall bring a female kid from the goats, unblemished; he shall bring it for the sin that he sinned.

29 And he shall place his hand upon the head of his sin, and they shall slaughter the she-goat of sin in the place where they slaughter the whole burnt offerings.

30 And the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and place it upon the horns of the altar of whole burnt offerings; and all its blood he shall pour out beside the base of the altar.

31 And he shall remove all the fat in the manner that fat is removed from a sacrifice of salvation, and the priest shall offer it upon the altar for an odor of sweetness to the Lord. And the priest shall make atonement concerning him, and it shall be forgiven him. –

32 But if he presents a sheep as his gift for sin, he shall bring it as an unblemished female.

33 And he shall place his hand upon the head of the thing of sin, and they shall slaughter it in the place where they slaughter the whole burnt offerings.

34 And the priest, taking some of the blood of the thing of sin with his finger, shall place it upon the horns of the altar of whole burnt offering; and all its blood he shall pour out beside the base of the altar of whole burnt offering.

35 And he shall remove all its fat in the manner that the fat of a sheep is removed from the sacrifice of salvation, and the priest shall place it upon the altar, upon the whole burnt offering of the Lord. And the priest shall make atonement concerning him for the sin that he sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

Chapter 5

1 But if a soul sins and hears the voice of an oath, and he is a witness [either he saw or knows], if he does not report it, he shall bear the sin;

2 or a soul that touches any unclean thing, whether an unclean carcass or an unclean thing caught by a beast or any of the carcasses or any of the unclean abominations or any of the carcasses of unclean livestock,

3 or touches any human uncleanness, any of his uncleanness by which, having touched it, he is defiled, and it escapes him, but after this he knows and trespasses,

4 or a soul that swears, defining with the lips to do evil or to do good according to anything a man defines with an oath, and it escapes him before his eyes, and he knows and sins in any one of these,

5 then he shall declare openly the sin concerning the things in which he sinned against it,

6 and for the things in which he trespassed he shall bring to the Lord, for the sin that he sinned, a female from the sheep, a ewe lamb or a she-goat from the goats, for sin; and the priest shall make atonement concerning him for his sin that he sinned, and the sin shall be forgiven him.

7 But if his hand is not strong enough for what is sufficient for a sheep, he shall bring for his sin that he sinned two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the Lord, one for sin and one as a whole burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them to the priest, and the priest shall present the one for sin first; and the priest shall pinch off its head from the neck and shall not divide it;

9 and he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the thing for sin upon the wall of the altar, but the remainder of the blood he shall drain down upon the base of the altar; for it is of sin.

10 And he shall make the second a whole burnt offering, as is fitting. And the priest shall make atonement concerning his sin that he sinned, and it shall be forgiven him. –

11 But if his hand does not find a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he shall bring his gift for that in which he sinned, a tenth of an oiphi of fine flour for sin; he shall not pour oil upon it or place frankincense upon it, because it is for sin;

12 and he shall bring it to the priest. And the priest, taking from it a handful full, shall place its memorial upon the altar of whole burnt offerings to the Lord; it is sin.

13 And the priest shall make atonement concerning him for his sin that he sinned in any one of these, and it shall be forgiven him. But the thing remaining shall be for the priest, like the sacrifice of fine flour.

14 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

15 If forgetfulness escapes a soul and he sins involuntarily from the holy things of the Lord, then for his trespass he shall bring to the Lord an unblemished ram from the sheep, of a value in silver shekels according to the shekel of the holy things, for that in which he trespassed.

16 And that in which he sinned from the holy things, he shall repay it and add the fifth part upon it and give it to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement concerning him with the ram of trespass, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 And the soul that sins and does one of all the commandments of the Lord that ought not to be done, and did not know, and trespasses and bears the sin,

18 shall bring an unblemished ram from the sheep, of a value in silver, for trespass, to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement concerning him for his ignorance in which he was ignorant and he himself did not know, and it shall be forgiven him;

19 for he trespassed a trespass before the Lord.

20 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

21 If a soul sins and, overlooking, overlooks the commandments of the Lord, and lies in matters concerning his neighbor, concerning a deposit or concerning partnership or concerning robbery, or wrongs his neighbor in anything,

22 or finds a lost thing and lies concerning it and swears unjustly concerning any one of all the things a man may do so as to sin in these,

23 then it shall be, whenever he sins and trespasses, that he shall return the thing stolen that he stole, or the wrong by which he wronged, or the deposit that was entrusted to him, or the lost thing that he found,

24 from every matter concerning which he swore unjustly, and he shall repay the principal and add the fifth part upon it; to whomever it belongs, to him he shall return it on the day when he is convicted.

25 And for his trespass he shall bring to the Lord an unblemished ram from the sheep, of a value for that in which he trespassed against him.

26 And the priest shall make atonement concerning him before the Lord, and it shall be forgiven him concerning any one of all the things that he did and trespassed against him.

Chapter 6

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Command Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the law of the whole burnt offering. This whole burnt offering shall be upon its burning upon the altar the whole night until morning, and the fire of the altar shall burn upon it; it shall not be extinguished.

3 And the priest shall put on a linen tunic and shall put linen breeches around his body and shall remove the consumed offering that the fire consumes from the whole burnt offering from the altar and place it beside the altar.

4 And he shall take off his vestment and put on another vestment and carry the consumed offering outside the camp into a clean place.

5 And fire shall burn upon the altar from it and shall not be extinguished, and the priest shall burn wood upon it in the morning and heap the whole burnt offering upon it and place upon it the fat of the salvation offering;

6 and fire shall burn continually upon the altar; it shall not be extinguished.

7 This is the law of the sacrifice that the sons of Aaron shall present before the Lord opposite the altar;

8 and he shall remove from it with a handful some of the fine flour of the sacrifice, together with its oil and together with its frankincense that are upon the sacrifice, and shall offer it upon the altar as an offering; an odor of sweetness, its memorial to the Lord.

9 But Aaron and his sons shall eat the thing remaining from it; it shall be eaten unleavened in a holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of testimony they shall eat it.

10 It shall not be baked leavened; I have given it to them as a portion from the offerings of the Lord; Holy of Holies, like the thing of sin and like the thing of trespass.

11 Every male of the priests shall eat it; an eternal ordinance for your generations from the offerings of the Lord. Everyone who touches them shall be sanctified.

12 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

13 This is the gift of Aaron and his sons that they shall bring to the Lord on the day when you anoint him: a tenth of an oiphi of fine flour as a sacrifice continually, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening.

14 It shall be made upon a pan with oil; mixed, you shall bring it, rolled, a sacrifice from pieces, a sacrifice as an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

15 The anointed priest in his place from among his sons shall make it; an eternal law, the whole shall be fully offered.

16 And every sacrifice of a priest shall be entirely burned and shall not be eaten.

17 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

18 Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the law of sin. In the place where they slaughter the whole burnt offering, they shall slaughter the things for sin before the Lord; it is Holy of Holies.

19 The priest who offers it shall eat it; it shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of testimony.

20 Everyone who touches its flesh shall be sanctified; and whatever garment is sprinkled from its blood, the thing sprinkled upon it shall be washed in a holy place.

21 And an earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be shattered; but if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, he shall scour it out and rinse it with water.

22 Every male among the priests shall eat them; it is Holy of Holies of the Lord.

23 And none of the things for sin, from whose blood any is brought into the tabernacle of testimony to make atonement in the holy place, shall be eaten; it shall be burned with fire.

Chapter 7

1 And this is the law of the ram for trespass; it is Holy of Holies.

2 In the place where they slaughter the whole burnt offering, they shall slaughter the ram of trespass before the Lord, and he shall pour the blood upon the base of the altar all around.

3 And he shall bring from it all its fat, and the loin and all the fat covering the inward parts and all the fat upon the inward parts,

4 and the two kidneys and the fat upon them that is upon the thighs and the lobe upon the liver [together with the kidneys he shall remove them],

5 and the priest shall offer them upon the altar as an offering to the Lord; it is for trespass.

6 Every male from the priests shall eat them; in a holy place they shall eat them; it is Holy of Holies.

7 As the thing for sin, so also the thing of trespass; there is one law for them; it shall belong to the priest who makes atonement with it.

8 And the priest who presents a man’s whole burnt offering, the skin of the whole burnt offering that he himself offers shall belong to him.

9 And every sacrifice that is made in the oven, and every one that is made upon a grate or upon a pan, shall belong to the priest who offers it.

10 And every sacrifice mixed with oil and not mixed shall belong to all the sons of Aaron, an equal share to each.

11 This is the law of a sacrifice of salvation that they shall bring to the Lord.

12 If he offers it for praise, then upon the sacrifice of praise he shall bring loaves from fine flour mixed with oil, unleavened flatcakes anointed throughout with oil, and fine flour mixed with oil;

13 with leavened loaves he shall bring his gifts upon a sacrifice of praise of salvation.

14 And he shall present one from all his gifts as a removal offering to the Lord; it shall belong to the priest who pours the blood of the salvation offering.

15 And the flesh of a sacrifice of praise of salvation shall belong to him, and it shall be eaten on the day on which it is given; they shall not leave any of it until morning.

16 And if he sacrifices his gift as a vow or a voluntary gift, it shall be eaten on the day on which he presents his sacrifice and on the morrow;

17 and the thing remaining from the flesh of the sacrifice until the third day shall be burned with fire.

18 But if, eating, he eats from the flesh on the third day, it shall not be accepted for the one who offers it, it shall not be reckoned to him; it is a defilement; and the soul that eats from it shall bear the sin.

19 And any flesh that touches anything unclean shall not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire. Everyone clean shall eat flesh.

20 But the soul that eats from the flesh of the sacrifice of salvation that belongs to the Lord while his uncleanness is upon him, that soul shall perish from his people.

21 And a soul that touches any unclean thing, whether from human uncleanness or from unclean quadrupeds or from any unclean abomination, and eats from the flesh of the sacrifice of salvation that belongs to the Lord, that soul shall perish from his people.

22 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

23 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: You shall not eat any fat of cattle and sheep and goats.

24 And fat from carcasses and from what is caught by a beast may be used for any work, but it shall not be eaten as food.

25 Everyone who eats fat from the livestock from which he brings an offering to the Lord, that soul shall perish from his people.

26 You shall not eat any blood in any of your dwellings, whether from flying creatures or from livestock.

27 Every soul that eats blood, that soul shall perish from his people.

28 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

29 And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying: The one who offers a sacrifice of salvation to the Lord shall bring his gift to the Lord from the sacrifice of salvation.

30 His hands shall bring the offerings to the Lord; the fat upon the breast and the lobe of the liver, he shall bring them so as to place a gift before the Lord.

31 And the priest shall offer the fat upon the altar, and the breast shall belong to Aaron and his sons.

32 And you shall give the right arm as a removal offering to the priest from your sacrifices of salvation;

33 the one from the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the salvation offering and the fat, the right arm shall be a portion for him.

34 For I have taken the breast of the placement and the arm of the removal offering from the sons of Israel, from your sacrifices of salvation, and have given them to Aaron the priest and his sons as an eternal ordinance from the sons of Israel.

35 This is the anointing of Aaron and the anointing of his sons from the offerings of the Lord on the day when he brought them near to serve the Lord as priests,

36 just as the Lord commanded to give them on the day when he anointed them, from the sons of Israel; an eternal ordinance for their generations.

37 This is the law of the whole burnt offerings and sacrifice and the thing for sin and the thing of trespass and the perfection and the sacrifice of salvation,

38 in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses on Mount Sina on the day when he commanded the sons of Israel to bring their gifts before the Lord in the wilderness of Sina.

Chapter 8

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Take Aaron and his sons and his vestments and the oil of anointing and the calf for sin and the two rams and the basket of unleavened things,

3 and assemble the whole congregation at the door of the tabernacle of testimony.

4 And Moses did in the manner that the Lord commanded him, and he assembled the congregation at the door of the tabernacle of testimony.

5 And Moses said to the congregation: This is the word that the Lord commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons near and washed them with water;

7 and he clothed him with the tunic and girded him with the sash and clothed him with the undergarment and placed the shoulder piece upon him and bound him according to the workmanship of the shoulder piece and fastened him with it;

8 and he placed the oracle upon it and placed the Manifestation and the Truth upon the oracle;

9 and he placed the miter upon his head and placed upon the miter, toward his face, the golden plate, the sanctified holy thing, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses.

10 And Moses took from the oil of anointing,

11 and sprinkled some of it upon the altar seven times and anointed the altar and sanctified it and all its vessels and the washing basin and its base and sanctified them; and he anointed the tabernacle and all the things in it and sanctified it.

12 And Moses poured some of the oil of anointing upon the head of Aaron and anointed him and sanctified him.

13 And Moses brought the sons of Aaron near and clothed them with tunics and girded them with sashes and placed turbans around them, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

14 And Moses brought the calf for sin near, and Aaron and his sons placed their hands upon the head of the calf of sin.

15 And he slaughtered it, and Moses took some of the blood and placed it upon the horns of the altar all around with his finger and cleansed the altar; and he poured the blood upon the base of the altar and sanctified it, to make atonement upon it.

16 And Moses took all the fat upon the inward parts and the lobe upon the liver and both kidneys and the fat upon them, and Moses offered them upon the altar;

17 and the calf and its hide and its flesh and its dung, and he burned them with fire outside the camp, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses.

18 And Moses brought near the ram for a whole burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons placed their hands upon the head of the ram.

19 And Moses slaughtered the ram, and Moses poured the blood upon the altar all around.

20 And he cut the ram into flesh limb by limb, and Moses offered the head and the limbs and the fat;

21 and he washed the belly and the feet with water, and Moses offered the whole ram upon the altar; a whole burnt offering, which is for an odor of sweetness, it is an offering to the Lord, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 And Moses brought the second ram near, a ram of perfection; and Aaron and his sons placed their hands upon the head of the ram.

23 And he slaughtered it, and Moses took some of its blood and placed it upon the lobe of Aaron’s right ear and upon the tip of his right hand and upon the tip of his right foot.

24 And Moses brought the sons of Aaron near, and Moses placed some of the blood upon the lobes of their right ears and upon the tips of their right hands and upon the tips of their right feet, and Moses poured the blood upon the altar all around.

25 And he took the fat and the loin and the fat upon the belly and the lobe of the liver and the two kidneys and the fat upon them and the right arm;

26 and from the basket of perfection that was before the Lord he took one unleavened loaf and one loaf made with oil and one flatcake and placed them upon the fat and the right arm;

27 and he placed all the things upon the hands of Aaron and upon the hands of his sons and offered them as a removal offering before the Lord.

28 And Moses took them from their hands, and Moses offered them upon the altar, upon the whole burnt offering of perfection, which is an odor of sweetness; it is an offering to the Lord.

29 And Moses, taking the breast, removed it as a placement before the Lord from the ram of perfection, and it became a portion for Moses, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

30 And Moses took some of the oil of anointing and some of the blood upon the altar and sprinkled it upon Aaron and his vestments and his sons and the vestments of his sons with him and sanctified Aaron and his vestments and his sons and the vestments of his sons with him.

31 And Moses said to Aaron and his sons: Boil the flesh in the court of the tabernacle of testimony, in a holy place, and there you shall eat it and the loaves in the basket of perfection, in the manner that it has been commanded to me, saying: Aaron and his sons shall eat them;

32 and the thing remaining from the flesh and the loaves shall be burned with fire.

33 And you shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of testimony for seven days, until the day is fulfilled, the day of your perfection; for he shall perfect your hands for seven days.

34 Just as he did on this day, the Lord commanded it to be done so as to make atonement concerning you.

35 And you shall sit at the door of the tabernacle of testimony for seven days, day and night; you shall keep the guardings of the Lord, so that you do not die; for thus the Lord God commanded me.

36 And Aaron and his sons did all the words that the Lord commanded Moses.

Chapter 9

1 And it happened on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the council of elders of Israel.

2 And Moses said to Aaron: Take for yourself a calf from the cattle for sin and an unblemished ram as a whole burnt offering, and offer them before the Lord;

3 and speak to the council of elders of Israel, saying: Take one male kid from the goats for sin and a calf and a year-old lamb for a whole offering, unblemished,

4 and a calf and a ram as a sacrifice of salvation before the Lord and fine flour mixed with oil, because today the Lord shall appear among you.

5 And they took the things, as Moses commanded, opposite the tabernacle of testimony, and the whole congregation approached and stood before the Lord.

6 And Moses said: Do this word that the Lord spoke, and the glory of the Lord shall appear among you.

7 And Moses said to Aaron: Approach the altar and make the thing for your sin and your whole burnt offering and make atonement concerning yourself and your house; and make the gifts of the people and make atonement concerning them, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

8 And Aaron approached the altar and slaughtered the calf for sin;

9 and the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him, and he dipped his finger into the blood and placed it upon the horns of the altar and poured the blood upon the base of the altar;

10 and the fat and the kidneys and the lobe of the liver of the thing for sin he offered upon the altar, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses;

11 and the flesh and the hide, he burned them with fire outside the camp.

12 And he slaughtered the whole burnt offering; and the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him, and he poured it upon the altar all around;

13 and they brought the whole burnt offering to him limb by limb, them and the head, and he placed them upon the altar;

14 and he washed the belly and the feet with water and placed them upon the whole burnt offering upon the altar.

15 And they brought the gift of the people; and he took the male kid for the sin of the people and slaughtered it just as also the first.

16 And he brought the whole burnt offering and made it as is fitting.

17 And he brought the sacrifice and filled his hands from it and placed it upon the altar apart from the morning whole burnt offering.

18 And he slaughtered the calf and the ram of the sacrifice of salvation of the people; and the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him, and he poured it toward the altar all around;

19 and the fat from the calf and the ram, the loin and the fat covering upon the belly and the two kidneys and the fat upon them and the lobe upon the liver,

20 and he placed the fats upon the breasts, and they offered the fats upon the altar.

21 And Aaron removed the breast and the right arm as a removal offering before the Lord, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses. –

22 And Aaron, lifting his hands over the people, blessed them; and he came down after making the thing for sin and the whole burnt offerings and the things of salvation.

23 And Moses and Aaron entered into the tabernacle of testimony and, going out, blessed all the people, and the glory of the Lord appeared to all the people.

24 And fire came out from the Lord and consumed the things upon the altar, both the whole burnt offerings and the fats, and all the people saw and were astonished and fell upon their face.

Chapter 10

1 And the two sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abioud, each taking his fire-pan, placed fire upon it and put incense upon it and brought strange fire before the Lord, which the Lord had not commanded them.

2 And fire came out from the Lord and consumed them, and they died before the Lord.

3 And Moses said to Aaron: This is what the Lord spoke, saying: Among those who draw near to me I will be sanctified, and in the whole congregation I will be glorified. And Aaron was pierced with grief.

4 And Moses called Misadai and Elisaphan, sons of Oziel, sons of the brother of Aaron’s father, and said to them: Approach and carry your brothers away from the face of the holy things, outside the camp.

5 And they approached and carried them in their tunics outside the camp, in the manner that Moses said.

6 And Moses said to Aaron and Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons who remained: You shall not remove the turbans from your heads, and you shall not tear your garments, so that you do not die and there is wrath upon the whole congregation; your brothers, the whole house of Israel, shall weep for the burning with which they were burned by the Lord.

7 And you shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of testimony, so that you do not die; for the oil of anointing from the Lord is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

8 And the Lord spoke to Aaron, saying:

9 You shall not drink wine or sikera, you and your sons with you, whenever you enter into the tabernacle of testimony or when you approach the altar, and you shall certainly not die [an eternal ordinance for your generations],

10 to distinguish between the holy things and the profane things and between the unclean things and the clean things.

11 And you shall instruct the sons of Israel in all the ordinances that the Lord spoke to them by the hand of Moses.

12 And Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who remained: Take the sacrifice remaining from the offerings of the Lord and eat it unleavened beside the altar; it is Holy of Holies.

13 And you shall eat it in a holy place; for this is an ordinance for you and an ordinance for your sons from the offerings of the Lord; for thus it has been commanded to me.

14 And you and your sons and your household with you shall eat the breast of separation and the arm of the removal offering in a holy place; for it was given as an ordinance for you and an ordinance for your sons from the sacrifices of salvation of the sons of Israel.

15 They shall bring the arm of the removal offering and the breast of separation upon the offerings of the fats, to separate them as a separation before the Lord; and it shall be an eternal ordinance for you and your sons and your daughters with you, in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses.

16 And seeking, Moses sought out the male kid for sin, and behold, it had been burned; and Moses was angered against Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who remained, saying:

17 Why did you not eat the thing for sin in a holy place? For it is Holy of Holies; he gave this to you to eat so that you may take away the sin of the congregation and make atonement concerning them before the Lord;

18 for none of its blood was brought into the holy place; toward the front, inside, you shall eat it in a holy place, in the manner that the Lord commanded me.

19 And Aaron spoke to Moses, saying: If today they have brought the things for their sin and their whole burnt offerings before the Lord, and these things have happened to me, and I eat the things for sin today, will it be pleasing to the Lord?

20 And Moses heard, and it pleased him.

Chapter 11

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: These are the animals that you shall eat from all the animals that are upon the earth:

3 every animal that divides the hoof and splits the claws into two divisions of the hoof and brings up cud among the animals, these you shall eat.

4 Except from these you shall not eat: from those that bring up cud and from those that divide the hooves and split the claws: the camel, because it brings up cud, but does not divide the hoof; this is unclean for you;

5 and the hare, because it brings up cud but does not divide the hoof; this is unclean for you;

6 and the hyrax, because it brings up cud but does not divide the hoof; this is unclean for you;

7 and the pig, because it divides the hoof and splits the claws of the hoof, but it does not bring up cud; this is unclean for you.

8 You shall not eat from their flesh, and you shall not touch their carcasses; these are unclean for you.

9 And these are what you shall eat from all the things in the waters: all those that have fins and scales in the waters and in the seas and in the torrents, these you shall eat.

10 And all those that do not have fins or scales in the water or in the seas and in the torrents, from all that the waters belch forth and from every living soul that is in the water, are an abomination;

11 and they shall be abominations for you; you shall not eat from their flesh, and you shall abominate their carcasses.

12 And all those that do not have fins and scales, among the things in the water, this is an abomination for you.

13 And these you shall abominate from among the birds, and they shall not be eaten; they are an abomination: the eagle and the griffon-vulture and the sea eagle,

14 and the vulture and the kite and those like it,

15 and the raven and those like it,

16 and the ostrich and the owl and the gull and those like it and the hawk and those like it,

17 and the night raven and the cormorant and the ibis,

18 and the purple swamphen and the pelican and the swan,

19 and the owl and the heron and the plover and those like it and the hoopoe and the bat. –

20 And all the creeping things among the birds that go upon four are abominations for you.

21 But these you shall eat from among the creeping things of the birds that go upon four: those that have legs above their feet, to leap with them upon the earth.

22 And these you shall eat from among them: the bruchus and those like it and the attakes and those like it and the locust and those like it and the serpent-fighter and those like it.

23 Every creeping thing from among the birds that has four feet is an abomination for you. –

24 And by these you shall be defiled; everyone who touches their carcasses shall be unclean until evening,

25 and everyone who carries any of their carcasses shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until evening.

26 Among all the animals, whatever divides the hoof and splits the claws but does not chew cud shall be unclean for you; everyone who touches their carcasses shall be unclean until evening.

27 And every one that goes upon its hands among all the wild animals that go upon four shall be unclean for you; everyone who touches their carcasses shall be unclean until evening.

28 And the one who carries their carcasses shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until evening; these are unclean for you.

29 And these are unclean for you from among the creeping things that creep upon the earth: the weasel and the mouse and the land crocodile,

30 the shrew and the chameleon and the kalabotes and the lizard and the mole.

31 These are unclean for you from among all the creeping things that are upon the earth; everyone who touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until evening.

32 And everything upon which any of them falls when they are dead shall be unclean, whether any wooden vessel or garment or hide or sack; every vessel by which work is done shall be dipped into water and shall be unclean until evening, and then it shall be clean.

33 And every earthen vessel into which any of these falls inside, whatever is inside shall be unclean, and it shall be broken.

34 And every food that is eaten, upon which water comes, shall be unclean; and every drink that is drunk in any vessel shall be unclean.

35 And everything upon which any of their carcasses falls shall be unclean; ovens and pot-stands shall be pulled down; these are unclean and these shall be unclean for you.

36 Except for springs of waters and a cistern and a gathering of water, it shall be clean; but the one who touches their carcasses shall be unclean.

37 And if any of their carcasses falls upon any seed for sowing that shall be sown, it shall be clean;

38 but if water is poured upon any seed and any of their carcasses falls upon it, it is unclean for you.

39 And if one of the animals that is permitted for you to eat dies, the one who touches its carcass shall be unclean until evening.

40 And the one who eats from these carcasses shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until evening; and the one who carries any of their carcasses shall wash his garments and bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening.

41 And every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth, this shall be an abomination for you; it shall not be eaten.

42 And every one that goes upon its belly and every one that goes continually upon four, which multiplies in feet among all the creeping things that creep upon the earth, you shall not eat it, because it is an abomination for you.

43 And you shall certainly not make your souls abominable by any of the creeping things that creep upon the earth, and you shall not be defiled by these, and you shall not be unclean by them;

44 because I am the Lord your God, and you shall be sanctified and shall be holy, because I am holy, I the Lord your God; and you shall not defile your souls by any of the creeping things that move upon the earth;

45 because I am the Lord who brought you up from the land of Egypt to be your God, and you shall be holy, because I am holy, I the Lord.

46 This is the law concerning the animals and the birds and every soul that moves in the water and every soul that creeps upon the earth,

47 to distinguish between the unclean and the clean and between the live-bearing creatures that are eaten and the live-bearing creatures that are not eaten.

Chapter 12

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: A woman, if she receives seed and bears a male, shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation of her menstruation she shall be unclean.

3 And on the eighth day he shall circumcise the flesh of his foreskin.

4 And she shall remain thirty-three days in her unclean blood; she shall not touch any holy thing and shall not enter into the sanctuary until the days of her cleansing are fulfilled.

5 But if she bears a female, she shall be unclean twice seven days, according to the menstruation; and sixty-six days she shall remain in her unclean blood.

6 And when the days of her cleansing for a son or for a daughter are completed, she shall offer a year-old unblemished lamb as a whole burnt offering and a young pigeon or a turtledove concerning sin at the door of the tabernacle of testimony to the priest;

7 and he shall offer it before the Lord, and the priest shall make atonement concerning her and cleanse her from the fountain of her blood. This is the law of the one who bears a male or a female.

8 But if her hand does not find what is sufficient for a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one as a whole burnt offering and one concerning sin, and the priest shall make atonement concerning her, and she shall be cleansed.

Chapter 13

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 If there arises in the skin of the body of any person a scar, a conspicuously bright mark, and there arises in the skin of his body a leprous lesion, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests.

3 And the priest shall see the lesion in the skin of his body, and if the hair in the lesion has changed white and the appearance of the lesion is lower than the skin of the body, it is a leprous lesion; and the priest shall see it and shall defile him.

4 But if there is a white bright mark in the skin of the body, and its appearance is not lower than the skin, and its hair has not changed to white hair, but it is dim, then the priest shall set the lesion apart seven days.

5 And the priest shall see the lesion on the seventh day, and behold, the lesion remains before him; the lesion has not advanced in the skin, and the priest shall set him apart seven days a second time.

6 And the priest shall see him on the seventh day a second time, and behold, the lesion is dim; the lesion has not advanced in the skin; the priest shall cleanse him, for it is a mark; and when he has washed his garments, he shall be clean.

7 But if the mark, changing, advances in the skin after he has seen the priest for him to cleanse him, then he shall appear to the priest a second time;

8 and the priest shall see him, and behold, the mark has advanced in the skin, and the priest shall defile him; it is leprosy.

9 And if a leprous lesion arises in a person, then he shall come to the priest;

10 and the priest shall see, and behold, a white scar is in the skin, and it has changed hair white, and some of the sound living flesh is in the scar;

11 it is an old-growing leprosy; it is in the skin of his body, and the priest shall defile him and set him apart, because he is unclean.

12 But if, blossoming, the leprosy blossoms in the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the lesion from head to feet, throughout the whole sight of the priest,

13 then the priest shall see, and behold, the leprosy has covered all the skin of the body, and the priest shall cleanse him of the lesion, because all of it has changed white; it is clean.

14 And on whatever day living skin appears in him, he shall be defiled;

15 and the priest shall see the sound skin, and the sound skin shall defile him, because he is unclean; it is leprosy.

16 But if the sound skin is restored and changes white, then he shall come to the priest;

17 and the priest shall see, and behold, the lesion has changed to white, and the priest shall cleanse the lesion; he is clean.

18 And if an ulcer arises in the skin of his flesh and heals,

19 and there arises in the place of the ulcer a white scar or a bright spot whitening or reddening, then it shall appear to the priest;

20 and the priest shall see, and behold, its appearance is lower than the skin and its hair has changed to white, and the priest shall defile him; it is leprosy; it has blossomed in the ulcer.

21 But if the priest sees, and behold, there is no white hair in it, and it is not lower than the skin of the body, and it is dim, then the priest shall set him apart seven days.

22 But if it spreads in the skin, then the priest shall defile him; it is a leprous lesion; it has blossomed in the ulcer.

23 But if the bright spot remains in its place and does not spread, it is the scar of the ulcer, and the priest shall cleanse him.

24 And if there arises in the skin of his flesh a burn of fire, and the healed part of the burn in his skin becomes a shining bright white spot tending red or very white,

25 then the priest shall see him, and behold, white hair has changed in the shining spot and its appearance is lower than the skin; it is leprosy; it has blossomed in the burn, and the priest shall defile him; it is a leprous lesion.

26 But if the priest sees, and behold, there is no white hair in the shining spot, and it is not lower than the skin, but it is dim, then the priest shall set him apart seven days.

27 And the priest shall see him on the seventh day; but if, with spreading, it spreads in the skin, then the priest shall defile him; it is a leprous lesion; it has blossomed in the ulcer.

28 But if the shining spot remains in its place and does not spread in the skin, and it is dim, it is the scar of the burn, and the priest shall cleanse him, for it is the mark of the burn.

29 And if there arises in a man or a woman a leprous lesion on the head or on the beard,

30 then the priest shall see the lesion, and behold, its appearance is more hollow than the skin and there is thin yellowish hair in it, and the priest shall defile him; it is a scall, a leprosy of the head or a leprosy of the beard.

31 And if the priest sees the lesion of the scall, and behold, its appearance is not more hollow than the skin and there is no yellowish hair in it, then the priest shall set apart the lesion of the scall seven days.

32 And the priest shall see the lesion on the seventh day, and behold, the scall has not spread, and there is no yellowish hair in it, and the appearance of the scall is not hollow beneath the skin;

33 then the skin shall be shaved, but the scall shall not be shaved, and the priest shall set apart the scall seven days a second time.

34 And the priest shall see the scall on the seventh day, and behold, the scall has not spread in the skin after he has been shaved, and the appearance of the scall is not hollow beneath the skin; then the priest shall cleanse him, and when he has washed his garments, he shall be clean.

35 But if, with spreading, the scall spreads in the skin after he has been cleansed,

36 then the priest shall see, and behold, the scall has spread in the skin; the priest shall not examine concerning the yellow hair, because he is unclean.

37 But if the scall remains before him in its place and black hair springs up in it, the scall has healed; he is clean, and the priest shall cleanse him.

38 And if there arise in a man or a woman, in the skin of his flesh, shining spots that shine whitish,

39 then the priest shall see, and behold, in the skin of his flesh are shining spots that shine whitish; it is alphos; he is clean; it blossoms in the skin of his flesh; he is clean.

40 And if the head of anyone loses its hair, he is bald; he is clean.

41 But if his head loses its hair toward the front, he is bald in front; he is clean.

42 But if there arises in his baldness or in his frontal baldness a white or reddening lesion, it is leprosy in his baldness or in his frontal baldness;

43 and the priest shall see him, and behold, the appearance of the lesion is white, reddening in his baldness or in his frontal baldness, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of his flesh;

44 he is a leprous person; with defiling the priest shall defile him; his lesion is on his head.

45 And the leprous person in whom the lesion is, let his garments be loosened and his head uncovered, and let him wrap something around his mouth, and he shall be called unclean.

46 All the days for which the lesion is upon him, being unclean, he shall be unclean; he shall sit apart; his dwelling shall be outside the camp.

47 And if there arises in a garment a leprous lesion, in a woolen garment or in a flaxen garment,

48 or in warp or in woof or in the linen things or in the woolen things or in a hide or in any worked hide,

49 and the lesion becomes greenish or reddish in the hide or in the garment or in the warp or in the woof or in any vessel worked from hide, it is a leprous lesion, and it shall be shown to the priest.

50 And the priest shall see the lesion, and the priest shall set the lesion apart seven days.

51 And the priest shall see the lesion on the seventh day; but if the lesion spreads in the garment or in the warp or in the woof or in the hide, in regard to anything for which hides are made in the work, the lesion is a persistent leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall burn the garment or the warp or the woof among the woolen things or among the linen things or any vessel of hide in which the lesion is, because it is a persistent leprosy; it shall be burned with fire.

53 But if the priest sees, and the lesion does not spread in the garment or in the warp or in the woof or in any vessel of hide,

54 then the priest shall command, and he shall wash that upon which the lesion is, and the priest shall set the lesion apart seven days a second time.

55 And the priest shall see the lesion after it has been washed, and if the lesion has not changed its appearance and the lesion does not spread, it is unclean; it shall be burned with fire; it is fixed in the garment or in the warp or in the woof.

56 And if the priest sees, and the lesion is dim after it has been washed, he shall tear it away from the garment or from the hide or from the warp or from the woof.

57 But if it still appears in the garment or in the warp or in the woof or in any vessel of hide, it is a blossoming leprosy; that in which the lesion is shall be burned with fire.

58 And the garment or the warp or the woof or every vessel of hide that is washed and from which the lesion departs shall also be washed a second time and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of a leprous lesion in a woolen or flaxen garment or warp or woof or any vessel of hide, for cleansing it or defiling it.

Chapter 14

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 This is the law of the leprous person, on whatever day he is cleansed; and he shall be brought to the priest.

3 And the priest shall go out, outside the camp, and the priest shall see, and behold, the leprous lesion has healed from the leprous person;

4 and the priest shall command, and they shall take for the one who has been cleansed two living clean birds and cedar wood and spun scarlet and hyssop.

5 And the priest shall command, and they shall slaughter the one bird into an earthen vessel over living water.

6 And as for the living bird, he shall take it and the cedar wood and the spun scarlet and the hyssop and shall dip them and the living bird into the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over living water;

7 and he shall sprinkle upon the one cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and he shall be clean; and he shall release the living bird into the plain.

8 And the one who has been cleansed shall wash his garments and shall shave off all his hair and shall bathe in water and shall be clean; and after these things he shall enter into the camp and shall remain outside his house seven days.

9 And it shall be on the seventh day that he shall shave off all his hair: his head and his beard and his eyebrows, and he shall shave off all his hair; and he shall wash his garments and bathe his body in water and shall be clean. –

10 And on the eighth day he shall take two year-old unblemished lambs and one year-old unblemished sheep and three tenths of fine flour as a sacrifice, mixed with oil, and one kotyle of oil;

11 and the priest who cleanses shall stand the person who is being cleansed and these things before the Lord at the door of the tabernacle of testimony.

12 And the priest shall take the one lamb and bring it for trespass, and the kotyle of oil, and shall set it apart as a separation before the Lord.

13 And they shall slaughter the lamb in the place where they slaughter the whole burnt offerings and the things concerning sin, in a holy place; for the thing concerning sin is like the thing of trespass; it belongs to the priest; it is Holy of Holies.

14 And the priest shall take from the blood of the thing of trespass, and the priest shall place it upon the lobe of the right ear of the one who is being cleansed and upon the tip of the right hand and upon the tip of the right foot.

15 And the priest, taking from the kotyle of oil, shall pour it upon the priest’s left hand;

16 and he shall dip his right finger into the oil that is upon his left hand and shall sprinkle with his finger seven times before the Lord.

17 And the remaining oil that is in his hand the priest shall place upon the lobe of the right ear of the one who is being cleansed and upon the tip of the right hand and upon the tip of the right foot, upon the place of the blood of the thing of trespass.

18 And the remaining oil that is upon the priest’s hand, the priest shall place upon the head of the one who has been cleansed, and the priest shall make atonement concerning him before the Lord.

19 And the priest shall make the thing concerning sin, and the priest shall make atonement concerning the unclean person who is being cleansed from his sin; and after this the priest shall slaughter the whole burnt offering.

20 And the priest shall offer the whole burnt offering and the sacrifice upon the altar before the Lord; and the priest shall make atonement concerning him, and he shall be cleansed.

21 But if he is poor and his hand does not find enough, he shall take one lamb for that in which he trespassed, as a removal offering, so as to make atonement concerning him, and a tenth of fine flour mixed with oil as a sacrifice and one kotyle of oil,

22 and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, whatever his hand has found, and the one shall be concerning sin and the one as a whole burnt offering.

23 And he shall bring them on the eighth day for cleansing him, to the priest, at the door of the tabernacle of testimony before the Lord.

24 And the priest, taking the lamb of trespass and the kotyle of oil, shall place them as a presentation before the Lord.

25 And he shall slaughter the lamb of trespass, and the priest shall take from the blood of the thing of trespass and shall place it upon the lobe of the right ear of the one who is being cleansed and upon the tip of the right hand and upon the tip of the right foot.

26 And the priest shall pour some of the oil upon the priest’s left hand;

27 and the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the Lord.

28 And the priest shall place some of the oil that is upon his hand upon the lobe of the right ear of the one who is being cleansed and upon the tip of his right hand and upon the tip of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the thing of trespass.

29 And the remainder of the oil that is upon the priest’s hand he shall place upon the head of the one who has been cleansed, and the priest shall make atonement concerning him before the Lord.

30 And he shall make one of the turtledoves or of the young pigeons, according to what his hand has found,

31 the one concerning sin and the one as a whole burnt offering with the sacrifice; and the priest shall make atonement concerning the one who is being cleansed before the Lord.

32 This is the law for one in whom is the leprous lesion and whose hand does not find enough for his cleansing.

33 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

34 Whenever you enter into the land of the Chanaanites, which I give to you as a possession, and I give a leprous lesion in the houses of the land acquired by you,

35 then he whose house it is shall come and report to the priest, saying: Something like a lesion has appeared to me in the house.

36 And the priest shall command that the house be cleared out before the priest enters to see the lesion, so that the things that are in the house certainly do not become unclean; and after these things the priest shall enter to examine the house.

37 And he shall see the lesion in the walls of the house, greenish or reddish cavities, and their appearance lower than the walls;

38 and the priest, going out from the house to the door of the house, shall set the house apart seven days.

39 And the priest shall return on the seventh day and shall see the house, and behold, the lesion has not spread in the walls of the house;

40 and the priest shall command, and they shall take out the stones in which the lesion is, and they shall cast them outside the city into an unclean place.

41 And they shall scrape the house inside all around and shall pour out the dust outside the city into an unclean place.

42 And they shall take other scraped stones and put them in place of the stones, and they shall take other dust and plaster the house.

43 But if the lesion comes again and springs up in the house after the stones have been taken out and after the house has been scraped and after it has been plastered,

44 then the priest shall enter and shall see; if the lesion has spread in the house, it is a persistent leprosy in the house; it is unclean.

45 And they shall pull down the house, and they shall carry its timbers and its stones and all the dust outside the city into an unclean place.

46 And the one who enters into the house during all the days for which it is set apart shall be unclean until evening.

47 And the one who sleeps in the house shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until evening; and the one who eats in the house shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until evening.

48 But if the priest, arriving, enters and sees, and behold, with spreading the lesion does not spread in the house after the house has been plastered, then the priest shall cleanse the house, because the lesion has healed.

49 And he shall take, to purify the house, two living clean birds and cedar wood and spun scarlet and hyssop;

50 and he shall slaughter the one bird into an earthen vessel over living water,

51 and he shall take the cedar wood and the spun scarlet and the hyssop and the living bird and shall dip it into the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over living water and shall sprinkle the house with them seven times.

52 And he shall purify the house with the blood of the bird and with the living water and with the living bird and with the cedar wood and with the hyssop and with the spun scarlet.

53 And he shall release the living bird outside the city into the plain and shall make atonement concerning the house, and it shall be clean.

54 This is the law concerning every leprous lesion and scall,

55 and the leprosy of a garment and a house,

56 and a scar and a mark and the shining spot,

57 and for explaining on what day it is unclean and on what day it shall be cleansed; this is the law of leprosy.

Chapter 15

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: For any man in whom there is a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.

3 And this is the law of his uncleanness: whether seed flows from his body from the discharge by which his body has become constricted through the discharge, this is his uncleanness in him; all the days of the discharge of his body, by which his body has become constricted through the discharge, it is his uncleanness.

4 Every bed upon which the man with the seminal discharge sleeps is unclean, and every vessel upon which the man with the seminal discharge sits shall be unclean.

5 And a person who touches his bed shall wash his garments and bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening.

6 And the one who sits upon the vessel upon which the man with the seminal discharge sits shall wash his garments and bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening.

7 And the one who touches the body of the man with the seminal discharge shall wash his garments and bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening.

8 But if the man with the seminal discharge spits upon the clean person, he shall wash his garments and bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening.

9 And every saddle of a donkey upon which the man with the seminal discharge rides shall be unclean until evening.

10 And everyone who touches anything that is beneath him shall be unclean until evening; and the one who carries them shall wash his garments and bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening.

11 And anyone whom the man with the seminal discharge touches while he has not washed his hands shall wash his garments and bathe his body in water and shall be unclean until evening.

12 And an earthen vessel that the man with the seminal discharge touches shall be broken; and a wooden vessel shall be rinsed with water and shall be clean. –

13 But if the man with the seminal discharge is cleansed from his discharge, then seven days shall be counted for him for cleansing, and he shall wash his garments and bathe his body in water and shall be clean.

14 And on the eighth day he shall take for himself two turtledoves or two young pigeons and shall bring them before the Lord at the doors of the tabernacle of testimony and shall give them to the priest.

15 And the priest shall make them, one concerning sin and one as a whole burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement concerning him before the Lord for his discharge.

16 And a man from whom an emission of semen goes out shall bathe his whole body in water and shall be unclean until evening.

17 And every garment and every hide upon which there is an emission of semen shall also be washed with water and shall be unclean until evening.

18 And a woman, if a man lies with her with an emission of semen, they shall both bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening.

19 And a woman, if she is flowing with blood and her discharge is in her body, shall be in her menstruation seven days; everyone who touches her shall be unclean until evening.

20 And everything upon which she lies during her menstruation shall be unclean, and everything upon which she sits shall be unclean.

21 And everyone who touches her bed shall wash his garments and bathe his body in water and shall be unclean until evening.

22 And everyone who touches any vessel upon which she sits shall wash his garments and bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening.

23 But if he touches her while she is on her bed or upon the vessel upon which she sits, he shall be unclean until evening.

24 But if anyone lies in bed with her and her uncleanness comes upon him, then he shall be unclean seven days, and every bed upon which he sleeps shall be unclean.

25 And a woman, if she flows with a flow of blood for more days, not at the time of her menstruation, or if she also flows after her menstruation, all the days of the flow of her uncleanness shall be like the days of her menstruation; she shall be unclean.

26 And every bed upon which she sleeps during all the days of her flow shall be for her like the bed of her menstruation, and every vessel upon which she sits shall be unclean according to the uncleanness of her menstruation.

27 Everyone who touches her shall be unclean and shall wash his garments and bathe his body in water and shall be unclean until evening.

28 But if she is cleansed from the discharge, then seven days shall be counted for her, and after these she shall be cleansed.

29 And on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons and shall bring them to the priest at the door of the tabernacle of testimony.

30 And the priest shall make the one concerning sin and the one as a whole burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement concerning her before the Lord for the flow of her uncleanness.

31 And you shall make the sons of Israel cautious of their uncleannesses, and they shall not die because of their uncleanness when they defile my tabernacle that is among them. –

32 This is the law of the man with the seminal discharge and of anyone from whom an emission of semen goes out so that he is defiled by it,

33 and of the woman flowing blood in her menstruation and the one with a seminal discharge in his discharge, for the male or for the female, and of the man who lies with one sitting apart.

Chapter 16

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses after the two sons of Aaron died when they brought strange fire before the Lord, and they died.

2 And the Lord said to Moses: Speak to Aaron your brother, and let him not enter at every time into the holy place inside the veil, before the propitiatory that is upon the ark of testimony, and he shall not die; for I shall appear in a cloud upon the propitiatory.

3 Thus Aaron shall enter into the holy place: with a calf from the cattle concerning sin and a ram as a whole burnt offering.

4 And he shall put on a sanctified linen tunic, and linen drawers shall be upon his body, and he shall gird himself with a linen sash and put on a linen turban; they are holy garments, and he shall bathe his whole body in water and put them on.

5 And from the congregation of the sons of Israel he shall take two male kids from the goats concerning sin and one ram as a whole burnt offering.

6 And Aaron shall bring the calf concerning his sin and shall make atonement concerning himself and his house.

7 And he shall take the two male kids and stand them before the Lord beside the door of the tabernacle of testimony.

8 And Aaron shall place lots upon the two male kids, one lot for the Lord and one lot for the one sent away.

9 And Aaron shall bring the male kid upon which the lot for the Lord fell and shall offer it concerning sin.

10 And the male kid upon which the lot of the one sent away fell, he shall stand it alive before the Lord, to make atonement upon it so as to send it away for dismissal; he shall release it into the wilderness. –

11 And Aaron shall bring the calf concerning his sin, his own and that of his house alone, and shall make atonement concerning himself and his house, and he shall slaughter the calf concerning his own sin.

12 And he shall take the fire-pan full of coals of fire from the altar that is before the Lord and shall fill his hands with fine compounded incense and bring it inside the veil.

13 And he shall place the incense upon the fire before the Lord, and the vapor of the incense shall cover the propitiatory that is upon the testimonies, and he shall not die.

14 And he shall take some of the blood of the calf and shall sprinkle it with his finger upon the propitiatory toward the east; before the propitiatory he shall sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 And he shall slaughter the male kid concerning the sin of the people before the Lord and shall bring some of its blood inside the veil and shall do with its blood in the manner that he did with the blood of the calf, and he shall sprinkle its blood upon the propitiatory, before the propitiatory.

16 And he shall make atonement for the holy place from the uncleannesses of the sons of Israel and from their injustices concerning all their sins; and thus he shall do to the tabernacle of testimony that was built among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 And no person shall be in the tabernacle of testimony when he enters to make atonement in the holy place, until he comes out; and he shall make atonement concerning himself and his house and concerning the whole congregation of the sons of Israel.

18 And he shall go out to the altar that is before the Lord and shall make atonement upon it; and he shall take some of the blood of the calf and some of the blood of the male kid and shall place it upon the horns of the altar all around.

19 And he shall sprinkle some of the blood upon it with his finger seven times and shall cleanse it and sanctify it from the uncleannesses of the sons of Israel.

20 And he shall finish making atonement for the holy place and the tabernacle of testimony and the altar, and concerning the priests he shall cleanse; and he shall bring the living male kid.

21 And Aaron shall place his hands upon the head of the living male kid and shall declare over it all the lawless deeds of the sons of Israel and all their injustices and all their sins, and shall place them upon the head of the living male kid and shall send it away by the hand of a ready person into the wilderness.

22 And the male kid shall take their injustices upon itself into an untrodden land, and he shall send away the male kid into the wilderness.

23 And Aaron shall enter into the tabernacle of testimony and shall take off the linen robe that he had put on when he entered into the holy place and shall lay it there.

24 And he shall bathe his body in water in a holy place and shall put on his robe, and going out, he shall make his whole offering and the whole offering of the people and shall make atonement concerning himself and his house and concerning the people as concerning the priests.

25 And the fat concerning sins he shall offer upon the altar.

26 And the one who sends away the male kid that was separated for release shall wash his garments and bathe his body in water, and after these things he shall enter into the camp.

27 And the calf concerning sin and the male kid concerning sin, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, they shall carry them outside the camp and shall burn them with fire, both their hides and their flesh and their dung.

28 And the one who burns them shall wash his garments and bathe his body in water, and after these things he shall enter into the camp.

29 And this shall be an eternal ordinance for you: in the seventh month, on the tenth of the month, humble your souls, and you shall do no work, the native and the proselyte who is attached among you.

30 For on this day he shall make atonement concerning you, to cleanse you from all your sins before the Lord, and you shall be cleansed.

31 It shall be a Sabbath of Sabbaths, a rest for you, and you shall humble your souls; it is an eternal ordinance.

32 The priest shall make atonement, the one whom they anoint and whose hands they perfect to serve as priest after his father, and he shall put on the linen robe, a holy robe.

33 And he shall make atonement for the Holy of Holies, and he shall make atonement for the tabernacle of testimony and the altar, and he shall make atonement concerning the priests and concerning the whole congregation.

34 And this shall be an eternal ordinance for you, to make atonement concerning the sons of Israel for all their sins; once in the year it shall be done, just as the Lord instructed Moses.

Chapter 17

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: This is the word that the Lord commanded, saying:

3 Any person from the sons of Israel or from the proselytes who are attached among you, who slaughters a calf or sheep or goat in the camp or who slaughters it outside the camp

4 and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of testimony so as to make it a whole burnt offering or a salvation acceptable to the Lord for an aroma of fragrance, and whoever slaughters it outside and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of testimony so as not to offer a gift to the Lord before the tabernacle of the Lord, blood shall be reckoned to that person; he has shed blood; that soul shall be utterly destroyed from its people.

5 This is so that the sons of Israel may bring their sacrifices, as many as they themselves slaughter in the plains, and they shall bring them to the Lord at the doors of the tabernacle of testimony, to the priest, and shall sacrifice them as a sacrifice of salvation to the Lord.

6 And the priest shall pour the blood upon the altar all around before the Lord beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony and shall offer the fat as an aroma of fragrance to the Lord.

7 And they shall no longer sacrifice their sacrifices to the vain things after which they themselves prostitute themselves; it shall be an eternal ordinance for you throughout your generations.

8 And you shall say to them: Any person from the sons of Israel and from the sons of the proselytes who are attached among you who makes a whole burnt offering or a sacrifice

9 and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of testimony to make it for the Lord, that person shall be utterly destroyed from his people.

10 And any person from the sons of Israel or from the proselytes who are attached among you who eats any blood, I shall set my face against the soul that eats the blood and shall destroy it from its people.

11 For the soul of all flesh is its blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement concerning your souls; for its blood shall make atonement instead of the soul.

12 Therefore I have said to the sons of Israel: No soul from among you shall eat blood, and the proselyte who is attached among you shall not eat blood.

13 And any person from the sons of Israel and from the proselytes who are attached among you who hunts as game a wild animal or bird that is eaten shall pour out the blood and cover it with earth.

14 For the soul of all flesh is its blood, and I said to the sons of Israel: You shall not eat the blood of any flesh, because the soul of all flesh is its blood; everyone who eats it shall be utterly destroyed.

15 And every soul that eats a carcass or something caught by a wild beast, among the natives or among the proselytes, shall wash his garments and bathe in water and shall be unclean until evening, and then he shall be clean.

16 But if he does not wash his garments and does not bathe his body in water, then he shall bear his lawlessness.

Chapter 18

1 And the Lord said to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: I am the Lord your God.

3 You shall not do according to the practices of the land of Egypt, in which you dwelt, and you shall not do according to the practices of the land of Chanaan, into which I am bringing you there, and you shall not walk in their ordinances.

4 You shall do my judgments and keep my ordinances, to walk in them; I am the Lord your God.

5 And you shall keep all my ordinances and all my judgments and shall do them, which, if a person does, he shall live by them; I am the Lord your God.

6 No person shall approach any relative of his flesh to uncover shamefulness; I am the Lord.

7 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of your father and the shamefulness of your mother; for she is your mother, and you shall not uncover her shamefulness.

8 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of your father’s wife; it is your father’s shamefulness.

9 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of your sister from your father or from your mother, whether born within or born outside.

10 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter, because it is your shamefulness.

11 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of the daughter of your father’s wife; she is your sister by the same father; you shall not uncover her shamefulness.

12 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of your father’s sister, for she is a relative of your father.

13 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of your mother’s sister, for she is a relative of your mother.

14 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of your father’s brother, and you shall not enter into his wife, for she is your relative.

15 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of your daughter-in-law, for she is your son’s wife; you shall not uncover her shamefulness.

16 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of your brother’s wife; it is your brother’s shamefulness.

17 You shall not uncover the shamefulness of a woman and her daughter; you shall not take her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter to uncover their shamefulness, for they are your relatives; it is an impiety.

18 You shall not take a woman in addition to her sister as a rival, to uncover her shamefulness in addition to her while she is still living.

19 And you shall not approach a woman in the separation of her uncleanness to uncover her shamefulness.

20 And you shall not give the bed of your seed to the wife of your neighbor, to be defiled with her.

21 And you shall not give any of your seed to serve a ruler, and you shall not profane the holy name; I am the Lord.

22 And you shall not lie with a male in the bed of a woman, for it is an abomination.

23 And you shall not give your bed to any quadruped for insemination, to be defiled with it, and a woman shall not stand before any quadruped to be mounted, for it is loathsome.

24 Do not defile yourselves by any of these things, for by all these things the nations that I send away from before you were defiled,

25 and the land was defiled, and I repaid injustice to them because of it, and the land was disgusted with those dwelling upon it.

26 And you shall keep all my ordinances and all my commands and shall not do any of all these abominations, the native and the proselyte who has come among you.

27 For all these abominations were done by the people of the land who were before you, and the land was defiled;

28 and this is so that the land may not be disgusted with you when you defile it, in the manner that it was disgusted with the nations that were before you.

29 Because everyone who does any of all these abominations—the souls that do them shall be utterly destroyed from their people.

30 And you shall keep my commands so that you do not do any of all the abominated ordinances that occurred before you, and you shall not be defiled by them, because I am the Lord your God.

Chapter 19

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the congregation of the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: You shall be holy, because I am holy, the Lord your God.

3 Let each one fear his father and his mother, and you shall keep my Sabbaths; I am the Lord your God.

4 You shall not follow idols, and you shall not make molten gods for yourselves; I am the Lord your God. –

5 And if you sacrifice a sacrifice of salvation to the Lord, you shall sacrifice it as acceptable for you.

6 On whatever day you sacrifice it, it shall be eaten, and on the next day; and if it remains until the third day, it shall be burned with fire.

7 But if, with eating, it is eaten on the third day, it is unsacrificed; it shall not be accepted.

8 And the one who eats it shall bear sin, because he profaned the holy things of the Lord; and the souls that eat it shall be utterly destroyed from their people.

9 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely reap the harvest of your field, and you shall not gather the things that fall from your harvest.

10 And you shall not gather your vineyard again, nor shall you gather the grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the proselyte; I am the Lord your God.

11 You shall not steal. You shall not lie. Each one shall not slander his neighbor.

12 And you shall not swear by my name for an unjust thing, and you shall not profane the name of your God; I am the Lord your God.

13 You shall not wrong your neighbor, and you shall not rob, and the wage of the hired worker shall certainly not sleep with you until morning.

14 You shall not speak evil of a deaf person, and you shall not place a stumbling block before a blind person, and you shall fear the Lord your God; I am the Lord your God.

15 You shall not do injustice in judgment; you shall not accept the face of a poor person, nor shall you admire the face of a powerful person; in righteousness you shall judge your neighbor.

16 You shall not go by deceit in your nation; you shall not conspire against the blood of your neighbor; I am the Lord your God.

17 You shall not hate your brother in your mind; with reproof you shall reprove your neighbor, and you shall not bear sin because of him.

18 And your hand shall not avenge you, and you shall not bear a grudge against the sons of your people, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself; I am the Lord.

19 You shall keep my law; you shall not mate your animals with a different yoke, and you shall not sow your vineyard with diverse seed, and you shall not put upon yourself an adulterated garment woven from two things.

20 And if anyone lies with a woman with an emission of semen, and she is a female servant reserved for a man and she has not been ransomed with a ransom or freedom has not been given to her, there shall be an examination for them; they shall not die, because she had not been freed.

21 And he shall bring for his trespass to the Lord, beside the door of the tabernacle of testimony, a ram of trespass.

22 And the priest shall make atonement concerning him with the ram of trespass before the Lord concerning the sin that he sinned, and the sin that he sinned shall be forgiven him.

23 And when you enter into the land that the Lord your God gives you and plant every food-bearing tree, then you shall cleanse away its uncleanness all around; its fruit shall be uncleansed all around for you three years; it shall not be eaten.

24 And in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, praiseworthy to the Lord.

25 But in the fifth year you shall eat the fruit; its produce shall be an addition for you; I am the Lord your God.

26 Do not eat upon the mountains, and you shall not practice augury or observe birds for omens.

27 You shall not make a sisoe from the hair of your head, nor shall you destroy the appearance of your beard.

28 And you shall not make incisions for a soul in your body, and you shall not make tattooed letters upon yourselves; I am the Lord your God.

29 You shall not profane your daughter by prostituting her, and the land shall not prostitute itself and the land shall not be filled with lawlessness.

30 You shall keep my Sabbaths and shall fear because of my holy things; I am the Lord.

31 You shall not follow belly-speakers, and you shall not join yourselves to enchanters, to be defiled by them; I am the Lord your God.

32 You shall rise up before the face of a gray-haired person and shall honor the face of an elder and shall fear your God; I am the Lord your God.

33 And if any proselyte approaches you in your land, you shall not afflict him.

34 The proselyte who comes to you shall be like the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, because you became proselytes in the land of Egypt; I am the Lord your God.

35 You shall not do injustice in judgment, in measures and in weights and in balances.

36 Just balances and just weights and a just chous shall be for you; I am the Lord your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

37 And you shall keep all my law and all my commands and shall do them; I am the Lord your God.

Chapter 20

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 And to the sons of Israel you shall speak: If anyone from the sons of Israel or from the proselytes who have come to Israel gives any of his seed to a ruler, by death let him be put to death; the nation that is upon the land shall stone him with stones.

3 And I shall set my face against that person and shall destroy him from his people, because he gave some of his seed to a ruler, so that he might defile my holy things and profane the name of the things sanctified to me.

4 But if, with overlooking, the natives of the land overlook with their eyes that person when he gives some of his seed to a ruler, so as not to kill him,

5 then I shall set my face against that person and his kin and shall destroy him and all those who are of one mind with him, so as to prostitute him to the rulers, from their people.

6 And a soul that follows belly-speakers or enchanters so as to prostitute itself after them, I shall set my face against that soul and shall destroy it from its people.

7 And you shall be holy, because I am holy, the Lord your God.

8 And you shall keep my commands and shall do them; I am the Lord who sanctifies you.

9 Any person who speaks evil of his father or his mother, by death let him be put to death; he spoke evil of his father or his mother; he shall be guilty.

10 A person who commits adultery with a man’s wife, or who commits adultery with the wife of his neighbor, by death let them be put to death, both the one committing adultery and the one with whom adultery is committed.

11 If anyone lies with his father’s wife, he has uncovered the shamefulness of his father; by death let both be put to death; they are guilty.

12 And if anyone lies with his daughter-in-law, by death let both be put to death, for they have acted impiously; they are guilty.

13 And whoever lies with a male in the bed of a woman, both have done an abomination; let them be put to death; they are guilty.

14 Whoever takes a woman and her mother, it is lawlessness; they shall burn him and them with fire, and there shall be no lawlessness among you.

15 And whoever gives his lying down in a quadruped, by death let him be put to death, and you shall kill the quadruped.

16 And a woman who approaches any animal to be mounted by it, you shall kill the woman and the animal; by death let them be put to death; they are guilty.

17 Whoever takes his sister from his father or from his mother and sees her shamefulness, and she sees his shamefulness, it is a reproach; they shall be utterly destroyed before the sons of their race; he uncovered the shamefulness of his sister; they shall bear sin.

18 And a man who lies with a woman sitting apart and uncovers her shamefulness has uncovered her fountain, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood; both shall be utterly destroyed from their race.

19 And you shall not uncover the shamefulness of your father’s sister or your mother’s sister, for he has uncovered the kinship; they shall bear sin.

20 Whoever lies with his female relative has uncovered the shamefulness of his kin; they shall die childless.

21 Whoever takes his brother’s wife, it is uncleanness; he has uncovered the shamefulness of his brother; they shall die childless.

22 And you shall keep all my commands and my judgments and shall do them, and the land into which I am bringing you there to dwell upon it shall certainly not be disgusted with you.

23 And you shall by no means walk in the ordinances of the nations that I send away from you, because they did all these things and I abominated them.

24 And I said to you: You shall inherit their land, and I shall give it to you as a possession, a land flowing with milk and honey; I am the Lord your God, who separated you from all the nations.

25 And you shall separate them between the clean animals and between the unclean animals and between the clean birds and the unclean, and you shall not make your souls abominable by the animals and by the birds and by any of the creeping things of the earth that I separated for you in uncleanness.

26 And you shall be holy to me, because I am holy, the Lord your God, who separated you from all the nations to be mine.

27 And a man or a woman who becomes among them a belly-speaker or an enchanter, by death let both be put to death; stone them with stones; they are guilty.

Chapter 21

1 And the Lord said to Moses, saying: Say to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and you shall say to them: They shall not be defiled among the souls in their nation,

2 except by their nearest relative, by a father and mother and sons and daughters, by a brother,

3 and by a virgin sister who is near to him, who has not been given to a man; by these he shall be defiled.

4 He shall not be defiled suddenly among his people, to his profanation.

5 And you shall not shave baldness on the head for a dead person, and they shall not shave the appearance of the beard, and they shall not cut incisions into their flesh.

6 They shall be holy to their God and shall not profane the name of their God, for they themselves offer the sacrifices of the Lord, gifts of their God, and they shall be holy.

7 They shall not take a woman who is a prostitute and profaned, or a woman cast out from her husband, for he is holy to the Lord his God.

8 And you shall sanctify him; he offers the gifts of the Lord your God. He shall be holy, because I am holy, the Lord who sanctifies them.

9 And if a daughter of a man who is a priest is profaned by prostituting herself, she profanes the name of her father; she shall be burned upon fire.

10 And the great priest from among his brothers, upon whose head the oil of the anointed one has been poured and who has been perfected to put on the garments, shall not remove the turban from his head and shall not tear his garments.

11 And he shall not enter upon any soul that has died; he shall not be defiled by his father or by his mother.

12 And he shall not go out from the holy things and shall not profane the thing sanctified to his God, because the holy oil, the anointed thing of God, is upon him; I am the Lord.

13 He shall take a virgin woman from his race.

14 But a widow and one cast out and one profaned and a prostitute, these he shall not take; rather, he shall take as wife a virgin from his race.

15 And he shall not profane his seed among his people; I am the Lord who sanctifies him.

16 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

17 Say to Aaron: A person from your race throughout your generations, whoever has a blemish in him, shall not approach to offer the gifts of his God.

18 Every person in whom there is a blemish shall not approach: a person who is lame or blind or has a mutilated nose or a cut ear,

19 or a person in whom there is a broken hand or a broken foot,

20 or one who is hunchbacked or has a white spot or has a film over the eyes, or a person in whom there is severe scabies or lichen, or who has one testicle.

21 Everyone in whom there is a blemish, from the seed of Aaron the priest, shall not draw near to offer the sacrifices to your God; because there is a blemish in him, he shall not approach to offer the gifts of God.

22 He shall eat the gifts of God, the Holy of Holies and some of the holy things.

23 Except he shall not approach the veil and shall not draw near the altar, because he has a blemish; and he shall not profane the holy place of his God, because I am the Lord who sanctifies them.

24 And Moses spoke to Aaron and his sons and to all the sons of Israel.

Chapter 22

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Say to Aaron and to his sons, and let them keep away from the holy things of the sons of Israel, and they shall not profane my holy name in the things that they themselves sanctify to me; I am the Lord.

3 Say to them: Throughout your generations, every person from all your seed who approaches the holy things, whatever the sons of Israel sanctify to the Lord, while his uncleanness is upon him, that soul shall be utterly destroyed from me; I am the Lord your God.

4 And a person from the seed of Aaron the priest, if he is leprous or has a seminal discharge, shall not eat from the holy things until he is cleansed; and the one who touches any uncleanness of a soul, or a person from whom an emission of semen goes out,

5 or whoever touches any unclean creeping thing that defiles him, or touches a person by whom he defiles himself according to all his uncleanness,

6 a soul that touches them shall be unclean until evening; he shall not eat from the holy things unless he bathes his body in water.

7 And the sun shall set, and he shall be clean, and then he shall eat from the holy things, because it is his bread.

8 He shall not eat a carcass or something caught by a wild beast, to be defiled by them; I am the Lord.

9 And they shall keep my observances, so that they do not bear sin because of them and die because of them if they profane them; I am the Lord God who sanctifies them. –

10 And no foreigner shall eat holy things; a sojourner of a priest or a hired worker shall not eat holy things.

11 But if a priest acquires a soul as a possession with silver, this one shall eat from his bread; and those born in his house, these also shall eat from his bread.

12 And if a daughter of a man who is a priest becomes the wife of a foreign man, she shall not eat from the firstfruits of the holy things.

13 And if a daughter of a priest becomes a widow or is cast out, but there was no seed for her, she shall return to her paternal house as in her youth; she shall eat from the bread of her father. And no foreigner shall eat from them.

14 And a person who eats holy things in ignorance shall also add its fifth to it and shall give the holy thing to the priest.

15 And they shall not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel, which they themselves remove for the Lord,

16 and they shall bring upon themselves the lawlessness of trespass when they eat their holy things, because I am the Lord who sanctifies them.

17 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

18 Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to the whole congregation of Israel, and you shall say to them: Any person from the sons of Israel or from the sons of the proselytes who are attached to them in Israel who offers his gifts according to any confession of theirs or according to any choice of theirs, whatever they offer to God as a whole burnt offering,

19 acceptable for you shall be unblemished males from the herds and from the sheep and from the goats.

20 Anything that has a blemish in it they shall not bring to the Lord, because it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And a person who offers a sacrifice of salvation to the Lord, distinguishing a vow according to a choice or at your festivals, from the herds or from the sheep, shall be unblemished for acceptance; no blemish shall be in it.

22 Anything blind or crushed or with its tongue cut or covered in warts or having severe scabies or lichens, they shall not bring these to the Lord, and you shall not give any of them as an offering upon the altar to the Lord.

23 And a calf or sheep with a cut ear or a docked tail, you shall make them slaughtered things for yourself, but for your vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Anything with its testicles bruised or crushed or cut out or torn away, you shall not bring them to the Lord, and you shall not do this upon your land.

25 And from the hand of a foreigner you shall not offer the gifts of your God from any of these, because corruptions are in them; a blemish is in them; these shall not be accepted for you.

26 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

27 A calf or sheep or goat, when it is born, shall be seven days under its mother, but from the eighth day and beyond it shall be accepted as gifts, an offering to the Lord.

28 And a calf or sheep, her and her young you shall not slaughter on one day.

29 But if you sacrifice a sacrifice, a vow of joy to the Lord, you shall sacrifice it as acceptable for you.

30 On that same day it shall be eaten; you shall not leave any of the flesh until morning; I am the Lord.

31 And you shall keep my commandments and shall do them.

32 And you shall not profane the name of the Holy One, and I shall be sanctified in the midst of the sons of Israel; I am the Lord who sanctifies you,

33 who brought you out from the land of Egypt so as to be your God; I am the Lord.

Chapter 23

1 And the Lord said to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: The feasts of the Lord, which you shall call holy convocations, these are my feasts. –

3 Six days you shall do works, and on the seventh day there shall be Sabbaths, a rest, a holy convocation to the Lord; you shall do no work; it is Sabbaths to the Lord in every dwelling of yours.

4 These are the feasts to the Lord, holy convocations, which you shall call at their appointed times.

5 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, between the evenings, is Pascha to the Lord.

6 And on the fifteenth day of this month is the feast of unleavened things to the Lord; seven days you shall eat unleavened things.

7 And the first day shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall do no work of service.

8 And you shall bring whole burnt offerings to the Lord for seven days; and the seventh day shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall do no work of service.

9 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

10 Say to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: When you enter into the land that I give you and reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf, the firstfruit of your harvest, to the priest.

11 And he shall offer the sheaf before the Lord, acceptable for you; on the day after the first day the priest shall offer it.

12 And on the day on which you bring the sheaf, you shall make a year-old unblemished sheep as a whole burnt offering to the Lord,

13 and its sacrifice shall be two tenths of fine flour worked up in oil—a sacrifice to the Lord, an aroma of fragrance to the Lord—and its libation shall be the fourth of a hin of wine.

14 And you shall not eat bread or roasted new groats until this same day, until you offer the gifts to your God; it is an eternal ordinance throughout your generations in every dwelling of yours.

15 And you shall count from the day after the Sabbaths, from the day on which you offer the sheaf of the presentation, seven complete weeks;

16 until the day after the last week you shall count fifty days, and you shall offer a new sacrifice to the Lord.

17 From your dwelling you shall offer loaves as a presentation, two loaves; they shall be from two tenths of fine flour; they shall be baked leavened as first produce to the Lord.

18 And with the loaves you shall bring seven year-old unblemished lambs and one calf from the herd and two unblemished rams—they shall be a whole burnt offering to the Lord—and their sacrifices and their libations, a sacrifice, an aroma of fragrance to the Lord.

19 And they shall make one male kid from the goats concerning sin and two year-old lambs as a sacrifice of salvation with the loaves of the first produce.

20 And the priest shall place them with the loaves of the first produce as a presentation before the Lord with the two lambs; they shall be holy to the Lord; they shall belong to the priest who offers them to him.

21 And you shall call this day a convocation; it shall be holy for you; you shall do no work of service on it; it is an eternal ordinance throughout your generations in every dwelling of yours. –

22 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely reap the remainder of the harvest of your field when you reap, and you shall not gather the things that fall from your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor and the proselyte; I am the Lord your God.

23 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

24 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: On the first of the seventh month there shall be a rest for you, a memorial of trumpets; it shall be a holy convocation for you.

25 You shall do no work of service and shall bring a whole burnt offering to the Lord.

26 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

27 And on the tenth of this seventh month is a day of atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall humble your souls and bring a whole burnt offering to the Lord.

28 You shall do no work on this same day, for it is a day of atonement for you, to make atonement concerning you before the Lord your God.

29 Every soul that is not humbled on this same day shall be utterly destroyed from its people.

30 And every soul that does work on this same day, that soul shall perish from its people.

31 You shall do no work; it is an eternal ordinance throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be Sabbaths of Sabbaths for you, and you shall humble your souls; from the ninth of the month, from evening until evening, you shall keep your Sabbaths.

33 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

34 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: On the fifteenth of this seventh month is the feast of tents for seven days to the Lord.

35 And the first day is a holy convocation; you shall do no work of service.

36 For seven days you shall bring whole burnt offerings to the Lord; and the eighth day shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall bring whole burnt offerings to the Lord; it is a closing; you shall do no work of service.

37 These are the feasts to the Lord, which you shall call holy convocations, so as to offer offerings to the Lord, whole burnt offerings and their sacrifices and their libations, each day’s for the day,

38 apart from the Sabbaths of the Lord and apart from your gifts and apart from all your vows and apart from your voluntary offerings, whatever you give to the Lord.

39 And on the fifteenth day of this seventh month, when you have finished the produce of the land, you shall feast to the Lord seven days; on the first day there shall be rest, and on the eighth day rest.

40 And on the first day you shall take beautiful fruit of a tree and adornments of palms and leafy branches of a tree and willows and branches of the chaste tree from a torrent, to rejoice before the Lord your God for seven days

41 of the year; it is an eternal ordinance throughout your generations; in the seventh month you shall feast it.

42 You shall dwell in tents seven days; every native in Israel shall dwell in tents,

43 so that your generations may see that I caused the sons of Israel to dwell in tents when I brought them out from the land of Egypt; I am the Lord your God.

44 And Moses spoke the feasts of the Lord to the sons of Israel.

Chapter 24

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Command the sons of Israel, and let them take for me pure pounded olive oil for light, to burn a lamp continually.

3 Outside the veil in the tabernacle of testimony, Aaron and his sons shall burn it from evening until morning before the Lord continually; it is an eternal ordinance throughout your generations.

4 Upon the pure lampstand you shall burn the lamps before the Lord until morning.

5 And you shall take fine flour and make it into twelve loaves; each one loaf shall be of two tenths.

6 And you shall place them in two sets, six loaves in one set, upon the pure table before the Lord.

7 And you shall place pure frankincense and salt upon the set, and they shall be loaves set before the Lord for remembrance.

8 On the day of the Sabbaths it shall be set before the Lord continually, before the sons of Israel, as an eternal covenant.

9 And it shall belong to Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat them in a holy place, for this is Holy of Holies for him from the things sacrificed to the Lord, an eternal ordinance.

10 And a son of an Israelite woman went out, and he was the son of an Egyptian among the sons of Israel, and the one from the Israelite woman and the Israelite man fought in the camp.

11 And the son of the Israelite woman, having named the Name, cursed, and they brought him to Moses; and the name of his mother was Salomith daughter of Dabri from the tribe of Dan.

12 And they put him into custody, to judge him by the command of the Lord.

13 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

14 Bring the one who cursed outside the camp, and all those who heard shall place their hands upon his head, and the whole congregation shall stone him.

15 And speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: A person who curses a god shall bear sin.

16 But one who names the name of the Lord, by death let him be put to death; let the whole congregation of Israel stone him with stones; whether a proselyte or a native, when he names the name of the Lord, let him die.

17 And a person who strikes the soul of a person and he dies, by death let him be put to death.

18 And whoever strikes an animal and it dies, let him repay soul for soul.

19 And if anyone gives a blemish to his neighbor, as he did to him, so also shall it be done back to him:

20 break for break, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; according as he gives a blemish to the person, so it shall be given to him.

21 Whoever strikes a person and he dies, by death let him be put to death.

22 There shall be one ordinance for the proselyte and for the native, because I am the Lord your God.

23 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought the one who cursed outside the camp and stoned him with stones; and the sons of Israel did just as the Lord instructed Moses.

Chapter 25

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses on Mount Sina, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: If you enter into the land that I give you, then the land that I give you shall rest, Sabbaths to the Lord.

3 Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall trim your vine and gather its fruit.

4 But in the seventh year there shall be Sabbaths, a rest for the land, Sabbaths to the Lord; you shall not sow your field, and you shall not trim your vine.

5 And you shall not reap the spontaneous things that rise from your field, and you shall not harvest the grape of your sanctification; it shall be a year of rest for the land.

6 And the Sabbaths of the land shall be food for you and for your male servant and your female servant and your hired worker and the sojourner who is attached to you,

7 and for your animals and for the wild animals that are in your land; all its produce shall be for food.

8 And you shall count for yourself seven rests of years, seven years seven times, and the seven weeks of years shall be for you forty-nine years.

9 And you shall announce with the sound of a trumpet in all your land, in the seventh month, on the tenth of the month; on the day of propitiation you shall announce with a trumpet in all your land.

10 And you shall sanctify the fiftieth year and proclaim a release upon the land to all those dwelling in it; this shall be a sign of a year of release for you, and each one shall depart to his possession, and each one of you shall depart to his fatherland.

11 This sign of release, the fiftieth year, shall be a year for you; you shall not sow, nor shall you reap its spontaneous things that rise, and you shall not harvest its sanctified things,

12 because it is a sign of release; it shall be holy for you; from the plains you shall eat its produce.

13 In the year of its sign of release, each one shall return to his possession.

14 But if you give a sale to your neighbor, or if you acquire something from your neighbor, let no person afflict his neighbor.

15 According to the number of years after the sign you shall acquire it from your neighbor; according to the number of years of produce he shall sell it to you.

16 According as the years are more, you shall increase its acquisition price, and according as the years are fewer, you shall lessen its acquisition price, because thus he sells to you the number of its yields.

17 Let no person afflict his neighbor, and you shall fear the Lord your God; I am the Lord your God.

18 And you shall do all my ordinances and all my judgments, and you shall keep and do them, and you shall dwell upon the land with confidence.

19 And the land shall give its produce, and you shall eat to fullness and shall dwell upon it with confidence.

20 But if you say: What shall we eat in this seventh year if we do not sow or gather our produce?

21 Then I shall send my blessing to you in the sixth year, and it shall make its produce for three years.

22 And you shall sow in the eighth year and shall eat from the old produce; until the ninth year, until its produce comes, you shall eat old things of old things.

23 And the land shall not be sold for confirmation, for the land is mine, because you are proselytes and sojourners before me.

24 And throughout every land of your possession you shall give a ransom for the land. –

25 But if your brother who is with you becomes poor and sells some of his possession, and the kinsman who is nearest to him comes, then he shall ransom the sale of his brother.

26 But if someone has no kinsman and his hand prospers and what is sufficient for his ransom is found for him,

27 then he shall calculate the years of his sale and shall repay the surplus to the person to whom he sold himself, and he shall depart to his possession.

28 But if his hand does not prosper enough to repay him, then the sale shall belong to the one who acquired it until the sixth year of the release; and it shall go out at the release, and he shall depart to his possession.

29 And if anyone sells an inhabited house in a walled city, then its redemption shall be until a year of days is fulfilled; its redemption shall be within that time.

30 But if it is not redeemed until its whole year is fulfilled, the house that is in the city that has a wall shall be confirmed permanently to the one who acquired it throughout his generations, and it shall not go out at the release.

31 But the houses in farmsteads that do not have a wall around them shall be reckoned with the field of the land; they shall always be redeemable and shall go out at the release.

32 And as for the cities of the Levites, the houses in the cities of their possession shall always be redeemable for the Levites.

33 And whoever redeems from the Levites, the sale of their houses in the city of their possession shall also go out at the release, because the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession in the midst of the sons of Israel.

34 And the fields set apart for their cities shall not be sold, because this is their eternal possession.

35 But if your brother becomes poor and is weak in his hands beside you, you shall support him as a proselyte and a sojourner, and your brother shall live with you.

36 You shall not take interest from him or anything in addition, and you shall fear your God—I am the Lord—and your brother shall live with you.

37 You shall not give him your silver at interest, and you shall not give him your food for increase.

38 I am the Lord your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt to give you the land of Chanaan so as to be your God.

39 But if your brother is humbled beside you and is sold to you, he shall not serve you with the service of a household servant.

40 He shall be with you as a hired worker or a sojourner; until the year of the release he shall work beside you.

41 And he shall go out at the release, and his children with him, and he shall depart to his race; he shall run back to his paternal possession.

42 Because these are my household servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt, he shall not be sold with the sale of a household servant.

43 You shall not stretch him in labor, and you shall fear the Lord your God.

44 And as many male servants and female servants as you have from the nations that are around you, from them you shall acquire a male slave and a female slave.

45 And from the sons of the sojourners who are among you, from these you shall acquire, and from their relatives, as many as are born in your land; let them be a possession for you.

46 And you shall allot them to your children after you, and they shall be held by you in perpetuity; but from your brothers, the sons of Israel, each one shall not stretch his brother in labors.

47 But if the hand of the proselyte or the sojourner beside you finds means, and your brother, being in need, is sold to the proselyte or the sojourner beside you, to a native-born proselyte,

48 after he is sold to him, there shall be redemption for him; one of his brothers shall ransom him,

49 or his father’s brother or the son of his father’s brother shall ransom him, or one of the relatives of his flesh from his tribe shall ransom him; but if, prospering in his hands, he ransoms himself,

50 then he shall calculate with the one who acquired him from the year in which he sold himself to him until the year of the release, and the silver of his sale shall be as a wage; it shall be year by year with him.

51 But if there are more of the years for anyone, according to these he shall repay his ransom from the silver of his sale.

52 But if few of the years remain until the year of the release, then he shall calculate it for him according to his years and shall repay his ransom.

53 He shall be with him as a hired worker year by year; you shall not stretch him in labor before you.

54 But if he is not ransomed according to these things, he shall go out in the year of the release, he and his children with him.

55 Because the sons of Israel are household servants to me; these are my servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt; I am the Lord your God.

Chapter 26

1 You shall not make for yourselves handmade things or carved things, nor shall you raise up a pillar for yourselves, nor shall you place a watch-stone in your land to worship it; I am the Lord your God.

2 You shall keep my Sabbaths and shall fear because of my holy things; I am the Lord.

3 If you walk in my commands and keep my commandments and do them,

4 then I shall give you the rain at its appointed time, and the land shall give its produce, and the trees of the plains shall give back their fruit.

5 And the threshing shall overtake the vintage for you, and the vintage shall overtake the sowing, and you shall eat your bread to fullness and shall dwell with security upon your land.

6 And war shall not pass through your land, and I shall give peace in your land, and you shall sleep, and there shall be no one frightening you, and I shall destroy evil wild animals from your land.

7 And you shall pursue your enemies, and they shall fall before you by slaughter.

8 And five of you shall pursue a hundred, and a hundred of you shall pursue myriads, and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9 And I shall look upon you and increase you and multiply you and establish my covenant with you.

10 And you shall eat old things and old things of old things, and you shall carry out old things from before the new.

11 And I shall place my covenant among you, and my soul shall not abominate you.

12 And I shall walk about among you and shall be your God, and you shall be my people.

13 I am the Lord your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt while you were slaves, and I broke the bond of your yoke and led you with boldness.

14 But if you do not obey me or do these commands of mine,

15 but disobey them and your soul is disgusted with my judgments, so that you do not do all my commandments, so as to scatter my covenant,

16 then I also shall do thus to you, and I shall raise up against you distress, both scabies and jaundice, causing your eyes to waste away and your soul to melt, and you shall sow your seed in vain, and your adversaries shall eat it.

17 And I shall set my face against you, and you shall fall before your enemies, and those who hate you shall pursue you, and you shall flee when no one pursues you. –

18 And if up to this point you do not obey me, then I shall add to disciplining you sevenfold for your sins.

19 And I shall break the arrogance of your pride and shall make the heaven iron for you and your earth like bronze,

20 and your strength shall be in vain, and your land shall not give its seed, and the tree of your field shall not give its fruit. –

21 And if after these things you walk crookedly and do not wish to obey me, I shall add seven blows to you according to your sins.

22 And I shall send against you the wild animals of the land, and they shall devour you and utterly consume your animals and make you few, and your roads shall be made desolate. –

23 And if by these things you are not disciplined but walk crookedly toward me,

24 then I also shall walk with you in crooked wrath, and I also shall strike you sevenfold in return for your sins.

25 And I shall bring against you a sword avenging the justice of the covenant, and you shall flee for refuge into your cities; and I shall send death into you, and you shall be delivered into the hands of enemies.

26 When you are afflicted by a famine of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven and shall give back your bread by weight, and you shall eat and certainly shall not be filled. –

27 But if by these things you do not obey me and walk crookedly toward me,

28 then I myself shall walk with you in crooked wrath and shall discipline you sevenfold according to your sins.

29 And you shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.

30 And I shall make your pillars desolate and utterly destroy your wooden handmade things and place your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and my soul shall be disgusted with you.

31 And I shall make your cities desolate and utterly desolate your holy places, and I shall certainly not smell the aroma of your sacrifices.

32 And I myself shall utterly desolate your land, and your enemies who dwell in it shall marvel at it.

33 And I shall scatter you among the nations, and the sword passing after you shall utterly consume you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities shall be desolate.

34 Then the land shall delight in its Sabbaths all the days of its desolation, and you shall be in the land of your enemies; then the land shall keep Sabbath and delight in its Sabbaths.

35 All the days of its desolation it shall keep Sabbath, which it did not keep during your Sabbaths when you dwelt in it.

36 And upon those of you who are left, I shall bring cowardice into their heart in the land of their enemies, and the sound of a leaf being carried shall pursue them, and they shall flee as those fleeing from war and shall fall when no one pursues.

37 And brother shall overlook brother as though in war when no one runs after them, and you shall not be able to withstand your enemies.

38 And you shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall devour you.

39 And those left from you shall be destroyed because of your sins; in the land of their enemies they shall melt away.

40 And they shall declare their sins and the sins of their fathers, because they transgressed and overlooked me and because they walked crookedly against me,

41 and I walked with them in crooked wrath and shall destroy them in the land of their enemies; then their uncircumcised heart shall be turned, and then they shall be well pleased with their sins.

42 And I shall remember the covenant of Jacob and the covenant of Isaac and the covenant of Abraham, and I shall remember the land.

43 And the land shall be abandoned by them; then the land shall accept its Sabbaths when it is made desolate because of them, and they themselves shall accept their lawlessnesses, because they overlooked my judgments and their soul was disgusted with my commands.

44 And not even thus, while they are in the land of their enemies, did I overlook them or become disgusted with them so as to utterly consume them, to scatter my covenant with them, because I am the Lord their God.

45 And I shall remember for them the former covenant, when I brought them out from the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery, before the nations, to be their God; I am the Lord.

46 These are the judgments and the commands and the law that the Lord gave between himself and between the sons of Israel on Mount Sina by the hand of Moses.

Chapter 27

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: Whoever vows a vow so that there is a valuation of his soul to the Lord,

3 the valuation of a male from twenty years old to sixty years old shall be fifty didrachms of silver by the holy weight.

4 And the assessment of a female shall be thirty didrachms.

5 But if from five years old to twenty years, the valuation of a male shall be twenty didrachms and of a female ten didrachms.

6 And from a month old to five years old, the valuation of a male shall be five didrachms of silver and of a female three didrachms.

7 But if from sixty years and above, if it is a male, the valuation shall be fifteen didrachms of silver, but if a female, ten didrachms.

8 But if he is too poor for the valuation, he shall stand before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according as the hand of the one who vowed has strength, the priest shall value him.

9 But if it is from the animals from which a gift is offered to the Lord, whatever one gives from these to the Lord shall be holy.

10 He shall not exchange it, good for bad or bad for good; but if, with exchanging, he exchanges an animal for an animal, both it and the exchange shall be holy.

11 But if it is any unclean animal from which a gift is not offered to the Lord, then he shall stand the animal before the priest,

12 and the priest shall value it between good and bad, and according as the priest values it, so it shall stand.

13 But if, with redeeming, he redeems it, he shall add the fifth to its valuation.

14 And a person who sanctifies his house as holy to the Lord, the priest shall value it between good and bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand.

15 But if the one who sanctified it redeems his house, he shall add to it the fifth of the silver of its valuation, and it shall be his.

16 But if a person sanctifies to the Lord some of the field of his possession, then the valuation shall be according to its seed: for a kor of barley, fifty didrachms of silver.

17 But if he sanctifies his field from the year of the release, it shall stand according to its valuation.

18 But if he sanctifies his field later after the release, the priest shall calculate the silver for him according to the years remaining until the year of the release, and it shall be deducted from his assessment.

19 But if the one who sanctified the field redeems it, he shall add the fifth of the silver to its valuation, and it shall be his.

20 But if he does not redeem the field and sells the field to another person, he shall no longer redeem it.

21 Rather, when the release has gone out, the field shall be holy to the Lord, like the land that has been set apart; it shall be a possession for the priest.

22 But if he sanctifies to the Lord some of the field that he acquired, which is not from the field of his possession,

23 the priest shall calculate for him the completion of the valuation from the year of the release, and he shall repay the valuation on that day as holy to the Lord.

24 And in the year of the release the field shall be returned to the person from whom he acquired it, whose possession of the land it was.

25 And every valuation shall be by holy weights; the didrachm shall be twenty obols.

26 And every firstborn that arises among your animals shall belong to the Lord, and no one shall sanctify it; whether a calf or a sheep, it belongs to the Lord.

27 But if it is from the unclean quadrupeds, he shall exchange it according to its valuation and shall add the fifth to it, and it shall be his; but if he does not redeem it, it shall be sold according to its assessed value.

28 And every anathema that a person devotes to the Lord from all that belongs to him, from person to animal and from the field of his possession, shall not be sold or redeemed; every anathema shall be Holy of Holies to the Lord.

29 And anything from among people that is devoted shall not be redeemed, but by death it shall be put to death.

30 Every tenth of the land, from the seed of the land and the fruit of the tree, belongs to the Lord; it is holy to the Lord.

31 But if a person redeems his tenth with a ransom, he shall add the fifth to it, and it shall be his.

32 And every tenth of cattle and sheep, and everything that comes in the count under the rod, the tenth shall be holy to the Lord.

33 You shall not exchange good for bad; but if, with exchanging, you exchange it, then its exchange also shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

34 These are the commandments that the Lord commanded Moses for the sons of Israel on Mount Sina.

Numbers

Chapter 1

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sina, in the tabernacle of testimony, on the first of the second month of the second year after they had gone out from the land of Egypt, saying:

2 Take the head-count of the whole congregation of the sons of Israel according to their kinships, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number from their names, head by head, every male

3 from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force of Israel; muster them with their force; you and Aaron shall muster them.

4 And with you there shall be one from each tribe, from the rulers of each; they shall be according to the houses of their paternal families.

5 And these are the names of the men who shall stand with you: from Reuben, Elisour son of Sediour;

6 from Symeon, Salamiel son of Sourisadai;

7 from Judas, Naasson son of Aminadab;

8 from Issachar, Nathanael son of Sogar;

9 from Zaboulon, Eliab son of Chailon;

10 from the sons of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elisama son of Emioud; from Manasse, Gamaliel son of Phadassour;

11 from Benjamin, Abidan son of Gadeoni;

12 from Dan, Achiezer son of Amisadai;

13 from Aser, Phagaiel son of Echran;

14 from Gad, Elisaph son of Ragouel;

15 from Nephthali, Achire son of Ainan.

16 These are those called from the congregation, rulers of the tribes according to paternal families; they are commanders of thousands of Israel.

17 And Moses and Aaron took these men who had been called by name,

18 and they assembled the whole congregation on the first of the second month of the year, and they were enrolled according to their generations, according to their paternal families, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, every male, head by head,

19 in the manner that the Lord instructed Moses; and they were mustered in the wilderness of Sina.

20 And the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

21 their muster from the tribe of Reuben was forty-six thousand five hundred. –

22 For the sons of Symeon, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

23 their muster from the tribe of Symeon was fifty-nine thousand three hundred. –

24 For the sons of Judas, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

25 their muster from the tribe of Judas was seventy-four thousand six hundred. –

26 For the sons of Issachar, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

27 their muster from the tribe of Issachar was fifty-four thousand four hundred. –

28 For the sons of Zaboulon, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

29 their muster from the tribe of Zaboulon was fifty-seven thousand four hundred. –

30 For the sons of Joseph, the sons of Ephraim, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

31 their muster from the tribe of Ephraim was forty thousand five hundred. –

32 For the sons of Manasse, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

33 their muster from the tribe of Manasse was thirty-two thousand two hundred. –

34 For the sons of Benjamin, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

35 their muster from the tribe of Benjamin was thirty-five thousand four hundred. –

36 For the sons of Gad, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

37 their muster from the tribe of Gad was forty-five thousand six hundred fifty. –

38 For the sons of Dan, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

39 their muster from the tribe of Dan was sixty-two thousand seven hundred. –

40 For the sons of Aser, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

41 their muster from the tribe of Aser was forty-one thousand five hundred. –

42 For the sons of Nephthali, according to their kinships, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out in the force,

43 their muster from the tribe of Nephthali was fifty-three thousand four hundred. –

44 This is the muster that Moses and Aaron and the rulers of Israel mustered, twelve men; there was one man according to each one tribe, according to the tribe of the houses of the paternal family.

45 And the whole muster of the sons of Israel with their force, from twenty years old and above, everyone who goes out to be arrayed for battle in Israel, was 46 six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

47 But the Levites from the tribe of their paternal family were not mustered among the sons of Israel.

48 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

49 See that you do not also muster the tribe of Levi and do not take their number in the midst of the sons of Israel.

50 And you, appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony and over all its vessels and over all the things that are in it; they shall carry the tabernacle and all its vessels, and they shall minister in it and shall encamp around the tabernacle.

51 And when the tabernacle moves, the Levites shall take it down, and when the tabernacle encamps, they shall raise it up; and let the foreigner who approaches die.

52 And the sons of Israel shall encamp, each man in his own order and each man according to his own leadership with their force.

53 But let the Levites encamp before the Lord around the tabernacle of testimony, and there shall be no sin among the sons of Israel. And the Levites themselves shall keep the watch of the tabernacle of testimony.

54 And the sons of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron; thus they did.

Chapter 2

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 Let the sons of Israel encamp, each man next to him by order, by standards, according to the houses of their paternal families; opposite, around the tabernacle of testimony, the sons of Israel shall encamp.

3 And those encamping first toward the east shall be the order of the camp of Judas with their force, and the ruler of the sons of Judas shall be Naasson son of Aminadab.

4 His force, those mustered, was seventy-four thousand six hundred.

5 And those encamping next shall be of the tribe of Issachar, and the ruler of the sons of Issachar shall be Nathanael son of Sogar.

6 His force, those mustered, was fifty-four thousand four hundred.

7 And those encamping next shall be of the tribe of Zaboulon, and the ruler of the sons of Zaboulon shall be Eliab son of Chailon.

8 His force, those mustered, was fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

9 All those mustered from the camp of Judas were one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred with their force; they shall set out first.

10 The order of the camp of Reuben toward the southwest with their force, and the ruler of the sons of Reuben shall be Elisour son of Sediour.

11 His force, those mustered, was forty-six thousand five hundred.

12 And those encamping next to him shall be of the tribe of Symeon, and the ruler of the sons of Symeon shall be Salamiel son of Sourisadai.

13 His force, those mustered, was fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

14 And those encamping next to him shall be of the tribe of Gad, and the ruler of the sons of Gad shall be Elisaph son of Ragouel.

15 His force, those mustered, was forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

16 All those mustered from the camp of Reuben were one hundred fifty-one thousand four hundred fifty with their force; they shall set out second. –

17 And the tabernacle of testimony and the camp of the Levites shall be taken up in the midst of the camps; as they encamp, so also shall they set out, each one next to the other according to leadership.

18 The order of the camp of Ephraim by the sea with their force, and the ruler of the sons of Ephraim shall be Elisama son of Emioud.

19 His force, those mustered, was forty thousand five hundred.

20 And those encamping next shall be of the tribe of Manasse, and the ruler of the sons of Manasse shall be Gamaliel son of Phadassour.

21 His force, those mustered, was thirty-two thousand two hundred.

22 And those encamping next shall be of the tribe of Benjamin, and the ruler of the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan son of Gadeoni.

23 His force, those mustered, was thirty-five thousand four hundred.

24 All those mustered from the camp of Ephraim were one hundred eight thousand one hundred with their force; they shall set out third.

25 The order of the camp of Dan toward the north with their force, and the ruler of the sons of Dan shall be Achiezer son of Amisadai.

26 His force, those mustered, was sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

27 And those encamping next to him shall be of the tribe of Aser, and the ruler of the sons of Aser shall be Phagaiel son of Echran.

28 His force, those mustered, was forty-one thousand five hundred.

29 And those encamping next shall be of the tribe of Nephthali, and the ruler of the sons of Nephthali shall be Achire son of Ainan.

30 His force, those mustered, was fifty-three thousand four hundred.

31 All those mustered from the camp of Dan were one hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred; they shall set out last according to their order.

32 This is the muster of the sons of Israel according to the houses of their paternal families; the whole muster of the camps with their forces was six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

33 But the Levites were not mustered together among them, just as the Lord commanded Moses.

34 And the sons of Israel did all that the Lord instructed Moses; thus they encamped according to their order and thus they set out, each one next to the others according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families.

Chapter 3

1 And these are the generations of Aaron and Moses on the day on which the Lord spoke to Moses on Mount Sina.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: the firstborn Nadab, and Abioud, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whose hands they perfected to serve as priests.

4 And Nadab and Abioud died before the Lord when they offered strange fire before the Lord in the wilderness of Sina, and there were no children for them; and Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests with Aaron their father.

5 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

6 Take the tribe of Levi and stand them before Aaron the priest, and they shall minister to him.

7 And they shall keep his watches and the watches of the sons of Israel before the tabernacle of testimony, to perform the works of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the vessels of the tabernacle of testimony and the watches of the sons of Israel concerning all the works of the tabernacle.

9 And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons the priests; a gift, given, these are mine from the sons of Israel.

10 And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons over the tabernacle of testimony, and they shall keep their priesthood and all the things around the altar and inside the veil; and the foreigner who touches shall die.

11 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

12 And I, behold, have taken the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel in place of every firstborn that opens the womb among the sons of Israel; they shall be their ransom, and the Levites shall be mine.

13 For every firstborn is mine; on the day on which I struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to myself every firstborn in Israel, from person to animal; they shall be mine; I am the Lord.

14 And the Lord spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sina, saying:

15 Muster the sons of Levi according to the houses of their paternal families, according to their clans, according to their kinships; every male from a month old and above, you shall muster them.

16 And Moses and Aaron mustered them through the voice of the Lord, in the manner that the Lord instructed them.

17 And these were the sons of Levi by their names: Gedson, Kaath, and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gedson according to their clans: Lobeni and Semei.

19 And the sons of Kaath according to their clans: Amram and Issaar, Chebron and Oziel.

20 And the sons of Merari according to their clans: Mooli and Mousi. These are the clans of the Levites according to the houses of their paternal families.

21 To Gedson belonged the clan of Lobeni and the clan of Semei; these are the clans of Gedson.

22 Their muster, according to the number of every male from a month old and above, their muster was seven thousand five hundred.

23 And the sons of Gedson shall encamp behind the tabernacle by the sea,

24 and the ruler of the house of the paternal family of the clan of Gedson shall be Elisaph son of Lael.

25 And the watch of the sons of Gedson in the tabernacle of testimony shall be the tabernacle and the covering and the covering of the door of the tabernacle of testimony,

26 and the curtains of the court and the veil of the gate of the court that is upon the tabernacle and the remaining things of all its works.

27 To Kaath belonged the clan of Amramis and the clan of Saaris and the clan of Chebronis and the clan of Ozielis; these are the clans of Kaath.

28 According to the number of every male from a month old and above, eight thousand six hundred, keeping the watches of the holy things.

29 The clans of the sons of Kaath shall encamp at the sides of the tabernacle toward the southwest,

30 and the ruler of the house of the paternal families of the clans of Kaath shall be Elisaphan son of Oziel.

31 And their watch shall be the ark and the table and the lampstand and the altars and the vessels of the holy place with which they minister and the covering and all their works.

32 And the ruler over the rulers of the Levites shall be Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, appointed to keep the watches of the holy things.

33 To Merari belonged the clan of Mooli and the clan of Mousi; these are the clans of Merari.

34 Their muster according to number, every male from a month old and above, was six thousand fifty.

35 And the ruler of the house of the paternal families of the clan of Merari shall be Souriel son of Abichail; they shall encamp at the sides of the tabernacle toward the north.

36 The muster, the watch of the sons of Merari, shall be the capitals of the tabernacle and its bars and its pillars and its bases and all their vessels and their works,

37 and the pillars of the court all around and their bases and the stakes and their cords.

38 And those encamping before the tabernacle of testimony toward the east shall be Moses and Aaron and his sons, keeping the watches of the holy place for the watches of the sons of Israel; and the foreigner who touches shall die.

39 The whole muster of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron mustered through the voice of the Lord according to their clans, every male from a month old and above, was twenty-two thousand.

40 And the Lord said to Moses, saying: Muster every male firstborn of the sons of Israel from a month old and above and take their number by name.

41 And you shall take the Levites for me—I am the Lord—in place of all the firstborn of the sons of Israel, and the animals of the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the animals of the sons of Israel.

42 And Moses mustered, in the manner that the Lord commanded, every firstborn among the sons of Israel.

43 And all the male firstborn, according to the number by name, from a month old and above, from their muster, were twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.

44 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

45 Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn of the sons of Israel and the animals of the Levites in place of their animals, and the Levites shall be mine; I am the Lord.

46 And as the ransom of the two hundred seventy-three who exceed the Levites from among the firstborn of the sons of Israel, 47 you shall take five shekels per head; according to the holy didrachm you shall take them, twenty obols to the shekel.

48 And you shall give the silver to Aaron and his sons as the ransom of those who exceed among them.

49 And Moses took the silver, the ransom of those who exceeded, for the redemption from the Levites.

50 From the firstborn of the sons of Israel he took the silver, one thousand three hundred sixty-five shekels according to the holy shekel.

51 And Moses gave the ransom of those who exceeded to Aaron and his sons through the voice of the Lord, in the manner that the Lord instructed Moses.

Chapter 4

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 Take the head-count of the sons of Kaath from the midst of the sons of Levi according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families,

3 from twenty-five years old and above and up to fifty years old, everyone who enters to minister, to perform all the works in the tabernacle of testimony.

4 And these are the works of the sons of Kaath in the tabernacle of testimony: the Holy of Holies.

5 And Aaron and his sons shall enter when the camp sets out, and they shall take down the overshadowing veil and shall cover the ark of testimony with it.

6 And they shall place upon it a covering of hyacinth-colored skin and shall throw over it a cloth entirely hyacinth-colored above and shall insert the carrying poles.

7 And upon the table set forth they shall throw a cloth entirely purple and the dishes and the censers and the cups and the libation vessels with which he pours libations, and the continual loaves shall be upon it.

8 And they shall throw a scarlet cloth over it and cover it with a covering of hyacinth-colored skin and shall insert the carrying poles through it.

9 And they shall take a hyacinth-colored cloth and cover the lampstand that gives light and its lamps and its tongs and its oil-drawers and all the vessels of oil with which they minister,

10 and they shall put it and all its vessels into a covering of hyacinth-colored skin and shall place it upon carrying poles.

11 And over the golden altar they shall cover a hyacinth-colored cloth and shall cover it with a covering of hyacinth-colored skin and shall insert its carrying poles.

12 And they shall take all the ministering vessels with which they minister in the holy things and shall put them into a hyacinth-colored cloth and cover them with a covering of hyacinth-colored skin and shall place them upon carrying poles.

13 And he shall place the cover upon the altar, and they shall cover it over with a cloth entirely purple.

14 And they shall place upon it all the vessels with which they minister upon it, both the fire-pans and the flesh-hooks and the bowls and the cover and all the vessels of the altar; and they shall throw over it a covering of hyacinth-colored skin and shall insert its carrying poles; and they shall take a purple cloth and cover together the laver and its base and put them into a covering of hyacinth-colored skin and place them upon carrying poles.

15 And Aaron and his sons shall finish covering the holy things and all the holy vessels when the camp sets out, and after these things the sons of Kaath shall enter to carry them, but they shall not touch the holy things, so that they do not die; these things the sons of Kaath shall carry in the tabernacle of testimony. –

16 The overseer shall be Eleazar son of Aaron the priest: the oil of the light and the compounded incense and the daily sacrifice and the oil of anointing, the oversight of the whole tabernacle and all that is in it, in the holy place, in all the works. –

17 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

18 Do not utterly destroy the clan of Kaath from the midst of the Levites.

19 Do this for them, and they shall live and certainly shall not die when they approach the Holy of Holies: let Aaron and his sons approach and appoint them, each one according to his load.

20 And they shall certainly not enter to see the holy things suddenly, and they will die.

21 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

22 Take the head-count of the sons of Gedson, these also, according to the houses of their paternal families, according to their clans.

23 From twenty-five years old and above up to fifty years old, muster them, everyone who enters to minister and to perform his works in the tabernacle of testimony.

24 This is the ministry of the clan of Gedson, to minister and to carry:

25 and he shall carry the skins of the tabernacle and the tabernacle of testimony and its covering and the hyacinth-colored covering that is upon it above and the covering of the door of the tabernacle of testimony,

26 and the curtains of the court, as many as are upon the tabernacle of testimony, and the excesses and all the ministering vessels with which they minister; they shall perform these things.

27 According to the mouth of Aaron and his sons shall be the ministry of the sons of Gedson, according to all their ministries and according to all the things carried by them; and you shall muster them by name for all the things carried by them.

28 This is the ministry of the sons of Gedson in the tabernacle of testimony, and their watch shall be in the hand of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

29 The sons of Merari, according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, you shall muster them.

30 From twenty-five years old and above up to fifty years old, you shall muster them, everyone who enters to minister in the works of the tabernacle of testimony.

31 And these are the observances of the things carried by them, according to all their works in the tabernacle of testimony: the capitals of the tabernacle and the bars and its pillars and its bases and the covering and their bases and their pillars and the covering of the door of the tabernacle,

32 and the pillars of the court all around and their bases and the pillars of the veil of the gate of the court and their bases and their stakes and their cords and all their vessels and all their ministries; you shall muster them by name for all the vessels of the watch of the things carried by them.

33 This is the ministry of the clan of the sons of Merari in all their works in the tabernacle of testimony, in the hand of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

34 And Moses and Aaron and the rulers of Israel mustered the sons of Kaath according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families,

35 from twenty-five years old and above up to fifty years old, everyone who enters to minister and to work in the tabernacle of testimony.

36 And their muster according to their clans was two thousand two hundred fifty.

37 This is the muster of the clan of Kaath, everyone who ministers in the tabernacle of testimony, as Moses and Aaron mustered them through the voice of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

38 And the sons of Gedson were mustered according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families,

39 from twenty-five years old and above up to fifty years old, everyone who enters to minister and to perform the works in the tabernacle of testimony.

40 And their muster according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, was two thousand six hundred thirty.

41 This is the muster of the clan of the sons of Gedson, everyone who ministers in the tabernacle of testimony, whom Moses and Aaron mustered through the voice of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

42 And the clan of the sons of Merari also was mustered according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, 43 from twenty-five years old and above up to fifty years old, everyone who enters to minister at the works of the tabernacle of testimony.

44 And their muster according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families, was three thousand two hundred.

45 This is the muster of the clan of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron mustered through the voice of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

46 All those mustered, whom Moses and Aaron and the rulers of Israel mustered, the Levites according to their clans, according to the houses of their paternal families,

47 from twenty-five years old and above up to fifty years old, everyone who enters for the work of the works and for the works that are carried in the tabernacle of testimony,

48 and those mustered were eight thousand five hundred eighty.

49 Through the voice of the Lord he mustered them by the hand of Moses, man by man over their works and over the things that they themselves carry; and they were mustered in the manner that the Lord instructed Moses.

Chapter 5

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Command the sons of Israel, and let them send out from the camp every leprous person and everyone with a seminal discharge and everyone unclean by a soul.

3 From male to female, send them outside the camp, and they shall certainly not defile their camps, in which I dwell among them.

4 And the sons of Israel did thus and sent them outside the camp; just as the Lord spoke to Moses, thus the sons of Israel did.

5 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

6 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: A man or woman, whoever does any of the human sins and, with overlooking, overlooks and that soul trespasses,

7 shall declare the sin that he committed and shall repay the trespass, the principal, and shall add its fifth to it and repay it to the one against whom he trespassed.

8 But if the person has no kinsman so as to repay the trespass to him, the trespass repaid to the Lord shall belong to the priest, apart from the ram of propitiation through which he shall make atonement with it concerning him.

9 And every firstfruit, according to all the things sanctified among the sons of Israel, as many as they offer to the Lord, shall belong to the priest himself.

10 And each person’s sanctified things shall be his; whatever a man gives to the priest shall belong to him.

11 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

12 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: If the wife of any man transgresses and, with overlooking, overlooks him,

13 and someone lies with her with an emission of semen and it escapes the eyes of her husband and she conceals it, and she is defiled and there was no witness with her and she was not caught,

14 and a spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous of his wife, and she has been defiled; or a spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous of his wife, but she has not been defiled,

15 then the man shall bring his wife to the priest and shall offer the gift concerning her, a tenth of an oiphi of barley flour; he shall not pour oil upon it or place frankincense upon it, for it is a sacrifice of jealousy, a sacrifice of memorial that brings sin to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near and shall stand her before the Lord.

17 And the priest shall take pure living water in an earthen vessel and some of the earth that is upon the floor of the tabernacle of testimony, and the priest, taking it, shall put it into the water.

18 And the priest shall stand the woman before the Lord and shall uncover the woman’s head and shall put into her hands the sacrifice of memorial, the sacrifice of jealousy, but in the priest’s hand shall be the water of reproof, this cursed water.

19 And the priest shall put her under oath and shall say to the woman: If no one has lain with you, if you have not transgressed to be defiled while under your own husband, be guiltless from the water of reproof, this cursed water.

20 But if you have transgressed while being under a husband, or have been defiled and someone has given his bed in you besides your husband—

21 then the priest shall put the woman under oath with the oaths of this curse, and the priest shall say to the woman: May the Lord give you for a curse and a thing sworn in the midst of your people, when the Lord gives your thigh fallen and your belly swollen,

22 and this cursed water shall enter into your belly, to swell the stomach and cause your thigh to fall. And the woman shall say: May it be, may it be.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book and shall wipe them into the water of reproof, the cursed water.

24 And he shall make the woman drink the water of reproof, the cursed water, and the cursed water of reproof shall enter into her.

25 And the priest shall take the sacrifice of jealousy from the woman’s hand and shall present the sacrifice before the Lord and shall bring it to the altar.

26 And the priest shall grasp from the sacrifice its memorial portion and shall offer it upon the altar, and after these things he shall make the woman drink the water.

27 And it shall be, if she has been defiled and, with escaping notice, escapes the notice of her husband, then the water of reproof, the cursed water, shall enter into her, and her belly shall swell and her thigh shall fall, and the woman shall become a curse among her people.

28 But if the woman was not defiled and is clean, then she shall be guiltless and shall produce seed. –

29 This is the law of jealousy, when a woman transgresses while being under a husband and is defiled,

30 or when a spirit of jealousy comes upon a person and he is jealous of his wife; then he shall stand his wife before the Lord, and the priest shall perform for her all this law.

31 And the man shall be guiltless from sin, and that woman shall bear her sin.

Chapter 6

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: A man or woman who greatly vows a vow to purify a purification to the Lord

3 shall be purified from wine and sikera; he shall not drink vinegar from wine or vinegar from sikera, and he shall not drink anything produced from grapes, and he shall not eat fresh grapes or raisins.

4 All the days of his vow he shall not eat anything that comes from the vine, from pressed grape skins to grape-seed.

5 All the days of the vow of purification, a razor shall not come upon his head; until the days that he vowed to the Lord are fulfilled, he shall be holy, growing the hair of his head long.

6 All the days of the vow to the Lord he shall not enter upon any soul that has died.

7 By father and by mother and by brother and by sister, he shall not be defiled by them when they have died, because the vow of his God is upon him, upon his head.

8 All the days of his vow he shall be holy to the Lord. –

9 But if someone dies suddenly beside him, immediately the head of his vow shall be defiled, and he shall shave his head on whatever day he is cleansed; on the seventh day he shall be shaved.

10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the doors of the tabernacle of testimony.

11 And the priest shall make one concerning sin and one as a whole burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement concerning him for the things in which he sinned concerning the soul, and he shall sanctify his head on that day,

12 on which he was sanctified to the Lord for the days of the vow, and he shall bring a year-old lamb for trespass; and the former days shall be unreckoned, because the head of his vow was defiled.

13 And this is the law of the one who vowed: on whatever day he fulfills the days of his vow, he himself shall bring it beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony.

14 And he shall bring his gift to the Lord: one year-old unblemished lamb as a whole burnt offering and one year-old unblemished ewe lamb concerning sin and one unblemished ram as a salvation,

15 and a basket of unleavened things of fine flour, loaves worked up in oil and unleavened flat cakes anointed with oil, and their sacrifice and their libation.

16 And the priest shall offer them before the Lord and shall make his thing concerning sin and his whole burnt offering.

17 And he shall make the ram a sacrifice of salvation to the Lord with the basket of unleavened things, and the priest shall make his sacrifice and his libation.

18 And the one who vowed shall shave the head of his vow beside the doors of the tabernacle of testimony and shall place the hairs upon the fire that is under the sacrifice of salvation.

19 And the priest shall take the boiled arm from the ram and one unleavened loaf from the basket and one unleavened flat cake and shall place them upon the hands of the one who vowed after he has shaved his vow.

20 And the priest shall offer them as a presentation before the Lord; it shall be holy for the priest in addition to the breast of presentation and in addition to the arm of the removal offering; and after these things the one who vowed shall drink wine. –

21 This is the law of the one who vowed, whoever vows to the Lord his gift to the Lord concerning the vow, apart from whatever his hand finds according to the ability of his vow that he vows, according to the law of purification.

22 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

23 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying: Thus you shall bless the sons of Israel, saying to them: [and they shall place my name upon the sons of Israel, and I the Lord shall bless them]

24 May the Lord bless you and keep you;

25 may the Lord make his face appear upon you and have mercy on you;

26 may the Lord lift up his face upon you and give you peace.

Chapter 7

1 And it happened on the day when Moses finished erecting the tabernacle, that he anointed it and sanctified it and all its vessels and the altar and all its vessels, and he anointed them and sanctified them,

2 and the rulers of Israel presented, twelve rulers of the houses of their paternal families—these were rulers of tribes, these were the ones who stood over the muster—

3 and they brought their gifts before the Lord: six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon from every two rulers and a calf from each, and they brought them before the tent.

4 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

5 Take them from them, and they shall be for the ministerial works of the tent of testimony, and you shall give them to the Levites, to each according to his ministry.

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites;

7 the two wagons and the four oxen he gave to the sons of Gedson according to their ministries,

8 and the four wagons and the eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari according to their ministries through Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

9 But to the sons of Kaath he gave none, because they have the ministries of the sanctuary; they shall carry them upon shoulders.

10 And the rulers presented offerings for the inauguration of the altar on the day when he anointed it, and the rulers presented their gifts before the altar.

11 And the Lord said to Moses: One ruler per day, one ruler per day, shall present their gifts for the inauguration of the altar.

12 And the one presenting his gift on the first day was Naasson son of Aminadab, ruler of the tribe of Judas.

13 And he presented his gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

14 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

15 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

16 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

17 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Naasson son of Aminadab.

18 On the second day Nathanael son of Sogar, ruler of the tribe of Issachar, presented.

19 And he presented his gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

20 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

21 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

22 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

23 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Nathanael son of Sogar.

24 On the third day, the ruler of the sons of Zaboulon, Eliab son of Chailon.

25 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

26 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

27 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

28 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

29 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Eliab son of Chailon.

30 On the fourth day, the ruler of the sons of Reuben, Elisour son of Sediour.

31 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

32 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

33 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

34 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

35 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Elisour son of Sediour.

36 On the fifth day, the ruler of the sons of Symeon, Salamiel son of Sourisadai.

37 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

38 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

39 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

40 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

41 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Salamiel son of Sourisadai.

42 On the sixth day, the ruler of the sons of Gad, Elisaph son of Ragouel.

43 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

44 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

45 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

46 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

47 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Elisaph son of Ragouel.

48 On the seventh day, the ruler of the sons of Ephraim, Elisama son of Emioud.

49 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

50 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

51 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

52 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

53 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Elisama son of Emioud.

54 On the eighth day, the ruler of the sons of Manasse, Gamaliel son of Phadassour.

55 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

56 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

57 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

58 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

59 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Gamaliel son of Phadassour.

60 On the ninth day, the ruler of the sons of Benjamin, Abidan son of Gadeoni.

61 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

62 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

63 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

64 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

65 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Abidan son of Gadeoni.

66 On the tenth day, the ruler of the sons of Dan, Achiezer son of Amisadai.

67 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

68 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

69 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

70 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

71 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Achiezer son of Amisadai.

72 On the eleventh day, the ruler of the sons of Aser, Phagaiel son of Echran.

73 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

74 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

75 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

76 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

77 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Phagaiel son of Echran.

78 On the twelfth day, the ruler of the sons of Nephthali, Achire son of Ainan.

79 His gift: one silver dish, one hundred thirty its weight; one silver bowl of seventy shekels according to the holy shekel; both full of fine flour worked with oil, for a sacrifice;

80 one censer of ten gold pieces, full of incense;

81 one calf from cattle, one ram, one year-old lamb for a whole burnt offering;

82 and one male kid from goats concerning sin;

83 and for a sacrifice of salvation, two heifers, five rams, five male goats, five year-old ewe lambs. This was the gift of Achire son of Ainan.

84 This was the inauguration of the altar, on the day when he anointed it, from the rulers of the sons of Israel: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver bowls, twelve gold censers;

85 the one dish was one hundred thirty shekels and the one bowl seventy shekels; all the silver of the vessels was two thousand four hundred shekels according to the holy shekel.

86 Twelve gold censers full of incense; all the gold of the censers was one hundred twenty gold pieces.

87 All the cattle for the whole burnt offering: twelve calves, twelve rams, twelve year-old lambs, and their sacrifices and their libations; and twelve male kids from goats concerning sin.

88 All the cattle for a sacrifice of salvation: twenty-four heifers, sixty rams, sixty male goats, sixty unblemished year-old ewe lambs. This was the inauguration of the altar after filling its hands and after anointing it. –

89 When Moses entered the tent of testimony to speak to him, he also heard the voice of the Lord speaking to him from above the propitiatory that is upon the ark of testimony, between the two cherubim; and he spoke to him.

Chapter 8

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to Aaron, and you shall say to him: Whenever you set the lamps, from the side facing the lampstand the seven lamps shall give light.

3 And Aaron did so; from the one side facing the lampstand he lit its lamps, in the manner that the Lord instructed Moses.

4 And this was the construction of the lampstand: solid gold, its shaft and its lilies, entirely solid; according to the form that the Lord showed Moses, so he made the lampstand.

5 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

6 Take the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel and purify them.

7 And thus you shall perform their purification for them: you shall sprinkle water of purification all around them, and a razor shall pass over all their body, and they shall wash their garments and shall be clean.

8 And they shall take one calf from cattle and its sacrifice of fine flour worked with oil, and you shall take a year-old calf from cattle concerning sin.

9 And you shall bring the Levites before the tent of testimony and shall gather the entire congregation of the sons of Israel.

10 And you shall bring the Levites before the Lord, and the sons of Israel shall place their hands upon the Levites,

11 and Aaron shall set apart the Levites as a return-gift before the Lord from the sons of Israel, and they shall be for performing the works of the Lord.

12 And the Levites shall place their hands upon the heads of the calves, and he shall make the one concerning sin and the one as a whole burnt offering to the Lord, to make atonement concerning them.

13 And you shall stand the Levites before the Lord and before Aaron and before his sons, and you shall give them back as a return-gift before the Lord;

14 and you shall distinguish the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel, and they shall be mine.

15 And after these things the Levites shall enter to perform the works of the tent of testimony, and you shall cleanse them and give them back before the Lord.

16 For these have been given back to me as a return-gift from the midst of the sons of Israel; in place of those opening every womb, all the firstborn from the sons of Israel, I have taken them for myself.

17 For every firstborn among the sons of Israel is mine, from human to livestock; on the day when I struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them to myself,

18 and I took the Levites in place of every firstborn among the sons of Israel.

19 And I have given back the Levites, given as a return-gift to Aaron and his sons from the midst of the sons of Israel, to perform the works of the sons of Israel in the tent of testimony and to make atonement concerning the sons of Israel, and there shall be no one among the sons of Israel approaching the holy things. –

20 And Moses and Aaron and the entire congregation of the sons of Israel did to the Levites in the manner that the Lord commanded Moses concerning the Levites; thus the sons of Israel did to them.

21 And the Levites purified themselves and washed their garments, and Aaron gave them back as a return-gift before the Lord, and Aaron made atonement concerning them, to purify them.

22 And after these things the Levites entered to minister their ministry in the tent of testimony before Aaron and before his sons; just as the Lord instructed Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

23 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

24 This is the matter concerning the Levites: from twenty-five years old and above they shall enter to be active in the tent of testimony;

25 and from fifty years old he shall withdraw from the ministry and shall no longer work,

26 and his brother shall minister in the tent of testimony to keep watches, but he shall not perform works. Thus you shall do to the Levites in their watches.

Chapter 9

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sina in the second year after they went out from the land of Egypt, in the first month, saying:

2 Say, and let the sons of Israel perform the Passover at its appointed time;

3 on the fourteenth day of the first month toward evening you shall perform it according to appointed times; according to its law and according to its comparison you shall perform it.

4 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel to perform the Passover.

5 When it was beginning on the fourteenth day of the month in the wilderness of Sina, in the manner that the Lord instructed Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

6 And the men arrived who were unclean on account of a human soul and were unable to perform the Passover on that day, and they came before Moses and Aaron on that day,

7 and those men said to him: We are unclean on account of a human soul; shall we then fail to present the gift to the Lord at its appointed time in the midst of the sons of Israel?

8 And Moses said to them: Stand there, and I will hear what the Lord will command concerning you. –

9 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

10 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: Person by person, whoever becomes unclean on account of a human soul or is on a journey far away, among you or among your generations, shall also perform the Passover to the Lord;

11 in the second month, on the fourteenth day, toward evening they shall perform it; with unleavened bread and bitter herbs they shall eat it.

12 They shall leave none of it until morning, and they shall not break a bone from it; according to the law of the Passover they shall perform it.

13 And a person who is clean and is not on a distant journey and fails to perform the Passover—that soul shall be utterly destroyed from its people; because he did not present the gift to the Lord at its appointed time, that person shall receive his sin. –

14 And if a proselyte comes to you in your land and performs the Passover to the Lord, according to the law of the Passover and according to its ordinance he shall perform it; there shall be one law for you and for the proselyte and for the native of the land.

15 And on the day when the tent was set up, the cloud covered the tent, the house of testimony; and in the evening it was upon the tent like the appearance of fire until morning.

16 Thus it happened continually; the cloud covered it by day and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And whenever the cloud rose from the tent, after these things the sons of Israel set out; and at the place where the cloud stood, there the sons of Israel encamped.

18 By the command of the Lord the sons of Israel shall encamp, and by the command of the Lord they shall set out; all the days in which the cloud overshadows the tent, the sons of Israel shall encamp;

19 and whenever the cloud remains over the tent for more days, the sons of Israel shall also keep the watch of God and shall certainly not set out;

20 and it shall be, whenever the cloud covers the tent for a number of days, by the voice of the Lord they shall encamp and by the command of the Lord they shall set out;

21 and it shall be, whenever the cloud remains from evening until morning and the cloud rises in the morning, then they shall set out by day or by night;

22 for a month of days, while the cloud continues overshadowing it, the sons of Israel shall encamp and shall certainly not set out.

23 For by the command of the Lord they shall set out; they kept the watch of the Lord by the command of the Lord through the hand of Moses.

Chapter 10

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Make for yourself two silver trumpets; you shall make them hammered, and they shall be for you for calling together the congregation and making the camps set out.

3 And you shall sound them, and the entire congregation shall be gathered at the door of the tent of testimony;

4 but if they sound with one, all the rulers, the leaders of Israel, shall come to you.

5 And you shall sound a signal, and the camps encamping toward the east shall set out;

6 and you shall sound a second signal, and the camps encamping toward the southwest shall set out; and you shall sound a third signal, and the camps encamping by the sea shall set out; and you shall sound a fourth signal, and the camps encamping toward the north shall set out; they shall sound with a signal at their setting out.

7 And whenever you gather the congregation, you shall sound, but not with a signal.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall sound the trumpets, and it shall be an eternal ordinance for you throughout your generations.

9 And if you go out to war in your land against the adversaries who oppose you, then you shall signal with the trumpets and shall be remembered before the Lord and shall be delivered from your enemies.

10 And on the days of your rejoicing and at your festivals and at your new moons you shall sound the trumpets over the whole burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your salvation, and it shall be a remembrance for you before your God; I am the Lord your God.

11 And it happened in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth of the month, that the cloud rose from the tent of testimony,

12 and the sons of Israel set out with their equipment in the wilderness of Sina, and the cloud stood in the wilderness of Pharan.

13 And they set out first by the voice of the Lord through the hand of Moses. –

14 And the order of the camp of the sons of Judas set out first with their force; and over their force was Naasson son of Aminadab,

15 and over the force of the tribe of the sons of Issachar was Nathanael son of Sogar,

16 and over the force of the tribe of the sons of Zaboulon was Eliab son of Chailon.

17 And they shall take down the tent, and the sons of Gedson and the sons of Merari shall set out carrying the tent. –

18 And the order of the camp of Reuben set out with their force; and over their force was Elisour son of Sediour,

19 and over the force of the tribe of the sons of Symeon was Salamiel son of Sourisadai,

20 and over the force of the tribe of the sons of Gad was Elisaph, the one of Ragouel.

21 And the sons of Kaath shall set out carrying the holy things, and they shall set up the tent until they arrive. –

22 And the order of the camp of Ephraim shall set out with their force; and over their force was Elisama son of Emioud,

23 and over the force of the tribe of the sons of Manasse was Gamaliel, the one of Phadassour,

24 and over the force of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin was Abidan, the one of Gadeoni. –

25 And the order of the camp of the sons of Dan shall set out last of all the camps with their force; and over their force was Achiezer, the one of Amisadai,

26 and over the force of the tribe of the sons of Aser was Phagaiel son of Echran,

27 and over the force of the tribe of the sons of Nephthali was Achire son of Ainan.

28 These were the armies of the sons of Israel, and they set out with their force.

29 And Moses said to Jobab son of Ragouel the Midianite, Moses's in-law: We are setting out for the place of which the Lord said, This I will give you. Come with us, and we will do you good, because the Lord has spoken good things concerning Israel.

30 And he said to him: I will not go, but to my land and to my generation.

31 And he said: Do not abandon us, since you were with us in the wilderness, and you shall be an elder among us;

32 and it shall be, if you go with us, and those good things shall be, as many as the Lord may do good to us, and we will do good to you.

33 And they set out from the mountain of the Lord on a journey of three days, and the ark of the covenant of the Lord went ahead of them on a journey of three days to scout out rest for them.

34 And it happened when the ark set out that Moses said: Rise up, Lord; let your enemies be scattered; let all who hate you flee.

35 And when it rested he said: Turn back, Lord, thousands of myriads in Israel.

36 And the cloud was overshadowing them by day when they set out from the camp.

Chapter 11

1 And the people were murmuring evil things before the Lord, and the Lord heard and was enraged with wrath, and fire from the Lord was kindled among them and devoured a certain part of the camp.

2 And the people cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to the Lord, and the fire abated.

3 And the name of that place was called Burning, because fire from the Lord was kindled among them.

4 And the mixed multitude among them desired a desire, and the sons of Israel also sat down and wept and said: Who will feed us meat?

5 We remembered the fish that we ate freely in Egypt, and the cucumbers and the melons and the leeks and the onions and the garlic;

6 but now our soul is utterly dry; there is nothing except our eyes toward the manna.

7 And the manna is like coriander seed, and its appearance is the appearance of crystal;

8 and the people went about and gathered it and ground it in the mill and pounded it in the mortar and boiled it in the pot and made it into cakes baked in ashes, and its flavor was like the taste of a cake made with oil;

9 and whenever the dew descended upon the camp by night, the manna descended upon it.

10 And Moses heard them weeping according to their communities, each one at his door; and the Lord was exceedingly enraged with wrath, and it was evil before Moses.

11 And Moses said to the Lord: Why have you afflicted your attendant, and why have I not found favor before you, that you should place the onrush of this people upon me?

12 Did I conceive all this people in the womb, or did I bear them, that you say to me, Take him into your bosom, as a nurse might carry the nursing child, into the land that you swore to their fathers?

13 From where is there meat for me to give to all this people? For they weep against me, saying: Give us meat, that we may eat.

14 I shall not be able to bear this people alone, because this matter is heavier for me.

15 But if you deal thus with me, kill me by slaying me, if I have found mercy with you, so that I may not see my affliction. –

16 And the Lord said to Moses: Gather for me seventy men from the elders of Israel, whom you yourself know, that these are elders of the people and their scribes, and you shall bring them to the tent of testimony, and they shall stand there with you.

17 And I will descend and speak there with you, and I will take away from the spirit that is upon you and place it upon them, and they shall take hold together with you of the onrush of the people, and you shall not bear them alone.

18 And you shall say to the people: Purify yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat, because you wept before the Lord, saying: Who will feed us meat? Because it is good for us in Egypt. And the Lord will give you meat to eat, and you shall eat meat.

19 You shall eat not one day, nor two, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days;

20 up to a month of days you shall eat, until it comes out from your nostrils, and it shall become cholera for you, because you disobeyed the Lord, who is among you, and wept before him, saying: Why did we come out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said: The people among whom I am are six hundred thousand on foot, and you said: I will give them meat to eat, and they shall eat for a month of days?

22 Surely sheep and cattle will not be slaughtered for them and suffice for them? Or will all the food of the sea be gathered for them and suffice for them?

23 And the Lord said to Moses: Will the hand of the Lord not be sufficient? Now you shall know whether my word will overtake you or not.

24 And Moses went out and spoke the words of the Lord to the people and gathered seventy men from the elders of the people and stood them around the tent.

25 And the Lord descended in a cloud and spoke to him; and he took from the spirit that was upon him and placed it upon the seventy men, the elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they also prophesied and did not add any more.

26 And two men had been left behind in the camp, the name of the one Eldad and the name of the second Modad, and the spirit rested upon them – and these were among those enrolled and did not come to the tent – and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And the young man ran and reported to Moses and said: Eldad and Modad are prophesying in the camp.

28 And Jesus, the one of Nave, who stood beside Moses, the chosen one, answered and said: Lord Moses, prevent them.

29 And Moses said to him: Are you jealous for me? And who might give all the people of the Lord as prophets, whenever the Lord gives his spirit upon them?

30 And Moses went away into the camp, he and the elders of Israel. –

31 And a wind went out from the Lord and carried quail across from the sea and cast it over the camp, a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on that side, around the camp, about two cubits from the ground.

32 And the people rose for the whole day and the whole night and the whole following day and gathered the quail; the one who gathered little gathered ten cors, and they spread them to cool for themselves around the camp.

33 The meat was still in their teeth before it ran out, and the Lord was enraged against the people, and the Lord struck the people with an exceedingly great plague.

34 And the name of that place was called Graves of Desire, because there they buried the people who desired.

35 From Graves of Desire the people set out for Aseroth, and the people were in Aseroth.

Chapter 12

1 And Mariam and Aaron spoke against Moses on account of the Ethiopian woman whom Moses took, because he took an Ethiopian woman,

2 and they said: Has the Lord spoken only to Moses? Has he not also spoken to us? And the Lord heard.

3 And the man Moses was exceedingly gentle beyond all the people who were upon the earth.

4 And the Lord immediately said to Moses and Mariam and Aaron: You three, come out to the tent of testimony. And the three came out to the tent of testimony.

5 And the Lord descended in a pillar of cloud and stood at the door of the tent of testimony, and Aaron and Mariam were called, and both came out.

6 And he said to them: Hear my words. If there is a prophet of yours for the Lord, I shall be known to him in a vision, and in sleep I shall speak to him.

7 Not so my attendant Moses; in my whole house he is faithful;

8 mouth to mouth I shall speak to him, in form and not through riddles, and he saw the glory of the Lord; and why were you not afraid to speak against my attendant Moses?

9 And the wrath of the Lord's anger was upon them, and he departed.

10 And the cloud withdrew from the tent, and behold, Mariam was leprous like snow; and Aaron looked upon Mariam, and behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said to Moses: Please, my lord, may he not lay sin upon us together, because we acted ignorantly in that we sinned;

12 let her not become as one equal to death, like an aborted fetus coming out of a mother's womb and devouring half of her flesh.

13 And Moses cried out to the Lord, saying: O God, I ask you, heal her.

14 And the Lord said to Moses: If her father, spitting, had spat into her face, would she not be ashamed for seven days? Let her be set apart outside the camp for seven days, and after these things she shall enter.

15 And Mariam was set apart outside the camp for seven days; and the people did not set out until Mariam was cleansed.

16 And after these things the people set out from Aseroth and encamped in the wilderness of Pharan.

Chapter 13

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Send men for yourself, and let them spy out the land of the Chananeans that I am giving to the sons of Israel as a possession; one man per tribe according to the communities of their paternal families you shall send them, every one a leader from among them.

3 And Moses sent them out from the wilderness of Pharan by the voice of the Lord; all these men were leaders of the sons of Israel.

4 And these are their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Salamiel son of Zacchour;

5 from the tribe of Symeon, Saphat son of Souri;

6 from the tribe of Judas, Chaleb son of Jephonne;

7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igaal son of Joseph;

8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Ause son of Nave;

9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Phalti son of Raphou;

10 from the tribe of Zaboulon, Goudiel son of Soudi;

11 from the tribe of Joseph, from the sons of Manasse, Gaddi son of Sousi;

12 from the tribe of Dan, Amiel son of Gamali;

13 from the tribe of Aser, Sathour son of Michael;

14 from the tribe of Nephthali, Nabi son of Jabi;

15 from the tribe of Gad, Goudiel son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses named Ause son of Nave Jesus.

17 And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Chanaan and said to them: Go up by this wilderness, and you shall go up into the mountain,

18 and you shall see the land, what it is, and the people settled upon it, whether it is stronger or weak, whether they are few or many;

19 and what is the land upon which these are settled, whether it is good or evil; and what are the cities in which these dwell, whether walled or unwalled;

20 and what is the land, whether rich or neglected, whether there are trees in it or not; and persevere, and you shall take from the fruits of the land. And the days were days of spring, forerunners of the grape.

21 And they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Sin as far as Raab, as they enter Ephaath.

22 And they went up by the wilderness and came as far as Chebron, and there were Achiman and Sessi and Thelamin, generations of Enach; and Chebron was built seven years before Tanin of Egypt.

23 And they came as far as the Ravine of the Cluster and spied it out; and they cut from there a vine branch and one cluster of grapes upon it and carried it upon carrying poles, and some of the pomegranates and some of the figs.

24 They named that place Ravine of the Cluster because of the cluster that the sons of Israel cut from there.

25 And they returned from there after spying out the land, after forty days,

26 and they traveled and came to Moses and Aaron and to the entire congregation of the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Pharan Kades, and they answered a word to them and to the entire congregation and showed the fruit of the land.

27 And they recounted to him and said: We came into the land into which you sent us, a land flowing with milk and honey, and this is its fruit;

28 except that the nation inhabiting it is bold, and the cities are fortified, walled, and exceedingly great, and we have seen the generation of Enach there,

29 and Amalek dwells in the land toward the south, and the Chettite and the Evite and the Jebousite and the Amorrite dwell in the hill country, and the Chananite dwells by the sea and by the Jordan River.

30 And Chaleb silenced the people before Moses and said to him: No, but having gone up, we shall go up and inherit it, because, being able, we shall be able against them.

31 And the men who went up together with him said: We are not going up, because we shall certainly not be able to go up against the nation, because it is stronger than us by far.

32 And they brought out consternation concerning the land that they had spied out to the sons of Israel, saying: The land through which we passed to spy it out is a land devouring those who inhabit it; all the people whom we saw in it are exceedingly tall men;

33 and there we saw the giants, and we were before them like locusts, and thus we also were before them.

Chapter 14

1 And the entire congregation took up and gave voice, and the people wept that whole night.

2 And all the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron, and the entire congregation said to them: Would that we had died in the land of Egypt, or if we had died in this wilderness!

3 And why does the Lord bring us into this land to fall in war? Our wives and children shall be for plunder; now, therefore, it is better for us to turn back to Egypt.

4 And they said to one another: Let us appoint a leader and turn back to Egypt.

5 And Moses and Aaron fell upon their face before the entire congregation of the sons of Israel.

6 But Jesus, the one of Nave, and Chaleb, the one of Jephonne, from those who spied out the land, tore their garments

7 and spoke to the entire congregation of the sons of Israel, saying: The land that we spied out is exceedingly, exceedingly good;

8 if the Lord chooses us, he will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that is flowing with milk and honey.

9 But do not become apostates from the Lord; and you, do not fear the people of the land, because they are food for us; for their time has departed from them, but the Lord is among us; do not fear them.

10 And the entire congregation said to stone them with stones. And the glory of the Lord appeared in a cloud upon the tent of testimony among all the sons of Israel.

11 And the Lord said to Moses: How long does this people provoke me, and how long do they not believe me amid all the signs that I performed among them?

12 I will strike them with death and destroy them, and I will make you and the house of your father into a great nation, and much more than this.

13 And Moses said to the Lord: And Egypt will hear that by your strength you brought this people up from among them,

14 but all those inhabiting this land have also heard that you are the Lord among this people, that you, Lord, appear eye to eye, and your cloud stands over them, and in a pillar of cloud you go before them by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 And you will destroy this people as one man, and the nations, as many as have heard your name, will speak, saying:

16 Because the Lord was not able to bring this people into the land that he swore to them, he laid them low in the wilderness.

17 And now let your strength be exalted, Lord, in the manner that you spoke, saying:

18 The Lord is long-suffering and abundant in mercy and true, taking away lawlessnesses and injustices and sins, and by cleansing he will not cleanse the guilty, repaying the sins of fathers upon children to the third and fourth.

19 Forgive the sin for this people according to your great mercy, just as you became gracious to them from Egypt until now.

20 And the Lord said to Moses: I am gracious to them according to your word;

21 but I live, and my name is living, and the glory of the Lord shall fill all the earth,

22 because all the men who see my glory and the signs that I performed in Egypt and in this wilderness, and tested me this tenth time and did not listen to my voice,

23 surely shall not see the land that I swore to their fathers, except their children who are here with me, as many as do not know good or evil, every inexperienced younger person; to these I will give the land, but all who provoked me shall not see it.

24 But my servant Chaleb, because another spirit came to be in him and he followed me, I will bring him into the land into which he entered there, and his seed shall inherit it.

25 But Amalek and the Chananite dwell in the valley; tomorrow turn back and set out into the wilderness by the road toward the Red Sea.

26 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

27 How long this evil congregation? I have heard the things that they themselves murmur before me, the murmuring of the sons of Israel that they murmured about you.

28 Say to them: I live, says the Lord; surely, in the manner that you spoke into my ears, so I will do to you.

29 In this wilderness your carcasses shall fall, and all your muster and those of you who were counted from twenty years old and above, as many as murmured against me;

30 you shall certainly not enter the land upon which I stretched out my hand to settle you upon it, except Chaleb son of Jephonne and Jesus, the one of Nave.

31 And the children whom you said would be for plunder, I will bring them into the land, and they shall inherit the land from which you turned away.

32 And your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness,

33 but your sons shall be grazing in the wilderness for forty years and shall bear your fornication, until your carcasses are consumed in the wilderness.

34 According to the number of the days for which you spied out the land, forty days, a day for a year, you shall receive your sins for forty years and shall know the fury of my wrath.

35 I, the Lord, have spoken; surely thus I will do to this evil congregation that has banded together against me; in this wilderness they shall be utterly consumed, and there they shall die.

36 And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and caused the congregation to murmur against it by bringing out evil words concerning the land,

37 the men who spoke evil against the land also died in the plague before the Lord;

38 and Jesus son of Nave and Chaleb son of Jephonne lived from among those men who had gone to spy out the land.

39 And Moses spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, and the people mourned exceedingly.

40 And rising early in the morning, they went up to the summit of the mountain, saying: Behold, here we are; we will go up to the place that the Lord spoke of, because we sinned.

41 And Moses said: Why are you transgressing the word of the Lord? It shall not be prosperous for you.

42 Do not go up, for the Lord is not with you, and you shall fall before the face of your enemies.

43 For Amalek and the Chananite are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword; because you turned away, disobeying the Lord, the Lord shall not be among you.

44 And forcing their way, they went up to the summit of the mountain; but the ark of the covenant of the Lord and Moses did not move from the camp.

45 And Amalek and the Chananite who dwelt on that mountain came down and routed them and cut them down as far as Erman; and they returned to the camp.

Chapter 15

1 And the Lord said to Moses, saying:

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: Whenever you enter into the land of your dwelling that I am giving you,

3 and you make whole burnt offerings to the Lord, a whole offering or a sacrifice, to magnify a vow or according to a voluntary offering or at your festivals, to make an odor of sweetness to the Lord, whether from the cattle or from the sheep,

4 then the one presenting his gift to the Lord shall present a sacrifice of fine flour, one-tenth of an oiphi, worked with oil in one-fourth of a hin;

5 and as wine for a libation you shall make one-fourth of a hin upon the whole burnt offering or upon the sacrifice; for the one lamb you shall make this much, an offering, an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

6 And for the ram, whenever you make it either as a whole burnt offering or as a sacrifice, you shall make a sacrifice of fine flour, two-tenths worked with oil, one-third of a hin;

7 and as wine for a libation you shall present one-third of a hin for an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

8 But if you make something from the cattle as a whole burnt offering or as a sacrifice to magnify a vow or as salvation to the Lord,

9 then he shall present upon the calf a sacrifice of fine flour, three-tenths worked with oil, half of a hin,

10 and as wine for a libation half of a hin, an offering, an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

11 Thus you shall do for the one calf or the one ram or the one lamb from the sheep or from the goats;

12 according to the number of those that you make, thus you shall do for each one according to their number.

13 Every native shall thus make such things, to present offerings for an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

14 And if a proselyte comes to be among you in your land, or whoever comes to be among you throughout your generations, and makes an offering, an odor of sweetness to the Lord, in the manner that you do, so the congregation shall do to the Lord.

15 There shall be one law for you and for the proselytes attached among you, an eternal law throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the proselyte be before the Lord;

16 there shall be one law and there shall be one ordinance for you and for the proselyte attached among you.

17 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

18 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: When you enter into the land into which I am bringing you there,

19 then it shall be, whenever you eat from the breads of the land, that you shall remove a removal offering, a separation, for the Lord;

20 as first produce of your dough, bread, you shall separate it as a removal offering; as a removal offering from a threshing floor, so you shall remove it,

21 as first produce of your dough, and you shall give a removal offering to the Lord throughout your generations.

22 But whenever you err and do not perform all these commandments that the Lord spoke to Moses,

23 in the manner that the Lord instructed you through the hand of Moses, from the day when the Lord instructed you and onward throughout your generations,

24 then it shall be, if it happens involuntarily from the eyes of the congregation, that the entire congregation shall make one unblemished calf from cattle as a whole burnt offering for an odor of sweetness to the Lord, and its sacrifice and its libation according to the ordinance, and one male kid from goats concerning sin.

25 And the priest shall make atonement concerning the entire congregation of the sons of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, because it is involuntary, and they themselves brought their gift, an offering to the Lord concerning their sin before the Lord, concerning their involuntary acts.

26 And it shall be forgiven throughout the entire congregation of the sons of Israel and the proselyte attached to you, because it was involuntary for all the people. –

27 But if one soul sins involuntarily, he shall bring one year-old female goat concerning sin,

28 and the priest shall make atonement concerning the soul that acted involuntarily and sinned involuntarily before the Lord, to make atonement concerning him.

29 For the native among the sons of Israel and for the proselyte attached among them, there shall be one law for them, whoever acts involuntarily.

30 And a soul who acts with a hand of arrogance, whether from the natives or from the proselytes, this person provokes God; that soul shall be utterly destroyed from its people,

31 because it held the word of the Lord cheap and scattered his commandments; with an obliteration that soul shall be obliterated; its sin is in it.

32 And the sons of Israel were in the wilderness and found a man gathering wood on the day of the Sabbaths.

33 And those who found him gathering wood on the day of the Sabbaths brought him to Moses and Aaron and to the entire congregation of the sons of Israel.

34 And they placed him in custody, for they had not determined what they should do to him.

35 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Let the man be put to death by death; the entire congregation, stone him with stones.

36 And the entire congregation brought him outside the camp, and the entire congregation stoned him with stones outside the camp, in the manner that the Lord instructed Moses.

37 And the Lord said to Moses, saying:

38 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: And let them make for themselves fringes upon the wings of their garments throughout their generations, and you shall place upon the fringes of the wings a hyacinth-colored thread.

39 And it shall be for you in the fringes, and you shall see them and remember all the commandments of the Lord and perform them, and you shall not turn aside after your minds and after your eyes, in which you commit fornication after them,

40 so that you may remember and perform all my commandments and shall be holy to your God.

41 I am the Lord your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt to be your God; I am the Lord your God.

Chapter 16

1 And Kore spoke, son of Issaar son of Kaath son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiron, sons of Eliab, and Aun son of Phaleth son of Reuben,

2 and they rose before Moses, along with two hundred fifty men from the sons of Israel, leaders of the congregation, summoned members of the council and men of renown.

3 They banded together against Moses and Aaron and said: Let it be enough for you, because the entire congregation, all of them, are holy, and the Lord is among them; and why do you rise up against the congregation of the Lord?

4 And Moses heard and fell upon his face,

5 and he spoke to Kore and to his entire congregation, saying: God has mustered and known those who are his and the holy ones and brought them to himself, and those whom he chose for himself he brought to himself.

6 Do this: take fire-pans for yourselves, Kore and his entire congregation,

7 and place fire upon them and place incense upon them before the Lord tomorrow, and it shall be that the man whom the Lord chooses, this one is holy; let it be sufficient for you, sons of Levi.

8 And Moses said to Kore: Listen to me, sons of Levi.

9 Is this a small thing for you, that the God of Israel distinguished you from the congregation of Israel and brought you to himself to minister the ministries of the tent of the Lord and to stand before the congregation to serve them?

10 And he brought you and all your brothers, the sons of Levi, with you, and do you seek to serve as priests?

11 Thus you and your entire congregation are gathered together against God; and who is Aaron, that you murmur against him?

12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiron, sons of Eliab. And they said: We are not going up.

13 Is this not a small thing, that you brought us up from a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, that you rule over us as a ruler?

14 Even if you had brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey and given us an allotment of field and vineyards, would you have cut out the eyes of those men? We are not going up.

15 And Moses became exceedingly heavy-spirited and said to the Lord: Do not attend to their sacrifice; I have taken no desirable thing from any of them, nor have I harmed any of them.

16 And Moses said to Kore: Sanctify your congregation, and be ready before the Lord, you and they and Aaron, tomorrow;

17 and each of you take his fire-pan and you shall place incense upon them and shall bring before the Lord, each one, his fire-pan, two hundred fifty fire-pans, and you and Aaron, each his fire-pan.

18 And each took his fire-pan, and they placed fire upon them and put incense upon it. And Moses and Aaron stood by the doors of the tent of testimony.

19 And Kore gathered his entire congregation together against them by the door of the tent of testimony. And the glory of the Lord appeared to the entire congregation.

20 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

21 Separate yourselves from the midst of this congregation, and I will utterly consume them at once.

22 And they fell upon their face and said: God, God of the spirits and of all flesh, if one person sinned, shall the wrath of the Lord be upon the entire congregation?

23 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

24 Speak to the congregation, saying: Withdraw all around from the congregation of Kore.

25 And Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abiron, and all the elders of Israel went together with him.

26 And he spoke to the congregation, saying: Separate yourselves from the tents of these hard men, and do not touch any of the things that are theirs, lest you perish together in all their sin.

27 And they withdrew from the tent of Kore all around; and Dathan and Abiron came out and stood by the doors of their tents, along with their wives and their children and their equipment.

28 And Moses said: By this you shall know that the Lord sent me to perform all these works, because they are not from myself:

29 if these die according to the death of all people, and if according to the muster of all people there shall be a muster of them, the Lord has not sent me;

30 but rather, the Lord shall show it by a spectacle, and the earth, opening its mouth, shall swallow them and their houses and their tents and all that is theirs, and they shall descend alive into Hades, and you shall know that these men provoked the Lord.

31 And when he ceased speaking all these words, the earth split beneath them,

32 and the earth opened and swallowed them and their houses and all the people who were with Kore and their livestock.

33 And they and all that was theirs descended alive into Hades, and the earth covered them, and they perished from the midst of the congregation.

34 And all Israel who were around them fled from their voice, saying: Lest the earth swallow us.

35 And fire went out from the Lord and devoured the two hundred fifty men who were presenting the incense.

Chapter 17

1 And the Lord said to Moses,

2 and to Eleazar son of Aaron the priest: Take up the bronze fire-pans from the midst of those who were burned up, and scatter this strange fire there, because they sanctified

3 the fire-pans of these sinners in their souls; and make them into hammered plates, a covering for the altar, because they were presented before the Lord and were sanctified and became a sign for the sons of Israel.

4 And Eleazar son of Aaron the priest took the bronze fire-pans, as many as those who had been burned up presented, and they added them as a covering for the altar,

5 a memorial for the sons of Israel, so that no foreigner who is not from the seed of Aaron may approach to place incense before the Lord, and he shall not be like Kore and his conspiracy, in the manner that the Lord spoke through the hand of Moses.

6 And on the next day the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron, saying: You have killed the people of the Lord.

7 And it happened, when the congregation gathered together against Moses and Aaron and rushed toward the tent of testimony, that the cloud covered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared.

8 And Moses and Aaron entered before the face of the tent of testimony,

9 and the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

10 Move out from the midst of this congregation, and I will utterly consume them at once. And they fell upon their face.

11 And Moses said to Aaron: Take the fire-pan and place fire from the altar upon it and put incense upon it and carry it away with speed into the camp and make atonement concerning them; for wrath has gone out from the face of the Lord; it has begun to break the people.

12 And Aaron took it, just as Moses spoke to him, and ran into the congregation; and the breaking had already begun among the people; and he put on the incense and made atonement concerning the people,

13 and he stood between the dead and the living, and the breaking abated.

14 And those who died in the breaking were fourteen thousand seven hundred, apart from those who died on account of Kore.

15 And Aaron returned to Moses at the door of the tent of testimony, and the breaking abated.

16 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

17 Speak to the sons of Israel, and take from them a staff, a staff according to their paternal houses, from all their rulers according to their paternal houses, twelve staffs, and inscribe the name of each one upon his staff.

18 And inscribe the name of Aaron upon the staff of Levi; for there is one staff; according to a tribe of their paternal house they shall give.

19 And you shall place them in the tent of testimony opposite the testimony, where I shall be known to you there.

20 And it shall be that the man whom I choose, his staff shall sprout; and I shall take away from me the murmuring of the sons of Israel that they themselves murmur against you.

21 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their rulers gave him a staff, for the one ruler a staff, a staff according to each ruler according to their paternal houses, twelve staffs, and the staff of Aaron was among their staffs.

22 And Moses placed the staffs before the Lord in the tent of testimony.

23 And it happened on the next day that Moses and Aaron entered the tent of testimony, and behold, the staff of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted, and it brought out a shoot and blossomed flowers and sprouted nuts.

24 And Moses brought out all the staffs from before the Lord to all the sons of Israel, and they saw, and each took his staff.

25 And the Lord said to Moses: Place the staff of Aaron before the testimonies for preservation, as a sign to the sons of the disobedient, and let their murmuring cease from me, and they shall certainly not die.

26 And Moses and Aaron did in the manner that the Lord instructed Moses; so they did.

27 And the sons of Israel spoke to Moses, saying: Behold, we have been utterly consumed, we have perished, we have been consumed away;

28 everyone who touches the tent of the Lord dies; shall we die to the end?

Chapter 18

1 And the Lord said to Aaron, saying: You and your sons and the house of your paternal family shall receive the sins of the holy things, and you and your sons shall receive the sins of your priesthood.

2 And bring your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the community of your father, to yourself, and let them be added to you and minister to you; and you and your sons with you shall be before the tent of testimony.

3 And they shall keep your watches and the watches of the tent, except they shall not approach the holy vessels or the altar, and both these and you shall not die.

4 And they shall be added to you and shall keep the watches of the tent of testimony according to all the ministries of the tent, and the foreigner shall not approach you.

5 And you shall keep the watches of the holy things and the watches of the altar, and there shall be no wrath among the sons of Israel.

6 And I have taken your brothers the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel, a gift given to the Lord to minister the ministries of the tent of testimony;

7 and you and your sons with you shall preserve your priesthood according to every manner of the altar and what is within the veil, and you shall minister the ministries as a gift of your priesthood; and the foreigner who approaches shall die.

8 And the Lord spoke to Aaron: And I, behold, have given you the custody of the first produce; from all the things sanctified to me by the sons of Israel I have given them to you as an honorary portion, and to your sons after you, as an eternal ordinance.

9 And this shall be for you from the sanctified holy things of the offerings: from all their gifts and from all their sacrifices and from every trespass of theirs and from all the sins, as many things as they render to me; from all the holy things it shall belong to you and your sons.

10 In the Holy of Holies you shall eat them; every male shall eat them, you and your sons; they shall be holy things for you.

11 And this shall be for you as first produce of their gifts: from all the placements of the sons of Israel I have given them to you and your sons and your daughters with you, as an eternal ordinance; every clean person in your house shall eat them.

12 Every first produce of oil and every first produce of wine and grain, their first produce, as much as they give to the Lord, I have given them to you.

13 All the first products, as many as are in their land, as much as they bring to the Lord, shall be yours; every clean person in your house shall eat them.

14 Everything anathematized among the sons of Israel shall be yours.

15 And everything opening the womb from all flesh that they present to the Lord, from human to livestock, shall be yours; except the firstborn of humans shall be redeemed with ransoms, and you shall redeem the firstborn of unclean livestock.

16 And its redemption shall be from one month old; the valuation is five shekels according to the holy shekel [they are twenty obols].

17 Except you shall not redeem firstborn calves or firstborn sheep or firstborn goats; they are holy; and you shall pour their blood toward the altar and bring up the fat as an offering for an odor of sweetness to the Lord;

18 and the flesh shall be yours; just as the breast of the placement and according to the right arm, it shall be yours.

19 Every removal offering from the holy things, as much as the sons of Israel remove for the Lord, I have given to you and your sons and your daughters with you, as an eternal ordinance; it is an eternal covenant of salt before the Lord for you and your seed after you.

20 And the Lord spoke to Aaron: In their land you shall not inherit, and there shall be no portion for you among them, because I am your portion and your inheritance in the midst of the sons of Israel.

21 And to the sons of Levi, behold, I have given every tithe in Israel as an allotment in exchange for their ministries, as many things as they themselves minister as a ministry in the tent of testimony.

22 And the sons of Israel shall no longer approach the tent of testimony to receive death-bearing sin.

23 And the Levite himself shall minister the ministry of the tent of testimony, and they shall receive their sins, an eternal ordinance throughout their generations; and in the midst of the sons of Israel they shall not inherit an inheritance;

24 because the tithes of the sons of Israel, as many as they set apart for the Lord as a removal offering, I have given to the Levites as an allotment; therefore I have said to them: In the midst of the sons of Israel they shall not inherit an allotment.

25 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

26 And you shall speak to the Levites and say to them: If you receive from the sons of Israel the tithe that I gave you from them as an allotment, then you shall remove from it a removal offering to the Lord, a tithe from the tithe.

27 And your removal offerings shall be reckoned to you as grain from a threshing floor and a removal offering from a winepress.

28 Thus you also shall remove from the removal offerings of the Lord, from all your tithes, as many as you receive from the sons of Israel, and you shall give from them a removal offering to the Lord, to Aaron the priest.

29 From all your gifts you shall remove a removal offering to the Lord, or from all the first produce, the thing sanctified from it.

30 And you shall say to them: Whenever you remove the first produce from it, then it shall be reckoned to the Levites as produce from a threshing floor and as produce from a winepress.

31 And you and your households shall eat it in every place, because this is wages for you in exchange for your ministries in the tent of testimony;

32 and you shall not receive sin through it, because you remove the first produce from it; and you shall not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel, so that you may not die.

Chapter 19

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 This is the distinction of the law, as many things as the Lord instructed, saying: Speak to the sons of Israel, and let them take for you an unblemished red heifer that has no blemish in it and upon which no yoke has been laid.

3 And you shall give her to Eleazar the priest, and they shall lead her outside the camp to a clean place and shall slaughter her before him.

4 And Eleazar shall take from her blood and shall sprinkle some of her blood seven times opposite the face of the tent of testimony.

5 And they shall burn her up before him, and her skin and her flesh and her blood together with her dung shall be burned up.

6 And the priest shall take cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet, and they shall throw them into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 And the priest shall wash his garments and bathe his body with water and after these things shall enter the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until evening.

8 And the one burning her shall wash his garments and bathe his body and shall be unclean until evening.

9 And a clean person shall gather the ash of the heifer and deposit it outside the camp in a clean place, and it shall be for the congregation of the sons of Israel for custody, water of sprinkling; it is purification.

10 And the one gathering the ash of the heifer shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until evening. And it shall be an eternal ordinance for the sons of Israel and the proselytes attached to them.

11 The one who touches the dead body of any human person shall be unclean for seven days;

12 this one shall be purified on the third day and on the seventh day and shall be clean; but if he is not thoroughly purified on the third day and on the seventh day, he shall not be clean.

13 Everyone who touches the dead body of a human person when he dies and is not thoroughly purified has defiled the tent of the Lord; that soul shall be obliterated from Israel; because water of sprinkling was not sprinkled around upon him, he is unclean; his uncleanness is still in him.

14 And this is the law: if a person dies in a house, everyone entering the house and as many things as are in the house shall be unclean for seven days;

15 and every opened vessel, as many as have no fastening bound down upon them, are unclean.

16 And everyone who touches upon the face of the open country a wounded person or a dead person or a human bone or a tomb shall be unclean for seven days.

17 And they shall take for the unclean person some of the ash of the burned purification and shall pour living water upon it into a vessel;

18 and a clean man shall take hyssop and dip it into the water and sprinkle it around upon the house and upon the vessels and upon the souls, as many as are there, and upon the one who touched the human bone or the wounded person or the one who died or the tomb;

19 and the clean person shall sprinkle it around upon the unclean person on the third day and on the seventh day, and he shall be thoroughly purified on the seventh day and shall wash his garments and bathe with water and shall be unclean until evening.

20 And a person who is defiled and is not thoroughly purified—that soul shall be utterly destroyed from the midst of the congregation, because he defiled the holy things of the Lord, because water of sprinkling was not sprinkled around upon him; he is unclean.

21 And it shall be an eternal ordinance for you; and the one sprinkling around the water of sprinkling shall wash his garments, and the one touching the water of sprinkling shall be unclean until evening;

22 and everything that the unclean person touches shall be unclean, and the soul that touches it shall be unclean until evening.

Chapter 20

1 And the sons of Israel, the entire congregation, came into the wilderness of Sin in the first month, and the people remained in Kades, and Mariam died there and was buried there.

2 And there was no water for the congregation, and they gathered together against Moses and Aaron.

3 And the people reviled Moses, saying: Would that we had died in the destruction of our brothers before the Lord;

4 and why did you bring the congregation of the Lord up into this wilderness, to kill us and our livestock?

5 And why did you bring us up from Egypt for this, to arrive at this evil place? A place where there is no sowing, nor fig trees, nor vines, nor pomegranates, nor water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from before the face of the congregation to the door of the tent of testimony and fell upon their face, and the glory of the Lord appeared to them.

7 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

8 Take the staff and assemble the congregation, you and Aaron your brother, and speak to the rock before them, and it shall give its waters, and you shall bring out water for them from the rock and give drink to the congregation and their livestock.

9 And Moses took the staff that was before the Lord, in the manner that the Lord instructed;

10 and Moses and Aaron assembled the congregation before the rock and said to them: Listen to me, disobedient ones; shall we bring water out for you from this rock?

11 And Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock twice with the staff, and much water came out, and the congregation and their livestock drank.

12 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron: Because you did not believe so as to sanctify me before the sons of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this congregation into the land that I have given them.

13 This is water of contradiction, because the sons of Israel reviled before the Lord, and he was sanctified among them.

14 And Moses sent messengers from Kades to the king of Edom, saying: Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the hardship that found us,

15 and our fathers went down into Egypt, and we sojourned in Egypt for more days, and the Egyptians harmed us and our fathers,

16 and we cried out to the Lord, and the Lord listened to our voice and, sending an angel, brought us out of Egypt; and now we are in Kades, a city at the edge of your borders;

17 we shall pass through your land; we shall not pass through fields or through vineyards, nor shall we drink water from your cistern; we shall travel by the royal road; we shall not turn right or left until we have passed your borders.

18 And Edom said to him: You shall not pass through me; otherwise I will go out in war to meet you.

19 And the sons of Israel said to him: We shall pass along the mountain; and if I and the livestock drink from your water, I will give you a price; but the matter is nothing; we shall pass along the mountain.

20 But he said: You shall not pass through me; and Edom went out to meet him with a heavy crowd and with a strong hand.

21 And Edom did not wish to allow Israel to pass through his borders; and Israel turned away from him.

22 And they departed from Kades; and the sons of Israel, the entire congregation, arrived at Or the mountain.

23 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron at Or the mountain, upon the borders of the land of Edom, saying:

24 Let Aaron be added to his people, because you shall certainly not enter into the land that I gave to the sons of Israel, because you provoked me at the water of reviling.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son and bring them up to Or the mountain before the entire congregation,

26 and strip Aaron of his robe and clothe Eleazar his son, and let Aaron, being added, die there.

27 And Moses did in the manner that the Lord instructed, and he brought him up to Or the mountain before the entire congregation.

28 And he stripped Aaron of his garments and clothed Eleazar his son with them; and Aaron died upon the summit of the mountain, and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

29 And the entire congregation saw that Aaron had been released, and the entire house of Israel wept for Aaron for thirty days.

Chapter 21

1 And Chananis, king of Arad, who dwelt along the wilderness, heard – for Israel came by the road Atharin – and he waged war against Israel, and they took captives from them as plunder.

2 And Israel vowed a vow to the Lord and said: If you deliver this people under my hand, I will anathematize him and his cities.

3 And the Lord listened to the voice of Israel and delivered Chananis under his hand, and he anathematized him and his cities; and they called the name of that place Anathema.

4 And setting out from Or the mountain by the road toward the Red Sea, they went around the land of Edom; and the people became fainthearted on the road.

5 And the people spoke against God and against Moses, saying: Why did you bring us out of Egypt to kill us in the wilderness? Because there is no bread or water, and our soul is disgusted with the empty bread.

6 And the Lord sent among the people the serpents that cause death, and they bit the people, and many people from the sons of Israel died.

7 And the people came to Moses and said: We sinned because we spoke against the Lord and against you; therefore pray to the Lord, and let him take the serpent away from us. And Moses prayed to the Lord concerning the people.

8 And the Lord said to Moses: Make a serpent for yourself and place it upon a sign, and it shall be that if a serpent bites a person, every person who has been bitten, seeing it, shall live.

9 And Moses made a bronze serpent and stood it upon a sign, and it happened whenever a serpent bit a person and he looked upon the bronze serpent that he lived.

10 And the sons of Israel departed and encamped in Oboth.

11 And setting out from Oboth, they encamped in Achelgai from beyond, in the wilderness that is opposite Moab toward the rising of the sun.

12 From there they departed and encamped in the ravine Zaret.

13 And setting out from there, they encamped beyond Arnon in the wilderness that extends from the borders of the Amorrites; for Arnon is the boundary of Moab, between Moab and between the Amorrite.

14 Therefore it is said in a book, War of the Lord: He set Zoob aflame and the torrents of Arnon,

15 and he established the torrents to settle Er, and it lies adjacent to the borders of Moab.

16 And from there to the well; this is the well of which the Lord said to Moses: Gather the people, and I will give them water to drink.

17 Then Israel sang this song at the well: Begin for it;

18 a well—the rulers dug it; kings of nations quarried it in their kingdom, when they ruled them. And from the well to Manthanain;

19 and from Manthanain to Naaliel; and from Naaliel to Bamoth;

20 and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the plain of Moab, from the summit of the hewn rock that looks toward the face of the wilderness.

21 And Moses sent ambassadors to Seon king of the Amorrites with peaceful words, saying:

22 We shall pass through your land; we shall travel by the road; we shall not turn aside into a field or into a vineyard; we shall not drink water from your well; we shall travel by the royal road until we have passed your borders.

23 And Seon did not allow Israel to pass through his borders, and Seon gathered all his people and went out to array himself against Israel in the wilderness and came to Jassa and arrayed himself against Israel.

24 And Israel struck him with slaughter of the sword and took mastery of his land from Arnon as far as Jabok, as far as the sons of Amman; because Jazer is the boundary of the sons of Ammon.

25 And Israel took all these cities, and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorrites, in Esebon and in all those contiguous to it.

26 For Esebon is a city of Seon king of the Amorrites, and this one formerly waged war against the king of Moab, and they took all his land from Aroer as far as Arnon.

27 Therefore the speakers of riddles will say: Come to Esebon, so that the city of Seon may be built and prepared.

28 Because fire went out from Esebon, a flame from the city of Seon, and devoured as far as Moab and swallowed the pillars of Arnon.

29 Woe to you, Moab; you perished, people of Chamos. Their sons were given over to be preserved, and their daughters as captives to Seon king of the Amorrites;

30 and their seed shall perish, Esebon as far as Daibon, and the women still kindled fire further against Moab.

31 And Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorrites.

32 And Moses sent to spy out Jazer, and they took it and its villages and drove out the Amorrite who dwelt there. –

33 And turning, they went up the road to Basan; and Og king of Basan went out to meet them, and all his people, for war at Edrain.

34 And the Lord said to Moses: Do not fear him, because I have delivered him and all his people and all his land into your hands, and you shall do to him just as you did to Seon king of the Amorrites, who dwelt in Esebon.

35 And he struck him and his sons and all his people until no living captive of his was left; and they inherited their land.

Chapter 22

1 And the sons of Israel departed and encamped west of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho.

2 And Balak son of Sepphor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorrite,

3 and Moab feared the people exceedingly because they were many, and Moab was disgusted because of the face of the sons of Israel.

4 And Moab said to the council of elders of Madian: Now this congregation will lick up all those around us, as the calf licks up the green things from the field. And Balak son of Sepphor was king of Moab at that time.

5 And he sent ambassadors to Balaam son of Beor at Phathoura, which is upon the river of the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying: Behold, a people has come out of Egypt, and behold, it has covered the face of the land, and this one is settled next to me;

6 and now come, curse this people for me, because this one is stronger than we are, if we may be able to strike some of them, and I will drive them out of the land; because I know that those whom you bless have been blessed, and those whom you curse have been cursed.

7 And the council of elders of Moab and the council of elders of Madian went, with the divinations in their hands, and came to Balaam and told him the words of Balak.

8 And he said to them: Lodge here for the night, and I will answer you with the matters that the Lord may speak to me. And the rulers of Moab remained beside Balaam.

9 And God came to Balaam and said to him: Who are these people beside you?

10 And Balaam said to God: Balak son of Sepphor, king of Moab, sent them to me, saying:

11 Behold, a people has come out of Egypt, and behold, it has covered the face of the land, and this one is settled next to me; and now come, curse him for me, if perhaps I may be able to strike him and drive him out of the land.

12 And God said to Balaam: You shall not go with them, nor shall you curse the people, for it is blessed.

13 And Balaam rose in the morning and said to the rulers of Balak: Run back to your lord; God does not permit me to go with you.

14 And the rulers of Moab rose and came to Balak and said: Balaam does not wish to go with us.

15 And Balak added still more rulers to send, more numerous and more honorable than these.

16 And they came to Balaam and said to him: Thus says Balak, the one of Sepphor: I entreat you, do not hesitate to come to me;

17 for with honor I will honor you, and whatever you say, I will do for you; and come, curse this people down for me.

18 And Balaam answered and said to the rulers of Balak: If Balak gives me his house full of silver and gold, I shall not be able to transgress the word of the Lord God to do it small or great in my mind;

19 and now you also remain here this night, and I shall know what the Lord will add to speak to me.

20 And God came to Balaam by night and said to him: If these men are present to call you, rise and follow them; but the word that I speak to you, this you shall do.

21 And Balaam rose in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the rulers of Moab. –

22 And God was enraged with anger because he went, and the angel of God rose to oppose him; and he was mounted upon his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

23 And the donkey saw the angel of God standing against him on the road, with the broadsword drawn in his hand, and the donkey turned aside from the road and went into the plain; and he struck the donkey with the staff to direct her on the road.

24 And the angel of God stood in the furrows of the vineyards, a fence on this side and a fence on that side;

25 and the donkey saw the angel of God and pressed herself against the wall and crushed Balaam's foot; and he added still more to whip her.

26 And the angel of God moved on and went and stood in a narrow place in which there was no turning to the right or the left.

27 And the donkey saw the angel of God and sat down beneath Balaam; and Balaam was angered and struck the donkey with the staff.

28 And God opened the mouth of the donkey, and she says to Balaam: What have I done to you, that you have struck me this third time?

29 And Balaam said to the donkey: Because you have mocked me; and if I had a sword in my hand, I would already have pierced you.

30 And the donkey says to Balaam: Am I not your donkey, upon whom you have ridden from your youth until this day? Have I, with contempt, despised you and done thus to you? And he said: No.

31 And God uncovered the eyes of Balaam, and he sees the angel of the Lord standing against him on the road, with the sword drawn in his hand, and bending down he worshiped upon his face.

32 And the angel of God said to him: Why did you strike your donkey this third time? And behold, I came out in opposition to you, because your road is not graceful before me.

33 And the donkey saw me and turned aside from me this third time; and if she had not turned aside, now therefore I would have killed you but preserved her.

34 And Balaam said to the angel of the Lord: I have sinned, for I did not know that you stood against me on the road for a meeting; and now, if it is not pleasing to you, I will turn back.

35 And the angel of God said to Balaam: Go together with the men; except the word that I say to you, this you shall guard to speak. And Balaam went with the rulers of Balak.

36 And Balak heard that Balaam had come and went out to meet him at a city of Moab that is upon the borders of Arnon, which is at the edge of the borders.

37 And Balak said to Balaam: Did I not send to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Really, shall I not be able to honor you?

38 And Balaam said to Balak: Behold, I have come to you; now shall I be able to speak anything? The word that God puts into my mouth, this I shall speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came to cities of farmsteads.

40 And Balak sacrificed sheep and calves and sent some to Balaam and to the rulers who were with him.

41 And it happened in the morning that Balak took Balaam and brought him up upon the pillar of Baal and showed him from there a certain part of the people.

Chapter 23

1 And Balaam said to Balak: Build seven altars for me here and prepare seven calves and seven rams for me here.

2 And Balak did in the manner that Balaam told him, and he brought up a calf and a ram upon the altar.

3 And Balaam said to Balak: Stand beside your sacrifice, and I will go, in case God appears to me in a meeting, and whatever word he shows me, I will report to you. And Balak stood beside his sacrifice, and Balaam went to inquire of God and went straight.

4 And God appeared to Balaam, and Balaam said to him: I prepared the seven altars and brought up a calf and a ram upon the altar.

5 And God put a word into the mouth of Balaam and said: Turn back to Balak; thus you shall speak.

6 And he turned back to him, and this one was standing over his whole burnt offerings, and all the rulers of Moab with him.

7 And the spirit of God came upon him, and taking up his parable, he said: From Mesopotamia Balak summoned me, king of Moab from the mountains from the east, saying: Come, call down a curse upon Jacob for me, and come, curse Israel down for me.

8 How shall I call down a curse upon one whom the Lord does not curse, or how shall I curse one whom God does not curse?

9 Because from the summit of mountains I shall see him, and from hills I shall consider him. Behold, a people shall dwell alone and shall not be reckoned among nations.

10 Who accurately counted the seed of Jacob, and who shall number the communities of Israel? May my soul die among the souls of the righteous, and may my seed become like the seed of these.

11 And Balak said to Balaam: What have you done to me? I called you for a curse upon my enemies, and behold, you have blessed a blessing.

12 And Balaam said to Balak: Shall I not guard to speak whatever God puts into my mouth?

13 And Balak said to him: Come still with me to another place, from which you shall not see him from there, except you shall see a certain part of him, but you shall certainly not see them all; and curse him for me from there.

14 And he took him to a lookout point of a field upon the summit of the hewn rock, and he built seven altars there and brought up a calf and a ram upon the altar.

15 And Balaam said to Balak: Stand beside your sacrifice, but I will go to inquire of God.

16 And God met Balaam and put a word into his mouth and said: Turn back to Balak, and thus you shall speak.

17 And he turned back to him, and this one was standing over his whole burnt offering, and all the rulers of Moab with him. And Balak said to him: What did the Lord speak?

18 And taking up his parable, he said: Rise, Balak, and hear; give ear, witness, son of Sepphor.

19 God is not like a human, to be deceived, nor like a son of man, to be threatened. Having said, will he not do? Will he speak and not remain by it?

20 Behold, I have received to bless; I will bless and shall certainly not turn back.

21 There shall be no hardship in Jacob, nor shall pain be seen in Israel; the Lord his God is with him, the glorious things of rulers are in him.

22 God is the one who brought them out of Egypt; like the glory of a unicorn for him.

23 For there is no augury in Jacob nor divination in Israel; at the appointed time it shall be said to Jacob and to Israel what God shall accomplish.

24 Behold, a people shall rise like a lion cub and shall exult like a lion; it shall not sleep until it eats prey, and it shall drink the blood of the wounded.

25 And Balak said to Balaam: Neither with curses shall you curse him for me, nor, blessing, shall you bless him.

26 And Balaam answered and said to Balak: Did I not speak to you, saying: The word that God speaks, this I shall do?

27 And Balak said to Balaam: Come, let me take you to another place, in case it pleases God also that you curse him for me from there.

28 And Balak took Balaam to the summit of Phogor that extends into the wilderness.

29 And Balaam said to Balak: Build seven altars for me here and prepare seven calves and seven rams for me here.

30 And Balak did just as Balaam told him, and brought up a calf and a ram upon the altar.

Chapter 24

1 And Balaam saw that it was good before the Lord to bless Israel, and he did not go according to his custom to meet with the omens, and he turned his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes and beheld Israel encamped according to tribes. And the spirit of God came to be in him,

3 and taking up his parable, he said: Balaam son of Beor says, the man who truly sees says,

4 the one hearing oracles of God says, who saw a vision of God in sleep, his eyes unveiled:

5 How beautiful are your houses, Jacob, your tents, Israel;

6 like valleys giving shade and like gardens along rivers and like tents that the Lord pitched, like cedars beside waters.

7 A man shall come out from his seed and shall rule many nations, and his kingdom shall be exalted beyond Gog, and his kingdom shall increase.

8 God guided him out of Egypt; like the glory of a unicorn for him. He shall eat nations of his enemies and shall draw out the marrow of their stout parts, and with his missiles he shall shoot down an enemy.

9 Reclining, he rested like a lion and like a lion cub; who shall raise him? Those who bless you have been blessed, and those who curse you have been cursed.

10 And Balak was angered against Balaam and clapped his hands together, and Balak said to Balaam: I called you to curse my enemy, and behold, blessing, you have blessed this third time;

11 now therefore flee to your place. I said, I will honor you, and now the Lord has deprived you of glory.

12 And Balaam said to Balak: Did I not also speak to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying:

13 If Balak gives me his house full of silver and gold, I shall not be able to transgress the word of the Lord to do it evil or good from myself; whatever God says, these things I shall say?

14 And now, behold, I am running back to my place; come, I will counsel you what this people shall do to your people at the end of the days.

15 And taking up his parable, he said: Balaam son of Beor says, the man who truly sees says,

16 the one hearing oracles of God, knowing knowledge from the Most High and seeing a vision of God in sleep, his eyes unveiled:

17 I shall show him, but not now; I call him blessed, but he does not draw near; a star shall rise from Jacob, and a man shall rise from Israel and shall break the rulers of Moab and shall plunder all the sons of Seth.

18 And Edom shall be an inheritance, and Esau his enemy shall be an inheritance; and Israel acted with strength.

19 And one shall be raised from Jacob and shall destroy one being saved from a city.

20 And seeing Amalek and taking up his parable, he said: Amalek is the beginning of nations, and their seed shall perish.

21 And seeing the Kenite and taking up his parable, he said: Your dwelling is strong; and if you place your nest in a rock,

22 and if a brood of cunning comes to be for Beor, Assyrians shall take you captive.

23 And seeing Og and taking up his parable, he said: Oh, oh, who shall live whenever God establishes these things?

24 And one shall come out from the hand of the Kitians, and they shall harm Assour and shall harm the Hebrews, and they themselves shall perish with one accord.

25 And Balaam rose and went away, returning to his place, and Balak went away to himself.

Chapter 25

1 And Israel lodged in Sattin; and the people were profaned so as to commit fornication with the daughters of Moab.

2 And they called them to the sacrifices of their idols, and the people ate from their sacrifices and worshiped their idols.

3 And Israel was perfected to Beelphegor; and the Lord was enraged with wrath toward Israel.

4 And the Lord said to Moses: Take all the leaders of the people and make an example of them for the Lord before the sun, and the wrath of the Lord's anger shall turn away from Israel.

5 And Moses said to the tribes of Israel: Each of you kill his own kinsman who has been perfected to Beelphegor.

6 And behold, a man from the sons of Israel came and brought his brother to the Madianite woman before Moses and before the entire congregation of the sons of Israel, while they were weeping by the door of the tent of testimony.

7 And Phinees son of Eleazar son of Aaron the priest saw and rose up from the midst of the congregation and took a spear in his hand,

8 and he entered behind the Israelite man into the furnace and pierced both of them, the Israelite man and the woman through her womb; and the plague ceased from the sons of Israel.

9 And those who died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.

10 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

11 Phinees son of Eleazar son of Aaron the priest stopped my wrath from the sons of Israel by being zealous with my zeal among them, and I did not utterly consume the sons of Israel in my jealousy.

12 Thus say: Behold, I am giving him a covenant of peace,

13 and it shall be for him and his seed after him an eternal covenant of priesthood, because he was zealous for his God and made atonement concerning the sons of Israel.

14 And the name of the stricken Israelite man, who was struck with the Madianite woman, was Zambri son of Salo, ruler of a paternal house of the Symeonites;

15 and the name of the stricken Madianite woman was Chasbi daughter of Sour, ruler of the nation Ommoth; he is of a paternal house of the Madianites.

16 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Speak to the sons of Israel, saying:

17 Be hostile to the Madianites and strike them,

18 because they themselves act with hostility toward you in deceit, as many things as they deceive you through Phogor and through Chasbi daughter of a ruler of Madian, their sister, who was struck on the day of the plague through Phogor.

Chapter 26

1 And it happened after the plague that the Lord spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the priest, saying:

2 Take the head-count of the entire congregation of the sons of Israel, from twenty years old and above, according to the houses of their paternal families, everyone who goes out to be arrayed for battle in Israel.

3 And Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke in Araboth Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying:

4 From twenty years old and above, in the manner that the Lord instructed Moses. And the sons of Israel who came out of Egypt:

5 Reuben, the firstborn of Israel. And the sons of Reuben: Enoch, and the community of Enoch; for Phallou, the community of Phalloui;

6 for Asron, the community of Asroni; for Charmi, the community of Charmi.

7 These are the communities of Reuben; and their muster was forty-three thousand seven hundred thirty. –

8 And the sons of Phallou: Eliab.

9 And the sons of Eliab: Namouel and Dathan and Abiron. These were those called from the congregation; these are the ones who rose together against Moses and Aaron in the congregation of Kore, in the rising together against the Lord,

10 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and Kore in the death of his congregation, when the fire consumed the two hundred fifty, and they became a sign;

11 but the sons of Kore did not die.

12 And the sons of Symeon, the community of the sons of Symeon: for Namouel, the community of Namoueli; for Jamin, the community of Jamini; for Jachin, the community of Jachini;

13 for Zara, the community of Zarai; for Saul, the community of Sauli.

14 These are the communities of Symeon from their muster, twenty-two thousand two hundred.

15 And the sons of Judas: Er and Aunan; and Er and Aunan died in the land of Chanaan.

16 And the sons of Judas according to their communities were: for Selon, the community of Seloni; for Phares, the community of Phares; for Zara, the community of Zarai.

17 And the sons of Phares were: for Asron, the community of Asroni; for Jamoun, the community of Jamouni.

18 These are the communities for Judas according to their muster, seventy-six thousand five hundred.

19 And the sons of Issachar according to their communities: for Thola, the community of Tholai; for Phoua, the community of Phouai;

20 for Jasoub, the community of Jasoubi; for Samaran, the community of Samarani.

21 These are the communities of Issachar from their muster, sixty-four thousand three hundred.

22 The sons of Zaboulon according to their communities: for Sared, the community of Saredi; for Allon, the community of Alloni; for Allel, the community of Alleli.

23 These are the communities of Zaboulon from their muster, sixty thousand five hundred.

24 The sons of Gad according to their communities: for Saphon, the community of Saphoni; for Angi, the community of Angi; for Souni, the community of Souni;

25 for Azeni, the community of Azeni; for Addi, the community of Addi;

26 for Aroadi, the community of Aroadi; for Ariel, the community of Arieli.

27 These are the communities of the sons of Gad from their muster, forty thousand five hundred.

28 The sons of Aser according to their communities: for Jamin, the community of Jamini; for Jesou, the community of Jesoui; for Baria, the community of Bariai;

29 for Chober, the community of Choberi; for Melchiel, the community of Melchieli.

30 And the name of the daughter of Aser was Sara.

31 These are the communities of Aser from their muster, fifty-three thousand four hundred.

32 The sons of Joseph according to their communities: Manasse and Ephraim. –

33 The sons of Manasse: for Machir, the community of Machiri; and Machir begot Galaad; for Galaad, the community of Galaadi.

34 And these are the sons of Galaad: for Achiezer, the community of Achiezeri; for Cheleg, the community of Chelegi;

35 for Esriel, the community of Esrieli; for Sychem, the community of Sychemi;

36 for Symaer, the community of Symaeri; and for Opher, the community of Opheri.

37 And for Salpaad son of Opher there were no sons, but only daughters, and these are the names of the daughters of Salpaad: Mala and Noua and Egla and Melcha and Thersa.

38 These are the communities of Manasse from their muster, fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

39 And these are the sons of Ephraim: for Soutala, the community of Soutalai; for Tanach, the community of Tanachi.

40 These are the sons of Soutala: for Eden, the community of Edeni.

41 These are the communities of Ephraim from their muster, thirty-two thousand five hundred. – These are the communities of the sons of Joseph according to their communities.

42 The sons of Benjamin according to their communities: for Bale, the community of Balei; for Asyber, the community of Asyberi; for Jachiran, the community of Jachirani;

43 for Sophan, the community of Sophani.

44 And the sons of Bale were Adar and Noeman: for Adar, the community of Adari; for Noeman, the community of Noemani.

45 These are the sons of Benjamin according to their communities, from their muster, forty-five thousand six hundred.

46 And the sons of Dan according to their communities: for Sami, the community of Sami. These are the communities of Dan according to their communities.

47 All the communities of Sami, according to their muster, were sixty-four thousand four hundred.

48 The sons of Nephthali according to their communities: for Asiel, the community of Asieli; for Gauni, the community of Gauni;

49 for Jeser, the community of Jeseri; for Sellem, the community of Sellemi.

50 These are the communities of Nephthali from their muster, forty-five thousand four hundred.

51 This is the muster of the sons of Israel: six hundred one thousand seven hundred thirty.

52 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

53 To these the land shall be apportioned to inherit, from the number of names;

54 for the greater number you shall increase the inheritance, and for the lesser number you shall decrease their inheritance; to each one, according as they were mustered, their inheritance shall be given.

55 Through lots the land shall be apportioned; by the names according to the tribes of their paternal families they shall inherit;

56 from the lot you shall apportion their inheritance between many and few.

57 And the sons of Levi according to their communities: for Gedson, the community of Gedsoni; for Kaath, the community of Kaathi; for Merari, the community of Merari.

58 These are the communities of the sons of Levi: the community of Lobeni, the community of Chebroni, the community of Kore, and the community of Mousi. And Kaath begot Amram.

59 And the name of his wife was Jochabed, a daughter of Levi, who bore these to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses and Mariam their sister.

60 And to Aaron were born Nadab and Abioud and Eleazar and Ithamar.

61 And Nadab and Abioud died when they themselves offered strange fire before the Lord in the wilderness of Sina.

62 And from their muster they were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and above; for they were not mustered together in the midst of the sons of Israel, because no allotment is given to them in the midst of the sons of Israel.

63 And this is the muster of Moses and Eleazar the priest, who mustered the sons of Israel in Araboth Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho.

64 And among these there was not a man of those mustered by Moses and Aaron, whom they mustered, the sons of Israel, in the wilderness of Sina;

65 because the Lord said to them: By death they shall die in the wilderness. And not even one of them was left except Chaleb son of Jephonne and Jesus, the one of Nave.

Chapter 27

1 And the daughters of Salpaad son of Opher son of Galaad son of Machir, of the community of Manasse, of the sons of Joseph, approached [and these are their names: Mala and Noua and Egla and Melcha and Thersa],

2 and standing before Moses and before Eleazar the priest and before the rulers and before the entire congregation at the door of the tabernacle of testimony, they say:

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the midst of the congregation that rose together against the Lord in the congregation of Kore, because he died through his own sin, and there were no sons for him.

4 Let the name of our father not be wiped out from the midst of his community, because there is no son for him. Give us a possession in the midst of our father’s brothers.

5 And Moses brought their judgment before the Lord.

6 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

7 The daughters of Salpaad have spoken correctly. As a gift you shall give them a possession of inheritance in the midst of their father’s brothers, and you shall place the allotment of their father upon them.

8 And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying: If a person dies and there is no son for him, you shall place his inheritance upon his daughter;

9 but if there is no daughter for him, you shall give the inheritance to his brother;

10 but if there are no brothers for him, you shall give the inheritance to the brother of his father;

11 but if there are no brothers of his father, you shall give the inheritance to the member of his household who is nearest to him from his tribe, and he shall inherit his things. And this shall be an ordinance of judgment for the sons of Israel, in the manner that the Lord instructed Moses.

12 And the Lord said to Moses: Go up into the mountain that is across [this is Mount Nabau], and see the land of Chanaan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel as a possession;

13 and you shall see it and shall be added to your people, you also, in the manner that Aaron your brother was added on Or the mountain,

14 because you transgressed my word in the wilderness of Sin, when the congregation opposed, to sanctify me; you did not sanctify me at the water before them [this is the water of contention of Cades in the wilderness of Sin].

15 And Moses said to the Lord:

16 Let the Lord, the God of the spirits and of all flesh, muster a man over this congregation,

17 who shall go out before their face and who shall enter before their face and who shall lead them out and who shall lead them in, and the congregation of the Lord shall not be like sheep for whom there is no shepherd.

18 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Take to yourself Jesus son of Nave, a man who has spirit in himself, and you shall place your hands upon him;

19 and you shall stand him before Eleazar the priest and shall command him before the entire congregation and shall command concerning him before them,

20 and you shall give some of your glory upon him, so that the sons of Israel may listen to him.

21 And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, and they shall inquire of him concerning the judgment of the Manifestations before the Lord; at his mouth they shall go out, and at his mouth they shall enter, he and the sons of Israel with one accord and the entire congregation.

22 And Moses did in the manner that the Lord commanded him, and taking Jesus, he stood him before Eleazar the priest and before the entire congregation,

23 and he placed his hands upon him and appointed him, just as the Lord instructed Moses.

Chapter 28

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Command the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, saying: My gifts, my given things, my offerings for an odor of sweetness, you shall carefully keep to offer to me at my festivals.

3 And you shall say to them: These are the offerings, as many as you shall bring to the Lord: two unblemished year-old lambs each day as a continual whole burnt offering;

4 you shall make the one lamb in the morning, and you shall make the second lamb toward evening;

5 and you shall make a tenth of an oiphi of fine flour as a sacrifice, worked with oil in a fourth of a hin.

6 It is a continual whole burnt offering, which was made on Mount Sina for an odor of sweetness to the Lord;

7 and its libation shall be a fourth of a hin for the one lamb; in the holy place you shall pour a libation of sikera to the Lord.

8 And you shall make the second lamb toward evening; according to its sacrifice and according to its libation you shall make it, for an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

9 And on the day of the Sabbaths you shall bring two unblemished year-old lambs and two-tenths of fine flour worked with oil as a sacrifice, and a libation;

10 a whole burnt offering of Sabbaths on the Sabbaths, upon the continual whole burnt offering and its libation.

11 And at the new moons you shall bring whole burnt offerings to the Lord: two calves from cattle and one ram, seven unblemished year-old lambs;

12 three-tenths of fine flour worked with oil for the one calf, and two-tenths of fine flour worked with oil for the one ram;

13 a tenth of fine flour worked with oil for the one lamb, a sacrifice, an odor of sweetness, an offering to the Lord.

14 Their libation shall be half of a hin for the one calf, and a third of a hin for the one ram, and a fourth of a hin of wine for the one lamb. This is a whole burnt offering, month from month, for the months of the year.

15 And one male kid from goats concerning sin to the Lord; upon the continual whole burnt offering it shall be made, and its libation.

16 And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is Pascha to the Lord.

17 And on the fifteenth day of this month is a festival; for seven days you shall eat unleavened things.

18 And the first day shall be designated holy for you; you shall do no work of service.

19 And you shall bring whole burnt offerings, offerings to the Lord: two calves from cattle, one ram, seven year-old lambs; they shall be unblemished for you.

20 And their sacrifice shall be fine flour worked with oil, three-tenths for the one calf and two-tenths for the one ram;

21 a tenth, a tenth, you shall make for the one lamb, for the seven lambs;

22 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, to make atonement concerning you;

23 apart from the morning continual whole burnt offering, which is a continual whole burnt offering.

24 These things, according to these things, you shall make each day for the seven days, a gift, an offering for an odor of sweetness to the Lord; upon the continual whole burnt offering you shall make its libation.

25 And the seventh day shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall do no work of service on it.

26 And on the day of the new things of the weeks, when you present a new sacrifice to the Lord, it shall be designated holy for you; you shall do no work of service.

27 And you shall bring whole burnt offerings for an odor of sweetness to the Lord: two calves from cattle, one ram, seven unblemished year-old lambs;

28 their sacrifice shall be fine flour worked with oil, three-tenths for the one calf and two-tenths for the one ram;

29 a tenth, a tenth, for the one lamb, for the seven lambs;

30 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, to make atonement concerning you;

31 apart from the continual whole burnt offering; and you shall make their sacrifice for me – they shall be unblemished for you – and their libations.

Chapter 29

1 And in the seventh month, on the first of the month, it shall be designated holy for you; you shall do no work of service. It shall be a day of signaling for you.

2 And you shall make whole burnt offerings for an odor of sweetness to the Lord: one calf from cattle, one ram, seven unblemished year-old lambs;

3 their sacrifice shall be fine flour worked with oil, three-tenths for the one calf and two-tenths for the one ram;

4 a tenth, a tenth, for the one lamb, for the seven lambs;

5 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, to make atonement concerning you;

6 apart from the whole burnt offerings of the new moon, and their sacrifices and their libations, and the continual whole burnt offering and their sacrifices and their libations, according to their comparison, for an odor of sweetness to the Lord.

7 And on the tenth of this month it shall be designated holy for you, and you shall afflict your souls and shall do no work.

8 And you shall offer whole burnt offerings for an odor of sweetness, offerings to the Lord: one calf from cattle, one ram, seven year-old lambs; they shall be unblemished for you;

9 their sacrifice shall be fine flour worked with oil, three-tenths for the one calf and two-tenths for the one ram;

10 a tenth, a tenth, for the one lamb, for the seven lambs;

11 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, to make atonement concerning you; apart from the thing concerning the sin of atonement and the continual whole burnt offering, its sacrifice and its libation according to the comparison, for an odor of sweetness, an offering to the Lord.

12 And on the fifteenth day of this seventh month it shall be designated holy for you; you shall do no work of service, and you shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord for seven days.

13 And you shall bring whole burnt offerings, offerings for an odor of sweetness to the Lord: on the first day, thirteen calves from cattle, two rams, fourteen year-old lambs; they shall be unblemished;

14 their sacrifices shall be fine flour worked with oil, three-tenths for the one calf, for the thirteen calves, and two-tenths for the one ram, for the two rams;

15 a tenth, a tenth, for the one lamb, for the fourteen lambs;

16 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, apart from the continual whole burnt offering; their sacrifices and their libations. –

17 And on the second day: twelve calves, two rams, fourteen unblemished year-old lambs;

18 their sacrifice and their libation for the calves and for the rams and for the lambs, according to their number, according to their comparison;

19 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, apart from the continual whole burnt offering; their sacrifices and their libations. –

20 On the third day: eleven calves, two rams, fourteen unblemished year-old lambs;

21 their sacrifice and their libation for the calves and for the rams and for the lambs, according to their number, according to their comparison;

22 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, apart from the continual whole burnt offering; their sacrifices and their libations. –

23 On the fourth day: ten calves, two rams, fourteen unblemished year-old lambs;

24 their sacrifices and their libations for the calves and for the rams and for the lambs, according to their number, according to their comparison;

25 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, apart from the continual whole burnt offering; their sacrifices and their libations. –

26 On the fifth day: nine calves, two rams, fourteen unblemished year-old lambs;

27 their sacrifices and their libations for the calves and for the rams and for the lambs, according to their number, according to their comparison;

28 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, apart from the continual whole burnt offering; their sacrifices and their libations. –

29 On the sixth day: eight calves, two rams, fourteen unblemished year-old lambs;

30 their sacrifices and their libations for the calves and for the rams and for the lambs, according to their number, according to their comparison;

31 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, apart from the continual whole burnt offering; their sacrifices and their libations. –

32 On the seventh day: seven calves, two rams, fourteen unblemished year-old lambs;

33 their sacrifices and their libations for the calves and for the rams and for the lambs, according to their number, according to their comparison;

34 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, apart from the continual whole burnt offering; their sacrifices and their libations. –

35 And on the eighth day there shall be a closing for you; you shall do no work of service on it.

36 And you shall bring whole burnt offerings for an odor of sweetness, offerings to the Lord: one calf, one ram, seven unblemished year-old lambs;

37 their sacrifices and their libations for the calf and for the ram and for the lambs, according to their number, according to their comparison;

38 and one male kid from goats concerning sin, apart from the continual whole burnt offering; their sacrifices and their libations.

39 These things you shall make to the Lord at your festivals, apart from your vows and your voluntary offerings and your whole burnt offerings and your sacrifices and your libations and your salvations.

Chapter 30

1 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel according to all the things that the Lord commanded Moses.

2 And Moses spoke to the rulers of the tribes of Israel, saying: This is the word that the Lord instructed:

3 A person, a person, who vows a vow to the Lord or swears an oath or determines a determination concerning his soul shall not profane his word; everything that comes out of his mouth he shall do.

4 But if a woman vows a vow to the Lord or determines a determination in the house of her father in her youth,

5 and her father hears her vows and her determinations that she determined against her soul, and her father remains silent toward her, then all her vows shall stand, and all the determinations that she determined against her soul shall remain for her.

6 But if her father refuses with a refusal on whatever day he hears all her vows and the determinations that she determined against her soul, they shall not stand; and the Lord shall purify her, because her father refused. –

7 But if she indeed becomes a man’s wife, and her vows are upon her according to the distinction of her lips, the determinations that she determined against her soul,

8 and her husband hears and remains silent toward her on whatever day he hears, then thus all her vows shall stand, and her determinations that she determined against her soul shall stand.

9 But if her husband refuses with a refusal on whatever day he hears, all her vows and her determinations that she determined against her soul shall not remain, because her husband refused them away from her; and the Lord shall purify her.

10 And the vow of a widow and of one cast out, as many things as she vows against her soul, shall remain for her. –

11 But if in the house of her husband her vow or the determination against her soul is with an oath,

12 and her husband hears and remains silent toward her and does not refuse her, then all her vows shall stand, and all her determinations that she determined against her soul shall stand against her.

13 But if her husband, removing, removes them on whatever day he hears, then everything that comes out from her lips according to her vows and according to the determinations against her soul shall not remain for her; her husband removed it, and the Lord shall purify her.

14 Every vow and every oath of a bond to afflict a soul, her husband shall cause to stand for her, and her husband shall remove.

15 But if, being silent, he remains silent toward her day from day, then he shall cause all her vows to stand for her and shall cause the determinations upon her to stand for her, because he was silent toward her on the day that he heard.

16 But if, removing, he removes them from her after the day on which he heard, then he shall receive his sin. –

17 These are the ordinances, as many as the Lord commanded Moses, between a man and his wife and between a father and a daughter in youth in a father’s house.

Chapter 31

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Avenge the vengeance of the sons of Israel from the Madianites, and afterward you shall be added to your people.

3 And Moses spoke to the people, saying: Arm men from among you to be arrayed before the Lord against Madian, to repay vengeance from the Lord to Madian.

4 A thousand from a tribe, a thousand from a tribe, from all the tribes of Israel you shall send to be arrayed.

5 And from the thousands of Israel they numbered out a thousand from a tribe, twelve thousand armed for battle array.

6 And Moses sent them, a thousand from a tribe, a thousand from a tribe, with their force, and Phinees son of Eleazar son of Aaron the priest; and the holy vessels and the trumpets of the signals were in their hands.

7 And they arrayed themselves against Madian, just as the Lord commanded Moses, and they killed every male.

8 And they killed the kings of Madian together with their wounded: Evin and Sour and Rokom and Our and Robok, five kings of Madian; and Balaam son of Beor they killed by broadsword together with their wounded.

9 And they plundered the women of Madian and their equipment, and they plundered their livestock and all their acquired possessions and their force.

10 And all their cities, the ones in their houses, and their farmsteads they burned with fire.

11 And they took all the plunder and all their spoils, from human to livestock,

12 and they brought the captivity and the spoils and the plunder to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to all the sons of Israel, to the camp at Araboth Moab, which is on the Jordan opposite Jericho.

13 And Moses and Eleazar the priest and all the rulers of the congregation went out to meet them outside the camp.

14 And Moses became angry with the overseers of the force, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds who were coming from the battle array of the war,

15 and Moses said to them: Why did you keep every female alive?

16 For these were the ones who, according to the word of Balaam, caused the sons of Israel to revolt and overlook the word of the Lord because of Phogor, and the blow came among the congregation of the Lord.

17 And now kill every male in the entire company, and kill every woman who has known a male’s bed.

18 But keep alive the entire company of the women who have not known a male’s bed.

19 And you, camp outside the camp for seven days. Everyone who killed and who touches the wounded one shall be purified on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captivity.

20 And every covering and every leather vessel and every work made from goat and every wooden vessel you shall purify.

21 And Eleazar the priest said to the men of the force who were coming from the battle array of the war: This is the ordinance of the law that the Lord prescribed to Moses:

22 except for the gold and the silver and bronze and iron and lead and tin,

23 every thing that shall pass through fire shall also be cleansed; but rather, it shall be purified with the water of purification. And all things that do not pass through fire shall pass through water.

24 And you shall wash your garments on the seventh day and shall be cleansed, and after these things you shall enter into the camp.

25 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

26 Take the head-count of the spoils of the captivity, from human to livestock, you and Eleazar the priest and the rulers of the paternal families of the congregation,

27 and you shall divide the spoils between the warriors who go out into the battle array and between the entire congregation.

28 And you shall remove a tribute for the Lord from the warrior men who have gone out into the battle array: one soul from five hundred, from the humans and from the livestock and from the cattle and from the sheep and from the goats.

29 And from their half you shall take it, and you shall give the first produce of the Lord to Eleazar the priest.

30 And from the half belonging to the sons of Israel you shall take one from the fifty, from the humans and from the cattle and from the sheep and from the donkeys and from all the livestock, and you shall give them to the Levites who keep the watches in the tent of the Lord.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did just as the Lord prescribed to Moses.

32 And the surplus of the plunder that the warrior men plundered was, from the sheep, six hundred seventy-five thousand,

33 and seventy-two thousand cattle,

34 and sixty-one thousand donkeys,

35 and human souls from the women who had not known a man’s bed, all the souls, thirty-two thousand.

36 And the half share, the portion of those who had gone out to the war, was, from the number of the sheep, three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred,

37 and the tribute for the Lord from the sheep was six hundred seventy-five;

38 and the cattle were thirty-six thousand, and the tribute for the Lord, seventy-two;

39 and the donkeys, thirty thousand five hundred, and the tribute for the Lord, sixty-one;

40 and the human souls, sixteen thousand, and their tribute for the Lord, thirty-two souls.

41 And Moses gave the tribute for the Lord, the removal offering of God, to Eleazar the priest, just as the Lord prescribed to Moses.

42 From the half share of the sons of Israel, whom Moses divided from the warrior men –

43 and the half share belonging to the congregation was, from the sheep, three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred,

44 and thirty-six thousand cattle,

45 thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,

46 and sixteen thousand human souls –

47 and Moses took from the half share of the sons of Israel the one from the fifty, from the humans and from the livestock, and gave them to the Levites who keep the watches of the tent of the Lord, in the manner that the Lord prescribed to Moses.

48 And all those appointed over the thousands of the force, commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, approached Moses,

49 and they said to Moses: Your servants have taken the head-count of the warrior men who are with us, and not even one of them has been missing.

50 And we have brought the gift for the Lord, each man what he found, a gold vessel: anklet and bracelet and ring and armlet and braided ornament, to make atonement for us before the Lord.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, every worked vessel.

52 And all the gold, the removal offering that they removed for the Lord, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels, from the commanders of thousands and from the commanders of hundreds.

53 And the warrior men each plundered for himself.

54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the commanders of thousands and from the commanders of hundreds and brought them into the tent of the testimony as a memorial of the sons of Israel before the Lord.

Chapter 32

1 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had a multitude of livestock, a very great multitude; and they saw the region of Jazer and the region of Galaad, and the place was a place for livestock.

2 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad approached and said to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to the rulers of the congregation, saying:

3 Ataroth and Daibon and Jazer and Nambra and Esebon and Eleale and Sebama and Nabau and Baian,

4 the land that the Lord delivered before the sons of Israel, is livestock-feeding land, and your servants possess livestock.

5 And they said: If we have found favor before you, let this land be given to your household servants as a possession, and do not take us across the Jordan.

6 And Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben: Your brothers are going to war, and will you sit here?

7 And why do you turn aside the minds of the sons of Israel so that they do not cross over into the land that the Lord is giving them?

8 Did your fathers not do so when I sent them from Cades Barne to observe the land?

9 And they went up to the Ravine of the Cluster and observed the land, and they turned away the heart of the sons of Israel so that they would not enter into the land that the Lord gave them.

10 And the Lord became angry with fury on that day and swore, saying:

11 These men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and above, those knowing evil and good, surely shall not see the land that I swore to Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, for they did not follow after me,

12 except Chaleb son of Jephonne, the one separated, and Jesus, the one of Nave, because he followed after the Lord.

13 And the Lord became angry with fury against Israel and made them whirl about in the wilderness for forty years, until the entire generation, those doing wicked things before the Lord, was completely consumed.

14 Behold, you rose up in place of your fathers, a band of sinful men, to add still more to the fury of the wrath of the Lord against Israel,

15 because you will turn away from him, to add still more to leave him in the wilderness, and you will act lawlessly against this entire congregation.

16 And they approached him and said: Let us build sheep farmsteads here for our livestock and cities for our equipment,

17 and we will be armed as a vanguard ahead of the sons of Israel until we bring them to their own place; and our equipment shall dwell in walled cities because of those who inhabit the land.

18 We certainly shall not return to our houses until the sons of Israel have each been apportioned into his inheritance.

19 And we shall no longer inherit among them from across the Jordan and beyond, because we hold our allotments beyond the Jordan in the east.

20 And Moses said to them: If you act according to this word, if you arm yourselves before the Lord for war,

21 and every armed man of yours passes over the Jordan before the Lord until his enemy is destroyed from before his face,

22 and the land is brought under mastery before the Lord, then after these things you shall return and shall be innocent before the Lord and from Israel, and this land shall be yours as a possession before the Lord.

23 But if you do not act in this way, you shall sin before the Lord, and you shall know your sin when evils overtake you.

24 And you shall build for yourselves cities for your equipment and farmsteads for your livestock, and you shall do what proceeds from your mouth.

25 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad spoke to Moses, saying: Your servants shall do just as our lord commands.

26 Our equipment and our wives and all our livestock shall be in the cities of Galaad,

27 but your servants shall all pass over, armed and arrayed before the Lord for war, in the manner that our lord says.

28 And Moses appointed to them Eleazar the priest and Jesus son of Nave and the rulers of the paternal families of the tribes of Israel.

29 And Moses said to them: If the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad pass over the Jordan with you, every one armed for war before the Lord, and you gain mastery over the land before you, then you shall give them the land of Galaad as a possession.

30 But if they do not pass over armed with you for war before the Lord, then you shall take their equipment and their wives and their livestock across ahead of you into the land of Chanaan, and they shall be made co-inheritors among you in the land of Chanaan.

31 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad answered, saying: As many things as the Lord says to his attendants, so shall we do.

32 We shall cross over armed before the Lord into the land of Chanaan, and you shall give us the possession beyond the Jordan.

33 And Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben and to half the tribe of Manasse of the sons of Joseph, the kingdom of Seon king of the Amorrites and the kingdom of Og king of Basan, the land and the cities with its borders, cities of the land round about.

34 And the sons of Gad built Daibon and Ataroth and Aroer,

35 and Sophar and Jazer, and they raised them up,

36 and Nambra and Baitharan, strong cities and sheep farmsteads. –

37 And the sons of Reuben built Esebon and Eleale and Kariathaim,

38 and Beelmeon, encircled cities, and Sebama; and they named the names of the cities that they built according to their names. –

39 And a son of Machir son of Manasse went to Galaad and took it and destroyed the Amorrite who inhabited it.

40 And Moses gave Galaad to Machir son of Manasse, and he dwelt there.

41 And Jair, the one of Manasse, went and took their farmsteads and named them Farmsteads of Jair.

42 And Nabau went and took Kanaath and its villages and named them Naboth from his own name.

Chapter 33

1 And these are the stations of the sons of Israel, as they went out from the land of Egypt with their force by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

2 And Moses wrote down their departures and their stations through the word of the Lord, and these are the stations of their journey.

3 They departed from Ramesses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month. On the day after the Pascha, the sons of Israel went out with hand held high before all the Egyptians,

4 while the Egyptians were burying from among themselves all the dead whom the Lord struck, every firstborn in the land of Egypt; and among their gods the Lord carried out the vengeance.

5 And the sons of Israel departed from Ramesses and encamped at Sokchoth.

6 And they departed from Sokchoth and encamped at Bouthan, which is some part of the wilderness.

7 And they departed from Bouthan and encamped at the mouth of Eiroth, which is opposite Beelsepphon, and they encamped opposite Magdol.

8 And they departed from opposite Eiroth and crossed through the middle of the sea into the wilderness, and they themselves traveled a road of three days through the wilderness and encamped at Pikriai.

9 And they departed from Pikriai and came to Ailim; and in Ailim were twelve springs of waters and seventy trunks of palm trees, and they encamped there beside the water.

10 And they departed from Ailim and encamped at Red Sea.

11 And they departed from Red Sea and encamped in the wilderness of Sin.

12 And they departed from the wilderness of Sin and encamped at Raphaka.

13 And they departed from Raphaka and encamped at Ailous.

14 And they departed from Ailous and encamped at Raphidin, and there was no water there for the people to drink.

15 And they departed from Raphidin and encamped in the wilderness of Sina.

16 And they departed from the wilderness of Sina and encamped at Memorials of Desire.

17 And they departed from Memorials of Desire and encamped at Aseroth.

18 And they departed from Aseroth and encamped at Rathama.

19 And they departed from Rathama and encamped at Remmon Phares.

20 And they departed from Remmon Phares and encamped at Lemona.

21 And they departed from Lemona and encamped at Dessa.

22 And they departed from Dessa and encamped at Makellath.

23 And they departed from Makellath and encamped at Saphar.

24 And they departed from Saphar and encamped at Charadath.

25 And they departed from Charadath and encamped at Makeloth.

26 And they departed from Makeloth and encamped at Kataath.

27 And they departed from Kataath and encamped at Tarath.

28 And they departed from Tarath and encamped at Matekka.

29 And they departed from Matekka and encamped at Selmona.

30 And they departed from Selmona and encamped at Massourouth.

31 And they departed from Massourouth and encamped at Banaia.

32 And they departed from Banaia and encamped at Mount Gadgad.

33 And they departed from Mount Gadgad and encamped at Etebatha.

34 And they departed from Etebatha and encamped at Ebrona.

35 And they departed from Ebrona and encamped at Gesiongaber.

36 And they departed from Gesiongaber and encamped in the wilderness of Sin. And they departed from the wilderness of Sin and encamped in the wilderness of Pharan; this is Cades.

37 And they departed from Cades and encamped at Or the mountain, near the land of Edom.

38 And Aaron the priest went up by the command of the Lord and died there in the fortieth year of the exodus of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first of the month.

39 And Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when he was dying at Or the mountain.

40 And Chananis king of Arad heard, and this one dwelt in the land of Chanaan, when the sons of Israel were entering.

41 And they departed from Or the mountain and encamped at Selmona.

42 And they departed from Selmona and encamped at Phino.

43 And they departed from Phino and encamped at Oboth.

44 And they departed from Oboth and encamped at Gai, across at the borders of Moab.

45 And they departed from Gai and encamped at Daibon Gad.

46 And they departed from Daibon Gad and encamped at Gelmon Deblathaim.

47 And they departed from Gelmon Deblathaim and encamped at the mountains of Abarim opposite Nabau.

48 And they departed from the mountains of Abarim and encamped at the west of Moab beside the Jordan opposite Jericho, 49 and they encamped beside the Jordan between Aisimoth and Belsattim, toward the west of Moab.

50 And the Lord spoke to Moses at the west of Moab beside the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying:

51 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: You are crossing over the Jordan into the land of Chanaan,

52 and you shall destroy all those who inhabit the land before your face, and you shall remove their watch-posts, and all their cast images you shall destroy, and all their pillars you shall remove.

53 And you shall destroy all those who inhabit the land and shall dwell in it, for I have given their land to you as an allotment.

54 And you shall inherit their land by allotment according to your tribes. For those who are more, you shall increase their possession, and for those who are fewer, you shall decrease their possession. Wherever his name goes out there, it shall be his; according to the tribes of your paternal families you shall inherit.

55 But if you do not destroy those who inhabit the land from before your face, then those whom you leave from among them shall be thorns in your eyes and darts in your sides, and they shall be hostile on the land upon which you dwell.

56 And it shall be that, just as I had determined to do to them, I shall do to you.

Chapter 34

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

2 Command the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: You are entering into the land of Chanaan. This shall be for you as an inheritance: the land of Chanaan with its borders.

3 And your side toward southwest shall be from the wilderness of Sin as far as what adjoins Edom, and your borders toward southwest shall be from part of the Salt Sea, from east.

4 And the borders shall go around you from southwest toward the Ascent of Akrabin and shall pass Senna, and its outlet shall be southwest of Cades Barne, and it shall go out to the farmstead of Arad and shall pass Asemona.

5 And the border shall turn around from Asemona to the winter-stream of Egypt, and its outlet shall be the sea.

6 And the borders of the sea shall be for you. The Great Sea shall define; this shall be for you the borders of the sea.

7 And this shall be the borders for you toward north: from the Great Sea you shall measure out for yourselves beside the mountain, the mountain.

8 And from the mountain, the mountain, you shall measure out for them as they enter into Emath, and its outlet shall be the borders of Sarada.

9 And the borders shall go out to Dephrona, and its outlet shall be Asernain; this shall be borders for you from north.

10 And you shall measure out for yourselves the borders of the east from Asernain to Sepphama.

11 And the border shall descend from Seppham to Arbela, from east, to the springs; and the border shall descend to Bela upon the back of Sea Chenara from east.

12 And the border shall descend to the Jordan, and its outlet shall be the Salt Sea. This shall be the land for you and its borders round about.

13 And Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying: This is the land that you shall inherit by lot, in the manner that the Lord prescribed to Moses to give it to the nine tribes and to half the tribe of Manasse.

14 For the tribe of the sons of Reuben and the tribe of the sons of Gad took according to the houses of their paternal families, and half the tribe of Manasse received their allotments.

15 Two tribes and half a tribe took their allotments beyond the Jordan opposite Jericho, from south toward east.

16 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

17 These are the names of the men who shall inherit the land for you: Eleazar the priest and Jesus, the one of Nave.

18 And you shall take one ruler from a tribe to apportion the land for you.

19 And these are the names of the men: from the tribe of Judas, Chaleb son of Jephonne;

20 from the tribe of Symeon, Salamiel son of Emioud;

21 from the tribe of Benjamin, Eldad son of Chaslon;

22 from the tribe of Dan, the ruler Bakchir son of Egli;

23 from the sons of Joseph, from the tribe of the sons of Manasse, the ruler Aniel son of Ouphi;

24 from the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, the ruler Kamouel son of Sabatha;

25 from the tribe of Zaboulon, the ruler Elisaphan son of Pharnach;

26 from the tribe of the sons of Issachar, the ruler Phaltiel son of Oza;

27 from the tribe of the sons of Aser, the ruler Achior son of Selemi;

28 from the tribe of Nephthali, the ruler Phadael son of Benamioud.

29 These are the ones whom the Lord commanded to apportion for the sons of Israel in the land of Chanaan.

Chapter 35

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses at the west of Moab beside the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying:

2 Prescribe to the sons of Israel, and they shall give to the Levites, from the allotments of their possession, cities to dwell in; and they shall give the suburbs of the cities around them to the Levites.

3 And the cities shall be for them to dwell in, and their separations shall be for their livestock and for all their quadrupeds.

4 And the things adjoining the cities that you shall give to the Levites shall be from the wall of the city and outward two thousand cubits around.

5 And you shall measure outside the city the side toward east, two thousand cubits, and the side toward southwest, two thousand cubits, and the side toward the sea, two thousand cubits, and the side toward north, two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the middle of this for you, and the neighboring lands of the cities.

6 And the cities you shall give to the Levites shall be the six cities of exile, which you shall give for the one who killed to flee there, and besides these, forty-two cities.

7 All the cities you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities, these and their suburbs.

8 And the cities that you shall give from the possession of the sons of Israel: from those with many, many, and from the lesser, fewer. Each, according to his inheritance that they shall inherit, they shall give from the cities to the Levites.

9 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

10 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them: You are crossing over the Jordan into the land of Chanaan,

11 and you shall distinguish cities for yourselves. They shall be exile places for you, for the killer to flee there, everyone who struck a soul involuntarily.

12 And the cities shall be exile places for you from the one acting as kinsman for the blood, and the one who kills shall certainly not die until he stands before the congregation for judgment.

13 And the cities that you shall give, the six cities, shall be exile places for you.

14 You shall give the three cities beyond the Jordan, and you shall give the three cities in the land of Chanaan.

15 It shall be a place of exile for the sons of Israel, and for the proselyte and the sojourner among you these cities shall be as an exile place, for everyone who struck a soul involuntarily to flee there. –

16 But if he strikes him with an iron implement and he comes to an end, he is a killer; by death let the killer be put to death.

17 But if with a stone from a hand, by which he will die in it, he strikes him, and he dies, he is a killer; by death let the killer be put to death.

18 But if with a wooden implement from a hand, by which he will die in it, he strikes him, and he dies, he is a killer; by death let the killer be put to death.

19 The one acting as kinsman for the blood, this one shall kill the one who killed; whenever he meets him, this one shall kill him.

20 But if through hatred he pushes him and throws upon him any implement from ambush, and he dies,

21 or through anger he struck him with the hand, and he dies, by death let the one who struck be put to death; he is a killer. By death let the one who kills be put to death. The one acting as kinsman for the blood shall kill the one who killed when he meets him. –

22 But if suddenly, not through hatred, he pushes him, or throws upon him any implement, not from ambush,

23 or with any stone by which he will die in it, without knowing, and it falls upon him, and he dies, though he was not his enemy nor was seeking to harm him,

24 then the congregation shall judge between the one who struck and between the one acting as kinsman for the blood according to these judgments.

25 And the congregation shall rescue the one who killed from the one acting as kinsman for the blood, and they, the congregation, shall restore him to the city of his place of exile, where he had fled, and he shall dwell there until the great priest whom they anointed with the holy oil dies.

26 But if the one who killed goes out by an exit beyond the borders of the city into which he fled there,

27 and the one acting as kinsman for the blood finds him outside the borders of his city of refuge, and the one acting as kinsman for the blood kills the one who killed, he is not liable.

28 For let him dwell in the city of refuge until the great priest dies, and after the great priest dies, the one who killed shall return to the land of his possession.

29 And these things shall be for you as an ordinance of judgment for your generations in all your dwellings. –

30 Everyone who struck a soul: through witnesses you shall kill the one who killed, and one witness shall not testify against a soul for it to die.

31 And you shall not take ransom concerning a soul from the one who killed, who is liable to be killed; for by death he shall be put to death.

32 You shall not take ransom for fleeing into a city of exile places, to dwell again upon the land, until the great priest dies.

33 And you shall certainly not murder the land in which you dwell; for this blood murders the land, and the land shall not be atoned from the blood shed upon it except upon the blood of the one shedding it.

34 And you shall not defile the land upon which you dwell, upon which I shall encamp among you; for I am the Lord encamping in the midst of the sons of Israel.

Chapter 36

1 And the rulers of the tribe of the sons of Galaad son of Machir son of Manasse, from the tribe of the sons of Joseph, approached and spoke before Moses and before Eleazar the priest and before the rulers of the houses of the paternal families of the sons of Israel,

2 and they said: The Lord commanded our lord to assign the land of the inheritance by allotment to the sons of Israel, and the Lord prescribed to our lord to give the inheritance of Salpaad our brother to his daughters.

3 And they shall become wives to one of the tribes of the sons of Israel, and their allotment shall be removed from the possession of our fathers and shall be added to the inheritance of the tribe to whom they become wives, and it shall be removed from the allotment of our inheritance.

4 But if the release of the sons of Israel comes, then their inheritance shall be added upon the inheritance of the tribe to whom they become wives, and their inheritance shall be removed from the inheritance of the tribe of our paternal family.

5 And Moses commanded the sons of Israel by the command of the Lord, saying: Thus the tribe of the sons of Joseph say.

6 This is the word that the Lord prescribed to the daughters of Salpaad, saying: Where it is pleasing before them, let them become wives; only from the community of their father let them become wives,

7 and an inheritance for the sons of Israel shall not be turned around from tribe to tribe, because the sons of Israel shall each be joined in the inheritance of the tribe of his paternal family.

8 And every daughter acting as next-of-kin to an inheritance from the tribes of the sons of Israel shall become a wife to one from the community of her father, so that the sons of Israel may each act as next-of-kin to his paternal inheritance.

9 And an allotment shall not be turned around from a tribe to another tribe, but the sons of Israel shall each be joined in his inheritance.

10 In the manner that the Lord prescribed to Moses, thus the daughters of Salpaad did,

11 and Thersa and Egla and Melcha and Noua and Maala, daughters of Salpaad, became wives to their cousins.

12 From the community of Manasse of the sons of Joseph they became wives, and their inheritance came upon the tribe of the community of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the ordinances and the judgments that the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses at the west of Moab on the Jordan opposite Jericho.

Deuteronomy

Chapter 1

1 These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan, in the wilderness toward the west near the Red Sea, between Pharan, Tophol and Lobon and Aulon and Katachrysea.

2 An eleven-days’ road in Choreb, toward Mount Seir, as far as Cades Barne.

3 And it happened in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, Moses spoke to all the sons of Israel according to all the things that the Lord commanded him for them,

4 after striking Seon king of the Amorrites, who dwelt in Esebon, and Og king of Basan, who dwelt in Astaroth and in Edrain.

5 Beyond the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to make this law clear, saying:

6 The Lord our God spoke to us in Choreb, saying: Let it be sufficient for you to dwell on this mountain.

7 Turn and set out, you, and enter into the mountain of the Amorrites and toward all those dwelling around Araba, into the mountain and the plain and toward the southwest and the coast, the land of the Chananites and Antilibanus, as far as the great river Euphrates.

8 See, I have delivered the land before you. Enter and inherit the land that I swore to your fathers, Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, to give to them and to their seed after them.

9 And I spoke to you at that time, saying: I shall not be able to bear you alone.

10 The Lord your God multiplied you, and behold, today you are like the stars of heaven in multitude.

11 May the Lord, the God of your fathers, add to you as you are, a thousandfold, and bless you, just as he spoke to you.

12 How shall I be able to bear alone your toil and your substance and your disputes?

13 Give yourselves men who are wise and knowledgeable and understanding for your tribes, and I shall appoint them over you as your leaders.

14 And you answered me and said: The word that you spoke to do is good.

15 And I took from you men who were wise and knowledgeable and understanding and appointed them to lead over you as commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds and commanders of fifties and commanders of tens and document-introducers for your judges.

16 And I commanded your judges at that time, saying: Hear thoroughly between your brothers, and judge justly between a man and between his brother and between his proselyte.

17 You shall not recognize a face in judgment; according to the small and according to the great you shall judge. You shall certainly not shrink from a person’s face, because the judgment is God’s. And the matter that may be hard for you, you shall bring up to me, and I shall hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the words that you shall do.

19 And setting out from Choreb, we traveled through all that great and fearful wilderness that you saw, by the road of the mountain of the Amorrite, just as the Lord our God commanded us, and we came as far as Cades Barne.

20 And I said to you: You have come as far as the mountain of the Amorrite, which the Lord our God is giving you.

21 See, the Lord your God has delivered the land to you before your face. Go up and inherit it, in the manner that the Lord, the God of your fathers, said to you. Do not fear or be cowardly.

22 And you all approached me and said: Let us send men ahead of us, and let them survey the land for us and report to us an answer, the road by which we shall go up in it and the cities into which we shall enter.

23 And the word was pleasing before me, and I took from you twelve men, one man for each tribe.

24 And turning, they went up into the mountain and came as far as the Ravine of the Cluster and spied it out.

25 And they took in their hands some of the fruit of the land and brought it down to us and said: The land that the Lord our God is giving us is good.

26 And you were not willing to go up, and you disobeyed the word of the Lord your God,

27 and you murmured in your tents and said: Because the Lord hates us, he brought us out from the land of Egypt to hand us into the hands of the Amorrites, to utterly destroy us.

28 Where are we going up? Your brothers turned away your heart, saying: A great and numerous nation, and more powerful than us, and great cities walled as far as heaven; but we also saw sons of giants there.

29 And I said to you: Do not be terrified or be afraid of them.

30 The Lord your God, the one going before your face, he shall fight them together with you according to all the things that he did for you in the land of Egypt

31 and in this wilderness that you saw, how the Lord your God nourished you, as a person would nourish his son, along all the road that you traveled until you came to this place.

32 And in this word you did not put trust in the Lord your God,

33 who goes ahead of you on the road to choose a place for you, guiding you by fire at night, showing you the road upon which you go, and by a cloud by day.

34 And the Lord heard the voice of your words and, being provoked, swore, saying:

35 Surely no one of these men shall see this good land that I swore to their fathers,

36 except Chaleb son of Jephonne; he shall see it, and to him and to his sons I shall give the land upon which he stepped, because he was attached to the things toward the Lord.

37 And the Lord was enraged at me because of you, saying: Not even you shall certainly enter there.

38 Jesus son of Nave, who stands beside you, he shall enter there. Strengthen him, because he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 And every young child who today does not know good or evil, these shall enter there, and to these I shall give it, and they shall inherit it.

40 And you, turn and encamp in the wilderness by the road at the Red Sea.

41 And you answered me and said: We sinned before the Lord our God; we, going up, shall wage war according to all the things that the Lord our God commanded us. And each taking up his implements of war and gathering together, you were going up into the mountain.

42 And the Lord said to me: Say to them: You shall not go up, nor shall you wage war, for I am not with you; and you shall certainly not be crushed before your enemies.

43 And I spoke to you, and you did not listen to me, and you transgressed the word of the Lord and, forcing your way, went up into the mountain.

44 And the Amorrite who dwelt on that mountain went out to meet you, and they pursued you as if the bees might do, and they were wounding you from Seir as far as Herma.

45 And sitting down, you wept before the Lord, and the Lord did not listen to your voice or pay attention to you.

46 And you sat in Cades many days, as many days as you ever sat.

Chapter 2

1 And turning, we departed into the wilderness by the road toward Red Sea, in the manner that the Lord spoke to me, and we went around Mount Seir for many days.

2 And the Lord said to me:

3 Let it be sufficient for you to go around this mountain; therefore turn toward north.

4 And command the people, saying: You are passing by through the borders of your brothers, the sons of Esau, who dwell in Seir, and they shall fear you and shall be very wary of you.

5 Do not join war against them, for I shall certainly not give you any of their land, not even a step of a foot, because I have given Mount Seir to the sons of Esau as an allotment.

6 Buy foods from them for silver and eat, and you shall take water by measure from them for silver and drink.

7 For the Lord our God blessed you in every work of your hands. Know thoroughly how you passed through that great and fearful wilderness. Behold, for forty years the Lord your God has been with you; you did not lack a thing. –

8 And we passed by our brothers, the sons of Esau who dwell in Seir, along the road of Araba from Ailon and from Gasiongaber; and turning, we passed by the road through the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the Lord said to me: Do not be hostile toward the Moabites, and do not join war against them, for I shall certainly not give you any of their land as an allotment, because I have given Seir to the sons of Lot to inherit.

10 [The Ommin formerly sat upon it, a great and numerous nation, and strong like the Enakim.

11 They also shall be reckoned as Raphain like the Enakim, and the Moabites name them Ommin.

12 And in Seir the Chorraean formerly sat, and the sons of Esau destroyed them and wiped them out from their face and settled in their place, in the manner that Israel did to the land of his inheritance, which the Lord gave them.]

13 Now therefore rise and set out, you, and pass by the Ravine of Zaret. And we passed by the Ravine of Zaret.

14 And the days in which we traveled from Cades Barne until we passed by the Ravine of Zaret were thirty-eight years, until the entire generation of warrior men fell away dying from the camp, just as God swore to them.

15 And the hand of God was upon them to utterly consume them from the camp, until they fell away. –

16 And it happened when all the warrior men had fallen away dying from the midst of the people,

17 that the Lord spoke to me, saying:

18 You shall pass today by the borders of Moab, Seir,

19 and you shall draw near to the sons of Amman. Do not be hostile toward them, and do not join them in war, for I shall certainly not give you any of the land of the sons of Amman as an allotment, because I have given it to the sons of Lot as an allotment.

20 [It shall be reckoned as a land of Raphain, for the Raphain also formerly dwelt upon it, and the Ammanites name them Zomzommin,

21 a great and numerous nation, and more powerful than you, like the Enakim; and the Lord destroyed them before their face, and they inherited and settled in their place until this day,

22 just as they did for the sons of Esau who dwell in Seir, in the manner that they wiped out the Chorraean from their face and inherited and settled in their place until this day.

23 And the Evaites who dwelt in Aseroth as far as Gaza, and the Cappadocians who came out of Cappadocia, wiped them out and settled in their place.]

24 Now therefore rise and set out and pass by the Ravine of Arnon, you. Behold, I have delivered into your hands Seon king of Esebon, the Amorrite, and his land. Begin to inherit; join war against him.

25 On this day begin to give your trembling and your fear upon the face of all the nations beneath heaven, who, when they hear your name, shall be troubled and shall have birth pangs from your face.

26 And I sent envoys from the wilderness of Kedamoth to Seon king of Esebon with peaceable words, saying:

27 I shall pass through your land; on the road I shall pass. I shall not turn aside right or left.

28 You shall give me food for silver, and I shall eat, and you shall give me water for silver, and I shall drink; only that I shall pass through on foot,

29 just as the sons of Esau who dwell in Seir and the Moabites who dwell in Aroer did for me, until I cross the Jordan into the land that the Lord our God is giving us.

30 And Seon king of Esebon was not willing to let us pass through him, because the Lord our God hardened his spirit and strengthened his heart so that he might be delivered into your hands, as on this day.

31 And the Lord said to me: Behold, I have begun to deliver before your face Seon king of Esebon, the Amorrite, and his land. Begin to inherit his land.

32 And Seon king of Esebon went out to meet us, he and all his people, for war at Jassa.

33 And the Lord our God delivered him before our face, and we struck him and his sons and all his people, 34 and we took control of all his cities at that time and utterly destroyed every city in succession and their women and their children; we left no living captive.

35 Except the livestock we plundered, and we took the spoils of the cities.

36 From Aroer, which is beside the lip of the winter-stream Arnon, and the city that is in the ravine, and as far as the mountain of Galaad, there was no city that escaped us; the Lord our God delivered them all into our hands.

37 But we did not approach the land of the sons of Ammon, all the things adjoining the winter-stream Jabok and the cities in the hill country, just as the Lord our God commanded us. –

Chapter 3

1 And turning, we went up by the road into Basan, and Og king of Basan went out to meet us, he and all his people, for war at Edrain.

2 And the Lord said to me: Do not fear him, because I have delivered him and all his people and all his land into your hands, and you shall do to him as you did to Seon king of the Amorrites, who dwelt in Esebon.

3 And the Lord our God delivered him into our hands, Og king of Basan and all his people, and we struck him until no seed of his was left.

4 And we took control of all his cities at that time; there was no city that we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the country around Argob of the kingdom of Og in Basan,

5 all fortified cities, high walls, gates and bars, apart from the very many cities of the Pherezites.

6 We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Seon king of Esebon, and we utterly destroyed every city in succession and the women and the children.

7 And all the livestock and the spoils of the cities we plundered for ourselves.

8 And at that time we took from the hands of the two kings of the Amorrites the land that was beyond the Jordan, from the winter-stream Arnon and as far as Aermon

9 [the Phoenicians name Aermon Sanior, and the Amorrite named it Sanir],

10 all the cities of Misor and all Galaad and all Basan as far as Selcha and Edrain, cities of the kingdom of Og in Basan.

11 Because only Og king of Basan was left from the Raphain. Behold, his bed was an iron bed; behold, it is at the citadel of the sons of Ammon, nine cubits its length and four cubits its width, by the cubit of a man.

12 And we inherited that land at that time. From Aroer, which is on the lip of the winter-stream Arnon, and half of Mount Galaad and its cities I gave to Reuben and to Gad.

13 And the remainder of Galaad and all Basan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasse, and all the country around Argob, all that Basan; it shall be reckoned as land of Raphain.

14 And Jair son of Manasse took all the country around Argob as far as the borders of Gergasi and Omachathi; he named them after his name, Basan Auoth Jair, until this day.

15 And to Machir I gave Galaad.

16 And to Reuben and to Gad I have given from Galaad as far as the winter-stream Arnon [the middle of the winter-stream is a border] and as far as Jabok; the winter-stream is a border for the sons of Amman.

17 And Araba and the Jordan are a border of Machanareth and as far as the Sea of Araba, the Salt Sea, under Asedoth Phasga toward east. –

18 And I commanded you at that time, saying: The Lord your God gave you this land as an allotment. Armed, go ahead before the face of your brothers, the sons of Israel, every powerful man.

19 Except your wives and your children and your livestock – I know that you have much livestock – let them dwell in your cities that I gave you,

20 until the Lord your God gives your brothers rest as also you, and these also shall inherit the land that the Lord our God is giving them beyond the Jordan, and you shall each return to his inheritance that I gave you.

21 And I commanded Jesus at that time, saying: Your eyes have seen all the things that the Lord our God did to these two kings; thus the Lord our God shall do to all the kingdoms upon which you cross there.

22 You shall not fear, because the Lord our God himself shall fight for you. –

23 And I entreated the Lord at that time, saying:

24 Lord, Lord, you began to show your attendant your strength and your power and the mighty hand and the high arm; for what god is there in heaven or upon the earth who shall do just as you did and according to your strength?

25 Having crossed over, therefore, I shall see this good land that is beyond the Jordan, this good mountain and Antilibanus.

26 And the Lord overlooked me because of you and did not listen to me, and the Lord said to me: Let it be sufficient for you; do not add still more to speak this word.

27 Go up to the summit of the Hewn One, and lifting your eyes, look toward the sea and north and southwest and east, and see with your eyes, because you shall not cross this Jordan.

28 And command Jesus and strengthen him and encourage him, because he shall cross before the face of this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land that you have seen. –

29 And we sat in a wooded valley very near the house of Phogor.

Chapter 4

1 And now, Israel, hear the ordinances and the judgments, as many as I teach you today to do, so that you may live and be multiplied and, entering, inherit the land that the Lord, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

2 You shall not add to the word that I command you, and you shall not remove from it. Guard the commandments of the Lord your God, as many as I command you today.

3 Your eyes have seen all the things that the Lord our God did to Beelphogor, because every person who went after Beelphogor, the Lord your God wiped him out from among you.

4 But you who are attached to the Lord your God all live on this day.

5 See, I have shown you ordinances and judgments, just as the Lord commanded me, to do thus in the land into which you are entering there to inherit it.

6 And you shall guard and do them, because this is your wisdom and understanding before all the nations, whoever hear all these ordinances and shall say: Behold, a wise and knowledgeable people, this great nation.

7 For what great nation is there that has a god drawing near to them, as the Lord our God is in all things for which we may call upon him?

8 And what great nation is there that has righteous ordinances and judgments according to all this law that I give before you today?

9 Attend to yourself and guard your soul greatly, lest you forget all the words that your eyes have seen; and let them not depart from your heart all the days of your life, and you shall instruct your sons and the sons of your sons

10 the day on which you stood before the Lord your God in Choreb on the day of the assembly, when the Lord said to me: Assemble the people to me, and let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live upon the land and may teach their sons.

11 And you approached and stood beneath the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire as far as heaven: darkness, gloom, storm, a loud voice.

12 And the Lord spoke to you from the midst of the fire; you heard a voice of words and saw no likeness, except a voice.

13 And he reported to you his covenant, which he commanded you to do, the ten words, and he wrote them upon two stone tablets.

14 And the Lord commanded me at that time to teach you ordinances and judgments, for you to do them upon the land into which you are entering there to inherit it.

15 And guard your souls greatly, because you saw no likeness on the day when the Lord spoke to you in Choreb on the mountain from the midst of the fire,

16 lest you act lawlessly and make for yourselves a carved likeness, every image, a likeness of a male or female,

17 a likeness of every animal that is upon the land, a likeness of every winged bird that flies beneath heaven,

18 a likeness of every creeping thing that creeps upon the land, a likeness of every fish, as many as are in the waters beneath the land.

19 And do not, having looked up into heaven and seen the sun and the moon and the stars and all the order of heaven, being led astray, bow to them and serve them, which the Lord your God apportioned, them, to all the nations beneath heaven.

20 But God took you and brought you out from the iron furnace, from Egypt, to be an allotted people for him, as on this day.

21 And the Lord was enraged at me concerning the things said by you and swore that I would not cross this Jordan and would not enter into the land that the Lord God is giving you as an allotment.

22 For I am dying in this land and am not crossing this Jordan, but you are crossing and shall inherit this good land.

23 Pay attention, lest you forget the covenant of the Lord your God that he established with you and make for yourselves a carved likeness of all things that the Lord your God prescribed.

24 Because the Lord your God is a consuming fire, a jealous god.

25 But if you bear sons and sons of your sons and you remain long upon the land and act lawlessly and make a carved likeness of anything and do wicked things before the Lord your God to provoke him,

26 I call both heaven and earth to witness to you today that by destruction you shall be destroyed from the land into which you are crossing the Jordan there to inherit it. You shall not prolong days upon it, but rather by wiping out you shall be wiped out.

27 And the Lord shall scatter you among all the nations, and you shall be left few by number among the nations into which the Lord shall lead you there.

28 And there you shall serve other gods, works of human hands, wood and stones, who shall not see or certainly hear, neither certainly eat nor certainly smell.

29 And there you shall seek the Lord your God and shall find him whenever you search him out from your whole heart and from your whole soul in your affliction.

30 And all these words shall find you at the end of the days, and you shall turn to the Lord your God and listen to his voice,

31 because the Lord your God is a compassionate god; he shall not abandon you or certainly wipe you out, and he shall not forget the covenant of your fathers that he swore to them.

32 Ask about the former days that came before you, from the day on which God created a human upon the land, and from one end of heaven as far as the other end of heaven, whether anything has happened according to this great word, whether anything like it has been heard:

33 whether a nation has heard a voice of a living god speaking from the midst of the fire, in the manner that you have heard, and lived;

34 whether God attempted, entering, to take for himself a nation from the midst of a nation, by trial and by signs and by wonders and by war and by a mighty hand and by a high arm and by great visions, according to all the things that the Lord our God did in Egypt before you while you watched,

35 so that you would know that the Lord your God, he is God, and there is no one else besides him.

36 From heaven his voice became audible to discipline you, and upon the land he showed you his great fire, and you heard his words from the midst of the fire.

37 Because he loved your fathers, and he chose their seed after them, you, and he himself brought you out by his great strength from Egypt,

38 to utterly destroy great nations stronger than you from before your face, to bring you in, to give you their land to inherit, just as you have today.

39 And you shall know today and turn in your mind that the Lord your God, he is God in heaven above and upon the land below, and there is no one else besides him.

40 And you shall guard his ordinances and his commandments, as many as I command you today, so that it may become well for you and for your sons after you, so that you may become long-lived upon the land that the Lord your God is giving you for all the days.

41 Then Moses separated three cities beyond the Jordan from the east of the sun,

42 for the killer to flee there who kills his neighbor without knowing and was not hating him before yesterday and the third day; and he shall flee to one of these cities and live:

43 Bosor in the wilderness in the plain land for Reuben, and Ramoth in Galaad for Gaddi, and Gaulon in Basan for Manasse.

44 This is the law that Moses set before the sons of Israel.

45 These are the testimonies and the ordinances and the judgments, as many as Moses spoke to the sons of Israel in the wilderness when they had gone out from the land of Egypt,

46 beyond the Jordan in a ravine near the house of Phogor, in the land of Seon king of the Amorrites, who dwelt in Esebon, whom Moses and the sons of Israel struck when they had gone out from the land of Egypt.

47 And they inherited his land and the land of Og king of Basan, two kings of the Amorrites who were beyond the Jordan toward the east of the sun,

48 from Aroer, which is on the lip of the winter-stream Arnon, and upon Mount Seon, which is Aermon, 49 all Araba beyond the Jordan toward the east of the sun, under Asedoth the Hewn.

Chapter 5

1 And Moses called all Israel and said to them: Hear, Israel, the ordinances and the judgments, as many as I speak in your ears on this day, and you shall learn them and guard to do them.

2 The Lord your God established a covenant with you in Choreb.

3 The Lord did not establish this covenant with your fathers, but rather with you, you who are all here living today.

4 Face against face the Lord spoke to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire –

5 and I had stood between the Lord and you at that time to report to you the words of the Lord, because you were afraid from before the fire and did not go up into the mountain – saying:

6 I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of slavery.

7 There shall be no other gods for you before my face. –

8 You shall not make for yourself an idol or any likeness of as many things as are in heaven above and as many things as are on the land below and as many things as are in the waters beneath the land.

9 You shall not bow down to them, nor shall you ever serve them, because I am the Lord your God, a jealous god, repaying the sins of fathers upon children as far as the third and fourth generation to those who hate me,

10 and doing mercy to thousands, to those who love me and those who keep my ordinances. –

11 You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain, for the Lord will certainly not cleanse the one who takes his name in vain. –

12 Guard the day of the sabbaths, to sanctify it, in the manner that the Lord your God commanded you.

13 Six days you shall labor and do all your works.

14 But on the seventh day are sabbaths to the Lord your God. You shall not do any work on it, you and your sons and your daughter, your servant and your female servant, your ox and your draft animal and all your livestock and the proselyte who sojourns within you, so that your servant and your female servant may rest just as you.

15 And you shall remember that you were a household servant in the land of Egypt and the Lord your God brought you out from there by a mighty hand and by a high arm. Because of this the Lord your God prescribed to you that you guard the day of the sabbaths and sanctify it. –

16 Honor your father and your mother, in the manner that the Lord your God commanded you, so that it may become well for you and so that you may become long-lived upon the land that the Lord your God gives you. –

17 You shall not commit adultery. –

18 You shall not murder. –

19 You shall not steal. –

20 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor, false testimony. –

21 You shall not desire the woman of your neighbor. You shall not desire the house of your neighbor, nor his field, nor his servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his draft animal, nor any of his livestock, nor as many things as belong to your neighbor.

22 These words the Lord spoke to your entire congregation on the mountain from the midst of the fire: darkness, gloom, storm, a loud voice; and he did not add. And he wrote them upon two stone tablets and gave them to me.

23 And it happened when you heard the voice from the midst of the fire and the mountain was burning with fire, that you approached me, all the leaders of your tribes and your council of elders,

24 and you were saying: Behold, the Lord our God showed us his glory, and we heard his voice from the midst of the fire. On this day we saw that God shall speak to a person and he shall live.

25 And now, let us not die, because this great fire shall utterly consume us. If we ourselves continue to hear the voice of the Lord our God any longer, then we shall die.

26 For what flesh is there that has heard a voice of a living god speaking from the midst of the fire as we have and shall live?

27 You approach and hear as many things as the Lord our God may say, and you shall speak to us all the things that the Lord our God may speak to you, and we shall hear and do them.

28 And the Lord heard the voice of your words as you were speaking to me, and the Lord said to me: I heard the voice of the words of this people, as many things as they spoke to you; all the things that they spoke were correct.

29 Who shall give their heart to be thus in them, so as to fear me and guard my commandments all the days, so that it may be well for them and for their sons through the age?

30 Walk, say to them: Turn back, you, to your houses.

31 But you, stand here with me, and I shall speak to you the commandments and the ordinances and the judgments, as many as you shall teach them, and let them do them in the land that I am giving them as an allotment.

32 And you shall guard to do in the manner that the Lord your God commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right or to the left,

33 according to all the road that the Lord your God commanded you to walk upon, so that he may give you rest and it may be well for you and you may become long-lived upon the land that you shall inherit.

Chapter 6

1 And these are the commandments and the ordinances and the judgments, as many as the Lord our God commanded to teach you to do thus in the land into which you are entering there to inherit it,

2 so that you may fear the Lord your God by guarding all his ordinances and his commandments, as many as I command you today, you and your sons and the sons of your sons, all the days of your life, so that you may become long-lived.

3 And hear, Israel, and guard to do them, so that it may be well for you and so that you may be multiplied greatly, just as the Lord, the God of your fathers, spoke, to give you a land flowing with milk and honey.

4 And these are the ordinances and the judgments, as many as the Lord commanded the sons of Israel in the wilderness when they had gone out from the land of Egypt: Hear, Israel; the Lord our God is one Lord.

5 And you shall love the Lord your God from your whole heart and from your whole soul and from your whole power.

6 And these words, as many as I command you today, shall be in your heart and in your soul.

7 And you shall teach them to your sons and speak about them while sitting in your house and traveling on the road and lying down and rising up.

8 And you shall fasten them as a sign upon your hand, and it shall be immovable before your eyes.

9 And you shall write them upon the doorposts of your houses and of your gates.

10 And it shall be when the Lord your God brings you into the land that he swore to your fathers, Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, to give you, great and beautiful cities that you did not build,

11 houses full of all good things that you did not fill, hewn pits that you did not hew out, vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant, and when you have eaten and been filled,

12 pay attention to yourself, lest you forget the Lord your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, out of a house of slavery.

13 You shall fear the Lord your God, and you shall serve him and be joined to him and swear by his name.

14 You shall not go after other gods, from the gods of the nations around you,

15 because the Lord your God among you is a jealous god, lest the Lord your God, becoming angry, be enraged at you and utterly destroy you from the face of the land.

16 You shall not put the Lord your God to the test, in the manner that you put him to the test at Temptation.

17 By guarding, you shall guard the commandments of the Lord your God, the testimonies and the ordinances, as many as he commanded you.

18 And you shall do what is pleasing and good before the Lord your God, so that it may become well for you and you may enter and inherit the good land that the Lord swore to your fathers, 19 to drive out all your enemies from before your face, just as he spoke.

20 And it shall be when your son asks you tomorrow, saying: What are the testimonies and the ordinances and the judgments, as many as the Lord our God commanded us?

21 And you shall say to your son: We were household servants to Pharao in the land of Egypt, and the Lord brought us out from there by a mighty hand and by a high arm.

22 And the Lord gave signs and wonders, great and evil, in Egypt, in Pharao and in his house, before us.

23 And he brought us out from there so that he might bring us in, to give us this land that he swore to give to our fathers.

24 And the Lord commanded us to do all these ordinances, to fear the Lord our God, so that it may be well for us all the days, so that we may live just as also today.

25 And mercy shall be for us if we guard to do all these commandments before the Lord our God, just as the Lord commanded us.

Chapter 7

1 But if the Lord your God brings you into the land into which you are entering there to inherit it, and removes great nations from before your face, the Chettite and Gergesite and Amorrite and Chanaanite and Pherezite and Evite and Jebousite, seven nations, numerous and stronger than you,

2 and the Lord your God shall deliver them into your hands and you shall strike them, with obliteration you shall obliterate them. You shall not establish a covenant with them, nor shall you ever show them mercy.

3 Nor shall you ever intermarry with them. You shall not give your daughter to his son, and you shall not take his daughter for your son.

4 For he shall turn your son away from me, and he shall serve other gods, and the Lord shall be angered with wrath against you and shall utterly destroy you quickly.

5 But thus you shall do to them: You shall take down their altars and crush their pillars and cut down their groves and burn the carved images of their gods with fire.

6 Because you are a holy people to the Lord your God, and the Lord your God preferred you to be a peculiar people for him beyond all the nations that are upon the face of the land.

7 It was not because you are more numerous than all the nations that the Lord preferred you and chose you – for you are the fewest of all the nations –

8 but because the Lord loves you and keeps the oath that he swore to your fathers, the Lord brought you out by a mighty hand and by a high arm and redeemed you out of a house of slavery, from the hand of Pharao king of Egypt.

9 And you shall know that the Lord your God, he is God, a faithful god, who guards covenant and mercy for those who love him and those who guard his commandments, for a thousand generations,

10 and repays those who hate him to their face, to utterly destroy them. And he shall not delay toward those who hate him; to their face he shall repay them.

11 And you shall guard these commandments and ordinances and judgments, as many as I command you today to do.

12 And it shall be whenever you hear all these ordinances and guard and do them, that the Lord your God shall also safeguard for you the covenant and the mercy that he swore to your fathers.

13 And he shall love you and bless you and multiply you, and he shall bless the offspring of your womb and the fruit of your land, your wheat and your wine and your oil, the herds of your cattle and the flocks of your sheep, upon the land that the Lord swore to your fathers to give you.

14 You shall be blessed beyond all the nations. There shall be no childless man or barren woman among you, or among your livestock.

15 And the Lord shall remove from you every infirmity, and all the evil diseases of Egypt that you have seen and as many as you knew, he shall not place upon you, but he shall place them upon all those who hate you.

16 And you shall eat all the spoils of the nations that the Lord your God is giving you. Your eye shall not spare them, and you shall not serve their gods, because this is a stumbling block for you.

17 But if you say in your mind: This nation is more numerous than I am; how shall I be able utterly to destroy them?

18 You shall not fear them. By remembrance you shall remember the things that the Lord your God did to Pharao and to all the Egyptians,

19 the great trials that your eyes saw, those great signs and wonders, the mighty hand and the high arm, how the Lord your God brought you out. Thus the Lord our God shall do to all the nations whose face you fear.

20 And the Lord your God shall send the hornets against them until those left behind and those hidden from you are wiped out.

21 You shall not be wounded from before their face, because the Lord your God is among you, a great and mighty god.

22 And the Lord your God shall consume these nations from before your face little by little. You shall not be able utterly to consume them quickly, lest the land become desolate and the wild beasts multiply against you.

23 And the Lord your God shall deliver them into your hands and shall destroy them with great destruction until he utterly destroys them.

24 And he shall deliver their kings into your hands, and their name shall perish from that place. No one shall stand against your face until you utterly destroy them.

25 You shall burn the carved images of their gods with fire. You shall not desire silver or gold from them and shall not take it for yourself, lest you stumble because of it, because it is an abomination to the Lord your God.

26 And you shall not bring an abomination into your house, and you shall be an anathema like it. With loathing you shall loathe it, and with abomination you shall abhor it, because it is an anathema.

Chapter 8

1 All the commandments that I command you today you shall guard to do, so that you may live and be multiplied and enter and inherit the land that the Lord your God swore to your fathers.

2 And you shall remember all the road by which the Lord your God led you in the wilderness, so that he might afflict you and put you to the test and the things in your heart might be discerned, whether you would guard his commandments or not.

3 And he afflicted you and made you hungry and fed you the manna, which your fathers did not know, so that he might declare to you that a person shall not live on bread alone, but a person shall live on every word that proceeds through the mouth of God.

4 Your garments were not worn down from you; your feet did not become callused. Behold, forty years.

5 And you shall know in your heart that as if a person might discipline his son, thus the Lord your God shall discipline you.

6 And you shall guard the commandments of the Lord your God, to walk in his ways and to fear him.

7 For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good and extensive land, where there are winter-streams of water and springs of depths coming out through the plains and through the mountains,

8 a land of wheat and barley, vines, fig trees, pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey,

9 a land upon which you shall eat your bread not with poverty and shall lack nothing upon it, a land whose stones are iron and from whose mountains you shall mine copper.

10 And you shall eat and be filled and bless the Lord your God upon the good land that he gave you.

11 Pay attention to yourself, lest you forget the Lord your God by not guarding his commandments and his judgments and ordinances, as many as I command you today,

12 lest, after eating and being filled and building beautiful houses and dwelling in them,

13 and when your cattle and your sheep have been multiplied for you, silver and gold have been multiplied for you, and everything that you shall have has been multiplied for you,

14 you be exalted in heart and forget the Lord your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, out of a house of slavery,

15 who led you through that great and fearful wilderness, where there were a biting snake and a scorpion and thirst, where there was no water, who brought out for you from a sheer rock a spring of water,

16 who fed you the manna in the wilderness, which your fathers did not know, so that he might afflict you and put you to the test and do you good at the end of your days.

17 Do not say in your heart: My strength and the might of my hand made this great power for me.

18 And you shall remember the Lord your God, because he gives you strength to make power and so that he may establish his covenant that the Lord swore to your fathers, as today.

19 And it shall be if by forgetting you forget the Lord your God and go after other gods and serve them and bow to them, I call both heaven and earth to witness to you today that by destruction you shall be destroyed.

20 Just as also the remaining nations that the Lord destroys from before your face, thus you shall be destroyed, because you did not listen to the voice of the Lord your God.

Chapter 9

1 Hear, Israel: You are crossing the Jordan today to enter and inherit nations great and stronger than you, great cities walled as far as heaven,

2 a great and numerous and tall people, sons of Enak, whom you know and of whom you have heard: Who shall stand against the face of the sons of Enak?

3 And you shall know today that the Lord your God, he goes before your face. He is a consuming fire. He shall utterly destroy them, and he shall turn them away from before your face, and you shall destroy them, just as the Lord said to you.

4 Do not say in your heart when the Lord your God utterly consumes these nations from before your face, saying: Because of my righteousnesses the Lord brought me in to inherit this good land. But because of the impiety of these nations the Lord shall utterly destroy them from before your face.

5 It is not because of your righteousness or because of the piety of your heart that you are entering to inherit their land, but because of the impiety of these nations the Lord shall utterly destroy them from before your face, and so that he may establish his covenant that he swore to your fathers, Abraham and Isaac and Jacob.

6 And you shall know today that it is not because of your righteousnesses that the Lord your God is giving you this good land to inherit, because you are a stiff-necked people.

7 Remember; do not forget how much you provoked the Lord your God in the wilderness. From the day that you went out from Egypt until you came to this place, you continued being disobedient in the things toward the Lord.

8 And in Choreb you provoked the Lord, and the Lord was enraged against you, to utterly destroy you,

9 when I went up into the mountain to receive the stone tablets, tablets of the covenant that the Lord established with you. And I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I did not eat bread and did not drink water.

10 And the Lord gave me the two stone tablets written by the finger of God, and on them had been written all the words that the Lord spoke to you on the mountain on the day of the assembly.

11 And it happened after forty days and forty nights that the Lord gave me the two stone tablets, tablets of the covenant.

12 And the Lord said to me: Rise, go down quickly from here, because your people whom you brought out from the land of Egypt acted lawlessly. They quickly transgressed from the road that you commanded them; they made for themselves a cast thing.

13 And the Lord said to me: I have spoken to you once and twice, saying: I have seen this people, and behold, they are a stiff-necked people.

14 Leave me to utterly destroy them, and I shall wipe away their name from beneath heaven and make you into a nation great and strong and much more numerous than this one.

15 And turning, I went down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire, and the two tablets were upon my two hands.

16 And when I saw that you had sinned before the Lord your God and made for yourselves a cast thing and transgressed from the road that the Lord commanded you,

17 then, taking hold of the two tablets, I threw them from my two hands and crushed them before you.

18 And I entreated before the Lord a second time, just as also the first, for forty days and forty nights – I did not eat bread and did not drink water – concerning all your sins by which you sinned, doing what was wicked before the Lord your God, to provoke him.

19 And I am terrified because of the anger and the wrath, because the Lord was provoked against you, to utterly destroy you. And the Lord listened to me also at this time.

20 And the Lord was greatly enraged against Aaron, to utterly destroy him, and I prayed also concerning Aaron at that time.

21 And your sin that you made, the calf, I took and burned it with fire and broke it in pieces, grinding it thoroughly until it became fine. And it became like dust, and I threw the dust into the winter-stream that descends from the mountain. –

22 And at Burning and at Temptation and at the Memorials of Desire you were provoking the Lord your God.

23 And when the Lord sent you out from Cades Barne, saying: Go up and inherit the land that I am giving you, you disobeyed the word of the Lord your God and did not trust him and did not listen to his voice.

24 You were disobedient in the things toward the Lord from the day when he became known to you. –

25 And I entreated before the Lord for forty days and forty nights, as many as I entreated – for the Lord said to utterly destroy you –

26 and I prayed to God and said: Lord, Lord, King of the gods, do not utterly destroy your people and your portion, whom you redeemed by your great strength, whom you brought out from the land of Egypt by your great strength and by your mighty hand and by your high arm.

27 Remember Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, your attendants, to whom you swore by yourself. Do not look upon the hardness of this people and their impieties and their sins,

28 lest those dwelling in the land from which you brought us say: Because the Lord was not able to bring them into the land that he told them of, and because he hated them, he brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.

29 And these are your people and your allotment, whom you brought out from the land of Egypt by your great strength and by your high arm.

Chapter 10

1 At that time the Lord said to me: Hew for yourself two stone tablets like the first ones and come up to me onto the mountain. And you shall make for yourself a wooden ark.

2 And I shall write upon the tablets the words that were in the first tablets, which you crushed, and you shall put them into the ark.

3 And I made an ark from incorruptible wood and hewed the two stone tablets like the first ones. And I went up into the mountain, and the two tablets were upon my hands.

4 And he wrote upon the tablets, according to the first writing, the ten words that the Lord spoke to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire, and the Lord gave them to me.

5 And turning, I went down from the mountain and put the tablets into the ark that I made, and they were there, just as the Lord commanded me. –

6 And the sons of Israel departed from Beroth of the sons of Jakim Misadai. There Aaron died and was buried there, and Eleazar his son served as priest in his place.

7 From there they departed to Gadgad, and from Gadgad to Etebatha, a land of winter-streams of water.

8 At that time the Lord distinguished the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to stand before the Lord, to minister, and to invoke his name until this day.

9 Because of this there is no portion and allotment for the Levites among their brothers. The Lord himself is his allotment, just as he said to him.

10 And I had stood on the mountain forty days and forty nights, and the Lord listened to me also at this time, and the Lord was not willing utterly to destroy you.

11 And the Lord said to me: Walk, set out before this people, and let them enter and inherit the land that I swore to their fathers to give them.

12 And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God request from you except to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways and to love him and to serve the Lord your God from your whole heart and from your whole soul,

13 to guard the commandments of the Lord your God and his ordinances, as many as I command you today, so that it may be well for you?

14 Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heaven, the land and all that is in it, belong to the Lord your God.

15 Nevertheless, the Lord preferred your fathers, to love them, and chose their seed after them, you, beyond all the nations, as on this day.

16 And you shall circumcise your hard-heartedness, and you shall no longer harden your neck.

17 For the Lord your God, he is God of the gods and Lord of the lords, the great and strong and fearsome God, who does not marvel at a face, nor shall he certainly take a gift, 18 who does judgment for the proselyte and orphan and widow, and loves the proselyte, to give him bread and a garment.

19 And you shall love the proselyte, for you were proselytes in the land of Egypt.

20 You shall fear the Lord your God, and you shall serve him and be joined to him and swear by his name.

21 He is your boast and he is your God, who did among you these great and glorious things that your eyes saw.

22 With seventy souls your fathers went down into Egypt, but now the Lord your God made you like the stars of heaven in multitude.

Chapter 11

1 And you shall love the Lord your God and guard his observances and his ordinances and his judgments all the days.

2 And you shall know today that it was not your children, as many as do not know and did not see the discipline of the Lord your God and his great deeds and the mighty hand and the high arm,

3 and his signs and his wonders, as many as he did in the midst of Egypt to Pharao king of Egypt and to all his land,

4 and as many things as he did to the force of the Egyptians, their chariots and their horse force, how the water of the Red Sea flooded over their face as they pursued from behind you, and the Lord destroyed them until this day,

5 and as many things as he did to you in the wilderness until you came to this place,

6 and as many things as he did to Dathan and Abiron, sons of Eliab son of Reuben, whom the land, opening its mouth, swallowed, and their houses and their tents and all their substance that was with them, in the midst of all Israel,

7 because your eyes have seen all the great works of the Lord, as many as he did to you today.

8 And you shall guard all his commandments, as many as I command you today, so that you may live and be multiplied and, entering, inherit the land into which you are crossing the Jordan there to inherit it,

9 so that you may become long-lived upon the land that the Lord swore to your fathers to give to them and to their seed after them, a land flowing with milk and honey.

10 For the land into which you are entering there to inherit it is not like the land of Egypt from which you went out, where they sow the seed and water it with their feet like a vegetable garden.

11 But the land into which you are entering there to inherit it is a mountainous and plain land; it drinks water from the rain of heaven,

12 a land that the Lord your God oversees. Continually the eyes of the Lord your God are upon it, from the beginning of the year even until the completion of the year.

13 But if by hearing you listen to all his commandments, as many as I command you today, to love the Lord your God and to serve him from your whole heart and from your whole soul,

14 then he shall give the rain to your land in season, early and late, and you shall bring in your wheat and your wine and your oil.

15 And he shall give fodder in your fields for your livestock, and when you have eaten and been filled,

16 pay attention to yourself, lest your heart be broadened and you transgress and serve other gods and bow to them,

17 and the Lord, enraged with anger against you, close up heaven, and there shall be no rain, and the land shall not give its fruit, and you shall perish quickly from the good land that the Lord gave you.

18 And you shall put these words into your heart and into your soul, and you shall fasten them as a sign upon your hand, and it shall be immovable before your eyes.

19 And you shall teach your children to speak them while sitting in the house and traveling on the road and lying down and rising up.

20 And you shall write them upon the doorposts of your houses and of your gates,

21 so that you may live many days, and the days of your sons upon the land that the Lord swore to your fathers to give them may be many, like the days of heaven upon the land.

22 And it shall be if by hearing you hear all these commandments, as many as I command you today to do, to love the Lord our God and to walk in all his ways and to be joined to him,

23 that the Lord shall drive out all these nations from before your face, and you shall inherit nations great and stronger than you.

24 Every place where the track of your foot may tread shall be yours. From the wilderness and Antilibanus and from the great river, the river Euphrates, and as far as the sea toward the west shall be your borders.

25 No one shall stand against your face. The Lord your God shall place your trembling and your fear upon the face of all the land on which you may set foot, in the manner that the Lord spoke to you.

26 Behold, I give before you today a blessing and a curse:

27 the blessing, if you hear the commandments of the Lord your God that I command you today,

28 and the curses, if you do not hear the commandments of the Lord your God, as many as I command you today, and you are led astray from the road that I commanded you, going to serve other gods that you do not know.

29 And it shall be when the Lord your God brings you into the land into which you are crossing there to inherit it, that you shall give the blessing upon Mount Garizin and the curse upon Mount Gaibal.

30 [Behold, are these not beyond the Jordan, behind the road of the setting of the sun, in the land of Chanaan, the one dwelling toward the west, adjoining Golgol, near the high oak?]

31 For you are crossing the Jordan, entering to inherit the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an allotment all the days, and you shall inherit it and dwell in it.

32 And you shall guard yourselves to do all his commands and these judgments, as many as I give before you today.

Chapter 12

1 And these are the commands and the judgments that you shall guard to do upon the land that the Lord, the God of your fathers, is giving you as an allotment, all the days that you live upon the land.

2 By destruction you shall destroy all the places in which those whom you are inheriting served their gods there, upon the high mountains and upon the dunes and beneath a dense tree.

3 And you shall dig down their altars and crush their pillars and cut down their groves and burn the carved images of their gods with fire, and their name shall perish from that place.

4 You shall not do thus to the Lord your God,

5 but rather to the place that the Lord your God may choose in one of your tribes, to name his name there, for it to be called upon; and you shall seek out and enter there.

6 And you shall bring there your whole burnt offerings and your sacrifices and your firstfruits and your vows and your voluntary offerings and the firstborn of your cattle and of your sheep.

7 And you shall eat there before the Lord your God and rejoice over everything upon which you may lay your hand, you and your houses, because the Lord your God blessed you.

8 You shall not do all the things that we do here today, each doing what is pleasing before him,

9 for you have not come until now into the rest and into the inheritance that the Lord your God is giving you.

10 And you shall cross the Jordan and dwell upon the land that the Lord your God is causing you to inherit, and he shall give you rest from all your enemies around you, and you shall dwell with security.

11 And the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there shall be the place to which you shall bring all the things that I command you today: your whole burnt offerings and your sacrifices and your tithes and the firstfruits of your hands and your gifts and every choice thing among your gifts, as many as you may vow to your God.

12 And you shall rejoice before the Lord your God, you and your sons and your daughters, your servants and your female servants and the Levite who is at your gates, because there is no portion or allotment for him with you.

13 Pay attention to yourself, lest you offer up your whole burnt offerings in every place that you may see,

14 but rather in the place that the Lord your God may choose in one of your tribes. There you shall bring up your whole burnt offerings, and there you shall do all the things that I command you today.

15 But according to every desire of yours you shall slaughter and eat meat according to the blessing of the Lord your God that he gave you in every city. The unclean among you and the clean shall eat it together, like a gazelle or a deer.

16 Except you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it out upon the land like water.

17 You shall not be able to eat in your cities the tithe of your wheat and your wine and your oil, the firstborn of your cattle and your sheep, and all the vows, as many as you may vow, and your acknowledgments and the firstfruits of your hands,

18 but rather you shall eat them before the Lord your God in the place that the Lord your God may choose for himself, you and your son and your daughter, your servant and your female servant and the proselyte who is in your cities, and you shall rejoice before the Lord your God over everything upon which you may lay your hand.

19 Pay attention to yourself, lest you abandon the Levite for all the time that you may live upon the land.

20 But if the Lord your God widens your borders, just as he spoke to you, and you say: I shall eat meat, if your soul desires so as to eat meat, then according to every desire of your soul you shall eat meat.

21 But if the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there is farther away from you, then you shall slaughter from your cattle and from your sheep that God may give you, in the manner that I commanded you, and you shall eat in your cities according to the desire of your soul.

22 As the gazelle and the deer are eaten, thus you shall eat it; the unclean among you and the clean shall eat it alike.

23 Pay close attention not to eat blood, because its blood is soul. The soul shall not be eaten with the meat.

24 You shall not eat it; you shall pour it out upon the land like water.

25 You shall not eat it, so that it may become well for you and for your sons after you, if you do what is good and pleasing before the Lord your God.

26 Except your holy things, if they come to be for you, and your vows, taking them, you shall come to the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there.

27 And you shall make your whole burnt offerings. You shall bring the meat up upon the altar of the Lord your God, but you shall pour the blood of your sacrifices toward the base of the altar of the Lord your God, and you shall eat the meat.

28 Guard and hear and you shall do all the words that I command you, so that it may become well for you and for your sons through the age, if you do what is good and pleasing before the Lord your God.

29 But if the Lord your God utterly destroys from before your face the nations into which you are entering there to inherit their land, and you inherit them and dwell in their land,

30 pay attention to yourself, lest you seek out to follow them after they have been utterly destroyed from before your face. You shall certainly not seek out their gods, saying: How do these nations act toward their gods? I also shall do so.

31 You shall not do thus to the Lord your God, for they did for their gods the abominations that the Lord hated, because they burn their sons and their daughters with fire for their gods.

Chapter 13

1 Every word that I command you today, this you shall guard to do. You shall not add to it or remove from it.

2 But if a prophet or one dreaming a dream rises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder,

3 and the sign or the wonder of which he spoke to you comes, saying: Let us go and serve other gods that you do not know,

4 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or of that one dreaming that dream, because the Lord your God is testing you, to know whether you love the Lord your God from your whole heart and from your whole soul.

5 After the Lord your God you shall go, and you shall fear him and guard his commandments and listen to his voice and be added to him.

6 And that prophet or that one dreaming the dream shall die, for he spoke to lead you astray from the Lord your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, who redeemed you from slavery, to thrust you out from the road upon which the Lord your God commanded you to walk. And you shall make the evil one disappear from among you yourselves.

7 But if your brother from your father or from your mother, or your son or your daughter or the woman who is in your bosom or the friend equal to your soul secretly urges you, saying: Let us walk and serve other gods that you and your fathers did not know,

8 from the gods of the nations around you, those near you or those far from you, from one end of the land as far as the other end of the land,

9 you shall not consent with him and shall not listen to him, and your eye shall not spare him; you shall not yearn for him, nor shall you ever shelter him.

10 By reporting, you shall report concerning him. Your hands shall be upon him first to kill him, and the hands of all the people last.

11 And they shall stone him with stones, and he shall die, because he sought to turn you away from the Lord your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, out of a house of slavery.

12 And all Israel, hearing, shall fear, and they shall not add still more to do according to this wicked matter among you.

13 But if you hear, in one of your cities that the Lord your God is giving you to dwell there, people saying:

14 Lawless men came out from among you and turned away all those dwelling in their city, saying: Let us go and serve other gods that you did not know,

15 then you shall inquire and investigate thoroughly, and behold, the word is clearly true: this abomination has happened among you,

16 by killing you shall kill all those dwelling in that city with slaughter by the sword. With an anathema you shall anathematize it and everything in it.

17 And you shall gather all its spoils into its thoroughfares and burn the city with fire and all its spoils all together before the Lord your God, and it shall be uninhabited through the age; it shall not be rebuilt any longer.

18 Nothing from the anathema shall be joined to your hand, so that the Lord may turn from the rage of his anger and give you mercy and show you mercy and multiply you, in the manner that the Lord swore to your fathers,

19 if you listen to the voice of the Lord your God, to guard all his commandments, as many as I command you today, to do what is good and pleasing before the Lord your God.

Chapter 14

1 You are sons of the Lord your God. You shall not gash yourselves, and you shall not place a bald patch between your eyes over a dead person.

2 Because you are a holy people to the Lord your God, and the Lord your God chose you to become a peculiar people for him from all the nations upon the face of the land.

3 You shall not eat any abomination.

4 These are the animals that you shall eat: a calf from cattle and a lamb from sheep and a young goat from goats,

5 a deer and a gazelle and a buffalo and a goat-deer and a white-rump, an oryx and a camelopard.

6 Every animal that divides the hoof and splits the claws into two divisions of the hoof and brings up cud among the animals, these you shall eat.

7 And these you shall not eat from those that bring up cud and from those that divide the hooves and split the claws: the camel and the hare and the hyrax, because they bring up cud but do not divide the hoof; these are unclean for you.

8 And the pig, because it divides the hoof and splits the claws of the hoof but does not chew cud, this is unclean for you. You shall not eat from their flesh and shall not touch their carcasses. –

9 And these you shall eat from all the things in the waters: all the things in them that have fins and scales you shall eat.

10 And all the things that do not have fins and scales you shall not eat; they are unclean for you. –

11 Every clean bird you shall eat.

12 And these you shall not eat from among them: the eagle and the griffon-vulture and the sea eagle,

13 and the vulture and the kite and those like it,

14 and every raven and those like it,

15 and the ostrich and the owl and the gull,

16 and the heron and the swan and the ibis,

17 and the cormorant and the hawk and those like it and the hoopoe and the night raven,

18 and the pelican and the plover and those like it and the purple swamphen and the bat.

19 All the creeping things among the flying creatures are unclean for you; you shall not eat from them.

20 Every clean flying creature you shall eat. –

21 You shall not eat anything dead of itself. It shall be given to the sojourner who is in your cities, and he shall eat it, or you shall give it over to the foreigner, because you are a holy people to the Lord your God. – You shall not boil a lamb in its mother’s milk.

22 You shall tithe a tenth of every yield of your seed, the yield of your field, year by year,

23 and you shall eat it before the Lord your God in the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there. You shall bring the tithes of your wheat and your wine and your oil, the firstborn of your cattle and your sheep, so that you may learn to fear the Lord your God all the days.

24 But if the road becomes far from you and you are not able to bring them up, because the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there is far from you, because the Lord your God shall bless you,

25 then you shall exchange them for silver and take the silver in your hands and travel to the place that the Lord your God may choose.

26 And you shall give the silver for anything that your soul may desire, for cattle or for sheep, for wine or for sikera or for anything that your soul may desire, and you shall eat there before the Lord your God and rejoice, you and your house,

27 and the Levite who is in your cities, because there is no portion or allotment for him with you. –

28 After three years you shall bring out all the tithe of your yields; in that year you shall place it in your cities,

29 and the Levite shall come, because there is no portion or allotment for him with you, and the proselyte and the orphan and the widow who is in your cities, and they shall eat and be filled, so that the Lord your God may bless you in all the works that you may do.

Chapter 15

1 After seven years you shall make a release.

2 And thus is the command of the release: You shall release every private debt that your neighbor owes you, and you shall not exact it from your brother, because a release has been proclaimed to the Lord your God.

3 From the foreigner you shall exact whatever of yours may be with him, but for your brother you shall make a release of your debt.

4 Because there shall be no needy person among you, because by blessing the Lord your God shall bless you in the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an allotment to inherit it,

5 if by hearing you listen to the voice of the Lord your God, to guard and do all these commandments, as many as I command you today.

6 Because the Lord your God blessed you in the manner that he spoke to you, and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow, and you shall rule many nations, but they shall not rule you.

7 But if there comes to be among you a needy person from among your brothers, in one of your cities in the land that the Lord your God is giving you, you shall not withhold your heart, nor shall you ever tightly close your hand from your brother who is in need.

8 By opening, you shall open your hands to him; with a loan you shall lend him as much as he needs, according to as much as he lacks.

9 Pay attention to yourself, lest there be a secret matter in your heart, a lawless thing, saying: The seventh year, the year of release, is drawing near, and your eye becomes wicked toward your brother who is in need, and you shall not give to him, and he shall cry against you to the Lord, and there shall be great sin among you.

10 By giving, you shall give to him, and with a loan you shall lend him as much as he needs, and you shall not be grieved in your heart while you give to him, because on account of this matter the Lord your God shall bless you in all your works and in everything upon which you may lay your hand.

11 For a needy person shall certainly not cease from the land. Because of this I command you to do this matter, saying: By opening, you shall open your hands to your poor brother and to the one in need who is upon your land.

12 But if your brother, a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you, he shall serve you six years, and in the seventh you shall send him out free from you.

13 But when you send him out free from you, you shall not send him out empty.

14 With provisions you shall provision him from your sheep and from your grain and from your winepress. Just as the Lord your God blessed you, you shall give to him.

15 And you shall remember that you were a household servant in the land of Egypt and the Lord your God redeemed you from there. Because of this I command you to do this matter.

16 But if he says to you: I shall not go out from you, because he has loved you and your house, because it is well for him beside you,

17 then you shall take the awl and pierce his ear against the door, and he shall be a household servant for you through the age. And you shall do likewise to your female servant.

18 It shall not be hard before you when they are sent out free from you, because for the annual wage of a hired worker he served you six years. And the Lord your God shall bless you in all the things that you may do.

19 Every firstborn that may be born among your cattle and among your sheep, the males, you shall sanctify to the Lord your God. You shall not work with your firstborn calf, and you shall certainly not shear the firstborn of your sheep.

20 Before the Lord you shall eat it year from year in the place that the Lord your God may choose, you and your house.

21 But if there is a blemish in it, lame or blind or indeed any evil blemish, you shall not sacrifice it to the Lord your God.

22 In your cities you shall eat it; the unclean among you and the clean shall eat it alike, like a gazelle or a deer.

23 Except you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it out upon the land like water.

Chapter 16

1 Guard the month of the new things, and you shall make the pascha for the Lord your God, because in the month of the new things you went out from Egypt by night.

2 And you shall sacrifice the pascha to the Lord your God, sheep and cattle, in the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there.

3 You shall not eat leaven with it. Seven days you shall eat unleavened things with it, bread of affliction, because you went out from Egypt in haste, so that you may remember the day of your departure from the land of Egypt all the days of your life.

4 Leaven shall not be seen among you in all your borders for seven days, and none of the meat that you may sacrifice in the evening on the first day shall lie overnight until morning.

5 You shall not be able to sacrifice the pascha in any of your cities that the Lord your God is giving you,

6 but rather in the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there you shall sacrifice the pascha in the evening toward the setting of the sun, at the time when you went out from Egypt,

7 and you shall boil and roast and eat it in the place that the Lord your God may choose, and you shall turn back in the morning and go to your houses.

8 Six days you shall eat unleavened things, and on the seventh day a departure, a feast to the Lord your God. You shall do no work in it except as much as shall be done for a soul. –

9 Seven complete weeks you shall count out for yourself. When you begin the sickle upon the harvest, you shall begin to count out seven weeks.

10 And you shall make a feast of weeks for the Lord your God according as your hand has strength, as much as he may give you, according as the Lord your God has blessed you.

11 And you shall rejoice before the Lord your God, you and your son and your daughter, your servant and your female servant and the Levite in your cities and the proselyte and the orphan and the widow among you, in the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there,

12 and you shall remember that you were a household servant in the land of Egypt, and you shall guard and do these commandments. –

13 You shall make a feast of tents for yourself for seven days when you gather in from your threshing floor and from your winepress,

14 and you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your servant and your female servant and the Levite and the proselyte and the orphan and the widow who is in your cities.

15 Seven days you shall celebrate a feast for the Lord your God in the place that the Lord your God may choose for himself. And if the Lord your God blesses you in all your yields and in every work of your hands, you shall be rejoicing. –

16 Three times in the year every male of yours shall appear before the Lord your God in the place that the Lord may choose, at the feast of unleavened things and at the feast of weeks and at the feast of tent-pitching. You shall not appear before the Lord your God empty.

17 Each according to the strength of your hands, according to the blessing of the Lord your God that he gave you.

18 Judges and scribal officers you shall appoint for yourself in all your cities that the Lord your God is giving you, by tribes, and they shall judge the people with just judgment.

19 They shall not turn aside judgment; they shall not recognize a face or take a gift, for gifts blind the eyes of the wise and remove the words of the righteous.

20 Justly you shall pursue what is just, so that you may live and, entering, inherit the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

21 You shall not plant for yourself a grove, any tree, beside the altar of the Lord your God that you make for yourself.

22 You shall not set up for yourself a pillar, which the Lord your God hated.

Chapter 17

1 You shall not sacrifice to the Lord your God a calf or a sheep in which there is a blemish, any evil thing, because it is an abomination to the Lord your God.

2 But if there is found among you, in one of your cities that the Lord your God is giving you, a man or a woman who does what is evil before the Lord your God, to transgress his covenant,

3 and, going, they serve other gods and bow to them, to the sun or the moon or any of the things of the order of heaven, which he did not command,

4 and it is reported to you, you shall seek out thoroughly, and behold, the matter has truly happened, this abomination has happened in Israel,

5 then you shall bring out that man or that woman, and you shall stone them with stones, and they shall die.

6 Upon two witnesses or upon three witnesses the one who is to die shall die; he shall not die upon one witness.

7 And the hand of the witnesses shall be upon him first to put him to death, and the hand of all the people last; and you shall remove the evil one from among you yourselves.

8 But if a matter in judgment is beyond your ability, between blood and blood and between judgment and judgment and between touch and touch and between dispute and dispute, matters of judgment in your cities, then, rising, you shall go up to the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there,

9 and you shall come to the priests, the Levites, and to the judge who may be in those days, and after seeking out they shall report the judgment to you.

10 And you shall do according to the matter that they may report to you from the place that the Lord your God may choose for his name to be called there, and you shall carefully guard to do according to everything that may be laid down as law for you.

11 According to the law and according to the judgment that they may tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside from the word that they may report to you, right or left.

12 And the man who may act in arrogance so as not to obey the priest who stands to minister in the name of the Lord your God or the judge who may be in those days, that man shall die, and you shall remove the evil one from Israel.

13 And all the people, hearing, shall fear and shall not act impiously any longer.

14 But if you enter the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an allotment and inherit it and dwell upon it and say: I shall appoint a ruler over myself just as the other nations around me,

15 by appointing you shall appoint over yourself a ruler whom the Lord your God may choose. From your brothers you shall appoint a ruler over yourself; you shall not be able to appoint over yourself a foreign man, because he is not your brother.

16 Because he shall not multiply horses for himself, nor shall he ever turn the people back to Egypt so that he may multiply horses for himself, for the Lord said: You shall not add to return by this road any longer.

17 And he shall not multiply wives for himself, nor shall his heart turn away; and silver and gold he shall not multiply for himself exceedingly.

18 And it shall be when he sits upon his rule, he shall write for himself this second law into a book from the Levitical priests,

19 and it shall be with him, and he shall read in it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear the Lord his God, to guard all these commandments and to do these ordinances,

20 so that his heart may not be raised above his brothers, so that he may not transgress from the commandments right or left, that he and his sons may live long in his rule among the sons of Israel.

Chapter 18

1 The priests, the Levites, the whole tribe of Levi, shall have no portion or allotment with Israel. The Lord’s fruit-offerings are their allotment; they shall eat them.

2 But they shall have no allotment among their brothers; the Lord himself is his allotment, just as he said to him.

3 And this is the judgment for the priests, the things from the people, from those sacrificing the sacrifices, whether a calf or a sheep: he shall give to the priest the arm and the jaws and the stomach.

4 And the firstfruits of your wheat and your wine and your oil and the firstfruit of the shearings of your sheep you shall give to him,

5 because the Lord your God chose him from all your tribes to stand before the Lord your God to minister and to bless in his name, he and his sons among the sons of Israel. –

6 But if the Levite comes from one of your cities, from among all the sons of Israel, where he sojourns, as his soul desires, to the place that the Lord may choose,

7 then he shall minister in the name of the Lord his God like all his brothers the Levites who stand there before the Lord.

8 An apportioned portion he shall eat, apart from the sale according to family.

9 But if you enter the land that the Lord your God is giving you, you shall not learn to do according to the abominations of those nations.

10 There shall not be found among you one purifying his son or his daughter in fire, one divining a divination, one taking omens from utterances and one auguring, a sorcerer,

11 one chanting a charm, a belly-speaker and an observer of portents, one questioning the dead.

12 For everyone doing these things is an abomination to the Lord your God, and because of these abominations the Lord shall utterly destroy them from you.

13 You shall be complete before the Lord your God.

14 For these nations, whom you are inheriting, will listen to omens and divinations, but to you the Lord your God has not given thus.

15 A prophet from your brothers like me the Lord your God shall raise up for you; you shall listen to him

16 according to all that you asked from the Lord your God at Choreb on the day of the assembly, saying: We shall not add to hear the voice of the Lord our God, and we shall not see this great fire any longer, nor shall we die.

17 And the Lord said to me: All that they spoke is right.

18 I shall raise up for them a prophet from their brothers like you and put my word in his mouth, and he shall speak to them according to all that I may command him.

19 And the man who does not listen to all that the prophet may speak in my name, I shall exact it from him.

20 Except the prophet who may act impiously to speak in my name a word that I did not command him to speak, and who may speak in the name of other gods: that prophet shall die.

21 But if you say in your heart: How shall we know the word that the Lord did not speak?

22 Whatever the prophet may speak in the name of the Lord, and the word does not happen and does not come about, this is the word that the Lord did not speak. That prophet spoke in impiety; you shall not keep away from him.

Chapter 19

1 But if the Lord your God makes disappear the nations whose land your God is giving you, and you inherit them and dwell in their cities and in their houses,

2 you shall set apart three cities for yourself in the midst of your land that the Lord your God is giving you.

3 Measure out the road for yourself and divide into three the borders of your land that the Lord your God divides for you, and there shall be refuge there for every killer.

4 And this shall be the command concerning the killer who may flee there and live: whoever strikes his neighbor involuntarily, not having hated him before yesterday and before the third day,

5 and whoever enters the thicket with his neighbor to gather wood, and his hand is knocked away with the axe while cutting the wood, and the iron, falling out from the wood, happens upon his neighbor and he dies, this one shall flee to one of these cities and live,

6 lest the near kinsman of the blood pursue after the killer, because his heart is overheated, and overtake him if the road is longer, and strike his soul, and he dies, though for this man there is no judgment of death, because he had not hated him before yesterday and before the third day.

7 Because of this I command you this word, saying: Three cities you shall set apart for yourself.

8 But if the Lord your God widens your borders in the manner that he swore to your fathers, and the Lord gives you all the land that he said he would give to your fathers,

9 if you listen to do all these commandments that I command you today, to love the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways all the days, then you shall add for yourself three more cities to these three,

10 and innocent blood shall not be poured out in your land that the Lord your God is giving you as an allotment, and you shall not be liable for blood.

11 But if there comes to be a man hating his neighbor, and he lies in wait for him and rises against him and strikes his soul, and he dies, and the man flees to one of these cities,

12 then the council of elders of his city shall send and take him from there and hand him into the hands of the near kinsman of the blood, and he shall die.

13 Your eye shall not spare him, and you shall cleanse the innocent blood from Israel, and it shall be well for you.

14 You shall not move the boundaries of your neighbor that your fathers set in your inheritance, which you inherited in the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an allotment.

15 One witness shall not stand to testify against a person concerning any injustice and concerning any wrongdoing and concerning any sin that he may sin. Upon the mouth of two witnesses and upon the mouth of three witnesses every matter shall stand.

16 But if an unjust witness takes his stand against a person, recounting his impiety,

17 then the two men who have the dispute shall stand before the Lord and before the priests and before the judges who may be in those days,

18 and the judges shall examine carefully, and behold, an unjust witness has testified unjustly; he stood against his brother,

19 and you shall do to him in the manner that he acted wickedly to do against his brother, and you shall remove the evil one from among you yourselves.

20 And those remaining, hearing, shall fear and shall not add still more to do according to this evil matter among you.

21 Your eye shall not spare him: soul for soul, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Chapter 20

1 But if you go out to war against your enemies and see horse and rider and a people more numerous than you, you shall not fear them, because the Lord your God is with you, the one who brought you up from the land of Egypt.

2 And it shall be when you draw near to the war, the priest, drawing near, shall speak to the people

3 and say to them: Hear, Israel. You are going today to war against your enemies. Let not your heart be weakened; do not fear or be shattered or turn aside from before their face,

4 because the Lord your God goes before with you to fight together with you against your enemies, to rescue you.

5 And the scribes shall speak to the people, saying: Who is the man who built a new house and has not inaugurated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the war and another man inaugurate it.

6 And who is the man who planted a vineyard and has not rejoiced from it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the war and another man rejoice from it.

7 And who is the man who has betrothed a woman and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the war and another man take her.

8 And the scribes shall add to speak to the people and say: Who is the man who is afraid and cowardly in heart? Let him go and return to his house, so that he may not make the heart of his brother cowardly like his own.

9 And it shall be when the scribes cease speaking to the people, they shall appoint rulers of the army leading the people.

10 But if you approach a city to make war against it and call them out with peace,

11 If they answer you peaceably and open to you, then all the people found in it shall be subject to tribute for you and obedient to you.

12 But if they do not obey you and make war against you, you shall besiege it,

13 and the Lord your God shall hand it into your hands, and you shall strike every male of it with slaughter by the sword,

14 except the women and the baggage and all the livestock and everything that may be in the city; and all the equipment you shall plunder for yourself, and you shall eat all the plunder of your enemies that the Lord your God is giving you.

15 Thus you shall do to all the cities that are very far from you, which are not from the cities of these nations.

16 But behold, from the cities of these nations whose land the Lord your God is giving you to inherit, you shall not capture alive from them anything breathing,

17 but with an anathema you shall anathematize them: the Chettite and Amorrite and Chanaanite and Pherezite and Evite and Jebousite and Gergesite, in the manner that the Lord your God commanded you,

18 so that they may not teach you to do all their abominations that they did for their gods, and you shall sin before the Lord your God.

19 But if you sit around a city for many days to make war against it for its capture, you shall not utterly destroy its trees by laying iron upon them; rather, you shall eat from it, but you shall not cut it down. Is the tree in the field a human to enter from before your face into the palisade?

20 But a tree that you know is not fruit-eatable, this you shall utterly destroy and cut down and build a palisade against the city that makes war against you, until it is handed over.

Chapter 21

1 But if a wounded person is found in the land that the Lord your God is giving you to inherit, fallen in the plain, and they do not know who struck him,

2 your council of elders and your judges shall go out and measure to the cities around the wounded person,

3 and it shall be the city nearest the wounded person; the council of elders of that city shall take a heifer from the cattle that has not worked and has not drawn a yoke,

4 and the council of elders of that city shall bring the heifer down into a rugged ravine that has not been worked or sown, and they shall cut the sinews of the heifer in the ravine.

5 And the priests, the Levites, shall come near – because the Lord your God chose them to stand beside him and to bless upon his name, and upon their mouth shall be every dispute and every touch – ,

6 and all the council of elders of that city, those nearest the wounded person, shall wash their hands upon the head of the heifer whose sinews were cut in the ravine,

7 and answering they shall say: Our hands did not pour out this blood, and our eyes have not seen.

8 Be gracious to your people Israel, whom you redeemed, Lord, from the land of Egypt, so that innocent blood may not come to be among your people Israel. And the blood shall be atoned for them.

9 But you shall remove the innocent blood from among you yourselves if you do what is good and pleasing before the Lord your God.

10 But if you go out to war against your enemies and the Lord your God hands them into your hands and you plunder their plunder

11 and see among the plunder a woman beautiful in appearance and set your mind on her and take her for yourself as a wife,

12 you shall bring her inside into your house and shave her head and pare her nails

13 and remove the garments of her captivity from her, and she shall sit in your house and weep for her father and mother a month of days, and after these things you shall enter to her and dwell together with her, and she shall be your wife.

14 And it shall be if you do not want her, you shall send her out free, and by sale she shall not be sold for silver. You shall not disregard her, because you humbled her.

15 But if a man comes to have two wives, one of them loved and one of them hated, and the loved and the hated bear children to him, and a firstborn son comes to be of the hated one,

16 then it shall be on whatever day he allots his possessions as an inheritance to his sons, he shall not be able to make the loved one’s son firstborn, overlooking the firstborn son of the hated one,

17 but he shall recognize the firstborn son of the hated one, to give him double from everything that may be found for him, because this one is the beginning of his children, and the firstborn rights belong to him.

18 But if someone has a son disobedient and a provoker, not obeying the voice of his father and the voice of his mother, and they discipline him and he does not listen to them,

19 then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the council of elders of his city and to the gate of his place

20 and say to the men of their city: This son of ours disobeys and provokes, does not obey our voice; feasting at banquets, he is drunk with wine.

21 And the men of his city shall stone him with stones, and he shall die; and you shall remove the evil one from among you yourselves, and those remaining, hearing, shall fear.

22 But if there comes to be in someone a sin, a judgment of death, and he dies and you hang him on wood,

23 his body shall not sleep overnight on the wood, but with burial you shall bury him on that day, because everyone hanging on wood is cursed by God; and you shall not defile the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an allotment.

Chapter 22

1 Do not, upon seeing your brother’s calf or his sheep wandering on the road, overlook them. By turning you shall turn them back to your brother and return them to him.

2 But if your brother is not near you and you do not know him, you shall gather them inside into your house, and they shall be with you until your brother seeks them, and you shall return them to him.

3 Thus you shall do for his donkey, and thus you shall do for his garment, and thus you shall do for every loss of your brother, whatever may be lost by him and you find; you shall not be able to overlook it. –

4 Do not, when you see your brother’s donkey or his calf fallen on the road, overlook them; by raising you shall raise them with him.

5 The gear of a man shall not be upon a woman, nor shall a man ever put on a woman’s robe, because everyone doing these things is an abomination to the Lord your God.

6 But if you encounter a nest of birds before your face on the road or on any tree or on the ground, with chicks or eggs, and the mother warms the chicks or the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the children.

7 By sending you shall send the mother away, but you shall take the children for yourself, so that it may become well for you and you may be long-lived.

8 But if you build a new house, you shall make a crown for your roof; and you shall not cause a killing in your house if the one falling falls from it.

9 You shall not sow your vineyard with something different, lest the yield and the seed that you sow together with the yield of your vineyard be sanctified. –

10 You shall not plow with a calf and a donkey together. –

11 You shall not put on adulterated cloth, wool and linen together.

12 You shall make twisted cords for yourself on the four borders of your coverings with which you may cover yourself.

13 But if someone takes a woman and lives with her and hates her

14 and places pretextual words upon her and brings an evil name upon her and says: I took this woman and, coming to her, did not find signs of her virginity,

15 then the girl’s father and mother shall take and bring out the signs of the girl’s virginity to the council of elders at the gate,

16 and the girl’s father shall say to the council of elders: I gave this daughter of mine to this man as a wife, and he, hating her,

17 now places pretextual words upon her, saying: I did not find signs of virginity in your daughter. And these are the signs of my daughter’s virginity. And they shall unfold the garment before the council of elders of the city.

18 And the council of elders of that city shall take that man and discipline him

19 and fine him a hundred shekels and give them to the father of the young woman, because he brought an evil name upon an Israelite virgin; and she shall be his wife, and he shall not be able to send her out for all time.

20 But if this matter truly comes to be and signs of virginity are not found for the young woman,

21 then they shall bring the young woman out to the doors of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones, and she shall die, because she did a senseless thing among the sons of Israel by prostituting her father’s house; and you shall remove the evil one from among you yourselves.

22 But if a man is found lying with a woman who lives together with a man, you shall kill both, the man lying with the woman and the woman; and you shall remove the evil one from Israel.

23 But if there comes to be a virgin girl betrothed to a man, and a man finding her in a city lies with her,

24 you shall bring both out to the gate of their city, and they shall be stoned with stones and die: the young woman because she did not cry out in the city, and the man because he humbled the wife of his neighbor; and you shall remove the evil one from among you yourselves. –

25 But if a man finds the betrothed girl in the plain and, using force, lies with her, you shall kill only the man who lay with her,

26 and you shall do nothing to the young woman; there is no sin of death in the young woman, because as if a man rose against his neighbor and murdered his soul, so is this matter,

27 because he found her in the field; the betrothed young woman cried out, and there was no one to help her.

28 But if someone finds a virgin girl who is not betrothed and, using force, lies with her and is found,

29 the man who lay with her shall give the young woman’s father fifty didrachmas of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he humbled her; he shall not be able to send her out for all time.

Chapter 23

1 A man shall not take his father’s wife, and he shall not uncover his father’s covering.

2 A man with crushed parts and one who has been cut off shall not enter the assembly of the Lord.

3 One from a prostitute shall not enter the assembly of the Lord.

4 An Ammanite and a Moabite shall not enter the assembly of the Lord; even to the tenth generation he shall not enter the assembly of the Lord, even forever,

5 because they did not meet you with bread and water on the way when you were going out from Egypt, and because they hired Balaam son of Beor from Mesopotamia against you to curse you;

6 and the Lord your God did not wish to listen to Balaam, and the Lord your God turned the curses into blessing, because the Lord your God loved you.

7 You shall not address peaceful things to them and things advantageous to them all your days, forever.

8 You shall not abhor an Idumaean, because he is your brother; you shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you became a sojourner in his land;

9 if sons are born to them, in the third generation they shall enter the assembly of the Lord.

10 And if you go out to encamp against your enemies, you shall guard yourself from every evil word.

11 If there is among you a man who is not clean because of his discharge by night, he shall go outside the camp and shall not enter the camp;

12 and it shall be that toward evening he shall wash his body with water, and when the sun has set he shall enter the camp.

13 And you shall have a place outside the camp, and you shall go out there;

14 and you shall have a peg on your belt, and it shall be that when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and, bringing the earth back, cover your indecency with it;

15 because the Lord your God walks about in your camp to deliver you and to hand over your enemy before your face; and your camp shall be holy, and an indecency of a thing shall not be seen among you, and he shall turn away from you.

16 You shall not hand over to his master a servant who has joined himself to you from his master;

17 he shall dwell with you, he shall dwell among you in every place wherever it pleases him; you shall not afflict him.

18 There shall not be a prostitute from the daughters of Israel, and there shall not be a man prostituting himself from the sons of Israel; there shall not be a female bearer of rites from the daughters of Israel, and there shall not be a man being initiated from the sons of Israel.

19 You shall not bring the hire of a prostitute nor the exchange of a dog into the house of the Lord your God for any vow, because both are an abomination to the Lord your God.

20 You shall not lend at interest to your brother interest on silver or interest on food or interest on anything that you lend;

21 to the foreigner you shall lend at interest, but to your brother you shall not lend at interest, so that the Lord your God may bless you in all your works upon the land into which you are entering there to inherit it.

22 And if you vow a vow to the Lord your God, you shall not delay to pay it, because the Lord your God will surely require it of you, and there shall be sin in you;

23 but if you do not wish to vow, there is no sin in you.

24 What goes forth through your lips you shall guard and do, in the manner that you vowed a gift to the Lord your God, which you spoke with your mouth.

25 And if you enter your neighbor’s harvest, you shall gather ears with your hands, but you shall certainly not put a sickle to your neighbor’s harvest. –

26 And if you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat grapes as much as to fill your soul, but you shall not put any into a vessel.

Chapter 24

1 And if someone takes a wife and lives with her, and it comes to pass that she does not find favor before him because he has found an indecent thing in her, he shall write her a document of separation and give it into her hands and send her out of his house,

2 and she, having gone away, becomes another man’s wife,

3 and the latter man hates her and writes her a document of separation and gives it into her hands and sends her out of his house, or the latter man who took her for himself as a wife dies,

4 the former man who sent her out shall not be able to turn back and take her for himself as a wife after she has been defiled, because it is an abomination before the Lord your God; and you shall not defile the land that the Lord your God gives you as an inheritance.

5 And if someone takes a wife recently, he shall not go out to war, and no matter shall be laid upon him; he shall be free in his house for one year; he shall gladden his wife whom he took.

6 You shall not take a mill or an upper millstone as a pledge, because this takes a life as a pledge.

7 And if a man is caught stealing a person from his brothers, the sons of Israel, and, having oppressed him, sells him, that thief shall die; and you shall remove the evil from among yourselves.

8 Take heed to yourself in the affliction of leprosy; you shall be very careful to do according to all the law that the priests, the Levites, announce to you; as I commanded you, take care to do.

9 Remember all that the Lord your God did to Mariam on the way when you were going out from Egypt.

10 If there is a debt with your neighbor, any debt whatever, you shall not enter his house to take the pledge as a pledge;

11 you shall stand outside, and the man with whom your loan rests shall bring the pledge out to you.

12 And if the man is poor, you shall not sleep with his pledge;

13 you shall certainly give back his pledge around sunset, and he shall sleep in his garment and bless you, and it shall be mercy for you before the Lord your God.

14 You shall not wrong the wage of a poor and needy person from your brothers or from the sojourners in your cities;

15 on the same day you shall pay his wage; the sun shall not set upon it, because he is poor and has his hope in it; and he shall not cry out against you to the Lord, and there shall be sin in you.

16 Fathers shall not die for children, and sons shall not die for fathers; each shall die for his own sin.

17 You shall not turn aside the judgment of a sojourner and an orphan and a widow, and you shall not take a widow’s garment as a pledge;

18 and you shall remember that you were a household servant in the land of Egypt and the Lord your God redeemed you from there; therefore I command you to do this thing.

19 And if you reap a harvest in your field and forget a sheaf in your field, you shall not go back to take it; it shall be for the poor person and the sojourner and the orphan and the widow, so that the Lord your God may bless you in all the works of your hands.

20 And if you gather olives, you shall not go back to glean what is behind you; it shall be for the sojourner and the orphan and the widow; and you shall remember that you were a household servant in the land of Egypt; therefore I command you to do this thing.

21 And if you gather grapes from your vineyard, you shall not go back to gather the grapes behind you; it shall be for the sojourner and the orphan and the widow;

22 and you shall remember that you were a household servant in the land of Egypt; therefore I command you to do this thing.

Chapter 25

1 And if a dispute arises between people and they come to judgment, and they judge and justify the righteous and condemn the ungodly,

2 and it shall be, if the one acting ungodly is worthy of blows, you shall set him down before the judges, and they shall whip him before them according to his ungodliness, by number.

3 They shall whip him forty times; they shall not add to it. But if they add to whipping him more blows beyond these, your brother shall be disgraced before you.

4 You shall not muzzle an ox while it is threshing.

5 And if brothers dwell together and one of them dies, and he has no offspring, the wife of the dead man shall not be for an outside man who is not near; her husband’s brother shall go in to her and take her for himself as a wife and live with her.

6 And it shall be that the child whom she bears shall be established under the name of the one who has died, and his name shall not be wiped out from Israel.

7 But if the man does not wish to take his brother’s wife, the woman shall go up to the gate to the council of elders and say, “My husband’s brother does not wish to raise up his brother’s name in Israel; my husband’s brother did not wish to.”

8 And the council of elders of his city shall call him and speak to him, and standing he says, “I do not wish to take her,”

9 then his brother’s wife shall come forward before the council of elders and loosen his one sandal from his foot and spit in his face, and answering she shall say, “Thus they shall do to the man who will not build up his brother’s house”;

10 and his name shall be called in Israel “House of the one whose sandal was loosened.”

11 And if people fight together, a man with his brother, and the wife of one of them comes forward to rescue her husband from the hand of the one striking him, and stretching out her hand takes hold of his testicles, 12 you shall cut off her hand; your eye shall not spare her.

13 There shall not be in your purse a weight and a weight, large or small;

14 there shall not be in your house a measure and a measure, large or small;

15 you shall have a true and just weight, and you shall have a true and just measure, so that you may become long-lived upon the land that the Lord your God gives you as an inheritance;

16 because everyone doing these things, everyone doing injustice, is an abomination to the Lord your God.

17 Remember all that Amalek did to you on the way when you were going out from Egypt,

18 how he opposed you on the way and cut off your rear guard, those who were weary behind you, while you were hungry and weary; and he did not fear God.

19 And it shall be, when the Lord your God gives you rest from all your enemies around you in the land that the Lord your God gives you as an inheritance to inherit, you shall wipe out the name of Amalek from under heaven, and you shall certainly not forget.

Chapter 26

1 And it shall be, if you enter the land that the Lord your God gives you as an inheritance and inherit it and dwell upon it,

2 you shall take from the first fruits of the fruit of your land that the Lord your God gives you and put it into a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God chooses for his name to be called there,

3 and you shall come to the priest who is in those days and say to him, “I declare today to the Lord my God that I have entered the land that the Lord swore to our fathers to give to us.”

4 And the priest shall take the basket from your hands and place it before the altar of the Lord your God,

5 and you shall answer and say before the Lord your God, “My father cast off Syria and went down into Egypt and sojourned there with a small number, and there he became a great nation and a numerous and great multitude;

6 and the Egyptians afflicted us and humbled us and laid hard works upon us;

7 and we cried aloud to the Lord, the God of our fathers, and the Lord listened to our voice and saw our humiliation and our toil and our affliction;

8 and the Lord himself brought us out of Egypt with great strength and with a mighty hand and with his uplifted arm and with great visions and with signs and with wonders,

9 and brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey;

10 and now, behold, I have brought the first fruits of the produce of the land that you gave me, Lord, a land flowing with milk and honey.” And you shall leave them before the Lord your God and bow down there before the Lord your God;

11 and you shall rejoice in all the good things that the Lord your God gave to you and your household, you and the Levite and the sojourner among you.

12 And if you finish tithing all the tenth part of the produce of your land in the third year, you shall give the second tenth part to the Levite and to the sojourner and to the orphan and to the widow, and they shall eat in your cities and be filled.

13 And you shall say before the Lord your God, “I have cleared the holy things out of my house and given them to the Levite and the sojourner and the orphan and the widow according to all the commandments that you commanded me; I did not transgress your commandment and I did not forget;

14 and I did not eat of them in my pain, nor did I make use of any of them for an unclean thing, nor did I give any of them to the dead; I obeyed the voice of the Lord my God; I did as you commanded me.

15 Look down from your holy house, from heaven, and bless your people Israel and the land that you gave them, as you swore to our fathers to give to us a land flowing with milk and honey.”

16 On this day the Lord your God commanded you to do all these ordinances and judgments, and you shall guard and do them with all your heart and with all your soul.

17 You chose God today to be your God and to walk in his ways and to guard his ordinances and his judgments and to obey his voice;

18 and the Lord chose you today to become for him a special people, just as he said to you, to guard all his commandments,

19 and for you to be above all the nations, as he made you renowned and a boast and glorified, for you to be a holy people to the Lord your God, as he spoke.

Chapter 27

1 And Moses and the council of elders of Israel commanded, saying, “Guard all these commandments that I command you today.

2 And it shall be on the day when you cross the Jordan into the land that the Lord your God gives you, you shall set up large stones for yourself and plaster them with plaster

3 and write upon the stones all the words of this law when you cross the Jordan, when you enter the land that the Lord, the God of your fathers, gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the Lord, the God of your fathers, said to you;

4 and it shall be, when you cross the Jordan, you shall set up these stones that I command you today on Mount Gaibal and plaster them with plaster.

5 And you shall build there an altar to the Lord your God, an altar of stones; you shall not put iron upon them;

6 with whole stones you shall build an altar to the Lord your God and offer upon it whole burnt offerings to the Lord your God,

7 and you shall sacrifice there a sacrifice of salvation to the Lord your God and eat and be filled and rejoice before the Lord your God.

8 And you shall write upon the stones all this law very clearly.”

9 And Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, “Be silent and hear, Israel; on this day you have become a people to the Lord your God;

10 and you shall listen to the voice of the Lord your God and do all his commandments and his ordinances that I command you today.”

11 And Moses commanded the people on that day, saying,

12 “These shall stand to bless the people on Mount Garizin, having crossed the Jordan: Symeon, Levi, Judas, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.

13 And these shall stand for the curse on Mount Gaibal: Reuben, Gad and Aser, Zabulon, Dan and Nephthali.”

14 And the Levites shall answer and say to all Israel with a loud voice,

15 “Accursed is the man who makes a carved and cast thing, an abomination to the Lord, the work of a craftsman’s hands, and places it in secret.” And all the people shall answer and say, “May it be so.”

16 “Accursed is the one who dishonors his father or his mother.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

17 “Accursed is the one who moves the boundaries of his neighbor.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

18 “Accursed is the one who leads a blind person astray on the road.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

19 “Accursed is whoever turns aside the judgment of a sojourner and an orphan and a widow.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

20 “Accursed is the one who sleeps with his father’s wife, because he uncovered his father’s covering.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

21 “Accursed is the one who sleeps with any animal.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

22 “Accursed is the one who sleeps with his sister from his father or from his mother.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

23 “Accursed is the one who sleeps with his mother-in-law.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.” “Accursed is the one who sleeps with his wife’s sister.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

24 “Accursed is the one who strikes his neighbor deceitfully.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

25 “Accursed is whoever takes gifts to strike a person of innocent blood.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

26 “Accursed is every person who does not remain in all the words of this law to do them.” And all the people shall say, “May it be so.”

Chapter 28

1 And it shall be when you cross the Jordan into the land that the Lord your God gives you, if you diligently listen to the voice of the Lord your God to guard and do all his commandments that I command you today, the Lord your God will set you above all the nations of the earth,

2 and all these blessings shall come upon you and find you if you listen to the voice of the Lord your God.

3 Blessed are you in the city, and blessed are you in the field;

4 blessed are the offspring of your womb and the produce of your land, the herds of your cattle and the flocks of your sheep;

5 blessed are your storehouses and what you leave behind;

6 blessed are you when you enter, and blessed are you when you go out.

7 May the Lord your God hand over your enemies who oppose you, broken before your face; by one road they shall come out against you and by seven roads they shall flee from before your face.

8 May the Lord send the blessing upon you in your storerooms and in everything to which you put your hand, upon the land that the Lord your God gives you.

9 May the Lord your God establish you for himself as a holy people, as he swore to your fathers, if you listen to the voice of the Lord your God and walk in his ways;

10 and all the nations of the earth shall see you, that the name of the Lord has been called upon you, and they shall fear you.

11 And the Lord your God shall multiply you for good in the offspring of your womb and in the produce of your land and in the offspring of your animals upon the land that the Lord swore to your fathers to give you.

12 May the Lord open to you his good treasure, heaven, to give rain to your land in its season, to bless all the works of your hands; and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow, and you shall rule many nations, but they shall not rule you.

13 May the Lord your God set you as head and not as tail, and you shall then be above and shall not be below, if you listen to the commandments of the Lord your God that I command you today to guard and do;

14 you shall not turn aside from any of the words that I command you today, right or left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 And it shall be, if you do not listen to the voice of the Lord your God to guard and do all his commandments that I command you today, all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you.

16 Accursed are you in the city, and accursed are you in the field;

17 accursed are your storehouses and what you leave behind;

18 accursed are the offspring of your womb and the produce of your land, the herds of your cattle and the flocks of your sheep;

19 accursed are you when you go out, and accursed are you when you enter.

20 May the Lord send upon you want and famine and consumption in everything to which you put your hand, whatever you do, until he destroys you and until he causes you to perish quickly because of your evil practices, because you forsook me.

21 May the Lord make death cling to you until he consumes you from the land into which you are entering to inherit it.

22 May the Lord strike you with distress and fever and chills and inflammation and slaughter and wind-blight and pallor, and they shall pursue you until they destroy you.

23 And the heaven over your head shall be bronze, and the earth beneath you iron.

24 May the Lord give dust as the rain of your land, and earth shall come down upon you from heaven until he wears you away and until he destroys you.

25 May the Lord give you defeat before your enemies; by one road you shall go out against them and by seven roads you shall flee from before their face; and you shall be scattered among all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 And your dead shall be food for the birds of heaven and the beasts of the earth, and there shall be no one to drive them away.

27 May the Lord strike you with an Egyptian sore on the seats of the body, and with wild scab and itching, so that you cannot be healed.

28 May the Lord strike you with paralysis and blindness and derangement of mind,

29 and you shall be groping at midday as a blind person gropes in darkness, and your ways shall not prosper; and you shall then be wronged and plundered all your days, and there shall be no one to help you.

30 You shall take a wife, and another man shall have her; you shall build a house and shall not dwell in it; you shall plant a vineyard and shall not gather its grapes;

31 your calf shall be slaughtered before you, and you shall not eat of it; your donkey shall be snatched away from you and shall not be returned to you; your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and there shall be no one to help you;

32 your sons and daughters shall be given to another nation, and your eyes shall look toward them, wasting away, and your hand shall have no strength;

33 the produce of your land and all your labors a nation that you do not know shall eat, and you shall be wronged and crushed all your days;

34 and you shall be deranged because of the sights of your eyes that you see.

35 May the Lord strike you with an evil sore on the knees and on the shins so that you cannot be healed, from the sole of your feet to your crown.

36 May the Lord lead you and your rulers whom you set over yourself away to a nation that you and your fathers do not know, and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stones.

37 And there you shall be a riddle and a parable and a tale among all the nations to which the Lord leads you away.

38 You shall carry much seed out to the plain and bring little in, because the locust shall devour it.

39 You shall plant a vineyard and cultivate it and shall not drink wine or rejoice from it, because the worm shall devour it.

40 You shall have olives within all your borders, and you shall not anoint yourself with oil, because your olive shall fall off.

41 You shall beget sons and daughters, and they shall not be yours, for they shall go away into captivity.

42 Rust shall consume all your trees and the produce of your land.

43 The sojourner who is among you shall rise above you, higher and higher, but you shall descend lower and lower;

44 he shall lend to you, but you shall not lend to him; he shall be head, but you shall be tail.

45 And all these curses shall come upon you and pursue you and overtake you until he destroys you and until he causes you to perish, because you did not listen to the voice of the Lord your God to guard his commandments and his ordinances that he commanded you.

46 And they shall be among you as signs and wonders, and among your offspring forever,

47 because you did not serve the Lord your God with joy and a good heart on account of the abundance of all things.

48 And you shall serve your enemies whom the Lord will send upon you, in famine and in thirst and in nakedness and in lack of all things; and he shall put an iron collar upon your neck until he destroys you.

49 The Lord shall bring against you a nation from afar, from the end of the earth, like the swoop of an eagle, a nation whose voice you shall not hear,

50 a nation shameless in face, which shall not regard the face of an old person and shall not have mercy on a young person,

51 and it shall devour the offspring of your animals and the produce of your land, leaving you neither grain nor wine nor oil, the herds of your cattle nor the flocks of your sheep, until it causes you to perish

52 and wears you away in all your cities until your high and fortified walls in which you trust are torn down throughout all your land; and it shall afflict you in all your cities that the Lord your God gave you.

53 And you shall eat the offspring of your womb, the flesh of your sons and daughters whom the Lord your God gave you, in your confinement and your affliction with which your enemy shall afflict you.

54 The tender and very delicate man among you shall look with an evil eye upon his brother and the wife in his bosom and the children left to him,

55 so as to give one of them some of the flesh of his children that he eats, because nothing is left to him in your confinement and your affliction with which your enemies shall afflict you in all your cities.

56 And the tender and very delicate woman among you, whose foot has not had experience treading upon the ground because of delicacy and tenderness, shall look with an evil eye upon her husband in her bosom and upon her son and her daughter

57 and her afterbirth that comes out from between her thighs and the child whom she bears; for she shall eat them secretly because of the lack of all things in your confinement and your affliction with which your enemy shall afflict you in all your cities.

58 If you do not listen to do all the words of this law written in this book, to fear this honored and wonderful name, the Lord your God,

59 then the Lord shall make your blows and the blows of your offspring extraordinary, great and wonderful blows, and evil and lasting diseases;

60 and he shall turn back upon you every evil pain of Egypt that you dreaded before them, and they shall cling to you.

61 And every sickness and every blow not written in the book of this law the Lord shall bring upon you until he destroys you.

62 And you shall be left few in number, whereas you were like the stars of heaven in multitude, because you did not listen to the voice of the Lord your God.

63 And it shall be, in the manner that the Lord rejoiced over you to do you good and multiply you, so the Lord shall rejoice over you to destroy you, and you shall be removed from the land into which you are entering to inherit it.

64 And the Lord your God shall scatter you among all the nations, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth, and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stones, which neither you nor your fathers knew.

65 But also among those nations he shall not give you rest, nor shall there be a standing place for the sole of your foot, and the Lord shall give you there a disheartened heart and failing eyes and a melting soul.

66 And your life shall hang before your eyes, and you shall be afraid day and night and shall not trust in your life;

67 in the morning you shall say, “How might it become evening?” and in the evening you shall say, “How might it become morning?” because of the fear of your heart that you shall fear and because of the sights of your eyes that you shall see.

68 And the Lord shall turn you back to Egypt in ships and on the road of which I said, “You shall not again see it”; and there you shall be sold to your enemies as male and female servants, and there shall be no buyer.

69 These are the words of the covenant that the Lord commanded Moses to establish for the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant that he made with them at Choreb.

Chapter 29

1 And Moses called all the sons of Israel and said to them, “You have seen all that the Lord did in the land of Egypt before you to Pharaoh and his attendants and all his land,

2 the great trials that your eyes have seen, those great signs and wonders;

3 and the Lord God has not given you a heart to know and eyes to see and ears to hear until this day.

4 And he led you forty years in the wilderness; your garments did not grow old, and your sandals were not worn away from your feet;

5 you did not eat bread, you did not drink wine and strong drink, so that you might know that this is the Lord your God.

6 And you came as far as this place, and Seon king of Esebon and Og king of Basan came out to meet us in war, and we struck them

7 and took their land, and I gave it as an inheritance to Reuben and Gaddi and the half tribe of Manasse.

8 And you shall take care to do all the words of this covenant, so that you may understand all that you do.

9 You all stand today before the Lord your God, your tribal chiefs and your council of elders and your judges and your scribal instructors, every man of Israel,

10 your women and your offspring and the sojourner in the midst of your camp, from your woodcutter to your water carrier,

11 to enter into the covenant of the Lord your God and into his curses, which the Lord your God is making with you today,

12 so that he may establish you for himself as a people, and he shall be your God, as he said to you and as he swore to your fathers Abraham and Isaac and Jacob.

13 And it is not with you alone that I make this covenant and this curse,

14 but also with those who are here with us today before the Lord your God and those who are not here with us today.

15 For you know how we dwelt in the land of Egypt and passed through the midst of the nations through which you passed,

16 and you saw their abominations and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which are among them.

17 Is there perhaps among you a man or woman or family or tribe whose mind has turned away from the Lord your God to go and serve the gods of those nations? Is there perhaps among you a root growing upward in gall and bitterness?

18 And it shall be, if he hears the words of this curse and blesses himself in his heart, saying, “May holy things be mine, because I shall walk in the wandering of my heart,” so that the sinner may not destroy the sinless one along with him,

19 God will certainly not wish to be gracious to him; rather, then the anger of the Lord and his zeal shall burn against that man, and all the curses of this covenant written in this book of the law shall cling to him, and the Lord shall wipe out his name from under heaven;

20 and the Lord shall set him apart for evil from all the sons of Israel according to all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the law.

21 And the other generation, your sons who shall rise after you, and the foreigner who comes from a distant land shall speak, and they shall see the blows upon that land and its diseases that the Lord sent upon it –

22 sulfur and salt, burned; all its land shall not be sown nor sprout, nor shall any green thing grow upon it, as Sodom and Gomorra, Adama and Seboim were overthrown, which the Lord overthrew in fury and anger –

23 and all the nations shall say, “Why did the Lord do thus to this land? What is this great fury of anger?”

24 And they shall say, “Because they abandoned the covenant of the Lord, the God of their fathers, which he made with their fathers when he brought them out of the land of Egypt,

25 and they went and served other gods and bowed down to them, whom they did not know and whom he had not allotted to them;

26 and the Lord was angered in fury against that land, to bring upon it all the curses written in this book of the law,

27 and the Lord removed them from their land in fury and anger and very great provocation and cast them into another land, as now.”

28 The hidden things belong to the Lord our God, but the revealed things to us and to our children forever, to do all the words of this law.

Chapter 30

1 And it shall be when all these words come upon you, the blessing and the curse that I set before your face, and you receive them into your heart among all the nations wherever the Lord scatters you,

2 and you turn to the Lord your God and obey his voice according to all that I command you today with all your heart and with all your soul,

3 then the Lord shall heal your sins and have mercy on you and gather you again from all the nations among which the Lord scattered you.

4 If your dispersion is from one end of heaven to the other end of heaven, from there the Lord your God shall gather you, and from there the Lord your God shall take you;

5 and the Lord your God shall bring you into the land that your fathers inherited, and you shall inherit it; and he shall do you good and make you more numerous than your fathers.

6 And the Lord shall cleanse your heart and the heart of your offspring, to love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live.

7 And the Lord your God shall put these curses upon your enemies and upon those who hate you, who pursued you.

8 And you shall turn and listen to the voice of the Lord your God and do his commandments that I command you today,

9 and the Lord your God shall make you abundant in every work of your hands, in the offspring of your womb and in the produce of your land and in the offspring of your animals; because the Lord your God shall turn again to rejoice over you for good, as he rejoiced over your fathers,

10 if you listen to the voice of the Lord your God to guard and do all his commandments and his ordinances and his judgments written in this book of the law, if you turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

11 For this commandment that I command you today is not excessive, nor is it far from you.

12 It is not up in heaven, saying, “Who shall ascend for us into heaven and take it for us? And having heard it, we shall do it.”

13 Nor is it beyond the sea, saying, “Who shall cross over for us to the other side of the sea and take it for us? And he shall make it heard by us, and we shall do it.”

14 The word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart and in your hands, to do it.

15 Behold, I have set before your face today life and death, good and evil.

16 If you listen to the commandments of the Lord your God that I command you today, to love the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, to guard his ordinances and his judgments, then you shall live and be many, and the Lord your God shall bless you in all the land into which you are entering to inherit it.

17 But if your heart turns away and you do not listen and, being led astray, bow down to other gods and serve them,

18 I announce to you today that you shall surely perish and shall certainly not become long-lived upon the land that the Lord your God gives you, into which you are crossing the Jordan to inherit it.

19 I call heaven and earth to witness to you today: I have set before your face life and death, blessing and curse; choose life, so that you and your offspring may live,

20 to love the Lord your God, to listen to his voice and to hold fast to him; for this is your life and the length of your days, for you to dwell upon the land that the Lord swore to your fathers Abraham and Isaac and Jacob to give them.

Chapter 31

1 And Moses finished speaking all these words to all the sons of Israel;

2 and he said to them, “I am one hundred and twenty years old today; I can no longer go in and go out, and the Lord said to me, ‘You shall not cross this Jordan.’

3 The Lord your God, who goes before your face, he shall destroy these nations from before your face, and you shall inherit them; and Jesus shall go before your face, as the Lord spoke.

4 And the Lord shall do to them as he did to Seon and Og, the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, and to their land, when he destroyed them.

5 And the Lord has handed them over to you, and you shall do to them as I commanded you.

6 Be manly and strong; do not fear, nor be cowardly, nor be terrified before their face, because the Lord your God, who goes ahead with you among you, shall certainly not let you go nor forsake you.”

7 And Moses called Jesus and said to him before all Israel, “Be manly and strong; for you shall go in before this people into the land that the Lord swore to our fathers to give them, and you shall cause them to inherit it;

8 and the Lord who goes with you shall not let you go nor forsake you; do not fear nor be cowardly.”

9 And Moses wrote the words of this law in a book and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi who carry the ark of the Lord’s covenant, and to the elders of the sons of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them on that day, saying, “After seven years, at the time of the year of release, at the feast of the setting up of tents,

11 when all Israel comes together to appear before the Lord your God at the place the Lord chooses, you shall read this law before all Israel in their ears;

12 assemble the people, the men and the women and the offspring and the sojourner in your cities, so that they may hear and learn to fear the Lord your God, and they shall listen to do all the words of this law;

13 and their sons who do not know shall hear and learn to fear the Lord your God all the days that they live upon the land into which you are crossing the Jordan to inherit it.”

14 And the Lord said to Moses, “Behold, the days of your death have drawn near; call Jesus and stand by the doors of the tent of testimony, and I shall command him.” And Moses and Jesus went to the tent of testimony and stood by the doors of the tent of testimony.

15 And the Lord came down in a cloud and stood by the doors of the tent of testimony, and the pillar of cloud stood by the doors of the tent.

16 And the Lord said to Moses, “Behold, you are sleeping with your fathers, and this people shall arise and prostitute themselves after foreign gods of the land into which they are entering, and they shall forsake me and scatter my covenant that I made with them.

17 And I shall be angered in fury against them on that day and forsake them and turn my face away from them, and the people shall become food, and many evils and afflictions shall find him; and he shall say on that day, ‘Because the Lord my God is not among me, these evils have found me.’

18 But I shall surely turn my face away from them on that day because of all the wicked things they did, because they turned to foreign gods.

19 And now write the words of this song and teach it to the sons of Israel and put it into their mouth, so that this song may be a witness for me among the sons of Israel.

20 For I shall bring them into the good land that I swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey, and they shall eat and, being filled, be sated; and they shall turn to foreign gods and serve them and provoke me and scatter my covenant.

21 And this song shall stand against them, testifying before their face, for it shall not be forgotten from their mouth and from the mouth of their offspring; for I know their wickedness, all that they do here today before I bring them into the good land that I swore to their fathers.”

22 And Moses wrote this song on that day and taught it to the sons of Israel.

23 And Moses commanded Jesus and said to him, “Be manly and strong; for you shall bring the sons of Israel into the land that the Lord swore to them, and he himself shall be with you.”

24 And when Moses finished writing all the words of this law in a book to the end,

25 he commanded the Levites who carry the ark of the Lord’s covenant, saying,

26 “Take the book of this law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, and it shall be there among you as a witness.

27 For I know your provocation and your stiff neck; for even while I am alive with you today, you have been embittering matters toward God; how much more after my death?

28 Gather to me your tribal leaders and your elders and your judges and your scribal instructors, so that I may speak all these words into their ears and call heaven and earth to witness to them;

29 for I know that after my death you shall surely act lawlessly and turn aside from the way that I commanded you, and evils shall meet you at the end of days, because you shall do what is evil before the Lord, provoking him to anger by the works of your hands.”

30 And Moses spoke into the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song to the end.

Chapter 32

1 Attend, heaven, and I shall speak, and let earth hear words from my mouth.

2 Let my utterance be awaited as rain, and let my words come down as dew, like a shower upon grass and like snow upon herbage.

3 For I called upon the name of the Lord; give greatness to our God.

4 God—his works are true, and all his ways are judgments; a faithful God, and there is no injustice; righteous and holy is the Lord.

5 Blemished children sinned, not against him, a crooked and twisted generation.

6 Do you repay the Lord thus, foolish and unwise people? Is he not your father who acquired you and made you and created you?

7 Remember days of old, understand years of generation after generations; ask your father, and he shall tell you, your elders, and they shall say to you.

8 When the Most High divided nations, when he scattered the sons of Adam, he set the boundaries of nations according to the number of angels of God,

9 and the Lord’s portion became his people Jacob, the measured allotment of his inheritance Israel.

10 He provided for him in a wilderness land, in a thirst of heat in a waterless place; he encircled him and instructed him and guarded him as the pupil of an eye,

11 as an eagle might shelter its nest and yearned over its young; spreading its wings it received them and took them up on its back.

12 The Lord alone led them, and no foreign god was with them.

13 He brought them up upon the strength of the land, fed them produce of fields; they suckled honey from a rock and oil from a solid rock,

14 butter of cattle and milk of sheep with fat of lambs and rams, sons of bulls and goats, with fat of kidneys of wheat; and they drank wine, blood of the grape.

15 And Jacob ate and was filled, and the beloved one kicked; he grew fat, grew heavy, grew broad; and he forsook God who made him and departed from God his savior.

16 They provoked me with foreign things; with their abominations they made me bitter;

17 they sacrificed to demons and not to God, to gods whom they did not know; new ones, recently arrived, whom their fathers did not know.

18 You forsook God who begot you and forgot God who nourished you.

19 And the Lord saw and was jealous and was provoked by the anger of his sons and daughters,

20 and said, “I shall turn my face away from them and show what shall befall them at the end; for they are a perverse generation, sons in whom there is no faith.”

21 They made me jealous over what is no god; they provoked me to anger with their idols; and I shall make them jealous over what is no nation; over an uncomprehending nation I shall provoke them to anger.

22 For fire has been kindled from my fury; it shall burn down to Hades below, devour the land and its produce, and burn the foundations of mountains.

23 I shall gather evils against them and spend my arrows on them.

24 Melting with famine and the eating of birds and incurable backward-stiffening; I shall send the teeth of beasts against them, with the fury of things crawling upon the ground.

25 Outside, a sword shall make them childless, and from the storerooms, fear; young man with virgin, nursing child with a settled elder.

26 I said, ‘I shall scatter them; I shall put an end to their remembrance among people,’

27 if not for the anger of enemies, so that they might not last long and so that the adversaries might not join together, lest they say, ‘Our hand is high, and it was not the Lord who did all these things.’

28 For they are a nation that has lost counsel, and there is no knowledge in them.

29 They did not think to understand these things; let them receive them for the time to come.

30 How shall one pursue a thousand and two dislodge myriads, unless God sold them and the Lord handed them over?

31 For their gods are not as our God; but our enemies are senseless.

32 For their vine is from the vine of Sodom, and their branch from Gomorra; their grape is a grape of gall, a cluster of bitterness for them;

33 their wine is the fury of dragons and the incurable fury of asps.

34 Are not these things gathered with me and sealed in my treasuries?

35 On a day of vengeance I shall repay, at a time when their foot slips; for the day of their destruction is near, and things are ready for you.

36 For the Lord shall judge his people, and concerning his servants he shall be comforted; for he saw them paralyzed and exhausted under assault and laid low.

37 And the Lord said, ‘Where are their gods in whom they trusted,

38 whose sacrifices’ fat you ate and whose libations’ wine you drank? Let them rise and help you, and let them become shelters for you.

39 See, see that I am, and there is no god besides me; I shall kill and make alive, I shall strike and I shall heal, and there is no one who shall rescue from my hands.

40 For I shall raise my hand to heaven and swear by my right hand and say, “I live forever,

41 for I shall sharpen my sword like lightning, and my hand shall take hold of judgment, and I shall repay justice to enemies and repay those who hate me;

42 I shall make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh, from the blood of the wounded and of captivity, from the head of rulers of enemies.

43 Rejoice, heavens, with him, and let all sons of God bow down to him; rejoice, nations, with his people, and let all angels of God strengthen him; for he avenges the blood of his sons, and he shall avenge and repay justice to enemies and repay those who hate him, and the Lord shall cleanse the land of his people.”

44 And Moses wrote this song on that day and taught it to the sons of Israel. And Moses entered and spoke all the words of this law into the ears of the people, he and Jesus son of Naue.

45 And Moses finished speaking to all Israel

46 and said to them, “Attend with your heart to all these words that I testify to you today, which you shall command your sons to guard and do, all the words of this law;

47 for this is not an empty word for you, because this is your life, and because of this word you shall live long upon the land into which you are crossing the Jordan to inherit it.”

48 And the Lord spoke to Moses on this day, saying,

49 “Go up to this mountain of Abarin, Mount Nabau, which is in the land of Moab opposite Jericho, and see the land of Canaan that I give the sons of Israel for a possession,

50 and die on the mountain to which you go up and be added to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Or and was added to his people,

51 because you disobeyed my word among the sons of Israel at the water of dispute of Kades in the wilderness of Sin, because you did not sanctify me among the sons of Israel;

52 for you shall see the land from opposite it, but you shall not enter there.”

Chapter 33

1 And this is the blessing with which Moses, the man of God, blessed the sons of Israel before his death;

2 and he said, “The Lord has come from Sina and appeared from Seir to us and hastened from Mount Pharan with myriads of Kades; at his right hand angels were with him.

3 And he spared his people, and all the sanctified ones are under your hands; and these are under you, and he received from his words

4 a law that Moses commanded us, an inheritance for the assemblies of Jacob.

5 And there shall be a ruler among the beloved one, when rulers of peoples are gathered together with the tribes of Israel.

6 Let Reuben live and not die, and let him be many in number.

7 And this is for Judas: ‘Hear, Lord, the voice of Judas, and may they come into his people; his hands shall decide for him, and you shall be a helper against his enemies.’

8 And to Levi he said, ‘Give Levi his manifest things and his truth to the holy man whom they tested in a trial and reviled at the water of dispute;

9 the one who says to his father and mother, “I have not seen you,” and did not acknowledge his brothers and disowned his sons; he guarded your oracles and kept your covenant.

10 They shall make your ordinances known to Jacob and your law to Israel; they shall put incense in your anger continually upon your altar.

11 Bless, Lord, his strength, and receive the works of his hands; break the loins of enemies rising against him, and let those who hate him not rise.’

12 And to Benjamin he said, ‘Beloved by the Lord, he shall dwell in trust, and God shades him all the days, and between his shoulders he rested.’

13 And to Joseph he said, ‘From the blessing of the Lord is his land, from the seasons of heaven and dew and from the deep springs below

14 and according to the season of the produce of the sun’s turnings and from the conjunctions of months

15 and from the summit of mountains of the beginning and from the summit of everlasting hills

16 and according to the season of the earth’s fullness. And may the things acceptable to the one who appeared in the bush come upon Joseph’s head, and upon the crown of the one glorified among brothers.

17 His beauty is a bull’s firstborn; his horns are horns of a one-horned beast; with them he shall gore nations together to the end of the earth. These are Ephraim’s myriads, and these are Manasse’s thousands.’

18 And to Zabulon he said, ‘Rejoice, Zabulon, in your going out, and Issachar in his dwellings.

19 They shall destroy nations, and you shall call upon there and sacrifice a sacrifice of righteousness, because the wealth of the sea shall suckle you and the trade of those dwelling by the sea.’

20 And to Gad he said, ‘Blessed is the one who broadens Gad; like a lion he rested, having broken arm and ruler.

21 And he saw his first fruits, because there a land of rulers was allotted, assembled together with leaders of peoples; the Lord did righteousness and his judgment with Israel.’

22 And to Dan he said, ‘Dan is a lion’s cub and shall leap out from Basan.’

23 And to Nephthali he said, ‘Nephthali is a fullness of acceptable things, and let him be filled with blessing from the Lord; he shall inherit sea and south.’

24 And to Aser he said, ‘Blessed among children is Aser, and he shall be acceptable to his brothers; he shall dip his foot in oil;

25 iron and bronze shall be his sandal, and as your days, so your strength.

26 There is none like the God of the beloved one, who rides upon heaven as your helper, and the majestic one of the firmament.

27 And the covering of God is of the beginning and beneath the strength of everlasting arms; and he shall cast out the enemy from before your face, saying, “Perish.”

28 And Israel shall dwell alone in trust upon the land of Jacob, upon grain and wine, and the heaven for him is clouded with dew.

29 Blessed are you, Israel; who is like you, a people saved by the Lord? Your helper shall shield you, and the sword is your boast; and your enemies shall lie to you, and you shall tread upon their necks.’

Chapter 34

1 And Moses went up from Araboth Moab to Mount Nabau, to the summit of Phasga, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him all the land of Galaad as far as Dan

2 and all the land of Nephthali and all the land of Ephraim and Manasse and all the land of Judas as far as the farthest sea

3 and the wilderness and the regions around Jericho, the city of palms, as far as Segor.

4 And the Lord said to Moses, “This is the land that I swore to Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, saying, ‘I shall give it to your offspring’; and I have shown it to your eyes, but you shall not enter there.”

5 And Moses, household servant of the Lord, died in the land of Moab by the word of the Lord.

6 And they buried him in Gai in the land of Moab near the house of Phogor; and no one knows his burial place to this day.

7 And Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died; his eyes were not dimmed, nor were his chelynia worn out.

8 And the sons of Israel wept for Moses in Araboth Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho for thirty days; and the days of mourning and weeping for Moses were completed.

9 And Jesus son of Naue was filled with a spirit of understanding, for Moses had laid his hands upon him; and the sons of Israel listened to him and did as the Lord commanded Moses.

10 And no prophet arose again in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face,

11 in all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to do in the land of Egypt before Pharaoh and his attendants and all his land,

12 the great marvels and the mighty hand that Moses performed before all Israel.

Joshua

Chapter 1

1 And it happened after the death of Moses that the Lord spoke to Jesus son of Naue, the assistant of Moses, saying,

2 “Moses my attendant has died; now therefore rise and cross the Jordan, you and all this people, into the land that I give them.

3 Every place upon which you set the sole of your feet I shall give to you, as I said to Moses;

4 the wilderness and Antilibanos as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, and as far as the farthest sea from the setting of the sun shall be your boundaries.

5 No person shall stand against you all the days of your life, and as I was with Moses, so I shall be with you, and I shall not forsake you nor overlook you.

6 Be strong and manly; for you shall allot to this people the land that I swore to your fathers to give them.

7 Therefore be strong and manly, to guard and do as Moses my servant commanded you, and you shall not turn aside from them to right or left, so that you may understand in all that you do.

8 And the book of this law shall not depart from your mouth, and you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may understand to do all that is written; then you shall prosper and make your ways prosper, and then you shall understand.

9 Behold, I have commanded you; be strong and manly, do not be cowardly nor afraid, because the Lord your God is with you in every place wherever you go.”

10 And Jesus commanded the scribes of the people, saying,

11 “Go through the midst of the people’s camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare provisions, because in yet three days you are crossing this Jordan to enter and take possession of the land that the Lord, the God of your fathers, gives you.’”

12 And to Reuben and Gad and the half tribe of Manasse Jesus said,

13 “Remember the word of the Lord that Moses, the servant of the Lord, commanded you, saying, ‘The Lord your God has given you rest and has given you this land.

14 Let your wives and your children and your animals dwell in the land that he gave you; but you shall cross over lightly equipped ahead of your brothers, every strong man, and fight alongside them,

15 until the Lord your God gives your brothers rest as he did you, and they too inherit the land that the Lord our God gives them; and each of you shall go away to his inheritance that Moses gave you beyond the Jordan toward the rising of the sun.’”

16 And answering Jesus they said, “Everything you command us we shall do, and to every place wherever you send us we shall go;

17 in every way that we listened to Moses, we shall listen to you, only may the Lord our God be with you as he was with Moses.

18 And the person who disobeys you and does not listen to your words, as you command him, let him die. But be strong and manly.”

Chapter 2

1 And Jesus son of Naue sent two young men from Sattin to spy, saying, “Go up and see the land and Jericho.” And the two young men went and entered Jericho and entered the house of a prostitute woman named Raab and lodged there.

2 And it was reported to the king of Jericho, saying, “Men of the sons of Israel have come in here to spy out the land.”

3 And the king of Jericho sent and said to Raab, saying, “Bring out the men who entered your house in the night; for they have come to spy out the land.”

4 And the woman took the men and hid them and said to them, “The men have come to me;

5 but when the gate was being shut in the darkness, the men went out; I do not know where they have gone. Pursue after them, if you can overtake them.”

6 But she had brought them up onto the roof and hidden them among the stalks of flax that she had piled on the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them on the road to the Jordan, toward the crossings, and the gate was shut. And it happened when those pursuing them had gone out

8 and before they themselves went to sleep, she went up onto the roof to them

9 and said to them, “I know that the Lord has given you the land, for fear of you has fallen upon us;

10 for we have heard that the Lord God dried up the Red Sea before your face when you went out from the land of Egypt, and what he did to the two kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan, Seon and Og, whom you destroyed;

11 and when we heard, we were beside ourselves in our hearts, and no spirit remained in any of us before your face, because the Lord your God is God in heaven above and on the earth below.

12 And now swear to me by the Lord God that, as I show you mercy, you too shall show mercy to my father’s house

13 and preserve alive my father’s house and my mother and my brothers and all my household and all that belongs to them, and you shall deliver my life from death.”

14 And the men said to her, “Our life in place of yours unto death.” And she said, “When the Lord hands the city over to you, you shall show me mercy and truth.”

15 And she lowered them through the window

16 and said to them, “Go away to the hill country, lest those pursuing meet you, and hide there for three days until those pursuing you turn back; and after that you shall go on your way.”

17 And the men said to her, “We are innocent of this oath of yours;

18 behold, we are entering a part of the city, and you shall set the sign: you shall tie this red cord in the window through which you lowered us, and you shall gather your father and your mother and your brothers and all your father’s household to yourself into your house.

19 And it shall be that everyone who goes out the door of your house outside shall be liable for himself, but we shall be innocent of this oath of yours; and all who are with you in your house, we shall be liable.

20 But if anyone wrongs us or reveals these words of ours, we shall be innocent of this oath of yours.”

21 And she said to them, “According to your word, so let it be”; and she sent them away.

22 And they went and came to the hill country and remained there three days; and those pursuing searched all the roads and did not find them.

23 And the two young men returned and came down from the mountain and crossed over to Jesus son of Naue and related to him everything that had happened to them.

24 And they said to Jesus, “The Lord has handed over all the land into our hand, and everyone dwelling in that land has cowered before us.”

Chapter 3

1 And Jesus rose early in the morning, and they set out from Sattin and came as far as the Jordan and lodged there before crossing.

2 And it happened after three days that the scribes passed through the camp

3 and commanded the people, saying, “When you see the ark of the covenant of the Lord our God and our priests and the Levites carrying it, set out from your places and go behind it;

4 but let there be a distance between you and it of about two thousand cubits; you shall stand, not come near it, so that you may know the way you go; for you have not gone this way yesterday or the day before.”

5 And Jesus said to the people, “Purify yourselves for tomorrow, because tomorrow the Lord shall do wonders among you.”

6 And Jesus said to the priests, “Take up the ark of the Lord’s covenant and go before the people.” And the priests took up the ark of the Lord’s covenant and went before the people.

7 And the Lord said to Jesus, “On this day I begin to exalt you before all the sons of Israel, so that they may know that as I was with Moses, so I shall be with you.

8 And now command the priests who carry the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you enter the edge of the water of the Jordan, you shall stand in the Jordan.’”

9 And Jesus said to the sons of Israel, “Come here and hear the word of the Lord our God.

10 By this you shall know that the living God is among you and that he shall surely destroy from before our face the Canaanite and the Chettite and the Pherezite and the Euaite and the Amorite and the Gergesite and the Jebusite;

11 behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth crosses the Jordan.

12 Choose for yourselves twelve men from the sons of Israel, one from each tribe.

13 And it shall be that when the feet of the priests carrying the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth rest in the water of the Jordan, the water of the Jordan shall fail, but the water coming down shall stand.”

14 And the people set out from their dwellings to cross the Jordan, and the priests carried the ark of the Lord’s covenant ahead of the people.

15 And when the priests carrying the ark of the covenant entered the Jordan and the feet of the priests carrying the ark of the Lord’s covenant were dipped into the edge of the Jordan’s water—the Jordan filled all along its bank as in the days of wheat harvest—,

16 the waters coming down from above stood; they stood in one mass very far away as far as the region of Kariathiarim, but what was coming down went down into the sea of Araba, the Salt Sea, until it failed completely; and the people stood opposite Jericho.

17 And the priests carrying the ark of the Lord’s covenant stood on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan; and all the sons of Israel crossed on dry ground until all the people had finished crossing the Jordan.

Chapter 4

1 And when all the people had finished crossing the Jordan, the Lord said to Jesus, saying,

2 “Take men from the people, one from each tribe,

3 and instruct them, saying, ‘Take up twelve prepared stones from the middle of the Jordan and carry them with yourselves and put them in your camp wherever you camp tonight.’”

4 And Jesus called twelve men of distinction from the sons of Israel, one from each tribe,

5 and said to them, “Come forward before me, before the Lord, into the middle of the Jordan, and let each take up a stone from there and carry it on his shoulders according to the number of the twelve tribes of Israel,

6 so that these may be a sign for you, set down always, so that when your son asks you tomorrow, saying, ‘What are these stones to you?’

7 you shall explain to your son, saying, ‘The river Jordan failed before the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth as it crossed it’; and these stones shall be a memorial for you, for the sons of Israel, forever.”

8 And the sons of Israel did thus as the Lord commanded Jesus, and took twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, as the Lord instructed Jesus at the completion of the sons of Israel’s crossing, and carried them with themselves into the camp and laid them there.

9 And Jesus also set up twelve other stones in the Jordan itself at the place beneath the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the Lord’s covenant, and they are there to this day.

10 And the priests who carried the ark of the covenant stood in the Jordan until Jesus had finished everything that the Lord commanded him to tell the people, and the people hurried and crossed.

11 And it happened when all the people had finished crossing that the ark of the Lord’s covenant crossed, and the stones before them.

12 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half of the tribe of Manasse crossed equipped before the sons of Israel, as Moses commanded them.

13 Forty thousand lightly equipped for battle crossed before the Lord for war toward the city of Jericho.

14 On that day the Lord exalted Jesus before all the race of Israel, and they feared him as they did Moses as long as he lived.

15 And the Lord said to Jesus, saying,

16 “Command the priests who carry the ark of the covenant of the Lord’s testimony to come up out of the Jordan.”

17 And Jesus commanded the priests, saying, “Come up out of the Jordan.”

18 And it happened when the priests carrying the ark of the Lord’s covenant had come up out of the Jordan and set their feet upon the land, the water of the Jordan rushed back to its place and flowed as yesterday and the day before along all its bank.

19 And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth of the first month; and the sons of Israel camped in Galgalois in the part toward the sunrise from Jericho.

20 And these twelve stones that he took from the Jordan Jesus set up in Galgalois,

21 saying, “When your sons ask you, saying, ‘What are these stones?’

22 tell your sons that Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground,

23 the Lord our God having dried up the water of the Jordan before them until they crossed, just as the Lord our God did to the Red Sea, which the Lord our God dried up before us until we passed through,

24 so that all the nations of the earth may know that the power of the Lord is strong and that you may revere the Lord your God at all times.”

Chapter 5

1 And it happened when the kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan and the kings of Phoenicia by the sea heard that the Lord God had dried up the river Jordan before the sons of Israel as they crossed, their minds melted and they were astonished, and no understanding at all remained in them before the sons of Israel.

2 At that time the Lord said to Jesus, “Make for yourself stone knives from a sharp-edged stone and, sitting down, circumcise the sons of Israel.”

3 And Jesus made sharp-edged stone knives and circumcised the sons of Israel at the place called Hill of the Foreskins.

4 And in the manner in which Jesus purified the sons of Israel, however many had been born on the way and however many of those who had gone out from Egypt were uncircumcised,

5 Jesus circumcised all these;

6 for Israel had spent forty-two years in the Madbarite wilderness, and for this reason most of them, the fighting men who had gone out from the land of Egypt and had disobeyed God’s commandments, were uncircumcised; to these he also determined that they would not see the land that the Lord swore to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

7 And in place of these he raised up their sons, whom Jesus circumcised because they had been born uncircumcised along the way.

8 And having been circumcised, they rested there, sitting in the camp until they were healed.

9 And the Lord said to Jesus son of Naue, “On this very day I have removed the reproach of Egypt from you.” And he called the name of that place Galgala.

10 And the sons of Israel observed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month from evening, west of Jericho beyond the Jordan in the plain,

11 and they ate from the grain of the land, unleavened things and new things, on this day.

12 The manna ceased after they had eaten from the grain of the land, and manna was no longer available to the sons of Israel; but they partook of the region of the Phoenicians in that year.

13 And it happened when Jesus was in Jericho that he looked up with his eyes and saw a man standing before him, and a drawn sword was in his hand. And Jesus came forward and said to him, “Are you ours or one of our adversaries?”

14 And he said to him, “I have now arrived as commander-in-chief of the Lord’s force.” And Jesus fell face down to the ground and said to him, “Master, what do you command your household servant?”

15 And the commander-in-chief of the Lord says to Jesus, “Loosen the sandal from your feet; for the place upon which you stand is holy.”

Chapter 6

1 And Jericho was shut up and fortified, and no one went out of it or went in.

2 And the Lord said to Jesus, “Behold, I hand over Jericho under your hand, and its king and the strong ones in it who are mighty in strength;

3 but you shall station the fighting men around it,

5 and it shall be that when you sound the trumpet, let all the people shout together, and when they shout, the walls of the city shall fall of themselves, and all the people shall enter, each rushing straight ahead into the city.”

6 And Jesus son of Naue went in to the priests

7 and said to them, “Command the people to go around and encircle the city, and let the fighting men pass armed before the Lord;

8 and let seven priests having seven sacred trumpets likewise pass before the Lord and sound them strongly, and let the ark of the Lord’s covenant follow;

9 and let the fighting men pass in front, and the priests bringing up the rear go behind the ark of the Lord’s covenant, walking and sounding the trumpets.”

10 And Jesus commanded the people, saying, “Do not shout, nor let any of you hear the voice, until the day he announces to shout; then you shall shout.”

11 And the ark of God’s covenant, having gone around the city, immediately went away to the camp and slept there.

12 And on the second day Jesus arose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the Lord’s covenant,

13 and the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets went ahead before the Lord, and after them the fighting men came in and the rest of the crowd behind the ark of the Lord’s covenant; and the priests sounded the trumpets, and all the rest of the crowd encircled the city nearby

14 and went away again to the camp. Thus he did for six days.

15 And on the seventh day they rose at dawn and went around the city six times;

16 and on the seventh circuit the priests sounded the trumpets, and Jesus said to the sons of Israel, “Shout; for the Lord has handed the city over to you.

17 And the city shall be devoted, it and everything in it, to the Lord Sabaoth; except Raab the prostitute, preserve her and all who are in her house.

18 But you, guard yourselves very carefully from the devoted thing, lest, considering it, you yourselves take from the devoted thing and make the camp of the sons of Israel devoted and wear us away;

19 and all silver or gold or bronze or iron shall be holy to the Lord; it shall be brought into the Lord’s treasury.”

20 And the priests sounded the trumpets; and when the people heard the sound of the trumpets, all the people together shouted with a great and strong shout. And the whole wall fell all around, and all the people went up into the city.

21 And Jesus devoted it and everything that was in the city, from man to woman, from young man to elder and to calf and beast of burden, by the edge of the sword.

22 And Jesus said to the two young men who had spied, “Enter the woman’s house and bring her out from there and everything that belongs to her.”

23 And the two young men who had spied out the city entered the woman’s house and brought out Raab the prostitute and her father and her mother and her brothers and everything that belonged to her and all her kin, and set her outside Israel’s camp.

24 And the city was burned with fire with everything in it, except that silver and gold and bronze and iron they gave to be brought into the Lord’s treasury.

25 And Jesus kept Raab the prostitute and all her father’s household alive, and she dwelt in Israel until this day, because she hid the spies whom Jesus sent to spy out Jericho. –

26 And Jesus made an oath on that day before the Lord, saying, “Accursed is the man who builds that city; with his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and with his youngest he shall set up its gates.” And Ozan from Baethel did so; with Abiron his firstborn he founded it, and with his youngest, who survived, he set up its gates.

27 And the Lord was with Jesus, and his name was throughout all the land.

Chapter 7

1 And the sons of Israel committed a great trespass and appropriated from the devoted thing; and Achar son of Charmi son of Zambri son of Zara from the tribe of Judas took from the devoted thing; and the Lord was fiercely angered with the sons of Israel.

2 And Jesus sent men to Gai, which is by Baethel, saying, “Spy out Gai”; and the men went up and spied out Gai.

3 And they returned to Jesus and said to him, “Do not let all the people go up; let about two or three thousand men go up and besiege the city; do not bring all the people there, for they are few.”

4 And about three thousand men went up and fled before the men of Gai.

5 And the men of Gai killed about thirty-six men of them and pursued them from the gate and crushed them on the slope; and the people’s heart was terrified and became like water.

6 And Jesus tore his garments, and Jesus fell on the ground on his face before the Lord until evening, he and the elders of Israel, and they put earth on their heads.

7 And Jesus said, “I pray, Lord, why did your servant bring this people across the Jordan to hand them over to the Amorite to destroy us? If only we had remained and dwelt beside the Jordan.

8 And what shall I say, since Israel has turned the neck before its enemy?

9 And when the Canaanite and all the inhabitants of the land hear, they shall surround us and wear us away from the land; and what shall you do for your great name?”

10 And the Lord said to Jesus, “Arise; why have you fallen on your face like this?

11 The people have sinned and transgressed the covenant that I made with them, and, having stolen from the devoted thing, put it among their vessels.

12 The sons of Israel shall certainly not be able to stand before their enemies; they shall turn their neck before their enemies, because they have become devoted; I shall no longer continue to be with you unless you remove the devoted thing from among yourselves.

13 Rise, sanctify the people and tell them to be sanctified for tomorrow; thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: ‘The devoted thing is among you; you shall not be able to stand before your enemies until you remove the devoted thing from among you.’

14 And you shall all be gathered in the morning by tribes, and the tribe that the Lord shows you shall bring forward by clans; and the clan that the Lord shows you shall bring forward by household; and the household that the Lord shows you shall bring forward man by man;

15 and whoever is indicated shall be burned with fire, he and everything that belongs to him, because he transgressed the Lord’s covenant and committed lawlessness in Israel.” –

16 And Jesus rose early and brought forward the people by tribes, and the tribe of Judas was indicated;

17 and it was brought forward by clans, and the clan of Zara was indicated; and it was brought forward man by man,

18 and Achar son of Zambri son of Zara was indicated.

19 And Jesus said to Achar, “Give glory today to the Lord God of Israel and give the confession and tell me what you have done; do not hide it from me.”

20 And Achar answered Jesus and said, “Truly I sinned before the Lord God of Israel; thus and thus I did;

21 I saw among the spoil a fine, variegated, beautiful thing, and two hundred didrachmas of silver and one golden tongue of fifty didrachmas, and having thought about them I took them, and behold, they are hidden in the earth in my tent, and the silver is hidden beneath them.”

22 And Jesus sent messengers, and they ran to the tent in the camp; and these things were hidden in the tent, and the silver beneath them.

23 And they brought them out of the tent and brought them to Jesus and the elders of Israel, and set them before the Lord.

24 And Jesus took Achar son of Zara and brought him into the ravine of Achor, and his sons and his daughters and his calves and his beasts of burden and all his sheep and his tent and everything that belonged to him, and all the people with him; and he brought them into Emekachor.

25 And Jesus said to Achar, “Why did you destroy us? May the Lord destroy you, as today.” And all Israel stoned him with stones.

26 And they raised a great heap of stones over him. And the Lord ceased from the fury of his anger. Therefore he named it Emekachor to this day.

Chapter 8

1 And the Lord said to Jesus, “Do not fear nor be cowardly; take with you all the fighting men and rise and go up to Gai; behold, I have given into your hands the king of Gai and his land.

2 And you shall do to Gai as you did to Jericho and its king, and you shall take the spoil of the animals for yourself. But set an ambush for yourself behind the city.”

3 And Jesus and all the fighting people arose to go up to Gai. And Jesus chose thirty thousand men strong in might and sent them by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, “You shall lie in ambush behind the city; do not be far from the city, and all of you shall be ready.

5 And I and all those with me shall approach the city, and it shall be that when the inhabitants of Gai come out to meet us as before, we shall flee before them.

6 And when they come out after us, we shall draw them away from the city; and they shall say, ‘These flee before us as they did before.’

7 But you shall rise up from the ambush and go into the city.

8 You shall do according to this word; behold, I have commanded you.”

9 And Jesus sent them, and they went to the ambush and lay between Baethel and Gai, to the west of Gai.

10 And Jesus rose early in the morning and inspected the people; and he and the elders went up before the people toward Gai.

11 And all the fighting people with him went up and, proceeding, came opposite the city from the east,

12 and the city’s ambush was from the west.

14 And it happened when the king of Gai saw, he hastened and went out to meet them directly for battle, he and all the people with him; and he did not know that there was an ambush for him behind the city.

15 And Jesus and Israel saw and withdrew before them.

16 And they pursued after the sons of Israel, and they themselves moved away from the city;

17 no one was left in Gai who did not pursue after Israel; and they left the city open and pursued after Israel.

18 And the Lord said to Jesus, “Stretch out your hand with the javelin in your hand toward the city—for I have handed it into your hands—and the ambush shall rise quickly from its place.” And Jesus stretched out his hand, the javelin, toward the city,

19 and the ambush rose quickly from its place and went out when he stretched out his hand, and they came upon the city and seized it and hurried to burn the city with fire.

20 And the inhabitants of Gai looked behind them and saw smoke rising from the city to heaven; and they no longer had anywhere to flee, here or there.

21 And Jesus and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city had risen to heaven, and they turned and struck the men of Gai.

22 And these came out from the city to meet them, and they were between the camp, these on this side and those on that side; and they struck them until none of them remained saved or escaped.

23 And they seized the king of Gai alive and brought him to Jesus.

24 And when the sons of Israel finished killing all those of Gai in the plains and on the mountain on the descent, where they pursued them from it to the end, Jesus turned back to Gai and struck it with the edge of the sword.

25 And those who fell that day, from man to woman, were twelve thousand, all the inhabitants of Gai,

27 except for the animals and the spoils in the city, all that the sons of Israel took as spoil according to the Lord’s command, as the Lord instructed Jesus.

28 And Jesus burned the city with fire; he made it an uninhabited mound forever, until this day.

29 And he hung the king of Gai on a double tree, and he was on the tree until evening; and when the sun was setting, Jesus gave an order, and they took his body down from the tree and threw him into the pit and set a heap of stones over him until this day.

Chapter 9

1 And when the kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan, those in the hill country and those in the plain and those along the whole shore of the Great Sea and those near Antilibanos, and the Chettites and the Canaanites and the Pherezites and the Euaites and the Amorites and the Gergesites and the Jebusites heard,

2 they all gathered together to wage war against Jesus and Israel together.

2 a Then Jesus built an altar to the Lord, the God of Israel, on Mount Gaibal,

3 as Moses the attendant of the Lord commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in Moses’ law, an altar of whole stones upon which no iron had been laid, and there he offered whole burnt offerings to the Lord and a sacrifice of salvation.

4 And Jesus wrote upon the stones the second law, the law of Moses that he wrote before the sons of Israel.

5 And all Israel and their elders and their judges and their scribes passed on this side and that opposite the ark, and the priests and the Levites carried the ark of the Lord’s covenant, and the sojourner and the native-born, half of them near Mount Garizin and half of them near Mount Gaibal, as Moses the attendant of the Lord commanded, to bless the people first.

6 And after these things Jesus thus read all the words of this law, the blessings and the curses, according to all that is written in Moses’ law;

7 there was no word among all that Moses commanded Jesus that Jesus did not read into the ears of all the assembly of the sons of Israel, to the men and women and children and the sojourners who joined Israel.

3 And the inhabitants of Gabaon heard all that the Lord had done to Jericho and Gai.

4 And they too acted with cunning and, coming, provisioned themselves and prepared themselves and took old sacks on their donkeys and old, torn, tied-up wineskins,

5 and the hollow parts of their shoes and their sandals were old and resoled on their feet, and their garments worn out upon them, and their provision bread dry and moldy and eaten away.

6 And they came to Jesus in the camp of Israel at Galgala and said to Jesus and Israel, “We have come from a distant land, and now make a covenant with us.”

7 And the sons of Israel said to the Chorraite, “See that you are not dwelling among me; and how shall I make a covenant with you?”

8 And they said to Jesus, “We are your household servants.” And Jesus said to them, “Where are you from, and whence have you come?”

9 And they said, “Your servants have come from a very distant land in the name of the Lord your God; for we have heard his name and all that he did in Egypt

10 and all that he did to the kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Seon king of Esebon and Og king of Basan, who dwelt in Astaroth and Edraim.

11 And having heard, our elders and all the inhabitants of our land said to us, ‘Take provisions for yourselves for the journey and go to meet them and say to them, “We are your household servants, and now make a covenant with us.”’

12 These loaves we provisioned while hot on the day we went out to come to you, but now they have dried and become eaten away;

13 and these wineskins that we filled when new, these have torn; and our garments and our shoes have worn out from the very long journey.”

14 And the rulers took from their provisions and did not inquire of the Lord.

15 And Jesus made peace with them and made a covenant with them to preserve them, and the rulers of the assembly swore to them. –

16 And it happened three days after making a covenant with them that they heard that they were near them and dwelt among them.

17 And the sons of Israel set out and came to their cities; and their cities were Gabaon and Kephira and Beroth and the city of Iarin.

18 And the sons of Israel did not fight them, because all the rulers had sworn to them by the Lord, the God of Israel; and all the assembly murmured against the rulers.

19 And the rulers said to all the assembly, “We swore to them by the Lord, the God of Israel, and now we cannot touch them;

20 this we shall do: keep them alive, and we shall preserve them, and there shall be no anger against us because of the oath that we swore to them;

21 they shall live and be woodcutters and water carriers for all the assembly,” as the rulers said to them.

22 And Jesus called them together and said to them, “Why did you deceive me, saying, ‘We are very far from you,’ when you are local people among those dwelling with us?

23 And now you are accursed; a servant and a woodcutter for me and my God shall certainly not cease from among you.”

24 And they answered Jesus, saying, “We were told all that the Lord your God instructed Moses his servant, to give you this land and to destroy us and all who dwell upon it before your face, and we greatly feared for our lives before your face and did this thing.

25 And now behold, we are under your hands; do to us as pleases you and as seems good to you.”

26 And they did thus to them; and Jesus rescued them that day from the hands of the sons of Israel, and they did not kill them.

27 And Jesus appointed them on that day as woodcutters and water carriers for all the assembly and for the altar of God; for this reason the inhabitants of Gabaon became woodcutters and water carriers for the altar of God until this day and for the place that the Lord shall choose.

Chapter 10

1 And when Adonibezek king of Jerusalem heard that Jesus had taken Gai and destroyed it—as they did to Jericho and its king, so they did to Gai and its king—and that the inhabitants of Gabaon had gone over to Jesus and Israel,

2 they were very afraid among themselves; for he knew that Gabaon was a great city, like one of the chief cities, and all its men were strong.

3 And Adonibezek king of Jerusalem sent to Ailam king of Chebron and to Phidon king of Jerimuth and to Jephtha king of Lachis and to Dabir king of Odollam, saying,

4 “Come, go up to me and help me, and let us wage war against Gabaon; for they have gone over to Jesus and the sons of Israel.”

5 And the five kings of the Jebusites went up, the king of Jerusalem and the king of Chebron and the king of Jerimuth and the king of Lachis and the king of Odollam, they and all their people, and encamped around Gabaon and besieged it.

6 And the inhabitants of Gabaon sent to Jesus at Israel’s camp in Galgala, saying, “Do not relax your hands from your servants; come up to us quickly and deliver us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the hill country are gathered against us.”

7 And Jesus went up from Galgala, he and all the fighting people with him, everyone strong in might.

8 And the Lord said to Jesus, “Do not fear them; for I have handed them into your hands; no one of them shall remain before you.”

9 And Jesus came upon them suddenly; he had traveled all night from Galgala.

10 And the Lord threw them into confusion before the sons of Israel, and the Lord crushed them with a great crushing in Gabaon, and they pursued them along the road of the ascent of Oronin and cut them down as far as Azeka and as far as Makeda.

11 And as they fled before the sons of Israel on the descent of Oronin, the Lord cast hailstones upon them from heaven as far as Azeka, and more died from the hailstones than the sons of Israel killed with the sword in battle.

12 Then Jesus spoke to the Lord on the day when God handed the Amorite under Israel’s hand, when he crushed them in Gabaon and they were crushed before the sons of Israel, and Jesus said, “Let the sun stand still over Gabaon and the moon over the ravine of Ailon.”

13 And the sun stood still and the moon stood in place until God defended them against their enemies. And the sun stood in the middle of heaven and did not go ahead toward setting for the end of one whole day.

14 And there was no such day before or afterward in which God listened to a person, because the Lord fought alongside Israel.

16 And these five kings fled and hid in the cave in Makeda.

17 And it was reported to Jesus, saying, “The five kings have been found hidden in the cave in Makeda.”

18 And Jesus said, “Roll stones over the mouth of the cave and appoint men to guard them,

19 but you must not stand still; pursue after your enemies and overtake their rear guard and do not let them enter their cities; for the Lord our God has handed them into our hands.”

20 And it happened when Jesus and all the sons of Israel finished striking them with a very great blow to the end, and those escaping escaped into the fortified cities,

21 all the people returned to Jesus at Makeda unharmed, and none of the sons of Israel made a sound with his tongue.

22 And Jesus said, “Open the cave and bring these five kings out of the cave.”

23 And they brought the five kings out of the cave: the king of Jerusalem and the king of Chebron and the king of Jerimuth and the king of Lachis and the king of Odollam.

24 And when they brought them to Jesus, Jesus called together all Israel and the leaders of the war who went with him, saying to them, “Come forward and put your feet upon their necks.” And they came forward and put their feet upon their necks.

25 And Jesus said to them, “Do not fear them or be cowardly; be manly and strong, because thus the Lord shall do to all your enemies against whom you wage war.”

26 And Jesus killed them and hung them on five trees, and they hung on the trees until evening.

27 And at sunset Jesus commanded, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave into which they had fled, and rolled stones over the cave until this day.

28 And they took Makeda on that day and killed it with the edge of the sword and destroyed every breathing thing in it, and no one saved or escaped remained in it; and they did to the king of Makeda as they had done to the king of Jericho.

29 And Jesus and all Israel with him went from Makeda to Lebna and besieged Lebna.

30 And the Lord handed it into Israel’s hands, and they took it and its king and killed it with the edge of the sword and every breathing thing in it, and not even one saved or escaped remained in it; and they did to its king as they had done to the king of Jericho.

31 And Jesus and all Israel with him went from Lebna to Lachis and encamped around it and besieged it.

32 And the Lord handed Lachis into Israel’s hands, and he took it on the second day, and they killed it with the edge of the sword and destroyed it, as they had done to Lebna. –

33 Then Ailam king of Gazer went up to help Lachis, and Jesus struck him with the edge of the sword and his people, until none of them remained saved or escaped.

34 And Jesus and all Israel with him went from Lachis to Odollam and encamped around it and besieged it.

35 And the Lord handed it into Israel’s hand, and he took it on that day and killed it with the edge of the sword, and they killed every breathing thing in it, as they had done to Lachis.

36 And Jesus and all Israel with him went to Chebron and encamped around it.

37 And he struck it with the edge of the sword and every breathing thing in it; there was no survivor; as they had done to Odollam, they destroyed it and everything in it.

38 And Jesus and all Israel returned to Dabir and encamped around it,

39 and they took it and its king and its villages and struck it with the edge of the sword and destroyed it and every breathing thing in it and left no survivor in it; as they had done to Chebron and its king, so they did to Dabir and its king.

40 And Jesus struck all the land of the hill country and the Nageb and the plain and Asedoth and its kings; they left no survivor among them; and he destroyed every living, breathing thing, as the Lord, the God of Israel, had commanded,

41 from Kades Barne to Gaza, all Gosom as far as Gabaon,

42 and Jesus struck all their kings and their land at once, because the Lord, the God of Israel, fought alongside Israel.

Chapter 11

1 And when Jabin king of Asor heard, he sent to Jobab king of Marron and to the king of Symoon and to the king of Aziph

2 and to the kings by great Sidon, into the hill country and into Raba opposite Keneroth and into the plain and into Napheddor

3 and to the coastal Canaanites from the east and to the coastal Amorites and Euaites and Jebusites and Pherezites in the mountain and the Chettites below Aermon in the land of Massepha.

4 And they and their kings with them came out, like the sand of the sea in multitude, and very many horses and chariots.

5 And all these kings gathered and came together and encamped by the water of Marron to fight Israel.

6 And the Lord said to Jesus, “Do not fear before them, because tomorrow at this hour I shall hand them over routed before Israel; you shall cut the tendons of their horses and burn their chariots with fire.”

7 And Jesus and all the fighting people came upon them by the water of Marron suddenly and fell upon them in the hill country.

8 And the Lord handed them under Israel’s hand, and, striking them, they pursued as far as great Sidon and as far as Maserōn and as far as the plains of Massoch toward the east, and cut them down until none remained saved.

9 And Jesus did to them as the Lord commanded him; he cut the tendons of their horses and burned their chariots with fire.

10 And Jesus turned back at that time and seized Asor and its king; Asor had formerly ruled all these kingdoms.

11 And they killed every breathing thing in it with the sword and destroyed all, and no breathing thing remained in it; and they burned Asor with fire.

12 And Jesus took all the cities of the kings and their kings and killed them with the edge of the sword, and they destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the Lord instructed.

13 But Israel did not burn all the cities built upon mounds; Jesus burned Asor alone.

14 And the sons of Israel took all its spoils for themselves, but destroyed all of them with the edge of the sword until he had destroyed them; they left not one breathing thing among them.

15 As the Lord instructed Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Jesus, and thus Jesus did; he transgressed nothing of all that Moses instructed him.

16 And Jesus took all the hill country and all the Nageb and all the land of Gosom and the plain and the western region and the mountain of Israel and the lowlands,

17 the regions by the mountain from Mount Achel and what rises toward Seir and as far as Baalgad and the plains of Lebanon below Mount Aermon; and he took all their kings and killed them and put them to death.

18 And Jesus waged war against these kings for many days,

19 and there was no city that Israel did not take; they took all in war.

20 For it came about through the Lord that their heart was made strong to meet Israel in war, so that they would be destroyed, so that mercy would not be given them, but that they would be destroyed, as the Lord said to Moses.

21 And Jesus came at that time and destroyed the Enakim from the hill country, from Chebron and Dabir and Anaboth and from all the race of Israel and from all the mountain of Judas with their cities; and Jesus destroyed them.

22 None of the Enakim remained from the sons of Israel, except that some remained in Gaza and Geth and Asedoth.

23 And Jesus took all the land as the Lord commanded Moses, and Jesus gave them as an inheritance to Israel in divisions according to their tribes. And the land rested from being at war.

Chapter 12

1 And these are the kings of the land whom the sons of Israel killed and whose land they inherited beyond the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the ravine of Arnon as far as Mount Aermon and all the land of Araba to the east:

2 Seon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Esebon and ruled from Aroer, which is in the ravine, along part of the ravine and half of Galaad as far as Jabok, the boundary of the sons of Ammon,

3 and Araba as far as the Sea of Chenereth to the east and as far as the Sea of Araba, the Sea of Salt, from the east, the road by Asimoth, from Thaiman below Asedoth Phasga;

4 and Og king of Basan, who was left of the giants, dwelling in Astaroth and Edraim,

5 ruling from Mount Aermon and from Selcha and all Basan as far as the boundaries of Gesuri and Machati and half of Galaad, the boundary of Seon king of Esebon.

6 Moses the servant of the Lord and the sons of Israel struck them, and Moses gave it as an inheritance to Reuben and Gad and the half tribe of Manasse.

7 And these are the kings of the Amorites whom Jesus and the sons of Israel killed beyond the Jordan by the sea, Baalgad in the plain of Lebanon and as far as Mount Chelcha on the ascent to Seir, and Jesus gave it to the tribes of Israel to inherit according to their allotment,

8 in the mountain and in the plain and in Araba and in Asedoth and in the wilderness and in Nageb: the Chettite and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Pherezite and the Euaite and the Jebusite;

9 the king of Jericho and the king of Gai, which is near Baethel,

10 king of Jerusalem, king of Chebron,

11 king of Jerimuth, king of Lachis,

12 king of Ailam, king of Gazer,

13 king of Dabir, king of Gader,

14 king of Ermath, king of Arath,

15 king of Lebna, king of Odollam,

16 king of Makeda,

17 king of Taphoug, king of Opher,

18 king of Aphek of Saron,

19 king of Asor,

20 king of Symoon, king of Marron, king of Aziph,

21 king of Kades, king of Tanach,

22 king of Magedon, king of Jekonam of Chermel,

23 king of Dor of Napheddor, king of Goim of Galilee,

24 king of Tharsa; all these were twenty-nine kings.

Chapter 13

1 And Jesus was old, advanced in days. And the Lord said to Jesus, “You are advanced in days, and much land remains for an inheritance.

2 And this is the land left: the territories of the Philistines, the Gesirite and the Canaanite;

3 from the uninhabited region opposite Egypt to the boundaries of Akkaron, from the left of the Canaanites, it is reckoned to the five satrapies of the Philistines, to the Gazaite and the Azotite and the Ascalonite and the Getthite and the Akkaronite; and to the Euaite

4 from Thaiman and all the land of Canaan opposite Gaza, and the Sidonians as far as Aphek, as far as the boundaries of the Amorites,

5 and all the land of the Gabli Philistines and all Lebanon toward the sunrise from Galgal below Mount Aermon as far as the entrance of Emath;

6 every inhabitant of the hill country from Lebanon as far as Maserephothmaim, all the Sidonians, I shall destroy them from before Israel; but distribute it as an inheritance to Israel, as I commanded you.

7 And now divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half tribe of Manasse; from the Jordan to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun you shall give it; the Great Sea shall bound it.

8 But to the two tribes and the half tribe of Manasse, to Reuben and Gad, Moses gave beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise; Moses the servant of the Lord gave it

9 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the torrent Arnon, and the city in the middle of the ravine and all Misor from Maidaba to Daiban,

10 all the cities of Seon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Esebon, as far as the boundaries of the sons of Ammon

11 and the Galaadite region and the boundaries of Gesiri and Machati, all Mount Aermon and all the Basanite region as far as Selcha,

12 all the kingdom of Og in the Basanite region, who reigned in Astaroth and Edraim; he was left of the giants, and Moses struck him and destroyed him.

13 And the sons of Israel did not destroy the Gesirite and the Machatite and the Canaanite, and the king of Gesiri and the Machatite dwelt among the sons of Israel until this day.

14 Except to the tribe of Levi no inheritance was given; the Lord, the God of Israel, he is their inheritance, as the Lord said to them. And this is the division that Moses divided to the sons of Israel in Araboth Moab beyond the Jordan opposite Jericho.

15 And Moses gave to the tribe of Reuben according to their clans.

16 And their boundaries were from Aroer, which is opposite the ravine of Arnon, and the city in the ravine of Arnon and all Misor

17 as far as Esebon and all the cities in Misor, and Daibon and Bamothbaal and the house of Beelmon

18 and Jassa and Kedemoth and Mephaath

19 and Kariathaim and Sebama and Serada and Sior on Mount Emak

20 and Baethphogor and Asedoth Phasga and Baethasimoth

21 and all the cities of Misor and all the kingdom of Seon king of the Amorites, whom Moses struck, him and the leaders of Madian and Eui and Rokom and Sour and Our and Robe, rulers beside Seon and the inhabitants of the land.

22 And Balaam son of Beor, the seer, they killed in the turn.

23 And the boundary of Reuben was the Jordan as boundary. This is the inheritance of the sons of Reuben according to their clans, their cities and their settlements.

24 And Moses gave to the sons of Gad according to their clans.

25 And their boundaries were Jazer, all the cities of Galaad and half the land of the sons of Ammon as far as Aroer, which is opposite Rabba,

26 and from Esebon as far as Ramoth by Massepha and Botanin and Maanain as far as the boundaries of Dabir

27 and in Emek, Baetharam and Baethanabra and Sokchotha and Saphan and the rest of the kingdom of Seon king of Esebon, and the Jordan shall bound it as far as the region of the Sea of Chenereth beyond the Jordan to the east.

28 This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad according to their clans, their cities and their settlements.

29 And Moses gave to the half tribe of Manasse according to their clans.

30 And their boundaries were from Maanain and all the kingdom of Basani and all the kingdom of Og king of Basan and all the villages of Jair that are in the Basanite region, sixty cities,

31 and half of Galaad and in Astaroth and Edraim, cities of Og’s kingdom in the Basanite region; and they were given to the sons of Machir son of Manasse and to the half of the sons of Machir son of Manasse according to their clans.

32 These are those whom Moses made inherit beyond the Jordan in Araboth Moab beyond the Jordan opposite Jericho to the east.

Chapter 14

1 And these are those of the sons of Israel who inherited in the land of Canaan, to whom Eleazar the priest and Jesus son of Naue and the leaders of the families of the tribes of the sons of Israel allotted it.

2 By lots they inherited, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Jesus for the nine tribes and the half tribe,

3 from beyond the Jordan, and to the Levites he did not give an allotment among them;

4 because the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasse and Ephraim, and no portion in the land was given to the Levites except cities to dwell in and their set-apart areas for the animals and their animals.

5 As the Lord commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did and divided the land.

6 And the sons of Judas came to Jesus in Galgal, and Chaleb son of Jephonne the Kenezite said to him, “You know the word that the Lord spoke to Moses, the man of God, concerning me and you in Kades Barne;

7 for I was forty years old when Moses the servant of God sent me from Kades Barne to spy out the land, and I answered him a word according to his mind,

8 but my brothers who went up with me shifted the people’s heart, whereas I attached myself to follow the Lord my God,

9 and Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘The land upon which you set foot shall be yours as an inheritance and your children’s forever, because you attached yourself to follow after the Lord our God.’

10 And now the Lord has sustained me, as he said, this forty-fifth year since the Lord spoke this word to Moses and Israel walked in the wilderness. And now behold, I am eighty-five years old today;

11 I am still strong today as when Moses sent me; likewise I am strong now to go out and enter into war.

12 And now I ask you for this mountain, as the Lord said on that day; for you heard this word on that day. But now the Enakim are there, fortified and great cities; if then the Lord is with me, I shall destroy them, as the Lord said to me.”

13 And Jesus blessed him and gave Chebron to Chaleb son of Jephonne son of Kenez as an inheritance.

14 For this reason Chebron became the inheritance of Chaleb son of Jephonne the Kenezite until this day because he followed the command of the Lord, the God of Israel.

15 And the name of Chebron formerly was City of Arbok; this was a chief city of the Enakim. And the land ceased from war.

Chapter 15

1 And the boundaries of the tribe of Judas according to their clans were from the boundaries of Idumaea, from the wilderness of Sin as far as Kades toward the south.

2 And their boundaries were from the south as far as the region of the Salt Sea, from the ridge that runs toward the south,

3 and it goes across opposite the ascent of Akrabin and circles Senna and ascends from the south to Kades Barne and goes out to Asoron and ascends to Addara and goes around the western side of Kades

4 and goes to Asemona and passes as far as the ravine of Egypt, and its boundary shall have its outlet at the sea; these are their boundaries from the south.

5 And the boundaries from the east: the whole Salt Sea as far as the Jordan. And their boundaries from the north, from the ridge of the sea and from the region of the Jordan:

6 the boundary goes up to Baethagla and passes on the north to Baetharaba, and the boundary ascends to the stone of Baion son of Reuben,

7 and the boundary ascends to the fourth part of the ravine of Achor and descends to Galgal, which is opposite the approach of Addamin, which is to the south of the ravine, and passes to the water of the Spring of the Sun, and its outlet shall be the spring Rogel,

8 and the boundary ascends to the ravine of Onom on the back of Jebus from the south [this is Jerusalem], and the boundary passes to the summit of the mountain that is opposite the ravine of Onom toward the sea, which is from the region of the land of Raphain to the north,

9 and the boundary passes from the summit of the mountain to the spring of the water of Naphtho and passes to Mount Ephron, and the boundary leads out to Baal [this is the city of Iarim],

10 and the boundary shall go around from Baal toward the sea and pass to Mount Assares on the back, the city of Iarim on the north [this is Chaslon], and shall descend to the City of the Sun and pass to the south,

11 and the boundary shall pass by the back of Akkaron to the north, and the boundaries shall pass to Sakcharona and pass Mount Bala and pass to Jabnel, and the outlet of the boundaries shall be at the sea.

12 And their boundaries from the west: the Great Sea shall bound them. These are the boundaries of the sons of Judas all around according to their clans. –

13 And to Chaleb son of Jephonne he gave a portion among the sons of Judas by God’s command, and Jesus gave him the city of Arbok, chief city of Enak [this is Chebron].

14 And Chaleb son of Jephonne destroyed from there the three sons of Enak, Sousi and Tholmi and Achima.

15 And Chaleb went up from there against the inhabitants of Dabir; the name of Dabir had formerly been City of Letters.

16 And Chaleb said, “Whoever takes and cuts down the City of Letters and rules it, to him I shall give my daughter Achsa as a wife.”

17 And Gothoniel son of Kenez, the younger brother of Chaleb, took it, and he gave him his daughter Achsa as a wife.

18 And it happened as she was entering that she advised him, saying, “I shall ask my father for a field”; and she cried out from the donkey. And Chaleb said to her, “What is it with you?”

19 And she said to him, “Give me a blessing, because you gave me into the land of Nageb; give me Golathmain.” And Chaleb gave her Upper Golathmain and Lower Golathmain. –

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judas.

21 And their cities were: the first city of the tribe of the sons of Judas at the boundaries of Edom in the wilderness, Kaibaiseleel and Ara and Asor

22 and Ikam and Regma and Arouel
23 and Kades and Asorionain
24 and Mainam and Balmainan and their villages
25 and the cities Aseron [this is Asor]
26 and Sen and Salmaa and Molada
27 and Seri and Baiphalad
28 and Cholaseola and Bersabee and their villages and their settlements,
29 Bala and Bakok and Asom
30 and Elbouda and Baethel and Erma
31 and Sekelak and Macharim and Sethennak
32 and Labos and Sale and Eromoth, twenty-nine cities and their villages.
33 In the plain: Astaol and Raa and Assa
34 and Ramen and Tano and Ilouthoth and Maiani
35 and Jermouth and Odollam and Membra and Saōcho and Azeka
36 and Sakarim and Gadera and its settlements, fourteen cities and their villages;
37 Senna and Adasan and Magadagad
38 and Dalal and Maspha and Jakareel
39 and Lachēs and Basedoth and Ideadalea
40 and Chabra and Maches and Maachos
41 and Geddor and Bagadiel and Noman and Makedan, sixteen cities and their villages;
42 Lemna and Ithak
43 and Anoch and Jana and Nasib
44 and Keilam and Akiezi and Kezib and Bathesar and Ailon, ten cities and their villages;
45 Akkaron and its villages and their settlements;
46 from Akkaron, Gemna and all those near Asedoth and their villages;
47 Asiedoth and its villages and its settlements; Gaza and its villages and its settlements as far as the torrent of Egypt; and the Great Sea bounds them.
48 And in the hill country: Samir and Jether and Socha
49 and Renna and City of Letters [this is Dabir]
50 and Anon and Eskaiman and Aisam
51 and Gosom and Chalou and Channa, eleven cities and their villages;
52 Airem and Remna and Soma
53 and Jemain and Baethachou and Phakoua

54 and Euma and City of Arbok [this is Chebron] and Sorth, nine cities and their settlements;

55 Maor and Chermel and Ozib and Itan

56 and Jariel and Jarikam and Zakanaiim

57 and Gabaa and Thamnatha, nine cities and their villages;

58 Aloua and Baethsour and Geddon

59 and Magaroth and Baethanam and Thekoum, six cities and their villages;

59 a Theko and Ephratha [this is Baethleem] and Phagor and Aitan and Koulon and Tatam and Eobes and Karem and Galem and Thether and Manocho, eleven cities and their villages;

60 Kariathbaal [this is the city of Iarim] and Sōtheba, two cities and their settlements;

61 and Baddargis and Tharabaam and Ainon and Aichioza

62 and Naphlazon and the cities Sadom and Ankades, seven cities and their villages.

63 And the Jebusite dwelt in Jerusalem, and the sons of Judas were not able to destroy them; and the Jebusites dwelt in Jerusalem until that day.

Chapter 16

1 And the boundaries of the sons of Joseph were from the Jordan by Jericho on the east, and it shall ascend from Jericho into the hill country, the wilderness, to Baethel Louza

2 and shall go out to Baethel and pass to the boundaries of Chatarothi

3 and shall pass toward the sea to the boundaries of Aptalim as far as the boundaries of Lower Baethoron, and their outlet shall be at the sea.

4 And the sons of Joseph, Ephraim and Manasse, inherited;

5 and the boundaries of the sons of Ephraim according to their clans were these: the boundaries of their inheritance from the east were Ataroth and Erok as far as Upper Baethoron and Gazara,

6 and the boundaries shall pass toward the sea to Ikasmon from north Therma, shall go around toward the east to Thenasa and Sellēsa and pass from the east to Janoka

7 and to Macho and Ataroth and their villages and come to Jericho and pass out to the Jordan,

8 and from Taphou the boundaries shall go toward the sea to Chelkana, and their outlet shall be at the sea; this is the inheritance of the tribe of Ephraim according to their clans.

9 And the cities set apart for the sons of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Manasse, all the cities and their villages. –

10 And Ephraim did not destroy the Canaanite dwelling in Gazer, and the Canaanite dwelt in Ephraim until this day, until Pharaoh king of Egypt went up and took it and burned it with fire, and they pierced through the Canaanites and the Pherezites and those dwelling in Gazer, and Pharaoh gave it as a dowry to his daughter.

Chapter 17

1 And the boundaries of the tribe of the sons of Manasse were, because he was Joseph’s firstborn, for Machir, Manasse’s firstborn, father of Galaad [for he was a fighting man], in the Galaadite and Basanite regions.

2 And it was for the remaining sons of Manasse according to their clans, for the sons of Jezer and the sons of Kelez and the sons of Jeziel and the sons of Sychem and the sons of Symarim and the sons of Opher; these were the males according to their clans.

3 And Salpaad son of Opher had no sons but only daughters, and these are the names of Salpaad’s daughters: Maala and Noua and Egla and Melcha and Thersa.

4 And they stood before Eleazar the priest and before Jesus and before the rulers, saying, “God commanded through the hand of Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” And an allotment was given them by the Lord’s command among their father’s brothers.

5 And their measured allotment fell from Anassa and the plain of Labek from Galaad, which is beyond the Jordan;

6 for the daughters of the sons of Manasse inherited an allotment among their brothers; but the land of Galaad became the portion of the sons of Manasse who remained.

7 And the boundaries of the sons of Manasse were Delanath, which is opposite the sons of Anath, and it goes along the boundaries to Jamin and Jassib to the spring Thaphthoth;

8 it shall be for Manasse, and Thapheth on the boundaries of Manasse for the sons of Ephraim.

9 And the boundaries shall descend to the ravine of Karana on the south along the ravine of Jariel, a terebinth for Ephraim in the midst of a city of Manasse; and the boundaries of Manasse to the north to the torrent, and its outlet shall be the sea.

10 From the south for Ephraim, and on the north Manasse, and the sea shall be their boundary; and they shall adjoin Aser on the north and Issachar on the east.

11 And for Manasse in Issachar and Aser shall be Baethsan and its villages and the inhabitants of Dor and its villages and the inhabitants of Mageddo and its villages and a third of Napheta and its villages.

12 And the sons of Manasse were not able to destroy these cities, and the Canaanite began to dwell in that land;

13 and it happened that when the sons of Israel grew strong, they made the Canaanites subject, but they did not destroy them utterly.

14 And the sons of Joseph answered Jesus, saying, “Why have you given us one lot and one measured portion as an inheritance? Yet I am a numerous people, and God has blessed me.”

15 And Jesus said to them, “If you are a numerous people, go up into the wooded land and clear it for yourself, if Mount Ephraim confines you.”

16 And they said, “Mount Ephraim will not suffice for us, and the Canaanite who dwells there in Baethsan and its villages in the valley of Jezrael has a chosen horse and iron.”

17 And Jesus said to the sons of Joseph, “If you are a numerous people and have great strength, you shall not have one lot;

18 for the wooded land shall be yours, because it is wooded land and you shall clear it and it shall be yours; and when you destroy the Canaanite, for he has a chosen horse, you are stronger than he.”

Chapter 18

1 And all the assembly of the sons of Israel was called together at Selo, and they pitched the tent of testimony there, and the land was held by them.

2 And seven tribes of the sons of Israel remained that had not inherited.

3 And Jesus said to the sons of Israel, “How long will you grow slack about inheriting the land that the Lord our God gave?

4 Give three men from each tribe from among you, and let them arise and go through the land and draw it out before me as it must be divided. [And they came to him,

5 and he divided it for them into seven portions.] Judas shall be their boundary on the south, and the sons of Joseph shall be theirs on the north.

6 But you divide the land into seven portions and bring them to me here, and I shall bring out a lot for you before the Lord our God.

7 For the sons of Levi have no portion among you, for the Lord’s priesthood is his portion; and Gad and Reuben and the half tribe of Manasse received their inheritance beyond the Jordan on the east that Moses the servant of the Lord gave them.”

8 And the men arose and went, and Jesus commanded the men going to traverse the land, saying, “Go and traverse the land and come to me, and here I shall bring out a lot for you before the Lord in Selo.”

9 And they went and traversed the land and saw it and wrote it by its cities in seven portions in a book and brought it to Jesus.

10 And Jesus cast a lot for them in Selo before the Lord.

11 And the lot of the tribe of Benjamin came out first according to their clans, and the boundaries of their lot came out between Judas and the sons of Joseph.

12 And their boundaries from the north were from the Jordan; the boundary shall ascend behind Jericho on the north and ascend to the mountain toward the sea, and its outlet shall be the Madbarite region of Baethon,

13 and the boundary shall pass from there to Louza behind Louza on the south [this is Baethel], and the boundary shall descend to Maatarothorech to the hill country south of Lower Baethoron,

14 and the boundary shall pass and go around to the side facing toward the sea from the south of the mountain opposite Baethoron to the south, and its outlet shall be to Kariathbaal [this is Kariathiarin, a city of the sons of Judas]; this is the side toward the sea.

15 And the southern side from the region of Kariathbaal, and the boundary shall pass to Gasin at the spring of the water of Naphtho,

16 and the boundary shall descend to the region of the mountain opposite the wooded valley of Onnam, which is in the region of Emekraphain on the north, and shall descend to Gaienna behind Jebusai on the south and descend to the spring Rogel

17 and pass to the spring Baethsamys and pass to Galiloth, which is opposite the ascent of Aithamin, and descend to the stone of Baion of the sons of Reuben

18 and pass behind Baetharaba on the north and descend

19 to the boundaries behind Baethagla on the north, and the outlet of the boundaries shall be to the ridge of the Salt Sea on the north at the region of the Jordan on the south; these are the boundaries from the south.

20 And the Jordan shall bound it from the eastern side. This is the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, its boundaries all around according to clans. –

21 And the cities of the sons of Benjamin according to their clans were Jericho and Baetheglio and Amekasis

22 and Baethabara and Sara and Besana

23 and Aiin and Phara and Ephratha

24 and Karapha and Kephira and Moni and Gabaa, twelve cities and their villages;

25 Gabaon and Rama and Beerotha

26 and Massema and Miron and Amoke

27 and Phira and Kaphan and Nakan and Selekan and Thareela

28 and Jebus [this is Jerusalem] and cities and Gabaothiarim, thirteen cities and their villages. This is the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin according to their clans.

Chapter 19

1 And the second lot of the sons of Symeon came out, and their inheritance was in the midst of the allotments of the sons of Judas.

2 And their lot was Bersabee and Samaa and Koladam

3 and Arsola and Bola and Asom

4 and Elthoula and Boula and Erma

5 and Sikelak and Baethmachereb and Sarsousin

6 and Batharoth and their fields, thirteen cities and their villages;

7 Eremmon and Thalcha and Ether and Asan, four cities and their villages

8 around their cities as far as Barek, going to Bameth toward the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Symeon according to their clans.

9 From the lot of Judas was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Symeon, because the portion of the sons of Judas was greater than theirs; and the sons of Symeon inherited in the midst of their lot.

10 And the third lot came out for Zabulon according to their clans. The boundaries of their inheritance shall be Esedek,

11 Gola; their boundaries were the sea and Maragella and shall join Baetharaba at the ravine opposite Jekman,

12 and it turned from Sedduk opposite, from the east of Baethsamys to the boundaries of Chaselothaith, and shall pass to Dabiroth and ascend to Phanggai

13 and from there shall go around opposite on the east to Gebere to the city of Katasem and shall pass to Remmona Amathar Aoza

14 and the boundary shall go around on the north to Amoth, and their outlet shall be at Gaiphael

15 and Katanath and Nabaal and Symoon and Jericho and Baethman.

16 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Zabulon according to their clans, cities and their villages.

17 And for Issachar the fourth lot came out.

18 And their boundaries were Jazel and Chasaloth and Sounan

19 and Agin and Siona and Reeroth and Anachereth

20 and Dabiron and Kison and Rebes

21 and Remmas and Jeon and Tomman and Aimarek and Bersaphes,

22 and the boundaries shall join Gaithbor and Salim toward the sea and Baethsamys, and its boundary outlet shall be the Jordan.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar according to their clans, the cities and their villages.

24 And the fifth lot came out for Aser.

25 And their boundaries were from Eleketh and Aleph and Baethok and Keaph

26 and Elimelek and Amiel and Maasa, and it will join Carmel by the sea and Sion and Labanath

27 and it will turn from the rising of the sun and Baithegeneth and will join Zabulon, and from Gai and Phthaiel toward the north, and the boundaries will enter Saphthaibaithme and Inael and will pass into Choba Masomel

28 and Elbon and Raab and Ememaon and Kanthan as far as great Sidon,

29 and the boundaries will turn to Rama and as far as the spring of Masphassat and of the Tyrians, and the boundaries will turn toward Iasiph, and its outlet will be the sea and from Leb and Echozob

30 and Archob and Aphek and Raau.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Aser according to their divisions, cities and their villages.

32 And for Nephthali the sixth lot came out.

33 And their boundaries were Moolam and Mola and Besemiin and Arme and Nabok and Iephthamai as far as Dodam, and its outlets were the Jordan;

34 and the boundaries will turn toward the sea to Enath Thabor and will pass from there to Iakana and will join Zabulon from the south, and Aser will join toward the sea, and the Jordan from the rising of the sun.

35 And the walled cities of the Tyrians: Tyre and Omatha, Daketh and Kenereth

36 and Armaith and Arael and Asor

37 and Kades and Assari and the spring of Asor

38 and Keroe and Megala, Arim and Baiththame and Thessamys.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Nephthali.

40 And for Dan the seventh lot came out.

41 And their boundaries were Sarath and Asa, the cities Sammaus

42 and Salabin and Ammon and Silatha

43 and Ailon and Thamnatha and Akkaron

44 and Alkatha and Begethon and Gebeelan

45 and Azor and Banaibakat and Gethremmon,

46 and from the sea Ierakon, a boundary near Ioppe.

47 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their divisions, their cities and their villages.

47 a And the sons of Dan did not drive out the Amorite who was pressing them in the mountain; and the Amorites did not allow them to descend into the valley and pressed away from them the boundary of their portion.

48 And the sons of Judah went and fought Lachis and took it and struck it with the edge of the sword and inhabited it and called its name Lasendak.

48 a And the Amorite persisted in dwelling in Elom and in Salamin; and the hand of Ephraim was heavy upon them, and they became tribute for them.

49 And they went to take possession of the land according to their boundary. And the sons of Israel gave a lot to Jesus the son of Naue among them

50 by command of God; and they gave him the city that he asked for, Thamnasarach, which is in the mountain of Ephraim; and he built the city and dwelt in it.

51 These are the divisions which Eleazar the priest and Jesus the son of Naue and the chiefs of the fathers' houses among the tribes of Israel distributed by lot in Selo before the Lord beside the doors of the tent of testimony; and they went to take possession of the land.

Chapter 20

1 And the Lord spoke to Jesus, saying,

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: Give the cities of places of refuge, which I spoke to you through Moses,

3 a place of refuge for the slayer who struck a soul unintentionally; and the cities shall be for you a place of refuge, and the slayer shall not die at the hand of the one who is next of kin to the blood, until he stands before the congregation for judgment.

7 And he set apart Kades in Galilee in the mountain of Nephthali, and Sychem in the mountain of Ephraim, and the city of Arbok [this is Chebron] in the mountain of Judah.

8 And beyond the Jordan he gave Bosor in the wilderness in the plain from the tribe of Rouben, and Aremoth in Galaad from the tribe of Gad, and Gaulon in Basanitis from the tribe of Manasse.

9 These are the cities designated for the sons of Israel and for the sojourner attached among them, for everyone striking a soul unintentionally to flee there, so that he might not die by the hand of the one who is next of kin to the blood, until he stands before the congregation for judgment.

Chapter 21

1 And the heads of the fathers' houses of the sons of Levi approached Eleazar the priest and Jesus the son of Naue and the chiefs of the tribes of the fathers' houses from the tribes of Israel

2 and said to them in Selo in the land of Canaan, saying: The Lord commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in and the surrounding lands for our cattle.

3 And the sons of Israel gave the Levites, in the allotting of inheritance by command of the Lord, the cities and their surrounding lands.

4 And the lot came out for the division of Kaath, and for the sons of Aaron, the priests, the Levites, from the tribe of Judah and from the tribe of Symeon and from the tribe of Benjamin, there were by lot thirteen cities,

5 and for the sons of Kaath who remained, from the tribe of Ephraim and from the tribe of Dan and from the half tribe of Manasse, by lot ten cities;

6 and for the sons of Gedson, from the tribe of Issachar and from the tribe of Aser and from the tribe of Nephthali and from the half tribe of Manasse in Basan, thirteen cities;

7 and for the sons of Merari according to their divisions, from the tribe of Rouben and from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zabulon, by lot twelve cities.

8 And the sons of Israel gave the Levites the cities and their surrounding lands, in the manner the Lord commanded Moses, by lot.

9 And the tribe of the sons of Judah and the tribe of the sons of Symeon and from the tribe of the sons of Benjamin gave the cities, and they were named

10 for the sons of Aaron from the division of Kaath of the sons of Levi, because the lot fell to these.

11 And he gave them Kariatharbok, the mother city of the Enak [this is Chebron], in the mountain of Judah; but the surrounding lands around it

12 and the fields of the city and its villages Jesus gave to the sons of Chaleb son of Iephonne as a possession;

13 and to the sons of Aaron the city of refuge for the slayer, Chebron, and the lands set apart with it, and Lemna and the lands set apart beside it,

14 and Ailom and the lands set apart for it, and Tema and the lands set apart for it,

15 and Gella and the lands set apart for it, and Dabir and the lands set apart for it,

16 and Asa and the lands set apart for it, and Tany and the lands set apart for it, and Baithsamys and the lands set apart for it, nine cities from these two tribes.

17 And from the tribe of Benjamin, Gabaon and the lands set apart for it, and Gathed and the lands set apart for it,

18 and Anathoth and the lands set apart for it, and Gamala and the lands set apart for it, four cities.

19 All the cities of the sons of Aaron the priests: thirteen.

20 And for the divisions of the sons of Kaath, the Levites who remained of the sons of Kaath, there was a city of their boundaries from the tribe of Ephraim,

21 and they gave them the city of refuge for the slayer, Sychem, and the lands set apart for it, and Gazara and the things beside it and the lands set apart for it,

22 and Kabsaim and the lands set apart beside it, and upper Baithoron and the lands set apart for it, four cities.

23 And from the tribe of Dan, Elkothaim and the lands set apart for it, and Gethedan and the lands set apart for it,

24 and Ailon and the lands set apart for it, and Gethremmon and the lands set apart for it, four cities.

25 And from the half tribe of Manasse, Tanach and the lands set apart for it, and Iebatha and the lands set apart for it, two cities.

26 All the cities: ten, and the lands set apart beside them, for the divisions of the sons of Kaath who remained.

27 And for the sons of Gedson, the Levites, from the half tribe of Manasse, the cities set apart for the slayers: Gaulon in Basanitis and the lands set apart for it, and Bosoran and the lands set apart for it, two cities,

28 and from the tribe of Issachar, Kison and the lands set apart for it, and Debba and the lands set apart for it,

29 and Remmath and the lands set apart for it, and the Spring of Letters and the lands set apart for it, four cities.

30 And from the tribe of Aser, Basellan and the lands set apart for it, and Dabbon and the lands set apart for it,

31 and Chelkat and the lands set apart for it, and Raab and the lands set apart for it, four cities.

32 And from the tribe of Nephthali, the city set apart for the slayer, Kades in Galilee, and the lands set apart for it, and Emmath and the lands set apart for it, and Themmon and the lands set apart for it, three cities.

33 All the cities of Gedson according to their divisions: thirteen cities.

34 And for the division of the sons of Merari, the remaining Levites, from the tribe of the sons of Zabulon, Maan and its surrounding lands, and Kades and its surrounding lands,

35 and Demna and its surrounding lands, and Sella and its surrounding lands, four cities.

36 And beyond the Jordan opposite Iericho, from the tribe of Rouben, the city of refuge for the slayer, Bosor in the wilderness, in Misor, and its surrounding lands, and Iazer and its surrounding lands,

37 and Dekmon and its surrounding lands, and Mapha and its surrounding lands, four cities.

38 And from the tribe of Gad, the city of refuge for the slayer, Ramoth in Galaad and its surrounding lands, and Kamin and its surrounding lands,

39 and Esebon and its surrounding lands, and Iazer and its surrounding lands; all the cities: four.

40 All the cities for the sons of Merari according to their divisions, those remaining of the tribe of Levi; and the boundaries were twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the sons of Israel: forty-eight cities and their surrounding lands

42 around these cities, a city and the surrounding lands around the city, for all these cities.

42 a And Jesus finished dividing the land within their boundaries.

43 And the sons of Israel gave Jesus a portion according to the command of the Lord; they gave him the city which he asked for; they gave him Thamnasarach in the mountain of Ephraim.

44 And Jesus built the city and dwelt in it.

45 And Jesus took the stone knives with which he circumcised the sons of Israel who were born on the way in the wilderness, and placed them in Thamnasarach.

43 And the Lord gave Israel all the land which he swore to give to their fathers, and they inherited it and dwelt in it.

44 And the Lord gave them rest all around, just as he swore to their fathers; no one of all their enemies stood before them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hands.

45 Not one of all the good words which the Lord spoke to the sons of Israel fell away; all came to pass.

Chapter 22

1 Then Jesus called together the sons of Rouben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manasse

2 and said to them: You have heard all that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, and you listened to my voice in all that I commanded you.

3 You have not abandoned your brothers these days and more, until this day; you kept the command of the Lord your God.

4 And now the Lord our God has given our brothers rest, in the manner he told them; now therefore turn and go to your houses and to the land of your possession, which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan.

5 But take great care to do the commandments and the law which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded us to do: to love the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, to keep his commandments and to cling to him and to serve him with all your mind and with all your soul.

6 And Jesus blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their houses. –

7 And to half the tribe of Manasse Moses gave in Basanitis, and to the half Jesus gave with his brothers beyond the Jordan toward the sea. And when Jesus sent them away to their houses and blessed them,

8 then with many possessions they went to their houses, and very many cattle and silver and gold and iron and much clothing, and they divided the spoil of the enemies with their brothers.

9 And the sons of Rouben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of the sons of Manasse departed from the sons of Israel from Selo in the land of Canaan to go to the land of Galaad, to the land of their possession which they inherited by command of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

10 And they came to Galgala of the Jordan, which is in the land of Canaan, and the sons of Gad and the sons of Rouben and the half tribe of Manasse built there an altar on the Jordan, a great altar to behold.

11 And the sons of Israel heard people saying: Behold, the sons of Gad and the sons of Rouben and the half tribe of Manasse built an altar at the boundaries of the land of Canaan, at Galaad of the Jordan, across from the sons of Israel.

12 And all the sons of Israel gathered at Selo to go up and wage war against them.

13 And the sons of Israel sent to the sons of Rouben and to the sons of Gad and to the half tribe of Manasse in the land of Galaad Phinees son of Eleazar son of Aaron the high priest

14 and ten of the rulers with him, one ruler from a father's house from each of the tribes of Israel; they are rulers of fathers' houses, commanders of thousands of Israel.

15 And they came to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Rouben and to the halves of the tribe of Manasse in the land of Galaad and spoke to them, saying:

16 Thus says the whole congregation of the Lord: What is this offense that you have committed before the God of Israel, to turn away today from the Lord, building an altar for yourselves, that you might become rebels against the Lord?

17 Is the sin of Phogor a small thing for us? For we have not been cleansed from it until this day, and a plague came upon the congregation of the Lord.

18 And will you turn away today from the Lord? And it will be, if you rebel today against the Lord, tomorrow wrath will be upon all Israel.

19 And now if the land of your possession is small for you, cross into the land of the Lord's possession, where the tent of the Lord dwells, and inherit among us; and do not become rebels against God and do not rebel against the Lord by your building an altar apart from the altar of the Lord our God.

20 Was it not Achar son of Zara who committed an offense from the devoted thing, and wrath came upon all the congregation of Israel? And he was one man alone; did he alone die for his own sin?

21 And the sons of Rouben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manasse answered and spoke to the commanders of thousands of Israel, saying:

22 God is God, the Lord, and God is God, the Lord; he himself knows, and Israel itself will know. If we committed an offense in rebellion before the Lord, may he not deliver us in this;

23 and if we built an altar for ourselves so as to rebel against the Lord our God, so as to offer upon it a sacrifice of whole burnt offerings or to make upon it a sacrifice of deliverance, the Lord will seek it out.

24 But because of concern about a word we did this, saying: Lest tomorrow your children say to our children: What have you to do with the Lord the God of Israel?

25 And the Lord set the Jordan as a boundary between us and you, and there is no portion of the Lord for you. And your sons will estrange our sons, so that they do not revere the Lord.

26 And we said to do thus, to build this altar, not for offerings nor for sacrifices,

27 but so that this may be a witness between us and you and between our generations after us, to perform service to the Lord before him with our offerings and with our sacrifices and with our sacrifices of deliverance; and your children will not say to our children tomorrow: There is no portion of the Lord for you.

28 And we said: If ever it happens that they speak to us and to our generations tomorrow, then they will say: See the likeness of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made not for offerings nor for sacrifices, but it is a witness between you and us and between our sons.

29 May it not happen, then, that we turn away from the Lord in these days, to rebel against the Lord so as to build an altar for offerings and sacrifices of salamin and for a sacrifice of deliverance, besides the altar of the Lord which is before his tent.

30 And Phinees the priest and all the rulers of the congregation of Israel who were with him heard the words which the sons of Rouben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manasse spoke, and it pleased them.

31 And Phinees the priest said to the sons of Rouben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manasse: Today we have known that the Lord is with us, because you have not committed an offense before the Lord, and because you have delivered the sons of Israel from the hand of the Lord.

32 And Phinees the priest and the rulers returned from the sons of Rouben and from the sons of Gad and from the half tribe of Manasse, from the land of Galaad to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and reported the words to them,

33 and it pleased the sons of Israel. And they spoke to the sons of Israel, and they blessed the God of the sons of Israel and said that they would no longer go up against them in war to destroy the land of the sons of Rouben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manasse. And they dwelt upon it.

34 And Jesus named the altar of the Roubenites and the Gadites and the half tribe of Manasse and said: It is a witness between them that the Lord is their God.

Chapter 23

1 And it happened after many days, after the Lord had given Israel rest from all their enemies round about, and Jesus was old, advanced in days,

2 that Jesus called together all the sons of Israel and their council of elders and their rulers and their scribes and their judges and said to them: I have grown old and advanced in days.

3 And you have seen all that the Lord your God did to all these nations before you, for it was the Lord your God who fought for you.

4 See that I have cast to you these nations remaining for you among the lots for your tribes; from the Jordan, all the nations which I destroyed, and from the great sea it will bound toward the setting of the sun.

5 And the Lord your God, he will destroy them from before you until they perish, and will send wild beasts against them until he destroys them and their kings from before you, and you will inherit their land, just as the Lord your God spoke to you.

6 Be very strong, then, to keep and do all the things written in the book of the law of Moses, so that you do not turn aside to the right or the left,

7 so that you do not go in among these remaining nations, and the names of their gods shall not be named among you, nor shall you bow down to them or serve them,

8 but you shall cleave to the Lord your God, just as you have done until this day.

9 And the Lord destroyed them from before you, great and strong nations, and no one stood against you before you until this day;

10 one of you pursued a thousand, because the Lord your God fought for you, just as he told you.

11 And take great care to love the Lord your God.

12 For if you turn away and attach yourselves to these remaining nations that are with you, and make marriages with them and mingle with them and they with you,

13 know that the Lord will no longer continue to destroy these nations from before you, and they will be snares and stumbling blocks for you and nails in your heels and darts in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the Lord your God gave you.

14 And I am running the way, as also all those on the earth, and you will know in your heart and in your soul that not one word of all the words that the Lord your God spoke concerning all that pertains to you fell away; none of them failed.

15 And it will be that, in the manner all the good words which the Lord spoke to you have come upon you, so the Lord God will bring upon you all the evil words until he destroys you from this good land which the Lord gave you,

16 when you transgress the covenant of the Lord your God which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them.

Chapter 24

1 And Jesus gathered all the tribes of Israel at Selo and called together their elders and their scribes and their judges and stood them before God.

2 And Jesus said to all the people: Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: Beyond the river your fathers dwelt from the beginning, Thara the father of Abraham and the father of Nachor, and they served other gods.

3 And I took your father Abraham from beyond the river and led him in all the land and multiplied his seed and gave him Isaac,

4 and to Isaac Jacob and Esau; and I gave Esau Mount Seir for him to inherit, and Jacob and his sons went down into Egypt and became there a great and numerous and strong nation.

5 And the Egyptians afflicted them, and the Lord struck Egypt with the things he did to them, and after these things he brought you out

6 from Egypt, and you entered the Red Sea. And the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horses into the Red Sea,

7 and we cried out to the Lord, and he placed a cloud and darkness between us and the Egyptians and brought the sea upon them and covered them, and your eyes saw all that the Lord did in the land of Egypt. And you were in the wilderness many days.

8 And he led you into the land of the Amorites who dwelt beyond the Jordan, and they drew up for battle against you, and the Lord delivered them into your hands, and you inherited their land and destroyed them from before you.

9 And Balak son of Sepphor, king of Moab, arose and drew up for battle against Israel and sent and called Balaam to curse you;

10 and the Lord your God did not wish to destroy you, and he blessed you with a blessing, and rescued you from their hands and delivered them.

11 And you crossed the Jordan and came to Iericho; and the inhabitants of Iericho fought against you, the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Pherezite and the Euaite and the Iebusite and the Chettite and the Gergesite, and the Lord delivered them into your hands.

12 And he sent the hornet ahead of you, and drove them out from before you, twelve kings of the Amorites, not by your sword or by your bow.

13 And he gave you land on which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you settled in them; and vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant, you will eat.

14 And now fear the Lord and serve him in uprightness and in righteousness, and remove the foreign gods whom your fathers served beyond the river and in Egypt, and serve the Lord.

15 But if it does not please you to serve the Lord, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve, whether the gods of your fathers beyond the river or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell; but I and my house will serve the Lord, for he is holy.

16 And the people answered and said: May it not happen to us to abandon the Lord so as to serve other gods.

17 The Lord our God, he is God; he brought us and our fathers up from Egypt and guarded us in all the way in which we went and among all the nations through whom we passed;

18 and the Lord drove out the Amorite and all the nations dwelling in the land from before us. But we too will serve the Lord, for he is our God.

19 And Jesus said to the people: You will not be able to serve the Lord, for he is a holy God, and being zealous he will not release your sins and your lawless deeds;

20 whenever you abandon the Lord and serve other gods, he will come and afflict you and consume you in return for his having done you good.

21 And the people said to Jesus: No, but we will serve the Lord.

22 And Jesus said to the people: You are witnesses against yourselves that you chose the Lord to serve him;

23 and now remove the foreign gods among you and direct your heart toward the Lord God of Israel.

24 And the people said to Jesus: We will serve the Lord and listen to his voice.

25 And Jesus made a covenant with the people on that day and gave them a law and a judgment in Selo before the tent of the God of Israel.

26 And he wrote these words in a book, a law of God; and Jesus took a great stone and set it under the terebinth before the Lord.

27 And Jesus said to the people: Behold, this stone will be a witness among you, for it has heard all that was said to it by the Lord, whatever he spoke to us today; and it will be a witness among you at the last of the days, whenever you lie to the Lord my God.

28 And Jesus sent the people away, and each went to his place.

29 And Israel served the Lord all the days of Jesus and all the days of the elders who prolonged their time after Jesus and who saw all the works of the Lord which he did for Israel.

30 And it happened after those things that Jesus son of Naue, servant of the Lord, died at one hundred and ten years of age.

31 And they buried him by the boundaries of his lot at Thamnathasachara in the mountain of Ephraim to the north of Mount Gaas;

31 a There they placed with him in the tomb in which they buried him there the stone knives with which he circumcised the sons of Israel at Galgalois when he brought them out of Egypt, as the Lord directed them, and they are there until this day. –

32 And the sons of Israel brought Joseph's bones up from Egypt and buried them in Sikimois in the portion of the field which Jacob acquired from the Amorites dwelling in Sikimois for a hundred lambs, and he gave it to Joseph as a portion.

33 And it happened after these things that Eleazar son of Aaron the high priest died and was buried in Gabaath of Phinees his son, which he gave him in the mountain of Ephraim.

33 a On that day the sons of Israel took the ark of God and carried it about among themselves, and Phinees served as priest in place of Eleazar his father until he died and was buried in his own Gabaath.

34 And the sons of Israel departed, each to their place and to their own city. And the sons of Israel revered Astarte and Astaroth and the gods of the nations around them; and the Lord delivered them into the hands of Eglom the king of Moab, and he ruled them for eighteen years. Kabseel and Edrai and Iagour

22 and Kina and Dimona and Adada

23 and Kedes and Ithnaziph

24 and Telem and Baloth

25 and the city of Aseron [this is Asor],

26 Amam and Samaa and Molada

27 and Asergadda and Baithphaleth

28 and Asarsoula and Bersabee and their villages and their settlements,

29 Baala and Auim and Asem

30 and Elthodad and Chasil and Erma

31 and Sikeleg and Medebena and Sansanna

32 and Laboth and Seleim and Remmon, twenty-nine cities and their villages.

33 In the plain: Esthaol and Saraa and Asna

34 and Ramen and Zano and Adiathaim and Enaim

35 and Ierimouth and Odollam and Nemra and Socho and Azeka

36 and Sargarim and Gadera and its settlements, fourteen cities and their villages;

37 Sennan and Adasa and Magdalgalad

38 and Dalaan and Maspha and Iechthael

39 and Lachis and Bazkath and Aglon

40 and Chabba and Lamas and Chathlos

41 and Gaderoth and Bethdagon and Noma and Makeda, sixteen cities and their villages;

42 Lebna and Ather

43 and Iephtha and Asenna and Nesib

44 and Keila and Achzib and Maresa and Edom, nine cities and their villages;

45 Akkaron and its villages and its settlements;

46 and from Akkaron Iemnai and all that are near Asdod, and the villages

47 and its settlements; Gaza and its villages and its settlements as far as the torrent of Egypt; and the great sea forms the boundary.

48 And in the hill country: Saphir and Iether and Socho

49 and Renna, a city of letters [this is Dabir],

50 and Anob and Esthemo and Anim

51 and Gosom and Chilouon and Gelon, ten cities and their villages;

52 Ereb and Esan and Rouma

53 and Ianoum and Baiththapphoue and Aphaka

54 and Chammata and the city of Arbo [this is Chebron] and Sior, nine cities and their villages;

55 Maon and Chermel and Ziph and Ietta

56 and Iezrael and Iekdaam and Zanoakim

57 and Gabaa and Thamna, nine cities and their villages;

58 Aloul and Baithsour and Gedor

59 and Maroth and Baithanoth and Eltheken, six cities and their villages;

59 a Theko and Ephratha [this is Bethlehem] and Phagor and Aitam and Koulon and Tatami and Soreis and Karem and Gallim and Baither and Manocho, eleven cities and their villages;

60 Kariathbaal [this is the city of Iarim] and Arebba, two cities and their villages and their settlements;

61 Baddargis and Betharaba and Madon and Sochocha

62 and Nebsan and the cities of salt and Engaddi, seven cities and their villages. Bethagla and Amekkasis

22 and Baitharaba and Semrim and Bethel

23 and Auim and Aphar and Aphra

24 and Aikaren and Kaphirammim and Gabaa, twelve cities and their villages;

25 Gabaon and Rama and Beroth

26 and Maspha and Chephira and Amosa

27 and Rekem and Ierphael and Tharala

28 and Selaleph and Iebous [this is Jerusalem] and Gabaath and the city of Iarim, thirteen cities and their villages. This is the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin according to their divisions.

Chapter 19

1 And the second lot came out for Symeon, and their inheritance was in the midst of the lot of the sons of Judah.

2 And their lot was Bersabee and Sabee and Molada

3 and Asersoual and Bathoul and Bola and Asom

4 and Elthoulad and Erma

5 and Sekela and Baithammarchaboth and Asersousim

6 and Baithlabath and their fields, thirteen cities and their villages;

7 Ain and Remmon and Ether and Asan, four cities and their villages

8 around these cities as far as Baalethberramoth of those going to Iameth toward the southwest. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Symeon according to their divisions.

9 From the lot of Judah was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Symeon, because the portion of the sons of Judah was greater than theirs; and the sons of Symeon inherited in the midst of their lot.

10 And the third lot came out for Zabulon according to their divisions. And the boundaries of their inheritance will be as far as Sarid;

11 their boundaries, the sea and Marala, and it will join at Dabasthai in the ravine that is opposite Ieknam,

12 and it will turn from Sarid opposite, from the rising of Sams, toward the boundaries of Chasaloth Thabor and pass toward Dabrath and go up further toward Iaphagai

13 and from there go around opposite toward the east to Geththa to the city Kasim and pass toward Remmon Ammatharim Annoua

14 and go around to the northern boundaries toward Ennathoth, and their outlet will be toward Gaiiephthael

15 and Kattath and Naalol and Semron and Iadela and Bethlehem.

16 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Zabulon according to their divisions, these cities and their villages.

17 And for Issachar the fourth lot came out.

18 And their boundaries were Iezrael and Achaseloth and Sounam

19 and Apheraiim and Sian and Renath and Anareth

20 and Rabboth and Kesion and Aeme

21 and Ramath and Engannim and Enadda and Baithphases,

22 and the boundaries will join at Thaboth and at Sasima toward the sea and Baithsmas, and the outlet of their boundaries will be the Jordan.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar according to their divisions, the cities and their settlements.

24 And the fifth lot came out for Aser according to their divisions.

25 And their boundaries were Chelkath and Ooli and Batne and Achsaph

26 and Amad and Masal, and it will join Carmel toward the sea and Sior and Labanath

27 and it will turn from the rising of the sun to Bethdagon and join Zabulon and in the valley of Iephthael toward the north, and the boundaries will enter Saphthabethaemek and the border will go to Aniel and pass into Chabol on the left

28 and Achran and Roob and Amon and Kana as far as great Sidon,

29 and the boundaries will turn to Rama and as far as the fortified city of the Tyrians, and the boundaries will turn toward Osa, and its outlet will be the sea and from the measured portion of Achziph

30 and Amma and Aphek and Raob, twenty-two cities.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Aser according to their divisions, their cities and their villages.

32 And for Nephthali the sixth lot came out.

33 And their boundaries were Meeleph and Maelon and Besenanim and Armai and Nakeb and Iabnel as far as Lakou, and its outlets were the Jordan;

34 and the boundaries will turn toward the sea to Azanoth Thabor and pass from there to Ikok and join Zabulon from the south and join Aser toward the sea, and the Jordan from the rising of the sun.

35 And the walled cities of the Tyrians: Tyre and Amath and Rekkath and Chenereth

36 and Adami and Rama and Asor

37 and Kedes and Edrai and the spring of Asor

38 and Iarion and Magdaliel, Oram and Baithanath and Thasmous, nineteen cities.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Nephthali.

40 And for Dan the seventh lot came out.

41 And their boundaries were Saraa and Esthaol and the city Sames

42 and Salabin and Iaalon and Iethla

43 and Ailon and Thamna and Akkaron

44 and Eltheko and Gabathon and Baalon

45 and Iouth and Banebarak and Gethremmon,

1 Judges

Chapter 1

1 And it happened after the death of Jesus that the sons of Israel asked in the Lord, saying: Who will go up for us against the Canaanite, taking the lead to fight against him?

2 And the Lord said: Judah will go up; behold, I have given the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said to Symeon his brother: Come up with me in my lot, and let us fight against the Canaanite, and I too will go with you in your lot. And Symeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up, and the Lord gave the Canaanite and the Pherezite into his hand, and he struck them at Bezek, ten thousand men,

5 and they found Adonibezek at Bezek and fought against him and struck the Canaanite and the Pherezite.

6 And Adonibezek fled, and they pursued after him and took him and cut off the extremities of his hands and his feet.

7 And Adonibezek said: Seventy kings, the extremities of their hands and their feet cut off, were gathering what was under my table; as I did, so God has repaid me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

8 And the sons of Judah fought in Jerusalem and took it and struck it with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.

9 And after these things the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanite dwelling in the hill country and the south and the plain.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanite dwelling in Chebron, and Chebron came out opposite; but the name of Chebron formerly was Kariatharboksepher. And he struck Sesi and Achiman and Tholmi, offspring of Enak.

11 And they went from there against those dwelling in Dabir; and the name of Dabir formerly was City of Letters.

12 And Chaleb said: Whoever strikes the City of Letters and takes it first, I will give him Aschan my daughter for a wife.

13 And Gothoniel son of Kenez, the younger brother of Chaleb, took it first, and he gave him Aschan his daughter for a wife.

14 And it happened as she was going in that he urged her to ask her father for the field, and she murmured upon the beast of burden and cried out from the beast of burden: You have given me away into a land of the south. And Chaleb said to her: What is it for you?

15 And Ascha said to him: Give me a blessing, because you have given me away into a land of the south, and you will give me a redemption of water. And Chaleb gave her according to her heart the redemption of the heights and the redemption of the lowlands.

16 And the sons of Iobab the Kenite, father-in-law of Moses, went up from the city of palms with the sons of Judah into the wilderness that is in the south by the descent of Arad, and he went and dwelt with the people. –

17 And Judah went with Symeon his brother and they struck the Canaanite dwelling in Sepheth and devoted it and destroyed it and called the name of the city Destruction.

18 And Judah did not inherit Gaza and its boundary and Ascalon and its boundary and Akkaron and its boundary and Azotus and its surrounding lands.

19 And the Lord was with Judah, and he inherited the mountain; because he was not able to inherit those dwelling in the valley, because Rechab had divided it.

20 And he gave Chebron to Chaleb, as Moses spoke; and he inherited from there the three cities and removed from there the three sons of Enak.

21 And the sons of Benjamin did not remove the Iebusite dwelling in Jerusalem, and the Iebusite dwelt with the sons of Benjamin until this day.

22 And the sons of Joseph, they too, went up to Bethel, and Judah with them.

23 And the house of Israel encamped against Bethel; but the name of the city formerly was Louza.

24 And those keeping watch saw a man going out of the city and took him and said to him: Show us the entrance of the city, and we will deal mercifully with you.

25 And he showed them the entrance of the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword, but the man and his kin they sent away.

26 And the man departed to the land of the Chettites and built a city there and called its name Louza; that is its name until this day.

27 And Manasse did not inherit Baithsan, which is the city of the Scythians, nor its daughter towns nor its surrounding lands, nor Ekthanaad and its daughter towns, nor those dwelling in Dor and its daughter towns, nor those dwelling in Balaam and its daughter towns, nor those dwelling in Magedon and its daughter towns, nor those dwelling in Ieblaam nor its daughter towns; and the Canaanite began to dwell in this land.

28 And it happened when Israel grew strong that he put the Canaanite to tribute, and in removing him he did not remove him.

29 And Ephraim did not remove the Canaanite dwelling in Gazer; and the Canaanite dwelt in his midst in Gazer and became tribute.

30 And Zabulon did not remove those dwelling in Kedron and those dwelling in Enaala; and the Canaanite dwelt in his midst and became tribute.

31 And Aser did not remove those dwelling in Akcho, and it became tribute for him, nor those dwelling in Dor and those dwelling in Sidon and those dwelling in Aalaph and Achazib and Chelba and Aphek and Roob.

32 And Aser dwelt in the midst of the Canaanite dwelling in the land, because he was unable to remove him.

33 And Nephthali did not remove those dwelling in Baithsamys nor those dwelling in Baitheneth, and Israel dwelt in the midst of the Canaanite dwelling in the land; but those dwelling in Baithsamys and Baitheneth became tribute for them.

34 And the Amorite pressed the sons of Dan into the mountain, because he did not allow him to go down into the valley.

35 And the Amorite began to dwell on the mountain of Myrsinon, where the bears and the foxes are; and the hand of the house of Joseph was heavy upon the Amorite, and he became tribute.

36 And the boundary of the Amorite was the Idumaean above Akrabin at the Rock and above.

Chapter 2

1 And an angel of the Lord went up from Galgal to Klauchmon and to Bethel and to the house of Israel and said to them: The Lord, the Lord, brought you up from Egypt and brought you into the land which he swore to your fathers to give you, and said to you: I will not scatter my covenant with you forever;

2 and you shall not make a covenant with those settled in this land, nor shall you bow down to their gods, but you shall shatter their carved images and tear down their altars. And you did not listen to my voice when you did these things.

3 And I said: I will no longer continue to remove the people whom I said I would destroy from before you, and they will be constraints for you, and their gods will be a stumbling block for you.

4 And it happened when the angel of the Lord spoke these words to all Israel that the people raised their voice and wept.

5 Therefore the name of that place was called Weeping; and they sacrificed there to the Lord.

6 And Jesus sent the people away, and the sons of Israel departed, each to his house and to his inheritance to inherit the land.

7 And the people served the Lord all the days of Jesus and all the days of the elders who lived long after Jesus, who knew all the great work of the Lord which he did for Israel.

8 And Jesus son of Naue, servant of the Lord, died at one hundred and ten years of age.

9 And they buried him within the boundary of his inheritance in Thamnathares in Mount Ephraim to the north of Mount Gaas.

10 And all that generation were added to their fathers, and another generation arose after them who did not know the Lord and the work which he did for Israel.

11 And the sons of Israel did what was evil before the Lord and served the Baalim.

12 And they abandoned the Lord God of their fathers who brought them out of the land of Egypt and went after other gods from the gods of the peoples around them and bowed down to them and provoked the Lord to anger,

13 and they abandoned the Lord and served Baal and the Astartes.

14 And the Lord was angry with Israel in wrath and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, and they plundered them; and he sold them into the hand of their enemies round about, and they were unable to stand before their enemies.

15 In all the things in which they committed harlotry, the hand of the Lord was against them for evils, as the Lord had spoken and as the Lord had sworn, and he pressed them very hard.

16 And the Lord raised up judges for them and saved them from the hand of those plundering them.

17 And even their judges they did not listen to, because they went whoring after other gods and bowed down to them and provoked the Lord to anger; and they turned aside quickly from the way in which their fathers walked to obey the commandments of the Lord; they did not do thus.

18 And because the Lord raised up judges for them, the Lord was with the judge and saved them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge, because the Lord was moved by their groaning before those besieging them and afflicting them.

19 And it happened when the judge died that they turned back and again acted more corruptly than their fathers, going after other gods to serve them and bow down to them; they did not cast aside their practices and did not depart from their hard way.

20 And the Lord was angry in wrath with Israel and said: Because this nation abandoned my covenant which I commanded their fathers and did not obey my voice,

21 I too will no longer continue to remove a man from before them from the nations which Jesus left and allowed to remain,

22 to test Israel by them, whether they keep the way of the Lord to walk in it as their fathers kept it, or not.

23 And the Lord allowed these nations to remain, not removing them quickly, and did not deliver them into the hand of Jesus.

Chapter 3

1 And these are the nations Jesus allowed to remain in order to test Israel by them, all those who had not known all the wars of Canaan,

2 except on account of the generations of the sons of Israel to teach them war, except that those before them had not known them;

3 the five satrapies of the foreigners and all the Canaanite and the Sidonian and the Euaite dwelling in Lebanon from Mount Balaermon as far as Lobohamath.

4 And it happened so as to test Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of the Lord which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the sons of Israel dwelt among the Canaanite and the Chettite and the Amorite and the Pherezite and the Euaite and the Iebusite,

6 and took their daughters for themselves as wives and gave their daughters to their sons and served their gods.

7 And the sons of Israel did evil before the Lord and forgot the Lord their God and served the Baalim and the groves.

8 And the Lord was angry in wrath with Israel and sold them into the hands of Chousarsathom king of Syria of the Rivers, and they served him eight years.

9 And the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord; and the Lord raised up a savior for Israel and saved them, Gothoniel son of Kenez, the younger brother of Chaleb, and he listened to him.

10 And the spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he judged Israel and went out to war; and the Lord delivered Chousarsathom king of Syria into his hand, and his hand became strong against Chousarsathom.

11 And the land was quiet fifty years; and Gothoniel son of Kenez died.

12 And the sons of Israel again did evil before the Lord. And the Lord strengthened Eglom king of Moab against Israel because they had done evil before the Lord.

13 And he brought to him all the sons of Ammon and Amalek, and he went and struck Israel and inherited the city of palms.

14 And the sons of Israel served Eglom king of Moab eighteen years.

15 And the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord; and the Lord raised up for them a savior, Aod son of Gera son of the Iemeni, a man right-handed on both sides. And the sons of Israel sent gifts by his hand to Eglom king of Moab.

16 And Aod made for himself a double-edged knife, a span in length, and girded it under his cloak on his right thigh.

17 And he brought the gifts to Eglom king of Moab; and Eglom was a very handsome man.

18 And it happened when Aod finished bringing the gifts that he sent away those carrying the gifts.

19 And Eglom turned back from the carved images near Galgal, and Aod said: I have a secret word for you, king. And Eglom said to all: Out from the midst; and all those standing by him went out from him.

20 And Aod entered to him, and he was sitting in his summer upper room, utterly alone. And Aod said: I have a word of God for you, king; and Eglom rose from the throne near him.

21 And it happened as he rose that Aod stretched out his left hand and took the knife from his right thigh and thrust it into Eglom's belly, 22 and he brought in even the handle behind the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, because he did not pull the knife out of his belly.

23 And Aod went out into the porch and closed the doors of the upper room upon him and wedged them shut;

24 and he went out. And his servants entered and saw, and behold, the doors of the upper room were shut, and they said: Perhaps he is sitting at stools in the withdrawal of the bedchamber?

25 And they waited until they were ashamed, and behold, there was no one opening the doors of the upper room; and they took the key and opened, and behold, their lord lay fallen upon the ground, dead.

26 And Aod escaped while they were disturbed, and there was no one attending to him; and he passed the carved images and escaped to Seirotha.

27 And it happened when he came that he sounded a horn on Mount Ephraim; and the sons of Israel went down with him, and he before them.

28 And he said to them: Go down after me, because the Lord God has delivered your enemies, Moab, into your hand. And they went down after him and seized ahead of time the crossings of the Jordan of Moab and did not allow a man to cross.

29 And they struck Moab at that time, about ten thousand men, all the fighters among them and every man of strength, and not a man escaped.

30 And Moab was put to shame on that day under the hand of Israel, and the land was quiet eighty years, and Aod judged them until he died.

31 And after him Samegar son of Anath arose and struck the foreigners, six hundred men apart from calves of the cattle; and he saved Israel.

Chapter 4

1 And the sons of Israel again did evil before the Lord.

2 And the Lord sold them into the hand of Iabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Asor; and the ruler of his force was Sisara, and he dwelt in Arisoth of the nations.

3 And the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord, because he had nine hundred iron chariots, and he pressed Israel forcefully for twenty years.

4 And Debbora, a woman prophet, the wife of Laphidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5 And she sat under the palm of Debbora between Rama and Bethel in Mount Ephraim, and the sons of Israel went up to her there to be judged.

6 And Debbora sent and called Barak son of Abineem from Kedes of Nephthali and said to him: Did not the Lord the God of Israel command you, and you shall go to Mount Thabor and take with yourself ten thousand men from the sons of Nephthali and from the sons of Zabulon?

7 And I will lead to you at the torrent Kison Sisara, ruler of Iabin's force, and his chariots and his multitude, and I will deliver him into your hand.

8 And Barak said to her: If you go with me, I will go, and if you do not go with me, I will not go; for I do not know the day on which the Lord prospers the angel with me.

9 And Debbora said to him: Going, I will go with you; only know that your precedence will not be in the way on which you go, because the Lord will deliver Sisara into the hand of a woman. And Debbora arose and went with Barak to Kedes.

10 And Barak gave orders to Zabulon and Nephthali at Kedes, and ten thousand men went up at his heels; and Debbora went up with him.

11 And the neighbors of the Kenite separated from the sons of Iobab, father-in-law of Moses, and he pitched his tent by the oak of those resting, which is next to Kedes.

12 And they reported to Sisara that Barak son of Abineem had gone up onto Mount Thabor.

13 And Sisara summoned all his chariots [for he had nine hundred iron chariots] and all the people with him from Arisoth of the nations to the torrent Kison.

14 And Debbora said to Barak: Arise, for this is the day on which the Lord has delivered Sisara into your hand; behold, will not the Lord go before you? And Barak went down from Mount Thabor and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the Lord threw Sisara and all his chariots and all his camp into confusion by the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisara got down from his chariot and fled on his feet.

16 And Barak pursued after the chariots and after the camp as far as the forest of the nations; and all the camp of Sisara fell by the edge of the sword; not one was left.

17 And Sisara withdrew on his feet to the tent of Iael wife of Chaber the Kenite, because there was peace between Iabin king of Asor and the house of Chaber the Kenite.

18 And Iael went out to meet Sisara and said to him: Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me, do not fear; and he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with her hide covering.

19 And Sisara said to her: Give me, please, a little water to drink, for I am thirsty; and she opened the skin of milk and gave him drink and covered his face.

20 And he said to her: Stand at the door of the tent, and it will be that if someone comes to you and asks you and says to you, Is there a man here? you shall say, There is not; and she covered him with her hide covering.

21 And Iael wife of Chaber took the tent peg and placed the hammer in her hand and came in to him quietly and drove the peg into his jaw and drove it through into the ground, and he twitched between her knees and expired and died.

22 And behold, Barak was pursuing Sisara, and Iael went out to meet him and said to him: Come and I will show you the man whom you seek. And he entered to her, and behold, Sisara lay dead, and the peg was in his jaw.

23 And the Lord God humbled Iabin king of Canaan on that day before the sons of Israel.

24 And the hand of the sons of Israel went on, going and growing hard against Iabin king of Canaan, until they destroyed him.

Chapter 5

1 And Debbora and Barak son of Abineem sang on that day and said:

2 When leaders began to lead in Israel, when the people chose, bless the Lord.

3 Hear, kings; give ear, mighty satraps; I will sing to the Lord, I will make music to the God of Israel.

4 Lord, at your going out from Seir, at your departing from the field of Edom, the earth shook, and heaven was astonished, and the clouds dripped water;

5 mountains were shaken before the Lord, this Sinai before the Lord God of Israel.

6 In the days of Samegar son of Anath, in the days of Iael, kings failed and they traveled paths, they traveled twisted roads.

7 One speaking failed in Israel, failed, until Debbora arose, because a mother arose in Israel.

8 They chose new gods as barley bread; a covering, if I see, of siromastai among forty thousands.

9 My heart is upon those appointed for Israel; mighty ones of the people, bless the Lord.

10 Those mounted on beasts of burden, those seated upon covered carriages,

11 utter a voice of those playing among those rejoicing; there they will give righteousness to the Lord. Righteous ones grew strong in Israel; then the people of the Lord went down to their cities.

12 Awake, awake, Debbora, awaken myriads with the people, awake, awake, speak with song; being strong arise, Barak, and strengthen Barak, Debbora; take captive your captivity, son of Abineem.

13 When was his strength magnified? Lord, humble for me those stronger than I.

14 The people of Ephraim took vengeance on them in the valley of your brother Benjamin among your peoples. From me Machir those searching went down, and from Zabulon the Lord fought for me among the mighty, from there with a scepter of one strengthening leadership.

15 Among Issachar with Debbora he sent his foot soldiers into the valley. Why do you dwell in the midst of lips? He stretched out at his feet. Among the divisions of Rouben were great examinations of heart.

16 Why do you sit for me among the mosphathaim to listen to the whistles of those awakening? To pass into the things of Rouben were great tracings of heart.

17 Galaad encamped beyond the Jordan; and Dan, why does he sojourn among ships? Aser sojourned by the shore of seas and encamped at his openings.

18 Zabulon, a people who reproached his soul unto death, and Nephthali upon the heights of the field.

19 Kings came and drew up for battle. Then kings of Canaan fought at Thennach by the water of Mageddo; they took no gain of silver.

20 From heaven the stars fought, from their array they fought with Sisara.

21 The torrent Kison cast them out, the torrent kademim, the torrent Kison; my strong soul will trample them.

22 Then the heels of a horse were cut off, amadaroth of his mighty ones.

23 Curse Maroz, said the angel of the Lord, curse with a curse its inhabitants, because they did not come to the help of the Lord; our helper is the Lord, mighty among fighters.

24 May Iael wife of Chaber the Kenite be blessed among women, among women in a tent may she be blessed.

25 He asked her for water, and she gave him milk; in a bowl of mighty ones she brought butter near.

26 She stretched out her left hand to a peg, her right to cuttings of those who strike, and she cut Sisara, rubbed away his head and crushed and drove through his jaw.

27 Between her feet, bending down, he fell, he lay down between her feet; where he bent down, there he fell, wretched.

28 Through the little window the mother of Sisara peered, looking through the lattice at those returning with Sisara: Why was his chariot so late in arriving? Why were the tracks of his chariots delayed?

29 Wise women among her rulers answered her, and she answered with her own words:

30 Will they not find him dividing spoils? Being friendly with friends for the head of a mighty one; spoils of dyed things for Sisara, spoils of dyed things of varied work, a dye of varied things around his neck as spoil.

31 Thus may all your enemies perish, Lord; and those who love him, like the rising of the sun in his powers. And the land was quiet forty years.

Chapter 6

1 And the sons of Israel did evil before the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hand of Madiam for seven years.

2 And the hand of Madiam prevailed over Israel; and the sons of Israel made for themselves, because of Madiam, enclosures in the mountains and the caves and the strongholds.

3 And it happened whenever a man of Israel sowed that Madiam and Amalek and the sons of the east went up against him;

4 and they encamped against them and destroyed the produce of the land as far as Gaza, and they left no subsistence of life in Israel, nor flock nor calf nor donkey;

5 because they and their cattle went up and carried their tents along and arrived in number like locusts, and neither they nor their camels had a number, and they arrived in the land of Israel to destroy it.

6 And Israel became very poor because of Madiam, and the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord.

7 And it happened when the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord because of Madiam

8 that the Lord sent a man, a prophet, to the sons of Israel, and he said to them: Thus says the Lord the God of Israel: I am the one who brought you up from Egypt, and I brought you out of a house of slavery

9 and rescued you from the hand of Egypt and from the hand of all those oppressing you and drove them out from before you and gave you their land,

10 and I said to you: I am the Lord your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorite among whom you dwell in their land. And you did not listen to my voice.

11 And an angel of the Lord came and sat under the oak that was in Ephratha belonging to Ioas father of Abiezri, and Gedeon his son was beating wheat with a rod in a winepress to escape from Madiam.

12 And an angel of the Lord appeared to him and said to him: The Lord is with you, mighty in strength.

13 And Gedeon said to him: In me, lord, and if the Lord is with us, why have all these evils found us? And where are all his wonders which our fathers recounted to us, saying: Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt? And now he has cast us off and delivered us into the hand of Madiam.

14 And the angel of the Lord looked upon him and said to him: Go in your strength and you will save Israel, and behold, I have sent you.

15 And Gedeon said to him: In me, lord, by what shall I save Israel? Behold, my thousand is the lowest in Manasse, and I am small in my father's house.

16 And the angel of the Lord said to him: The Lord will be with you, and you will strike Madiam as one man.

17 And Gedeon said to him: And if I have found favor in your eyes, you will make for me a sign that you are speaking with me;

18 do not move from here until I come to you, and I will bring my sacrifice and place it before you. And he said: I am; I will sit until you return.

19 And Gedeon entered and made a kid of the goats and unleavened bread from an oiphi of flour, and placed the meat upon the basket and poured the broth into a pot and brought it out to him under the oak and bowed down.

20 And the angel of the Lord said to him: Take the meat and the unleavened loaves and put them by that rock and pour out the broth; and he did so.

21 And the angel of the Lord stretched out the end of the staff in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread, and fire was kindled from the rock and devoured the meat and the unleavened bread; and the angel of the Lord departed from his sight.

22 And Gedeon saw that it was an angel of the Lord, and Gedeon said: Ah, ah, Lord, Lord, for I saw the angel of the Lord face to face.

23 And the Lord said to him: Peace to you; do not fear, do not die.

24 And Gedeon built an altar there to the Lord and called it Peace of the Lord; to this day it is still in Ephratha of the father of Ezri.

25 And it happened that night that the Lord said to him: Take your father's fattened calf, a seven-year-old calf, and pull down the altar of Baal which belongs to your father and cut down the grove upon it;

26 and you shall build an altar to the Lord your God who appeared to you upon the summit of this Mount Maoz in the array, and take the calf and offer a whole burnt offering with the wood of the grove which you will cut down.

27 And Gedeon took thirteen men from his servants and did as the Lord spoke to him; and it happened that because he feared his father's house and the men of the city to do it by day, he did it by night.

28 And the men of the city rose early in the morning, and behold, the altar of Baal had been torn down and the grove upon it had been cut down and the fattened calf had been offered as a whole burnt offering on the altar that had been built.

29 And each man said to his neighbor: Who did this thing? And they examined and searched and said: Gedeon son of Ioas did this thing.

30 And the men of the city said to Ioas: Bring out your son and let him die, because he tore down the altar of Baal and cut down the grove upon it.

31 And Ioas said to the men standing against him: Are you now pleading a case for Baal? Or are you saving him? Whoever contended against him will die by morning; if he is a god, he himself will vindicate himself because he tore down his altar.

32 And he called it on that day Tribunal of Baal, because he tore down his altar.

33 And all Madiam and Amalek and the sons of the east gathered together and crossed over and encamped in the valley of Iezrael.

34 And a spirit of God clothed Gedeon, and he sounded a horn, and Abiezer cried out after him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout Manasse, and he too cried out after him; and he sent messengers in Aser and in Zabulon and in Nephthali, and they went up to meet him.

36 And Gedeon said to God: If you are saving Israel by my hand, in the manner you spoke,

37 behold, I am placing a fleece of wool on the threshing floor, and if dew comes upon the fleece alone and dryness upon all the land, then I will know that you are saving Israel by my hand, in the manner you spoke.

38 And it happened thus; and Gedeon rose early the next day and squeezed the fleece, and dew flowed out from the fleece, a full basin of water.

39 And Gedeon said to God: Let your wrath not be angry with me, and I will speak once more; and I will test once more with the fleece, and let there be dryness upon the fleece alone, but upon all the land let there be dew.

40 And God did thus on that night, and there was dryness upon the fleece alone, but upon all the land there was dew.

Chapter 7

1 And Ierobaal [he is Gedeon] and all the people with him rose early and encamped upon the land of Aroed, and the camp of Madiam and Amalek was north of him from the hill of Abor in the valley.

2 And the Lord said to Gedeon: The people with you are too many for me to deliver Madiam into their hand, lest Israel boast against me, saying: My hand saved me.

3 And the Lord said to him: Speak, then, in the ears of the people, saying: Who is timid and afraid? Let him turn back. And they set out from Mount Galaad and twenty-two thousand turned back from the people, and ten thousand remained.

4 And the Lord said to Gedeon: The people are still many; bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there; and it will be that whomever I say to you, This one will go with you, he will go with you; and whomever I say to you that he will not go with you, he will not go with you.

5 And he brought the people down to the water; and the Lord said to Gedeon: Everyone who laps with his tongue from the water as the dog laps, you shall stand him alone, and everyone who bends upon his knees to drink, you shall set him apart by himself.

6 And the whole number of those who lapped with their tongue was three hundred men, and all the rest of the people bent upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the Lord said to Gedeon: By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you and deliver Madiam into your hand, and let all the people run back, each man to his place.

8 And they took the people's provisions in their hand and their horns, and he sent every man of Israel to his dwelling, each man, but retained the three hundred men. And the camp of Madiam was below him in the valley.

9 And it happened on that night that the Lord said to him: Arise, go down quickly from here into the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand;

10 but if you fear to go down, go down, you and Phara your young servant, into the camp

11 and you will hear what they are saying; and after these things your hands will be strong, and you will go down into the camp. And he and Phara his young servant went down to a part of the fifty in the camp.

12 And Madiam and Amalek and all the sons of the east had encamped in the valley, numerous as locusts, and their camels had no number, but were as the sand upon the shore of the sea in multitude.

13 And Gedeon entered, and behold, a man was recounting a dream to his neighbor and said: Behold the dream I dreamed: a cake of barley bread was rolling in the camp of Madiam and came as far as the tent of Madiam and struck it and overturned it, and the tent fell.

14 And his neighbor answered and said: This is nothing other than the sword of Gedeon son of Ioas, a man of Israel; the Lord has delivered Madiam and all the camp into his hand.

15 And it happened when Gedeon heard the recounting of the dream and its interpretation that he bowed down to the Lord and returned to the camp of Israel and said: Arise, for the Lord has delivered the camp of Madiam into your hands.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three groups and gave horns into the hands of all and empty jars and torches in the midst of the jars

17 and said to them: Watch me and do likewise; and behold, I am entering into the midst of the camp, and it will be that as I do, so you shall do;

18 and I and all those with me will sound the horn, and you too shall sound the horns around the camp and say: For the Lord and for Gedeon.

19 And Gedeon and a hundred men with him entered a part of the camp as the middle watch began; but he woke the guards with a waking, and they sounded the horns and shook out the jars in their hands.

20 And the three groups sounded the horns and broke the jars and took the torches in their left hand, and in their right hand the horns to sound, and cried out: A sword for the Lord and for Gedeon.

21 And each stood by himself around the camp, and all the camp ran and sounded a signal and fled.

22 And the three hundred horns sounded, and the Lord set each man's sword against his neighbor throughout the camp, and the camp fled as far as Baithasetta and gathered as far as the edge of Abelmeoula and toward Tabath.

23 And a man of Israel cried out from Nephthali and from Aser and from all Manasse, and they pursued after Madiam.

24 And Gedeon sent messengers throughout the boundary of Ephraim, saying: Go down to meet Madiam and seize for yourselves the water as far as Baithbera and the Jordan; and every man of Ephraim cried out and they seized the water ahead of them as far as Baithbera and the Jordan.

25 And they captured the two rulers of Madiam, Oreb and Zeb, and killed Oreb at Sourin and killed Zeb at Iakephzeb and pursued Madiam; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeb to Gedeon from beyond the Jordan.

Chapter 8

1 And a man of Ephraim said to him: What is this thing you have done to us by not calling us when you went out to fight against Madiam? And they disputed strongly with him.

2 And he said to them: What have I done now like you? Are not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

3 Into your hands the Lord delivered the rulers of Madiam, Oreb and Zeb; and what was I able to do like you? And they ceased. Then their spirit relaxed from him when he spoke this word.

4 And Gedeon came to the Jordan, and he and the three hundred men with him crossed, fainthearted and hungry.

5 And he said to the men of Sokchoth: Give, please, loaves to the people with me, because they are hungry, and I am pursuing Zebee and Salmana, kings of Madiam.

6 And the rulers of Sokchoth said: Is the hand of Zebee and Salmana now in your hand, that we should give loaves to your army?

7 And Gedeon said: Not so; when the Lord gives Zebee and Salmana into my hand, I will card your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with the barkonnim.

8 And he went up from there to Phanouel and spoke to them in the same way, and the men of Phanouel answered him in the manner the men of Sokchoth answered him.

9 And he said to the men of Phanouel: When I return in peace I will tear down this tower. –

10 And Zebee and Salmana were in Karkar, and their camp with them, about fifteen thousand, those left in all the camp of the sons of the east, and those who had fallen were one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword.

11 And Gedeon went up by the way of those dwelling in tents east of Nabeth opposite Zebee; and he struck the camp, while the camp was confident.

12 And Zebee and Salmana fled, and he pursued after them and seized the two kings of Madiam, Zebee and Salmana, and crushed all their camp. –

13 And Gedeon son of Ioas returned from the war by the ascent of Ares.

14 And they captured a young man from the men of Sokchoth, and he questioned him, and he wrote down for them the rulers of Sokchoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

15 And Gedeon came to the rulers of Sokchoth and said to them: Behold Zebee and Salmana, on whose account you reproached me, saying: Is the hand of Zebee and Salmana now in your hand, that we should give loaves to your exhausted men?

16 And he took the rulers and the elders of the city and carded them with the thorns of the wilderness and the barakenim, and with them carded the men of Sokchoth.

17 And he tore down the tower of Phanouel and killed the men of the city. –

18 And he said to Zebee and Salmana: Where are the men whom you killed at Thabor? And they said: Like you, resembling you, resembling them, like the appearance of the form of sons of kings.

19 And Gedeon said: They are my brothers and sons of my mother. And he swore to them: As the Lord lives, if you had kept them alive, I would not have killed you.

20 And he said to Iether his firstborn: Rise and kill them; and his young son did not draw his knife, because he was afraid, because he was younger.

21 And Zebee and Salmana said: Rise, please, yourself and meet us, for as a man is, so is his strength. And Gedeon arose and killed Zebee and Salmana and took the crescents that were on the necks of their camels.

22 And a man of Israel said to Gedeon: Rule among us, you and your sons, because you saved us from the hand of Madiam.

23 And Gedeon said to them: I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the Lord will rule over you.

24 And Gedeon said to them: I will ask a request of you: Each man give me an earring from his spoils; for they had many gold earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.

25 And they said: Giving, we will give. And he spread out his cloak, and each man cast there a gold earring from his spoils.

26 And the weight of the gold earrings which he asked for was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold, apart from the sirones and the little chains emphoth and the purple cloaks upon the kings of Madiam and apart from the gold collars on the necks of their camels.

27 And Gedeon made it into an ephoud and set it in his city in Ephratha; and all Israel went whoring after it there, and it became a stumbling block to Gedeon and his house.

28 And Madiam was put to shame before the sons of Israel and no longer raised its head. And the land was quiet forty years in the days of Gedeon. –

29 And Ierobaal son of Ioas went and dwelt in his house.

30 And Gedeon had seventy sons who came out of his thighs, for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine in Sikimois also bore him a son, and he gave him the name Abimelech.

32 And Gedeon son of Ioas died in a good old age and was buried in the tomb of Ioas his father in Ephratha of the father of Abiezri.

33 And it happened when Gedeon died that the sons of Israel turned back and went whoring after the Baalim and set Baalberith for themselves as a covenant, to be their god.

34 And the sons of Israel did not remember the Lord their God who rescued them from the hand of all their enemies round about.

35 And they did not show mercy to the house of Ierobaal Gedeon according to all the goodness which he had done with Israel.

Chapter 9

1 And Abimelech son of Ierobaal went to Sikima to his mother's brothers and spoke to them and to all the kin of his mother's house, saying:

2 Speak, please, in the ears of the men of Sikimois: Which is better, for seventy men, all the sons of Ierobaal, to rule over you, or for one man to have dominion over you? And remember that I am your flesh and your bone.

3 And his mother's brothers spoke about him in the ears of all the men of Sikimois all these words, and their heart inclined after Abimelech, because they said: He is our brother.

4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Baal of the Covenant, and Abimelech hired with them empty and bewildered men, and they went after him.

5 And he entered his father's house in Ephratha and killed his brothers, the sons of Ierobaal, seventy men upon one stone; and Ioatham son of Ierobaal, the youngest, remained, because he hid.

6 And all the men of Sikimois and all the house of Maallon gathered and went and made Abimelech king by the acorn of the station in Sikimois.

7 And they reported to Ioatham, and he went and stood on the summit of Mount Garizin and raised his voice and called and said to them: Hear me, men of Sikimois, and may God hear you.

8 Going, the trees went to anoint a king for themselves and said to the olive tree: Reign over us.

9 And the olive tree said to them: Having left my fatness, by which God and people were glorified in me, shall I go to rule the trees?

10 And the trees said to the fig tree: Come, reign over us.

11 And the fig tree said to them: Having left my sweetness and my good fruit, shall I go to rule over trees?

12 And the trees said to the vine: Come, reign over us.

13 And the vine said to them: Having left my wine, the gladness from the God of men, shall I go to rule trees?

14 And the trees said to the bramble: Come, you reign over us.

15 And the bramble said to the trees: If in truth you anoint me king over you, come, trust in my shade; and if not, may fire go out from the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon. –

16 And now, if in truth and in completeness you acted and made Abimelech king, and if you did well with Ierobaal and with his house, and if you acted toward him according to the recompense of his hand,

17 – as my father fought on your behalf and cast his soul opposite and rescued you from the hand of Madiam,

18 and you rose up against my father's house today and killed his sons, seventy men upon one stone, and made Abimelech the son of his maidservant king over the men of Sikimois because he is your brother, –

19 and if in truth and completeness you acted with Ierobaal and his house on this day, may you be blessed and rejoice in Abimelech, and may he also rejoice in you.

20 And if not, may fire go out from Abimelech and devour the men of Sikimois and the house of Maallon; and if not, may fire go out from the men of Sikimois and from the house of Maallon and devour Abimelech. –

21 And Ioatham ran away and went on the road and fled to Rara and dwelt there because of Abimelech his brother.

22 And Abimelech ruled over Israel three years.

23 And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Sikimois, and the men of Sikimois acted treacherously in the house of Abimelech,

24 to bring the injustice against the seventy sons of Ierobaal and to place their blood upon Abimelech their brother who killed them and upon the men of Sikimois who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers.

25 And the men of Sikimois placed an ambush for him on the tops of the mountains and seized all who passed by them on the road; and it was reported to Abimelech.

26 And Gaal son of Abed and his brothers came to Sikima, and the men of Sikimois trusted in him.

27 And they went into the field and harvested their vineyards and trod them and made dances and entered the house of their god and ate and drank and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal son of Abed said: What is Abimelech, and who is the son of Sychem, that we should serve him? Is this one not a son of Ierobaal, and Zeboul his overseer his servant with the men of Emmor father of Sychem? And why should we serve him?

29 And who would give this people into my hand? And I would remove Abimelech and say to Abimelech: Multiply your force and come out.

30 And Zeboul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal son of Abed and was angry with wrath.

31 And he sent messengers to Abimelech with gifts, saying: Behold, Gaal son of Abed and his brothers have come to Sikima, and these are besieging the city against you;

32 and now arise by night, you and the people with you, and lie in ambush in the field,

33 and it will be in the morning, as the sun rises, that you will rise early and stretch out against the city, and behold, he and the people with him will come out toward you, and you shall do to him as your hand finds.

34 And Abimelech and all the people with him arose by night and lay in ambush against Sikima in four groups.

35 And morning came, and Gaal son of Abed went out and stood by the door of the gate of the city, and Abimelech and the people with him arose from the ambushes.

36 And Gaal son of Abed saw the people and said to Zeboul: Behold, people coming down from the tops of the mountains. And Zeboul said to him: You see the shadow of the mountains as men.

37 And Gaal continued to speak and said: Behold, people coming down toward the sea from beside the navel of the land, and one group is arriving from the way of the oak of those looking out.

38 And Zeboul said to him: Where now is your mouth that said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Are these not the people whom you despised? Go out now and fight against him.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Sikimois and fought against Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech pursued him, and he fled from before him; and many wounded fell as far as the doors of the city.

41 And Abimelech sat in Arima; and Zeboul drove out Gaal and his brothers so that they would not dwell in Sikimois.

42 And it happened the next day that the people went out into the plain, and it was reported to Abimelech.

43 And he took the people and divided them into three groups and lay in ambush in it; and he saw, and behold, people came out of the city, and he rose against them and struck them.

44 And Abimelech and the groups with him spread out and stood by the gate of the city, and the two groups poured out upon all those in the field, and he struck them.

45 And Abimelech fought in the city all that day, and they took the city, and he killed the people in it and pulled down the city and sowed it with salt.

46 And all the men of the tower of Sikimois heard and entered the stronghold of the house of Baal of the Covenant.

47 And it was reported to Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Sikimois had gathered.

48 And Abimelech went up to Mount Selmon, he and all the people with him, and Abimelech took an ax in his hand and cut a load of wood and took it and put it on his shoulders and said to the people with him: What you have seen me doing, quickly do as I also do.

49 And they too each cut a load and lifted it and went after Abimelech and put it against the stronghold and burned the stronghold over them with fire, and all the men of the tower of Sikimois died, about a thousand men and women.

50 And Abimelech went to Thebes and encamped around it and took it first.

51 And there was a strong tower in the middle of the city, and all the men and women and all the leaders of the city fled there and shut themselves in and went up onto the roof of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came as far as the tower, and they fought against him; and Abimelech drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And one woman threw a fragment of a millstone upon Abimelech's head and crushed his skull.

54 And he cried out quickly to the young man carrying his equipment and said to him: Draw your knife and put me to death, lest they say, A woman killed him. And his young man pierced him through, and Abimelech died.

55 And a man of Israel saw that Abimelech had died, and each man went to his place.

56 And God turned back upon Abimelech the evil which he did to his father by killing his seventy brothers.

57 And all the evil of the men of Sikimois God turned back upon their head, and the curse of Ioatham son of Ierobaal came upon them.

Chapter 10

1 And after Abimelech, Thola son of Phoua, son of his father's brother, a man of Issachar, arose to save Israel, and he dwelt in Samaria in Mount Ephraim.

2 And he judged Israel twenty-three years and died and was buried in Samaria.

3 And after him Iair the Galaadite arose and judged Israel twenty-two years.

4 And he had thirty-two sons mounted on thirty-two colts; and they had thirty-two cities, and he called them the Settlements of Iair until this day, which are in the land of Galaad.

5 And Iair died and was buried in Rammo.

6 And the sons of Israel again did evil before the Lord and served the Baalim and the Astaroth and the gods of Sidon and the gods of Moab and the gods of the sons of Ammon and the gods of the foreigners and abandoned the Lord and did not serve him.

7 And the Lord became angry in wrath with Israel and sold them into the hand of foreigners and into the hand of the sons of Ammon.

8 And they broke down and crushed the sons of Israel in that year, eighteen years, all the sons of Israel beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorite in Galaaditis.

9 And the sons of Ammon crossed the Jordan to wage war also in Judah and Benjamin and in the house of Ephraim, and the sons of Israel were pressed very hard.

10 And the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord, saying: We have sinned against you, because we abandoned our God and served the Baalim.

11 And the Lord said to the sons of Israel: Did not the Egyptians and the Amorites and the sons of Ammon and Moab and the foreigners

12 and Sidonians and Madiam and Amalek press you? And you cried out to me, and I saved you from their hand.

13 And you abandoned me and served other gods; therefore I will no longer continue to save you.

14 Go and cry out to the gods whom you chose for yourselves, and let them save you in the time of your affliction.

15 And the sons of Israel said to the Lord: We have sinned; do to us according to all that is pleasing before you, only, Lord, rescue us on this day.

16 And they removed the foreign gods from among them and served the Lord; and he was not well pleased among the people, and he grew fainthearted in the toil of Israel.

17 And the sons of Ammon went up and encamped in Galaad, and the sons of Israel went out and encamped in Massepha.

18 And the rulers of the people of Galaad said, each man to his neighbor: Who is the man who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? He shall be head of all those dwelling in Galaad.

Chapter 11

1 And Iephthae the Galaadite was mighty in strength; and he was the son of a prostitute, and she bore Iephthae to Galaad.

2 And the wife of Galaad bore him sons; and the sons of the wife grew strong and drove out Iephthae and said to him: You shall not inherit in our father's house, because you are the son of a courtesan.

3 And Iephthae fled from before his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob, and plain men gathered to Iephthae and went out with him.

4 And it happened after days that the sons of Ammon fought with Israel.

5 And it happened when the sons of Ammon fought with Israel that the elders of Galaad went to take Iephthae from the land of Tob

6 and said to Iephthae: Come and be our leader, and let us fight against the sons of Ammon.

7 And Iephthae said to the elders of Galaad: Did you not hate me and drive me out of my father's house and send me away from you? And why have you come to me when you are afflicted?

8 And the elders of Galaad said to Iephthae: Not so; now we have come to you, and you will go with us, and we will fight against the sons of Ammon; and you will be head for us, for all those dwelling in Galaad.

9 And Iephthae said to the elders of Galaad: If you bring me back to fight against the sons of Ammon and the Lord delivers them before me, I will be your head.

10 And the elders of Galaad said to Iephthae: The Lord will be the one who hears between us if we do not act thus according to your word.

11 And Iephthae went with the elders of Galaad, and they appointed him over them as head and leader. And Iephthae spoke all his words before the Lord in Massepha.

12 And Iephthae sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying: What is there between me and you, that you have come to me to fight me in my land?

13 And the king of the sons of Ammon said to the messengers of Iephthae: Because Israel took my land when he came up from Egypt, from Arnon as far as Iabok and as far as the Jordan; and now return those lands in peace.

14 And the messengers returned to Iephthae. And Iephthae sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon

15 saying: Thus says Iephthae: Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the sons of Ammon

16 when they came up from Egypt, but Israel went in the wilderness as far as the Red Sea and came as far as Kades.

17 And Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying: I will pass through your land; and the king of Edom did not listen. And he also sent to the king of Moab, and he was unwilling. And Israel sat in Kades.

18 And he passed through the wilderness and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab and came to the east of the land of Moab and encamped beyond Arnon and did not enter the boundary of Moab, because Arnon was the boundary of Moab.

19 And Israel sent messengers to Seon king of Esebon, the Amorite, and Israel said to him: I will pass through your land as far as my place.

20 And Seon was unwilling to let Israel pass through his boundaries; and Seon gathered all his people and encamped at Iassa and fought with Israel.

21 And the Lord the God of Israel delivered Seon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and he struck them; and Israel inherited all the land of the Amorite dwelling in the land.

22 And he inherited all the boundary of the Amorite from Arnon as far as Iabok and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan.

23 And now the Lord the God of Israel removed the Amorite from before his people Israel, and will you inherit him for yourself?

24 Will you not inherit whatever Chamos your god allotted you to inherit? And everything that the Lord our God allotted us to inherit from before us, we will inherit.

25 And now are you any better than Balak son of Sepphor, king of Moab? Did he contend in a contest with Israel or fight them in war?

26 While the house of Israel was in Esebon and its daughter towns and in Iazer and its daughter towns and in all the cities beside the Jordan for three hundred years, why did they not rescue them in that time?

27 And I have not sinned against you, but you are doing evil with me by fighting against me; may the Lord, the one who judges, judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon.

28 And the king of the sons of Ammon did not listen and did not listen to the words of Iephthae which he sent to him.

29 And the spirit of the Lord came upon Iephthae, and he passed through the land of Galaad and Manasse and passed through the lookout of Galaad and from the lookout of Galaad to the other side of the sons of Ammon.

30 And Iephthae vowed a vow to the Lord and said: If you indeed deliver the sons of Ammon into my hand,

31 then whoever comes out from the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon shall be for the Lord, and I will offer him up as a whole burnt offering.

32 And Iephthae crossed over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them, and the Lord delivered them into his hand.

33 And he struck them from Aroer as far as coming to Semoith, twenty cities as far as Abel of the vineyards, a very great blow, and the sons of Ammon were put to shame before the sons of Israel.

34 And Iephthae came to Massepha to his house, and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with drums and dances; and she was his only beloved child, and he had no son or daughter besides her.

35 And it happened when he saw her that he tore his garments and said: Woe is me, my daughter, you have impeded me, you became a thorn in my eyes, and I opened my mouth concerning you to the Lord and will not be able to turn back.

36 And she said to him: My father, if you opened your mouth to the Lord concerning me, do to me in the manner that came out of your mouth, since the Lord has made vengeance for you upon your enemies, the sons of Ammon.

37 And she said to her father: And do this thing for me: Let me be for two months, and I will go and descend upon the mountains and weep over my virginity, I and my companions.

38 And he said: Go; and he sent her away for two months. And she went, she and her companions, and wept over her virginity on the mountains.

39 And it happened after the end of two months that she returned to her father, and Iephthae fulfilled his vow which he had vowed; and she had not known a man. And it became an ordinance in Israel;

40 from days to days the daughters of Israel went together to lament the daughter of Iephthae the Galaadite four days in the year.

Chapter 12

1 And the sons of Ephraim gathered and came to Sephina and said to Iephthae: Why did you go to fight against the sons of Ammon and not call us to go with you? We will burn your house with fire.

2 And Iephthae said to them: I and my people were a man in dispute, and the sons of Ammon humbled me greatly; and I cried out to you, and you did not save me from their hand.

3 And I saw that there was no one saving, and I placed my soul in my hand and crossed over to the sons of Ammon, and the Lord delivered them into my hand; and why have you come up to me today to fight against me?

4 And Iephthae gathered all the men of Galaad and fought Ephraim, and the men of Galaad struck Ephraim, because they said: You are those who have escaped from Ephraim, Galaad in the midst of Ephraim and in the midst of Manasse.

5 And the men of Galaad seized ahead of time the crossings of the Jordan belonging to Ephraim, and it happened that those who had escaped from Ephraim said, Let us cross, and the men of Galaad said to them: Are you from Ephraim? And they said: We are not.

6 And they said to them: Say, please, Password; and they could not manage to speak thus. And they seized them and slaughtered them at the crossings of the Jordan, and forty-two thousand from Ephraim fell at that time.

7 And Iephthae judged Israel six years. And Iephthae the Galaadite died and was buried in his city of Galaad.

8 And after him Esebon from Bethlehem judged Israel.

9 And he had thirty sons and thirty daughters sent outside, and he brought in thirty women from outside for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

10 And Esebon died and was buried in Bethlehem.

11 And after him Ailon the Zabulonite judged Israel. And he judged Israel ten years.

12 And Ailon the Zabulonite died in Ailim, and they buried him in the land of Zabulon.

13 And after him Labdon son of Sellem the Phraathonite judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty sons of his sons mounted on seventy colts. And he judged Israel eight years.

15 And Labdon son of Sellem the Phraathonite died and was buried in Phraathon in the land of Ephraim on Mount Lanak.

Chapter 13

1 And the sons of Israel again did evil before the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hand of the foreigners for forty years.

2 And there was a man from Saraa of the tribe of Dan, and his name was Manoe, and his wife was barren and did not bear.

3 And an angel of the Lord appeared to the woman and said to her: Behold, you are barren and have not borne; and you will conceive and bear a son.

4 And now take care and do not drink wine or strong drink and do not eat anything unclean;

5 for behold, you will conceive and bear a son, and iron shall not rise upon his head, because the child will be a consecrated Nazirite to God from the womb, and he will begin to save Israel from the hand of the foreigners.

6 And the woman came and told her husband, saying: A man of God came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of an angel of God, very conspicuous; and I asked where he was from, and he did not tell me his name.

7 And he said to me: Behold, you will conceive and bear a son; and now do not drink wine or strong drink and do not eat any uncleanness, because the child will be a Nazirite of God from the womb until the day of his death.

8 And Manoe entreated the Lord and said: In me, Lord, let the man of God whom you sent to us come, please, to us and enlighten us as to what we should do with the child who is to be born.

9 And God listened to the voice of Manoe, and the angel of God came again to the woman while she was sitting in the field, and Manoe her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman hurried and ran out and reported to her husband and said to him: Behold, the man who came to me on that day has appeared to me.

11 And Manoe arose and went after his wife to the man and said to him: Are you the man who spoke to the woman? And the angel said: I am.

12 And Manoe said: Now, when your word comes, what will be the judgment of the child and his works?

13 And the angel of the Lord said to Manoe: Let her guard herself from all the things of which I spoke to the woman;

14 let her eat none of all that comes from the vine, and let her not drink wine or strong drink and not eat anything unclean; let her keep all that I commanded her.

15 And Manoe said to the angel of the Lord: Let us press you, please, and we will prepare a kid of the goats before you.

16 And the angel of the Lord said to Manoe: If you press me, I will not eat your bread, and if you prepare a whole burnt offering, offer it to the Lord; for Manoe did not know that he was an angel of the Lord.

17 And Manoe said to the angel of the Lord: What is your name, so that when your word comes we may glorify you?

18 And the angel of the Lord said to him: Why do you ask this, my name? And it is wonderful.

19 And Manoe took the kid of the goats and the sacrifice and offered it on the rock to the Lord, to the Lord who does wonders; and Manoe and his wife watched.

20 And it happened as the flame went up from above the altar into heaven that the angel of the Lord went up in the flame, and Manoe and his wife watched and fell upon their faces to the ground.

21 And the angel of the Lord no longer appeared to Manoe and his wife; then Manoe knew that he was an angel of the Lord.

22 And Manoe said to his wife: We shall surely die, for we have seen God.

23 And his wife said to him: If the Lord wished to put us to death, he would not have accepted from our hands a whole burnt offering and sacrifice and would not have enlightened us about all these things and would not have made these things heard by us.

24 And the woman bore a son and called his name Sampson; and the Lord blessed him, and the child grew.

25 And a spirit of the Lord began to go with him in the camp of Dan between Saraa and Esthaol.

Chapter 14

1 And Sampson went down to Thamnatha and saw a woman in Thamnatha from the daughters of the foreigners, and she was pleasing before him.

2 And he went up and reported to his father and mother and said: I have seen a woman in Thamnatha from the daughters of the foreigners, and now take her for me as a wife.

3 And his father and mother said to him: Is there no woman among the daughters of your brothers and among all my people, that you go to take a wife from the uncircumcised foreigners? And Sampson said to his father: Take this one for me, because she is pleasing in my eyes.

4 And his father and mother did not know that it was from the Lord, because he was seeking recompense from the foreigners; and at that time the foreigners ruled over the sons of Israel.

5 And Sampson and his father and mother went down to Thamnatha. And he turned aside into a vineyard of Thamnatha, and behold, a young lion roaring came to meet him;

6 and a spirit of the Lord guided itself upon him, and he tore it apart as one tears apart a kid of the goats, and there was nothing in his hand. And he did not tell his father or mother what he had done.

7 And they went down and spoke to the woman, and she was pleasing before Sampson.

8 And after days he returned to take her and turned aside to see the carcass of the lion, and behold, a cluster of bees in the mouth of the lion, and there was honey.

9 And he took it out into his mouth and went on walking and eating; and he went to his father and mother and gave them some, and they ate; and he did not tell them that he took the honey from the condition of the lion.

10 And his father went down to the woman; and Sampson made a drinking feast there for seven days, because the young men did thus.

11 And it happened when they feared him that they appointed thirty companions for him, and they were with him.

12 And Sampson said to them: I will put a riddle to you, and if you tell me the riddle within the seven days of the feast, I will give you thirty linen cloths and thirty garments;

13 and if you are unable to tell me, you will give me thirty linen cloths and thirty sets of clothing. And they said to him: Put forth your riddle, and we will hear it.

14 And he said to them: Out of the eater came food, and out of the strong came sweetness. And they were unable to tell the riddle for three days.

15 And it happened on the fourth day that they said to Sampson's wife: Deceive your husband, please, and let him tell you the riddle, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire; did you call us to become poor?

16 And Sampson's wife wept upon him and said to him: You have hated me and have not loved me, because the riddle which you put to the sons of my people you did not tell even me. And Sampson said to her: Behold, I did not tell my father or mother, and shall I tell you?

17 And she wept upon him during the seven days in which the feast was held; and it happened on the seventh day that he told her, because she troubled him; and she told the sons of her people.

18 And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun set: What is sweeter than honey, and what is stronger than a lion? And Sampson said to them: If you had not tamed my heifer, you would not have found my riddle.

19 And a spirit of the Lord guided itself upon him, and he went down to Ascalon and struck thirty men there and took their garments and gave them to those who told the riddle. And Sampson was angry in wrath and went up to his father's house.

20 And Sampson's wife lived with his bridegroom attendant, who was his companion.

Chapter 15

1 And it happened after days in the days of the wheat harvest that Sampson visited his wife carrying a kid of the goats and said: I will enter to my wife into the bedchamber; and her father did not allow him to enter to her.

2 And her father said: Saying, I said that you had utterly hated her, and I gave her to your companion; behold, is her younger sister not better than she? Let her be yours in her place.

3 And Sampson said to him: I am innocent this once of the foreigners, because I am doing evils among you.

4 And Sampson went and caught three hundred foxes and took torches and tied tail to tail and placed one torch between the two tails in the middle;

5 and he kindled fire in the torches and sent them into the sheaves of the foreigners and burned the ears of grain and what had been harvested before, from the stack as far as what was standing and as far as vineyard and olive tree.

6 And the foreigners said: Who did these things? And they said: Sampson the son-in-law of the Thamnathaite, because he took his wife and gave her to his companion; and the foreigners went up and burned the house of her father and her and her father with fire.

7 And Sampson said to them: If you do thus, I will not be satisfied, but I will take my vengeance from each and every one of you.

8 And he struck them upon the thigh with a great blow; and he went down and dwelt by the torrent in the cave of Etam.

9 And the foreigners went up and encamped against Judah and spread out in Lechi.

10 And every man of Judah said to them: Why have you come up against us? And the foreigners said: To bind Sampson and to do to him in the manner he did to us.

11 And three thousand men from Judah went down to the opening of the rock of Etam and said to Sampson: Do you not know that the foreigners rule over us, and why have you done these things to us? And Sampson said to them: As they did to us, so I did to them.

12 And they said to him: We came down to bind you and deliver you into the hands of the foreigners. And Sampson said to them: Swear to me that you yourselves will not kill me and deliver me to them, lest you yourselves meet against me.

13 And they swore to him, saying: No, but we will bind you with a bond and deliver you into their hands, but we will certainly not put you to death; and they bound him with two new cords and brought him up from the rock.

14 And he came as far as Siagon; and the foreigners shouted to meet him and ran to meet him; and a spirit of the Lord directed itself upon him, and the cords on his arms became like tow when it smells fire, and the bonds dissolved from his arms.

15 And he found a jawbone of a donkey cast on the road and stretched out his hand and took it and struck a thousand men with it.

16 And Sampson said: With a jawbone of a donkey, wiping out I wiped them out, because with a jawbone of a donkey I struck a thousand men.

17 And it happened when he finished speaking that he cast the jawbone from his hand; and he called that place Removal of the Jawbone.

18 And he was very thirsty; and he cried out to the Lord and said: You gave into the hand of your servant this great deliverance, and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

19 And God opened the wound of the jawbone, and waters came out of it, and he drank, and his spirit returned within him, and he revived. Therefore its name was called Spring Called of the Jawbone until this day. –

20 And he judged Israel in the days of the foreigners twenty years.

Chapter 16

1 And Sampson went from there to Gaza; and he saw a prostitute there and went in to her.

2 And it was reported to the Gazites, saying: Sampson has come here. And they surrounded and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate and kept silent all night, saying: Let us wait until the light in the morning and kill him.

3 And Sampson slept until midnight; and he arose around midnight and took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two posts and lifted them with the bar and put them upon his shoulder and carried them up to the summit of the mountain which faces Chebron and placed them there.

4 And it happened after these things that he loved a woman by the torrent Sorech, and her name was Dalila.

5 And the satraps of the foreigners went up to her and said to her: Deceive him and see in what his great strength lies and by what we can prevail against him and bind him so as to humble him, and we will each give you one thousand one hundred pieces of silver.

6 And Dalila said to Sampson: Tell me in what your great strength lies and with what you may be bound to be humbled.

7 And Sampson said to her: If they bind me with seven moist sinews not dried out, I will grow weak and be like one of the people.

8 And the satraps of the foreigners brought her seven moist sinews not dried out, and she bound him with them;

9 and his ambush sat in the inner room; and she said to him: The foreigners are upon you, Sampson; and he tore the sinews as a strand of the waste fiber is torn when it smells fire; and his strength was not known.

10 And Dalila said to Sampson: Behold, you have deceived me and spoken lies to me; now therefore tell me, please, with what you may be bound.

11 And he said to her: If they bind me firmly with seven new cords with which no work has been done, I will grow weak and be like one of the people.

12 And Dalila took new cords for him and bound him with them and said to him: The foreigners are upon you, Sampson; and the ambush sat in the inner room; and he tore them from his arms like thread.

13 And Dalila said to Sampson: Until now you have deceived me and spoken lies to me; tell me, please, with what you may be bound. And he said to her: If you weave the seven strands of my head with the warp and drive them into the peg in the wall, I will be weak like one of the people.

14 And Dalila made him sleep and wove the seven locks of his head with the stretching and drove them with the pegs into the wall and said to him: The foreigners are upon you, Sampson; and he awoke from his sleep and pulled the pegs with the woven cloth from the wall and the warp, and his strength was not known.

15 And Dalila said to him: How can you say, I have loved you, when your heart is not with me? This is the third time you have deceived me and have not told me in what your great strength lies.

16 And it happened when she wore him down with her words all night and troubled him that he grew fainthearted to the point of death;

17 and he told her everything from his heart and said to her: A razor shall not rise upon my head, for I am a Nazirite of God from my mother's womb, and if I am shaved, my strength will depart from me and I will grow weak and be like all people.

18 And Dalila saw that he had told her everything from his heart and sent and called all the satraps of the foreigners, saying: Come up this once, for he has told me all his heart; and all the satrapies of the foreigners went up to her and brought the silver in their hands.

19 And she made him sleep between her knees; and she called the barber, and he shaved the seven locks of his head; and he began to be humbled, and his strength departed from him.

20 And Dalila said to him: The foreigners are upon you, Sampson. And he awoke from his sleep and said: I will go out and do as always and shake myself free; and he did not know that the Lord had departed from him.

21 And the foreigners seized him and gouged out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze fetters, and he was grinding in the prison house.

22 And the hair of his head began to grow when it had been shaved.

23 And the satraps of the foreigners gathered to sacrifice a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to rejoice, and they said: Our god has delivered Sampson our enemy into our hand.

24 And the people saw him and praised their gods and said: Our god has delivered our enemy into our hand, the one who laid waste our land, who multiplied our wounded.

25 And it happened when their heart became glad that they said: Call Sampson from the prison house, and let him play before us. And they called Sampson from the prison house and mocked him and stood him between the two pillars.

26 And Sampson said to the young man leading him by the hand: Let me rest, please, and let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, and I will lean upon them; and the servant did so.

27 And the house was full of men and women, and all the satraps of the foreigners were there, and on the roof about three thousand men and women looking at Sampson being mocked.

28 And Sampson cried out to the Lord and said: Lord, Lord, remember me and strengthen me, please, just this once more, and I will take one vengeance for my two eyes from the foreigners.

29 And Sampson embraced the two middle pillars upon which the house rested, and leaned upon them, one with his right hand and one with his left.

30 And Sampson said: Let my soul die with the foreigners; and he bent with strength, and the house fell upon the satraps and upon all the people in it; and those who died whom Sampson put to death in his death were more than those whom he put to death in his life.

31 And his brothers and all his father's house went down and took him and went up and buried him between Saraa and Esthaol in the tomb of Manoe his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

Chapter 17

1 And there was a man from Mount Ephraim, and his name was Micha.

2 And he said to his mother: The one thousand one hundred pieces of silver taken from you, about which you adjured and spoke in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said: May my son be blessed by the Lord.

3 And he returned the one thousand one hundred pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother said: With consecration I consecrated the silver to the Lord from my hand alone to make a carved and molten image, and now I will return them to you and give it back to you.

4 And he returned the silver to his mother; and his mother took two hundred pieces of silver and gave it to the founder, and he made it a carved and molten image, and it was in Micha's house.

5 And the man Micha had a house of God; and he made an ephoud and theraphin and filled the hand of one of his sons, and he became his priest. –

6 In those days there was no king in Israel; each man did what was good in his own eyes.

7 And there was a young man from Bethlehem of the division of Judah, of the kin of Judah, and he was a Levite, and he sojourned there.

8 And the man went from the city of Judah, from Bethlehem, to sojourn wherever he might find, and came into Mount Ephraim as far as Micha's house to make his way.

9 And Micha said to him: Where do you come from? And he said to him: I am a Levite from Bethlehem of Judah, and I am going to sojourn wherever I might find.

10 And Micha said to him: Sit with me and become a father and priest for me, and I will give you ten pieces of silver for days and a pair of garments and what is needed for your living. And the Levite went 11 and began to sojourn with the man, and the young man became like one of his sons to him.

12 And Micha filled the Levite's hand, and the young man became his priest and was in Micha's house.

13 And Micha said: Now I know that the Lord has done me good, because the Levite became my priest.

Chapter 18

1 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of Dan sought an inheritance for itself to dwell in, because an inheritance had not fallen to it until those days among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the sons of Dan sent from their kin five men from their number, sons of strength from Saraa and Esthaol, to inspect the land and trace it out, and said to them: Go and search out the land. And they came to Mount Ephraim as far as Micha's house and rested there.

3 While they were by Micha's house they recognized the voice of the younger Levite servant and turned aside there and said to him: Who brought you here, and what are you doing here, and what do you have here?

4 And he said to them: Thus and thus Micha did for me and hired me, and I became his priest.

5 And they said to him: Ask, please, by God, and we will know whether our way upon which we are going prospers.

6 And the priest said to them: Go in peace; before the Lord is your way in which you are going.

7 And the five men went and came to Laisa; and they saw the people dwelling in it sitting in confidence according to the manner of the Sidonians, quiet in confidence and unable to speak a word, because they were far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with Syria.

8 And the five men came to their brothers in Saraa and Esthaol, and their brothers said to them: Why do you sit?

9 And they said: Arise and let us go up against them; because we entered and walked about in the land as far as Laisa and saw the people dwelling in it in confidence after the manner of the Sidonians, and far away from Sidon, and they had no dealings with Syria; but arise and let us go up against them, for we have found the land and behold, it is very good. And are you silent? Do not hesitate to go to come and inherit the land.

10 When you enter, you will come to a trusting people, and the land is spacious, for God has delivered it into your hand, a place where there is no lack of any thing that is in the land.

11 And six hundred men from the kin of Dan set out from Saraa and Esthaol, girded with implements of war.

12 And they went up and encamped in Kariathiarim in Judah; therefore that place was called Camp of Dan until this day, behold, behind Kariathiarim.

13 They passed from there and came as far as Mount Ephraim and came as far as Micha's house.

14 And the five men who had gone to inspect the land answered and said to their brothers: Do you know that in these houses there are an ephoud and theraphin and a carved and a molten image? And now know what you will do.

15 And they turned aside there and entered the house of the young Levite, Micha's house, and greeted him.

16 And the six hundred men girded with implements of war stood fixed by the entrance of the gateway, those from the sons of Dan.

17 And the five men who had gone to inspect the land went up; coming there they took the carved image and the ephoud and the theraphin and the molten image, while the priest stood fixed by the entrance of the gateway with the six hundred men girded with implements of war.

18 And these entered Micha's house and took the carved image and the ephoud and the theraphin and the molten image. And the priest said to them: What are you doing?

19 And they said to him: Be silent, put your hand upon your mouth and come with us, and you will be a father and priest for us; is it not better for you to be priest of one man's house than to become priest of a tribe and kin in Israel?

20 And the priest's heart became glad, and he took the ephoud and the theraphin and the carved image and the molten image and went into the midst of the people.

21 And they turned and departed; and they set the whole household and his splendid property before them.

22 When they had gone far from Micha's house, behold, Micha and the men with the house with Micha cried out after the sons of Dan.

23 And the sons of Dan turned their faces and said to Micha: What is the matter with you, that you cried out?

24 And Micha said: Because you took my carved image which I made for myself and the priest and departed; and what do I still have? And why do you say to me, Why are you crying out?

25 And the sons of Dan said to him: Let your voice not be heard with us, lest men pained in soul meet you, and you will add your soul and the soul of your house.

26 And the sons of Dan went on their way; and Micha saw that they were stronger than he and turned aside and returned to his house.

27 And they took what Micha made and the priest who was his, and came as far as Laisa against a quiet and trusting people and struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city;

28 and there was no one to rescue, because it was far from the Sidonians, and they had no dealings with people, and it was in the valley belonging to the house of Roob. And they built the city and dwelt in it

29 and called the name of the city Dan after the name of their father who was born to Israel; and Lais was the city's name formerly.

30 And the sons of Dan set up for themselves Micha's carved image; and Ionathan son of Gersom son of Moses, he and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan until the day of the deportation of the land.

31 And they placed for themselves Micha's carved image which he made all the days that the house of God was in Selo.

Chapter 19

1 And it happened in those days, and there was no king in Israel. And there was a Levite man sojourning in the flanks of Mount Ephraim, and the man took for himself a woman, a concubine, from Bethlehem of Judah.

2 And his concubine became angry with him and departed from him to her father's house in Bethlehem of Judah and was there for four months of days.

3 And her man arose and went after her to speak to her heart, to reconcile her to himself and lead her back to him, and his young servant with him and a pair of beasts of burden; and he went as far as her father's house, and the young woman's father saw him and was there to meet him.

4 And his father-in-law, the young woman's father, brought him in, and he sat with him three days, and they ate and drank and slept there.

5 And it happened on the fourth day that they arose early in the morning, and he arose to depart; and the young woman's father said to his son-in-law: Support your heart with a piece of bread, and after this go.

6 And both sat and ate together and drank; and the young woman's father said to the man: Begin to lodge, and let your heart be glad.

7 And the man arose to depart; and his father-in-law pressed him, and he lodged there again.

8 And he rose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; and the young woman's father said: Support your heart with bread and march when the day inclines; and both ate and drank.

9 And the man arose to depart, he and his concubine and his young servant; and his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him: Behold, the day has now inclined toward evening; lodge here still today, and let your heart be glad, and you will rise early tomorrow for your way, and depart to your dwelling.

10 And the man did not wish to lodge and arose and departed, and they came opposite Iebous [this is Jerusalem], and with him a pair of saddled beasts of burden, and his concubine with him.

11 While they were still near Iebous and the day had inclined greatly, the young servant said to his master: Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Iebusite and lodge in it.

12 And his master said to him: I will not turn aside into a city of a foreigner which is not of the sons of Israel, and we will pass on as far as Gabaa.

13 And he said to his young servant: Come and let us enter one of the places and lodge in Gabaa or in Rama.

14 And they passed on and departed; for the sun set near Gabaa, which belongs to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside there to enter and lodge in Gabaa; and they entered and sat in the square of the city, and there was no man to bring them into a house to lodge.

16 And behold, an old man came from his work in the field in the evening; and the man was from Mount Ephraim, and he sojourned in Gabaa, and the men of the place were sons of Benjamin.

17 And looking up with his eyes he saw the traveling man in the square of the city; and the old man said: Where are you going and where do you come from?

18 And he said to him: We are passing from Bethlehem of Judah to the flanks of Mount Ephraim; and I am from there and went as far as Bethlehem of Judah, and I am running back to my house, and there is no man to bring me into a house;

19 and indeed there is straw and fodder for our donkeys, and there is bread and wine for me and your servant woman and the young servant, your servants; there is no lack of anything.

20 And the old man said: Peace to you; only let all your lack be upon me; only do not lodge in the square.

21 And he brought him into his house and placed fodder before his beasts of burden, and they washed their feet and ate and drank.

22 And as their hearts became glad, behold, the men of the city, sons of lawless men, surrounded the house and struck the door and said to the old man, the master of the house: Bring out the man who entered your house so that we may know him.

23 And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them: By no means, brothers, please do not do evil; after this man has entered my house, do not do this foolishness;

24 behold, my virgin daughter and his concubine, I will bring them out, and humble them and do to them what is good in your eyes; but to this man do not do the deed of this foolishness.

25 And the men were unwilling to listen to him. And the man seized his concubine and brought her out to them outside, and they knew her and mocked her all night until morning; and they sent her away as dawn rose.

26 And the woman came toward morning and fell by the door of the gateway of the man's house, where her master was, until it grew light.

27 And her master arose in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to depart on his way, and behold, his concubine had fallen by the door, and her hands were on the threshold.

28 And he said to her: Arise and let us go; and she did not answer him, but had died. And he lifted her onto the beast of burden, and the man arose and departed to his place.

29 And he entered his house and took the knife and seized his concubine and divided her according to her bones into twelve portions and sent them to all the tribes of Israel.

30 And it happened that everyone who saw said: Neither has such a thing happened nor has it been seen from the day the sons of Israel came up from Egypt until this day. And he commanded the men to whom he sent them, saying: Thus you shall say to every man of Israel: Has there been anything like this deed from the day the sons of Israel came up from Egypt until this day? Set counsel for yourselves about it, please, and speak.

Chapter 20

1 And all the sons of Israel went out, and the whole congregation assembled as one man from Dan as far as Bersabee and the land of Galaad to the Lord at Massepha.

2 And the position of all the people stood, all the tribes of Israel, in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen drawing the sword.

3 And the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to the Lord at Massepha. And the sons of Israel said: Speak, where did this evil happen?

4 And the Levite man, the man of the woman who had been murdered, answered and said: I and my concubine came to Gabaa of Benjamin to lodge.

5 And the men from Gabaa rose against me and surrounded the house against me by night and wished to kill me, and they humbled my concubine and mocked her, and she died.

6 And I seized my concubine and divided her and sent her throughout every boundary of Israel's inheritance, because they did foolishness in Israel.

7 Behold, all of you, the sons of Israel, give yourselves a word and counsel.

8 And all the people arose as one man, saying: No man of us shall enter his dwelling and no man of us shall turn aside to his house.

9 And now this is the thing we will do to Gabaa: we will go up against it by lot

10 and take ten men for the hundred and a hundred for the thousand and a thousand for the ten thousand to take provisions for the people entering to carry out against Gabaa of Benjamin according to all the foolishness which they did in Israel.

11 And every man of Israel gathered from the cities, coming as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying: What is this evil that happened among you?

13 And now give up the impious men in Gabaa, the sons of Belial, and we will put them to death and remove evil from Israel. And the sons of Benjamin were unwilling to listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.

14 And the sons of Benjamin gathered from their cities to Gabaa to go out to fight with the sons of Israel.

15 And the sons of Benjamin were counted on that day from the cities, twenty-five thousand men drawing the sword, apart from those dwelling in Gabaa; these were counted as seven hundred chosen young men

16 right-handed on both sides; all these were slingers casting stones at a hair and not missing.

17 And all the men of Israel were counted apart from the sons of Benjamin, four hundred thousand men drawing the sword; all these were men of war.

18 And they arose and went up to Bethel and asked by God, and the sons of Israel said: Who will go up for us, taking the lead to fight with Benjamin? And the Lord said: Judah shall go up taking the lead.

19 And the sons of Israel arose and encamped against Gabaa.

20 And every man of Israel went out to war with Benjamin, and the men of Israel drew up against them for war at Gabaa.

21 And the sons of Benjamin went out from the city and destroyed among Israel on that day twenty-two thousand men upon the ground.

22 And the men of Israel grew strong and again drew up for war in the place where they had drawn up there on the first day.

23 And the sons of Israel went up and wept before the Lord until evening and asked by the Lord, saying: Shall I again draw near to war with Benjamin my brother? And the Lord said: Go up against him.

24 And the sons of Israel approached Benjamin on the second day.

25 And Benjamin went out to meet them from Gabaa on the second day and destroyed eighteen thousand men from the people upon the ground; all these had drawn the sword.

26 And all the sons of Israel and all the people went up and came to Bethel and wept before the Lord and fasted on that day and offered whole burnt offerings of deliverance before the Lord,

27 and the sons of Israel asked by the Lord; and the ark of the covenant of the Lord was there in those days,

28 and Phinees son of Eleazar son of Aaron stood before it in those days, saying: Shall I again go out to war with the sons of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the Lord said: Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver him into your hand.

29 And the sons of Israel placed an ambush around Gabaa.

30 And Israel drew up against Benjamin on the third day and drew up against Gabaa as once and once.

31 And the sons of Benjamin went out to meet the people and were drawn out of the city and began to strike some of the people as once and once on the roads, one of which goes up to Bethel and one goes up to Gabaa in the field, about thirty men among Israel.

32 And the sons of Benjamin said: They stumble before us as before. And the sons of Israel said: Let us flee and draw them out of the city onto the roads.

33 And every man of Israel arose from his place and drew up at Baalthamar, and the ambush of Israel wrestled from its place west of Gabaa.

34 And ten thousand chosen men from all Israel came opposite Gabaa, and the battle grew heavy; and they did not know that evil had fastened upon them.

35 And the Lord routed Benjamin before Israel, and the sons of Israel destroyed among Benjamin on that day twenty-five thousand one hundred men; all these drew the sword.

36 And Benjamin saw that he had been routed; and the men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin because they trusted in the ambush which they had placed against Gabaa.

37 And the ambush rushed and poured out toward Gabaa, and the ambush went and struck the whole city with the edge of the sword.

38 And the arrangement for the men of Israel with the ambush was that they should raise a torch of the smoke of the city.

39 And the men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin had begun to strike wounded men among the men of Israel, about thirty men, because they said: Surely he is being routed before us as in the former battle.

40 And the torch began to rise from the city, a column of smoke; and Benjamin looked behind him, and behold, the destruction of the city rose to heaven.

41 And the men of Israel turned back, and the men of Benjamin hastened and saw that evil had seized him.

42 And they turned before the men of Israel onto the way of the wilderness, and the battle overtook him, and those from the cities destroyed him in their midst.

43 And they cut down Benjamin, to make him rest with a rest, and trampled him as far as opposite Gabaa from the rising of the sun.

44 And eighteen thousand men from Benjamin fell; with all these were mighty men.

45 And they turned aside and fled to the wilderness toward the rock of Remmon, and they gleaned five thousand men on the roads; and they clung after him as far as Gadaam and struck two thousand men from them.

46 And all those who fell among Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men drawing the sword on that day; with all these were mighty men.

47 And six hundred men turned aside and fled to the wilderness toward the rock of Remmon and sat at the rock of Remmon for four months.

48 And the men of Israel shut off the sons of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword from city in succession as far as cattle, as far as everything found in all the cities; and the cities found they sent up in fire.

Chapter 21

1 And a man of Israel swore at Massepha, saying: No man of us will give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife.

2 And all the people came to Massepha and Bethel and sat there until evening before God and raised their voice and wept a great weeping

3 and said: Why, Lord the God of Israel, has this happened in Israel, that one tribe should be missing from Israel today?

4 And it happened the next day that the people rose early and built an altar there and offered whole burnt offerings of deliverance.

5 And the sons of Israel said: Who did not come up in the assembly from all the tribes of Israel to the Lord? For there was a great oath concerning the one who did not come up to the Lord at Massepha, saying: He shall surely die.

6 And the sons of Israel were moved concerning Benjamin their brother and said: One tribe has been taken away from Israel today;

7 what shall we do for those who remain concerning wives? And we swore by the Lord not to give them any of our daughters as wives.

8 And they said: Which one of the tribes of Israel did not go up to the Lord at Massepha? And behold, no man from Iabis Galaad came to the camp for the assembly.

9 And the people were counted, and behold, there was no man there from those dwelling in Iabis Galaad.

10 And the congregation sent there twelve thousand men from the sons of strength and commanded them, saying: Go and strike all those dwelling in Iabis Galaad with the edge of the sword, the women and the people.

11 And this is the thing you shall do: Every male and every woman who knows the bed of a male you shall devote.

12 And they found from those dwelling in Iabis Galaad four hundred young virgin women who had not known a man in the bed of a male, and they led them to the camp at Selo, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 And all the congregation sent and spoke to Benjamin at the rock of Remmon and called them to peace.

14 And Benjamin returned to the sons of Israel at that time, and they gave them the women who were from the women of Iabis Galaad; and it pleased them thus.

15 And the people were moved for Benjamin, because the Lord had made a breach among the tribes of Israel.

16 And the elders of the congregation said: What shall we do for the remaining ones concerning wives? For women have disappeared from Benjamin.

17 And they said: An inheritance has been saved for Benjamin, and a tribe shall certainly not be wiped out from Israel;

18 and we will not be able to give them wives from our daughters, because we, the sons of Israel, swore, saying: Cursed is the one who gives a wife to Benjamin.

19 And they said: There is a feast to the Lord in Selo from days to days, which is north of Bethel toward the rising of the sun on the road that goes up from Bethel to Sikima and south of Lebanon of Lebona.

20 And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying: Go through and lie in ambush in the vineyards;

21 and you will watch, and behold, when the daughters of those dwelling in Selo come out in Selo to dance in dances, you will go out from the vineyards and each man seize a wife for himself from the daughters of Selo and go away to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it will be that when their fathers or their brothers come to plead with you, we will say to them: Show them mercy, because each man did not take his wife in the war; for you did not give them to them; at the time you committed an offense.

23 And the sons of Benjamin did so and took wives according to their number from the dancing women whom they seized; and they departed and returned to their inheritance and built cities for themselves and dwelt in them.

24 And the sons of Israel walked away from there at that time, each man to his tribe and to his kin, and they departed from there, each man to his inheritance. –

25 In those days there was no king in Israel; each man did what was right in his own eyes.

2 Judges

Chapter 1

1 And it happened after the death of Jesus that the sons of Israel asked through the Lord, saying: Who will go up for us against the Canaanites, taking the lead to fight against them?

2 And the Lord said: Judah will go up; behold, I have given the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said to Symeon his brother: Come up with me in my lot, and let us draw up against the Canaanites, and I too will go with you in your lot. And Symeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up, and the Lord delivered the Canaanite and the Pherezite into their hands, and they cut down ten thousand men at Bezek,

5 and they took Adonibezek at Bezek and drew up against him and cut down the Canaanite and the Pherezite.

6 And Adonibezek fled, and they ran after him and took him and cut off the extremities of his hands and the extremities of his feet.

7 And Adonibezek said: Seventy kings, with the extremities of their hands and the extremities of their feet cut off, were gathering what was under my table; as I did, so God has repaid me. And they bring him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

8 And the sons of Judah fought Jerusalem and took it and struck it with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.

9 And after these things the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanite dwelling in the hill country and the south and the plain.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanite dwelling in Chebron, and Chebron came out opposite; and the name of Chebron formerly was Kariatharboxepher. And they struck Sessi and Achinaan and Tholmin, offspring of Enak.

11 And they went up from there against those dwelling in Dabir; but the name of Dabir formerly was Kariathsophar, City of Letters.

12 And Chaleb said: Whoever strikes the City of Letters and takes it first, I will give him Ascha my daughter for a wife.

13 And Gothoniel son of Kenez brother of Chaleb, the younger, took it first, and Chaleb gave him Ascha his daughter for a wife.

14 And it happened as she entered that Gothoniel urged her to ask her father for a field, and she murmured and cried out from the beast of burden: You have given me away into a land of the south. And Chaleb said to her: What is it for you?

15 And Ascha said to him: Give me, please, a blessing, because you have given me away into a land of the south, and you will give me a redemption of water. And Chaleb gave her according to her heart a redemption of the heights and a redemption of the lowlands.

16 And the sons of Iothor the Kenite, the father-in-law of Moses, went up from the city of palms with the sons of Judah into the wilderness in the south of Judah, which is by the descent of Arad, and dwelt with the people. –

17 And Judah went with Symeon his brother and cut down the Canaanite dwelling in Sephek; and they destroyed them and called the name of the city Devoted Thing.

18 And Judah did not inherit Gaza nor its boundaries nor Ascalon nor its boundaries nor Akkaron nor its boundaries nor Azotus nor its surrounding lands.

19 And the Lord was with Judah, and he inherited the mountain; because they were unable to destroy those dwelling in the valley, because Rechab had divided it for them.

20 And they gave Chebron to Chaleb, as Moses spoke, and he inherited from there the three cities of the sons of Enak.

21 And the sons of Benjamin did not inherit the Iebusite dwelling in Jerusalem, and the Iebusite dwelt with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem until this day.

22 And the sons of Joseph, they too, went up to Bethel, and the Lord was with them.

23 And they encamped against and inspected Bethel; but the name of their city formerly was Louza.

24 And those keeping watch saw, and behold, a man was going out of the city; and they took him and said to him: Show us the entrance of the city, and we will deal mercifully with you.

25 And he showed them the entrance of the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword, but the man and his kin they sent away.

26 And the man went to the land of the Chettites and built a city there and called its name Louza; that is its name until this day.

27 And Manasse did not remove Baithsan, which is the city of the Scythians, nor its daughter towns nor its surrounding inhabitants, nor Thanak nor its daughter towns, nor those dwelling in Dor nor its daughter towns, nor the one dwelling in Balak nor its surrounding inhabitants nor its daughter towns, nor those dwelling in Magedo nor its surrounding inhabitants nor its daughter towns, nor those dwelling in Ieblaam nor its surrounding inhabitants nor its daughter towns; and the Canaanite began to dwell in this land.

28 And it happened when Israel grew strong that he made the Canaanite tribute, and in removing him he did not remove him.

29 And Ephraim did not remove the Canaanite dwelling in Gazer; and the Canaanite dwelt in his midst in Gazer and became tribute.

30 And Zabulon did not remove those dwelling in Kedron nor those dwelling in Domana; and the Canaanite dwelt in their midst and became tribute for him.

31 And Aser did not remove those dwelling in Akcho, and it became tribute for him, nor those dwelling in Dor and those dwelling in Sidon and those dwelling in Aalaph and Aschazi and Chelba and Nai and Ereo.

32 And Aser dwelt in the midst of the Canaanite dwelling in the land, because he was unable to remove him.

33 And Nephthali did not remove those dwelling in Baithsamys and those dwelling in Baithanath, and Nephthali dwelt in the midst of the Canaanite dwelling in the land; but those dwelling in Baithsamys and Baitheneth became tribute for them.

34 And the Amorite pressed the sons of Dan into the mountain, because they did not allow him to go down into the valley.

35 And the Amorite began to dwell in the sherd-like mountain, where the bears were and where the foxes were, in Myrsinon and in Thalabin; and the hand of the house of Joseph was heavy upon the Amorite, and he became tribute for them.

36 And the boundary of the Amorite was from the ascent of Akrabin, from the Rock and upward.

Chapter 2

1 And an angel of the Lord went up from Galgal to Klauchmon and to Bethel and to the house of Israel and said to them: Thus says the Lord: I brought you up from Egypt and brought you into the land which I swore to your fathers, and I said: I will not scatter my covenant with you forever;

2 and you shall not make a covenant with those settled in this land nor bow down to their gods, but you shall shatter their carved images and pull down their altars. And you did not listen to my voice, because you did these things.

3 And I said: I will certainly not remove them from before you, and they will be constraints for you, and their gods will be a stumbling block for you.

4 And it happened when the angel of the Lord spoke these words to all the sons of Israel that the people raised their voice and wept.

5 And they named that place Weepings; and they sacrificed there to the Lord.

6 And Jesus sent the people away, and each man came to his inheritance to inherit the land.

7 And the people served the Lord all the days of Jesus and all the days of the elders who lived long after Jesus, who knew all the great work of the Lord which he did in Israel.

8 And Jesus son of Naue, servant of the Lord, died at one hundred and ten years of age.

9 And they buried him within the boundary of his inheritance in Thamnathares in Mount Ephraim to the north of Mount Gaas.

10 And indeed all that generation were added to their fathers, and another generation arose after them who did not know the Lord nor indeed the work which he did in Israel.

11 And the sons of Israel did evil before the Lord and served the Baalim.

12 And they abandoned the Lord the God of their fathers who brought them out of the land of Egypt and went after other gods from the gods of the nations around them and bowed down to them and provoked the Lord to anger,

13 and they abandoned him and served Baal and the Astartes.

14 And the Lord was angry in wrath with Israel and delivered them into the hands of plunderers, and they plundered them thoroughly; and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, and they were no longer able to stand before their enemies.

15 In all the things in which they went out, the hand of the Lord was upon them for evils, as the Lord spoke and as the Lord swore to them, and he pressed them very hard.

16 And the Lord raised up judges, and the Lord saved them from the hand of those plundering them.

17 And even the judges they did not obey, because they went whoring after other gods and bowed down to them; and they turned aside quickly from the way in which their fathers walked to listen to the words of the Lord; they did not do thus.

18 And because the Lord raised up judges for them, the Lord was with the judge and saved them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge, because the Lord was moved by their groaning before those besieging them and pressing them.

19 And it happened when the judge died that they turned back and again acted more corruptly than their fathers, going after other gods to serve them and bow down to them; they did not cast aside their practices and their hard ways.

20 And the Lord was angry in wrath with Israel and said: Because this nation abandoned my covenant which I commanded their fathers and did not listen to my voice,

21 I too will no longer continue to remove a man from before them from the nations which Jesus son of Naue left in the land and allowed to remain,

22 to test Israel by them, whether they keep the way of the Lord to walk in it as their fathers kept it, or not.

23 And the Lord allowed these nations to remain, not removing them quickly, and did not deliver them into the hand of Jesus.

Chapter 3

1 And these are the nations which the Lord allowed to remain so as to test Israel by them, all those who had not known the wars of Canaan,

2 except on account of the generations of the sons of Israel to teach them war, except that those before them had not known them;

3 the five satrapies of the foreigners and all the Canaanite and the Sidonian and the Euaite dwelling in Lebanon from Mount Aermon as far as Labohamath.

4 And it happened so as to test Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of the Lord which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the sons of Israel dwelt among the Canaanite and the Chettite and the Amorite and the Pherezite and the Euaite and the Iebusite,

6 and took their daughters for themselves as wives and gave their daughters to their sons and served their gods.

7 And the sons of Israel did evil before the Lord and forgot the Lord their God and served the Baalim and the groves.

8 And the Lord was angry in wrath with Israel and sold them into the hand of Chousarsathaim king of Syria of the Rivers. And the sons of Israel served Chousarsathaim eight years.

9 And the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord; and the Lord raised up a savior for Israel and saved them, Gothoniel son of Kenez brother of Chaleb, younger than he,

10 and a spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he judged Israel and went out to war against Chousarsathaim; and the Lord delivered Chousarsathaim king of Syria of the Rivers into his hand, and his hand became strong against Chousarsathaim.

11 And the land was quiet forty years; and Gothoniel son of Kenez died.

12 And the sons of Israel again did evil before the Lord. And the Lord strengthened Eglom king of Moab against Israel because they had done evil before the Lord.

13 And he gathered to himself all the sons of Ammon and Amalek and went and struck Israel and inherited the city of palms.

14 And the sons of Israel served Eglom king of Moab eighteen years.

15 And the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord; and he raised up for them a savior, Aod son of Gera son of the Iemeni, a man right-handed on both sides. And the sons of Israel sent gifts by his hand to Eglom king of Moab.

16 And Aod made for himself a double-edged knife, a span in its length, and girded it under the cloak on his right thigh.

17 And he went and brought the gifts to Eglom king of Moab; and Eglom was a very handsome man.

18 And it happened when Aod finished bringing the gifts, he sent away those carrying the gifts;

19 and he himself returned from the carved images by Galgal. And Aod said, I have a secret word for you, O king. And Eglom said to him, Be silent; and he sent away from himself all those attending him.

20 And Aod entered to him, and he was sitting in his summer upper room, by himself alone. And Aod said, I have a word of God for you, O king; and Eglom rose from the throne near him.

21 And it happened as he rose that Aod stretched out his left hand and took the knife from above his right thigh and thrust it into his belly.

22 And he drove in even the handle after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the knife out of his belly. And Aod went out to the porch

23 and went out past those stationed there and shut the doors of the upper room upon him and wedged them shut;

24 and he went out. And his servants entered and saw, and behold, the doors of the upper room were wedged shut, and they said, Perhaps he is emptying his feet in the summer chamber?

25 And they waited until they were ashamed, and behold, there was no one opening the doors of the upper room; and they took the key and opened, and behold, their lord had fallen upon the ground, dead.

26 And Aod escaped while they were in confusion, and there was no one taking notice of him; and he passed the carved images and escaped to Setirotha.

27 And it happened when Aod came to the land of Israel that he sounded a horn in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel came down with him from the mountain, and he was before them.

28 And he said to them, Come down after me, for the Lord God has delivered our enemies, Moab, into our hand. And they came down after him and seized beforehand the crossings of the Jordan belonging to Moab, and he did not permit a man to cross.

29 And they struck Moab on that day, about ten thousand men, every stout man and every man of strength, and no man escaped.

30 And Moab was put to shame on that day under the hand of Israel, and the land rested eighty years, and Aod judged them until he died.

31 And after him Samegar son of Dinach arose and struck the foreigners, six hundred men, with the oxgoad; and he too saved Israel.

Chapter 4

1 And the sons of Israel continued to do evil before the Lord; and Aod died.

2 And the Lord gave them over into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Asor; and the commander of his force was Sisara, and he dwelt in Arisoth of the nations.

3 And the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord, for he had nine hundred iron chariots, and he oppressed Israel with force for twenty years.

4 And Debbora, a woman, a prophetess, wife of Laphidoth, judged Israel at that time.

5 And she sat under the palm tree of Debbora between Rama and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the sons of Israel went up to her for judgment.

6 And Debbora sent and called Barak son of Abineem from Kades of Nephthali and said to him, Did not the Lord God of Israel command you, And you shall go to Mount Thabor and take with yourself ten thousand men from the sons of Nephthali and from the sons of Zabulon?

7 And I will bring to you, to the torrent Kison, Sisara the commander of Jabin's force and his chariots and his multitude, and I will deliver him into your hands.

8 And Barak said to her, If you go with me, I will go, and if you do not go, I will not go; for I do not know the day on which the Lord prospers the angel with me.

9 And she said, Going, I will go with you; nevertheless know that your preeminence will not be upon the way in which you go, for into a woman's hand the Lord will deliver Sisara. And Debbora rose and went with Barak from Kades.

10 And Barak summoned Zabulon and Nephthali from Kades, and ten thousand men went up at his feet; and Debbora went up with him.

11 And Chaber the Kenite had separated from Kain, from the sons of Iobab, Moses' father-in-law, and pitched his tent as far as the oak of those seeking advantage, which is near Kedes.

12 And it was reported to Sisara that Barak son of Abineem had gone up to Mount Thabor.

13 And Sisara summoned all his chariots, nine hundred iron chariots, and all the people with him, from Arisoth of the nations to the torrent Kison.

14 And Debbora said to Barak, Rise, for this is the day on which the Lord has delivered Sisara into your hand, for the Lord will go out before you. And Barak went down from Mount Thabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the Lord threw Sisara and all his chariots and all his camp into confusion by the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisara came down from upon his chariot and fled on his feet.

16 And Barak pursued after the chariots and after the camp as far as Arisoth of the nations; and all the camp of Sisara fell by the edge of the sword, not one was left.

17 And Sisara fled on his feet to the tent of Jael, wife of Chaber, companion of the Kenite, for there was peace between Jabin king of Asor and the house of Chaber the Kenite.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisara and said to him, Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; do not fear. And he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a covering.

19 And Sisara said to her, Give me, please, a little water to drink, for I am thirsty. And she opened the skin of milk and gave him drink and covered him.

20 And Sisara said to her, Stand, please, at the door of the tent, and it shall be, if a man comes to you and asks you and says, Is there a man here? then you shall say, There is not.

21 And Jael wife of Chaber took the tent peg and put the hammer in her hand and entered to him secretly and drove the peg into his temple, and it passed through into the ground; and he, being beside himself, grew dark and died.

22 And behold, Barak was pursuing Sisara, and Jael went out to meet him and said to him, Come and I will show you the man whom you seek. And he entered to her, and behold, Sisara was cast down dead, and the peg was in his temple.

23 And God routed Jabin king of Canaan on that day before the sons of Israel.

24 And the hand of the sons of Israel went on, going and growing hard against Jabin king of Canaan, until they utterly destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

Chapter 5

1 And Debbora and Barak son of Abineem sang on that day, saying,

2 A covering was uncovered in Israel; when the people volunteered, bless the Lord.

3 Hear, kings, and give ear, satraps; I am for the Lord, I am, I will sing, I will make music to the Lord, the God of Israel.

4 Lord, when you went out in Seir, when you departed from the field of Edom, the earth shook, and the heaven dripped dews, and the clouds dripped water;

5 mountains were shaken before the Lord Eloi, this Sinai before the Lord God of Israel.

6 In the days of Samegar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, roads ceased, and they traveled paths, they traveled crooked roads;

7 strong ones ceased in Israel, they ceased, until Debbora arose, until a mother arose in Israel.

8 They chose new gods; then cities of rulers fought; if a shield and spear should be seen among forty thousand in Israel.

9 My heart is toward those appointed in Israel; those volunteering among the people, bless the Lord.

10 You who ride upon a female donkey of midday, who sit upon a judgment seat, and who travel upon roads of councilors on the way,

11 tell of it from the voice of those striking up among those drawing water; there they will give righteous acts to the Lord, righteous acts, increase in Israel. Then the Lord's people went down to the cities.

12 Awake, awake, Debbora, awake, awake, speak a song; rise, Barak, and take captive your captivity, son of Abineem.

13 Then a remnant went down to the strong; the Lord's people went down to him among the mighty.

14 From me Ephraim rooted them out in Amalek; after you, Benjamin, among your peoples. With me from Machir came down searchers, and from Zabulon those drawing with a scribe's rod of narration.

15 And leaders in Issachar were with Debbora and Barak; so Barak sent into the valleys at his feet. In the divisions of Reuben there were great reachings of heart.

16 Why did they sit among the twofold allotment to hear the whistling of messengers? In the divisions of Reuben there were great examinations of heart.

17 Galaad encamped beyond the Jordan; and Dan, why does he sojourn by ships? Aser sat on the seacoast and will encamp at his outlets.

18 Zabulon is a people who reproached his soul unto death, and Nephthali upon the heights of the field.

19 Their kings came, they drew up for battle; then kings of Canaan fought in Thanaach by the water of Megeddo; they took no gift of silver.

20 From heaven the stars drew up for battle; from their paths they drew up against Sisara.

21 The torrent Kison swept them away, the torrent of ancient ones, the torrent Kison; my mighty soul will trample him.

22 Then the heels of a horse were impeded; with haste his mighty ones hastened.

23 Curse Meroz, said an angel of the Lord; curse, utterly accursed is everyone dwelling in it, for they did not come to the Lord's aid, to aid among the mighty.

24 May Jael wife of Chaber the Kenite be blessed among women; above women in tents may she be blessed.

25 He asked for water; she gave milk; in a basin of those who excel she brought butter.

26 Her left hand she stretched toward the peg and her right toward the hammer of those who toil; and she hammered Sisara, nailed through his head and struck, nailed through his temple.

27 Between her feet he rolled down, fell and slept; between her feet, reclining, he fell; as he reclined, there he fell, spent.

28 Through the window the mother of Sisara peered out beyond the lattice: Why was his chariot ashamed? Why have the feet of his chariots delayed?

29 Her wise ruling women answered her, and she herself returned her words to herself:

30 Will they not find him dividing spoils? A merciful one will show mercy for the head of a man; spoils of dyed fabrics for Sisara, spoils of dyed fabrics of embroidery, embroidered dyed fabrics themselves, spoils for his neck.

31 Thus may all your enemies perish, Lord; and those who love him are like the going forth of the sun in its strength. And the land rested forty years.

Chapter 6

1 And the sons of Israel did evil before the Lord, and the Lord gave them into the hand of Madiam for seven years.

2 And the hand of Madiam grew strong over Israel; and the sons of Israel made for themselves, because of Madiam, the holes in the mountains and the caves and the hanging places.

3 And it happened whenever the sons of Israel sowed, Madiam and Amalek came up, and the sons of the east came up with them;

4 and they encamped against them and destroyed their crops as far as Gaza, and left no means of life in the land of Israel, nor among the flocks an ox and a donkey;

5 for they and their possessions came up, and their tents arrived like a multitude of locusts, and there was no number for them and their camels, and they came into the land of Israel and destroyed it.

6 And Israel was very impoverished because of Madiam, and the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord

7 because of Madiam.

8 And the Lord sent a man, a prophet, to the sons of Israel, and he said to them, Thus says the Lord God of Israel: I am he who brought you up from the land of Egypt and led you out from your house of slavery

9 and delivered you from the hand of Egypt and from the hand of all who oppressed you, and cast them out before you and gave you their land,

10 and said to you, I am the Lord your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorite, among whom you will dwell in their land. And you did not listen to my voice.

11 And an angel of the Lord came and sat under the terebinth in Ephratha belonging to Ioas father of Esdri, and Gedeon his son was beating wheat in a winepress to escape from Madiam.

12 And the angel of the Lord appeared to him and said to him, The Lord is with you, mighty one of forces.

13 And Gedeon said to him, In me, my lord, and if the Lord is with us, why have these evils found us? And where are all his wonders which our fathers recounted to us, saying, Did not the Lord bring us up out of Egypt? And now he has cast us off and given us into the hand of Madiam.

14 And the angel of the Lord turned to him and said, Go in this strength of yours and save Israel from the hand of Madiam; behold, I have sent you.

15 And Gedeon said to him, In me, my lord, by what shall I save Israel? Behold, my thousand has become weak in Manasse, and I am the least in my father's house.

16 And the angel of the Lord said to him, The Lord will be with you, and you shall strike Madiam as one man.

17 And Gedeon said to him, But if I have found mercy in your eyes, then you will do for me today all that you have spoken with me;

18 do not depart from here until I come to you, and I will bring out the sacrifice and set it before you. And he said, I will sit until you return.

19 And Gedeon went in and prepared a kid of the goats and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour, and put the meat in a basket and poured the broth into a pot and brought them out to him under the terebinth and came near.

20 And the angel of God said to him, Take the meat and the unleavened bread and place them by that rock and pour out the broth beside it; and he did so.

21 And the angel of the Lord extended the tip of the staff in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread, and fire rose up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread; and the angel of the Lord went from his sight.

22 And Gedeon saw that this was an angel of the Lord, and Gedeon said, Ah, ah, my lord Lord, for I have seen an angel of the Lord face to face.

23 And the Lord said to him, Peace to you; do not fear; you shall certainly not die.

24 And Gedeon built an altar there to the Lord and called it Peace of the Lord; to this day it is still in Ephratha of the father of Esdri.

25 And it happened on that night that the Lord said to him, Take the calf, the bull that belongs to your father, and a second calf, seven years old, and you shall tear down the altar of Baal that belongs to your father, and destroy the grove upon it;

26 and you shall build an altar to the Lord your God upon the summit of this Maouek in the array, and take the second calf and offer a whole burnt offering with the wood of the grove which you shall destroy.

27 And Gedeon took ten men from his servants and did as the Lord had spoken to him; and it happened that, because he feared his father's house and the men of the city to do it by day, he did it by night.

28 And the men of the city rose early in the morning, and behold, the altar of Baal had been torn down and the grove upon it destroyed; and they saw the second calf which he had offered upon the altar that had been built.

29 And each man said to his neighbor, Who did this thing? And they sought and investigated and learned that Gedeon son of Ioas had done this thing.

30 And the men of the city said to Ioas, Bring out your son, and let him die, because he tore down Baal's altar and destroyed the grove upon it.

31 And Ioas said to all the men who rose against him, Are you now pleading on behalf of Baal? Or will you save him? Whoever pleads for him, let him be put to death by morning; if he is a god, let him plead for himself, because he tore down his altar.

32 And he called him Iarbaal on that day, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because his altar was torn down.

33 And all Madiam and Amalek and the sons of the east assembled together and encamped in the valley of Ezreel.

34 And the spirit of the Lord strengthened Gedeon, and he sounded a horn, and Abiezer was afraid behind him.

35 And he sent messengers into all Manasse and into Aser and into Zabulon and Nephthali, and he went up to meet them.

36 And Gedeon said to God, If you save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken,

37 behold, I am placing the fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if dew comes upon the fleece alone and dryness upon all the ground, I shall know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken.

38 And it happened thus; and he rose early on the next day and squeezed the fleece, and dew dripped from the fleece, a full basin of water.

39 And Gedeon said to God, Let your anger, please, not be kindled against me, and I shall speak once more; and I shall make trial once more with the fleece: let dryness come upon the fleece alone, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 And God did thus on that night, and there was dryness upon the fleece alone, and upon all the ground there was dew.

Chapter 7

1 And Iarbal [that is Gedeon] and all the people with him rose early and encamped by the spring of Arad, and the camp of Madiam was to his north from Gabaath Amora in the valley.

2 And the Lord said to Gedeon, The people with you are too many for me to deliver Madiam into their hand, lest Israel boast against me, saying, My hand saved me;

3 and now speak, please, in the ears of the people, saying, Who is fearful and timid? Let him return and withdraw from Mount Galaad. And twenty-two thousand returned from the people, and ten thousand remained.

4 And the Lord said to Gedeon, The people are still many; bring them down to the water, and I shall sift them for you there; and it shall be that whoever I say to you, This one shall go with you, he shall go with you; and anyone of whom I say to you, This one shall not go with you, he shall not go with you.

5 And he brought the people down to the water; and the Lord said to Gedeon, Everyone who laps with his tongue from the water as a dog laps, you shall set him apart, and everyone who bends upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of those who lapped with their hand to their mouth was three hundred men, and all the rest of the people bent upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the Lord said to Gedeon, With the three hundred men who lapped I will save you and give Madiam into your hand, and all the people shall go, each man to his place.

8 And they took the people's provisions in their hand and their horns, and he sent every man of Israel away, each to his tent, and kept the three hundred men. And the camp of Madiam was below him in the valley.

9 And it happened on that night that the Lord said to him, Rise and go down into the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand;

10 and if you fear to go down, go down, you and Phara your servant, into the camp

11 and hear what they will say; and after this your hands will grow strong, and you will go down into the camp. And he and Phara his servant went down toward the beginning of the fifty who were in the camp.

12 And Madiam and Amalek and all the sons of the east were spread out in the valley like locusts in multitude, and their camels had no number, but were like sand upon the seashore in multitude.

13 And Gedeon came, and behold, a man was telling a dream to his neighbor and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and behold, a cake of barley bread rolled in the camp of Madiam and came as far as the tent and struck it, and it fell, and turned it upward, and the tent fell.

14 And his neighbor answered and said, This is nothing other than the sword of Gedeon son of Ioas, a man of Israel; God has delivered Madiam and all the camp into his hand.

15 And it happened when Gedeon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation that he bowed down to the Lord and returned to the camp of Israel and said, Rise, for the Lord has delivered the camp of Madiam into our hand.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies and gave horns into everyone's hand and empty jars and torches in the jars

17 and said to them, Watch me, and thus you shall do; and behold, I am entering at the edge of the camp, and it shall be that as I do, so shall you do;

18 and I shall sound the horn, I and all with me; sound your horns around the whole camp and say, For the Lord and for Gedeon.

19 And Gedeon and the hundred men with him entered at the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, and, rousing, they roused the guards and sounded the horns and shook out the jars in their hands.

20 And the three companies sounded the horns and broke the jars and held the torches in their left hands and the horns for sounding in their right hands and cried out, A sword for the Lord and for Gedeon.

21 And each man stood in his place around the camp, and all the camp ran and signaled and fled.

22 And they sounded the three hundred horns, and the Lord set each man's sword against his neighbor throughout the camp, and the camp fled as far as Bethseedta Garagatha, as far as the edge of Abomeoula by Tabath.

23 And the men of Israel from Nephthali and from Aser and from all Manasse were summoned and pursued Madiam.

24 And Gedeon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, Come down to meet Madiam and seize the water for yourselves as far as Baithera and the Jordan; and every man of Ephraim was summoned, and they seized the water beforehand as far as Baithera and the Jordan.

25 And they captured the rulers of Madiam, Oreb and Zeb, and killed Oreb at Sour and killed Zeb at Iakephzeph and pursued Madiam; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeb to Gedeon from beyond the Jordan.

Chapter 8

1 And the men of Ephraim said to Gedeon, What is this thing you have done to us, not calling us when you went to fight against Madiam? And they disputed with him strongly.

2 And he said to them, What have I done now compared with you? Is not Ephraim's gleaning better than Abiezer's harvest?

3 Into your hand the Lord delivered the rulers of Madiam, Oreb and Zeb; and what was I able to do like you? Then their spirit relaxed toward him when he spoke this word.

4 And Gedeon came to the Jordan, and he and the three hundred men with him crossed, hungry and pursuing.

5 And he said to the men of Sokchoth, Give, please, loaves for food to this people at my feet, for they are failing, and behold, I am pursuing Zebee and Selmana, kings of Madiam.

6 And the rulers of Sokchoth said, Are the hands of Zebee and Selmana now in your hand? We shall not give loaves to your force.

7 And Gedeon said, Therefore when the Lord gives Zebee and Selmana into my hand, I shall thresh your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with the abarkenin.

8 And he went up from there to Phanouel and spoke to them likewise, and the men of Phanouel answered him as the men of Sokchoth had answered.

9 And Gedeon said to the men of Phanouel, When I return in peace I shall tear down this tower. –

10 And Zebee and Selmana were in Karkar, and their camp with them, about fifteen thousand, all those left from the whole camp of the foreigners; and those who had fallen were a hundred and twenty thousand men drawing a sword.

11 And Gedeon went up by the road of those dwelling in tents east of Nabai and Iegebal; and he struck the camp, while the camp was confident.

12 And Zebee and Selmana fled, and he pursued them and seized the two kings of Madiam, Zebee and Selmana, and threw the whole camp into confusion. –

13 And Gedeon son of Ioas returned from the battle from above the battle line of Ares.

14 And he captured a young man of the men of Sokchoth and questioned him, and he wrote for him the names of the rulers of Sokchoth and their elders, seventy-seven men.

15 And Gedeon came to the rulers of Sokchoth and said, Behold Zebee and Selmana, concerning whom you reproached me, saying, Are the hands of Zebee and Selmana now in your hand, that we should give loaves to the men who are failing?

16 And he took the elders of the city with the thorns of the wilderness and the barakenim and threshed the men of the city with them.

17 And he tore down the tower of Phanouel and killed the men of the city. –

18 And he said to Zebee and Selmana, Where are the men whom you killed in Thabor? And they said, Like you, so were they, in the likeness of a king's son.

19 And Gedeon said, They were my brothers and sons of my mother; as the Lord lives, if you had kept them alive, I would not have killed you.

20 And he said to Iether his firstborn, Rise and kill them; and the young man did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, for he was still younger.

21 And Zebee and Selmana said, Rise yourself and fall upon us, for your strength is as a man's. And Gedeon rose and killed Zebee and Selmana and took the crescents on the necks of their camels.

22 And the men of Israel said to Gedeon, Lord, rule us, both you and your son, for you saved us from the hand of Madiam.

23 And Gedeon said to them, I shall not rule, and my son shall not rule among you; the Lord shall rule you.

24 And Gedeon said to them, I shall ask a request of you: each man give me an earring from his spoils; for they had gold earrings, for they were Ishmaelites.

25 And they said, Giving, we shall give; and he spread out his cloak, and each man cast there an earring from his spoils.

26 And the weight of the gold earrings which he asked for was a thousand and five hundred gold pieces, apart from the crescents and the necklaces and the garments and purple garments upon the kings of Madiam, and besides the ornaments on the necks of their camels.

27 And Gedeon made it into an ephod and set it up in his city, Ephratha; and all Israel went whoring after it there, and it became a stumbling block to Gedeon and his house.

28 And Madiam was brought low before the sons of Israel and did not again lift up its head. And the land rested forty years in the days of Gedeon. –

29 And Ierobaal son of Ioas went and dwelt in his house.

30 And Gedeon had seventy sons who came forth from his thighs, for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine was in Sychem; and she too bore him a son, and he gave him the name Abimelech.

32 And Gedeon son of Ioas died in his city and was buried in the tomb of Ioas his father in Ephratha of Abiesdri.

33 And it happened when Gedeon died that the sons of Israel turned back and went whoring after the Baals, and they made Baal of the covenant their god.

34 And the sons of Israel did not remember the Lord God who had delivered them from the hand of all those oppressing them all around.

35 And they did not show mercy to the house of Ierobaal [that is Gedeon] according to all the good that he had done with Israel.

Chapter 9

1 And Abimelech son of Ierobaal went to Sychem to his mother's brothers and spoke to them and to all the kin of his mother's father's house, saying,

2 Speak, please, in the ears of all the men of Sychem: What is better for you, that seventy men, all sons of Ierobaal, rule you, or that one man rule you? And remember that I am your bone and your flesh.

3 And his mother's brothers spoke concerning him in the ears of all the men of Sychem all these words, and their heart inclined after Abimelech, for they said, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Baalberith, and Abimelech hired for himself empty and timid men, and they went after him.

5 And he entered his father's house in Ephratha and killed his brothers, the sons of Ierobaal, seventy men, upon one stone; and Ioathan son of Ierobaal, the youngest, was left, for he hid.

6 And all the men of Sikimoi and all the house of Bethmaalon gathered and went and made Abimelech king beside the oak that was found by the standing place in Sikimoi.

7 And it was reported to Ioathan, and he went and stood upon the summit of Mount Garizin and raised his voice and wept and said to them, Hear me, men of Sikimoi, and God will hear you.

8 Going, the trees went to anoint a king over themselves and said to the olive tree, Reign over us.

9 And the olive tree said to them, Shall I leave my richness, by which men glorify God, and go to sway over the trees?

10 And the trees said to the fig tree, Come, reign over us.

11 And the fig tree said to them, Shall I leave my sweetness and my good produce and go to sway over the trees?

12 And the trees said to the vine, Come, you reign over us.

13 And the vine said to them, Shall I leave my wine, which gladdens God and men, and go to sway over the trees?

14 And all the trees said to the bramble, Come, you reign over us.

15 And the bramble said to the trees, If in truth you anoint me to reign over you, come and stand in my shade; but if not, may fire go out from me and consume the cedars of Lebanon. –

16 And now, if in truth and integrity you acted and made Abimelech king, and if you showed goodness to Ierobaal and to his house, and if you acted toward him according to the repayment of his hand,

17 – as my father fought for you and cast away his life in opposition and delivered you from the hand of Madiam,

18 and you rose against my father's house today and killed his sons, seventy men upon one stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Sikimoi because he is your brother –

19 and if in truth and integrity you acted toward Ierobaal and his house on this day, may you rejoice in Abimelech, and may he too rejoice over you.

20 But if not, may fire come out from Abimelech and consume the men of Sikimoi and the house of Bethmaallon, and may fire come out from the men of Sikimoi and from the house of Bethmaallon and consume Abimelech. –

21 And Ioathan fled and escaped and went as far as Baier and lived there because of Abimelech his brother.

22 And Abimelech ruled over Israel for three years.

23 And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Sikimoi, and the men of Sikimoi dealt treacherously with the house of Abimelech,

24 to bring the injustice against the seventy sons of Ierobaal and lay their blood upon Abimelech their brother who killed them, and upon the men of Sikimoi because they strengthened his hands to kill his brothers.

25 And the men of Sikimoi set men in ambush for him on the mountain tops, and they plundered everyone passing by them on the road; and it was reported to King Abimelech.

26 And Gaal son of Iobel and his brothers came and passed into Sikimoi, and the men of Sikimoi put their hope in him.

27 And they went out into the field and harvested their vineyards and trod and made elloulim and brought them into the house of their god and ate and drank and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal son of Iobel said, Who is Abimelech and who is the son of Sychem that we should serve him? Is he not a son of Ierobaal, and Zeboul his overseer his servant, with the men of Emmor father of Sychem? And why should we serve him?

29 And who would put this people in my hand? I would remove Abimelech and say to him, Increase your force and come out.

30 And Zeboul, ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal son of Iobel and became angry with wrath.

31 And he sent messengers to Abimelech secretly, saying, Behold, Gaal son of Iobel and his brothers are coming to Sychem, and behold, they are besieging the city against you;

32 and now rise by night, you and the people with you, and lie in ambush in the field,

33 and it shall be in the morning, as the sun rises, rise early and spread out against the city, and behold, he and the people with him will come out to you, and you shall do to him whatever your hand finds.

34 And Abimelech and all the people with him rose by night and lay in ambush against Sychem in four companies.

35 And Gaal son of Iobel went out and stood by the door of the city gate, and Abimelech and the people with him rose from the ambush.

36 And Gaal son of Iobel saw the people and said to Zeboul, Behold, people are coming down from the mountain tops. And Zeboul said to him, You are seeing the shadow of the mountains as men.

37 And Gaal continued to speak and said, Behold, people are coming down toward the sea from near the navel of the land, and another company is coming by the road of Elonmaonenim.

38 And Zeboul said to him, And where is your mouth with which you said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is this not the people whom you despised? Go out now, please, and fight him.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Sychem and fought Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech pursued him, and he fled from him; and many wounded fell as far as the door of the gate.

41 And Abimelech entered Arema; and Zeboul drove out Gaal and his brothers so that they would not dwell in Sychem.

42 And it happened on the next day that the people went out into the field, and it was reported to Abimelech.

43 And he took the people and divided them into three companies and lay in ambush in the field; and he saw, and behold, the people came out of the city, and he rose against them and struck them.

44 And Abimelech and the leaders with him spread out and stood by the door of the city gate, and the two companies spread out against all those in the field and struck them.

45 And Abimelech fought in the city all that day and took the city and killed the people in it and tore down the city and sowed it with salt.

46 And all the men of the towers of Sychem heard and came to the assembly of Baithelberith.

47 And it was reported to Abimelech that all the men of the towers of Sychem had gathered.

48 And Abimelech and all the people with him went up Mount Hermon, and Abimelech took the axes in his hand and cut a branch of a tree and lifted it and set it on his shoulders and said to the people with him, What you have seen me doing, do quickly as I did.

49 And every man likewise cut a branch and went after Abimelech and put them against the assembly and set fire to the assembly over them; and all the men of the tower of Sikimoi died too, about a thousand men and women.

50 And Abimelech went from Baithelberith and encamped at Thebes and took it.

51 And a strong tower was in the middle of the city, and all the men and women of the city fled there and shut it from outside themselves and went up onto the roof of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came as far as the tower, and they drew up against him; and Abimelech approached as far as the tower door to burn it with fire.

53 And one woman threw a piece of an upper millstone onto Abimelech's head and broke his skull.

54 And he quickly called to the young man carrying his equipment and said to him, Draw my sword and put me to death, lest they say, A woman killed him. And his young man pierced him through, and he died.

55 And the men of Israel saw that Abimelech had died, and they went, each man to his place.

56 And God returned upon Abimelech the evil that he did to his father by killing his seventy brothers.

57 And God returned all the evil of the men of Sychem upon their heads, and the curse of Ioathan son of Ierobaal came upon them.

Chapter 10

1 And after Abimelech Thola son of Phoua, son of his father's brother, a man of Issachar, arose to save Israel, and he dwelt in Samir in the hill country of Ephraim.

2 And he judged Israel twenty-three years and died and was buried in Samir.

3 And after him Iair the Galaadite arose and judged Israel twenty-two years.

4 And he had thirty-two sons riding on thirty-two colts; and they had thirty-two cities, and they called them the Hamlets of Iair to this day in the land of Galaad.

5 And Iair died and was buried in Ramnon.

6 And the sons of Israel continued to do evil before the Lord and served the Baals and the Astaroths and the gods of Arad and the gods of Sidon and the gods of Moab and the gods of the sons of Ammon and the gods of the Philistines and abandoned the Lord and did not serve him.

7 And the Lord became angry with wrath against Israel and gave them over into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the sons of Ammon.

8 And they oppressed and crushed the sons of Israel at that time for eighteen years, all the sons of Israel beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorite in Galaad.

9 And the sons of Ammon crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah and Benjamin and Ephraim, and Israel was greatly oppressed.

10 And the sons of Israel cried out to the Lord, saying, We sinned against you, for we abandoned God and served the Baals.

11 And the Lord said to the sons of Israel, Did I not save you from Egypt and from the Amorite and from the sons of Ammon and from the Philistines

12 and the Sidonians and Amalek and Madiam, who oppressed you, when you cried out to me, and I saved you from their hand?

13 And you abandoned me and served other gods; therefore I will no longer save you.

14 Go and cry out to the gods whom you chose for yourselves, and let them save you in the time of your affliction.

15 And the sons of Israel said to the Lord, We sinned; do to us according to all that is good in your eyes, only rescue us on this day.

16 And they put aside the foreign gods from their midst and served the Lord alone, and his soul was shortened by Israel's toil.

17 And the sons of Ammon came up and encamped in Galaad, and the sons of Israel gathered and encamped in the lookout place.

18 And the people, the rulers of Galaad, said to one another, Who is the man who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? He shall be ruler over all who dwell in Galaad.

Chapter 11

1 And Iephthae the Galaadite was exalted in strength; and he was the son of a prostitute, who bore Iephthae to Galaad.

2 And Galaad's wife bore him sons; and the sons of the wife grew up and drove out Iephthae and said to him, You shall not inherit in our father's house, for you are a son of a companion woman.

3 And Iephthae fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob, and empty men gathered to Iephthae and went out with him.

5 And it happened when the sons of Ammon fought against Israel that the elders of Galaad went to take Iephthae from the land of Tob

6 and said to Iephthae, Come and be our leader, and let us fight against the sons of Ammon.

7 And Iephthae said to the elders of Galaad, Was it not you who hated me and drove me from my father's house and sent me away from you? And why have you come to me now when you have need?

8 And the elders of Galaad said to Iephthae, For this reason we have now returned to you, and you shall go with us and fight against the sons of Ammon; and you shall be ruler for us, over all who dwell in Galaad.

9 And Iephthae said to the elders of Galaad, If you bring me back to fight against the sons of Ammon and the Lord delivers them before me, then I shall be ruler for you.

10 And the elders of Galaad said to Iephthae, Let the Lord be hearing between us if we do not act thus according to your word.

11 And Iephthae went with the elders of Galaad, and the people set him over them as head and leader. And Iephthae spoke all his words before the Lord in Massepha.

12 And Iephthae sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, What is there between me and you, that you came against me to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the sons of Ammon said to Iephthae's messengers, Because Israel took my land when he came up from Egypt, from Arnon as far as Iabok and as far as the Jordan; and now return those lands in peace, and I will go.

14 And Iephthae continued and sent messengers again to the king of the sons of Ammon

15 and said to him, Thus says Iephthae: Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the sons of Ammon.

16 For when they came up from Egypt, Israel traveled in the wilderness as far as the Sea of Siph and came to Kades.

17 And Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, Let me pass, please, through your land; and the king of Edom did not listen. And he sent to the king of Moab, and he did not consent. And Israel dwelt in Kades.

18 And he traveled in the wilderness and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab and came from the east to the land of Moab and encamped beyond Arnon and did not enter the borders of Moab, for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And Israel sent messengers to Seon king of the Amorite, king of Esebon, and Israel said to him, Let us pass, please, through your land to our place.

20 And Seon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; and Seon gathered all his people, and they encamped at Iasa, and he fought against Israel.

21 And the Lord God of Israel delivered Seon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and he struck him; and Israel inherited all the land of the Amorite who dwelt in that land,

22 from Arnon as far as Iabok and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan.

23 And now the Lord God of Israel has removed the Amorite from before his people Israel, and will you inherit him?

24 Will you not inherit whatever Chamos your god causes you to inherit? And all those whom the Lord our God has removed from before us, we shall inherit them.

25 And now are you in goodness better than Balak son of Sepphor, king of Moab? Did he contend in contention with Israel, or wage war against him in war?

26 During the three hundred years of dwelling in Esebon and its borders and in the land of Aroer and its borders and in all the cities along the Jordan, why did you not rescue them at that time?

27 And now I have not sinned against you, and you do evil to me by fighting against me; let the Lord, the judge, judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon.

28 And the king of the sons of Ammon did not listen to the words of Iephthae which he sent to him.

29 And the spirit of the Lord came upon Iephthae, and he passed through Galaad and Manasse and passed through the lookout place of Galaad to the far side of the sons of Ammon.

30 And Iephthae vowed a vow to the Lord and said, If you indeed give the sons of Ammon into my hand,

31 then whoever comes out, who comes out from the door of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, shall be for the Lord; I shall offer him as a whole burnt offering.

32 And Iephthae passed over to the sons of Ammon to fight them, and the Lord delivered them into his hand.

33 And he struck them from Aroer as far as Arnon, twenty cities in number, and as far as Ebelcharmin with a very great blow, and the sons of Ammon were brought low before the sons of Israel.

34 And Iephthae came to his house in Massepha, and behold, his daughter was coming out to meet him with tambourines and dances; and she was an only child, and he had no other son or daughter.

35 And it happened when he saw her that he tore his garments and said, Ah, ah, my daughter, with trouble you have troubled me, and you were in my trouble, and I have opened my mouth against you to the Lord and cannot turn back.

36 And she said to him, Father, you opened your mouth to the Lord; do to me as it came out of your mouth, since the Lord has wrought vengeance for you upon your enemies, the sons of Ammon.

37 And she said this to her father: Let my father do this thing, please; leave me two months, and I will go and descend upon the mountains and weep over my virginity, I and my companions.

38 And he said, Go; and he sent her away for two months. And she went, she and her companions, and wept over her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it happened at the end of the two months that she returned to her father, and he did to her his vow that he had vowed; and she had not known a man. And it became a statute in Israel:

40 from days to days the daughters of Israel went to lament the daughter of Iephthae of Galaad for four days in the year.

Chapter 12

1 And the men of Ephraim were summoned and crossed to the north and said to Iephthae, Why did you cross to fight against the sons of Ammon and not call us to go with you? We shall burn your house over you with fire.

2 And Iephthae said to them, I and my people were men of battle, and the sons of Ammon greatly so; and I called you, and you did not save me from their hand.

3 And I saw that you were no savior, and I put my life in my hand and crossed to the sons of Ammon, and the Lord gave them into my hand; and why did you come up against me on this day to fight me?

4 And Iephthae gathered all the men of Galaad and fought Ephraim, and the men of Galaad struck Ephraim, because they said, You are the escaped ones of Ephraim, Galaad in the midst of Ephraim and in the midst of Manasse.

5 And Galaad seized beforehand the crossings of the Jordan belonging to Ephraim, and the escaped ones of Ephraim said to them, Let us cross, and the men of Galaad said to them, Are you an Ephrathite? And he said, No.

6 And they said to him, Say, please, Stachys; and he did not manage to say it thus. And they seized him and slaughtered him by the crossings of the Jordan, and forty-two thousand of Ephraim fell at that time.

7 And Iephthae judged Israel sixty years. And Iephthae the Galaadite died and was buried in his city in Galaad.

8 And after him Abaisan from Bethlehem judged Israel.

9 And he had thirty sons and thirty daughters whom he sent outside, and he brought thirty daughters from outside for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

10 And Abaisan died and was buried in Bethlehem.

11 And after him Ailom the Zabulonite judged Israel ten years.

12 And Ailom the Zabulonite died and was buried in Ailom in the land of Zabulon.

13 And after him Abdon son of Ellel the Pharathonite judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty sons of sons, riding on seventy colts. And he judged Israel eight years.

15 And Abdon son of Ellel the Pharathonite died and was buried in Pharathom in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of Amalek.

Chapter 13

1 And the sons of Israel continued to do evil before the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years.

2 And there was one man from Saraa, from a district of the kin of Dan, and his name was Manoe, and his wife was barren and had not borne.

3 And an angel of the Lord appeared to the woman and said to her, Behold, you are barren and have not borne; and you shall conceive a son.

4 And now take care, please, and do not drink wine or strong drink and do not eat anything unclean;

5 for behold, you have in your womb and shall bear a son, and iron shall not come up upon his head, for the child shall be a nazir of God from the womb, and he shall begin to save Israel from the hand of the Philistines.

6 And the woman went in and said to her husband, saying, A man of God came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of an angel of God, very fearsome; and I did not ask him where he was from, and he did not tell me his name.

7 And he said to me, Behold, you have in your womb and shall bear a son; and now do not drink wine or strong drink and do not eat anything unclean, for the child shall be holy to God from the womb until the day of his death.

8 And Manoe prayed to the Lord and said, In me, Lord Adonaie, let the man of God whom you sent come again to us, please, and instruct us what we shall do for the child being born.

9 And God listened to the voice of Manoe, and the angel of God came again to the woman, and she sat in the field, and Manoe her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman hurried and ran and reported to her husband and said to him, Behold, the man who came to me on that day has appeared to me.

11 And Manoe rose and went after his wife and came to the man and said to him, Are you the man who spoke to the woman? And the angel said, I am.

12 And Manoe said, Now your word will come; what shall be the judgment of the child and his deeds?

13 And the angel of the Lord said to Manoe, From all that I have said to the woman she shall keep herself;

14 she shall not eat of anything that comes forth from the vine of wine, and she shall not drink wine or sikera, strong drink, and shall not eat anything unclean; everything that I commanded her she shall keep.

15 And Manoe said to the angel of the Lord, Let us keep you here and prepare a kid of the goats before you.

16 And the angel of the Lord said to Manoe, If you keep me, I shall not eat of your bread, and if you make a whole burnt offering, to the Lord you shall offer it; for Manoe did not know that he was an angel of the Lord.

17 And Manoe said to the angel of the Lord, What is your name? For when your word comes, we shall glorify you.

18 And the angel of the Lord said to him, Why do you ask this, my name? It is wondrous.

19 And Manoe took the kid of the goats and the sacrifice and offered it upon the rock to the Lord; and he made a distinction to act, while Manoe and his wife watched.

20 And it happened as the flame rose above the altar toward heaven that the angel of the Lord went up in the flame of the altar, and Manoe and his wife were watching and fell on their faces to the ground.

21 And the angel of the Lord did not again appear to Manoe and his wife; then Manoe knew that this was an angel of the Lord.

22 And Manoe said to his wife, By death we shall die, for we have seen God.

23 And his wife said to him, If the Lord wished to put us to death, he would not have taken from our hand a whole burnt offering and sacrifice, nor would he have shown us all these things, and at this time he would not have caused us to hear these things.

24 And the woman bore a son and called his name Sampson; and the child grew up, and the Lord blessed him.

25 And the spirit of the Lord began to go out together with him in the camp of Dan, between Saraa and Esthaol.

Chapter 14

1 And Sampson went down to Thamnatha and saw a woman in Thamnatha from the daughters of the foreigners.

2 And he went up and told his father and mother and said, I have seen a woman in Thamnatha from the daughters of the Philistines, and now take her for me as wife.

3 And his father and mother said to him, Are there no daughters among your brothers and among all my people, that you go to take a wife from the uncircumcised foreigners? And Sampson said to his father, Take this one for me, for she is right in my eyes.

4 And his father and mother did not know that this was from the Lord, for he was seeking vengeance from the foreigners; and at that time the foreigners ruled in Israel.

5 And Sampson and his father and mother went down to Thamnatha. And he came as far as the vineyard of Thamnatha, and behold, a young lion roared to meet him;

6 and the spirit of the Lord leaped upon him, and he tore it apart as one would tear apart a kid, and nothing was in his hands. And he did not tell his father and mother what he had done.

7 And they went down and spoke to the woman, and she was right in Sampson's eyes.

8 And after days he returned to take her and turned aside to see the carcass of the lion, and behold, a gathering of bees in the mouth of the lion and honey.

9 And he took it out into his hands and went along, walking and eating; and he went to his father and mother and gave them some, and they ate; and he did not tell them that he took the honey out of the lion's mouth.

10 And his father went down to the woman; and Sampson held a feast there for seven days, for thus the young men do.

11 And it happened when they saw him that they took thirty invited men, and they were with him.

12 And Sampson said to them, I shall pose a riddle to you; if you indeed tell it within the seven days of the feast and find it, I shall give you thirty linen cloths and thirty sets of garments;

13 but if you cannot tell it to me, you shall give me thirty linen cloths and thirty changing sets of garments. And they said to him, Pose the riddle, and we shall hear it.

14 And he said to them, What edible thing came forth from an eater, and what sweet thing from a strong one? And they could not tell the riddle for three days.

15 And it happened on the fourth day that they said to Sampson's wife, Deceive your husband, please, and let him tell you the riddle, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire; have you called us to extort us?

16 And Sampson's wife wept to him and said, Indeed, you have hated me and have not loved me, for you have not told me the riddle that you posed to the sons of my people. And Sampson said to her, If I have not told my father and mother, shall I tell you?

17 And she wept to him through the seven days that their feast lasted; and it happened on the seventh day that he told her, for she pressed him; and she told the sons of her people.

18 And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun rose, What is sweeter than honey, and what is stronger than a lion? And Sampson said to them, If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have known my riddle.

19 And the spirit of the Lord leaped upon him, and he went down to Ascalon and struck thirty men from among them and took their garments and gave the sets to those who had told the riddle. And Sampson became angry with wrath and went up to his father's house.

20 And Sampson's wife became the wife of one of his friends whom he had befriended.

Chapter 15

1 And it happened after days, in the days of the wheat harvest, that Sampson visited his wife with a kid of the goats and said, I shall go in to my wife in the chamber; and her father did not allow him to enter.

2 And her father said, I said, saying, that you surely hated her, and I gave her to one of your friends; is not her younger sister better than she? Let her be yours instead of her.

3 And Sampson said to them, I have been made innocent even this once regarding the foreigners, for I shall do evil to them.

4 And Sampson went and caught three hundred foxes and took torches and turned tail toward tail and put one torch between two tails and bound them;

5 and he lit fire in the torches and sent them into the grain of the foreigners, and they burned from the threshing floor as far as standing grain and as far as vineyard and olive tree.

6 And the foreigners said, Who did these things? And they said, Sampson, the son-in-law of the Thamnite, because he took his wife and gave her to one of his friends; and the foreigners came up and burned her and her father with fire.

7 And Sampson said to them, If you do this, then surely I shall take vengeance on you, and at last I shall cease.

8 And he struck them shin upon thigh with a great blow; and he went down and dwelt in a hole of the rock of Etam.

9 And the foreigners came up and encamped in Judah and spread out in Leui.

10 And the men of Judah said, Why have you come up against us? And the foreigners said, We have come up to bind Sampson and do to him as he did to us.

11 And three thousand men from Judah went down to the hole in the rock of Etam and said to Sampson, Do you not know that the foreigners rule us, and what is this you have done to us? And Sampson said to them, As they did to me, so I did to them.

12 And they said to him, We have come down to bind you, to give you into the hand of the foreigners. And Sampson said to them, Swear to me that you yourselves will not fall upon me.

13 And they said to him, saying, No, for we shall only bind you with a bond and hand you over into their hand, and we shall certainly not put you to death; and they bound him with two new cords and brought him up from that rock.

14 And they came as far as Siagon; and the foreigners shouted and ran to meet him; and the spirit of the Lord leaped upon him, and the cords on his arms became like tow burned in fire, and his bonds melted from his hands.

15 And he found a discarded jawbone of a donkey and stretched out his hand and took it and struck a thousand men with it.

16 And Sampson said, With a donkey's jawbone, wiping out, I wiped them out, for with the donkey's jawbone I struck a thousand men.

17 And it happened when he ceased speaking that he threw the jawbone from his hand; and he called that place Removal of the Jawbone.

18 And he became very thirsty; and he cried to the Lord and said, You favored this great salvation by the hand of your servant, and now I shall die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised.

19 And God split the hollow in the jawbone, and water came out of it, and he drank, and his spirit returned and he lived. Therefore its name was called Spring of the One Calling, which is in Siagon to this day. –

20 And he judged Israel in the days of the foreigners twenty years.

Chapter 16

1 And Sampson went to Gaza; and he saw a prostitute there and went in to her.

2 And it was reported to the Gazites, saying, Sampson has come here. And they surrounded him and lay in ambush for him all night at the city gate and kept silent all night, saying, Until dawn breaks, and let us kill him.

3 And Sampson slept until midnight; and he rose in the middle of the night and seized the doors of the city gate with the two posts and lifted them with the bar and set them on his shoulders and went up to the summit of the mountain facing Chebron and set them there.

4 And it happened after this that he loved a woman in Alsorech, and her name was Dalida.

5 And the rulers of the foreigners went up to her and said to her, Deceive him and see wherein his great strength lies and by what means we shall be able to prevail over him and bind him to humble him, and we shall each give you one thousand one hundred pieces of silver.

6 And Dalida said to Sampson, Tell me, please, wherein your great strength lies and by what means you could be bound so that you might be humbled.

7 And Sampson said to her, If they bind me with seven fresh sinews that have not been spoiled, then I shall grow weak and be like one of the people.

8 And the rulers of the foreigners brought her seven fresh sinews that had not been spoiled, and she bound him with them;

9 and an ambush for her sat in the chamber; and she said to him, Foreigners upon you, Sampson! And he tore apart the sinews as someone might break a strand of tow when it smells fire; and his strength was not known.

10 And Dalida said to Sampson, Behold, you have deceived me and spoken lies to me; now therefore tell me by what means you could be bound.

11 And he said to her, If they bind me securely with new cords with which no work has been done, then I shall grow weak and be like one of the people.

12 And Dalida took new cords and bound him with them; and the ambush came out of the chamber; and she said, Foreigners upon you, Sampson! And he tore them from his arms like a little rope.

13 And Dalida said to Sampson, Behold, you have deceived me and spoken lies to me; tell me, please, by what means you could be bound. And he said to her, If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web and hammer them with the peg into the wall, then I shall be weak like one of the people.

14 And it happened while he slept that Dalida took the seven locks of his head and wove them in the web and fixed it with the peg into the wall and said, Foreigners upon you, Sampson! And he awoke from his sleep and pulled the peg of the woven fabric from the wall.

15 And Dalida said to Sampson, How do you say, I love you, when your heart is not with me? This third time you have deceived me and not told me wherein your great strength lies.

16 And it happened as she pressed him with her words all the days and distressed him that he became faint of soul to the point of death;

17 and he told her all his heart and said to her, Iron has not come up upon my head, for I am holy to God from my mother's womb; if then I am shaved, my strength will depart from me, and I shall grow weak and be like all people.

18 And Dalida saw that he had told her all his heart, and sent and summoned the rulers of the foreigners, saying, Come up yet this once, for he has told me all his heart; and the rulers of the foreigners came up to her and brought the silver in their hands.

19 And Dalida made Sampson sleep upon her knees; and she called a man, and he shaved the seven locks of his head; and she began to humble him, and his strength departed from him.

20 And Dalida said, Foreigners upon you, Sampson. And he awoke from his sleep and said, I shall go out as time and again and shake myself free; and he did not know that the Lord had departed from upon him.

21 And the foreigners seized him and gouged out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze fetters, and he was grinding in the prison house.

22 And the hair of his head began to sprout after it had been shaved.

23 And the rulers of the foreigners gathered to sacrifice a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to rejoice, and said, God has given Sampson our enemy into our hand.

24 And the people saw him and praised their god, for, Our god has delivered our enemy into our hand, the one who devastated our land and multiplied our wounded.

25 And when their heart became glad, they said, Call Sampson from the guardhouse, and let him play before us. And they called Sampson from the prison house, and he played before them, and they slapped him and stood him between the pillars.

26 And Sampson said to the young man holding his hand, Let me go and I shall feel the pillars upon which the house stands and lean upon them.

27 And the house was full of men and women, and all the rulers of the foreigners were there, and upon the roof were about seven hundred men and women watching Sampson's games.

28 And Sampson cried to the Lord and said, Adonaie Lord, remember me now, please, and strengthen me yet this once, God, and I shall repay one repayment for my two eyes to the foreigners.

29 And Sampson embraced the two pillars of the house on which the house stood, and leaned upon them and grasped one with his right hand and one with his left.

30 And Sampson said, Let my soul die with the foreigners; and he bore down with strength, and the house fell upon the rulers and upon all the people in it; and the dead whom Sampson put to death in his death were more than those he put to death in his life.

31 And his brothers and his father's house came down and took him and went up and buried him between Saraa and Esthaol in the tomb of Manoe his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

Chapter 17

1 And there was a man from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Michaias.

2 And he said to his mother, The one thousand one hundred pieces of silver that you took for yourself and about which you cursed me and spoke in my ears: behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed is my son to the Lord.

3 And he returned the one thousand one hundred pieces of silver to his mother; and his mother said, Consecrating, I have consecrated the silver to the Lord from my hand for my son to make a carved and a cast image, and now I shall return it to you.

4 And he returned the silver to his mother; and his mother took two hundred pieces of silver and gave it to a silversmith, and he made it into a carved and a cast image; and it was in the house of Michaias.

5 And the house of Michaias was for him a house of God; and he made an ephod and theraphin and filled the hand of one of his sons, and he became his priest. –

6 And in those days there was no king in Israel; each man did what was right in his own eyes.

7 And there was a young man from Bethlehem of the district of Judah, and he was a Levite and sojourned there.

8 And the man went from Bethlehem, the city of Judah, to sojourn wherever he might find a place, and came as far as the hill country of Ephraim and as far as the house of Michaias to make his way.

9 And Michaias said to him, Where do you come from? And he said to him, I am a Levite from Bethlehem of Judah, and I am going to sojourn wherever I may find a place.

10 And Michaias said to him, Sit with me and be a father and a priest to me, and I shall give you ten pieces of silver per day and a set of garments and what is needed for your living. And the Levite went 11 and began to sojourn with the man, and the young man became to him like one of his sons.

12 And Michaias filled the hand of the Levite, and he became his priest and was in the house of Michaias.

13 And Michaias said, Now I know that the Lord will do good to me, for the Levite has become my priest.

Chapter 18

1 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of Dan sought for itself an inheritance to dwell in, for until that day no inheritance had fallen to it among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the sons of Dan sent from their districts five men, sons of strength, from Saraa and Esthaol to examine the land and trace it out, and said to them, Go and trace out the land. And they came as far as the hill country of Ephraim, as far as the house of Michaias, and lodged there.

3 They were at the house of Michaias, and they recognized the voice of the young Levite and turned aside there and said to him, Who brought you here, and what are you doing in this place, and what do you have here?

4 And he said to them, Thus and thus Michaias did for me and hired me, and I became his priest.

5 And they said to him, Inquire, please, by God, and we shall know whether our way in which we travel will prosper.

6 And the priest said to them, Go in peace; before the Lord is your way in which you travel.

7 And the five men went and came to Laisa; and they saw the people within it dwelling in confidence, like the judgment of the Sidonians at rest, and there is no one turning aside or shaming a word in the land, an heir pressing treasure out, and they are far from the Sidonians and have no dealings with any person.

8 And the five men came to their brothers in Saraa and Esthaol and said to their brothers, Why do you sit?

9 And they said, Rise and let us go up against them, for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good; and do you remain quiet? Do not hesitate to go and enter to inherit the land.

10 And when you come, you will enter to a people in confidence, and the land is broad, for God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no lack of any thing in the land.

11 And six hundred men from the districts of Dan set out from there, from Saraa and Esthaol, girded with implements of battle.

12 And they went up and encamped in Kariathiarim in Judah; therefore that place was called Camp of Dan to this day, behold, behind Kariathiarim.

13 And they passed from there through the hill country of Ephraim and came as far as the house of Michaias.

14 And the five men who had gone to examine the land of Laisa answered and said to their brothers, Do you know that in this house there are an ephod and theraphin and a carved and a cast image? And now know what you will do.

15 And they turned aside there and entered the house of the young Levite, the house of Michaias, and asked him concerning peace.

16 And the six hundred men from the sons of Dan, girded with their implements of battle, stood by the door of the gate.

17 And the five men who had gone to examine the land went up

18 and entered there into the house of Michaias, while the priest stood there; and they took the carved image and the ephod and the theraphin and the cast image. And the priest said to them, What are you doing?

19 And they said to him, Be silent, put your hand on your mouth and come with us and become our father and priest; is it not good for you to be priest of one man's house, or to become priest of a tribe and a house in a district of Israel?

20 And the priest's heart grew glad, and he took the ephod and the theraphin and the carved and the cast image and came among the people.

21 And they turned and went away; and they put the children and the possessions and the baggage before them.

22 They went far from the house of Michaias, and behold, Michaias and the men in the houses by the house of Michaias cried out and caught up with the sons of Dan.

23 And the sons of Dan turned their faces and said to Michaias, What is the matter with you, that you cried out?

24 And Michaias said, You took my carved image which I made, and the priest, and went away; and what do I still have? And why do you say this to me, Why do you cry out?

25 And the sons of Dan said to him, Let your voice not be heard with us, lest men bitter of soul fall upon us and take away your life and the life of your house.

26 And the sons of Dan went on their way; and Michaias saw that they were stronger than he, and returned to his house.

27 And the sons of Dan took what Michaias had made and the priest he had, and came against Laisa, against a people at rest and trusting in confidence, and struck them by the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire;

28 and there was no deliverer, for it was far from the Sidonians, and they had no dealings with anyone, and it was in the valley of the house of Raab. And they built the city and settled in it

29 and called the city's name Dan after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel; and Oulamais was the city's name formerly.

30 And the sons of Dan set up the carved image for themselves; and Ionatham son of Gersom son of Manasse, he and his sons, were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the exile of the land.

31 And they set up for themselves the carved image which Michaias made all the days that the house of God was in Selom.

Chapter 19

1 And it happened in those days, and there was no king in Israel. And there was a Levite man sojourning in the flanks of the hill country of Ephraim, and he took for himself a woman, a concubine, from Bethlehem of Judah.

2 And his concubine went away from him and departed from him to her father's house in Bethlehem of Judah, and was there days of four months.

3 And her husband rose and went after her to speak to her heart to bring her back to him, with his young man and a pair of donkeys; and she brought him into her father's house, and the father of the young woman saw him and rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father-in-law, the young woman's father, kept him, and he stayed with him for three days, and they ate and drank and lodged there.

5 And it happened on the fourth day that they rose early in the morning, and he rose to go; and the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, Strengthen your heart with a morsel of bread, and after this you shall go.

6 And he sat, and the two ate together and drank; and the young woman's father said to the man, Come now, lodge here, and your heart will become glad.

7 And the man rose to go; and his father-in-law pressed him, and he sat and lodged there.

8 And he rose early in the morning on the fifth day to go; and the young woman's father said, Strengthen your heart, please, and march until the day declines; and the two ate.

9 And the man rose to go, he and his concubine and his young man; and his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, Behold, please, the day has grown weak toward evening; lodge here, and your heart will become glad, and you shall rise early tomorrow for your way and go to your dwelling.

10 And the man did not consent to lodge and rose and departed and came as far as opposite Iebous [this is Jerusalem], and with him was a pair of saddled donkeys, and his concubine with him.

11 And they came as far as Iebous, and the day had advanced greatly; and the young man said to his master, Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Iebusite and lodge in it.

12 And his master said to him, We shall not turn aside into a foreign city in which none of the sons of Israel are here, and we shall pass on as far as Gabaa.

13 And he said to his young man, Come and let us approach one of the places and lodge in Gabaa or in Rama.

14 And they passed and traveled, and the sun set on them near Gabaa, which belongs to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside there to enter and lodge in Gabaa; and they entered and sat in the city square, and there was no man taking them into a house to lodge.

16 And behold, an old man was coming from his work in the field in the evening; and the man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he sojourned in Gabaa, and the men of the place were sons of Benjamin.

17 And he lifted his eyes and saw the traveling man in the city square; and the old man said, Where are you going, and where do you come from?

18 And he said to him, We are passing from Bethlehem of Judah to the flanks of the hill country of Ephraim; I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem of Judah, and I am going to my house, and there is no man taking me into the house;

19 and indeed there is straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for me and the maidservant and the young man with your servants; there is no lack of anything.

20 And the old man said, Peace to you, only let all your lack be upon me; only you shall certainly not lodge in the square.

21 And he brought him into his house and made a place for the donkeys, and they washed their feet and ate and drank.

22 And as they gladdened their hearts, behold, men of the city, sons of lawless men, surrounded the house, knocking at the door, and said to the old man, the master of the house, saying, Bring out the man who entered your house so that we may know him.

23 And the man, master of the house, went out to them and said, No, brothers, please do not do evil; after this man has entered my house, do not do this folly;

24 behold, my virgin daughter and his concubine; I shall bring them out, and humble them and do to them what is good in your eyes; but to this man you shall not do this thing of folly.

25 And the men did not consent to listen to him. And the man seized his concubine and brought her out to them outside, and they knew her and abused her all night until morning; and they sent her away as morning rose.

26 And the woman came toward dawn and fell by the door of the house where her husband was, until daylight.

27 And her husband rose in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way, and behold, the woman, his concubine, had fallen beside the doors of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

28 And he said to her, Rise and let us go; and she did not answer, for she was dead. And he put her upon the donkey and went to his place.

29 And he took the sword and seized his concubine and cut her into twelve pieces and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel.

30 And it happened that everyone who saw it said, Such a thing has neither happened nor been seen from the day the sons of Israel came up from the land of Egypt until this day; set counsel for yourselves upon it and speak.

Chapter 20

1 And all the sons of Israel went out, and the assembly was convened as one man, from Dan to Bersabee and the land of Galaad, to the Lord at Massepha.

2 And all the tribes of Israel stood before the Lord in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen drawing a sword.

3 And the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Massepha. And the sons of Israel came and said, Tell where this evil happened.

4 And the Levite man, the husband of the murdered woman, answered and said, I and my concubine came to Gabaa of Benjamin to lodge.

5 And the men of Gabaa rose against me and surrounded the house against me at night; they wished to murder me, and they humbled my concubine, and she died.

6 And I seized my concubine and cut her into pieces and sent them throughout all the territory of the inheritance of the sons of Israel, for they did an obscene thing and an abomination in Israel.

7 Behold, all of you, sons of Israel, give yourselves a word and counsel there.

8 And all the people rose as one man, saying, No man of us shall go to his dwelling, and no man shall return to his house.

9 And now this is the thing that shall be done to Gabaa: we shall go up against it by lot,

10 but we shall take ten men out of a hundred from all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred out of a thousand and a thousand out of ten thousand, to take provisions so that they can go to Gabaa of Benjamin to do to it according to all the abomination which it did in Israel.

11 And all the men of Israel gathered against the city as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What is this evil that has happened among you?

13 And now give up the men, sons of lawless men, in Gabaa, and we shall put them to death and cleanse evil from Israel. And the sons of Benjamin did not consent to listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.

14 And the sons of Benjamin gathered from their cities to Gabaa to go out to battle against the sons of Israel.

15 And the sons of Benjamin from the cities were counted on that day, twenty-three thousand men drawing a sword, apart from the inhabitants of Gabaa, who were counted, seven hundred chosen men

16 from all the people, right-handed on both sides; all these were slingers of stones at a hair and did not miss.

17 And the men of Israel apart from Benjamin were counted, four hundred thousand men drawing a sword; all these were men of battle.

18 And they rose and went up to Bethel and inquired of God, and the sons of Israel said, Who shall go up first for us to battle against the sons of Benjamin? And the Lord said, Judah shall go up first, leading.

19 And the sons of Israel rose in the morning and encamped against Gabaa.

20 And every man of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin and joined battle with them at Gabaa.

21 And the sons of Benjamin came out from Gabaa and destroyed twenty-two thousand men of Israel upon the ground on that day.

22 And the men of Israel strengthened themselves and continued to join battle in the place where they had joined it on the first day.

23 And the sons of Israel went up and wept before the Lord until evening and inquired of the Lord, saying, Shall we again approach in battle against the sons of Benjamin our brothers? And the Lord said, Go up against them.

24 And the sons of Israel approached the sons of Benjamin on the second day.

25 And the sons of Benjamin came out from Gabaa to meet them on the second day and destroyed a further eighteen thousand men of the sons of Israel upon the ground; all these drew a sword.

26 And all the sons of Israel and all the people went up and came to Bethel and wept and sat there before the Lord and fasted on that day until evening and offered whole burnt offerings and complete offerings before the Lord;

27 for the ark of the covenant of the Lord God was there,

28 and Phinees son of Eleazar son of Aaron stood before it in those days. And the sons of Israel inquired of the Lord, saying, Shall we again go out to battle against the sons of Benjamin our brothers, or shall we hold back? And the Lord said, Go up, for tomorrow I shall give them into your hands.

29 And the sons of Israel set ambushes around Gabaa.

30 And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day and joined battle against Gabaa as time and again.

31 And the sons of Benjamin came out to meet the people and were drawn away from the city and began to strike wounded men from the people as time and again on the roads, one of which goes up to Bethel and one to Gabaa in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the sons of Benjamin said, They are falling before us as at first. And the sons of Israel said, Let us flee and draw them away from the city onto the roads; and they did so.

33 And every man rose from his place and joined battle at Baalthamar, and Israel's ambush came from its place from Maaragabe.

34 And ten thousand chosen men from all Israel came opposite Gabaa, and the battle was heavy; and they did not know that evil was overtaking them.

35 And the Lord struck Benjamin before the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel destroyed from Benjamin on that day twenty-five thousand one hundred men; all these drew a sword.

36 And the sons of Benjamin saw that they were struck; and the men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin, because they trusted in the ambush which they had set against Gabaa.

37 And as they withdrew, the ambush moved and spread out against Gabaa, and the ambush poured out and struck the city by the edge of the sword.

38 And there was a sign for the sons of Israel with the battle ambush: that they should raise a signal of smoke from the city.

39 And the sons of Israel saw that the ambush had seized Gabaa beforehand, and they stood in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike wounded men among the men of Israel, about thirty men, for they said, Again they are surely falling before us as in the first battle.

40 And the signal rose more over the city like a pillar of smoke; and Benjamin looked behind him, and behold, the destruction of the city went up to heaven.

41 And the men of Israel turned back, and the men of Benjamin hurried, for they saw that evil had met them.

42 And they turned before the sons of Israel toward the wilderness road and fled, and the battle overtook them, and those from the cities destroyed them in their midst.

43 And they cut down Benjamin and pursued him from Noua at his heels as far as opposite Gabaa toward the sunrise.

44 And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell; all these were men of strength.

45 And the rest turned and fled toward the rock of Remmon in the wilderness, and the sons of Israel gleaned five thousand men from them; and the sons of Israel went down after them as far as Gedan and struck two thousand men from them.

46 And all those who fell from Benjamin on that day were twenty-five thousand men drawing a sword; all these were men of strength.

47 And the rest turned and fled toward the rock of Remmon in the wilderness, six hundred men, and stayed at the rock of Remmon four months.

48 And the sons of Israel turned against the sons of Benjamin and struck them by the edge of the sword, from the city of Methla as far as the livestock and as far as everything found in all the cities; and the cities that were found they burned with fire.

Chapter 21

1 And the sons of Israel swore at Massepha, saying, No man among us shall give his daughter to Benjamin as wife.

2 And the people came to Bethel and sat there until evening before God and raised their voice and wept with great weeping

3 and said, Why, Lord God of Israel, has this happened, for one tribe to be missing today from Israel?

4 And it happened on the next day that the people rose early and built an altar there and offered whole burnt offerings and complete offerings.

5 And the sons of Israel said, Who did not come up in the assembly from all the tribes of Israel to the Lord? For there was a great oath concerning those who had not come up to the Lord at Massepha, saying, He shall certainly be put to death.

6 And the sons of Israel were comforted concerning Benjamin their brother and said, One tribe has been cut off from Israel today;

7 what shall we do for the remaining ones for wives? And we have sworn by the Lord not to give them any of our daughters as wives.

8 And they said, Which one from the tribes of Israel did not go up to the Lord at Massepha? And behold, no man from Iabis Galaad had come to the camp for the assembly.

9 And the people were counted, and no man from the inhabitants of Iabis Galaad was there.

10 And the congregation sent there twelve thousand men from the sons of strength and commanded them, saying, Go and strike the inhabitants of Iabis Galaad by the edge of the sword.

11 And this you shall do: devote to destruction every male and every woman who has known the bed of a male, but preserve the virgins. And they did so.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Iabis Galaad four hundred young virgin women who had not known a man in the bed of a male, and brought them to the camp at Selon in the land of Canaan.

13 And all the congregation sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin at the rock of Remmon and called them to peace.

14 And Benjamin returned to the sons of Israel at that time, and the sons of Israel gave them the women whom they had kept alive from the daughters of Iabis Galaad; and thus it pleased them.

15 And the people were comforted concerning Benjamin, for the Lord had made a breach among the tribes of Israel.

16 And the elders of the congregation said, What shall we do for wives for those remaining? For woman has been destroyed from Benjamin.

17 And they said, An inheritance of the escaped ones belongs to Benjamin, and a tribe shall not be wiped out from Israel;

18 for we cannot give them wives from our daughters, for we swore among the sons of Israel, saying, Accursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.

19 And they said, Behold, a feast of the Lord is in Selon from days to days, which is north of Bethel, toward sunrise on the road that goes up from Bethel to Sychem and south of Lebona.

20 And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, Go, lie in ambush in the vineyards;

21 and you shall watch, and behold, if the daughters of the inhabitants of Selon come out to dance in the dances, then you shall come out from the vineyards and seize for yourselves each man a wife from the daughters of Selon and go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it shall be when their fathers or brothers come to plead with you that we shall say to them, Show us mercy regarding them, for we did not take each man his wife in the battle, for you did not give them to them; as at this time you have transgressed.

23 And the sons of Benjamin did so and took wives according to their number from the dancing women whom they seized; and they went and returned to their inheritance and built the cities and dwelt in them.

24 And the sons of Israel went about from there at that time, each man to his tribe and his kin, and they went out from there, each man to his inheritance. –

25 And in those days there was no king in Israel; each man did what was right before him.

Ruth

Chapter 1

1 And it happened when the judges judged that there was a famine in the land, and a man went from Bethlehem of Judah to sojourn in the field of Moab, he and his wife and his sons.

2 And the man's name was Abimelech, and his wife's name Noemin, and the names of his two sons Maalon and Chelaion, Ephrathites from Bethlehem of Judah; and they came to the field of Moab and were there.

3 And Abimelech, Noemin's husband, died, and she and her two sons were left.

4 And they took Moabite women for themselves as wives, the name of one Orpha and the name of the second Ruth; and they dwelt there about ten years.

5 And both Maalon and Chelaion also died, and the woman was left without her husband and her two sons.

6 And she rose, she and her two daughters-in-law, and they returned from the field of Moab, for they had heard in the field of Moab that the Lord had visited his people to give them bread.

7 And she went out from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they traveled on the road to return to the land of Judah.

8 And Noemin said to her daughters-in-law, Go, please, return each to her mother's house; may the Lord show mercy to you as you showed to the dead and to me;

9 may the Lord grant you that each find rest in her husband's house. And she kissed them, and they raised their voices and wept.

10 And they said to her, With you we return to your people.

11 And Noemin said, Return, please, my daughters; and why do you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb who will be husbands for you?

12 Return, please, my daughters, for I have grown old so as not to be with a husband; for if I said that I have means to come to be with a husband and bear sons,

13 would you wait for them until they grew up? Or would you be held back for them from coming to be with a husband? No, please, my daughters, for it has become more bitter for me than for you, because the Lord's hand has gone out against me.

14 And they raised their voices and wept again; and Orpha kissed her mother-in-law and returned to her people, but Ruth followed her.

15 And Noemin said to Ruth, Behold, your fellow daughter-in-law has returned to her people and to her gods; return, please, you too, after your fellow daughter-in-law.

16 But Ruth said, Do not confront me to leave you or to turn back from behind you; for wherever you go, I shall go, and wherever you lodge, I shall lodge; your people are my people and your God my God;

17 and wherever you die, I shall die, and there I shall be buried; thus may the Lord do to me and thus may he add, for death shall separate between me and you.

18 And Noemin, seeing that she was determined to go with her, ceased speaking to her further.

19 And both traveled until they came to Bethlehem. And the whole city sounded out over them and said, Is this Noemin?

20 And she said to them, Do not call me Noemin, call me Bitter, for the Sufficient One has made it very bitter for me;

21 I went away full, and the Lord returned me empty; and why do you call me Noemin? The Lord has humbled me, and the Sufficient One has afflicted me.

22 And Noemin returned, and Ruth the Moabite, her daughter-in-law, returning from the field of Moab; and they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Chapter 2

1 And Noemin had a man known to her husband; the man was mighty in strength, from the kin of Abimelech, and his name was Boos.

2 And Ruth the Moabite said to Noemin, Let me go, please, into the field and gather among the ears behind someone in whose eyes I find favor. And she said to her, Go, daughter.

3 And she went and gleaned in the field behind the reapers; and by chance she happened upon the portion of the field of Boos, who was of the kin of Abimelech.

4 And behold, Boos came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers, The Lord be with you; and they said to him, May the Lord bless you.

5 And Boos said to his young man who stood over the reapers, Whose young woman is this?

6 And the young man who stood over the reapers answered and said, She is the Moabite girl who returned with Noemin from the field of Moab

7 and said, Let me glean, please, and gather among the sheaves behind the reapers; and she came and stood from morning until evening, and she rested only a little in the field.

8 And Boos said to Ruth, Have you not heard, daughter? Do not go to glean in another field, and do not go from here; here attach yourself to my young women;

9 let your eyes be on the field where they reap, and go behind them; behold, I have commanded the young men not to touch you; and whenever you thirst, go to the vessels and drink from where the young men draw water.

10 And she fell on her face and bowed to the ground and said to him, Why have I found favor in your eyes that you should recognize me, when I am a foreigner?

11 And Boos answered and said to her, By a report it was reported to me all that you have done for your mother-in-law after your husband died, and how you left your father and mother and the land of your birth and went to a people whom you did not know yesterday or the third day;

12 may the Lord repay your work, and may your wage be full from the Lord God of Israel, to whom you have come to trust under his wings.

13 And she said, May I find favor in your eyes, lord, for you have comforted me and spoken to the heart of your servant, and behold, I shall be like one of your maidservants.

14 And Boos said to her, Already at the hour of eating, come here and eat of the bread and dip your morsel in the vinegar. And Ruth sat beside the reapers, and Boos heaped up parched grain for her, and she ate and was filled and left some.

15 And she rose to glean, and Boos commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not shame her;

16 and carrying, carry for her, and also dropping, drop for her from the heaps, and leave it and she will glean, and do not rebuke her.

17 And she gleaned in the field until evening; and she beat out what she had gathered, and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 And she lifted it and entered the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned, and Ruth brought out and gave her what she had left from that with which she had been filled.

19 And her mother-in-law said to her, Where did you glean today and where did you work? May the one who recognized you be blessed. And Ruth told her mother-in-law where she had worked and said, The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boos.

20 And Noemin said to her daughter-in-law, Blessed is he to the Lord, for he has not abandoned his mercy with the living and the dead. And Noemin said to her, The man is near to us; he is among those who are near kin to us.

21 And Ruth said to her mother-in-law, Moreover, he said to me, Attach yourself to my young men until they finish all the harvest that belongs to me.

22 And Noemin said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, Good, daughter, that you went with his young women, and they will not meet you in another field.

23 And Ruth attached herself to the young women of Boos to glean until the barley harvest and the wheat harvest were finished. And she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Chapter 3

1 And Noemin her mother-in-law said to her, Daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may go well with you?

2 And now is not Boos our acquaintance, with whose young women you were? Behold, he winnows the barley threshing floor tonight.

3 And you shall wash and anoint yourself and put your clothing upon yourself and go up to the threshing floor; do not make yourself known to the man until he finishes drinking and eating;

4 and it shall be when he lies down, you shall know the place where he lies, and you shall come and uncover the place by his feet and lie down, and he will tell you what you shall do.

5 And Ruth said to her, Everything that you say, I shall do.

6 And she went down to the threshing floor and did according to everything her mother-in-law commanded her.

7 And Boos ate, and his heart grew glad, and he came to lie down by a part of the heap; and she came secretly and uncovered the place by his feet.

8 And it happened at midnight that the man was startled and disturbed, and behold, a woman was lying by his feet.

9 And he said, Who are you? And she said, I am Ruth your servant, and you shall spread your wing over your servant, for you are a near kinsman.

10 And Boos said, Blessed are you to the Lord God, daughter, for you made your latter mercy better than the first, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, daughter, do not fear; all that you say I shall do for you, for all the tribe of my people knows that you are a woman of strength,

12 and that I truly am a near kinsman, yet there is a nearer kinsman than I.

13 Lodge tonight, and it shall be in the morning, if he acts as near kin for you, good, let him act as near kin; but if he does not wish to act as near kin for you, I shall act as near kin for you, as the Lord lives; lie down until morning.

14 And she lay by his feet until morning. And she rose before a man could recognize his neighbor; and Boos said, Let it not be known that a woman came to the threshing floor.

15 And he said to her, Bring the wrap that is upon you. And she held it, and he measured six of barley and placed it upon her; and he entered the city.

16 And Ruth entered to her mother-in-law; and she said, Who are you, daughter? And she told her all that the man had done for her.

17 And she said to her, These six of barley he gave me, for he said to me, Do not go in empty to your mother-in-law.

18 And she said, Sit, daughter, until you learn how the matter will fall; for the man shall certainly not rest until he finishes the matter today.

Chapter 4

1 And Boos went up to the gate and sat there, and behold, the near kinsman of whom Boos spoke was passing by. And Boos said to him, Turn aside and sit here, hidden one; and he turned aside and sat.

2 And Boos took ten men from the elders of the city and said, Sit here; and they sat.

3 And Boos said to the near kinsman, The portion of the field that belonged to our brother Abimelech, which has been given to Noemin who returned from the field of Moab,

4 I said, I shall uncover your ear, saying, Acquire it before those sitting and before the elders of my people; if you act as near kin, act as near kin, but if you do not, tell me and I shall know; for there is no one besides you to act as near kin, and I am after you. And he said, I shall act as near kin.

5 And Boos said, On the day you acquire the field from Noemin's hand and from Ruth the Moabite, wife of the dead man, you must acquire her too, so as to raise up the name of the dead man upon his inheritance.

6 And the near kinsman said, I cannot act as near kin for myself, lest I ruin my inheritance; act as near kin for yourself in my near kinship, for I cannot act as near kin.

7 And this was the ordinance formerly in Israel regarding near kinship and regarding exchange to establish every matter: a man would take off his sandal and give it to his neighbor who acted in his near kinship, and this was a witness in Israel.

8 And the near kinsman said to Boos, Acquire my near kinship for yourself; and he took off his sandal and gave it to him.

9 And Boos said to the elders and to all the people, You are witnesses today that I have acquired all that belonged to Abimelech and all that belongs to Chelaion and Maalon from Noemin's hand;

10 and indeed Ruth the Moabite, wife of Maalon, I have acquired for myself as wife, to raise up the dead man's name upon his inheritance, and the dead man's name shall not be destroyed from among his brothers and from the tribe of his people; you are witnesses today.

11 And all the people at the gate said, Witnesses. And the elders said, May the Lord make your wife who comes into your house like Rachel and like Leia, who both built the house of Israel and made strength in Ephratha, and may there be a name in Bethlehem;

12 and may your house become like the house of Phares, whom Thamar bore to Judah, from the seed that the Lord will give you from this maidservant.

13 And Boos took Ruth, and she became his wife, and he went in to her, and the Lord gave her conception, and she bore a son.

14 And the women said to Noemin, Blessed is the Lord, who has not ended your near kinsman today, and may your name be called in Israel,

15 and he shall be for you one who returns your soul and nourishes your old age, for your daughter-in-law who loves you bore him, she who is better to you than seven sons.

16 And Noemin took the child and placed him in her bosom and became a nurse to him.

17 And the neighbor women called him a name, saying, A son has been born to Noemin; and they called his name Obed; he is father of Iessai, father of David.

18 And these are the generations of Phares: Phares fathered Esron,

19 and Esron fathered Arran, and Arran fathered Aminadab,

20 and Aminadab fathered Naasson, and Naasson fathered Salman,

21 and Salman fathered Boos, and Boos fathered Obed,

22 and Obed fathered Iessai, and Iessai fathered David.

1 Samuel

Chapter 1

1 There was a man from Armathaim Sipha, from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkana son of Ieremeel son of Eliou son of Thoke in Nasib of Ephraim.

2 And he had two wives; the name of one was Anna, and the name of the second Phennana; and Phennana had children, but Anna had no child.

3 And the man went up from days to days from his city, from Armathaim, to worship and sacrifice to the Lord God Sabaoth at Selo; and there were Eli and his two sons Ophni and Phinees, priests of the Lord.

4 And it happened on a day that Elkana sacrificed and gave portions to Phennana his wife and her sons and daughters;

5 and to Anna he gave one portion, for she had no child; nevertheless Elkana loved Anna more than her, and the Lord had shut the parts about her womb;

6 for the Lord had not given her a child according to her affliction and according to the despondency of her affliction, and she was despondent because of this, for the Lord had closed the parts about her womb so as not to give her a child.

7 Thus she did year by year when she went up to the Lord's house; and she was despondent and wept and did not eat.

8 And Elkana her husband said to her, Anna. And she said to him, Behold, I am here, lord. And he said to her, What is the matter with you, that you weep? And why do you not eat? And why does your heart strike you? Am I not better to you than ten children?

9 And Anna rose after they ate in Selo and stood before the Lord, and Eli the priest sat upon the seat by the doorposts of the Lord's temple.

10 And she, pained in soul, prayed to the Lord and wept with weeping

11 and vowed a vow to the Lord, saying, Adonai Lord Eloai Sabaoth, if you indeed look upon the humiliation of your servant and remember me and give your servant male seed, I shall give him before you as a gift until the day of his death, and he shall not drink wine or strong drink, and iron shall not come up upon his head.

12 And it happened while she multiplied her praying before the Lord that Eli the priest watched her mouth;

13 and she spoke in her heart, and her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; and Eli reckoned her drunk.

14 And the young servant of Eli said to her, How long will you be drunk? Remove your wine and go from before the Lord.

15 And Anna answered and said, No, lord; I am a woman for whom the day is hard, and I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, and I pour out my soul before the Lord;

16 do not count your servant a daughter of pestilence, for out of the abundance of my talk I have extended myself until now.

17 And Eli answered and said to her, Go in peace; may the God of Israel give you every request of yours that you have asked of him.

18 And she said, Your servant has found favor in your eyes. And the woman went on her way and entered her lodging and ate with her husband and drank, and her face no longer fell.

19 And they rose early in the morning and worshiped the Lord and went on their way. And Elkana entered his house in Armathaim and knew Anna his wife, and the Lord remembered her,

20 and she conceived. And it happened at the time of days that she bore a son; and she called his name Samuel and said, Because I asked him from the Lord God Sabaoth.

21 And the man Elkana and all his house went up to sacrifice at Selom the sacrifice of the days and his vows and all the tithes of his land;

22 but Anna did not go up with him, for she said to her husband, Until the child goes up, if I wean him, and he shall appear before the Lord's face and remain there forever.

23 And Elkana her husband said to her, Do what is good in your eyes; stay until you wean him; only may the Lord establish what went out from your mouth. And the woman stayed and nursed her son until she weaned him.

24 And she went up with him to Selom with a three-year-old calf and loaves and an ephah of fine flour and a skin of wine and entered the Lord's house at Selom, and the child was with them.

25 And they brought him before the Lord, and his father slaughtered the sacrifice which he made from days to days to the Lord, and brought the child and slaughtered the calf. And Anna the child's mother brought him to Eli

26 and said, In me, lord; as your soul lives, I am the woman who stood before you when praying to the Lord;

27 for this child I prayed, and the Lord gave me my request which I asked of him;

28 and I lend him to the Lord for all the days that he lives, a use for the Lord.

Chapter 2

1 And she said, My heart was strengthened in the Lord, my horn was exalted in my God; my mouth was opened wide against enemies, I rejoiced in your salvation.

2 For there is none holy like the Lord, and none righteous like our God; there is none holy besides you.

3 Do not boast and do not speak lofty things; let no grand speech go out of your mouth, for the Lord is a God of knowledge and a God who prepares his deeds.

4 The bow of mighty ones grew weak, and the weak girded themselves with strength;

5 those full of bread were diminished, and the hungry let land go; for a barren woman bore seven, and she who had many children grew weak.

6 The Lord puts to death and brings to life, brings down to Hades and brings up;

7 the Lord makes poor and makes rich, humbles and raises up.

8 He raises a needy one from the ground and lifts a poor one from a dung heap to seat him with the rulers of peoples, granting them a throne of glory as an inheritance.

9 Giving a vow to one who vows, and he blessed the years of a righteous one; for a man is not strong by strength,

10 the Lord will make his adversary weak, the Lord is holy. Let the wise not boast in his wisdom, and let the mighty not boast in his might, and let the rich not boast in his riches, but let one who boasts boast in this: to understand and know the Lord and to do judgment and righteousness in the midst of the earth. The Lord went up to the heavens and thundered; he will judge the ends of the earth and gives strength to our kings and will exalt the horn of his anointed.

11 And they left him there before the Lord and departed to Armathaim, and the child ministered before the Lord in the presence of Eli the priest.

12 And the sons of Eli the priest were pestilent sons, not knowing the Lord.

13 And the priest's due from the people, from everyone sacrificing: the priest's young man came when the meat was boiled, with a three-pronged meat hook in his hand,

14 and thrust it into the great cauldron or into the bronze vessel or into the pot; whatever came up on the hook the priest took for himself; thus they did to all Israel who came to sacrifice to the Lord at Selom.

15 And before the fat was burned as incense, the priest's young man came and said to the man sacrificing, Give meat to roast for the priest, and I shall certainly not take boiled meat from you out of the cauldron.

16 And the man sacrificing would say, Let the fat first be burned as incense, as is fitting, and take for yourself from everything that your soul desires. And he said, No, for you shall give it now, and if not, I shall take it by force.

17 And the sin of the young men before the Lord was very great, for they rejected the Lord's sacrifice. –

18 And Samuel was ministering before the Lord, a child girded with an ephoud bar,

19 and his mother made him a little double cloak and brought it to him from days to days when she went up with her husband to sacrifice the sacrifice of the days.

20 And Eli blessed Elkana and his wife, saying, May the Lord repay you with seed from this woman in place of the debt which you lent to the Lord. And the man went to his place, 21 and the Lord visited Anna, and she bore three more sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew great before the Lord.

22 And Eli was very old; and he heard what his sons were doing to the sons of Israel,

23 and said to them, Why do you do according to this thing which I hear from the mouth of all the Lord's people?

24 No, children, for the report I hear is not good; do not do thus, for the reports I hear, of a people not serving God, are not good.

25 If a man sins against a man, they will pray for him to the Lord; but if he sins against the Lord, who will pray for him? And they did not listen to their father's voice, for the Lord indeed wished to destroy them. –

26 And the child Samuel went on and grew great and was good both with the Lord and with people. –

27 And a man of God came to Eli and said, Thus says the Lord: Revealing myself, I revealed myself to your father's house when they were in the land of Egypt, slaves to Pharaoh's house,

28 and I chose your father's house from all the scepters of Israel to be priest for me and to go up to my altar and burn incense and bear an ephoud, and I gave your father's house all the fire offerings of the sons of Israel for food;

29 and why did you look upon my incense and my sacrifice with a shameless eye and honor your sons above me, to be blessed with the first portion of every sacrifice of Israel before me?

30 Therefore thus said the Lord God of Israel: I said, Your house and your father's house shall walk before me forever; and now the Lord says, By no means for me, for those who honor me I shall honor, and one who despises me shall be dishonored.

31 Behold, days are coming, and I shall destroy your seed and the seed of your father's house,

32 and you shall have no elder in my house all the days;

33 and I shall not destroy a man of yours from my altar, to make his eyes fail and his soul melt away, and all the survivors of your house shall fall by men's sword.

34 And this is the sign for you which shall come upon these two sons of yours, Ophni and Phinees: on one day both shall die.

35 And I shall raise up for myself a faithful priest who will do all that is in my heart and soul; and I shall build him a faithful house, and he shall walk before my anointed all the days.

36 And it shall be that the survivor in your house will come to bow before him for an obol of silver, saying, Cast me into one of your priestly offices to eat bread.

Chapter 3

1 And the child Samuel ministered to the Lord before Eli the priest; and a word of the Lord was precious in those days, and there was no vision making distinctions.

2 And it happened on that day that Eli slept in his place, and his eyes had begun to grow heavy, and he could not see,

3 and before the lamp of God was tended, Samuel slept in the temple where the ark of God was,

4 and the Lord called, Samuel, Samuel; and he said, Behold, I am here.

5 And he ran to Eli and said, Behold, I am here, for you have called me; and he said, I did not call you; return and sleep. And he returned and slept.

6 And the Lord continued and called, Samuel, Samuel; and he went to Eli a second time and said, Behold, I am here, for you have called me; and he said, I did not call you; return and sleep;

7 and Samuel had not yet known God or had a word of the Lord revealed to him.

8 And the Lord continued to call Samuel a third time; and he rose and went to Eli and said, Behold, I am here, for you have called me. And Eli understood that the Lord had called the child,

9 and said, Return and sleep, child, and it shall be if he calls you, say, Speak, Lord, for your servant hears. And Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the Lord came and stood and called him as time and again, and Samuel said, Speak, for your servant hears.

11 And the Lord said to Samuel, Behold, I am doing my words in Israel so that both ears of everyone who hears them will ring.

12 On that day I shall raise up against Eli everything that I spoke concerning his house; I shall begin and finish.

13 And I have told him that I shall exact punishment on his house forever for the injustices of his sons, for his sons spoke evil of God, and he did not admonish them, not even thus.

14 I swore concerning Eli's house: The injustice of Eli's house shall certainly not be atoned for with incense and sacrifices forever.

15 And Samuel slept until morning and rose early in the morning and opened the doors of the Lord's house; and Samuel feared to tell the vision to Eli.

16 And Eli said to Samuel, Samuel, child; and he said, Behold, I am here.

17 And he said, What was the word spoken to you? Do not hide it from me, please; thus may God do to you and thus may he add if you hide from me a word of all the words spoken in your ears.

18 And Samuel told all the words and hid nothing from him, and Eli said, He is the Lord; he will do what is good before him.

19 And Samuel grew great, and the Lord was with him, and none of all his words fell to the ground.

20 And all Israel from Dan to Bersabee knew that Samuel was faithful as a prophet to the Lord.

21 And the Lord continued to reveal himself in Selom, for the Lord was revealed to Samuel; and Samuel was entrusted to become a prophet to the Lord for all Israel from the ends of the land to the ends. And Eli was very old, and his sons went on their way, and their way was evil before the Lord.

Chapter 4

1 And it happened in those days that the foreigners gathered for war against Israel; and Israel went out to meet them in war and encamped by Abenezer, and the foreigners encamped in Aphek.

2 And the foreigners drew up for war against Israel; and the battle turned, and the men of Israel stumbled before the foreigners, and four thousand men were struck in the battle in the field.

3 And the people came to the camp, and the elders of Israel said, Why did the Lord make us stumble today before the foreigners? Let us take the ark of our God from Selom, and let it go out among us and save us from the hand of our enemies.

4 And the people sent to Selom, and they carried from there the ark of the Lord who sits upon cherubim; and both sons of Eli were with the ark, Ophni and Phinees.

5 And it happened when the ark of the Lord came into the camp that all Israel cried out with a loud voice, and the earth sounded.

6 And the foreigners heard the cry and said, What is this great cry in the Hebrews' camp? And they learned that the ark of the Lord had come into the camp.

7 And the foreigners feared and said, These gods have come to them into the camp; woe to us! Deliver us, Lord, today, for such a thing has not happened yesterday or the third day.

8 Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these strong gods? These are the gods who struck Egypt with every blow and in the wilderness.

9 Be strong and become men, foreigners, lest you serve the Hebrews as they served us; and be men and fight them.

10 And they fought them; and the men of Israel stumbled, and each fled to his dwelling; and there was a very great blow, and thirty thousand of Israel's ranks fell.

11 And the ark of God was taken, and both sons of Eli died, Ophni and Phinees.

12 And a Ieminite man ran from the battle and came to Selom on that day, with his garments torn and earth upon his head.

13 And he came, and behold, Eli sat on the seat by the gate watching the road, for his heart was beside itself concerning the ark of God; and the man entered the city to report, and the city cried out.

14 And Eli heard the sound of the cry and said, What is the cry of this sound? And the man hurried in and reported to Eli.

15 And Eli was a son of ninety years, and his eyes had risen up, and he could not see; and Eli said to the men standing around him, What is the sound of this noise?

16 And the man hurried and approached Eli and said to him, I am the one who has come from the camp, and I fled from the battle today. And he said, What is the thing that happened, child?

17 And the young man answered and said, The men of Israel have fled before the foreigners, and there was a great blow among the people, and both your sons are dead, and the ark of God was taken.

18 And it happened when he mentioned the ark of God that Eli fell backward from the seat near the gate, and his back was broken and he died, for the man was old and heavy; and he had judged Israel twenty years.

19 And his daughter-in-law, Phinees' wife, was pregnant and about to give birth; and she heard the report that the ark of God had been taken and that her father-in-law and husband were dead, and she bent down and gave birth, for her pains turned upon her.

20 And at her time she was dying, and the women standing by her said to her, Do not fear, for you have borne a son; and she did not answer, and her heart did not take notice.

21 And she called the child Ouai Barchaboth because of the ark of God and because of her father-in-law and husband.

22 And they said, The glory of Israel has gone into exile when the ark of the Lord was taken.

Chapter 5

1 And the foreigners took the ark of God and brought it from Abennezer to Azotus.

2 And the foreigners took the ark of the Lord and brought it into the house of Dagon and set it beside Dagon.

3 And the Azotians rose early and entered Dagon's house and saw, and behold, Dagon had fallen on his face before the ark of God; and they raised Dagon and set him in his place. And the Lord's hand grew heavy upon the Azotians and tormented them and struck them in their seats, Azotus and its borders.

4 And it happened when they rose early in the morning that behold, Dagon had fallen on his face before the ark of the Lord's covenant, and Dagon's head and both traces of his hands had been removed to the front of amaphet, each one, and both wrists of his hands had fallen upon the threshold; only Dagon's back was left.

5 For this reason Dagon's priests and everyone entering Dagon's house do not step upon the step of Dagon's house in Azotus to this day, for they step over it. –

6 And the Lord's hand grew heavy upon Azotus, and he brought upon them, and it boiled up for them into the ships, and mice sprang up in the midst of their country, and there was great confusion of death in the city.

7 And the men of Azotus saw that it was thus and said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not remain with us, for his hand is hard upon us and upon Dagon our god.

8 And they sent and gathered the satraps of the foreigners to them and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And the Getthites said, Let the ark of God move to us; and the ark of God moved to Gettha.

9 And it happened after it moved that the Lord's hand came upon the city, a very great disturbance, and he struck the men of the city from small to great and struck them in their seats, and the Getthites made seats for themselves.

10 And they sent the ark of God to Ascalon, and it happened when the ark of God entered Ascalon that the Ascalonites cried out, saying, Why did you send the ark of the God of Israel back to us to put us and our people to death?

11 And they sent and gathered the satraps of the foreigners and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it settle in its place and it shall certainly not put us and our people to death; for a very heavy confusion of death came upon the whole city when the ark of the God of Israel entered there,

12 and those alive who had not died were struck in their seats, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

Chapter 6

1 And the ark was in the field of the foreigners seven months, and their land boiled up with mice.

2 And the foreigners called their priests and their diviners and their enchanters, saying, What shall we do with the ark of the Lord? Make known to us with what we shall send it to its place.

3 And they said, If you send away the ark of the covenant of the Lord God of Israel, do not send it away empty, but surely return to it a payment for the torment; then you shall be healed, and atonement shall be made for you, lest his hand fail to depart from you.

4 And they said, What payment for the torment shall we return to it? And they said, According to the number of the satraps of the foreigners, five golden seats, for there is one stumbling for you and your rulers and the people,

5 and golden mice, likenesses of your mice that are destroying the land; and you shall give glory to the Lord, so that he may lighten his hand from upon you and from your gods and from your land.

6 And why do you make your hearts heavy, as Egypt and Pharaoh made their heart heavy? Was it not when he made sport of them that they sent them away and they departed?

7 And now take and make a new wagon and two cows giving birth for the first time, without their offspring, and yoke the cows to the wagon and lead their offspring away from behind them into the house;

8 and you shall take the ark and put it upon the wagon, and the golden objects you shall return to it for the torment and put in a container, bersechthan, beside it, and you shall send it away and drive it away, and it shall depart;

9 and you shall watch: if it travels on the road to its territory toward Baithsamys, he has done this great evil to us; but if not, we shall know that his hand has not touched us, but this has happened to us by chance.

10 And the foreigners did thus and took two cows giving birth for the first time and yoked them to the wagon and held their offspring back in the house

11 and put the ark upon the wagon and the container, ergab, and the golden mice.

12 And the cows went straight on the road toward Baithsamys; they traveled on one path and labored and did not turn to the right or left; and the satraps of the foreigners went after it as far as the territory of Baithsamys.

13 And those in Baithsamys were harvesting the wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted their eyes and saw the ark of the Lord and rejoiced to meet it.

14 And the wagon entered the field of Osee in Baithsamys, and they stood a great stone there beside it and split the wood of the wagon and offered the cows as a whole burnt offering to the Lord.

15 And the Levites lifted up the ark of the Lord and the container, ergab, with it and the golden objects upon it and set them upon the great stone, and the men of Baithsamys offered whole burnt offerings and sacrifices to the Lord on that day.

16 And the five satraps of the foreigners watched and returned to Ascalon on that day.

17 And these are the golden seats which the foreigners returned to the Lord for the torment: one for Azotus, one for Gaza, one for Ascalon, one for Geth, one for Akkaron.

18 And the golden mice were according to the number of all the cities of the foreigners of the five satraps, from a fortified city to a village of the Pherezite and as far as the great stone upon which they placed the ark of the Lord's covenant, which is in the field of Osee the Baithsamysite.

19 And the sons of Iechonias among the men of Baithsamys did not welcome it, because they saw the ark of the Lord; and he struck among them seventy men and fifty thousand men. And the people mourned, for the Lord had struck among the people a very great blow.

20 And the men from Baithsamys said, Who shall be able to pass before this holy Lord? And to whom shall the ark of the Lord go up from us?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kariathiarim, saying, The foreigners have returned the ark of the Lord; come down and bring it up to yourselves.

Chapter 7

1 And the men of Kariathiarim came and brought up the ark of the Lord's covenant and brought it into the house of Aminadab on the hill; and they consecrated Eleazar his son to guard the ark of the Lord's covenant.

2 And it happened from the day the ark was in Kariathiarim that the days multiplied and became twenty years, and all the house of Israel looked after the Lord.

3 And Samuel said to all the house of Israel, saying, If you are returning to the Lord with all your heart, remove the foreign gods from your midst and the groves and prepare your hearts for the Lord and serve him alone, and he will deliver you from the hand of the foreigners.

4 And the sons of Israel removed the Baals and the groves of Astaroth and served the Lord alone.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Massephath, and I shall pray for you to the Lord.

6 And they gathered at Massephath and drew water and poured it on the ground before the Lord and fasted on that day and said, We have sinned before the Lord; and Samuel judged the sons of Israel at Massephath.

7 And the foreigners heard that all the sons of Israel had gathered at Massephath, and the satraps of the foreigners came up against Israel; and the sons of Israel heard and feared before the foreigners.

8 And the sons of Israel said to Samuel, Do not fall silent from us, so as not to cry out to the Lord your God, and he will save us from the hand of the foreigners.

9 And Samuel took one suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering with all the people to the Lord, and Samuel cried to the Lord for Israel, and the Lord listened to him.

10 And Samuel was offering up the whole burnt offering, and the foreigners approached to wage war against Israel. And the Lord thundered with a great voice on that day against the foreigners, and they were thrown into confusion and stumbled before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out from Massephath and pursued the foreigners and struck them as far as below Baithchor.

12 And Samuel took one stone and set it between Massephath and the old place and called its name Abenezer, Stone of the Helper, and said, Thus far the Lord has helped us.

13 And the Lord humbled the foreigners, and they no longer continued to approach the territory of Israel; and the Lord's hand was upon the foreigners all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the foreigners had taken from the sons of Israel were returned, and they returned them to Israel from Ascalon as far as Azob, and they took Israel's territory from the hand of the foreigners. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorite.

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life;

16 and he went year by year and made a circuit of Bethel and Galgala and Massephath and judged Israel in all these consecrated places,

17 but his return was to Armathaim, for his house was there, and he judged Israel there and built an altar there to the Lord.

Chapter 8

1 And it happened when Samuel grew old that he appointed his sons judges for Israel.

2 And these are the names of his sons: the firstborn Ioel, and the name of the second Abia, judges in Bersabee.

3 And his sons did not walk in his way but turned aside after the completion and took gifts and bent judgments.

4 And the men of Israel gathered and came to Samuel at Armathaim

5 and said to him, Behold, you have grown old, and your sons do not walk in your way; and now appoint a king over us to judge us, as also the remaining nations have.

6 And the thing was evil in Samuel's eyes when they said, Give us a king to judge us; and Samuel prayed to the Lord.

7 And the Lord said to Samuel, Listen to the voice of the people as they speak to you; for they have not despised you, but have despised me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the deeds they have done to me from the day I brought them up from Egypt until this day, and they abandoned me and served other gods, thus they are doing to you also.

9 And now listen to their voice; nevertheless solemnly bear witness to them and tell them the ordinance of the king who shall reign over them.

10 And Samuel spoke every word of the Lord to the people who asked him for a king

11 and said, This shall be the ordinance of the king who shall reign over you: he will take your sons and place them among his chariots and his horsemen and as runners before his chariots,

12 and appoint them for himself as commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and to reap his harvest and gather his vintage and make his weapons of war and the equipment of his chariots;

13 and he will take your daughters as perfumers and cooks and bakers;

14 and he will take your good fields and your vineyards and your olive groves and give them to his servants;

15 and he will take a tenth of your seed and your vineyards and give it to his eunuchs and his servants;

16 and he will take your male servants and female servants and your good cattle herds and your donkeys and take a tenth for his work,

17 and he will take a tenth of your flocks; and you shall be his servants.

18 And you shall cry out on that day because of your king whom you chose for yourselves, and the Lord will not listen to you in those days, for you chose a king for yourselves.

19 And the people did not wish to listen to Samuel and said to him, No, but a king shall be over us,

20 and we too shall be like all the nations, and our king shall judge us and go out before us and fight our war.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people and spoke them in the ears of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said to Samuel, Listen to their voice and make a king reign over them. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, Let each run away to his city.

Chapter 9

1 And there was a man from the sons of Benjamin, and his name was Kis son of Abiel son of Sared son of Bachir son of Aphek son of a Ieminite man, a mighty man.

2 And he had a son, and his name was Saul, of good size, a good man, and there was no one among the sons of Israel better than he, tall above all the land from the shoulders upward.

3 And the donkeys of Kis, Saul's father, were lost, and Kis said to Saul his son, Take one of the young men with you, and rise and go and seek the donkeys.

4 And they passed through the hill country of Ephraim and through the land of Selcha and did not find them; and they passed through the land of Easakem, and they were not there; and they passed through the land of Iakim and did not find them.

5 When they came to Siph, Saul said to his young man who was with him, Come and let us return, lest my father, leaving the donkeys, be concerned about us.

6 And the young man said to him, Behold, a man of God is in this city, and the man is honored; everything he speaks will surely come to pass; and now let us go, so that he may tell us our way upon which we have traveled.

7 And Saul said to his young man who was with him, And behold, we shall go, but what shall we bring to the man of God? For the loaves have run out from our vessels, and there is nothing more with us to bring to the man of God from what we have.

8 And the young man answered Saul further and said, Behold, a quarter shekel of silver has been found in my hand, and you shall give it to the man of God, and he will tell us our way.

9 And formerly in Israel each said thus when going to inquire of God: Come, let us go to the one who sees; for formerly the people called the prophet the one who sees.

10 And Saul said to his young man, The word is good; come and let us go. And they went to the city where the man of God was.

11 As they were going up the ascent to the city, they found young women who had come out to draw water and said to them, Is the one who sees here?

12 And the young women answered them and said to them, He is; behold, he is before you. Now, for today he has come to the city, for there is a sacrifice today for the people at Bama;

13 as you enter the city, so you shall find him in the city before he goes up to Bama to eat, for the people shall certainly not eat until he enters, for he blesses the sacrifice, and after this the guests eat; and now go up, for today you shall find him.

14 And they went up to the city. As they entered the midst of the city, behold, Samuel came out to meet them to go up to Bama.

15 And the Lord had uncovered Samuel's ear one day before Saul came to him, saying,

16 About this time tomorrow I shall send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him as ruler over my people Israel, and he will save my people from the hand of the foreigners; for I looked upon the humiliation of my people, for their cry has come to me.

17 And Samuel saw Saul; and the Lord answered him, Behold the man of whom I said to you, This one shall rule among my people.

18 And Saul approached Samuel in the midst of the city and said, Tell me, please, which is the house of the one who sees.

19 And Samuel answered Saul and said, I am he; go up before me to Bama and eat with me today, and I shall send you away in the morning and tell you everything in your heart;

20 and concerning your donkeys that have been lost three days today, do not set your heart on them, for they have been found; and for whom are the beautiful things of Israel? Are they not for you and your father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, Am I not a son of a Ieminite man, of the small scepter of a tribe of Israel, and of the least family of the whole scepter of Benjamin? And why have you spoken to me according to this word?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his young man and led them into the lodging and gave them a place among the first of those invited, about seventy men.

23 And Samuel said to the cook, Give me the portion I gave you, which I told you to place beside you.

24 And the cook lifted up the leg and set it before Saul; and Samuel said to Saul, Behold the remainder; place it before you and eat, for it has been set aside for you as a witness beyond the others; gnaw it off. And Saul ate with Samuel on that day.

25 And he went down from Bama into the city; and they spread a bed for Saul on the roof,

26 and he slept. And it happened as dawn rose that Samuel called Saul on the roof, saying, Rise, and I shall send you away; and Saul rose, and he and Samuel went out as far as outside.

27 As they were going down toward a part of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Tell the young man to pass before us, and you stand still as today and hear a word of God.

Chapter 10

1 And Samuel took the flask of oil and poured it upon his head and kissed him and said to him, Has not the Lord anointed you as ruler over his people, over Israel? And you shall rule among the Lord's people, and you shall save them from the hand of their enemies all around. And this shall be the sign for you that the Lord anointed you as ruler over his inheritance:

2 when you depart from me today, you shall find two men by Rachel's tombs in the territory of Benjamin leaping greatly, and they will say to you, The donkeys which you went to seek have been found, and behold, your father has cast off the matter of the donkeys and has been lavishly concerned for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?

3 And you shall go on from there and arrive at the oak of Thabor and find there three men going up to God at Bethel, one carrying three young goats and one carrying three vessels of bread and one carrying a skin of wine;

4 and they shall ask you the things of peace and give you two first portions of bread, and you shall take them from their hand.

5 And after these things you shall enter the hill of God, where the standing place of the foreigners is, there Nasib the foreigner; and it shall be as you enter the city there that you shall meet a chorus of prophets coming down from Bama, and before them a harp and a tambourine and a flute and a lyre, and they prophesying;

6 and the spirit of the Lord shall leap upon you, and you shall prophesy with them and be turned into another man.

7 And it shall be when these signs come upon you, do whatever your hand finds, for God is with you.

8 And you shall go down before Galgala, and behold, I am coming down to you to offer a whole burnt offering and peace sacrifices; you shall wait seven days until I come to you, and I shall make known to you what you shall do.

9 And it happened when he turned his shoulder to depart from Samuel that God changed for him another heart; and all the signs came on that day.

10 And he came from there to the hill, and behold, a chorus of prophets opposite him; and the spirit of God leaped upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And all who knew him yesterday and the third day saw, and behold, he was among the prophets, and the people said, each to his neighbor, What is this that has happened to the son of Kis? Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of them answered and said, And who is his father? Therefore it became a proverb: Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And he finished prophesying and came to the hill.

14 And his relative said to him and to his young man, Where did you go? And they said, To seek the donkeys; and we saw that they were not there, and we went to Samuel.

15 And the relative said to Saul, Tell me, please, what Samuel said to you.

16 And Saul said to his relative, He indeed told me that the donkeys had been found; but he did not tell him the matter of the kingdom.

17 And Samuel summoned all the people to the Lord at Massepha

18 and said to the sons of Israel, Thus said the Lord God of Israel: I brought the sons of Israel up from Egypt and delivered you from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt and from all the kingdoms that oppressed you;

19 and today you despised God, who himself is your savior from all your evils and afflictions, and said, No, but you shall set a king over us; and now stand before the Lord according to your scepters and according to your tribes.

20 And Samuel brought forward all the scepters of Israel, and the scepter of Benjamin was allotted;

21 and he brought forward the scepter of Benjamin by families, and the family of Mattari was allotted; and they brought forward the family of Mattari by men, and Saul son of Kis was allotted. And they sought him, and he was not found.

22 And Samuel inquired of the Lord again, Has the man come here? And the Lord said, Behold, he is hidden among the equipment.

23 And he ran and took him from there and stood him in the midst of the people, and he stood taller than all the people from the shoulders upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, Have you seen the one whom the Lord chose for himself, that there is none like him among you all? And all the people acknowledged it and said, Long live the king.

25 And Samuel told the people the ordinance of the king and wrote it in a book and placed it before the Lord. And Samuel sent all the people away, and each departed to his place.

26 And Saul departed to his house in Gabaa; and sons of might whose hearts the Lord touched went with Saul.

27 And pestilent sons said, How will this one save us? And they dishonored him and brought him no gifts.

Chapter 11

1 And it happened as after a month that Naas the Ammanite went up and encamped against Jabis Galaad. And all the men of Jabis said to Naas the Ammanite, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you.

2 And Naas the Ammanite said to them, On this condition I will make a covenant with you: by gouging out every right eye of yours; and I will put a reproach upon Israel.

3 And the men of Jabis say to him, Allow us seven days, and we will send messengers into all the territory of Israel; if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you.

4 And the messengers come to Gabaa to Saul and speak the words in the ears of the people, and all the people raised their voice and wept.

5 And behold, Saul was coming from the field after the morning, and Saul said, What is it that the people are weeping? And they recount to him the words of the sons of Jabis.

6 And a spirit of the Lord leaped upon Saul when he heard these words, and his anger was exceedingly kindled against them.

7 And he took two oxen and cut them in pieces and sent them into all the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, Whoever does not go out after Saul and after Samuel, thus shall they do to his oxen. And a dread of the Lord came upon the people of Israel, and they cried out as one man.

8 And Abiezek musters them in Bama: every man of Israel, six hundred thousand, and the men of Judah, seventy thousand.

9 And he said to the messengers who had come, Thus you shall say to the men of Jabis: Tomorrow salvation shall be yours when the sun has grown hot. And the messengers came into the city and reported to the men of Jabis, and they rejoiced.

10 And the men of Jabis said to Naas the Ammanite, Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you will do to us what is good in your eyes.

11 And it happened on the next day that Saul set the people in three divisions, and they enter the midst of the camp in the morning watch and struck the sons of Ammon until the day grew hot; and it happened that those remaining were scattered, and two of them were not left together.

12 And the people said to Samuel, Who is the one who said that Saul shall not reign over us? Hand over the men, and we will put them to death.

13 And Saul said, No one shall die on this day, because today the Lord has made salvation in Israel.

14 And Samuel said to the people, saying, Let us go to Galgala and renew the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Galgala, and Samuel anointed Saul there as king before the Lord in Galgalois and offered sacrifices and peace offerings there before the Lord; and Samuel and all Israel rejoiced exceedingly.

Chapter 12

1 And Samuel said to every man of Israel, Behold, I listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and I made a king reign over you.

2 And now, behold, the king goes about before you, and I have grown old and shall sit down, and my sons, behold, are among you; and I, behold, have gone about before you from my youth until this day.

3 Behold, here I am. Answer against me before the Lord and before his anointed: whose calf have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom among you have I oppressed, or whom have I pressed hard, or from whose hand have I taken an atonement and a sandal? Answer against me, and I will repay you.

4 And they said to Samuel, You have not wronged us, nor oppressed us, nor crushed us, nor taken anything from anyone's hand.

5 And Samuel said to the people, The Lord is witness among you, and his anointed is witness today on this day that you have found nothing in my hand. And they said, Witness.

6 And Samuel said to the people, saying, The Lord is witness, who made Moses and Aaron, who brought our fathers up from Egypt.

7 And now stand forth, and I will judge you before the Lord and recount to you all the righteousness of the Lord, what he did among you and among your fathers:

8 When Jacob and his sons entered Egypt, and Egypt humbled them, our fathers cried out to the Lord, and the Lord sent Moses and Aaron and brought our fathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place.

9 And they forgot the Lord their God, and he gave them into the hands of Sisara, commander of the army of Jabin king of Asor, and into the hands of the foreigners, and into the hands of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried out to the Lord and said, We have sinned, because we abandoned the Lord and served the Baalim and the groves; and now deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.

11 And the Lord sent Jerobaal and Barak and Jephthae and Samuel and delivered you from the hand of your enemies round about, and you dwelt in confidence.

12 And you saw that Naas, king of the sons of Ammon, came against you, and you said, No, but a king shall reign over us; and the Lord our God was our king.

13 And now, behold the king whom you chose, and behold, the Lord has given a king over you.

14 If you fear the Lord and serve him and listen to his voice and do not contend with the mouth of the Lord, and both you and the king who reigns over you go after the Lord;

15 but if you do not listen to the voice of the Lord and contend with the mouth of the Lord, then the hand of the Lord shall be upon you and upon your king.

16 And now stand forth and see this great thing that the Lord will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call upon the Lord, and he will give thunderings and rain, and you shall know and see that your evil is great, which you did before the Lord in asking a king for yourselves.

18 And Samuel called upon the Lord, and the Lord gave thunderings and rain on that day; and all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel.

19 And all the people said to Samuel, Pray for your servants to the Lord your God, that we may not die, because we have added to all our sins an evil in asking a king for ourselves.

20 And Samuel said to the people, Do not fear. You have done all this evil; only do not turn away from following the Lord, and serve the Lord with all your heart, 21 and do not turn aside after the things that are nothing, which accomplish nothing and which do not deliver, because they are nothing.

22 For the Lord will not reject his people for the sake of his great name, because the Lord was pleased to take you to himself as a people.

23 And as for me, may it by no means be that I sin against the Lord by ceasing to pray for you; and I will serve the Lord and show you the good and straight way.

24 Only fear the Lord and serve him in truth and with all your heart, for you have seen what great things he has done with you.

25 And if you do evil with wickedness, both you and your king shall be added.

Chapter 13

1 And Saul chooses for himself three thousand men from the men of Israel, and two thousand were with Saul in Machemas and in the mountain of Bethel,

2 and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gabee of Benjamin, and the remainder of the people he sent away, each to his dwelling.

3 And Jonathan struck the Nasib, the foreigner who was on the hill; and the foreigners hear. And Saul sounds a trumpet throughout all the land, saying, The servants have rebelled.

4 And all Israel heard them saying, Saul has struck the Nasib, the foreigner, and Israel was shamed among the foreigners. And the people cried out after Saul in Galgalois.

5 And the foreigners gather for war against Israel, and come up against Israel: thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen and people like the sand by the sea in multitude; and they come up and encamp in Machemas opposite Baithon toward the south.

6 And a man of Israel saw that it was hard pressed for him not to draw near to him, and the people hid in the caves and in the folds and in the rocks and in the pits and in the cisterns,

7 and those crossing crossed the Jordan into the land of Gad and Galaad. And Saul was still in Galgalois, and all the people were beside themselves following him. –

8 And he waited seven days according to the testimony, as Samuel said, and Samuel did not come to Galgala, and his people were scattered away from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring them near, so that I may make a whole burnt offering and peace offerings; and he offered up the whole burnt offering.

10 And it happened as he finished offering up the whole burnt offering that Samuel arrived; and Saul went out to meet him to bless him.

11 And Samuel said, What have you done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people had scattered away from me and you did not come, as you appointed, within the testimony of the days, and the foreigners had gathered at Machemas,

12 I said, Now the foreigners will come down against me at Galgala, and I have not entreated the face of the Lord; and I constrained myself and offered up the whole burnt offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, It has been made vain for you, because you did not keep my commandment, which the Lord commanded you. For now the Lord would have established your kingdom forever over Israel;

14 but now your kingdom shall not stand, and the Lord will seek for himself a man according to his heart, and the Lord will command him to be ruler over his people, because you did not keep what the Lord commanded you.

15 And Samuel rose and departed from Galgalois on his way. – And the remainder of the people went up after Saul to meet, after the people of war. When they had come from Galgalois to Gabaa of Benjamin, Saul mustered the people found with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Saul and Jonathan his son and the people found with them sat in Gabee of Benjamin and wept, and the foreigners had encamped at Machemas.

17 And a destroyer went out from the camp of the foreigners in three divisions: the one division looking toward the road of Gophera toward the land of Sogal,

18 and the one division looking toward the road of Baithoron, and the one division looking toward the road of Gabee, which bends toward Gai of Sabin.

19 And no smith of iron was found in all the land of Israel, because the foreigners said, Let the Hebrews not make sword and spear.

20 And all Israel would go down into the land of the foreigners to forge, each his harvesting tool and his implement and each his axe and his sickle.

21 And the vintage was ready for harvesting; and the implements were three shekels for the tooth, and for the axe and the sickle the support was the same.

22 And it happened in the days of the war of Machemas that neither sword nor spear was found in the hand of any of the people with Saul and with Jonathan, but one was found for Saul and Jonathan his son.

23 And one went out from the outpost of the foreigners, the one beyond Machemas.

Chapter 14

1 And a day came, and Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man carrying his equipment, Come, and let us cross to the garrison of the foreigners on that far side; and he did not tell his father.

2 And Saul was sitting at the edge of the hill under the pomegranate tree in Magdon, and there were about six hundred men with him;

3 and Achia son of Achitob, brother of Jochabed, son of Phinees, son of Eli, priest of God in Selom, was carrying an ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

4 And between the crossings, where Jonathan sought to cross to the outpost of the foreigners, there was a rocky projection on one side and a rocky projection on the other; the name of the one was Bazes and the name of the other Senna.

5 The one way was from the north for one coming to Machmas, and the other way from the south for one coming to Gabee.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man carrying his equipment, Come, let us cross to the garrison of these uncircumcised, if the Lord might do something for us; for the Lord is not constrained to save by many or by few.

7 And the one carrying his equipment said to him, Do all to which your heart inclines; behold, I am with you, as your heart is my heart.

8 And Jonathan said, Behold, we are crossing to the men and will roll down toward them.

9 If they say thus to us, Stand there until we tell you, then we will stand where we are and will certainly not go up against them;

10 and if they say thus to us, Come up to us, then we will go up, because the Lord has given them into our hands; this shall be the sign for us.

11 And both entered the garrison of the foreigners; and the foreigners say, Behold, the Hebrews are coming out of their holes where they hid.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and the one carrying his equipment and say, Come up to us, and we will make a thing known to you. And Jonathan said to the one carrying his equipment, Come up after me, because the Lord has given them into the hands of Israel.

13 And Jonathan went up on his hands and on his feet, and the one carrying his equipment with him; and they looked toward Jonathan's face, and he struck them, and the one carrying his equipment handed them over behind him.

14 And the first blow which Jonathan and the one carrying his equipment struck was about twenty men, among missiles and stone throwers and pebbles of the plain.

15 And there was terror in the camp and in the field, and all the people in the garrison and the destroyers were terrified, and they themselves were unwilling to act; and the land was amazed, and there was terror from the Lord.

16 And Saul's watchmen in Gabee of Benjamin saw, and behold, the camp was in turmoil on this side and that.

17 And Saul said to the people with him, Muster now and see who has gone from you; and they mustered, and behold, Jonathan and the one carrying his equipment were not found.

18 And Saul said to Achia, Bring near the ephod; for he carried the ephod on that day before Israel.

19 And it happened while Saul was speaking to the priest that the sound in the camp of the foreigners went on and increased; and Saul said to the priest, Gather your hands.

20 And Saul and all the people with him cried out and came as far as the battle, and behold, the sword of one man was against his neighbor, a very great confusion.

21 And the servants who had been with the foreigners yesterday and the third day, who had gone up into the camp, turned back to be themselves with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 And all Israel who were hiding in the mountain of Ephraim also heard that the foreigners had fled, and they too joined after them in battle.

23 And the Lord saved Israel on that day. And the battle passed through Baithon, and all the people with Saul were about ten thousand men; and the battle was scattered through the whole city in the mountain of Ephraim.

24 And Saul committed a great error on that day and put the people under a curse, saying, Cursed is the man who eats bread until evening, and I will avenge myself on my enemy; and none of the people tasted bread.

25 And all the land ate a meal. And Jaar was a forest of bees facing the field,

26 and the people entered the place of bees, and behold, it went along speaking, and behold, no one turned his hand to his mouth, because the people feared the oath of the Lord.

27 And Jonathan had not heard when his father put the people under oath; and he stretched out the end of the staff in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb and brought his hand back to his mouth, and his eyes looked up.

28 And one of the people answered and said, Your father solemnly put the people under oath, saying, Cursed is the man who eats bread today; and the people were faint.

29 And Jonathan understood and said, My father has troubled the land; see now that my eyes have seen, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 But if the people had eaten freely today from the spoils of their enemies that they found, surely now the blow among the foreigners would have been greater.

31 And on that day he struck some of the foreigners in Machemas, and the people were exceedingly weary.

32 And the people turned toward the spoils, and the people took flocks and herds and calves and slaughtered them on the ground, and the people ate with the blood.

33 And it was reported to Saul, saying, The people have sinned against the Lord by eating with the blood. And Saul said in Geththem, Roll a large stone here for me.

34 And Saul said, Spread out among the people and tell them to bring here each his calf and each his sheep, and let each slaughter on this, and you shall certainly not sin against the Lord by eating with the blood; and all the people brought, each, what was in his hand and slaughtered there.

35 And Saul built an altar there to the Lord; this was what Saul began to build as an altar to the Lord.

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the foreigners by night and plunder among them until the day dawns, and let us leave no man among them. And they said, Do whatever is good in your eyes. And the priest said, Let us draw near here to God.

37 And Saul asked God, Shall I go down after the foreigners? Will you give them into the hands of Israel? And he did not answer him on that day.

38 And Saul said, Bring near here all the corners of Israel, and know and see with whom this sin has happened today;

39 for the Lord who saved Israel lives, that even if it answers against Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. And there was no one answering among all the people.

40 And he said to all Israel, You shall be in servitude, and I and Jonathan my son shall be in servitude. And the people said to Saul, Do what is good in your eyes.

41 And Saul said, Lord God of Israel, why have you not answered your servant today? If the wrongdoing is in me or in Jonathan my son, Lord God of Israel, give clear signs; and if you say thus, In your people Israel, then give holiness. And Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot, and the people went out.

42 And Saul said, Cast between me and Jonathan my son; let the one whom the Lord selects by lot die. And the people said to Saul, This word is not so. And Saul prevailed over the people, and they cast between him and Jonathan his son, and Jonathan was taken by lot.

43 And Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what you have done. And Jonathan told him and said, I tasted a little honey with the end of the staff in my hand; behold, I am dying.

44 And Saul said to him, May God do thus to me and add thus, for you shall surely die today.

45 And the people said to Saul, Shall the one who made this great salvation in Israel be put to death today? As the Lord lives, not a hair of his head shall fall to the ground; for the people of God made this day. And the people prayed for Jonathan on that day, and he did not die. –

46 And Saul went up from pursuing the foreigners, and the foreigners went away to their place.

47 And Saul is allotted a task over Israel. And he fought all his enemies round about: Moab and the sons of Ammon and the sons of Edom and Baitheor and the king of Souba and the foreigners; wherever he turned, he was saved.

48 And he made a force and struck Amalek and delivered Israel from the hand of those trampling him. –

49 And the sons of Saul were Jonathan and Jessiou and Melchisa; and the names of his two daughters: the name of the firstborn was Merob, and the name of the second Melchol;

50 and the name of his wife was Achinoom, daughter of Achimaas. And the name of his commander was Abenner, son of Ner, son of a kinsman of Saul;

51 and Kis, Saul's father, and Ner, Abenner's father, son of Jamin son of Abiel. –

52 And the war against the foreigners was strong all the days of Saul, and Saul saw every mighty man and every man who was a son of might and gathered them to himself.

Chapter 15

1 And Samuel said to Saul, The Lord sent me to anoint you king over Israel, and now hear the voice of the Lord:

2 Thus said the Lord Sabaoth: Now I will avenge what Amalek did to Israel, how he met him on the way as he came up from Egypt;

3 and now go and strike Amalek and Jerim and all that belongs to him, and you shall preserve nothing of his, and you shall destroy him utterly and devote him and all that belongs to him, and you shall not spare him, and you shall kill from man to woman and from infant to suckling and from calf to sheep and from camel to donkey.

4 And Saul gave orders to the people and mustered them in Galgalois, four hundred thousand in companies, and Judah, thirty thousand in companies.

5 And Saul came as far as the cities of Amalek and lay in wait in the torrent bed.

6 And Saul said to the Kenite, Go away and turn aside from the midst of the Amalekite, lest I add you with him, for you showed mercy to the sons of Israel when they came up from Egypt; and the Kenite turned aside from the midst of Amalek.

7 And Saul struck Amalek from Euilat to Sour, facing Egypt.

8 And he captured Agag king of Amalek alive and killed all the people of Jerim by the edge of the sword.

9 And Saul and all the people preserved Agag alive and the good things of the flocks and the herds and the foodstuffs and the vineyards and all the good things, and they did not wish to destroy them utterly; and every work that was dishonored and despised they destroyed utterly.

10 And the word of the Lord came to Samuel, saying,

11 I am grieved that I made Saul king, because he has turned back from following me and has not kept my words. And Samuel was disheartened and cried out to the Lord all night.

12 And Samuel rose early and went to meet Israel in the morning. And it was reported to Samuel, saying, Saul has come to Carmel and has set up a hand for himself and has turned the chariot. And he went down to Galgala to Saul, and behold, he was offering to the Lord as a whole burnt offering the first of the spoils that he had brought from Amalek.

13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, Blessed are you to the Lord; I have established all that the Lord spoke.

14 And Samuel said, And what is this sound of the flock in my ears and the sound of the oxen that I hear?

15 And Saul said, I brought them from Amalek, what the people preserved, the best of the flock and the oxen, so that they might be sacrificed to the Lord your God, and the rest I destroyed utterly.

16 And Samuel said to Saul, Stop, and I will tell you what the Lord spoke to me in the night. And he said to him, Speak.

17 And Samuel said to Saul, Are you not small before him, a leader of the scepter of a tribe of Israel? And the Lord anointed you king over Israel.

18 And the Lord sent you on a way and said to you, Go and destroy utterly those sinning against me, Amalek, and you shall fight them until you finish them.

19 And why did you not listen to the voice of the Lord, but rushed to lay hands on the spoils and did what was evil before the Lord?

20 And Saul said to Samuel, Because I listened to the voice of the people; and I went on the way on which the Lord sent me, and I brought Agag king of Amalek and destroyed Amalek utterly;

21 and the people took from the spoils flocks and herds, the first of what was devoted to destruction, to sacrifice before the Lord our God in Galgalois.

22 And Samuel said, Are whole burnt offerings and sacrifices desired by the Lord as much as listening to the voice of the Lord? Behold, hearing is better than a good sacrifice, and attentive listening better than the fat of rams;

23 for sin is an omen; pain and labors bring teraphim. Because you despised the word of the Lord, the Lord will despise you so that you are not king over Israel.

24 And Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned, because I transgressed the word of the Lord and your saying, because I feared the people and listened to their voice;

25 and now, take away my sin and turn back with me, and I will worship the Lord your God.

26 And Samuel said to Saul, I will not turn back with you, because you despised the word of the Lord, and the Lord will despise you so that you are not king over Israel.

27 And Samuel turned his face to depart. And Saul grasped the edge of his cloak and tore it;

28 and Samuel said to him, The Lord has torn the kingdom of Israel from your hand today and will give it to your neighbor who is better than you;

29 and Israel shall be divided in two, and he will not turn back nor repent, because he is not like a man so as to repent.

30 And Saul said, I have sinned, but honor me now before the elders of Israel and before my people and turn back with me, and I will worship the Lord your God.

31 And Samuel turned back after Saul, and he worshiped the Lord.

32 And Samuel said, Bring Agag king of Amalek to me. And Agag came to him trembling, and Agag said, Is death so bitter?

33 And Samuel said to Agag, As your sword made women childless, so your mother shall be made childless among women. And Samuel slaughtered Agag before the Lord in Galgal.

34 And Samuel departed to Armathaim, and Saul went up to his house in Gabaa.

35 And Samuel did not again see Saul until the day of his death, because Samuel mourned for Saul; and the Lord regretted that he had made Saul king over Israel.

Chapter 16

1 And the Lord said to Samuel, How long do you mourn over Saul, when I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and come, I will send you to Jesse as far as Bethlehem, because I have seen among his sons one to reign for me.

2 And Samuel said, How shall I go? Saul will hear and kill me. And the Lord said, Take a heifer of the cattle in your hand, and you shall say, I have come to sacrifice to the Lord;

3 and you shall call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will make known to you what you shall do, and you shall anoint the one whom I tell you.

4 And Samuel did all that the Lord spoke to him and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city were startled at meeting him and said, Is your coming peace, seer?

5 And he said, Peace. I have come to sacrifice to the Lord; sanctify yourselves and rejoice with me today. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And it happened as they entered that he saw Eliab and said, Surely even before the Lord is his anointed.

7 And the Lord said to Samuel, Do not look upon his appearance nor upon the bearing of his stature, because I have rejected him; for God will not see as a man looks, because a man will look at a face, but God will look at a heart.

8 And Jesse called Aminadab, and he passed before Samuel; and he said, The Lord has not chosen this one either.

9 And Jesse brought Sama forward; and he said, The Lord has not chosen this one either.

10 And Jesse brought his seven sons before Samuel; and Samuel said, The Lord has not chosen among these.

11 And Samuel said to Jesse, Have the young men run out? And he said, There is still the little one; behold, he tends the flock. And Samuel said to Jesse, Send and fetch him, because we will certainly not recline until he comes.

12 And he sent and brought him in; and he was ruddy, with beauty of eyes and good in appearance to the Lord; and the Lord said to Samuel, Rise and anoint David, because this one is good.

13 And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers, and a spirit of the Lord leaped upon David from that day onward. And Samuel rose and departed to Armathaim.

14 And a spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord choked him.

15 And Saul's servants said to him, Behold now, an evil spirit of the Lord chokes you;

16 let your servants now speak before you and seek for our lord a man who knows how to play on a lyre, and it shall be, when an evil spirit is upon you, that he will play on his lyre, and it shall be good for you, and he will give you rest.

17 And Saul said to his servants, See now for me a man who plays well and bring him to me.

18 And one of his young men answered and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, and he knows a song, and the man is discerning, and the man is a warrior and wise in speech and a man good in appearance, and the Lord is with him.

19 And Saul sent messengers to Jesse, saying, Send to me your son David who is with your flock.

20 And Jesse took a gomor of bread and a skin of wine and one kid of the goats and sent them by the hand of David his son to Saul.

21 And David came to Saul and stood before him; and he loved him greatly, and he became the one carrying his equipment for him.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David stand before me, because he has found favor in my eyes.

23 And it happened when an evil spirit was upon Saul that David would take the lyre and play with his hand, and Saul would be refreshed, and it would be good for him, and the evil spirit would depart from him.

Chapter 17

1 And the foreigners gather their camps for war and gather at Sokchoth of Judea and encamp between Sokchoth and Azeka in Epheremem.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel gather and encamp in the valley; they draw up for war opposite the foreigners.

3 And the foreigners stand on the mountain here, and Israel stands on the mountain here, and the ravine is between them.

4 And a mighty man came out of the battle line of the foreigners, Goliath was his name, from Geth; his height was four cubits and a span;

5 and a helmet was on his head, and he wore a coat of chain mail, and the weight of his coat was five thousand shekels of bronze and iron;

6 and bronze greaves were above his legs, and a bronze shield was between his shoulders;

7 and the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and its point was six hundred shekels of iron; and the one carrying his weapons went before him.

8 And he stood and cried out to the battle line of Israel and said to them, Why do you go out to draw up for battle opposite us? Am I not a foreigner and you Hebrews of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves and let him come down to me,

9 and if he is able to fight against me and strikes me, we shall be your servants; but if I am able and strike him, you shall be our servants and serve us.

10 And the foreigner said, Behold, I have reproached the battle line of Israel today on this day; give me a man, and we two shall fight in single combat.

11 And Saul and all Israel heard these words of the foreigner and were astonished and very afraid.

32 And David said to Saul, Let not my lord's heart collapse because of him; your servant will go and fight with this foreigner.

33 And Saul said to David, You will certainly not be able to go against the foreigner to fight with him, for you are a young man, and he is a warrior from his youth.

34 And David said to Saul, Your servant was tending the flock for his father, and whenever the lion and the bear came and took a sheep from the herd,

35 I would go out after him and strike him and snatch it from his mouth; and if he rose against me, I grasped his throat and struck and killed him;

36 and your servant struck the bear and the lion, and the uncircumcised foreigner shall be like one of these; shall I not go and strike him and remove reproach from Israel today? For who is this uncircumcised one who has reproached the battle line of the living God?

37 The Lord who delivered me from the hand of the lion and from the hand of the bear, he will deliver me from the hand of this uncircumcised foreigner. And Saul said to David, Go, and may the Lord be with you.

38 And Saul clothed David with a mantle and a bronze helmet about his head

39 and girded David with his sword over his mantle. And he was wearied after walking once and twice; and David said to Saul, I shall certainly not be able to go in these, because I have not tried them. And they take them off him.

40 And he took his staff in his hand and chose for himself five smooth stones from the torrent bed and placed them in the shepherd's bag that he had for collecting, and his sling was in his hand, and he approached the foreign man.

42 And Goliath saw David and dishonored him, because he was a young man and was ruddy with beauty of eyes.

43 And the foreigner said to David, Am I like a dog, that you come against me with a stick and stones? And David said, No, but worse than a dog. And the foreigner cursed David by his gods.

44 And the foreigner said to David, Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of heaven and the beasts of the earth.

45 And David said to the foreigner, You come to me with sword and spear and shield, but I go to you in the name of the Lord Sabaoth, God of the battle line of Israel, which you have reproached today;

46 and the Lord will shut you into my hand today, and I will kill you and take your head from you and give your limbs and the limbs of the camp of the foreigners on this day to the birds of heaven and the beasts of the earth, and all the earth shall know that there is a God in Israel;

47 and all this assembly shall know that the Lord does not save by sword and spear, because the battle is the Lord's, and the Lord will give you into our hands.

48 And the foreigner rose and went to meet David.

49 And David stretched his hand into the bag and took one stone from there and slung it and struck the foreigner on his forehead, and the stone penetrated through the helmet into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the ground.

51 And David ran and stood over him and took his sword and killed him and took off his head. And the foreigners saw that their mighty man had died, and fled.

52 And the men of Israel and Judah rise and shout and pursue after them as far as the entrance of Geth and as far as the gate of Ascalon, and wounded men of the foreigners fell on the road of the gates and as far as Geth and as far as Akkaron.

53 And the men of Israel returned, turning aside after the foreigners, and trampled their camps.

54 And David took the foreigner's head and brought it to Jerusalem and placed his equipment in his dwelling.

6 And the dancing women came out to meet David from all the cities of Israel with drums and with joy and with cymbals,

7 and the women began and said, Saul struck his thousands and David his ten thousands.

8 And the saying appeared evil in Saul's eyes because of this word, and he said, To David they have given the ten thousands and to me they have given the thousands.

9 And Saul was looking askance at David from that day onward.

12 And Saul was afraid before David

13 and removed him from himself and appointed him a commander of a thousand for himself, and he went out and came in before the people.

14 And David was discerning in all his ways, and the Lord was with him.

15 And Saul saw that he was very discerning and was wary before him.

16 And all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before the people.

20 And Melchol the daughter of Saul loved David, and it was reported to Saul, and it was right in his eyes.

21 And Saul said, I will give her to him, and she shall be a snare to him. And the hand of the foreigners was upon Saul;

22 and Saul commanded his servants, saying, Speak secretly to David, saying, Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you, and you, become the king's son-in-law.

23 And Saul's servants spoke these words in David's ears, and David said, Is it a light thing in your eyes to become the king's son-in-law? I am a lowly man and not honored.

24 And Saul's servants reported to him according to these words that David had spoken.

25 And Saul said, Thus you shall say to David: The king does not desire a gift, but a hundred foreskins of the foreigners to take vengeance on the king's enemies. And Saul reckoned to cast him into the hands of the foreigners.

26 And Saul's servants report these words to David, and the word was right in David's eyes, to become the king's son-in-law.

27 And David rose and went, he and his men, and struck a hundred men among the foreigners and brought their foreskins to the king and became the king's son-in-law, and he gave him Melchol his daughter as a wife.

28 And Saul saw that the Lord was with David and all Israel loved him, 29 and he continued to be wary of David still.

Chapter 19

1 And Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants to put David to death. And Jonathan son of Saul greatly preferred David,

2 and Jonathan reported to David, saying, Saul seeks to put you to death; therefore guard yourself tomorrow morning and hide and sit in concealment,

3 and I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak about you to my father and see what there may be, and I will tell you.

4 And Jonathan spoke good things about David to Saul his father and said to him, Let not the king sin against your servant David, because he has not sinned against you, and his deeds are very good,

5 and he placed his life in his hand and struck the foreigner, and the Lord made a great salvation, and all Israel saw and rejoiced; and why do you sin against innocent blood by putting David to death without cause?

6 And Saul listened to Jonathan's voice, and Saul swore, saying, As the Lord lives, he shall not die.

7 And Jonathan called David and told him all these words, and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was before him as yesterday and the third day. –

8 And war continued to come against Saul, and David grew strong and fought the foreigners and struck among them a very great blow, and they fled from before him.

9 And an evil spirit of God came upon Saul, and he was in the house sleeping, with a spear in his hand, and David was playing with his hands;

10 and Saul sought to strike David with the spear, and David withdrew from before Saul, and he struck the spear into the wall, and David withdrew and was saved.

11 And it happened on that night that Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him so as to put him to death in the morning. And Melchol his wife told David, saying, If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be put to death.

12 And Melchol lowers David through the window, and he went away and fled and was saved.

13 And Melchol took the empty tombs and placed them on the bed, and she placed the liver of the goats at its head and covered them with a garment.

14 And Saul sent messengers to take David, and they say that he is afflicted.

15 And he sends to David, saying, Bring him on the bed to me to put him to death.

16 And the messengers come, and behold, the empty tombs were on the bed, and the liver of the goats at its head.

17 And Saul said to Melchol, Why did you thus deceive me and send away my enemy, so that he was saved? And Melchol said to Saul, He said, Send me away; otherwise I will put you to death.

18 And David fled and was saved and comes to Samuel in Armathaim and tells him all that Saul did to him, and David and Samuel went and sat in Nauath in Rama.

19 And it was reported to Saul, saying, Behold, David is in Nauath in Rama.

20 And Saul sent messengers to take David, and they saw the assembly of the prophets, and Samuel stood appointed over them, and a spirit of God came upon Saul's messengers, and they prophesy.

21 And it was reported to Saul, and he sent other messengers, and they too prophesied. And Saul continued to send messengers a third time, and they too prophesied.

22 And Saul was angered with anger and he too went to Armathaim and came as far as the well of the threshing floor in Sephi and asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And they said, Behold, in Nauath in Rama.

23 And he went from there to Nauath in Rama, and a spirit of God came upon him too, and he went prophesying until he came to Nauath in Rama.

24 And he took off his garments and prophesied before them and fell naked all that day and all the night; therefore they said, Is Saul also among the prophets?

Chapter 20

1 And David escaped from Nauath in Rama and comes before Jonathan and said, What have I done, and what is my wrongdoing, and how have I sinned before your father that he seeks my life?

2 And Jonathan said to him, By no means for you; you shall certainly not die. Behold, my father will certainly not do a great or small thing and not uncover my ear; and why would my father hide this thing? It is not so.

3 And David answered Jonathan and said, Your father knows well that I have found favor in your eyes, and he said, Let Jonathan not know this, lest he be unwilling; but as the Lord lives and as your soul lives, as I said, it is filled between me and death.

4 And Jonathan said to David, What does your soul desire, and what shall I do for you?

5 And David said to Jonathan, Behold now, tomorrow is a new moon, and I shall certainly not sit with the king to eat, and you shall send me away, and I will hide in the plain until evening.

6 If your father seeks me out, then you shall say, David earnestly asked leave of me to run as far as Bethlehem his city, because there is a sacrifice of the days there for the whole tribe.

7 If he says thus, Good, peace to your servant; but if he answers you harshly, know that the evil has been completed by him.

8 And you shall show mercy to your servant, because you brought your servant into a covenant of the Lord with yourself; and if there is wrongdoing in your servant, put me to death yourself; and why do you thus bring me as far as your father?

9 And Jonathan said, By no means for you; for if I know well that the evil has been completed by my father to come upon you, and if not, to your cities I will report to you.

10 And David said to Jonathan, Who will tell me if your father answers harshly?

11 And Jonathan said to David, Go and stay in the field. And both go out to the field. –

12 And Jonathan said to David, The Lord God of Israel knows that I will examine my father when the time is the third time, and behold, if it is good concerning David, and I do not send to you in the field,

13 may God do thus to Jonathan and add thus, because I will bring the evil to you and uncover your ear and send you away, and you shall depart in peace; and may the Lord be with you as he was with my father.

14 And indeed while I am still living, you shall show mercy to me, and if I surely die,

15 you shall not remove your mercy from my house forever; and if not when the Lord removes David's enemies, each from the face of the earth,

16 may Jonathan's name be removed from David's house, and may the Lord seek out David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan continued further to make David swear, because he loved the soul of the one loving him.

18 And Jonathan said, Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be sought, because your seat will be sought.

19 And you shall do it a third time and look and come to your place where you hid on the working day, and sit by that Ergab.

20 And I shall shoot a third time with the splinters, casting them toward the Amattari;

21 and behold, I will send the young man, saying, Come, find me the splinter; if I say to the young man, Here is the splinter on this side of you, here, take it, come, because there is peace for you and there is no matter, as the Lord lives;

22 but if I say thus to the young man, Here is the splinter beyond you, go, because the Lord has sent you away.

23 And the word that you and I spoke, behold, the Lord is witness between me and you forever.

24 And David hides in the field, and the month arrives, and the king comes to the table to eat.

25 And the king sat on his seat as once and again, on the seat by the wall, and Jonathan arrived before him, and Abenner sat at Saul's side, and David's place was sought.

26 And Saul said nothing on that day, because he said, An accident appears to have made him unclean, because he has not been purified.

27 And it happened on the following day of the month, on the second day, that David's place was sought, and Saul said to Jonathan his son, Why has the son of Jesse not come to the table either yesterday or today?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul and said to him, David has asked leave of me to go as far as Bethlehem his city

29 and said, Send me away now, because we have a sacrifice of the tribe in the city, and my brothers commanded me, and now if I have found favor in your eyes, I will be saved and see my brothers; for this reason he has not come to the king's table.

30 And Saul was exceedingly angered with Jonathan and said to him, Son of girls who desert, do I not know that you are a partner with the son of Jesse, to your shame and to the shame of the uncovering of your mother?

31 For all the days that the son of Jesse lives on the earth, your kingdom shall not be established; now therefore send and take the young man, because he is a son of death.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul, Why is he to die? What has he done?

33 And Saul raised the spear against Jonathan to put him to death. And Jonathan knew that this evil was completed by his father to put David to death,

34 and Jonathan sprang up from the table in angry rage and did not eat bread on the second day of the month, because he was broken over David, because his father had finished the matter against him.

35 And it happened in the morning that Jonathan went out to the field as he had arranged for the testimony to David, and a small young man was with him.

36 And he said to the young man, Run, find me the splinters that I throw; and the young man ran, and he threw the splinter and sent it past him.

37 And the young man came as far as the place of the splinter that Jonathan had thrown, and Jonathan cried out after the young man and said, There is the splinter beyond you;

38 and Jonathan cried out after his young man, saying, Make haste, hurry and do not stand still; and Jonathan's young man gathered the splinters to his master.

39 And the young man knew nothing; only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his equipment to his young man and said to his young man, Go, enter the city.

41 And when the young man entered, David rose from the Ergab and fell on his face and bowed to him three times, and each kissed his neighbor and each wept for his neighbor until a great completion.

42 And Jonathan said, Go in peace, and as we both have sworn in the name of the Lord, saying, The Lord shall be witness between me and you and between my seed and your seed forever.

Chapter 21

1 And David rose and departed, and Jonathan entered the city.

2 And David comes to Nomba to Abimelech the priest. And Abimelech was startled at meeting him and said to him, Why are you alone and no one with you?

3 And David said to the priest, The king has commanded me a thing today and said to me, Let no one know the thing concerning which I send you and concerning which I have commanded you; and to the young men I have borne witness in the place called God's Faithfulness, Phellani Alemoni;

4 and now if there are five loaves under your hand, give into my hand what is found.

5 And the priest answered David and said, There are no common loaves under my hand, but only holy loaves; if the young men have kept themselves from a woman, then he shall eat.

6 And David answered the priest and said to him, But we have abstained from a woman yesterday and the third day; when I went out on the way all the young men became purified, and this way itself is common, because it will be sanctified today through my equipment.

7 And Abimelech the priest gave him the loaves of the presentation, because there was no bread there except the loaves of the face, which had been removed from before the Lord to set out warm bread on the day he took them.

8 And one of Saul's young men was there on that day, detained neessaran before the Lord, and his name was Doek the Syrian, tending Saul's mules.

9 And David said to Abimelech, See if there is here under your hand a spear or sword, because I did not take my sword and the equipment in my hand, because the king's business was urgent.

10 And the priest said, Behold, the sword of Goliath the foreigner, whom you struck in the valley of Ela, and it is wrapped in a garment; if you will take it for yourself, take it, because there is no other besides it here. And David said, Behold, there is none like it; give it to me.

11 And he gave it to him; and David rose and fled on that day from before Saul. And David came to Anchous king of Geth.

12 And Anchous's servants said to him, Is this not David the king of the land? Is it not for him that the dancing women began, saying, Saul struck his thousands and David his ten thousands?

13 And David placed the words in his heart and was very afraid before Anchous king of Geth.

14 And he changed his face before him and pretended on that day and drummed on the city's doors and wandered in his hands and fell upon the doors of the gate, and his spittle flowed down upon his beard.

15 And Anchous said to his servants, Behold, you see an afflicted man; why did you bring him to me?

16 Am I short of afflicted men, that you have brought him in to act afflicted before me? This man shall not enter a house.

Chapter 22

1 And David departed from there and was saved and comes to the cave of Odollam. And his brothers and his father's house hear and go down to him there.

2 And everyone in distress and everyone in debt and everyone pained in soul gathered to him, and he was a leader over them; and there were about four hundred men with him.

3 And David departed from there to Massepha of Moab and said to the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother be with you until I know what God will do for me.

4 And he entreated the face of the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the days that David was in the region.

5 And Gad the prophet said to David, Do not sit in the region; go and come to the land of Judah. And David went and came and sat in the city of Sarich.

6 And Saul heard that David and the men with him had become known; and Saul sat on the hill under the field in Rama, with the spear in his hand, and all his servants stood beside him.

7 And Saul said to his servants standing beside him, Hear now, sons of Benjamin; will the son of Jesse really give fields and vineyards to you all and appoint you all commanders of hundreds and commanders of thousands?

8 For all of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who uncovers my ear when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse, and there is none among you pained for me and uncovering my ear that my son has stirred up my servant against me as an enemy, as on this day.

9 And Doek the Syrian, appointed over Saul's mules, answered and said, I have seen the son of Jesse coming to Nomba to Abimelech son of Achitob the priest,

10 and he inquired for him through God and gave him provisions and gave him the sword of Goliath the foreigner.

11 And the king sent to call Abimelech son of Achitob and all the sons of his father's house, the priests in Nomba, and they all came to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, son of Achitob. And he said, Behold, I am here; speak, lord.

13 And Saul said to him, Why did you conspire against me, you and the son of Jesse, by giving him bread and sword and inquiring for him through God, to set him against me as an enemy, as on this day?

14 And he answered the king and said, And who among all your servants is faithful like David, the king's son-in-law and ruler of every command of yours and honored in your house?

15 Did I begin today to inquire for him through God? By no means. Let not the king place a charge against his servant and against all my father's house, because your servant knew nothing small or great of all these things.

16 And King Saul said, You shall surely die, Abimelech, you and all your father's house.

17 And the king said to the runners standing over him, Come forward and put the priests of the Lord to death, because their hand is with David, and because they knew that he was fleeing and did not uncover my ear. And the king's servants did not wish to raise their hands to meet the priests of the Lord.

18 And the king said to Doek, Turn yourself and meet the priests. And Doek the Syrian turned and put the priests of the Lord to death on that day, three hundred and five men, all carrying an ephod.

19 And Nomba, the city of the priests, he struck by the edge of the sword, from man to woman, from infant to suckling, and calf and donkey and sheep. –

20 And one son of Abimelech son of Achitob was saved, and his name was Abiathar, and he fled after David.

21 And Abiathar reported to David that Saul had put all the priests of the Lord to death.

22 And David said to Abiathar, I knew on that day that Doek the Syrian would surely report to Saul; I am responsible for the lives of your father's house;

23 stay with me, do not fear, because wherever I seek a place for my life, I will seek one for your life also, for you are protected with me.

Chapter 23

1 And it was reported to David, saying, Behold, the foreigners are fighting in Keila, and they are plundering and trampling the threshing floors.

2 And David inquired through the Lord, saying, Shall I go and strike these foreigners? And the Lord said, Go and strike among these foreigners and save Keila.

3 And David's men said to him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judea, and how will it be if we go to Keila? We shall enter among the spoils of the foreigners.

4 And David continued to inquire again through the Lord, and the Lord answered him and said to him, Rise and go down to Keila, because I am giving the foreigners into your hands.

5 And David and the men with him went to Keila and fought among the foreigners, and they fled before him, and he drove away their livestock and struck a great blow among them, and David saved those dwelling in Keila.

6 And it happened when Abiathar son of Abimelech fled to David that he too went down with David to Keila, having an ephod in his hand.

7 And it was reported to Saul that David had come to Keila, and Saul said, God has sold him into my hands, because he has been shut in by entering a city of doors and bars.

8 And Saul ordered all the people to go down to war at Keila to hem in David and his men.

9 And David knew that Saul was not keeping silent about the evil against him, and David said to Abiathar the priest, Bring near the ephod of the Lord.

10 And David said, Lord God of Israel, your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come against Keila to destroy the city because of me.

11 Will he be shut in? And now will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? Lord God of Israel, tell your servant. And the Lord said, He will be shut in.

13 And David and the men with him, about four hundred, rose and went out of Keila and went wherever they went; and it was reported to Saul that David had been saved from Keila, and he ceased going out.

14 And David sat in the wilderness in Maserem in the narrow places and sat in the wilderness on Mount Ziph in the parched land; and Saul sought him all the days, and the Lord did not give him into his hands.

15 And David saw that Saul was going out to seek David; and David was on the parched mountain in Kaine Ziph.

16 And Jonathan son of Saul rose and went to David in Kaine and strengthened his hands in the Lord.

17 And he said to him, Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall certainly not find you, and you shall reign over Israel, and I shall be second to you; and Saul my father knows this.

18 And the two made a covenant before the Lord. And David sat in Kaine, and Jonathan departed to his house.

19 And the Ziphites went up from the parched land to Saul on the hill, saying, Is not David, behold, hiding near us in Messara in the narrow places in Kaine on the hill of Echela to the right of Jessaimoun?

20 And now let all that is in the king's soul for coming down come down to us; they have shut him into the king's hands.

21 And Saul said to them, Blessed are you to the Lord, because you have been pained for me;

22 go now and prepare further and know his place, where his foot will be, swiftly there where you said, lest he act craftily;

23 and see and know, and we will go with you, and it shall be, if he is on the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.

24 And the Ziphites rose and went before Saul; and David and his men were in the wilderness of Maan toward evening to the right of Jessaimoun.

25 And Saul and his men went to seek him; and they reported it to David, and he went down to the rock in the wilderness of Maan; and Saul heard and pursued after David into the wilderness of Maan.

26 And Saul and his men go on one side of this mountain, and David and his men were on one side of this mountain; and David was sheltering himself to go from before Saul, and Saul and his men encamped against David and his men to seize them.

27 And a messenger came to Saul, saying, Hurry and come, for the foreigners have attacked the land.

28 And Saul turned back from pursuing after David and went to meet the foreigners; therefore that place was called the Divided Rock.

Chapter 24

1 And David went up from there and sat in the narrow places of Engaddi.

2 And it happened when Saul returned from pursuing the foreigners that it was reported to him, saying that David was in the wilderness of Engaddi.

3 And he took with him three thousand chosen men from all Israel and went to seek David and his men facing Sadaiem.

4 And he came to the flocks of sheep by the road, and there was a cave there, and Saul entered to prepare himself; and David and his men were sitting farther inside the cave.

5 And David's men said to him, Behold, this is the day of which the Lord said to you that he would give your enemy into your hands, and you shall do to him as is good in your eyes. And David rose and secretly took off the edge of Saul's cloak.

6 And it happened after this that David's heart struck him, because he had taken off the edge of his cloak,

7 and David said to his men, By no means from the Lord for me, if I do this thing to my lord, the Lord's anointed, to raise my hand against him, because this one is the Lord's anointed;

8 and David persuaded his men with words and did not allow them to rise and put Saul to death. And Saul rose and went down to the road.

9 And David rose after him from the cave, and David cried out after Saul, saying, My lord king; and Saul looked behind him, and David bent his face to the ground and bowed to him.

10 And David said to Saul, Why do you listen to the words of the people saying, Behold, David seeks your life?

11 Behold, on this day your eyes have seen how the Lord gave you into my hand today in the cave, and I did not wish to kill you and I spared you and said, I will not raise my hand against my lord, because this one is the Lord's anointed.

12 And behold, the edge of your cloak is in my hand; I took off the edge and did not kill you. And know and see today that there is no evil in my hand nor impiety nor breach of faith, and I have not sinned against you; and you bind my life to take it.

13 May the Lord judge between me and you, and may the Lord avenge me on you; and my hand shall not be upon you,

14 as the ancient proverb says, From lawless men wrongdoing will come forth; and my hand shall not be upon you.

15 And now after whom do you go out, king of Israel? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog and after one flea.

16 May the Lord be judge and arbiter between me and you; may the Lord see and judge my case and vindicate me from your hand.

17 And it happened when David finished speaking these words to Saul that Saul said, Is this your voice, child David? And Saul raised his voice and wept.

18 And Saul said to David, You are more righteous than I, because you repaid me good, but I repaid you evil.

19 And you have told me today the good things you did to me, how the Lord shut me into your hands today and you did not kill me;

20 and because if anyone should find his enemy in distress and send him away on a good way, the Lord will repay him good, as you have done today.

21 And now, behold, I know that you shall surely reign and the kingdom of Israel shall stand in your hands.

22 And now swear to me by the Lord that you will not destroy my seed after me and will not obliterate my name from my father's house.

23 And David swore to Saul. And Saul departed to his place, and David and his men went up to the narrow Messara.

Chapter 25

1 And Samuel died, and all Israel gather and mourn him and bury him at his house in Armathaim. – And David rose and went down to the wilderness of Maan.

2 And there was a man in Maan, and his flocks were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats; and it happened while he was shearing his flock in Carmel.

3 And the man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigaia; and his wife was good in understanding and very beautiful in appearance, but the man was harsh and evil in his practices, and the man was doglike.

4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal the Carmelite was shearing his flock,

5 and David sent ten young men and said to the young men, Go up to Carmel and go to Nabal and ask him in my name for peace

6 and say thus: For seasons; and may you be well, and your house and all yours be well.

7 And now, behold, I have heard that they are shearing for you; now your shepherds who were with us in the wilderness, we did not hinder them and did not demand anything of them all the days they were in Carmel;

8 ask your young men, and they will tell you. And let the young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come on a good day; give now whatever your hand finds to your son David.

9 And the young men come and speak these words to Nabal according to all these sayings in David's name. And he leaped up

10 and Nabal answered David's servants and said, Who is David, and who is Jesse's son? Today the servants departing, each from before his lord, have multiplied.

11 And shall I take my bread and my wine and my slaughtered animals, which I have slaughtered for those shearing my sheep, and give them to men whom I do not know where they are from?

12 And David's young men turned to their way and returned and came and reported these words to David.

13 And David said to his men, Gird on each his sword; and about four hundred men went up after David, and the two hundred sat with the equipment.

14 And one of the young men reported to Abigaia, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers from the wilderness to bless our lord, and he turned away from them.

15 And the men were very good to us; they did not hinder us nor demand anything of us all the days we were beside them; and while we were in the field

16 they were like a wall around us both night and day all the days we were beside them tending the flock.

17 And now know and see what you will do, because evil has been completed against our lord and his house; and he is a pestilent son, and there is no speaking to him.

18 And Abigaia hurried and took two hundred loaves and two vessels of wine and five prepared sheep and five oiphi of meal and one gomor of raisins and two hundred cakes of pressed fruit and put them on the donkeys

19 and said to her young men, Go on before me, and behold, I am coming after you. And she did not tell her husband.

20 And it happened while she rode on the donkey and went down under cover of the mountain that behold, David and his men were coming down to meet her, and she met them.

21 And David had said, Perhaps I guarded all his things in the wilderness for nothing and we did not demand to take anything from all his things, and he has repaid me evil for good;

22 may God do thus to David and add thus if I leave of all that belongs to Nabal until morning one who urinates against a wall.

23 And Abigaia saw David and hurried and leaped down from the donkey and fell before David on her face and bowed to him to the ground

24 at his feet and said, On me, my lord, be the wrongdoing; let your servant speak in your ears, and hear a word of your servant.

25 Let not my lord set his heart upon this pestilent man, because as his name is, so he is; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; and I your servant did not see your young men whom you sent.

26 And now, lord, as the Lord lives and as your soul lives, since the Lord has prevented you from coming into innocent blood and saving your hand for yourself, now may your enemies and those seeking evil for my lord become like Nabal.

27 And now take this blessing that your servant has brought to my lord, and you shall give it to the young men standing beside my lord.

28 Take away your servant's lawlessness, for the Lord will surely make my lord a faithful house, because my lord fights the Lord's war, and evil shall never be found in you.

29 And a man will rise pursuing you and seeking your life, and my lord's life shall be bound in the bundle of life with the Lord God, and the life of your enemies you will sling in the midst of the sling.

30 And it shall be that the Lord will do for my lord all the good things that he spoke over you, and the Lord will command you to be leader over Israel,

31 and this shall not be for you an abomination and a stumbling block to my lord, to shed innocent blood without cause and save my lord's hand for himself. And the Lord will do good to my lord, and you shall remember your servant to do good to her.

32 And David said to Abigaia, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who sent you today on this occasion to meet me, 33 and blessed be your manner, and blessed are you who prevented me today on this occasion from coming into bloodshed and saving my hand for myself.

34 But as the Lord God of Israel lives, who prevented me today from doing evil to you, if you had not hurried and come to meet me, then I said, If one who urinates against a wall should be left to Nabal until the light of morning.

35 And David took from her hand all she had brought him and said to her, Go up in peace to your house; see, I have listened to your voice and favored your face.

36 And Abigaia came to Nabal, and behold, he had a drinking feast in his house like a king's feast, and Nabal's heart was good upon him, and he was very drunk; and she did not tell him a small or great thing until the light of morning.

37 And it happened in the morning, when Nabal had sobered up from the wine, that his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.

38 And it happened after about ten days that the Lord struck Nabal, and he died.

39 And David heard and said, Blessed be the Lord, who judged the case of my reproach from Nabal's hand and preserved his servant from the hand of evils, and the Lord returned Nabal's evil upon his head. And David sent and spoke about Abigaia to take her for himself as a wife.

40 And David's servants came to Abigaia in Carmel and spoke to her, saying, David sent us to you to take you as a wife for him.

41 And she rose and bowed to the ground on her face and said, Behold, your servant is a maidservant to wash the feet of your servants.

42 And Abigaia rose and mounted the donkey, and five girls followed her, and she went after David's servants and became his wife.

43 And David took Achinaam from Jezrael, and both were his wives.

44 And Saul gave Melchol his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti son of Lais, from Romma.

Chapter 26

1 And the Ziphites come from the parched land to Saul on the hill, saying, Behold, David shelters with us on the hill of Echela facing Jessaimoun.

2 And Saul rose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, and with him three thousand chosen men from Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul encamped on the hill of Echela facing Jessaimoun beside the road, and David sat in the wilderness. And David saw that Saul had come after him into the wilderness,

4 and David sent scouts and learned that Saul had come ready from Keila.

5 And David rose secretly and goes into the place where Saul slept, and there was Abenner son of Ner, his commander, and Saul slept in a covered wagon, and the people were encamped around him.

6 And David answered and said to Achimelech the Chettite and to Abessa son of Sarouia, brother of Joab, saying, Who will enter with me to Saul in the camp? And Abessa said, I will enter with you.

7 And David and Abessa go into the people by night, and behold, Saul was sleeping in sleep in the covered wagon, and the spear was fixed in the ground at his head, and Abenner and his people slept around him.

8 And Abessa said to David, The Lord has shut your enemy into your hands today, and now I will strike him with the spear into the ground once, and I will not do it a second time to him.

9 And David said to Abessa, Do not humble him, for who will raise his hand against the Lord's anointed and be innocent?

10 And David said, As the Lord lives, unless the Lord strikes him, or his day comes and he dies, or he goes down to war and is added;

11 by no means from the Lord for me to raise my hand against the Lord's anointed; and now take the spear from beside his head and the flask of water, and let us depart by ourselves.

12 And David took the spear and the flask of water from beside his head, and they departed by themselves; and no one saw and no one knew and no one awoke, all sleeping, because an astonishment from the Lord had fallen upon them.

13 And David crossed to the far side and stood on the top of the mountain far away, and there was much distance between them.

14 And David called to the people and spoke to Abenner, saying, Will you not answer, Abenner? And Abenner answered and said, Who are you who calls me?

15 And David said to Abenner, Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? And why do you not guard your lord the king? For one of the people entered to destroy the king your lord.

16 And this thing you have done is not good; as the Lord lives, you who guard the king your lord, the Lord's anointed, are sons of death. And now look: where are the king's spear and flask of water that were by his head?

17 And Saul recognized David's voice and said, Is this your voice, child David? And David said, Your servant, my lord king.

18 And he said, Why does my lord pursue after his servant thus? For how have I sinned, and what wrongdoing was found in me?

19 And now let my lord the king hear the word of his servant: if God is stirring you up against me, may he smell your sacrifice; but if sons of men, cursed are they before the Lord, because they have driven me out today so that I may not be established in the Lord's inheritance, saying, Go, serve other gods.

20 And now let not my blood fall on the ground opposite the face of the Lord, because the king of Israel has gone out to seek my life, as the night raven pursues in the mountains.

21 And Saul said, I have sinned; return, child David, because I will not do evil to you in return for my life being precious in your eyes today; I have acted vainly and erred very greatly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold, the king's spear; let one of the young men cross and take it.

23 And the Lord will return to each his acts of righteousness and his faithfulness, since the Lord gave you into my hands today and I did not wish to raise my hand against the Lord's anointed;

24 and behold, as your life was magnified in my eyes today, so may my life be magnified before the Lord, and may he shelter me and deliver me from every distress.

25 And Saul said to David, Blessed are you, child, and you shall surely do and being able shall be able. And David departed on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

Chapter 27

1 And David said in his heart, saying, Now on one day I shall be added into Saul's hands, and there is no good for me unless I am saved in the land of the foreigners and Saul ceases seeking me in all Israel's territory, and I shall be saved from his hand.

2 And David rose, and the four hundred men with him, and went to Anchous son of Ammach king of Geth.

3 And David sat with Anchous in Geth, he and his men, each with his household, and David with both his wives, Achinaam the Jezraelite and Abigaia the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

4 And it was reported to Saul that David had fled to Geth, and he did not continue to seek him.

5 And David said to Anchous, If now your servant has found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the country towns and I will sit there; and why should your servant sit in a royal city with you?

6 And he gave him Sekelak on that day; therefore Sekelak belonged to the king of Judea until this day.

7 And the number of the days that David sat in the countryside of the foreigners was four months.

8 And David and his men would go up and attack all the Gesiri and the Amalekite; and behold, the land had been inhabited from those belonging to Gelampsour, fortified, as far as the land of Egypt.

9 And he would strike the land and keep no man or woman alive and take flocks and herds and donkeys and camels and clothing, and they returned and came to Anchous.

10 And Anchous said to David, Against whom did you attack today? And David said to Anchous, Against the south of Judea and against the south of Jesmega and against the south of the Kenezi.

11 And he kept no man or woman alive to bring into Geth, saying, Lest they report against us in Geth, saying, Thus David does. And this was his practice all the days that David sat in the countryside of the foreigners.

12 And David was greatly trusted by Anchous, who said, He has certainly become disgraced among his people in Israel and shall be my servant forever.

Chapter 28

1 And it happened in those days that the foreigners gather in their camps to go out to fight with Israel, and Anchous said to David, Know assuredly that you and your men will go out with me to war.

2 And David said to Anchous, Thus now you will know what your servant will do; and Anchous said to David, Thus I shall make you chief bodyguard all the days.

3 And Samuel died, and all Israel mourned him and buried him in Armathaim in his city. And Saul removed the ventriloquists and the knowers from the land.

4 And the foreigners gather and come and encamp at Soman, and Saul gathers every man of Israel and they encamp at Gelboue.

5 And Saul saw the camp of the foreigners and was afraid, and his heart was greatly beside itself.

6 And Saul inquired through the Lord, and the Lord did not answer him in dreams or in clear signs or in the prophets.

7 And Saul said to his servants, Seek for me a woman ventriloquist, and I will go to her and seek through her; and his servants said to him, Behold, a woman ventriloquist is in Aendor.

8 And Saul disguised himself and put on other garments and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night, and he said to her, Divine for me now through the ventriloquist and bring up for me whomever I tell you.

9 And the woman said to him, Behold now, you know what Saul did, how he destroyed the ventriloquists and the knowers from the land; and why are you setting a snare for my life to put it to death?

10 And Saul swore to her, saying, As the Lord lives, no wrongdoing shall befall you in this matter.

11 And the woman said, Whom shall I bring up for you? And he said, Bring up Samuel for me.

12 And the woman saw Samuel and cried out with a great voice; and the woman said to Saul, Why did you deceive me? You are Saul.

13 And the king said to her, Do not fear; say whom you have seen. And she said to him, I have seen gods coming up from the earth.

14 And he said to her, What did you perceive? And she said to him, An upright man coming up from the earth, and he was clothed with a cloak. And Saul knew that this was Samuel, and bowed his face to the ground and worshiped him.

15 And Samuel said, Why have you troubled me to bring me up? And Saul said, I am greatly distressed, and the foreigners fight against me, and God has departed from me and has no longer listened to me, either by the hand of the prophets or in dreams; and now I have called you to make known to me what I shall do.

16 And Samuel said, Why do you ask me? The Lord has departed from you and has become with your neighbor;

17 and the Lord has done to you as he spoke by my hand, and the Lord will tear your kingdom from your hand and give it to your neighbor David.

18 Because you did not listen to the voice of the Lord and did not enact the heat of his anger in Amalek, for this reason the Lord has done this thing to you on this day.

19 And the Lord will give Israel with you into the hands of the foreigners, and tomorrow you and your sons with you shall fall, and the Lord will give Israel's camp into the hands of the foreigners.

20 And Saul hurried and fell while standing upon the ground and was very afraid because of Samuel's words; and there was no strength left in him, for he had eaten no bread all that day and all that night.

21 And the woman came to Saul and saw that he had hurried greatly, and she said to him, Behold now, your servant listened to your voice and placed my life in my hand and listened to the words you spoke to me;

22 and now listen to the voice of your servant, and I will set before you a morsel of bread, and eat, and there shall be strength in you, because you will go on a way.

23 And he did not wish to eat; and his servants and the woman pressed him, and he listened to their voice and rose from the ground and sat on the stool.

24 And the woman had a pasture-fed heifer in the house, and she hurried and slaughtered it and took flour and kneaded it and baked unleavened bread

25 and brought it before Saul and before his servants, and they ate. And they rose and departed that night.

Chapter 29

1 And the foreigners gather all their camps at Aphek, and Israel encamped in Aendor in Jezrael.

2 And the satraps of the foreigners were passing along in hundreds and thousands, and David and his men were passing along at the rear with Anchous.

3 And the satraps of the foreigners said, Who are these passing along? And Anchous said to the commanders of the foreigners, Is this not David, servant of Saul king of Israel? He has been with us for days, this second year, and I have found nothing in him from the day he fell in with me until this day.

4 And the commanders of the foreigners were grieved over him and say to him, Turn the man back to his place where you appointed him, and let him not come with us to war and not become a plotter against the camp; and by what will this one be reconciled to his lord? Is it not by the heads of those men?

5 Is this not David, for whom they began in dances, saying, Saul struck his thousands and David his ten thousands?

6 And Anchous called David and said to him, As the Lord lives, you are upright and good in my eyes, and your going out and your coming in with me in the camp, and I have found no evil against you from the day you came to me until today; but in the eyes of the satraps you are not good;

7 and now return and go in peace, and you shall certainly not do evil in the eyes of the satraps of the foreigners.

8 And David said to Anchous, What have I done to you, and what have you found in your servant from the day I was before you until this day, that I shall certainly not come to fight the enemies of my lord the king?

9 And Anchous answered David, I know that you are good in my eyes, but the satraps of the foreigners say, He shall not come with us to war.

10 And now rise early in the morning, you and the servants of your lord who came with you, and go to the place where I appointed you, and do not place a pestilent word in your heart, because you are good before me; and rise early on the way, and let it become light for you, and go.

11 And David and his men rose early to depart and guard the land of the foreigners, and the foreigners went up to fight against Israel.

Chapter 30

1 And it happened when David and his men entered Sekelak on the third day that Amalek had attacked the south and Sekelak and struck Sekelak and burned it with fire;

2 and the women and all in it, from small to great, they did not put man or woman to death, but took them captive and departed on their way.

3 And David and his men came to the city, and behold, it had been burned with fire, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive.

4 And David and his men raised their voice and wept until there was no strength in them to weep any more.

5 And both David's wives had been taken captive, Achinoom the Jezraelite and Abigaia the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed, because the people spoke of stoning him, because every person's soul was pained, each over his sons and daughters; and David was strengthened in the Lord his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, son of Achimelech, Bring near the ephod.

8 And David inquired through the Lord, saying, Shall I pursue after this raiding band? Shall I overtake them? And he said to him, Pursue, because you shall surely overtake and shall surely deliver.

9 And David went, he and the six hundred men with him, and they came as far as the torrent bed Bosor, and the remainder stood still.

10 And he pursued with four hundred men, but two hundred men stayed behind, who sat across the torrent bed Bosor.

11 And they find an Egyptian man in the field and take him and bring him to David in the field; and they give him bread, and he ate, and they gave him water to drink;

12 and they give him a piece of a cake of pressed fruit, and he ate, and his spirit was established within him, because he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights.

13 And David said to him, Whose are you and where are you from? And the Egyptian young man said, I am a servant of an Amalekite man, and my lord left me because I became ill three days ago today.

14 And we attacked the south of Cholthi and the parts of Judea and the south of Cheloub, and we burned Sekelak with fire.

15 And David said to him, Will you lead me down to this raiding band? And he said, Swear to me by God that you will not put me to death and will not give me into my lord's hands, and I will lead you down to this raiding band.

16 And he led him down there, and behold, they were spread over the face of all the land, eating and drinking and celebrating among all the great spoils that they had taken from the land of the foreigners and from the land of Judah.

17 And David came upon them and struck them from the morning star until evening and the following day, and not one man of them was saved except four hundred young men who had mounted camels and fled.

18 And David took back all that the Amalekites had taken, and he delivered both his wives.

19 And nothing was missing to them from small to great, from the spoils to sons and daughters and everything they had taken from them; David returned it all.

20 And David took all the flocks and herds and drove them before the spoils, and concerning those spoils it was said, These are David's spoils. –

21 And David comes to the two hundred men who were too weak to go after David and whom he had left by the torrent bed Bosor, and they went out to meet David and to meet the people with him, and David approached the people, and they asked him about peace.

22 And every pestilent and evil man among the fighting men who had gone with David answered and said, Because they did not pursue with us, we will not give them from the spoils we delivered, except that each take away his wife and children and return.

23 And David said, You shall not do thus after the Lord has given to us and guarded us and the Lord has given the raiding band that came against us into our hands.

24 And who will listen to these words of yours? For they are not less than you; therefore as the portion of the one going down to war, so shall be the portion of the one sitting by the equipment; they shall divide alike.

25 And it happened from that day onward and became an ordinance and a judgment for Israel until today.

26 And David came to Sekelak and sent from the spoils to the elders of Judah and to his neighbors, saying, Behold, from the spoils of the Lord's enemies;

27 to those in Baithsour and those in Rama of the south and those in Jeththor

28 and those in Aroer and the Ammadi and those in Saphi and those in Esthie

28 and those in Aroer and the Ammadi and those in Saphi and those in Esthie

29 and those in Carmel and those in the cities of Jerameli and those in the cities of Kenezi

30 and those in Jerimouth and those in Bersabee and those in Noo

31 and those in Chebron and all the places through which David had passed there, he and his men.

Chapter 31

1 And the foreigners fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled from before the foreigners, and wounded men fall on Mount Gelboue.

2 And the foreigners close with Saul and his sons, and the foreigners strike Jonathan and Aminadab and Melchisa, Saul's sons.

3 And the battle grows heavy against Saul, and the javelin throwers, men who were archers, find him, and he was wounded in the region below the ribs.

4 And Saul said to the one carrying his equipment, Draw your sword and pierce me with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and pierce me and mock me. And the one carrying his equipment did not wish to, because he was very afraid; and Saul took the sword and fell upon it.

5 And the one carrying his equipment saw that Saul had died, and he too fell upon his sword and died with him.

6 And Saul and his three sons and the one carrying his equipment died together on that day.

7 And the men of Israel across the valley and across the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, and they leave their cities and flee; and the foreigners come and dwell in them. –

8 And it happened on the next day that the foreigners come to strip the dead and find Saul and his three sons fallen on the mountains of Gelboue.

9 And they turn him over and strip off his equipment and send it around the land of the foreigners, announcing good news to their idols and their people;

10 and they dedicated his equipment in the Astarte temple and fastened his body to the wall of Baithsan.

11 And those dwelling in Jabis of Galaad hear what the foreigners had done to Saul.

12 And every man of might rose and went all night and took Saul's body and the body of Jonathan his son from the wall of Baithsan and bring them to Jabis and burn them there.

13 And they take their bones and bury them under the field in Jabis and fast for seven days.

2 Samuel

Chapter 1

1 And it happened after Saul died and David returned from striking Amalek that David sat in Sekelak two days.

2 And it happened on the third day that behold, a man came from the camp, from Saul's people, with his garments torn and earth on his head, and it happened when he entered to David that he fell to the ground and bowed to him.

3 And David said to him, Where do you come from? And he said to him, I have escaped from Israel's camp.

4 And David said to him, What is this matter? Tell me. And he said that the people fled from the battle, and many of the people have fallen and died; and Saul has died also, and Jonathan his son has died.

5 And David said to the young man telling him, How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son have died?

6 And the young man telling him said, By chance I happened upon Mount Gelboue, and behold, Saul leaned upon his spear, and behold, the chariots and horse commanders closed in upon him.

7 And he looked behind him and saw me and called me, and I said, Behold, I am here.

8 And he said to me, Who are you? And I said, I am an Amalekite.

9 And he said to me, Stand over me now and put me to death, because terrible darkness has seized me, because all my life is in me.

10 And I stood over him and put him to death, because I knew that he would not live after his falling; and I took the royal thing on his head and the bracelet on his arm and have brought them here to my lord.

11 And David grasped his garments and tore them, and all the men with him tore their garments.

12 And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and Jonathan his son and for the people of Judah and the house of Israel, because they had been struck by the sword.

13 And David said to the young man telling him, Where are you from? And he said, I am the son of a sojourning Amalekite man.

14 And David said to him, How were you not afraid to raise your hand to destroy the Lord's anointed?

15 And David called one of his young men and said, Come forward and meet him; and he struck him, and he died.

16 And David said to him, Your blood is upon your head, because your mouth answered against you, saying, I put the Lord's anointed to death.

17 And David lamented this lament over Saul and Jonathan his son

18 and said to teach the sons of Judah – behold, it is written in the Book of the Upright –

19 Set up a pillar, Israel, for the dead wounded upon your heights; how the mighty have fallen.

20 Do not tell it in Geth and do not announce good news in the exits of Ascalon, lest the daughters of the foreigners rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised exult.

21 Mountains in Gelboue, let neither dew nor rain come down upon you, nor fields of first fruits, because there the shield of the mighty was abhorred, Saul's shield was not anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the wounded, from the fat of the mighty, Jonathan's bow did not turn back empty to the rear, and Saul's sword did not return empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan, the beloved and beautiful, not separated, fair in their life and in their death not divided, swifter than eagles and stronger than lions.

24 Daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you in scarlet with your adornment, who placed golden adornment on your garments.

25 How the mighty have fallen in the midst of battle; Jonathan, wounded upon your heights.

26 I grieve over you, my brother Jonathan; you were exceedingly beautiful to me, your love to me was wondrous beyond the love of women.

27 How the mighty have fallen and the implements of war perished.

Chapter 2

1 And it happened after these things that David inquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up to one of the cities of Judah? And the Lord said to him, Go up. And David said, Where shall I go up? And he said, To Chebron.

2 And David went up there to Chebron, and both his wives, Achinoom the Jezraelite and Abigaia the wife of Nabal the Carmelite,

3 and the men with him, each with his household, and they dwelt in the cities of Chebron.

4 And men of Judea come and anoint David there to reign over the house of Judah. And they reported to David, saying that the men of Jabis of Galaad buried Saul.

5 And David sent messengers to the leaders of Jabis of Galaad and said to them, Blessed are you to the Lord, because you have done this mercy to your lord, to Saul the Lord's anointed, and buried him and Jonathan his son;

6 and now may the Lord do mercy and truth with you, and I too will do these good things with you, because you did this thing;

7 and now let your hands be strengthened and become mighty sons, because your lord Saul has died, and the house of Judah has also anointed me king over themselves.

8 And Abenner son of Ner, Saul's commander, took Jebosthe son of Saul and brought him up from the camp to Manaem

9 and made him king over Galaaditis and Thasiri and Jezrael and Ephraim and Benjamin and all Israel.

10 Jebosthe son of Saul was forty years old when he reigned over Israel, and he reigned two years, except the house of Judah, who were after David;

11 and the days that David reigned in Chebron over the house of Judah were seven years and six months.

12 And Abenner son of Ner and the servants of Jebosthe son of Saul went out from Manaem to Gabaon;

13 and Joab son of Sarouia and David's servants went out from Chebron and meet them together by the spring of Gabaon, and these sat by the spring of Gabaon on this side and those by the spring on that side.

14 And Abenner said to Joab, Let the young men rise and play before us. And Joab said, Let them rise.

15 And they rose and passed over in number, twelve of the sons of Benjamin belonging to Jebosthe son of Saul and twelve of David's servants.

16 And each grasped his neighbor's head with his hand and his knife went into his neighbor's side, and they fall together; and the name of that place was called Portion of the Plotters, which is in Gabaon.

17 And the battle was exceedingly harsh on that day, and Abenner and the men of Israel stumbled before David's servants. –

18 And the three sons of Sarouia were there, Joab and Abessa and Asael, and Asael was swift with his feet like a gazelle in the field.

19 And Asael pursued after Abenner and did not turn aside in going to the right or to the left behind Abenner.

20 And Abenner looked behind him and said, Is it you, Asael? And he said, It is I.

21 And Abenner said to him, Turn aside to the right or to the left and seize for yourself one of the young men and take his armor for yourself; and Asael did not wish to turn aside from behind him.

22 And Abenner continued to say to Asael, Depart from me, lest I strike you to the ground; and how shall I lift my face toward Joab? And where are these things? Return to Joab your brother.

23 And he did not wish to depart. And Abenner strikes him with the back of the spear at the loin, and the spear passed out behind him, and he falls there and dies beneath him. And everyone who came as far as the place where Asael fell there and died stopped. –

24 And Joab and Abessa pursued after Abenner; and the sun was setting, and they came as far as the hill Amman, which faces Gai on the wilderness road of Gabaon.

25 And the sons of Benjamin who were after Abenner gather and became one meeting and stood atop one hill.

26 And Abenner called to Joab and said, Shall the sword devour to victory? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? And how long will you not tell the people to turn back from following our brothers?

27 And Joab said, As the Lord lives, if you had not spoken, for then from morning the people would have gone up, each after his brother.

28 And Joab sounded the trumpet, and all the people stopped and did not pursue after Israel and did not continue to fight.

29 And Abenner and his men departed westward all that night and crossed the Jordan and went all along the extended stretch and came to the camp.

30 And Joab returned from following Abenner and gathered all the people, and nineteen men of David's servants and Asael were missing.

31 And David's servants struck of the sons of Benjamin, of Abenner's men, three hundred and sixty men besides him.

32 And they took Asael and buried him in his father's tomb in Bethlehem. And Joab and the men with him went all night, and dawn broke for them in Chebron.

Chapter 3

1 And war continued for a long time between the house of Saul and the house of David; and the house of David went on and grew strong, and the house of Saul went on and grew weak.

2 And sons were born to David in Chebron, and his firstborn was Amnon by Achinoom the Jezraelite,

3 and his second Dalouia by Abigaia the Carmelite, and the third Abessalom son of Maacha daughter of Tholmi king of Gesir,

4 and the fourth Ornia son of Pheggith, and the fifth Sabatia by Abital,

5 and the sixth Jetheraam by Aigla David's wife; these were born to David in Chebron.

6 And it happened while the war was between the house of Saul and the house of David that Abenner was holding the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, Respha daughter of Jal; and Memphibosthe son of Saul said to Abenner, Why did you go in to my father's concubine?

8 And Abenner was very angry at Memphibosthe's word, and Abenner said to him, Am I a dog's head? I have shown mercy today to the house of Saul your father and to brothers and acquaintances and have not deserted to the house of David; and you seek against me over a woman's wrongdoing today?

9 May God do thus to Abenner and add thus to him, for as the Lord swore to David, so I will do for him on this day,

10 to remove the kingdom from the house of Saul and raise up David's throne over Israel and over Judah from Dan to Bersabee.

11 And Memphibosthe could no longer answer Abenner a word for fear of him.

12 And Abenner sent messengers to David at Thailam, where he was at once, saying, Make your covenant with me, and behold, my hand is with you to turn all the house of Israel to you.

13 And David said, I will indeed make a covenant with you, except one thing I ask of you, saying, You shall not see my face unless you bring Melchol daughter of Saul when you come to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Memphibosthe son of Saul, saying, Give me back my wife Melchol, whom I took for a hundred foreskins of foreigners.

15 And Memphibosthe sent and took her from her husband, from Phaltiel son of Selles.

16 And her husband went with her, weeping behind her as far as Barakim; and Abenner said to him, Go, return; and he returned. –

17 And Abenner said to the elders of Israel, saying, Yesterday and the third day you sought David to reign over you;

18 and now do it, because the Lord spoke concerning David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save Israel from the hand of the foreigners and from the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abenner spoke in the ears of Benjamin. And Abenner went to speak in David's ears in Chebron all that pleased Israel's eyes and the eyes of all the house of Benjamin.

20 And Abenner came to David in Chebron with twenty men. And David made a drinking feast for Abenner and the men with him.

21 And Abenner said to David, I will rise and go and gather all Israel to my lord the king and make a covenant with you, and you shall reign over all that your soul desires. And David sent Abenner away, and he went in peace. –

22 And behold, David's servants and Joab were arriving from the expedition and carried much spoil with them; and Abenner was not with David in Chebron, because he had sent him away and he had departed in peace.

23 And Joab and all his army were brought in, and it was reported to Joab, saying, Abenner son of Ner came to David, and he sent him away and he departed in peace.

24 And Joab came to the king and said, What is this you have done? Behold, Abenner came to you, and why did you send him away so that he departed in peace?

25 Do you not know the evil of Abenner son of Ner, that he came to deceive you and know your going out and your coming in and know all that you do?

26 And Joab returned from David and sent messengers after Abenner, and they bring him back from the well of Seiram; and David did not know.

27 And Abenner returned to Chebron, and Joab turned him aside at the side of the gate to speak to him in ambush and struck him there in the loin, and he died for the blood of Asael, Joab's brother.

28 And David heard after these things and said, I and my kingdom are innocent before the Lord forever of the blood of Abenner son of Ner;

29 may it come down upon Joab's head and all his father's house, and may there not fail from Joab's house one with a discharge and a leper and one holding a staff and one falling by the sword and one lacking bread.

30 And Joab and Abessa his brother had been watching Abenner closely because he put Asael their brother to death in Gabaon in the war. –

31 And David said to Joab and all the people with him, Tear your garments and gird yourselves with sackcloth and mourn before Abenner; and King David went behind the bier.

32 And they bury Abenner in Chebron; and the king raised his voice and wept at his tomb, and all the people wept over Abenner.

33 And the king lamented over Abenner and said, Shall Abenner die like the death of Nabal?

34 Your hands were not bound, your feet were not in fetters; he did not bring forward like Nabal; before sons of wrongdoing you fell. And all the people gathered to weep for him.

35 And all the people came to give David a meal of bread while it was still day, and David swore, saying, May God do thus to me and add thus, if before the sun sets I taste bread or anything at all.

36 And all the people knew, and everything the king did before the people was pleasing before them.

37 And all the people and all Israel knew on that day that it had not been from the king to put Abenner son of Ner to death.

38 And the king said to his servants, Do you not know that a great leader has fallen in Israel on this day?

39 And I am today a kinsman and appointed under a king, but these men, sons of Sarouia, are harder than I; may the Lord repay the one doing evil according to his evil.

Chapter 4

1 And Memphibosthe son of Saul heard that Abenner had died in Chebron, and his hands grew weak, and all the men of Israel became slack.

2 And two men, leaders of bands for Memphibosthe son of Saul, the name of one was Baana and the name of the second Rechab, sons of Remmon the Berothite, of the sons of Benjamin; for Beroth was reckoned to the sons of Benjamin,

3 and the Berothites fled to Getthaim and were sojourners there until this day. –

4 And Jonathan son of Saul had a son stricken in the feet; he was five years old when the report about Saul and Jonathan his son came from Jezrael, and his nurse took him and fled, and it happened as she hurried and withdrew that he fell and became lame, and his name was Memphibosthe. –

5 And the sons of Remmon the Berothite, Rekcha and Baana, went and entered in the heat of the day into the house of Memphibosthe, and he slept on the midday bed,

6 and behold, the doorkeeper of the house was cleaning wheat and grew drowsy and slept, and Rekcha and Baana the brothers slipped through

7 and entered the house, and Memphibosthe slept on his bed in his bedroom, and they strike him and put him to death and remove his head, and they took his head and departed on the westward road all night.

8 And they brought the head of Memphibosthe to David in Chebron and said to the king, Behold, the head of Memphibosthe son of Saul your enemy, who sought your life, and the Lord gave to my lord the king vengeance upon his enemies as on this day, upon Saul your enemy and his seed.

9 And David answered Rekcha and Baana his brother, sons of Remmon the Berothite, and said to them, As the Lord lives, who redeemed my life from every distress,

10 when the one telling me that Saul had died – and he was like one announcing good news before me – I seized him and killed him in Sekelak, to whom I should have given a reward for good news;

11 and now evil men have killed a righteous man in his house on his bed; and now I will seek his blood from your hands and destroy you from the earth.

12 And David commanded his young men, and they kill them and cut off their hands and their feet and hung them by the spring in Chebron; and the head of Memphibosthe they buried in the tomb of Abenner son of Ner.

Chapter 5

1 And all the tribes of Israel come to David in Chebron and said to him, Behold, we are your bones and your flesh;

2 and yesterday and the third day, when Saul was king over us, you were the one leading Israel out and bringing them in, and the Lord said to you, You shall shepherd my people Israel, and you shall be a leader over Israel.

3 And all the elders of Israel come to the king in Chebron, and King David made a covenant with them in Chebron before the Lord, and they anoint David king over all Israel. –

4 David was a son of thirty years when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years,

5 seven years and six months he reigned in Chebron over Judah, and thirty-three years he reigned over all Israel and Judah in Jerusalem.

6 And David and his men departed to Jerusalem against the Jebusite dwelling in the land. And it was said to David, You shall not enter here, because the blind and the lame stood against you, saying, David shall not enter here.

7 And David took the stronghold of Sion [this is the city of David].

8 And David said on that day, Everyone striking a Jebusite, let him touch with a dagger both the lame and the blind and those hating David's soul; therefore they will say, Blind and lame shall not enter the house of the Lord.

9 And David sat in the stronghold, and it was called the city of David; and he built the city around from the citadel and his house.

10 And David went on going and growing great, and the Lord Almighty was with him. –

11 And Chiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David and cedar wood and carpenters of wood and masons of stone, and they built a house for David.

12 And David knew that the Lord had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom was raised up for the sake of his people Israel. –

13 And David took more wives and concubines from Jerusalem after he came from Chebron, and more sons and daughters were born to David.

14 And these are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Sammous and Sobab and Nathan and Salomon

15 and Ebear and Elisous and Naphek and Jephies

16 and Elisama and Elidae and Eliphalath,

16 and Elisama and Elidae and Eliphalath,

17 And the foreigners heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, and all the foreigners went up to seek David; and David heard and went down to the stronghold.

18 And the foreigners come and fell together in the valley of the Titans.

19 And David asked through the Lord, saying, Shall I go up against the foreigners, and will you give them into my hands? And the Lord said to David, Go up, because I will surely give the foreigners into your hands.

20 And David came from the Upper Breaches and cut down the foreigners there, and David said, The Lord has broken through my enemies the foreigners before me as waters are broken through; therefore the name of that place was called Upper Breaches.

21 And they leave their gods there, and David and the men with him took them. –

22 And the foreigners continued again to go up and fell together in the valley of the Titans.

23 And David inquired through the Lord, and the Lord said, You shall not go up to meet them; turn away from them and come upon them near the Weeping Place;

24 and it shall be when you hear the sound of the closing together of the grove of the Weeping Place, then you shall go down against them, because then the Lord will go out before you to strike in the battle against the foreigners.

25 And David did as the Lord commanded him and struck the foreigners from Gabaon to the land of Gazera.

Chapter 6

1 And David again gathered every young man from Israel, about seventy thousand.

2 And David and all the people with him rose and went from the rulers of Judah on an ascent to bring up from there the ark of God, upon which the name of the Lord of hosts, seated upon the cherubim, was invoked.

3 And he put the ark of the Lord upon a new wagon and took it from Aminadab's house on the hill; and Oza and his brothers, sons of Aminadab, drove the wagon

4 with the ark, and his brothers went before the ark.

5 And David and the sons of Israel played before the Lord with tuned instruments with strength and with songs and with lyres and harps and drums and cymbals and flutes.

6 And they come as far as the threshing floor of Nodab, and Oza stretched out his hand upon the ark of God to hold it and grasped it, because the calf had pulled it aside, to hold it.

7 And the Lord was angered with Oza, and God struck him there, and he died there beside the ark of the Lord before God.

8 And David was disheartened because the Lord had made a breach in Oza; and that place was called Breach of Oza until this day.

9 And David feared the Lord on that day, saying, How shall the ark of the Lord come in to me?

10 And David did not wish to turn aside the ark of the Lord's covenant to himself into the city of David, and David turned it aside to the house of Abeddara the Gethite.

11 And the ark of the Lord sat in the house of Abeddara the Gethite for three months; and the Lord blessed all the house of Abeddara and all that belonged to him.

12 And it was reported to King David, saying, The Lord has blessed Abeddara's house and all that belongs to him because of the ark of God. And David went and brought up the ark of the Lord from Abeddara's house to the city of David with joy.

13 And with those carrying the ark were seven dances and a sacrifice, a calf and lambs.

14 And David played with tuned instruments before the Lord, and David wore a striking garment.

15 And David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting and with the sound of a trumpet.

16 And it happened as the ark came as far as the city of David that Melchol daughter of Saul looked through the window and saw King David dancing and playing before the Lord and despised him in her heart.

17 And they carry the ark of the Lord and set it in its place in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered up whole burnt offerings before the Lord and peace offerings.

18 And David finished offering together the whole burnt offerings and peace offerings and blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts.

19 And he distributed to all the people, to all the force of Israel from Dan to Bersabee, from man to woman, to each a round loaf of bread and a hearth cake and a cake from a pan; and all the people departed, each to his house. –

20 And David returned to bless his house, and Melchol daughter of Saul went out to meet David and blessed him and said, How glorified today was the king of Israel, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of the maidservants of his servants, as one of the dancers uncovers himself uncovered.

21 And David said to Melchol, Before the Lord I will dance; blessed be the Lord, who chose me above your father and above all his house to appoint me leader over his people, over Israel; and I will play and dance before the Lord

22 and will uncover myself still thus and be worthless in your eyes and with the maidservants among whom you said I was glorified.

23 And Melchol daughter of Saul had no child until the day of her death.

Chapter 7

1 And it happened when the king sat in his house and the Lord had allotted him rest all around from all his enemies around,

2 that the king said to Nathan the prophet, Behold now, I dwell in a cedar house, and the ark of God sits in the midst of the tent.

3 And Nathan said to the king, All that is in your heart, go and do, because the Lord is with you. –

4 And it happened on that night that the word of the Lord came to Nathan, saying,

5 Go and say to my servant David, Thus says the Lord: You shall not build me a house for me to dwell in;

6 for I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the sons of Israel up from Egypt until this day, and I was walking about in a lodging place and in a tent.

7 In all the places through which I passed in all Israel, did I ever speak to one tribe of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, Why have you not built me a cedar house?

8 And now thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the Lord Almighty: I took you from the sheepfold to be a leader over my people, over Israel,

9 and I was with you in all the places where you went, and I destroyed all your enemies from before you and made you renowned like the name of the great ones on earth.

10 And I will set a place for my people Israel and plant them, and they shall dwell by themselves and no longer be anxious, and a son of wrongdoing shall not continue to humble them as from the beginning,

11 from the days when I appointed judges over my people Israel, and I will give you rest from all your enemies, and the Lord will tell you that you will build him a house.

12 And it shall be when your days are fulfilled and you sleep with your fathers that I will raise up your seed after you, who shall be from your belly, and I will establish his kingdom;

13 he shall build me a house for my name, and I will set his throne upright forever.

14 I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me; and if his wrongdoing comes, I will reprove him with a rod of men and with the touches of sons of men;

15 but my mercy I will not remove from him as I removed it from those whom I removed from before me.

16 And his house and his kingdom shall be made faithful forever before me, and his throne shall be set upright forever.

17 According to all these words and all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David. –

18 And King David entered and sat before the Lord and said, Who am I, my lord Lord, and what is my house, that you have loved me to this extent?

19 And it was made a little thing before you, my lord Lord, and you spoke concerning your servant's house for a distant time; and this is the law of man, my lord Lord.

20 And what more shall David add to speak to you? And now you know your servant, my lord Lord.

21 For the sake of your word you have done it, and according to your heart you have done all this greatness to make it known to your servant,

22 for the sake of magnifying you, my lord Lord, because there is none like you and no God besides you among all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And who is like your people Israel, another nation on the earth? As God led them to redeem a people for himself, to make you a name, to do greatness and manifestation, to cast out for you from before your people whom you redeemed for yourself from Egypt, nations and dwellings.

24 And you established for yourself your people Israel as a people forever, and you, Lord, became God to them.

25 And now, my lord Lord, the word that you spoke concerning your servant and his house, make faithful forever, Lord Almighty, God of Israel; and now as you spoke,

26 may your name be magnified forever.

27 Lord Almighty, God of Israel, you uncovered your servant's ear, saying, I will build you a house; therefore your servant found his own heart to pray this prayer to you.

28 And now, my lord Lord, you are God, and your words shall be true, and you spoke these good things concerning your servant;

29 and now begin and bless the house of your servant to be before you forever, because you are, my lord Lord, you spoke, and from your blessing your servant's house shall be blessed forever.

Chapter 8

1 And it happened after these things that David struck the foreigners and routed them; and David took the separated place from the hand of the foreigners.

2 And David struck Moab and measured them with ropes after laying them on the ground, and there were two rope measures for putting to death, and two rope measures he kept alive, and Moab became servants to David bringing gifts.

3 And David struck Adraazar son of Raab king of Souba as he went to establish his hand over the river Euphrates.

4 And David took in advance from him a thousand chariots and seven thousand horsemen and twenty thousand foot soldiers, and David disabled all the chariots and left of them a hundred chariots.

5 And Syria of Damascus comes to help Adraazar king of Souba, and David struck twenty-two thousand men among the Syrians.

6 And David set a garrison in Syria by Damascus, and the Syrian became David's servants bringing gifts. And the Lord saved David in all the places where he went. –

7 And David took the golden bracelets that were on the servants of Adraazar king of Souba and brought them to Jerusalem; and Sousakim king of Egypt took them when he came up to Jerusalem in the days of Roboam son of Solomon.

8 And from Masbak, from Adraazar's chosen cities, King David took very much bronze; with it Salomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the basins and all the equipment. –

9 And Thoou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the force of Adraazar,

10 and Thoou sent Jeddouran his son to King David to ask him about peace and bless him because he fought Adraazar and struck him, because he was opposed to Adraazar, and in his hands were silver vessels and gold vessels and bronze vessels.

11 And King David consecrated these to the Lord along with the silver and the gold that he had consecrated from all the cities he had subdued,

12 from Idumea and the land of Moab and the sons of Ammon and the foreigners and Amalek and the spoils of Adraazar son of Raab king of Souba. –

13 And David made a name; and when he returned he struck Idumea in Gaimele, eighteen thousand.

14 And he set a garrison in Idumea, in all Idumea, and all the Idumeans became servants to the king. And the Lord saved David in all the places where he went.

15 And David reigned over Israel, and David was doing judgment and righteousness for all his people.

16 And Joab son of Sarouia was over the army, and Josaphat son of Achia over the records,

17 and Saddouk son of Achitob and Achimelech son of Abiathar were priests, and Asa was the scribe,

18 and Banaias son of Jodae was counselor, and the Cheletthite and the Pheletthite; and David's sons were court leaders.

Chapter 9

1 And David said, Is anyone still left of Saul's house, that I may show mercy to him for Jonathan's sake?

2 And there was a servant from Saul's house, and his name was Siba, and they call him to David. And the king said to him, Are you Siba? And he said, I am your servant.

3 And the king said, Is a man still left of Saul's house, that I may show him God's mercy? And Siba said to the king, There is still a son of Jonathan, stricken in the feet.

4 And the king said, Where is he? And Siba said to the king, Behold, in the house of Machir son of Amiel, from Ladabar.

5 And King David sent and took him from the house of Machir son of Amiel, from Ladabar.

6 And Memphibosthe son of Jonathan son of Saul comes to King David and fell on his face and bowed to him. And David said to him, Memphibosthe; and he said, Behold, your servant.

7 And David said to him, Do not fear, because I will surely show mercy to you for Jonathan your father's sake and will restore to you every field of Saul, the father of your father, and you shall eat bread at my table always.

8 And Memphibosthe bowed and said, Who am I, your servant, that you looked upon a dead dog like me?

9 And the king called Siba, Saul's servant, and said to him, All that belonged to Saul and all his house I have given to your lord's son;

10 and you shall work the land for him, you and your sons and your servants, and bring bread to your lord's son, and he shall eat it; and Memphibosthe, your lord's son, shall always eat bread at my table. [And Siba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.]

11 And Siba said to the king, According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so your servant will do. And Memphibosthe ate at David's table like one of the king's sons.

12 And Memphibosthe had a little son, and his name was Micha. And all the household of Siba's house were servants of Memphibosthe.

13 And Memphibosthe dwelt in Jerusalem, because he always ate at the king's table; and he was lame in both his feet.

Chapter 10

1 And it happened after these things that the king of the sons of Ammon died, and Annon his son reigned in his place.

2 And David said, I will show mercy to Annon son of Naas, in the way his father showed mercy to me; and David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants concerning his father. And David's servants came to the land of the sons of Ammon.

3 And the rulers of the sons of Ammon said to Annon their lord, Is it out of honoring your father before you that David sent comforters to you? Did David not send his servants to you so that they might search the city and spy it out and examine it?

4 And Annon took David's servants and shaved their beards and cut their mantles in half as far as their hips and sent them away.

5 And they reported to David about the men, and he sent to meet them, because the men had been greatly dishonored; and the king said, Sit in Jericho until your beards grow, and you shall return. –

6 And the sons of Ammon saw that they had been shamed by David's people, and the sons of Ammon sent and hired Syria of Baithroob, twenty thousand foot soldiers, and the king of Maacha, a thousand men, and Istob, twelve thousand men.

7 And David heard and sent Joab and all the force, the mighty men.

8 And the sons of Ammon went out and drew up for battle by the door of the gate, and Syria of Souba and Roob and Istob and Maacha were alone in the field.

9 And Joab saw that the face of battle was against him, from the front opposite him and from behind, and chose from all the young men of Israel, and they drew up opposite Syria.

10 And the remainder of the people he placed in the hand of Abessa his brother, and they drew up opposite the sons of Ammon.

11 And he said, If Syria grows strong against me, you shall be for my salvation, and if the sons of Ammon grow strong against you, we shall save you;

12 be a man, and let us grow strong for our people and for the cities of our God, and the Lord will do what is good in his eyes.

13 And Joab and his people with him came forward for battle against Syria, and they fled before him.

14 And the sons of Ammon saw that Syria had fled, and they fled before Abessa and entered the city. And Joab returned from the sons of Ammon, and they came to Jerusalem. –

15 And Syria saw that it had stumbled before Israel, and they gathered together.

16 And Adraazar sent and gathered the Syrians from beyond the river Chalamak, and they came to Ailam, and Sobak, commander of Adraazar's force, was before them.

17 And it was reported to David, and he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan and came to Ailam; and Syria drew up opposite David and fought with him.

18 And Syria fled before Israel, and David slew from Syria seven hundred chariots and forty thousand horsemen; and he struck Sobak the commander of his force, and he died there.

19 And all the kings who were servants of Adraazar saw that they had stumbled before Israel, and they deserted to Israel and served them. And Syria feared to save the sons of Ammon any longer.

Chapter 11

1 And it happened when the year turned at the time of the going out of kings that David sent Joab and his servants with him and all Israel, and they destroyed the sons of Ammon and sat besieging Rabbath; and David sat in Jerusalem.

2 And it happened toward evening that David rose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house and saw a woman bathing from the roof, and the woman was very beautiful in appearance.

3 And David sent and sought out the woman, and he said, Is this not Bersabee daughter of Eliab, wife of Ourias the Chettite?

4 And David sent messengers and took her, and she came to him, and he slept with her, and she was being sanctified from her uncleanness, and she returned to her house.

5 And the woman conceived; and she sent and told David and said, I am with child.

6 And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Ourias the Chettite; and Joab sent Ourias to David.

7 And Ourias comes and entered to him, and David asked about the peace of Joab and the peace of the people and the peace of the war.

8 And David said to Ourias, Go down to your house and wash your feet; and Ourias went out from the king's house, and a gift from the king went out after him.

9 And Ourias slept by the king's door with his lord's servants and did not go down to his house.

10 And they told David, saying that Ourias did not go down to his house. And David said to Ourias, Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?

11 And Ourias said to David, The ark and Israel and Judah dwell in tents, and my lord Joab and my lord's servants are encamped upon the face of the field; and shall I enter my house to eat and drink and sleep with my wife? How? As your soul lives, I shall not do this thing.

12 And David said to Ourias, Sit here today too, and tomorrow I will send you away; and Ourias sat in Jerusalem that day and the next.

13 And David called him, and he ate before him and drank, and he made him drunk; and he went out in the evening to sleep on his bed with his lord's servants, and did not go down to his house.

14 And it happened in the morning that David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it in Ourias's hand.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Bring Ourias opposite the strong battle, and turn back from behind him, and he shall be struck and die.

16 And it happened as Joab watched the city that he placed Ourias in the place where he knew that mighty men were.

17 And the men of the city went out and fought with Joab, and some of the people of David's servants fell, and Ourias the Chettite died too.

18 And Joab sent and reported to the king all the words of the war

19 and commanded the messenger, saying, When you finish speaking all the words of the war to the king,

20 it shall be, if the king's anger rises and he says to you, Why did you approach the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from above the wall?

21 Who struck Abimelech son of Jerobaal? Did a woman not throw a piece of millstone on him from above the wall, and he died in Thamasi? Why did you approach the wall? Then say, Your servant Ourias the Chettite also died.

22 And Joab's messenger went to the king in Jerusalem and came and reported to David all that Joab had reported to him, all the words of the war. And David was angered with Joab and said to the messenger, Why did you approach the city to fight? Did you not know that you would be struck from the wall? Who struck Abimelech son of Jerobaal? Did a woman not throw a piece of millstone on him from the wall, and he died in Thamasi? Why did you approach the wall?

23 And the messenger said to David, Because the men grew strong against us and came out against us into the field, and we came upon them as far as the door of the gate,

24 and the archers shot at your servants from above the wall, and some of the king's servants died, and your servant Ourias the Chettite died too.

25 And David said to the messenger, Thus you shall say to Joab: Let this thing not be evil in your eyes, because sometimes thus and sometimes thus the sword devours; strengthen your battle against the city and pull it down and strengthen him.

26 And Ourias's wife heard that Ourias her husband had died, and she mourned her husband.

27 And the mourning passed, and David sent and gathered her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. And the thing that David had done appeared evil in the eyes of the Lord.

Chapter 12

1 And the Lord sent Nathan the prophet to David, and he entered to him and said to him, There were two men in one city, one rich and one poor;

2 and the rich man had very many flocks and herds,

3 but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb, which he acquired and kept and raised, and it grew with him and with his sons together, ate from his bread and drank from his cup and slept in his bosom and was like a daughter to him;

4 and a traveler came to the rich man, and he spared taking from his flocks and his herds to prepare for the traveling stranger who had come to him, and he took the poor man's ewe lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him.

5 And David was very angry with the man, and David said to Nathan, As the Lord lives, the man who did this is a son of death,

6 and he shall repay the ewe lamb sevenfold because he did this thing and because he did not spare.

7 And Nathan said to David, You are the man who did this; thus says the Lord God of Israel: I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from Saul's hand

8 and gave you your lord's house and your lord's wives into your bosom and gave you the house of Israel and Judah; and if it is little, I will add to you according to these things.

9 Why did you slight the word of the Lord to do evil in his eyes? You struck Ourias the Chettite with the sword and took his wife as a wife for yourself, and you killed him by the sword of the sons of Ammon.

10 And now the sword shall not depart from your house forever because you despised me and took the wife of Ourias the Chettite to be your wife.

11 Thus says the Lord: Behold, I am raising up evils against you from your house, and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall sleep with your wives before this sun;

12 because you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel and before this sun.

13 And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord. And Nathan said to David, And the Lord has passed over your sin; you shall certainly not die;

14 except that by this thing you have surely provoked the Lord's enemies, and your son born to you shall surely die.

15 And Nathan departed to his house. And the Lord struck the child whom Ourias's wife bore to David, and it became sick.

16 And David sought God for the young child, and David fasted a fast and went in and spent the night in sackcloth on the ground.

17 And the elders of his house rose over him to raise him from the ground, and he would not and did not eat bread with them.

18 And it happened on the seventh day that the young child died; and David's servants feared to tell him that the young child had died, because they said, Behold, while the young child still lived we spoke to him and he did not listen to our voice; and how shall we say to him that the young child has died? And he will do evil.

19 And David understood that his servants were whispering, and David perceived that the young child had died; and David said to his servants, Has the young child died? And they said, He has died.

20 And David rose from the ground and washed and anointed himself and changed his garments and entered the house of God and worshiped him; and he entered his house and asked for bread to eat, and they set bread before him, and he ate.

21 And his servants said to him, What is this thing you have done? For the sake of the young child while he was still living you fasted and wept and kept vigil, and when the young child died, you rose and ate bread and drank.

22 And David said, While the young child still lived I fasted and wept, because I said, Who knows if the Lord will have mercy on me and the young child will live?

23 And now he has died; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, and he shall not return to me.

24 And David comforted Bersabee his wife and went in to her and slept with her, and she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Salomon, and the Lord loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and he called his name Jededi for the Lord's sake.

26 And Joab fought in Rabbath of the sons of Ammon and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David and said, I fought in Rabbath and took the city of the waters;

28 and now gather the remainder of the people and encamp against the city and take it first, lest I take the city first and my name be called upon it.

29 And David gathered all the people and went to Rabbath and fought in it and took it.

30 And he took the crown of Melchol their king from his head, and its weight was a talent of gold and a precious stone, and it was upon David's head; and he brought out very much spoil from the city.

31 And he brought out the people in it and placed them in the saw and the iron threshing tools and led them through the brickworks; and thus he did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Chapter 13

1 And it happened after these things that Abessalom son of David had a sister very beautiful in appearance, and her name was Themar, and Amnon son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was distressed to the point of becoming ill because of Themar his sister, because she was a virgin, and it was excessive in Amnon's eyes to do anything to her.

3 And Amnon had a companion, and his name was Jonadab son of Samaa, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very clever man.

4 And he said to him, Why are you thus weak, king's son, morning by morning? Will you not tell me? And Amnon said to him, I love Themar, the sister of my brother Abessalom.

5 And Jonadab said to him, Lie on your bed and act ill, and your father will enter to see you, and you shall say to him, Let Themar my sister come and feed me and prepare food before my eyes, so that I may see and eat from her hands.

6 And Amnon lay down and became ill, and the king entered to see him, and Amnon said to the king, Let Themar my sister come to me and make two small loaves before my eyes, and I will eat from her hand.

7 And David sent to Themar in the house, saying, Go now to the house of Amnon your brother and prepare food for him.

8 And Themar went to the house of Amnon her brother, and he was lying down. And she took the dough and kneaded it and made small loaves before his eyes and baked the loaves;

9 and she took the pan and emptied it before him, and he did not wish to eat. And Amnon said, Bring every man out from me; and they brought every man out from him.

10 And Amnon said to Themar, Bring the food into the chamber, and I will eat from your hand. And Themar took the small loaves she had made and brought them to Amnon her brother into the bedroom

11 and brought them to him to eat, and he seized her and said to her, Come, sleep with me, my sister.

12 And she said to him, No, my brother, do not humble me, because this is not done in Israel; do not do this folly;

13 and where shall I carry my reproach? And you shall be like one of the fools in Israel; and now speak to the king, because he will certainly not withhold me from you.

14 And Amnon did not wish to listen to her voice and grew stronger than she and humbled her and slept with her.

15 And Amnon hated her with a very great hatred, because the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, Rise and go.

16 And Themar said to him, No, brother, because this last evil is greater than the first that you did with me, to send me away. And Amnon did not wish to listen to her voice.

17 And he called his young man who stood over his house and said to him, Send this woman out from me now and shut the door behind her.

18 And she wore a many-colored tunic, because thus the king's daughters who were virgins wore their outer garments; and his attendant brought her out and shut the door behind her;

19 and Themar took ashes and put them on her head and tore the many-colored tunic she wore and put her hands upon her head and went on walking and crying out.

20 And Abessalom her brother said to her, Has Amnon your brother been with you? And now, my sister, be silent, for he is your brother; do not set your heart to speak about this thing. And Themar sat desolate in the house of Abessalom her brother.

21 And King David heard all these words and was very angry; and he did not grieve the spirit of Amnon his son, because he loved him, because he was his firstborn.

22 And Abessalom did not speak with Amnon from evil to good, because Abessalom hated Amnon on account of the matter that he had humbled Themar his sister.

23 And it happened after two years of days that they were shearing for Abessalom in Belasor adjoining Ephraim, and Abessalom called all the king's sons.

24 And Abessalom came to the king and said, Behold now, they are shearing for your servant; let the king and his servants go with your servant.

25 And the king said to Abessalom, No, my son, let not all of us go, lest we burden you. And he pressed him, but he did not wish to go and blessed him.

26 And Abessalom said, But if not, let Amnon my brother go with us. And the king said to him, Why should he go with you?

27 And Abessalom pressed him, and he sent Amnon and all the king's sons with him. And Abessalom made a drinking feast like the king's feast.

28 And Abessalom commanded his young men, saying, Watch when Amnon's heart becomes glad with wine and I say to you, Strike Amnon, and put him to death; do not fear, for is it not I who command you? Be men and become sons of strength.

29 And Abessalom's young men did to Amnon as Abessalom commanded them. And all the king's sons rose and each mounted his mule and fled.

30 And it happened while they were on the road that the report came to David, saying, Abessalom has struck all the king's sons, and not even one of them has been left.

31 And the king rose and tore his garments and lay upon the ground, and all his servants standing around him tore their garments.

32 And Jonadab son of Samaa, David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord the king say that he put to death all the young men, the king's sons, because Amnon alone has died; for it had lain on Abessalom's mouth since the day he humbled Themar his sister;

33 and now let not my lord the king place a word on his heart saying, All the king's sons have died, because only Amnon alone has died.

34 And Abessalom escaped. And the young watchman raised his eyes and saw, and behold, many people going on the road behind him from the side of the mountain on the descent; and the watchman came and reported to the king and said, I have seen men from the road of Oronen from the side of the mountain.

35 And Jonadab said to the king, Behold, the king's sons are present; according to your servant's word, so it happened.

36 And it happened when he finished speaking that behold, the king's sons came and raised their voices and wept, and the king and all his servants also wept with a very great weeping.

37 And Abessalom fled and went to Tholmai son of Emioud king of Gedsour in the land of Machad. And King David mourned his son all the days.

38 And Abessalom escaped and went to Gedsour and was there three years.

39 And the king's spirit ceased from going out after Abessalom, because he was comforted over Amnon, because he had died.

Chapter 14

1 And Joab son of Sarouia knew that the king's heart was upon Abessalom.

2 And Joab sent to Thekoe and took a wise woman from there and said to her, Mourn now and put on mourning garments and do not anoint yourself with oil, and be like a woman mourning one who has died for many days,

3 and you shall go to the king and speak to him according to this word; and Joab placed the words in her mouth.

4 And the Thekoite woman entered to the king and fell on her face to the ground and bowed to him and said, Save, king, save.

5 And the king said to her, What is it with you? And she said, I am indeed a widow, and my husband died.

6 And your servant had two sons, and they both fought in the field, and there was no one to deliver between them, and the one struck his brother and put him to death.

7 And behold, the whole family rose against your servant and said, Give the one who struck his brother, and we will put him to death in exchange for his brother's life whom he killed, and we will remove your heir too; and they will extinguish my remaining coal so as not to leave my husband a remnant and a name on the face of the earth.

8 And the king said, Go in health to your house, and I will command concerning you.

9 And the Thekoite woman said to the king, Upon me, my lord king, be the lawlessness and upon my father's house, and the king and his throne are innocent.

10 And the king said, Who is the one speaking to you? Bring him to me, and he will no longer continue to touch him.

11 And she said, Let the king remember the Lord his God, lest a kinsman of blood multiply to destroy, and they shall certainly not remove my son. And he said, As the Lord lives, not a hair of your son shall fall to the ground.

12 And the woman said, Let your servant speak a word to my lord the king. And he said, Speak.

13 And the woman said, Why did you reckon such a thing against God's people? Is this word from the king's mouth like an offense, in that the king does not bring back his own banished one?

14 For we shall surely die, and like water poured upon the earth that shall not be gathered; and God will take a life, and he reckons concerning driving away a banished one from himself.

15 And now I have come to speak this word to my lord the king because the people will see me, and your servant will say, Let me now speak to the king, if perhaps the king will do the word of his servant;

16 for the king will listen to deliver his servant from the hand of the man seeking to remove me and my son from God's inheritance.

17 And the woman said, May the word of my lord the king be a sacrifice, because like an angel of God, so is my lord the king in hearing the good and the evil, and the Lord your God shall be with you.

18 And the king answered and said to the woman, Do not hide from me the thing I ask you. And the woman said, Let my lord the king speak.

19 And the king said, Is Joab's hand with you in all this? And the woman said to the king, As your soul lives, my lord king, there is nothing to the right or to the left of all that my lord the king has spoken, because your servant Joab himself commanded me and himself placed all these words in your servant's mouth;

20 for the sake of going around the face of this matter your servant Joab did this thing, and my lord is wise like the wisdom of an angel of God to know all that is in the land.

21 And the king said to Joab, Behold, I have done for you according to this word of yours; go, bring back the young man Abessalom.

22 And Joab fell on his face to the ground and bowed and blessed the king, and Joab said, Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your eyes, my lord king, because my lord the king has done the word of his servant.

23 And Joab rose and went to Gedsour and brought Abessalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him return to his house and not see my face. And Abessalom returned to his house and did not see the king's face. –

25 And there was no man in all Israel so greatly praised as Abessalom; from the sole of his foot to the top of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he sheared his head – and it happened from the beginning of days to days whenever he was sheared, because it weighed heavily upon him – when he sheared it, he weighed the hair of his head, two hundred shekels by the royal shekel.

27 And three sons and one daughter were born to Abessalom, and her name was Themar; she was a very beautiful woman and became the wife of Roboam son of Salomon and bore him Abia.

28 And Abessalom sat in Jerusalem two years of days and did not see the king's face.

29 And Abessalom sent to Joab to send him to the king, and he did not wish to come to him; and he sent to him a second time, and he did not wish to come.

30 And Abessalom said to his servants, See Joab's portion in the field adjoining mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire; and Abessalom's servants set it on fire. And Joab's servants come to him with their garments torn and said, Abessalom's servants burned the portion with fire.

31 And Joab rose and came to Abessalom in the house and said to him, Why did your servants burn my portion with fire?

32 And Abessalom said to Joab, Behold, I sent to you, saying, Come here and I will send you to the king, saying, Why did I come from Gedsour? It was good for me to remain there; and now behold, I have not seen the king's face; and if there is wrongdoing in me, put me to death.

33 And Joab entered to the king and told him, and he called Abessalom, and he entered to the king and bowed to him and fell on his face to the ground before the king, and the king kissed Abessalom.

Chapter 15

1 And it happened after these things that Abessalom made for himself chariots and horses and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Abessalom rose early and stood beside the way of the gate, and it happened that every man who had a case came to the king for judgment, and Abessalom would call to him and say to him, From what city are you? And the man said, Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And Abessalom said to him, Behold, your words are good and easy, but there is no one from the king to hear you;

4 and Abessalom said, Who will appoint me judge in the land, so that every man who has a dispute and judgment may come to me, and I will vindicate him?

5 And it happened when a man drew near to bow to him that he stretched out his hand and took hold of him and kissed him.

6 And Abessalom did according to this thing to all Israel who came to the king for judgment, and Abessalom made the hearts of Israel's men his own.

7 And it happened at the end of forty years that Abessalom said to his father, Let me go now and pay my vows which I vowed to the Lord in Chebron;

8 for your servant vowed a vow while I dwelt in Gedsour in Syria, saying, If the Lord surely returns me to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord.

9 And the king said to him, Go in peace; and he rose and went to Chebron.

10 And Abessalom sent scouts among all the tribes of Israel, saying, When you hear the sound of the horn, you shall say, Abessalom has become king in Chebron.

11 And with Abessalom went two hundred invited men from Jerusalem, going in their simplicity, and they knew nothing of the matter.

12 And Abessalom sent and called Achitophel the Gelmonite, David's counselor, from his city, from Gola, while he was sacrificing. And the band became strong, and the people going with Abessalom were many.

13 And one reporting came to David, saying, The heart of Israel's men has gone after Abessalom.

14 And David said to all his servants with him in Jerusalem, Rise and let us flee, because there is no salvation for us from before Abessalom; hurry to go, lest he hurry and overtake us and thrust evil upon us and strike the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said to the king, According to all that our lord the king chooses, behold, your servants.

16 And the king and all his household went out on their feet; and the king left ten women of his concubines to guard the house.

17 And the king and all his servants went out on foot and stood at the distant house.

18 And all his servants passed by his side, and all the Chetti and all the Pheletthe stood by the olive tree in the wilderness; and all the people passed along beside him and all those around him and all the mature men and all the warriors, six hundred men, and stood beside him; and all the Cheretthite and all the Pheletthite and all the Gethites, six hundred men who had come on foot from Geth, went before the king.

19 And the king said to Etthi the Gethite, Why do you too go with us? Return and dwell with the king, because you are a foreigner and have migrated from your place.

20 If you arrived yesterday, shall I move you with us today and will you move from your place? Yesterday was your departure, and today shall I move you with us to go? And I will go wherever I go. Return and take your brothers back with you, and the Lord will show you mercy and truth.

21 And Etthi answered the king and said, As the Lord lives and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord is, whether for death or for life, there your servant shall be.

22 And the king said to Etthi, Come and cross with me; and Etthi the Gethite passed along and all his servants and all the crowd with him.

23 And all the land wept with a great voice. And all the people were passing through the torrent bed Kedron, and the king crossed the torrent bed Kedron; and all the people and the king passed on toward the wilderness road. –

24 And behold, Saddok too and all the Levites with him carried the ark of the Lord's covenant from Baithar and set down the ark of God, and Abiathar went up, until all the people had finished passing out of the city.

25 And the king said to Saddok, Return the ark of God to the city; if I find favor in the Lord's eyes, he will bring me back and show me it and its beauty;

26 and if he says thus, I have not desired you, behold, here I am, let him do to me what is good in his eyes.

27 And the king said to Saddok the priest, See, you return to the city in peace, and Achimaas your son and Jonathan son of Abiathar, your two sons, with you;

28 see, I will be encamped in the plains of the wilderness until a word comes from you to tell me.

29 And Saddok and Abiathar returned the ark to Jerusalem and sat there.

30 And David went up the ascent of the olives, going up and weeping, his head covered, and he went barefoot, and all the people with him, each man covered his head, and they went up, going up and weeping. –

31 And it was reported to David, saying, Achitophel too is among those conspiring with Abessalom; and David said, Scatter now Achitophel's counsel, Lord my God.

32 And David was coming as far as Roos, where he worshiped God, and behold, Chousi the Archite, David's companion, came to meet him with his tunic torn and earth on his head.

33 And David said to him, If you cross with me, you will be a burden to me;

34 but if you return to the city, you shall say to Abessalom, Your brothers have passed through, and the king, your father, passed through behind me, and now I am your servant, king, let me live; I was your father's servant then and just now, and now I am your servant; and you will scatter Achitophel's counsel for me.

35 And behold, Saddok and Abiathar the priests are there with you, and every word that you hear from the king's house you shall report to Saddok and Abiathar the priests;

36 behold, there with them are their two sons, Achimaas son of Saddok and Jonathan son of Abiathar, and by their hand you shall send me every word that you hear.

37 And Chousi, David's companion, entered the city, and Abessalom was entering Jerusalem. –

Chapter 16

1 And David passed a little way from Roos, and behold, Siba, Memphibosthe's servant, met him with a pair of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves and a hundred clusters of raisins and a hundred dates and a skin of wine.

2 And the king said to Siba, What are these for you? And Siba said, The beasts of burden are for the king's household to ride, and the loaves and dates for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who are faint in the wilderness to drink.

3 And the king said, And where is your lord's son? And Siba said to the king, Behold, he sits in Jerusalem, because he said, Today the house of Israel will restore to me my father's kingdom.

4 And the king said to Siba, Behold, all that belongs to Memphibosthe is yours. And Siba bowed and said, May I find favor in your eyes, my lord king. –

5 And King David came as far as Baourim; and behold, a man came out from there, from the kinship of Saul's house, and his name was Semei son of Gera; he came out going and cursing

6 and stoning David and all the servants of King David with stones, and all the people and all the mighty men were on the king's right and left.

7 And thus Semei said as he cursed him, Go out, go out, man of blood and lawless man;

8 the Lord has returned upon you all the blood of Saul's house, because you reigned in his place, and the Lord has given the kingdom into the hand of Abessalom your son; and behold, you are in your evil, because you are a man of blood.

9 And Abessa son of Sarouia said to the king, Why does this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me cross over now and take off his head.

10 And the king said, What is it to me and to you, sons of Sarouia? Leave him, and let him curse thus, because the Lord said to him to curse David, and who shall say, Why have you done thus?

11 And David said to Abessa and to all his servants, Behold, my son who came from my belly seeks my life, and still more now the son of the Jeminite; leave him to curse, because the Lord said it to him;

12 perhaps the Lord will look on my humiliation and return good to me instead of his curse on this day.

13 And David and his men went on the road, and Semei went beside the mountain next to him, going and cursing and stoning with stones at his side and sprinkling with dust.

14 And the king and all his people came exhausted and refreshed themselves there.

15 And Abessalom and every man of Israel entered Jerusalem, and Achitophel with him.

16 And it happened when Chousi the Archite, David's companion, came to Abessalom that Chousi said to Abessalom, Long live the king.

17 And Abessalom said to Chousi, Is this your mercy to your companion? Why did you not depart with your companion?

18 And Chousi said to Abessalom, No, but I shall be with the one whom the Lord and this people and every man of Israel chose, and sit with him;

19 and secondly, whom shall I serve? Is it not before his son? As I served before your father, so I shall be before you.

20 And Abessalom said to Achitophel, Bring counsel among yourselves about what we shall do.

21 And Achitophel said to Abessalom, Go in to your father's concubines whom he left to guard his house, and all Israel will hear that you have shamed your father, and the hands of all those with you will be strengthened.

22 And they pitched a tent for Abessalom on the roof, and Abessalom went in to his father's concubines before the eyes of all Israel.

23 And Achitophel's counsel, which he counseled in the former days, was as though one inquired by a word of God; so was all Achitophel's counsel both to David and to Abessalom. –

Chapter 17

1 And Achitophel said to Abessalom, Let me choose twelve thousand men for myself now, and I will rise and pursue after David by night;

2 and I will come upon him while he is weary and weak in his hands, and I will terrify him, and all the people with him will flee, and I will strike the king alone;

3 and I will turn all the people back to you in the way the bride returns to her husband; you seek only the life of one man, and there shall be peace for all the people.

4 And the word was right in the eyes of Abessalom and all the elders of Israel.

5 And Abessalom said, Call Chousi the Arachite too, and let us hear what is in his mouth also.

6 And Chousi entered to Abessalom; and Abessalom said to him, saying, According to this word Achitophel spoke; shall we do according to his word? If not, speak yourself.

7 And Chousi said to Abessalom, This counsel that Achitophel counseled is not good this time.

8 And Chousi said, You know your father and his men, that they are very mighty and bitter in their soul like a bear bereft of young in the field and like a rough pig in the plain, and your father is a warrior and will certainly not lodge with the people;

9 for behold, he is now hidden in one of the hills or in one of the places, and it shall be when he falls upon them at the start and one hearing hears and says, There has been a breaking among the people following Abessalom,

10 then even a son of strength whose heart is like a lion's heart will surely melt, because all Israel knows that your father is mighty and the sons of strength are with him.

11 For thus I counsel: Let all Israel surely gather to you from Dan to Bersabee as numerous as the sand on the sea, and let your face go in their midst,

12 and we shall come to him in one of the places where we find him there and encamp against him as the dew falls upon the land, and we shall leave neither him nor any one of the men with him;

13 and if he is gathered into a city, all Israel will take ropes to that city, and we shall drag it to the torrent bed so that not even a stone is left there.

14 And Abessalom and every man of Israel said, The counsel of Chousi the Arachite is better than Achitophel's counsel; and the Lord commanded that Achitophel's good counsel be scattered, so that the Lord might bring all the evils upon Abessalom. –

15 And Chousi the Arachite said to Saddok and Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus Achitophel counseled Abessalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and thus I counseled;

16 and now send quickly and tell David, saying, Do not spend the night in the plains of the wilderness, but hurry to cross over, lest he swallow up the king and all the people with him.

17 And Jonathan and Achimaas stood by the spring of Rogel, and the young woman went and told them, and they go and tell King David, because they could not be seen entering the city.

18 And a young man saw them and told Abessalom, and the two went quickly and entered a man's house in Baourim, and he had a cistern in the courtyard, and they went down there.

19 And the woman took and spread the covering over the mouth of the cistern and spread araphoth upon it, and nothing was known.

20 And Abessalom's servants came to the woman at the house and said, Where are Achimaas and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They passed a little beyond the water; and they sought and did not find them and returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it happened after they departed that the two came up from the cistern and went and told King David and said to David, Rise and cross the water quickly, because Achitophel counseled thus concerning you.

22 And David and all the people with him rose and crossed the Jordan by the light of morning; not one escaped notice who had not crossed the Jordan.

23 And Achitophel saw that his counsel had not been followed, and saddled his donkey and rose and departed to his house in his city; and he commanded his house and hanged himself and died and was buried in his father's tomb.

24 And David passed into Manaim, and Abessalom crossed the Jordan, he and every man of Israel with him.

25 And Abessalom appointed Amessai over the army instead of Joab; and Amessai was the son of a man whose name was Jothor the Israelite, who went in to Abigaia daughter of Naas, sister of Sarouia, Joab's mother.

26 And all Israel and Abessalom encamped in the land of Galaad.

27 And it happened when David came to Manaim that Ouesbi son of Naas from Rabbath of the sons of Ammon and Machir son of Amiel from Lodabar and Berzelli the Galaadite from Rogellim

28 brought ten beds and rugs and ten cauldrons and earthen vessels and wheat and barley and flour and meal and beans and lentils

29 and honey and butter and sheep and sapphoth of cattle, and brought them for David and the people with him to eat, because they said, The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.

Chapter 18

1 And David mustered the people with him and appointed over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds,

2 and David sent the people, a third in Joab's hand and a third in the hand of Abessa son of Sarouia, Joab's brother, and a third in the hand of Etthi the Gethite. And David said to the people, I too shall surely go out with you.

3 And they said, You shall not go out, because if we flee, they will not set their heart upon us, and if half of us die, they will not set their heart upon us, because you are like ten thousand of us; and now it is good for you to be in the city as help to help us.

4 And the king said to them, Whatever is pleasing in your eyes I will do. And the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abessa and Etthi, saying, Spare the young man Abessalom for me; and all the people heard the king commanding all the rulers concerning Abessalom.

6 And all the people went out into the forest opposite Israel, and the battle took place in the forest of Ephraim.

7 And Israel's people stumbled there before David's servants, and the breaking on that day was great, twenty thousand men.

8 And the battle there was scattered over the face of all the land, and the forest exceeded in devouring among the people those whom the sword devoured among the people on that day.

9 And Abessalom met before David's servants, and Abessalom was mounted on his mule, and the mule entered under the thicket of the great oak, and his head was caught in the oak, and he hung between heaven and earth, and the mule beneath him passed on.

10 And one man saw and reported to Joab and said, Behold, I have seen Abessalom hanging in the oak.

11 And Joab said to the man reporting, And behold, you saw; why did you not strike him to the ground? And I would have given you ten pieces of silver and one belt.

12 But the man said to Joab, Even if I stand upon my hands a thousand shekels of silver, I shall certainly not lay my hand upon the king's son, because in our ears the king commanded you and Abessa and Etthi, saying, Guard for me the young man Abessalom, 13 so as not to do wrong to his life; and no matter will be hidden from the king, and you would stand opposite.

14 And Joab said, I will begin this; I shall not remain thus before you. And Joab took three darts in his hand and fixed them in Abessalom's heart while he was still alive in the heart of the oak,

15 and ten young men carrying Joab's equipment surrounded and struck Abessalom and put him to death.

16 And Joab sounded the horn, and the people turned back from pursuing Israel, because Joab spared the people.

17 And he took Abessalom and threw him into a great chasm in the forest, into the great pit, and set up over him a very great heap of stones. And all Israel fled, each man to his dwelling.

18 And Abessalom while still alive had set up a pillar for himself, at which he was taken, and he erected it to take the pillar in the king's valley, because he said, He has no son to make his name remembered; and he called the pillar Hand of Abessalom until this day.

19 And Achimaas son of Saddok said, Let me run now and announce good news to the king that the Lord has judged for him from the hand of his enemies.

20 And Joab said to him, You are not a man of good news on this day, and you shall announce good news on another day, but on this day you shall not, because the king's son has died.

21 And Joab said to Chousi, Go and tell the king what you saw; and Chousi bowed to Joab and went out.

22 And Achimaas son of Saddok continued and said to Joab, And let it be that I too run after Chousi. And Joab said, Why do you run thus, my son? Come, there is no good news for your benefit in going.

23 And he said, For what if I run? And Joab said to him, Run. And Achimaas ran by the road of Kechar and passed Chousi. –

24 And David sat between the two gates. And the watchman went to the roof of the gate by the wall and raised his eyes and saw, and behold, a man running alone before him,

25 and the watchman cried out and told the king. And the king said, If he is alone, there is good news in his mouth. And he went on coming closer.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman cried out at the gate and said, Behold, another man running alone. And the king said, This one too brings good news.

27 And the watchman said, I see the running of the first like the running of Achimaas son of Saddok. And the king said, This is a good man, and he will come with good news.

28 And Achimaas cried out and said to the king, Peace; and bowed to the king on his face to the ground; and said, Blessed be the Lord your God, who shut in the men who hated their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is there peace for the young man Abessalom? And Achimaas said, I saw a great crowd when Joab sent the king's servant and your servant, and I did not know what was there.

30 And the king said, Turn aside, stand here; and he turned aside and stood.

31 And behold, Chousi arrived and said to the king, Let good news be announced to my lord the king, because the Lord has judged for you today from the hand of all those rising against you.

32 And the king said to Chousi, Is there peace for the young man Abessalom? And Chousi said, May the enemies of my lord the king and all those who rose against him for evil be like the young man.

Chapter 19

1 And the king was troubled and went up to the upper room of the gate and wept; and thus he said as he went, My son Abessalom, my son, my son Abessalom, who would give my death instead of you, I instead of you? Abessalom, my son, my son.

2 And it was reported to Joab, saying, Behold, the king weeps and mourns over Abessalom.

3 And the salvation on that day became mourning for all the people, because the people heard on that day, saying, The king grieves over his son.

4 And the people stole into the city on that day, as people steal in when ashamed as they flee in battle.

5 And the king covered his face, and the king cried with a great voice, saying, My son Abessalom, Abessalom my son.

6 And Joab came to the king into the house and said, Today you have shamed the faces of all your servants who delivered you today, and the lives of your sons and your daughters, and the lives of your wives and your concubines,

7 by loving those who hate you and hating those who love you; and today you have declared that your rulers and servants are nothing, for I have known today that if Abessalom were alive and all of us dead today, then it would have been right in your eyes.

8 And now arise, go out, and speak to the heart of your servants, for I have sworn by the Lord that if you do not go out today, if a man will lodge with you this night; and know for yourself that this will be worse for you than all the evil that has come upon you from your youth until now.

9 And the king arose and sat in the gate, and all the people were told, saying, Behold, the king sits in the gate; and all the people came before the king. And Israel fled, each man to his tent.

10 And all the people were disputing among all the tribes of Israel, saying, King David rescued us from all our enemies, and he delivered us from the hand of the foreigners, and now he has fled from the land and from his kingdom because of Abessalom.

11 And Abessalom, whom we anointed over us, died in the battle; and now why are you silent about bringing back the king? And the word of all Israel came to the king.

12 And King David sent to Sadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house? And the word of all Israel came to the king.

13 You are my brothers, my bones and my flesh you are; and why are you the last to bring the king back to his house?

14 And to Amessai you shall say, Are you not my bone and my flesh? And now may God do thus to me and thus add, if you are not commander of the force before me all the days instead of Joab.

15 And he inclined the heart of every man of Judah as one man, and they sent to the king, saying, Return, you and all your servants.

16 And the king returned and came as far as the Jordan, and the men of Judah came to Galgala to go to meet the king, to bring the king across the Jordan.

17 And Semei son of Gera, son of the Jemeni, from Baurim, hastened and went down with the man of Judah to meet King David,

18 and a thousand men with him from Benjamin, and Siba, the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons with him and his twenty servants with him; and they made their way to the Jordan ahead of the king

19 and performed the service of bringing the king across, and the crossing crossed over to move the king's household and to do what was right in his eyes. And Semei son of Gera fell on his face before the king as he crossed the Jordan

20 and said to the king, Let my lord not reckon lawlessness, and do not remember how your servant did wrong on the day when my lord the king went out from Jerusalem, so that the king should lay it to his heart,

21 because your servant knows that I sinned, and behold, I came today first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.

22 And Abessa son of Sarouia answered and said, Shall Semei not be put to death for this, because he cursed the Lord's anointed?

23 And David said, What is there between me and you, sons of Sarouia, that you become an adversary to me today? Shall any man of Israel be put to death today? For do I not know that today I reign over Israel?

24 And the king said to Semei, You shall certainly not die; and the king swore to him.

25 And Memphibosthe son of Jonathan son of Saul went down to meet the king; and he had not cared for his feet, nor trimmed his nails, nor tended his mustache, nor washed his garments from the day the king departed until the day he arrived in peace.

26 And it happened when he came into Jerusalem to meet the king that the king said to him, Why did you not go with me, Memphibosthe?

27 And Memphibosthe said to him, My lord king, my servant deceived me, for your servant said to him, Saddle the donkey for me and I will mount it and go with the king, for your servant is lame.

28 And he schemed against your servant before my lord the king; and my lord the king is like an angel of God, so do what is good in your eyes.

29 For all my father's house was nothing but men of death to my lord the king, and you placed your servant among those eating at your table; and what right have I still, even to cry out any more to the king?

30 And the king said to him, Why do you still speak your words? I said, You and Siba shall divide the field.

31 And Memphibosthe said to the king, Let him indeed take everything, now that my lord the king has come in peace to his house.

32 And Berzelli the Galaadite came down from Rogellim and crossed the Jordan with the king to send him across the Jordan.

33 And Berzelli was a very old man, a son of eighty years, and he had sustained the king while he lived in Manaim, for he was a very great man.

34 And the king said to Berzelli, You shall cross with me, and I will sustain your old age with me in Jerusalem.

35 And Berzelli said to the king, How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?

36 A son of eighty years am I today; shall I discern between good and evil? Or will your servant still taste what I eat or drink? Or will I still hear the voice of men and women singing? Why should your servant still be a burden upon my lord the king?

37 Your servant will cross the Jordan with the king for a little while; and why should the king repay me this recompense?

38 Let your servant stay, and I shall die in my city by the tomb of my father and my mother; and behold, your servant Chamaam shall cross with my lord the king, and do for him what is good in your eyes.

39 And the king said, Let Chamaam cross with me, and I will do for him what is good in your eyes, and all that you choose for me I will do for you.

40 And all the people crossed the Jordan, and the king crossed; and the king kissed Berzelli and blessed him, and he returned to his place.

41 And the king crossed to Galgala, and Chamaam crossed with him, and all the people of Judah crossed with the king, and indeed half the people of Israel.

42 And behold, every man of Israel came to the king and said to the king, Why have our brothers, the men of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king and his household across the Jordan, and all David's men with him?

43 And every man of Judah answered the man of Israel and said, Because the king is close to me; and why are you so angry over this matter? Have we eaten food from the king, or has he given a gift, or has he taken a levy for us?

44 And the man of Israel answered the man of Judah and said, I have ten shares in the king, and I am firstborn rather than you, and indeed I am above you in David; and why have you insulted me in this, and was my word not reckoned first for me to bring back the king for me? And the word of the man of Judah was harsher than the word of the man of Israel.

Chapter 20

1 And there was a lawless son there, one called Sabee son of Bochori, a man, the Jemeni; and he sounded the horn and said, We have no share in David, nor have we an inheritance in the son of Jessai. Each man to your tents, Israel.

2 And every man of Israel went up from following David after Sabee son of Bochori; and the man of Judah clung to their king from the Jordan as far as Jerusalem.

3 And David entered his house in Jerusalem, and the king took the ten women, his concubines whom he had left to guard the house, and placed them in a house of custody and sustained them, but did not go in to them; and they were confined until the day of their death, living widows.

4 And the king said to Amessai, Call together the man of Judah for me in three days, and you stand here.

5 And Amessai went to call together Judah and delayed beyond the time David had appointed for him.

6 And David said to Abessa, Now Sabee son of Bochori will do us more harm than Abessalom; and now take your lord's servants with you and pursue after him, lest he find fortified cities for himself and overshadow our eyes.

7 And the men of Joab went out after him, and the Chereththi and the Phelethi and all the mighty men; and they went out from Jerusalem to pursue after Sabee son of Bochori.

8 And they were by the great stone that is in Gabaon, and Amessai came before them. And Joab was girded with his cloak, his garment, and over it he was girded with a sword fastened at his waist in its sheath; and the sword came out and fell.

9 And Joab said to Amessai, Are you well, brother? And Joab's right hand took hold of Amessai's beard to kiss him.

10 And Amessai did not guard against the sword in Joab's hand, and Joab struck him with it in the flank, and his belly spilled onto the ground; and he did not strike him a second time, and he died. And Joab and Abessa his brother pursued after Sabee son of Bochori.

11 And one man of Joab's young servants stood by him and said, Whoever desires Joab and whoever is for David, after Joab!

12 And Amessai lay smeared in blood in the middle of the road, and the man saw that all the people stood still; and he turned Amessai out of the road into a field and threw a garment over him, because he saw everyone coming upon him stop.

13 And when he was removed from the road, every man of Israel passed on after Joab to pursue after Sabee son of Bochori.

14 And he passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel and to Baithmacha and all in Charri; and they assembled and came after him.

15 And they arrived and besieged him in Abel and Baithmacha, and poured a siege mound against the city, and it stood at the outer wall; and all the people with Joab were thinking of throwing down the wall.

16 And a wise woman cried out from the wall and said, Hear, hear! Say now to Joab, Come near here and I will speak to him.

17 And he came near to her, and the woman said, Are you Joab? And he said, I am. And she said to him, Hear the words of your servant. And Joab said, I am listening.

18 And she said, saying, They spoke a word at the first, saying, They were surely asked in Abel and in Dan whether the things that the faithful of Israel had established had ceased; those asking shall surely ask in Abel, and thus whether they had ceased.

19 I am peaceable among the supports of Israel, but you seek to put to death a city and a mother-city in Israel; why do you sink the Lord's inheritance?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it from me, far be it from me, that I should sink or destroy it.

21 That is not the matter, for a man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sabee son of Bochori is his name, has raised his hand against King David. Give me him alone, and I will depart from above the city. And the woman said to Joab, Behold, his head will be thrown to you through the wall.

22 And the woman went in to all the people and spoke to the whole city in her wisdom; and she removed the head of Sabee son of Bochori and threw it to Joab. And he sounded the horn, and they scattered from the city, each man to his tent; and Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

23 And Joab was over all the force of Israel, and Banaias son of Jodae over the Chereththi and over the Phelethi,

24 and Adoniram over the tribute, and Josaphat son of Achilouth as recorder,

25 and Sousa as scribe, and Sadok and Abiathar as priests,

26 and indeed Iras the Jarin was David's priest.

Chapter 21

1 And there was a famine in David's days for three years, one year following another, and David sought the face of the Lord. And the Lord said, Upon Saul and upon his house is wrongdoing, because of his death of bloods, for which he put the Gabaonites to death.

2 And King David called the Gabaonites and spoke to them; now the Gabaonites are not sons of Israel but rather from the remnant of the Amorite, and the sons of Israel had sworn to them; and Saul sought to strike them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah.

3 And David said to the Gabaonites, What shall I do for you, and by what shall I make atonement, so that you may bless the Lord's inheritance?

4 And the Gabaonites said to him, We have no silver or gold with Saul and with his house, and we have no man to put to death in Israel. And he said, What do you say, and I shall do it for you?

5 And they said to the king, The man made an end of us and pursued us, he who schemed to destroy us; let us make him disappear so that he may not stand in any border of Israel.

6 Let seven men of his sons be given to us, and let us expose them to the sun for the Lord in Gabaon, Saul's chosen ones of the Lord. And the king said, I will give them.

7 And the king spared Memphibosthe son of Jonathan son of Saul because of the oath of the Lord between them, between David and Jonathan son of Saul.

8 And the king took the two sons of Respha daughter of Aia, whom she bore to Saul, Ermoni and Memphibosthe, and the five sons of Michol daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Esriel son of Berzelli the Moulathite,

9 and gave them into the hand of the Gabaonites, and they exposed them to the sun on the mountain before the Lord, and these seven fell together; and they were put to death in the days of harvest, at the first, at the beginning of the barley harvest.

10 And Respha daughter of Aia took sackcloth and fixed it for herself upon the rock at the beginning of the barley harvest, until water dripped upon them from heaven; and she did not allow the birds of heaven to rest upon them by day or the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was reported to David what Respha daughter of Aia, Saul's concubine, had done, and they were loosened, and Dan son of Joa of the descendants of the giants overtook them.

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men, the sons of Jabis Galaad, who had stolen them from the square of Baithsan, because the foreigners had set them there on the day the foreigners struck Saul in Gelboue.

13 And he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son, and gathered the bones of those exposed to the sun.

14 And they buried the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son and of those exposed to the sun in the land of Benjamin, in the side, in the tomb of Kis his father, and they did all that the king commanded. And God listened to the land after these things.

15 And there was again war for the foreigners with Israel. And David and his servants with him went down and fought with the foreigners, and David grew faint.

16 And Jesbi, who was among the offspring of Rapha, and the weight of his spear was three hundred shekels in bronze weight, and he was girded with a club, and he intended to strike David.

17 And Abessa son of Sarouia helped him and struck the foreigner and put him to death. Then David's men swore, saying, You shall no longer go out with us to war, and you shall certainly not extinguish the lamp of Israel.

18 And after these things there was again war in Geth with the foreigners. Then Sebocha the Astatothite struck Seph, who was among the offspring of Rapha.

19 And there was war in Gob with the foreigners. And Eleanan son of Ariorgim the Bethlehemite struck Goliath the Gethite, and the shaft of his spear was like a weavers' beam.

20 And there was again war in Geth. And there was a man of great size, and the fingers of his hands and the toes of his feet were six and six, twenty-four in number; and he too was born to Rapha.

21 And he reproached Israel, and Jonathan son of Semei, David's brother, struck him.

22 These four were born as descendants of the giants in Geth to the house of Rapha, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

Chapter 22

1 And David spoke to the Lord the words of this song on the day when the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul,

2 and he said, Lord, my rock and my fortress and my deliverer for me,

3 my God will be my guard; I will trust in him, my defender and the horn of my salvation, my helper and the refuge of my salvation; from the unjust you will save me.

4 I will call upon the Lord, who is praised, and I shall be saved from my enemies.

5 For the crushings of death encompassed me; torrents of lawlessness astonished me.

6 The pangs of death encircled me; the harshnesses of death came before me.

7 In my affliction I will call upon the Lord, and to my God I will cry out; and he will hear my voice from his temple, and my cry will be in his ears.

8 And the earth was troubled and shaken, and the foundations of heaven were troubled together and torn apart, because the Lord was angry with them.

9 Smoke went up in his anger, and fire from his mouth devours; coals were kindled from him.

10 And he bent the heavens and came down, and darkness was beneath his feet.

11 And he sat upon cherubim and flew, and was seen upon the wings of the wind.

12 And he made darkness his hiding place around him, his tent darkness of waters; he thickened it in the clouds of the air.

13 From the brightness before him coals of fire were kindled.

14 The Lord thundered from heaven, and the Most High gave his voice,

15 and sent arrows and scattered them, lightning and dismayed them.

16 And the outlets of the sea appeared, and the foundations of the inhabited world were uncovered at the rebuke of the Lord, at the breath of the spirit of his anger.

17 He sent from on high and took me; he drew me out of many waters.

18 He delivered me from my strong enemies, from those who hate me, because they were stronger than I.

19 They came before me in the day of my affliction, and the Lord became my support

20 and brought me out into a broad place and delivered me, because he took pleasure in me.

21 And the Lord repaid me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he repaid me,

22 because I kept the ways of the Lord and did not act impiously away from my God,

23 because all his judgments are before me, and his ordinances, I did not depart from them.

24 And I will be blameless toward him and guard against my lawlessness.

25 And the Lord will repay me according to my righteousness and according to the cleanness of my hands before his eyes.

26 With the holy you will be holy, and with the perfect man you will be perfect, 27 and with the chosen you will be chosen, and with the crooked you will be crooked.

28 And you will save the poor people, and you will humble eyes upon the exalted.

29 For you are my lamp, Lord, and the Lord will shine upon my darkness for me.

30 For in you I will run as one lightly girded, and in my God I will leap over a wall.

31 The strong one, his way is blameless; the word of the Lord is strong, refined by fire; he is a defender of all those who trust in him.

32 Who is strong besides the Lord? And who will be creator besides our God?

33 The strong one who strengthens me with power, and he shook out my way blameless;

34 setting my feet like those of deer and setting me upon the heights;

35 teaching my hands for war and breaking a bronze bow with my arm.

36 And you gave me the defense of my salvation, and your obedience made me great 37 into a broad place for my steps beneath me, and my legs were not shaken.

38 I will pursue my enemies and make them vanish, and I will not turn back until I finish them;

39 and I will crush them, and they will not rise, and they will fall beneath my feet.

40 And you will strengthen me with power for war; you will bend those who rise against me beneath me.

41 And you gave me my enemies' back, those who hate me, and you put them to death.

42 They will cry out, and there is no helper; to the Lord, and he did not hear them.

43 And I ground them like dust of the earth; like mud of the roads I made them fine.

44 And you will deliver me from the strife of peoples; you will keep me as head of nations; a people whom I did not know served me.

45 Foreign sons lied to me; at the hearing of the ear they listened to me.

46 Foreign sons will be cast away and will stumble out of their enclosures.

47 The Lord lives, and blessed is my guard, and exalted shall be my God, the guard of my salvation.

48 The Lord is strong, the one giving me acts of vengeance, disciplining peoples beneath me

49 and bringing me out from my enemies; and from those rising against me you will exalt me; from a man of wrongdoings you will deliver me.

50 Therefore I will confess you, Lord, among the nations, and to your name I will sing,

51 magnifying the salvations of his king and doing mercy to his anointed, to David and to his seed forever.

Chapter 23

1 And these are the last words of David: Faithful David son of Jessai, and a faithful man whom the Lord raised up as an anointed of the God of Jacob, and the beautiful psalms of Israel.

2 The spirit of the Lord spoke in me, and his word was upon my tongue.

3 The God of Israel says, the guard of Israel spoke to me: Speak a parable: In a man how will you strengthen fear of God?

4 And in God, with morning light the sun is to rise; the morning did not pass from brightness, and as from rain, grass from the earth.

5 For is not my house thus with the strong one? For he made an everlasting covenant for me, ready at every time, guarded, because all my salvation and every desire, for the lawless one shall certainly not sprout.

6 Like a thorn driven away are all of them, for they shall not be taken by hand,

7 and a man shall not toil among them, and a fullness of iron and a spear's shaft; and in fire by burning they shall be burned in their shame.

8 These are the names of David's mighty men: Jebosthe the Chananite is commander of the third, Adinon the Asonite. This one drew his sword against eight hundred wounded at once.

9 And after him Eleazar son of his father's brother, son of Sousitos, among the three mighty men. This one was with David in Serran; and when he reproached him among the foreigners, they gathered there for war, and the man of Israel went up.

10 He arose and struck among the foreigners until his hand grew weary and his hand clung to the sword, and the Lord made a great salvation on that day; and the people sat behind him except to strip the spoil.

11 And after him Samaia son of Asa the Arouchite. And the foreigners gathered at Theria, and there was a portion of the field full of lentils, and the people fled from before the foreigners.

12 And he stood firmly in the middle of the portion and delivered it and struck the foreigners, and the Lord made a great salvation.

13 And three of the thirty went down and came to Kason to David in the cave of Odollam, and a contingent of the foreigners encamped in the valley of Raphaim.

14 And David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the foreigners was then in Bethlehem.

15 And David desired and said, Who will give me water to drink from the pit in Bethlehem at the gate? And the assembly of the foreigners was then in Bethlehem.

16 And the three mighty men broke through the camp of the foreigners and drew water from the pit in Bethlehem at the gate and took it and came to David, and he did not wish to drink it and poured it out to the Lord

17 and said, Far be it from me, Lord, to do this; shall I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives? And he did not wish to drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

18 And Abessa brother of Joab son of Sarouia, he was a commander among the three; and he raised his spear against three hundred wounded, and he had a name among the three.

19 He was renowned among those three and became their commander, but he did not come up to the three.

20 And Banaias son of Jodae, himself a man of many deeds from Kabeseel. He struck the two sons of Ariel of Moab; and he went down and struck the lion in the middle of the pit on the day of snow.

21 He struck the Egyptian man, a conspicuous man, and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like the wood of a ladder, and he went down to him with a staff and snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

22 These things Banaias son of Jodae did, and he had a name among the three mighty men.

23 He was renowned among the three, but did not come up to the three; and David appointed him to his hearings.

24 And these are the names of the mighty men of King David: Asael brother of Joab [this one was among the thirty], Eleanan son of Doudi, his father's brother, in Bethlehem,

25 Samai the Aroudaite, Elika the Arodaite,

26 Elles the Phelothite, Iras son of Ekkas the Thekoite,

27 Abiezer the Anathothite from the sons of the Asothite,

28 Selmon the Aoite, Moore the Netophathite,

29 Ela son of Baana the Netophathite, Eththi son of Riba from Gabaeth, son of Benjamin,

30 Banaias the Pharathonite, Ouri from Nachaligaias,

31 Abiel son of the Arabothite, Azmoth the Barsamite,

32 Eliasou the Salabonite, sons of Jasan, Jonathan,

33 Samma the Arodite, Achian son of Sarad the Araourite,

34 Aliphaleth son of the Asbite son of the Maachathite, Eliab son of Achitophel the Gelonite,

35 Asarai the Carmelite, Pharai the Erchite,

36 Igaal son of Nathan from the force, son of Gaddi,

37 Elie the Ammanite, Gelorai the Berothaite, bearer of the equipment of Joab son of Sarouia,

38 Iras the Jethiraite, Gareb the Jethiraite,

39 Ourias the Chettite, all thirty-seven.

Chapter 24

1 And the anger of the Lord continued to burn in Israel, and he stirred David against them, saying, Go, count Israel and Judah.

2 And the king said to Joab, the commander of the force who was with him, Go now through all the tribes of Israel from Dan as far as Bersabee and inspect the people, and I shall know the number of the people.

3 And Joab said to the king, May the Lord your God add to the people, as they are and as they are, a hundredfold, with the eyes of my lord the king seeing; and why does my lord the king desire this matter?

4 And the king's word prevailed over Joab and over the commanders of the force. And Joab and the commanders of the force went out from before the king to inspect the people of Israel.

5 And they crossed the Jordan and encamped in Aroer, to the right of the city that is in the middle of the ravine of Gad and Eliezer,

6 and came to Galaad and to the land of Thabason, which is Adasai, and arrived at Danidan and Oudan and went around to Sidon,

7 and came to Mapsar of Tyre and all the cities of the Evaite and the Chananite and came south of Judah to Bersabee,

8 and traveled around all the land and arrived in Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave the number of the inspection of the people to the king, and Israel amounted to eight hundred thousand men of force drawing the sword, and the man of Judah to five hundred thousand fighting men.

10 And David's heart struck him after counting the people, and David said to the Lord, I have sinned greatly in what I have done; now, Lord, pass over the lawlessness of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.

11 And David rose in the morning. And the word of the Lord came to Gad the prophet, David's seer, saying,

12 Go and speak to David, saying, Thus says the Lord: I am bringing three things upon you; choose for yourself one of them, and I shall do it to you.

13 And Gad came to David and reported to him and said to him, Choose for yourself what shall happen: whether three years of famine shall come upon you in your land, or you shall flee three months before your enemies and they shall pursue you, or three days of death shall occur in your land. Now then know and see what word I shall answer to the one who sent me.

14 And David said to Gad, It is very narrow for me on every side; let me fall into the hand of the Lord, for his mercies are very many, but into the hands of man I shall certainly not fall. And David chose death for himself.

15 And it was the days of wheat harvest, and the Lord gave death in Israel from morning until the hour of the meal, and the breaking began among the people, and seventy thousand men of the people died from Dan as far as Bersabee.

16 And the angel of God stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, and the Lord was moved concerning the evil and said to the angel who was destroying among the people, Enough now; relax your hand. And the angel of the Lord was by the threshing floor of Orna the Jebusite.

17 And David spoke to the Lord when he saw the angel striking among the people and said, Behold, it is I who have done wrong, and I, the shepherd, have done evil; but these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand be upon me and upon my father's house.

18 And Gad came to David on that day and said to him, Go up and set up an altar to the Lord on the threshing floor of Orna the Jebusite.

19 And David went up according to Gad's word, in the manner the Lord commanded him.

20 And Orna looked out and saw the king and his servants passing above him, and Orna went out and bowed before the king with his face to the ground.

21 And Orna said, Why has my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To acquire from you the threshing floor to build an altar to the Lord, so that the breaking upon the people may be held back.

22 And Orna said to David, Let my lord the king take and offer to the Lord what is good in his eyes; behold, the oxen for a whole burnt offering, and the wheels and the equipment of the oxen for wood.

23 Orna gave everything to the king, and Orna said to the king, May the Lord your God bless you.

24 And the king said to Orna, No, but I shall certainly acquire it from you in exchange, and I shall not offer to the Lord my God a whole burnt offering for nothing. And David acquired the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built an altar there to the Lord and offered whole burnt offerings and peace offerings; and Solomon added to the altar later, for it was small at first. And the Lord listened to the land, and the breaking was held back from over Israel.

1 Kings

Chapter 1

1 And King David was old, advanced in days, and they covered him with garments, but he was not warmed.

2 And his servants said, Let them seek a young virgin for our lord the king, and she shall stand before the king and warm him and lie with him, and our lord the king shall be warmed.

3 And they sought a beautiful young woman from every border of Israel and found Abisak the Somanite and brought her to the king.

4 And the young woman was very beautiful; and she warmed the king and ministered to him, but the king did not know her.

5 And Adonias son of Aggith exalted himself, saying, I shall reign; and he made himself chariots and horsemen and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had never restrained him, saying, Why have you done this? And indeed he was very handsome in appearance, and she bore him after Abessalom.

7 And his words were with Joab son of Sarouia and with Abiathar the priest, and they helped, following Adonias.

8 But Sadok the priest and Banaias son of Jodae and Nathan the prophet and Semei and Rei and David's mighty men were not following Adonias.

9 And Adonias sacrificed sheep and calves and lambs by the stone of Zoelet, which was next to the spring of Rogel, and called all his brothers and all the prominent men of Judah, servants of the king.

10 But Nathan the prophet and Banaias and the mighty men and Solomon his brother he did not call.

11 And Nathan said to Bersabee, Solomon's mother, saying, Have you not heard that Adonias son of Aggith has become king? And our lord David did not know.

12 And now come, let me advise you with counsel, and you shall deliver your life and the life of your son Solomon.

13 Come, go in to King David and say to him, Did you not, my lord king, swear to your servant, saying, Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne? Why then has Adonias become king?

14 And behold, while you are still speaking there with the king, I shall come in after you and complete your words.

15 And Bersabee went in to the king in the chamber, and the king was very old, and Abisak the Somanite was ministering to the king.

16 And Bersabee bowed and prostrated herself before the king. And the king said, What is it for you?

17 And she said, My lord king, you swore by the Lord your God to your servant, saying, Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.

18 And now behold, Adonias has become king, and you, my lord king, did not know.

19 And he sacrificed calves and lambs and sheep in abundance and called all the king's sons and Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the force, but Solomon your servant he did not call.

20 And you, my lord king, the eyes of all Israel are toward you to tell them who shall sit upon the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 And it shall be, when my lord the king lies down with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be sinners.

22 And behold, while she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came.

23 And it was reported to the king, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And he came before the king and prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord king, did you say, Adonias shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he went down today and sacrificed calves and lambs and sheep in abundance and called all the king's sons and the commanders of the force and Abiathar the priest, and behold, they are eating and drinking before him and have said, Long live King Adonias.

26 But me, your servant, and Sadok the priest and Banaias son of Jodae and Solomon your servant he did not call.

27 Has this matter come about through my lord the king, and have you not made known to your servant who shall sit upon the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 And David answered and said, Call Bersabee for me. And she came before the king and stood before him.

29 And the king swore and said, As the Lord lives, who redeemed my life from every affliction,

30 as I swore to you by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne instead of me, so I shall do this day.

31 And Bersabee bowed with her face to the ground and prostrated herself before the king and said, May my lord King David live forever.

32 And King David said, Call Sadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Banaias son of Jodae for me. And they came before the king.

33 And the king said to them, Take your lord's servants with you and put my son Solomon upon my mule and bring him down to Gion.

34 And let Sadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there as king over Israel, and sound the horn and say, Long live King Solomon.

35 And he shall sit upon my throne and he shall reign instead of me, and I have commanded that he be leader over Israel and Judah.

36 And Banaias son of Jodae answered the king and said, So be it; thus may the Lord God of my lord the king confirm it.

37 As the Lord was with my lord the king, so may he be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David.

38 And Sadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Banaias son of Jodae and the Chereththi and the Phelethi went down and seated Solomon on King David's mule and led him to Gion.

39 And Sadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon and sounded the horn, and all the people said, Long live King Solomon.

40 And all the people went up after him and danced in dances and rejoiced with great joy, and the earth split with their sound.

41 And Adonias and all his invited guests heard, as they finished eating; and Joab heard the sound of the horn and said, What is the sound of the city resounding?

42 While he was still speaking, behold, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest came, and Adonias said, Come in, for you are a man of strength, and bring good news.

43 And Jonathan answered and said, Indeed, our lord King David has made Solomon king.

44 And the king sent with him Sadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Banaias son of Jodae and the Chereththi and the Phelethi, and they seated him on the king's mule.

45 And Sadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anointed him as king at Gion, and they went up from there rejoicing, and the city resounded; that is the sound you heard.

46 And Solomon sat upon the throne of the kingdom.

47 And the king's servants came in to bless our lord King David, saying, May God make the name of Solomon your son better than your name and make his throne greater than your throne. And the king prostrated himself upon his bed.

48 And indeed the king said thus, Blessed is the Lord God of Israel, who today gave one of my seed sitting upon my throne, and my eyes see it.

49 And all those invited by Adonias were astonished and rose up and went, each man on his way.

50 And Adonias feared Solomon's face and arose and went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

51 And it was reported to Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonias fears King Solomon and holds the horns of the altar, saying, Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death by the sword.

52 And Solomon said, If he becomes a son of strength, will a hair of his fall to the ground? But if evil is found in him, he shall be put to death.

53 And King Solomon sent and brought him down from above the altar; and he came in and prostrated himself before King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, Go to your house.

Chapter 2

1 And the days drew near for David to die, and he commanded Solomon his son, saying,

2 I am going in the way of all the earth; be strong and become a man,

3 and keep the charge of the Lord your God, to walk in his ways, to keep his commandments and the ordinances and the judgments written in the law of Moses, so that you may understand what you shall do in everything that I command you,

4 so that the Lord may establish his word which he spoke, saying, If your sons keep their way to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, saying, A man of yours shall not be cut off from upon the throne of Israel.

5 And indeed you know what Joab son of Sarouia did to me, what he did to the two commanders of the forces of Israel, to Abenner son of Ner and Amessai son of Jether, and he killed them and placed the bloods of war in peace and put innocent blood upon his belt at his waist and upon his sandal on his foot.

6 And you shall act according to your wisdom and shall not bring his gray hair down to Hades in peace.

7 And to the sons of Berzelli the Galaadite you shall show mercy, and they shall be among those eating at your table, because so they drew near to me when I fled from before Abessalom your brother.

8 And behold, with you is Semei son of Gera son of the Jemeni from Baurim, and he cursed me with a grievous curse on the day when I went to the Camps, and he went down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by the Lord, saying, If I put you to death by the sword.

9 And you shall certainly not hold him innocent, for you are a wise man and shall know what you shall do to him, and you shall bring his gray hair down to Hades in blood.

10 And David lay down with his fathers and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years; in Hebron he reigned seven years and in Jerusalem thirty-three years.

12 And Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father, being a son of twelve years, and his kingdom was made very firm.

13 And Adonias son of Aggith went in to Bersabee, Solomon's mother, and bowed to her. And she said, Is your coming peaceful? And he said, Peaceful.

14 I have a word for you. And she said to him, Speak.

15 And he said to her, You know that the kingdom was mine and all Israel set its face toward me as king, but the kingdom turned and became my brother's, because it became his from the Lord.

16 And now I ask one request of you; do not turn away your face. And Bersabee said to him, Speak.

17 And he said to her, Say now to King Solomon, for he will not turn away his face from you, and he shall give me Abisak the Somanite as wife.

18 And Bersabee said, Good; I shall speak about you to the king.

19 And Bersabee went in to King Solomon to speak to him about Adonias. And the king rose to meet her and kissed her and sat upon his throne, and a throne was set for the king's mother and she sat at his right.

20 And she said to him, I ask one small request of you; do not turn away your face. And the king said to her, Ask, my mother, for I shall not turn you away.

21 And she said, Let Abisak the Somanite be given to Adonias your brother as wife.

22 And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, And why did you ask for Abisak for Adonias? Ask the kingdom for him too, for he is my older brother, and for him are Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Sarouia, the commander in chief, as a companion.

23 And King Solomon swore by the Lord, saying, May God do thus to me and thus add, for against his own life Adonias spoke this word.

24 And now, as the Lord lives, who established me and placed me upon the throne of David my father and made me a house, as the Lord spoke, Adonias shall be put to death today.

25 And King Solomon sent by the hand of Banaias son of Jodae, and he killed him, and Adonias died on that day.

26 And to Abiathar the priest the king said, Go away to Anathoth, to your field, for you are a man of death on this day; but I shall not put you to death, because you carried the ark of the covenant of the Lord before my father, and because you were afflicted in all that my father was afflicted.

27 And Solomon drove Abiathar out from being a priest of the Lord, to fulfill the word of the Lord which he spoke against the house of Eli in Selom.

28 And the report reached Joab son of Sarouia [for Joab had inclined after Adonias, but after Solomon he had not inclined], and Joab fled to the tent of the Lord and held onto the horns of the altar.

29 And it was reported to Solomon, saying, Joab has fled to the tent of the Lord, and behold, he holds the horns of the altar. And Solomon sent to Joab, saying, What has happened to you, that you have fled to the altar? And Joab said, Because I feared your face, and I fled to the Lord. And King Solomon sent Banaias son of Jodae, saying, Go and kill him and bury him.

30 And Banaias son of Jodae came to Joab in the tent of the Lord and said to him, Thus says the king: Come out. And Joab said, I shall not go out, for here I shall die. And Banaias son of Jodae returned and told the king, saying, Thus Joab has spoken, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said to him, Go and do to him as he has said, and kill him and bury him, and remove today the blood that Joab shed without cause from me and from my father's house.

32 And the Lord has returned the blood of his wrongdoing upon his head, since he met the two men more righteous and better than he and killed them by the sword, and my father David did not know of their blood: Abenner son of Ner, commander in chief of Israel, and Amessa son of Jether, commander in chief of Judah.

33 And their blood shall return upon his head and upon the head of his seed forever, but to David and to his seed and to his house and to his throne may there be peace forever from the Lord.

34 And Banaias son of Jodae met Joab and put him to death and buried him in his house in the wilderness.

35 And the king placed Banaias son of Jodae in his place over the command of the army; and the kingdom was established in Jerusalem; and the king placed Sadok the priest as first priest instead of Abiathar.

35 And the Lord gave Solomon understanding and very great wisdom and breadth of heart like the sand beside the sea,

36 and Solomon's understanding greatly increased beyond the understanding of all the ancient sons and beyond all the wise men of Egypt.

37 And he took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into the city of David until he completed his house and the house of the Lord at first and the wall of Jerusalem all around; in seven years he made and completed it.

36 And Solomon had seventy thousand burden bearers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountain.

37 And Solomon made the sea and the supports and the great basins and the pillars and the fountain of the courtyard and the bronze sea.

38 And he built the citadel and its battlements and cut through the city of David; thus Pharaoh's daughter went up from the city of David to her house, which he built for her; then he built the citadel.

39 And Solomon offered whole burnt offerings and peace offerings three times a year upon the altar which he built for the Lord, and burned incense before the Lord. And he completed the house.

40 And these are the officers appointed over Solomon's works: three thousand six hundred overseers of the people doing the work.

41 And he built Assour and Magdo and Gazer and upper Baithoron and Baalath.

35 But after he built the house of the Lord and the wall of Jerusalem around it, after these things he built these cities.

36 And while David was still alive he commanded Solomon, saying, Behold, with you is Semei son of Gera, son of the seed of the Jemeni, from Hebron.

37 This one cursed me with a grievous curse on the day when I went to the Camps.

38 And he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by the Lord, saying, If he shall be put to death by the sword.

39 And now do not hold him innocent, for you are a prudent man and shall know what you shall do to him, and you shall bring his gray hair down to Hades in blood.

36 And the king called Semei and said to him, Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and dwell there, and you shall not go out from there anywhere.

37 And it shall be on the day you go out and cross the brook Kedron, you shall surely know that you shall die by death; your blood shall be upon your head. And the king made him swear on that day.

38 And Semei said to the king, The word you have spoken is good, my lord king; thus your servant shall do. And Semei dwelt in Jerusalem three years.

39 And after three years two servants of Semei ran away to Anchous son of Maacha, king of Geth, and Semei was told, Behold, your servants are in Geth.

40 And Semei arose and saddled his donkey and went to Geth to Anchous to seek his servants, and Semei went and brought his servants from Geth.

41 And Solomon was told, saying, Semei went from Jerusalem to Geth and brought back his servants.

42 And the king sent and called Semei and said to him, Did I not make you swear by the Lord and testify to you, saying, On whatever day you go out from Jerusalem and go to the right or to the left, you shall surely know that you shall die by death?

43 And why did you not keep the oath of the Lord and the commandment that I commanded you?

44 And the king said to Semei, You know all your evil which your heart knew, which you did to David my father, and the Lord has repaid your evil upon your head.

45 And King Solomon is blessed, and David's throne shall be established before the Lord forever.

46 And King Solomon commanded Banaias son of Jodae, and he went out and killed him, and he died.

46 And King Solomon was very prudent and wise, and Judah and Israel were very many, like the sand upon the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and rejoicing.

47 And Solomon was ruler in all the kingdoms, and they brought gifts and served Solomon all the days of his life.

48 And Solomon began to open the dominions of Lebanon,

49 and he built Thermai in the wilderness.

50 And this was Solomon's meal: thirty kors of fine flour and sixty kors of ground flour, ten choice calves and twenty pasture oxen and a hundred sheep, besides deer and gazelles and choice pastured birds.

51 For he was ruler in all beyond the river, from Raphi to Gaza, over all the kings beyond the river.

52 And he had peace from all his parts around him, and Judah and Israel dwelt trusting, each under his vine and under his fig tree, eating and drinking, from Dan as far as Bersabee all the days of Solomon.

53 And these were Solomon's officers: Azarion son of Sadok the priest, and Orniou son of Nathan commander of the overseers, and Edram over his house, and Souba the scribe, and Basa son of Achithalam the recorder, and Abi son of Joab commander in chief, and Achire son of Edrai over the burdens, and Banaias son of Jodae over the court command and over the brickworks, and Zachour son of Nathan the counselor.

54 And Solomon had forty thousand brood mares for chariots and twelve thousand horsemen.

Chapter 3

1 And when the kingdom was established in Solomon's hand, Solomon made a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt and took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into the city of David, until he completed building his own house and the house of the Lord and the wall around Jerusalem.

2 But the people were burning incense on the high places, because a house had not yet been built for the name of the Lord.

3 And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the ordinances of David his father, but he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

4 And he arose and went to Gabaon to sacrifice there, for it was the highest and great; Solomon offered a thousand whole burnt offerings upon the altar in Gabaon.

5 And the Lord appeared to Solomon in sleep at night, and the Lord said to Solomon, Ask some request for yourself.

6 And Solomon said, You showed great mercy to your servant David my father, as he walked before you in truth and in righteousness and in uprightness of heart with you, and you kept this great mercy for him, to give his son upon his throne, as on this day.

7 And now, Lord my God, you placed your servant instead of David my father, and I am a small child and do not know my going out and my coming in.

8 And your servant is in the midst of your people whom you chose, a numerous people who shall not be counted.

9 And give your servant a heart to hear and to judge your people in righteousness, to understand between good and evil; for who will be able to judge this weighty people of yours?

10 And it was pleasing before the Lord that Solomon asked this matter.

11 And the Lord said to him, Because you asked this matter of me and did not ask for yourself many days and did not ask for riches or for the lives of your enemies, but asked for yourself understanding to hear judgment,

12 behold, I have done according to your word; behold, I have given you a prudent and wise heart, such that one like you has not existed before you and one like you shall not arise after you.

13 And what you did not ask, I have given you, both riches and glory, such that no man like you has existed among kings.

14 And if you walk in my way to keep my commandments and my ordinances, as David your father walked, then I shall multiply your days.

15 And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream; and he arose and came to Jerusalem and stood before the altar before the ark of the Lord's covenant in Sion and offered whole burnt offerings and made peace offerings and made a great feast for himself and all his servants.

16 Then two women, prostitutes, appeared before the king and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, With me, lord; I and this woman dwell in one house, and we gave birth in the house.

18 And it happened on the third day after I gave birth that this woman also gave birth; and we were together, and there was no one with us besides the two of us in the house.

19 And this woman's son died in the night when she lay upon him.

20 And she arose in the middle of the night and took my son from my arms and laid him in her bosom, and her dead son she laid in my bosom.

21 And I arose in the morning to nurse my son, and he was dead; and behold, I examined him in the morning, and behold, he was not my son whom I bore.

22 And the other woman said, No, but my son is the living one, and your son is the dead one. And they spoke before the king.

23 And the king said to them, You say, This is my living son, and hers is the dead son; and you say, No, but my son is the living one, and yours is the dead son.

24 And the king said, Bring me a sword; and they brought the sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Divide the living nursing child in two and give half of him to this one and half of him to this one.

26 And the woman whose son was the living one answered and said to the king, because her womb was troubled over her son, and said, With me, lord, give her the child and do not put him to death; and the other said, Let him be neither mine nor hers; divide him.

27 And the king answered and said, Give the child to the one who said, Give him to her and do not put him to death; she is his mother.

28 And all Israel heard this judgment which the king judged, and they feared before the king, because they saw that God's understanding was in him to do justice.

Chapter 4

1 And King Solomon was reigning over Israel.

2 And these were his officers: Azariou son of Sadok,

3 and Eliareph and Achia son of Saba, scribes, and Josaphat son of Achilid, recorder,

4 and Sadouch and Abiathar, priests,

5 and Ornia son of Nathan over the appointees, and Zabouth son of Nathan, companion of the king,

6 and Achiel, steward, and Eliab son of Saph over the family, and Adoniram son of Ephra over the tributes.

7 And Solomon had twelve appointees over all Israel to provide for the king and his house; one month in the year fell to each one to provide.

8 And these are their names: Benor in the hill country of Ephraim, one;

9 son of Rechab in Machemas and Bethalamin and Baithsamys and Ailon as far as Baithanan, one;

10 son of Esoth in Berbethnema, Lousamencha and Resphara;

11 Chinanadab and Anaphathi, husband of Tableth, Solomon's daughter, who was his wife, one;

12 Bakcha son of Achilid, Thaanach and Mekedo and all the house of San beside Sesathan below Esrae, and from Baisaphoud Ebelmaola as far as Maeber Loukam, one;

13 son of Gaber in Remath Galaad, to him was allotted Eregaba, which is in Basan, sixty great walled cities with bronze bars, one;

14 Achinadab son of Achel in Maanain, one;

15 Achimaas in Nephthali, and he took Basemmath daughter of Solomon as wife, one;

16 Baana son of Chousi in Maalath, one;

17 Samaa son of Ela in Benjamin;

18 Gaber son of Adai in the land of Gad, the land of Seon king of Esebon and Og king of Basan; and one nasiph in the land of Judah;

19 Josaphat son of Phouasoud in Issachar.

Chapter 5

1 And the appointees thus provided for King Solomon and every order for the king's table, each in his month, not departing from the word; and they carried barley and straw for the horses and chariots to the place where the king would be, each according to his assignment.

2 And these were Solomon's daily requirements: thirty kors of fine flour and sixty kors of ground flour,

3 and ten choice calves and twenty pasture oxen and a hundred sheep, besides deer and gazelles and choice fattened birds.

4 For he was ruler beyond the river, and he had peace from all the parts around him.

9 And the Lord gave Solomon understanding and very great wisdom and an outpouring of heart like the sand beside the sea,

10 and Solomon greatly increased beyond the understanding of all ancient men and beyond all the wise men of Egypt,

11 and he became wiser than all men and wiser than Gaithan the Ezraite and Aiman and Chalkal and Darda, sons of Mal.

12 And Solomon spoke three thousand parables, and his songs were five thousand.

13 And he spoke about trees, from the cedar in Lebanon as far as the hyssop growing through the wall, and he spoke about beasts and about birds and about creeping things and about fish.

14 And all the peoples came to hear Solomon's wisdom, and he received gifts from all the kings of the earth who heard his wisdom.

14 And Solomon took Pharaoh's daughter for himself as wife and brought her into the city of David until he completed the house of the Lord and his own house and the wall of Jerusalem.

15 Then Pharaoh king of Egypt went up and seized Gazer beforehand and burned it and the Chananite living in Mergab, and Pharaoh gave them as a dispatch to his daughter, Solomon's wife, and Solomon built Gazer. And Chiram king of Tyre sent his servants to anoint Solomon instead of David his father, for Chiram loved David all the days.

16 And Solomon sent to Chiram, saying,

17 You know that David my father was not able to build a house for the name of the Lord my God because of the wars that surrounded him, until the Lord put them under the tracks of his feet.

18 And now the Lord my God has given me rest all around; there is no adversary and no evil occurrence.

19 And behold, I say I shall build a house for the name of the Lord my God, as the Lord God spoke to David my father, saying, Your son whom I shall place instead of you upon your throne, he shall build the house for my name.

20 And now command them to cut wood for me from Lebanon, and behold, my servants will be with your servants; and I shall give you the wages for your service according to everything you say, for you know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut wood like the Sidonians.

21 And it happened when Chiram heard Solomon's words that he rejoiced greatly and said, Blessed is God today, who gave David a prudent son over this numerous people.

22 And he sent to Solomon, saying, I have heard concerning all that you sent to me; I shall do all your desire concerning cedar and pine wood.

23 My servants shall bring it down from Lebanon to the sea, and I shall set it in rafts as far as the place to which you send me, and I shall unload it there, and you shall take it; and you shall do my desire, to give bread to my house.

24 And Chiram was giving Solomon cedars and all his desire.

25 And Solomon gave Chiram twenty thousand kors of wheat and machir for his house and twenty thousand baths of beaten oil; thus Solomon gave to Chiram each year.

26 And the Lord gave Solomon wisdom, as he spoke to him; and there was peace between Chiram and Solomon, and they made a covenant between themselves.

27 And the king raised a levy from all Israel, and the levy was thirty thousand men.

28 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand in a month, alternating; one month they were in Lebanon and two months in their house; and Adoniram was over the levy.

29 And Solomon had seventy thousand burden bearers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountain,

30 apart from the officers appointed over Solomon's works, three thousand six hundred overseers who did the works.

32 And they prepared the stones and the wood for three years.

Chapter 6

1 And it happened in the four hundred and fortieth year of the departure of the sons of Israel from Egypt, in the fourth year, in the second month, while King Solomon reigned over Israel,

1 and the king commanded, and they brought large precious stones for the foundation of the house and hewn stones.

2 And Solomon's sons and Chiram's sons hewed them and laid them.

3 In the fourth year he laid the foundation of the house of the Lord in the month Niso, the second month.

4 In the eleventh year, in the month Baal [this is the eighth month], the house was completed according to every word of it and according to all its arrangement.

2 And the house which King Solomon built for the Lord was forty cubits in length and twenty cubits in width and twenty-five cubits in height.

3 And the aelam before the temple was twenty cubits in length along the width of the house and ten cubits in width before the house. And he built the house and completed it.

4 And he made for the house concealed projecting windows.

5 And he placed beams around the wall of the house for the temple and for the dabir, and made side chambers around it.

6 The lower side chamber was five cubits in width, and the middle six, and the third seven cubits in width; for he made an offset around the house outside it so that they would not take hold of the walls of the house.

7 And the house, while it was being built, was built with rough quarried stones, and hammer and axe and every iron tool were not heard in the house while it was being built.

8 And the entrance of the lower side chamber was beneath the right shoulder of the house, and there was a winding ascent to the middle and from the middle to the three stories.

9 And he built the house and completed it; and he fitted the house with cedar.

10 And he built the bindings throughout the house, five cubits in height, and fastened the binding with cedar timbers.

15 And he built the walls of the house with cedar timbers from the floor of the house as far as the beams and as far as the walls; he fitted them continuously with wood inside and enclosed the interior of the house with pine sides.

16 And he built the twenty cubits at the end of the house, the one side from the floor to the beams, and made it from the dabir into the holy of holies.

17 And the temple was forty cubits before

19 the dabir in the middle of the house within, to place there the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

20 Twenty cubits was its length and twenty cubits its width and twenty cubits its height, and he covered it with enclosed gold. And he made an altar

21 before the dabir and covered it with gold.

22 And he covered the entire house with gold until all the house was completed.

23 And he made two cherubim in the dabir, each ten cubits in measured size.

24 And one wing of the one cherub was five cubits and its second wing five cubits, ten cubits from the edge of its wing to the edge of its wing.

25 So also for the second cherub; there was one measure and one completion for both.

26 And the height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the second cherub.

27 And both cherubim were in the middle of the innermost house; and he spread out their wings, and one wing touched the wall and a wing touched the second wall, and their wings in the middle of the house touched wing to wing.

28 And he covered the cherubim with gold.

29 And all the walls of the house around he inscribed with a stylus, with carved cherubim and palm trees inside and outside.

30 And he covered the floor of the house with gold, of the innermost and of the outermost.

31 And for the doorway of the dabir he made doors of juniper wood and fivefold doorposts,

32 and two doors of pine wood, with carvings upon them, carved cherubim and palm trees and spread-out petals; and he covered them with gold, and the gold came down upon the cherubim and the palm trees.

33 And thus he made for the entrance of the temple, doorposts of juniper wood, fourfold porticoes.

34 And in both doors there was pine wood; two folds of the one door and their pivots, and two folds of the second door, turning.

35 Carved cherubim and palm trees and spread-out petals, covered with gold drawn down upon the relief.

36 And he built the inner courtyard, three courses of hewn stones and a course of worked cedar around it.

36 And he built a curtain for the courtyard of the aelam of the house before the temple.

Chapter 7

1 And King Solomon sent and took Chiram from Tyre,

2 the son of a widowed woman, who was of the tribe of Nephthali, and his father was a Tyrian man, a worker in bronze, and he was filled with skill and understanding and knowledge to make every work in bronze; and he was brought to King Solomon and made all the works.

3 And he cast the two pillars for the aelam of the house; eighteen cubits was the height of a pillar, and a circumference of fourteen cubits surrounded it, and the thickness of the pillar was four fingers in its hollows, and so was the second pillar.

4 And he made two capitals to place upon the heads of the pillars, cast bronze; the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the second capital was five cubits.

5 And he made two nets to cover the capitals of the pillars, a net for the one capital and a net for the second capital.

6 And hanging work, two rows of bronze pomegranates netted, hanging work, row upon row; and so he made for the second capital.

7 And he set up the pillars of the aelam of the temple; and he set up the one pillar and called its name Jachoum, and he set up the second pillar and called its name Baaz.

8 And on the heads of the pillars was lily work along the aelam, four cubits.

9 And a beam was upon both pillars, and above the sides was the capital, the beam in its thickness.

10 And he made the sea, ten cubits from its lip to its lip, round all around; its height was five cubits, and thirty-three cubits gathered together encircled it.

11 And supports beneath its lip surrounded it all around, ten to a cubit all around, to raise the sea.

12 And its lip was like the work of the lip of a cup, a lily shoot, and its thickness a handbreadth.

13 And twelve oxen were beneath the sea, three facing north and three facing the sea and three facing south and three facing east, and all their hind parts toward the house, and the sea above upon them.

14 And he made ten bronze mechonoth; one mechonoth was five cubits long and four cubits wide and six cubits high.

15 And this was the work of the mechonoth: they had enclosures, and enclosures between the projecting parts.

16 And on their enclosures between the projecting parts were lions and oxen and cherubim, and on the projecting parts likewise; and above and below the lions and oxen were spaces, work of a descent.

17 And four bronze wheels belonged to each mechonoth, and the adjoining parts were bronze, and their four parts were shoulders beneath the basins.

18 And there were arms among the wheels in the mechonoth, and the height of one wheel was a cubit and a half.

19 And the work of the wheels was the work of chariot wheels; their arms and their backs and their workmanship were all cast.

20 The four shoulders on the four corners of each mechonoth, its shoulders were from the mechonoth.

21 And upon the head of the mechonoth was a round size of half a cubit all around upon the head of the mechonoth, and the beginnings of its arms and its enclosures, and it was opened upon the beginnings of its arms.

22 And its enclosures had cherubim and lions and palm trees standing, each adjoining what faced it inside and around.

23 According to it he made all ten mechonoth, one arrangement and one measure for all.

24 And he made ten bronze chytrokauloi, each one holding forty choes by measure; one chytrokaulos upon each mechonoth for the ten mechonoth.

25 And he placed the ten mechonoth, five by the right shoulder of the house and five by the left shoulder of the house; and the sea by the right shoulder of the house toward the east, from the southern side.

26 And Chiram made the cauldrons and the heating vessels and the bowls, and Chiram completed all the works he made for King Solomon in the house of the Lord:

27 two pillars and the twisted works of the pillars on the heads of the two pillars and two nets to cover both twisted works of the carvings which were upon the pillars,

28 four hundred pomegranates for both nets, two rows of pomegranates for one net to cover both twisted works upon both pillars,

29 and the ten mechonoth and the ten chytrokauloi upon the mechonoth,

30 and the one sea and the twelve oxen beneath the sea,

31 and the cauldrons and the heating vessels and the bowls and all the vessels that Chiram made for King Solomon for the house of the Lord; and the forty-eight pillars of the king's house and the house of the Lord. All the king's works that Chiram made were bronze throughout.

32 There was no weight for the bronze from which he made all these works because of its great quantity; there was no limit to the weight of the bronze.

33 In the region around the Jordan the king cast them in the thickness of the earth between Sokchoth and Sira.

34 And King Solomon placed the vessels which he made in the house of the Lord: the golden altar and the golden table upon which were the loaves of the offering,

35 and the lampstands, five on the right and five on the left before the dabir, of enclosed gold, and the lamps and the lights and the golden ladles,

36 and the entrances and the nails and the bowls and the dishes and the golden incense vessels, enclosed, and the doorways of the doors of the innermost house, the holy of holies, and the doors of the house of the temple, golden.

37 And all the work which Solomon made for the house of the Lord was completed, and Solomon brought in the holy things of David his father and all the holy things of Solomon, the silver and the gold and the vessels, and placed them in the treasuries of the house of the Lord.

38 And Solomon built his own house in thirteen years.

39 And he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was a hundred cubits and its width fifty cubits and its height thirty cubits; and there were three rows of cedar pillars and cedar shoulders for the pillars.

40 And he paneled the house above upon the sides of the pillars, and the number of the pillars was forty-five, fifteen to a row.

41 And there were three beams and space upon space threefold.

42 And all the doorways and spaces were square and beamed, and from doorway to door threefold.

43 And the aelam of the pillars was fifty cubits long and thirty wide, joined, an aelam before them, and pillars and thickness before it for the aelamim.

44 And the aelam of the thrones, where he would judge there, was an aelam of judgment.

45 And there was a house for him in which he would sit, one courtyard extending for them according to this work; and a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon took, according to this aelam.

46 All these were of precious stones carved to a measured spacing inside, from the foundation as far as the cornices, and outside to the great courtyard,

47 which was founded upon great precious stones, ten-cubit stones and eight-cubit stones,

48 and above with precious hewn stones according to the measure and with cedars.

49 Around the great courtyard were three courses of hewn stones and a course of carved cedar.

50 And Solomon completed all his house.

Chapter 8

1 And when Solomon finished building the house of the Lord and his own house after twenty years, then King Solomon assembled all the elders of Israel in Sion to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the city of David [this is Sion]

2 in the month Athanin.

3 And the priests lifted the ark

4 and the tent of testimony and all the holy vessels that were in the tent of testimony,

5 and the king and all Israel before the ark sacrificed sheep and oxen beyond number.

6 And the priests brought the ark into its place, into the dabir of the house, into the holy of holies, beneath the wings of the cherubim.

7 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its holy things from above,

8 and the consecrated things projected, and the heads of the consecrated things could be seen from the holy place before the dabir, but they were not seen outside.

9 There was nothing in the ark except two stone tablets, tablets of the covenant, which Moses placed there in Choreb, which the Lord made with the sons of Israel when they went out from the land of Egypt.

10 And it happened when the priests went out of the holy place that the cloud filled the house.

11 And the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the Lord filled the house.

14 And the king turned his face and blessed all Israel, and all the assembly of Israel stood.

15 And he said, Blessed is the Lord God of Israel today, who spoke by his mouth concerning David my father and by his hands fulfilled it, saying,

16 From the day I brought my people Israel out of Egypt I did not choose a city in any one scepter of Israel to build a house for my name to be there; and I chose Jerusalem for my name to be there and chose David to be over my people Israel.

17 And it was upon the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the Lord God of Israel.

18 And the Lord said to David my father, Because it came upon your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it came upon your heart;

19 but you shall not build the house, rather your son who comes out of your sides, he shall build the house for my name.

20 And the Lord established his word that he spoke, and I arose instead of David my father and sat upon the throne of Israel, as the Lord spoke, and built the house for the name of the Lord God of Israel.

21 And I placed there a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the Lord there, which the Lord made with our fathers when he brought them out from the land of Egypt.

22 And Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven

23 and said, Lord God of Israel, there is no god like you in heaven above and on earth below, keeping covenant and mercy for your servant who walks before you with all his heart,

24 which you kept for your servant David my father, and you spoke with your mouth and fulfilled with your hands, as on this day.

25 And now, Lord God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father what you spoke to him, saying, A man of yours shall not be taken from before me, sitting on the throne of Israel, if only your children keep their ways to walk before me, as you walked before me.

26 And now, Lord God of Israel, let your word to David my father be confirmed.

27 For will God truly dwell with men upon the earth? If heaven and the heaven of heaven will not suffice for you, how much less this house which I built for your name?

28 And look upon my supplication, Lord God of Israel, to hear the delight with which your servant prays before you to you today,

29 that your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, toward the place of which you said, My name shall be there, to hear the prayer which your servant prays toward this place day and night.

30 And hear the supplication of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place; and you shall hear in the place of your dwelling in heaven and act and be merciful.

31 Whenever a person sins against his neighbor and a curse is laid upon him to make him swear, and he comes and confesses before your altar in this house,

32 then hear from heaven and act and judge your people Israel, to condemn the lawless one by giving his way upon his head and to justify the righteous one by giving to him according to his righteousness.

33 When your people Israel stumble before enemies because they sin against you, and they turn back and confess your name and pray and supplicate in this house,

34 then hear from heaven and be merciful to the sins of your people Israel and bring them back to the land which you gave to their fathers.

35 When heaven is restrained and there is no rain because they sin against you, and they pray toward this place and confess your name and turn back from their sins when you humble them,

36 then hear from heaven and be merciful to the sins of your servant and your people Israel, for you shall show them the good way to walk in it, and give rain upon the land which you gave your people as an inheritance.

37 If famine occurs, if death occurs, if there is burning, a locust, if rust occurs, and if their enemy afflicts them in one of their cities, any occurrence, any pain,

38 any prayer, any supplication, if it occurs to any man, as each knows the touch of his heart and spreads out his hands toward this house,

39 then hear from heaven, from your ready dwelling place, and be merciful and act and give to a man according to his ways, as you know his heart, for you alone know the heart of all sons of men,

40 so that they may fear you all the days they live upon the land which you gave to our fathers.

41 And for the foreigner who is not of your people,

42 when they come and pray toward this place,

43 then hear from heaven, from your ready dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls upon you for, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you as your people Israel do and know that your name has been called over this house which I built.

44 For when your people go out to war against their enemies in the way in which you turn them, and pray in the name of the Lord toward the city which I chose in it and the house which I built for your name, 45 then hear from heaven their supplication and their prayer and do justice for them.

46 For they will sin against you, for there is no man who will not sin, and you will bring against them and hand them over before enemies, and those taking them captive will carry them captive to a land far or near,

47 and they will turn their hearts in the land to which they were taken, and turn back and supplicate you in the land of their exile, saying, We have sinned, acted lawlessly, done wrong,

48 and turn back to you with all their heart and all their soul in the land of their enemies to which you brought them, and pray to you toward their land which you gave their fathers, the city which I chose, and the house which I built for your name,

49 then hear from heaven, from your ready dwelling place,

50 and be merciful to their wrongdoings by which they sinned against you, and to all their transgressions by which they transgressed against you, and give them compassion before those holding them captive, and they shall have compassion on them.

51 For they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out from the land of Egypt, from the midst of an iron furnace.

52 And let your eyes and your ears be open to the supplication of your servant and to the supplication of your people Israel, to hear them in everything for which they call upon you,

53 for you set them apart for yourself as an inheritance from all the peoples of the earth, as you spoke by the hand of your servant Moses when you brought our fathers out from the land of Egypt, Lord, Lord.

53 Then Solomon spoke about the house when he finished building it: The Lord made the sun known in heaven; he said to dwell in gloom. Build my house, a splendid house for yourself, to dwell in newness. Is this not written in the book of song?

54 And it happened when Solomon finished praying to the Lord all this prayer and supplication, that he arose from before the altar of the Lord, having knelt upon his knees with his hands spread toward heaven.

55 And he stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a great voice, saying,

56 Blessed is the Lord today, who gave rest to his people Israel according to all he spoke; not one word failed of all his good words which he spoke by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 May the Lord our God be with us as he was with our fathers; may he neither abandon us nor turn us away,

58 to incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways and keep all his commandments and his ordinances which he commanded our fathers.

59 And may these words with which I made supplication before the Lord our God be near to the Lord our God day and night, to do justice for your servant and justice for your people Israel, each day's matter in its day,

60 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the Lord is God, he is God and there is no other.

61 And let our hearts be complete toward the Lord our God and walk holily in his ordinances and keep his commandments, as on this day.

62 And the king and all the sons of Israel sacrificed a sacrifice before the Lord.

63 And King Solomon sacrificed the sacrifices of peace offerings that he sacrificed to the Lord, twenty-two thousand oxen and one hundred twenty thousand sheep; and the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord.

64 On that day the king consecrated the middle of the courtyard before the house of the Lord, for there he made the whole burnt offering and the sacrifices and the fats of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar before the Lord was too small to bear the whole burnt offering and the sacrifices of the peace offerings.

65 And Solomon held the feast on that day, and all Israel with him, a great assembly from the entrance of Emath as far as the river of Egypt, before the Lord our God in the house he built, eating and drinking and rejoicing before the Lord our God for seven days.

66 And on the eighth day he sent the people away and blessed them, and each went to his tent rejoicing and with a good heart over the good things which the Lord had done for David his servant and for Israel his people.

Chapter 9

1 And it happened when Solomon finished building the house of the Lord and the king's house and all Solomon's work which he wished to do,

2 that the Lord appeared to Solomon a second time, as he had appeared in Gabaon.

3 And the Lord said to him, I have heard the voice of your prayer and your supplication which you made before me; I have done for you according to all your prayer, I have consecrated this house which you built, to set my name there forever, and my eyes and my heart shall be there all the days.

4 And you, if you walk before me as David your father walked, in holiness of heart and in uprightness and doing according to all I commanded him, and keep my ordinances and my commandments,

5 then I shall establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I spoke to David your father, saying, A man of yours leading in Israel shall not be taken away.

6 But if you and your children turn away from me and do not keep my commandments and my ordinances which Moses gave before you, and go and serve other gods and bow to them,

7 then I shall remove Israel from the land which I gave them, and this house which I consecrated for my name I shall cast away from my face, and Israel shall become a disappearance and a byword among all peoples.

8 And this high house, everyone passing through it shall be astonished and whistle and say, Why has the Lord done thus to this land and this house?

9 And they shall say, Because they abandoned the Lord their God who brought their fathers out of Egypt, out of a house of bondage, and took hold of foreign gods and bowed to them and served them; therefore the Lord brought this evil upon them.

9 Then Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David into his house which he built for himself in those days.

10 Twenty years in which Solomon built the two houses, the house of the Lord and the king's house,

11 Chiram king of Tyre supported Solomon with cedar wood and pine wood and gold and all his desire. Then the king gave Chiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Chiram went out from Tyre and went to Galilee to see the cities Solomon gave him, and they did not please him.

13 And he said, What are these cities that you gave me, brother? And he called them Border to this day.

14 And Chiram brought Solomon a hundred and twenty talents of gold,

26 and a ship for which King Solomon made in Gasiongaber, which is beside Ailath on the shore of the farthest sea in the land of Edom.

27 And Chiram sent in the ship of his servants seafaring men who knew how to sail the sea with Solomon's servants.

28 And they came to Sophera and took from there a hundred and twenty talents of gold and brought them to King Solomon.

Chapter 10

1 And the queen of Saba heard the name of Solomon and the name of the Lord and came to test him with riddles.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very heavy force, and camels carrying spices and very much gold and precious stone, and she went in to Solomon and spoke to him all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her words; there was no word overlooked by the king that he did not tell her.

4 And the queen of Saba saw all Solomon's understanding and the house which he built,

5 and Solomon's food and the seating of his servants and the standing of his ministers and his clothing and his cupbearers and his whole burnt offering which he offered in the house of the Lord, and she became beside herself.

6 And she said to King Solomon, The word I heard in my land about your word and your understanding was true,

7 and I did not believe those who spoke to me until I came and my eyes saw; and behold, there is not half as much as they told me, you have added good things to it beyond all the report I heard in my land.

8 Blessed are your women, blessed are these servants of yours who stand before you continually and hear all your understanding.

9 May the Lord your God be blessed, who took pleasure in you to place you upon the throne of Israel; because the Lord loves Israel to establish it forever, he placed you as king over them to do judgment in righteousness and in their judgments.

10 And she gave Solomon a hundred and twenty talents of gold and very many spices and precious stone; spices like those had not yet come in such quantity as the queen of Saba gave King Solomon.

11 [And Chiram's ship that carried gold from Souphir brought very much hewn wood and precious stone.

12 And the king made the hewn wood into supports for the house of the Lord and the king's house, and harps and lyres for the singers; such hewn wood had not come upon the earth nor been seen anywhere until this day.]

13 And King Solomon gave the queen of Saba all she desired, all she asked, besides all that he had given her by the hand of King Solomon; and she turned and went to her land, she and all her servants.

14 And the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,

15 apart from the levies of the subjects and of the merchants and of all the kings of the region beyond and the satraps of the land.

16 And Solomon made three hundred beaten golden spears; three hundred pieces of gold were upon each spear.

17 And three hundred beaten golden arms; three minas of gold were in each arm; and he placed them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

18 And the king made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with refined gold.

19 There were six steps to the throne, and heads of calves for the throne at its back, and arms on either side at the seat, and two lions standing beside the arms,

20 and twelve lions standing upon the six steps on either side; nothing like it existed in any kingdom.

21 And all Solomon's drinking vessels were gold and the basins were gold, all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon enclosed with gold; there was no silver, for it was not reckoned in Solomon's days.

22 For the king had a ship of Tharsis at sea with Chiram's ships; once in three years a ship came to the king from Tharsis with gold and silver and carved and hewn stones.

22 This was the work of the levy which King Solomon raised to build the house of the Lord and the king's house and the wall of Jerusalem and the citadel, to enclose the enclosure of the city of David, and Assour and Magdan and Gazer and upper Baithoron and Jethermath and all the chariot cities and all the horsemen's cities and the work of Solomon which he undertook to build in Jerusalem and in all the land, so as not to begin it.

23 All the people remaining of the Chettite and the Amorite and the Pherezite and the Chananite and the Evaite and the Jebusite and the Gergesaite, who were not of the sons of Israel, their children remaining after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel were not able to destroy, Solomon raised them for tribute until this day.

24 And Solomon did not assign the sons of Israel to work, for they were the men who were warriors and his servants and commanders of his chariots and his horsemen.

23 And Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and understanding.

24 And all the kings of the earth sought Solomon's face to hear his understanding which the Lord placed in his heart.

25 And each brought his gifts, golden vessels and clothing, stacte and spices and horses and mules, year by year.

26 And Solomon had four thousand female horses for chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, and he placed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

26 And he was ruler of all the kings from the river to the land of the foreigners and to the borders of Egypt.

27 And the king made gold and silver in Jerusalem like stones, and cedars he made as numerous as the sycamores in the plain.

28 And the export of Solomon's horses was from Egypt and from Thekoue; the king's merchants acquired them from Thekoue in exchange.

29 And the export came up from Egypt, a chariot for a hundred pieces of silver and a horse for fifty pieces of silver; and thus they went out by sea to all the kings of the Chettiim and the kings of Syria.

Chapter 11

1 And King Solomon was a lover of women. And he had seven hundred ruling women and three hundred concubines. And he took foreign women and Pharaoh's daughter, Moabite women, Ammanite women, Syrian and Idumaean women, Chettite and Amorite women,

2 from the nations about which the Lord had forbidden the sons of Israel: You shall not go in to them, and they shall not go in to you, lest they turn your hearts after their idols. To these Solomon clung in love.

4 And it happened in the time of Solomon's old age that his heart was not complete with the Lord his God as the heart of David his father was, and the foreign women turned his heart after their gods.

5 Then Solomon built a high place for Chamos, an idol of Moab, and for their king, an idol of the sons of Ammon,

6 and for Astarte, an abomination of the Sidonians.

7 And thus he did for all his foreign women, burning incense and sacrificing to their idols.

8 And Solomon did evil before the Lord; he did not walk after the Lord as David his father did.

9 And the Lord was angry with Solomon because he turned his heart away from the Lord God of Israel who had appeared to him twice

10 and had commanded him concerning this matter not at all to go after other gods, and to take care to do what the Lord God commanded him.

11 And the Lord said to Solomon, Because these things happened with you and you did not keep my commandments and my ordinances which I commanded you, I shall surely tear your kingdom from your hand and give it to your servant.

12 But in your days I shall not do it for the sake of David your father; from the hand of your son I shall take it.

13 Yet I shall certainly not take the whole kingdom; I shall give one scepter to your son for the sake of David my servant and Jerusalem, the city which I chose.

14 And the Lord raised up a satan for Solomon, Ader the Idumaean, and Esrom son of Eliadae who was in Raemmath under Adrazar king of Souba, his lord; and men gathered to him, and he was leader of a band and seized Damascus beforehand; and they were satans to Israel all the days of Solomon. And Ader the Idumaean was of the royal seed in Idumaea.

15 And it happened when David destroyed Edom, when Joab the commander of the army went to bury the wounded, they cut down every male in Idumaea,

16 for Joab and all Israel stayed there six months in Idumaea, until he destroyed every male from Idumaea.

17 And Ader fled, he and all the Idumaean men among his father's servants with him, and they entered Egypt; and Ader was a small boy.

18 And men arose from the city of Madiam and came to Pharan and took men with them and came to Pharaoh king of Egypt; and Ader went in to Pharaoh, and he gave him a house and appointed bread for him.

19 And Ader found very great favor before Pharaoh, and he gave him as wife his wife's sister, the sister of the elder Thekemina.

20 And Thekemina's sister bore to Ader her son Ganebath, and Thekemina brought him up among Pharaoh's sons, and Ganebath was among Pharaoh's sons.

21 And Ader heard in Egypt that David had lain down with his fathers and that Joab the commander of the army had died; and Ader said to Pharaoh, Send me away, and I shall return to my land.

22 And Pharaoh said to Ader, In what are you lacking with me? And behold, you seek to depart to your land. And Ader said to him, But you shall surely send me away. And Ader returned to his land.

25 This was the evil which Ader did; and he was heavy in spirit in Israel and reigned in the land of Edom.

26 And Jeroboam son of Nabat, the Ephrathite from Sarira, son of a widowed woman, a servant of Solomon,

27 and this was the matter when he raised hands against King Solomon: he built the citadel and closed the enclosure of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jeroboam was mighty in strength, and Solomon saw that the young man was a man of works, and appointed him over the burdens of the house of Joseph.

29 And it happened at that time that Jeroboam went out from Jerusalem, and Achias the Selonite prophet found him on the road and led him aside from the road; and Achias was clothed in a new garment, and both were in the plain.

30 And Achia took hold of his new garment upon him and tore it into twelve tears

31 and said to Jeroboam, Take ten tears for yourself, for thus says the Lord God of Israel: Behold, I tear the kingdom from the hand of Solomon and shall give you ten scepters,

32 and two scepters shall be his for the sake of David my servant and Jerusalem the city which I chose in it from all the tribes of Israel,

33 because he abandoned me and acted for Astarte, the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chamos and the idols of Moab and their king, the abhorrence of the sons of Ammon, and did not walk in my ways to do what is right before me as David his father did.

34 And I shall certainly not take the whole kingdom from his hand, because I shall surely stand against him all the days of his life, for the sake of David my servant whom I chose.

35 And I shall take the kingdom from the hand of his son and give you the ten scepters,

36 but to his son I shall give the two scepters, so that there may be a place for my servant David all the days before me in Jerusalem, the city which I chose for myself to place my name there.

37 And I shall take you, and you shall reign over what your soul desires, and you shall be king over Israel.

38 And it shall be, if you keep all that I command you and walk in my ways and do what is right before me, taking care to keep my commandments and my ordinances as David my servant did, then I shall be with you and build you a faithful house, as I built for David.

40 And Solomon sought to put Jeroboam to death, and he arose and fled to Egypt to Sousakim king of Egypt and was in Egypt until Solomon died.

41 And the rest of Solomon's words and all that he did and all his understanding, are they not written in the book of Solomon's words?

42 And the days Solomon reigned in Jerusalem were forty years.

43 And Solomon lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David his father. And it happened when Jeroboam son of Nabat heard, while he was still in Egypt, having fled from before Solomon and dwelt in Egypt, he made his way and came to his city in the land of Sarira in the hill country of Ephraim. And King Solomon lay down with his fathers, and Roboam his son reigned instead of him.

Chapter 12

1 And King Roboam went to Sikima, for all Israel came to Sikima to make him king.

3 And the people spoke to King Roboam, saying,

4 Your father made our yoke heavy; now you lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he placed upon us, and we shall serve you.

5 And he said to them, Go away for three days and return to me; and they went away.

6 And the king gave notice to the elders who had stood before Solomon his father while he was still alive, saying, How do you advise that I answer this people with a word?

7 And they spoke to him, saying, If today you become a servant to this people and serve them and speak good words to them, they will be your servants all the days.

8 And he abandoned the counsel of the elders which they had given him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him.

9 And he said to them, What do you advise, and what shall I answer this people who spoke to me, saying, Lighten the yoke that your father placed upon us?

10 And the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him spoke to him, saying, Thus you shall speak to this people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, and now you lighten it from us; thus you shall speak to them: My little part is thicker than my father's waist.

11 And now my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, and I shall add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I shall discipline you with scorpions.

12 And all Israel came to King Roboam on the third day, as the king had spoken to them, saying, Return to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered the people harshly, and Roboam abandoned the counsel of the elders which they had given him.

14 And he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I shall add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, and I shall discipline you with scorpions.

15 And the king did not listen to the people, for a turning was from the Lord so that he might establish his word which he spoke by the hand of Achia the Selonite concerning Jeroboam son of Nabat.

16 And all Israel saw that their king did not listen to them, and the people answered the king, saying, What share have we in David? And we have no inheritance in the son of Jessai. Go away, Israel, to your tents. Now tend your house, David. And Israel went away to its tents.

18 And the king sent Adoniram, the one over the tribute, and all Israel stoned him with stones, and he died; and King Roboam managed to go up to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel rejected the house of David until this day.

20 And it happened when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned from Egypt that they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over Israel; and there was none following the house of David except the scepter of Judah and Benjamin alone.

21 And Roboam came into Jerusalem and assembled the congregation of Judah and the scepter of Benjamin, a hundred and twenty thousand young men who made war, to fight against the house of Israel to return the kingdom to Roboam son of Solomon.

22 And the word of the Lord came to Samaia the man of God, saying,

23 Say to Roboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and the remainder of the people, saying,

24 Thus says the Lord: You shall not go up nor fight with your brothers, the sons of Israel. Let each return to his own house, for this matter has come from me. And they heard the word of the Lord and stopped going, according to the word of the Lord.

24 And King Solomon lay down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Roboam his son reigned instead of him in Jerusalem, being a son of sixteen years when he began to reign, and he reigned twelve years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Naanan daughter of Anan son of Naas king of the sons of Ammon; and he did evil before the Lord and did not walk in the way of David his father.

25 And there was a man from the hill country of Ephraim, a servant of Solomon, and his name was Jeroboam, and his mother's name was Sarira, a prostitute; and Solomon made him a commander of the staff over the burdens of the house of Joseph, and he built Sarira in the hill country of Ephraim for Solomon, and he had chariots of three hundred horses; he built the citadel among the burdens of the house of Ephraim, he closed the city of David, and he was exalting himself toward the kingdom.

26 And Solomon sought to put him to death, and he feared and fled to Sousakim king of Egypt and was with him until Solomon died.

27 And Jeroboam heard in Egypt that Solomon had died, and spoke into the ears of Sousakim king of Egypt, saying, Send me away and I shall go to my land. And Sousakim said to him, Ask some request and I shall give it to you.

28 And Sousakim gave Jeroboam Ano, sister of Thekemina, the elder of his wife, as wife; she was great among the king's daughters and bore Jeroboam his son Abia.

29 And Jeroboam said to Sousakim, Indeed send me away, and I shall go. And Jeroboam went out from Egypt and came to the land of Sarira in the hill country of Ephraim; and all the scepter of Ephraim gathered there; and Jeroboam built a palisade there.

30 And his young child became sick with a very severe sickness; and Jeroboam went to inquire about the child; and he said to Ano his wife, Arise and go, inquire of God about the child, whether he will live from his sickness.

31 And there was a man in Selo, and his name was Achia, and he was a son of sixty years, and the word of the Lord was with him. And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise and take in your hand for the man of God loaves and small cakes for his children and a cluster of grapes and a jar of honey.

32 And the woman arose and took in her hand loaves and two small cakes and a cluster of grapes and a jar of honey for Achia; and the man was old, and his eyes were dim for seeing.

24 And she arose from Sarira and went, and it happened as she entered the city toward Achia the Selonite that Achia said to his young servant, Go out now to meet Ano the wife of Jeroboam and say to her, Come in and do not stand still, for thus says the Lord: I shall send harsh things upon you.

25 And Ano went in to the man of God, and Achia said to her, Why have you brought me loaves and a cluster of grapes and small cakes and a jar of honey? Thus says the Lord: Behold, you shall depart from me, and when you enter the gate into Sarira your girls shall come out to meet you and say to you, The child has died.

26 For thus says the Lord: Behold, I shall destroy of Jeroboam one who urinates against a wall, and the dogs shall eat those of Jeroboam who die in the city, and the birds of heaven shall eat the one who dies in the field. And they shall lament the child, Alas, lord, for a good word concerning the Lord was found in him.

27 And the woman went away as she heard, and it happened as she entered Sarira that the child died, and the cry came out to meet her.

28 And Jeroboam went to Sikima in the hill country of Ephraim and gathered the tribes of Israel there, and Roboam son of Solomon went up there. And the word of the Lord came to Samaia the Elamite, saying, Take for yourself a new garment that has not gone into water and tear it into twelve tears and give it to Jeroboam and say to him, Thus says the Lord: Take for yourself ten tears to put around yourself. And Jeroboam took them; and Samaia said, Thus says the Lord concerning the ten tribes of Israel.

29 And the people said to Roboam son of Solomon, Your father made his yoke heavy upon us and made the food of his table heavy; and now if you lighten it upon us, we shall serve you. And Roboam said to the people, In three more days I shall answer you with a word.

30 And Roboam said, Bring the elders in to me, and I shall consult with them about what word I shall answer the people on the third day. And Roboam spoke into their ears as the people had sent to him, and the elders of the people said, Thus the people spoke to you.

25 And Roboam scattered their counsel, and it did not please him; and he sent and brought in his companions and spoke the same things to them: And these things the people sent to me, saying. And his companions said, Thus you shall speak to the people, saying, My little part is thicker than my father's waist; my father whipped you with whips, but I shall rule over you with scorpions.

26 And the word pleased Roboam, and he answered the people as his companions, the young men, had counseled him.

27 And all the people said as one man, each to his neighbor, and all cried out, saying, We have no share in David nor inheritance in the son of Jessai; to your tents, Israel, for this man is neither a ruler nor a leader.

28 And all the people scattered from Sikima, and each went to his tent. And Roboam prevailed and went away and mounted his chariot and entered Jerusalem, and all the scepter of Judah and all the scepter of Benjamin went after him.

24 And it happened at the turn of the year that Roboam gathered every man of Judah and Benjamin and went up to fight against Jeroboam in Sikima.

25 And the word of the Lord came to Samaia the man of God, saying, Say to Roboam king of Judah and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and to the remnant of the people, saying, Thus says the Lord: You shall not go up nor fight against your brothers, the sons of Israel. Return each to his house, for this matter has come from me.

26 And they heard the word of the Lord and refrained from going, according to the word of the Lord.

25 And Jeroboam built Sikima in the hill country of Ephraim and lived in it; and he went out from there and built Phanouel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Behold, now the kingdom shall return to the house of David.

27 If this people goes up to offer sacrifices in the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, then the heart of the people will turn to the Lord and to their lord, Roboam king of Judah, and they will kill me.

28 And the king took counsel and went and made two golden heifers and said to the people, Let it suffice for you to go up to Jerusalem. Behold your gods, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.

29 And he placed one in Bethel and one he placed in Dan.

30 And this matter became a sin; and the people went before the one as far as Dan.

31 And he made houses on high places and made priests, a certain portion from the people, who were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam made a feast in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month like the feast in the land of Judah, and went up on the altar which he made in Bethel to sacrifice to the heifers which he made, and stationed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he made.

33 And he went up on the altar which he made on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, at the feast which he devised from his heart, and made a feast for the sons of Israel and went up on the altar to burn sacrifice.

Chapter 13

1 And behold, a man of God from Judah came by the word of the Lord to Bethel, and Jeroboam stood at the altar to burn sacrifice.

2 And he called out to the altar by the word of the Lord and said, Altar, altar, thus says the Lord: Behold, a son is born to the house of David; his name is Josias, and he shall sacrifice upon you the priests of the high places who burn sacrifice upon you, and shall burn human bones upon you.

3 And he gave a sign on that day, saying, This is the word that the Lord spoke, saying, Behold, the altar is torn apart, and the fatness upon it shall be poured out.

4 And it happened when King Jeroboam heard the words of the man of God who called out against the altar in Bethel that the king stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, Seize him; and behold, the hand he stretched toward him withered, and he could not draw it back to himself.

5 And the altar was torn apart, and the fatness was poured out from the altar according to the sign which the man of God gave by the word of the Lord.

6 And King Jeroboam said to the man of God, Entreat the face of the Lord your God, and let my hand return to me. And the man of God entreated the face of the Lord, and he restored the king's hand to him, and it became as before.

7 And the king spoke to the man of God, Come in with me to the house and eat a meal, and I shall give you a gift.

8 And the man of God said to the king, If you give me half your house, I shall not go in with you nor eat bread nor drink water in this place.

9 For thus the Lord commanded me by word, saying, Do not eat bread and do not drink water and do not return by the way in which you went.

10 And he went away by another way and did not return by the way in which he came to Bethel.

11 And one old prophet dwelt in Bethel, and his sons came and related to him all the deeds that the man of God did that day in Bethel and the words he spoke to the king; and they turned to the face of their father.

12 And their father spoke to them, saying, By which way has he gone? And his sons showed him the way by which the man of God who came from Judah went up.

13 And he said to his sons, Saddle the donkey for me; and they saddled the donkey for him, and he mounted it.

14 And he went after the man of God and found him sitting under an oak and said to him, Are you the man of God who has come from Judah? And he said to him, I am.

15 And he said to him, Come with me and eat bread.

16 And he said, I shall certainly not be able to return with you, nor shall I eat bread or drink water in this place.

17 For thus the Lord has commanded me by word, saying, Do not eat bread there and do not drink water there and do not return by the way in which you went.

18 And he said to him, I too am a prophet as you are, and an angel has spoken to me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him back with you to your house, and let him eat bread and drink water. And he lied to him.

19 And he brought him back, and he ate bread and drank water in his house.

20 And it happened while they sat at the table that the word of the Lord came to the prophet who brought him back,

21 and he said to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, Thus says the Lord: Because you provoked the word of the Lord and did not keep the commandment which the Lord your God commanded you,

22 and you returned and ate bread and drank water in this place of which he spoke to you, saying, Do not eat bread and do not drink water, your body shall certainly not enter the tomb of your fathers.

23 And it happened after eating bread and drinking water that he saddled the donkey for him, and he returned.

24 And he went away, and a lion found him on the road and put him to death, and his body was cast upon the road, and the donkey stood beside it, and the lion stood beside the body.

25 And behold, men passing by saw the corpse cast upon the road, and the lion stood beside the corpse; and they came in and spoke in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And the one who had brought him back from the road heard and said, This is the man of God who provoked the word of the Lord.

28 And he went and found his body cast upon the road, and the donkey and the lion stood beside the body, and the lion had not eaten the body of the man of God and had not torn the donkey.

29 And the prophet lifted the body of the man of God and placed it upon the donkey, and the prophet brought him back to the city to bury him

30 in his own tomb; and they lamented him, Alas, brother.

31 And it happened after he lamented him that he said to his sons, saying, When I die, bury me in this tomb in which the man of God is buried; place me beside his bones, so that my bones may be preserved with his bones.

32 For the word which he spoke by the word of the Lord against the altar in Bethel and against the houses of the high places in Samaria shall surely come to pass.

33 And after this word Jeroboam did not turn back from his evil, and he turned and made priests of the high places from a portion of the people; whoever wished, he filled his hand, and he became a priest for the high places.

34 And this matter became sin for the house of Jeroboam and ruin and disappearance from the face of the earth. ... 211 21 And Roboam son of Solomon reigned over Judah; Roboam was a son of forty-one years when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord chose to place his name there from all the tribes of Israel; and his mother's name was Naama the Ammanite.

Chapter 14

22 And Roboam did evil before the Lord and provoked him to jealousy in all that his fathers did and in their sins with which they sinned.

23 And they built for themselves high places and pillars and groves upon every high hill and beneath every shady tree.

24 And a bond came about in the land, and they did some of all the abominations of the nations which the Lord removed from before the sons of Israel.

25 And it happened in the fifth year of Roboam's reign that Sousakim king of Egypt went up against Jerusalem

26 and took all the treasures of the house of the Lord and the treasures of the king's house and the golden spears which David had taken from the hand of the servants of Adraazar king of Souba and brought into Jerusalem; he took everything, the golden arms.

27 And King Roboam made bronze arms instead of them. And the leaders of the runners who guarded the entrance of the king's house placed them upon him.

28 And it happened when the king entered the house of the Lord that the runners carried them and leaned them in the thee of the runners.

29 And the rest of the words of Roboam and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days for the kings of Judah?

30 And there was war between Roboam and Jeroboam all the days.

31 And Roboam lay down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Abiou his son reigned instead of him.

Chapter 15

1 And in the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam son of Nabat, Abiou son of Roboam reigned over Judah,

2 and he reigned six years, and his mother's name was Maacha daughter of Abessalom.

3 And he walked in the sins of his father which he did before him, and his heart was not complete with the Lord his God as the heart of David his father was.

4 For David's sake the Lord gave him a remnant, to establish his children after him and establish Jerusalem,

5 as David did what was right before the Lord and did not turn aside from all that he commanded him all the days of his life.

7 And the rest of Abiou's words and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days for the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abiou and Jeroboam.

8 And Abiou lay down with his fathers in the twenty-fourth year of Jeroboam and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Asa his son reigned instead of him.

9 In the twenty-fourth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa reigned over Judah,

10 and he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Ana daughter of Abessalom.

11 And Asa did what was right before the Lord as David his father did.

12 And he removed the rites from the land and sent away all the practices that his fathers had made.

13 And he removed Ana his mother from being leader, as she had made an assembly in her grove, and Asa cut down her descents and burned them with fire in the brook Kedron.

14 But he did not remove the high places; nevertheless Asa's heart was complete with the Lord all his days.

15 And he brought in the pillars of his father and his own pillars into the house of the Lord, silver and gold and vessels.

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasa king of Israel all the days.

17 And Baasa king of Israel went up against Judah and built Rama so that no one might go out or come in for Asa king of Judah.

18 And Asa took the silver and gold found in the treasuries of the king's house and gave them into the hands of his servants, and King Asa sent them to the son of Ader son of Taberemman son of Azin king of Syria, who lived in Damascus, saying,

19 Make a covenant between me and you and between my father and your father; behold, I have sent you gifts of silver and gold; come, break your covenant with Baasa king of Israel, and he will go up away from me.

20 And the son of Ader listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the cities of Israel and struck Ain and Dan and Abelmaa and all Chezrath as far as all the land of Nephthali.

21 And it happened when Baasa heard that he stopped building Rama and returned to Thersa.

22 And King Asa gave notice to all Judah at Ainakim, and they carried away the stones of Rama and its timbers with which Baasa had built, and King Asa built with them all the hill of Benjamin and the watchtower.

23 And the rest of Asa's words and all his power which he exercised, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days for the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he suffered in his feet.

24 And Asa lay down and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Josaphat his son reigned instead of him.

25 And Nadab son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil before the Lord and walked in his father's way and in his sins with which he caused Israel to sin.

27 And Baasa son of Achia besieged him against the house of Belaan and struck him in Gabathon of the foreigners, and Nadab and all Israel had besieged Gabathon.

28 And Baasa put him to death in the third year of Asa son of Abiou king of Judah and reigned.

29 And it happened when he reigned that he struck the house of Jeroboam and did not leave any breath of Jeroboam until he destroyed him according to the word of the Lord which he spoke by the hand of his servant Achia the Selonite

30 concerning the sins of Jeroboam by which he caused Israel to sin and his provocation by which he provoked the Lord God of Israel.

31 And the rest of Nadab's words and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days for the kings of Israel?

33 And in the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasa son of Achia reigned over Israel in Thersa for twenty-four years.

34 And he did evil before the Lord and walked in the way of Jeroboam son of Nabat and in his sins by which he caused Israel to sin.

Chapter 16

1 And the word of the Lord came by the hand of Jou son of Anani to Baasa:

2 Because I raised you from the earth and made you leader over my people Israel, and you walked in the way of Jeroboam and caused my people Israel to sin, to provoke me with their vanities,

3 behold, I raise up after Baasa and after his house, and I shall make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nabat.

4 The dogs shall eat the one of Baasa who dies in the city, and the birds of heaven shall eat the one of his who dies in the plain.

5 And the rest of Baasa's words and all that he did and his acts of power, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?

6 And Baasa lay down with his fathers and was buried in Thersa, and Ela his son reigned instead of him in the twentieth year of King Asa.

7 And by the hand of Jou son of Anani the Lord spoke against Baasa and his house for all the evil which he did before the Lord to provoke him with the works of his hands, to become like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck him.

8 And Ela son of Baasa reigned over Israel two years in Thersa.

9 And Zambri, commander of half the cavalry, conspired against him, and he was in Thersa drinking himself drunk in the house of Osa the steward in Thersa.

10 And Zambri entered and struck him and put him to death and reigned instead of him.

11 And it happened when he reigned, when he sat on his throne, that he struck the whole house of Baasa

12 according to the word which the Lord spoke against the house of Baasa to Jou the prophet,

13 concerning all the sins of Baasa and Ela his son, by which he caused Israel to sin, to provoke the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

14 And the rest of Ela's words and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?

15 And Zambri reigned seven days in Thersa. And the camp of Israel was against Gabathon of the foreigners,

16 and the people in the camp heard them saying, Zambri has conspired and struck the king; and they made Ambri, the commander of the army, king over Israel on that day in the camp.

17 And Ambri and all Israel with him went up from Gabathon and besieged Thersa.

18 And it happened when Zambri saw that his city had been seized beforehand, he went into a chamber of the king's house and burned the king's house over himself with fire and died

19 for his sins which he committed by doing evil before the Lord, walking in the way of Jeroboam son of Nabat and in his sins by which he caused Israel to sin.

20 And the rest of Zambri's words and the plots which he plotted, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?

21 Then the people of Israel divided; half the people followed Thamni son of Gonath to make him king, and half the people followed Ambri.

22 The people following Ambri overpowered the people following Thamni son of Gonath, and Thamni and Joram his brother died at that time, and Ambri reigned after Thamni.

23 In the thirty-first year of King Asa, Ambri reigned over Israel twelve years. In Thersa he reigned six years.

24 And Ambri acquired Mount Semeron from Semer, owner of the mountain, for two talents of silver and built upon the mountain and called the name of the mountain which he built Saemeron after the name of Semer, owner of the mountain.

25 And Ambri did evil before the Lord and acted more wickedly than all who were before him.

26 And he walked in every way of Jeroboam son of Nabat and in his sins by which he caused Israel to sin, to provoke the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

27 And the rest of Ambri's words and all that he did and his power, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Israel?

28 And Ambri lay down with his fathers and was buried in Samaria, and Achaab his son reigned instead of him.

28 And in the eleventh year of Ambri, Josaphat son of Asa reigned, being thirty-five years old at his accession, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Gazouba daughter of Selei.

29 And he walked in the way of Asa his father and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right before the Lord; but they did not remove the high places, and they sacrificed on the high places and burned incense.

30 And what Josaphat arranged, and all the power which he exercised and those whom he fought, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days of the kings of Judah?

31 And the rest of the entanglements which they had undertaken in the days of Asa his father he removed from the land.

32 And there was no king in Syria, a nasib.

33 And King Josaphat made a ship for Tharsis to go to Sophir for gold; and it did not go, because the ship was broken in Gasiongaber.

34 Then the king of Israel said to Josaphat, I shall send your servants and my young servants in the ship; and Josaphat did not wish it.

29 And Josaphat lay down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Joram his son reigned instead of him. In the second year of Josaphat, Achaab son of Ambri reigned; he reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

30 And Achaab did evil before the Lord; he acted more wickedly than all who were before him.

31 And it was not enough for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nabat, and he took as wife Jezabel daughter of Jethebaal king of the Sidonians and went and served Baal and bowed to him.

32 And he set up an altar to Baal in the house of his abhorrent things, which he built in Samaria.

33 And Achaab made a grove, and Achaab added provocations to provoke his own soul to be destroyed; he did evil beyond all the kings of Israel who were before him.

34 In his days Achiel the Bethelite built Jericho; with Abiron his firstborn he laid its foundation and with Segoub his younger son he set up its doors, according to the word of the Lord which he spoke by the hand of Joshua son of Naue.

Chapter 17

1 And Eliou the prophet, the Thesbite from Thesbon of Galaad, said to Achaab, As the Lord God of the forces, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, if there shall be dew and rain in these years except by the mouth of my word.

2 And the word of the Lord came to Eliou:

3 Go from here toward the east and hide by the brook Chorrath facing the Jordan.

4 And you shall drink water from the brook, and I shall command the ravens to feed you there.

5 And Eliou did according to the word of the Lord and dwelt by the brook Chorrath facing the Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread in the morning and meat in the evening, and he drank water from the brook.

7 And it happened after days that the brook dried up, because there was no rain upon the land.

8 And the word of the Lord came to Eliou:

9 Arise and go to Sarepta of Sidonia; behold, I have commanded a widowed woman there to feed you.

10 And he arose and went to Sarepta to the entrance of the city, and behold, a widowed woman there was gathering wood. And Eliou called after her and said to her, Take a little water for me in a vessel, and I shall drink.

11 And she went to take it, and Eliou called after her and said, Take a piece of bread for me in your hand.

12 And the woman said, As the Lord your God lives, if I have a cake, but only about a handful of flour in the jar and a little oil in the flask; and behold, I am gathering two little sticks, and I shall go in and make it for myself and my children, and we shall eat and die.

13 And Eliou said to her, Take courage, go in and do according to your word; but first make for me a small cake from it and bring it out to me, and afterward you shall make some for yourself and your children.

14 For thus says the Lord: The jar of flour shall not fail and the flask of oil shall not diminish until the day the Lord gives rain upon the land.

15 And the woman went and did it; and she and he and her children ate.

16 And the jar of flour did not fail and the flask of oil did not diminish according to the word of the Lord which he spoke by the hand of Eliou.

17 And it happened after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick, and his sickness was very severe until no breath was left in him.

18 And she said to Eliou, What is there between me and you, man of God? Have you come to me to recall my wrongdoings and put my son to death?

19 And Eliou said to the woman, Give me your son. And he took him from her bosom and brought him up to the upper room in which he dwelt and laid him on his bed.

20 And Eliou cried out and said, Alas for me, Lord, witness of the widow with whom I dwell, you have afflicted her by putting her son to death.

21 And he breathed upon the child three times and called upon the Lord and said, Lord my God, let the life of this child return to him.

22 And it happened thus, and the child cried out.

23 And he brought him down from the upper room into the house and gave him to his mother; and Eliou said, See, your son lives.

24 And the woman said to Eliou, Behold, I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is true.

Chapter 18

1 And it happened after many days that the word of the Lord came to Eliou in the third year, saying, Go and appear to Achaab, and I shall give rain upon the face of the earth.

2 And Eliou went to appear to Achaab. And the famine was severe in Samaria.

3 And Achaab called Abdiou the steward; [and Abdiou greatly feared the Lord,

4 and it happened when Jezabel struck the prophets of the Lord that Abdiou took a hundred men, prophets, and hid them fifty each in a cave and fed them with bread and water.]

5 And Achaab said to Abdiou, Come, let us go through the land to the springs of water and the brooks, if perhaps we may find grass and preserve horses and mules, and they shall not perish from among the livestock.

6 And they divided the way for themselves to traverse it; Achaab went alone by one way, and Abdiou went alone by another way.

7 And Abdiou was alone on the road, and Eliou came alone to meet him; and Abdiou hastened and fell on his face and said, Are you himself, my lord Eliou?

8 And Eliou said to him, I am. Go, say to your lord, Behold, Eliou.

9 And Abdiou said, What have I sinned, that you give your servant into the hand of Achaab to put me to death?

10 As the Lord your God lives, if there is a nation or kingdom to which my lord has not sent to seek you; and they said, He is not here; and he burned the kingdom and its territories, because he had not found you.

11 And now you say, Go, announce to your lord, Behold, Eliou.

12 And it shall be when I depart from you that a spirit of the Lord will lift you to a land I do not know, and I shall go in to tell Achaab, and he will kill me; and your servant has feared the Lord from his youth.

13 Was it not reported to my lord what I did when Jezabel killed the prophets of the Lord, that I hid a hundred men of the Lord's prophets, fifty each in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now you say to me, Go, say to your lord, Behold, Eliou; and he will kill me.

15 And Eliou said, As the Lord of the forces lives, before whom I stand, I shall appear to him today.

16 And Abdiou went to meet Achaab and reported to him; and Achaab ran out and went to meet Eliou.

17 And it happened when Achaab saw Eliou that Achaab said to Eliou, Are you the one who turns Israel astray?

18 And Eliou said, I do not turn Israel astray, but rather you and your father's house, because you abandon the Lord your God and you went after the Baalim.

19 And now send, gather all Israel to me at Mount Carmel and the four hundred and fifty prophets of shame and the four hundred prophets of the groves who eat at Jezabel's table.

20 And Achaab sent to all Israel and gathered all the prophets to Mount Carmel.

21 And Eliou brought them near to all and said to them, How long will you limp on both knees? If the Lord is God, go after him; but if Baal himself is, go after him. And the people did not answer a word.

22 And Eliou said to the people, I alone remain a prophet of the Lord, and the prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty men, and the prophets of the grove four hundred.

23 Let them give us two oxen, and let them choose one for themselves and cut it up and place it upon the wood, but place no fire; and I shall prepare the other ox and certainly place no fire.

24 And call in the name of your gods, and I shall call in the name of the Lord my God; and the god who hears by fire, he is God. And all the people answered and said, The word you have spoken is good.

25 And Eliou said to the prophets of shame, Choose the one calf for yourselves and prepare it first, for you are many, and call in the name of your god, but place no fire.

26 And they took the calf and prepared it and called in the name of Baal from morning until noon and said, Hear us, Baal, hear us; and there was no voice and no hearing; and they ran around upon the altar which they made.

27 And it happened at noon that Eliou the Thesbite mocked them and said, Call with a great voice, for he is a god, for he has idle talk, and perhaps at the same time he is giving an oracle, or perhaps he is asleep and will wake up.

28 And they called with a great voice and cut themselves according to their custom with swords and lances until blood poured over them.

29 And they prophesied until the evening passed. And it happened at the time for the sacrifice to go up that there was no voice, and Eliou the Thesbite spoke to the prophets of abhorrent things, saying, Move aside now, and I shall prepare my whole burnt offering; and they moved aside and went away.

30 And Eliou said to the people, Bring them near to me; and all the people came near to him.

31 And Eliou took twelve stones according to the number of the tribes of Israel, as the Lord had spoken to him, saying, Israel shall be your name.

32 And he built the stones in the name of the Lord and repaired the torn-down altar and made a thaala around the altar holding two measures of seed.

33 And he piled the split wood upon the altar which he made and cut up the whole burnt offering and placed it upon the split wood and piled it upon the altar.

34 And he said, Bring me four jars of water and pour them upon the whole burnt offering and upon the split wood; and they did so. And he said, Do it a second time; and they did it a second time. And he said, Do it a third time; and they did it a third time.

35 And the water flowed around the altar, and they filled the thaala with water.

36 And Eliou cried out to heaven and said, Lord God of Abraham and Isaac and Israel, hear me, Lord, hear me today by fire, and let all this people know that you are the Lord God of Israel and that I am your servant and that for your sake I have done these works.

37 Hear me, Lord, hear me by fire, and let this people know that you are the Lord God and that you turned the heart of this people back.

38 And fire fell from the Lord out of heaven and consumed the whole burnt offering and the split wood and the water in the thaala, and the fire rolled up the stones and the dust.

39 And all the people fell on their faces and said, Truly the Lord is God; he is God.

40 And Eliou said to the people, Seize the prophets of Baal; let none of them be saved. And they seized them, and Eliou brought them down to the brook Kison and slaughtered them there.

41 And Eliou said to Achaab, Go up and eat and drink, for there is a sound of the feet of rain.

42 And Achaab went up to eat and drink, and Eliou went up on Carmel and bent toward the earth and put his face between his knees.

43 And he said to his young servant, Go up and look toward the sea. And the young servant looked and said, There is nothing. And Eliou said, Return seven times; and the young servant returned seven times.

44 And it happened on the seventh time, and behold, a small cloud like the track of a man was bringing up water; and he said, Go up and say to Achaab, Harness your chariot and go down, lest the rain overtake you.

45 And it happened in a moment that the sky grew dark with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain; and Achaab wept and went to Jezrael.

46 And the hand of the Lord was upon Eliou, and he tightened his waist and ran before Achaab as far as Jezrael.

Chapter 19

1 And Achaab reported to Jezabel his wife all that Eliou did and how he killed the prophets with the sword.

2 And Jezabel sent to Eliou and said, If you are Eliou and I am Jezabel, may God do thus to me and thus add, for at this hour tomorrow I shall make your life like the life of one of them.

3 And Eliou feared and arose and went away for his own life and came to Bersabee of Judah and left his young servant there.

4 And he went into the wilderness a day's journey and came and sat beneath one rathm and asked for his life to die and said, Let it suffice now; take my life from me, Lord, for I am not better than my fathers.

5 And he lay down and slept there beneath a plant, and behold, someone touched him and said to him, Arise and eat.

6 And Eliou looked, and behold, at his head was a spelt cake and a flask of water; and he arose and ate and drank. And turning back, he lay down.

7 And the angel of the Lord returned a second time and touched him and said to him, Arise, eat, for the journey is long from you.

8 And he arose and ate and drank; and he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights as far as Mount Choreb.

9 And he went into the cave there and lodged there; and behold, a word of the Lord came to him and said, What are you doing here, Eliou?

10 And Eliou said, I have been very zealous for the Lord Almighty, for the sons of Israel have abandoned you; they dug down your altars and killed your prophets with the sword, and I alone remain, and they seek my life to take it.

11 And he said, You shall go out tomorrow and stand before the Lord on the mountain; behold, the Lord shall pass by. And a great strong wind breaking apart mountains and crushing rocks before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake;

12 and after the earthquake fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a voice of a gentle breeze, and there was the Lord.

13 And it happened when Eliou heard that he covered his face with his sheepskin and went out and stood below the cave; and behold, a voice came to him and said, What are you doing here, Eliou?

14 And Eliou said, I have been very zealous for the Lord Almighty, for the sons of Israel have abandoned your covenant; they pulled down your altars and killed your prophets with the sword, and I alone remain, and they seek my life to take it.

15 And the Lord said to him, Go, return to your way and you shall reach the road of the wilderness of Damascus and anoint Azael as king of Syria.

16 And you shall anoint Jou son of Namessi as king over Israel, and you shall anoint Elisaie son of Saphat from Abelmaoula as prophet in your place.

17 And it shall be that Jou will put to death the one saved from the sword of Azael, and Elisaie will put to death the one saved from the sword of Jou.

18 And you shall leave in Israel seven thousand men, all knees that have not bent a knee to Baal, and every mouth that has not bowed to him.

19 And he departed from there and found Elisaie son of Saphat, and he was plowing with oxen, twelve pairs of oxen before him and he among the twelve, and he came to him and threw his sheepskin upon him.

20 And Elisaie left the oxen and ran after Eliou and said, I shall kiss my father and follow after you; and Eliou said, Return, for I have done to you.

21 And he returned from following him and took the pairs of oxen and sacrificed and cooked them with the equipment of the oxen and gave to the people, and they ate; and he arose and went after Eliou and ministered to him.

Chapter 20

1 And Nabouthai the Jezraelite had a vineyard beside the threshing floor of Achaab king of Samaria.

2 And Achaab spoke to Nabouthai, saying, Give me your vineyard and it shall become a garden of vegetables for me, for it is nearer to my house; and I shall give you another vineyard better than it. But if it pleases you, I shall give you silver in exchange for this vineyard of yours, and it shall become a garden of vegetables for me.

3 And Nabouthai said to Achaab, May it not happen to me from my God to give you the inheritance of my fathers.

4 And Achaab's spirit became troubled, and he lay on his bed and covered his face and did not eat bread.

5 And Jezabel his wife came in to him and spoke to him, Why is your spirit troubled and why are you not eating bread?

6 And he said to her, Because I spoke to Nabouthai the Jezraelite, saying, Give me your vineyard for silver; but if you wish, I shall give you another vineyard instead of it; and he said, I shall not give you the inheritance of my fathers.

7 And Jezabel his wife said to him, Do you now thus act as king over Israel? Arise, eat bread and become yourself; I shall give you the vineyard of Nabouthai the Jezraelite.

8 And she wrote a letter in Achaab's name and sealed it with his seal and sent the letter to the elders and the free men who dwelt with Nabouthai.

9 And in the letters it was written, saying, Proclaim a fast and seat Nabouthai at the head of the people.

10 And seat two men, sons of lawless men, opposite him, and let them bear witness against him, saying, He blessed God and king. And let them bring him out and stone him, and let him die.

11 And the men of his city, the elders and free men dwelling in his city, did as Jezabel sent to them, as was written in the letters which she sent to them.

12 They proclaimed a fast and seated Nabouthai at the head of the people.

13 And two men, sons of lawless men, came and sat opposite him and bore witness against him, saying, You blessed God and king; and they led him outside the city and stoned him with stones, and he died.

14 And they sent to Jezabel, saying, Nabouthai has been stoned and has died.

15 And it happened when Jezabel heard that she said to Achaab, Arise, inherit the vineyard of Nabouthai the Jezraelite, who did not give it to you for silver, for Nabouthai is not living; he has died.

16 And it happened when Achaab heard that Nabouthai the Jezraelite had died that he tore his garments and put on sackcloth; and after these things Achaab arose and went down to the vineyard of Nabouthai the Jezraelite to inherit it.

17 And the Lord said to Eliou the Thesbite, saying,

18 Arise and go down to meet Achaab king of Israel who is in Samaria; behold, he is in Nabouthai's vineyard, for he has gone down there to inherit it.

19 And speak to him, saying, Thus says the Lord: As you murdered and inherited, therefore thus says the Lord: In every place where the swine and the dogs licked Nabouthai's blood, there the dogs shall lick your blood, and the prostitutes shall bathe in your blood.

20 And Achaab said to Eliou, Have you found me, my enemy? And he said, I have found you, because you have sold yourself in vain to do evil before the Lord, to provoke him.

21 Thus says the Lord: Behold, I bring evils upon you and shall burn up after you and destroy of Achaab one who urinates against a wall and one confined and one abandoned in Israel.

22 And I shall make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nabat and like the house of Baasa son of Achia because of the provocations with which you provoked and caused Israel to sin.

23 And concerning Jezabel the Lord spoke, saying, The dogs shall eat her by the outer wall of Jezrael.

24 The dogs shall eat the one of Achaab who dies in the city, and the birds of heaven shall eat the one of his who dies in the plain.

25 But Achaab was vainly sold to do evil before the Lord, as Jezabel his wife turned him aside.

26 And he became very abhorrent in going after abominations according to all that the Amorite did, whom the Lord destroyed from before the sons of Israel.

27 And concerning the matter, when Achaab was pierced before the Lord and went about weeping, he tore his tunic and girded sackcloth upon his body and fasted and wore sackcloth on the day when he struck Nabouthai the Jezraelite.

28 And the word of the Lord came by the hand of his servant Eliou concerning Achaab, and the Lord said, 29 Have you seen how Achaab was pierced before me? I shall not bring the evil in his days, but in the days of his son I shall bring the evil.

Chapter 21

1 And the son of Ader gathered all his force and went up and besieged Samaria, and thirty-two kings were with him and every horse and chariot; and they went up and besieged Samaria and fought against it.

2 And he sent to Achaab king of Israel in the city

3 and said to him, Thus says the son of Ader: Your silver and your gold are mine, and your women and your children are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, As you have spoken, my lord king, I am yours and all that is mine.

5 And the messengers returned and said, Thus says the son of Ader: I have sent to you, saying, Your silver and your gold and your women and your children you shall give me.

6 For at this hour tomorrow I shall send my servants to you, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants, and whatever their eyes desire, upon which they lay their hands, they shall take.

7 And the king of Israel called all the elders and said, Know now and see that this man seeks evil, for he sent to me concerning my women and my sons and my daughters; my silver and my gold I did not withhold from him.

8 And the elders and all the people said to him, Do not listen and do not consent.

9 And he said to the messengers of the son of Ader, Say to your lord, All that you first sent to your servant I shall do, but this matter I cannot do. And the men departed and returned a word to him.

10 And the son of Ader sent back to him, saying, May God do thus to me and thus add, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for the foxes of all the people on foot with me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Let it suffice; let not the bent man boast like the upright man.

12 And it happened when he answered him with this word that he and all the kings with him were drinking in tents; and he said to his servants, Build a palisade; and they placed a palisade against the city.

13 And behold, one prophet approached the king of Israel and said, Thus says the Lord: Have you seen all this great crowd? Behold, I give it into your hands today, and you shall know that I am the Lord.

14 And Achaab said, By whom? And he said, Thus says the Lord: By the young servants of the rulers of the territories. And Achaab said, Who shall begin the war? And he said, You.

15 And Achaab inspected the young servants of the rulers of the territories, and they were two hundred and thirty; and after these he inspected the people, every son of strength, sixty thousand.

16 And he went out at noon; and the son of Ader was drinking himself drunk in Sokchoth, he and the kings, thirty-two kings aiding him.

17 And the young servants of the rulers of the territories went out first. And they sent and reported to the king of Syria, saying, Men have gone out from Samaria.

18 And he said to them, If these come out for peace, seize them alive; and if for war, seize them alive.

19 And let not the young servants of the rulers of the territories go out from the city. And the force behind them

20 struck, each one the man beside him, and each one struck a second time the man beside him, and Syria fled, and Israel pursued them; and the son of Ader king of Syria escaped on a horse of a horseman.

21 And the king of Israel went out and took all the horses and chariots and struck a great blow in Syria.

22 And the prophet approached the king of Israel and said, Be strong and know and see what you shall do, for at the turn of the year the son of Ader king of Syria will come up against you.

23 And the servants of the king of Syria said, The God of Israel is a god of mountains and not a god of valleys; therefore he prevailed over us. But if we fight them on level ground, surely we shall prevail over them.

24 And do this thing: remove the kings, each from his place, and put satraps in their stead,

25 and we shall replace for you a force corresponding to the force that fell from you, and horse for horse and chariots for chariots; and we shall fight against them on level ground and prevail over them. And he listened to their voice and did so.

26 And it happened at the turn of the year that the son of Ader inspected Syria and went up to Apheka for war against Israel.

27 And the sons of Israel were inspected and came to meet them; and Israel encamped opposite them like two flocks of goats, and Syria filled the land.

28 And the man of God approached and said to the king of Israel, Thus says the Lord: Because Syria said, The Lord God of Israel is a God of mountains and he is not a God of valleys, I shall give this great force into your hand, and you shall know that I am the Lord.

29 And these encamped opposite those for seven days; and it happened on the seventh day that the battle drew near, and Israel struck Syria, a hundred thousand foot soldiers in one day.

30 And the remainder fled into Apheka, into the city, and the wall fell upon twenty-seven thousand men of the remainder. And the son of Ader fled and entered into the house of the bedchamber, into the storeroom.

31 And he said to his servants, I know that the kings of Israel are merciful kings. Let us put sackcloth on our waists and ropes on our heads and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will preserve our lives.

32 And they girded sackcloth on their waists and put ropes on their heads and said to the king of Israel, Your servant the son of Ader says, Let my life live. And he said, Is he still alive? He is my brother.

33 And the men took it as an omen and hastened and caught up the word from his mouth and said, Your brother, the son of Ader. And he said, Go in and take him. And the son of Ader came out to him, and they brought him up to him upon the chariot.

34 And he said to him, The cities that my father took from your father I shall restore to you, and you shall establish exits for yourself in Damascus, as my father established in Samaria; and I shall send you away under a covenant. And he made a covenant with him and sent him away.

35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor by the word of the Lord, Strike me, please. And the man was unwilling to strike him.

36 And he said to him, Because you did not listen to the voice of the Lord, behold, as you run away from me a lion will strike you. And he went away from him, and a lion found him and struck him.

37 And he found another man and said, Strike me, please. And the man struck him, striking and crushing him.

38 And the prophet went and stood before the king of Israel on the road and bound his eyes with a band.

39 And it happened as the king was passing by that this man cried out to the king and said, Your servant went out to the army of the war, and behold, a man brought a man to me and said to me, Guard this man; but if he escapes by escaping, then your life shall be in place of his life, or you shall pay a talent of silver.

40 And it happened that your servant looked around here and there, and he was not there. And the king of Israel said to him, Behold also the ambushes; in my presence you have murdered.

41 And he hastened and removed the band from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him, that he was of the prophets.

42 And he said to him, Thus says the Lord: Because you brought a man devoted to destruction out of your hand, your life shall be in place of his life and your people in place of his people.

43 And the king of Israel departed confused and dispirited and came to Samaria.

Chapter 22

1 And he remained three years, and there was no war between Syria and Israel.

2 And it happened in the third year that Josaphat king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said to his servants, Do you know that Remmath Galaad belongs to us, and we are silent about taking it from the hand of the king of Syria?

4 And the king of Israel said to Josaphat, Will you go up with us to Remmath Galaad for war? And Josaphat said, As I am, so are you; as my people, your people; as my horses, your horses.

5 And Josaphat king of Judah said to the king of Israel, Inquire of the Lord today, please.

6 And the king of Israel gathered all the prophets, about four hundred men, and the king said to them, Shall I go to Remmath Galaad for war, or shall I hold back? And they said, Go up, and the Lord will surely give it into the hands of the king.

7 And Josaphat said to the king of Israel, Is there no prophet of the Lord here, that we may inquire of the Lord through him?

8 And the king of Israel said to Josaphat, There is still one man through whom to inquire of the Lord, and I have hated him because he does not speak good concerning me, but only evil: Michaias son of Iemla. And Josaphat king of Judah said, Let the king not say so.

9 And the king of Israel called one eunuch and said, Quickly, Michaias son of Iemla.

10 And the king of Israel and Josaphat king of Judah were sitting, each on his throne, armed, at the gates of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

11 And Sedekias son of Chanana made for himself horns of iron and said, Thus says the Lord: With these you shall gore Syria until it is brought to an end.

12 And all the prophets prophesied thus, saying, Go up to Remmath Galaad, and it will prosper, and the Lord will give into your hands even the king of Syria.

13 And the messenger who had gone to call Michaias spoke to him, saying, Behold now, all the prophets speak good concerning the king with one mouth; let your words also be like the words of one of these, and speak good.

14 And Michaias said, As the Lord lives, whatever the Lord says to me, that I shall speak.

15 And he came to the king, and the king said to him, Michaias, shall I go up to Remmath Galaad for war, or shall I hold back? And he said, Go up, and it will prosper, and the Lord will give it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said to him, How many times do I put you under oath to speak truth to me in the name of the Lord?

17 And Michaias said, Not so. I have seen all Israel scattered on the mountains like a flock that has no shepherd, and the Lord said, These have no master; let each return to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said to Josaphat king of Judah, Did I not say to you, He prophesies no good for me, but only evil?

19 And Michaias said, Not so, not I; hear the word of the Lord, not so: I saw the Lord God of Israel sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven stood around him, on his right and on his left.

20 And the Lord said, Who will deceive Achaab king of Israel, so that he will go up and fall at Remmath Galaad? And this one said thus and that one thus.

21 And a spirit came out and stood before the Lord and said, I shall deceive him. And the Lord said to it, By what means?

22 And it said, I shall go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, You shall deceive him and indeed be able; go out and do so.

23 And now behold, the Lord has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the Lord has spoken evil against you.

24 And Sedekiou son of Chanana approached and struck Michaias on the jaw and said, What spirit of the Lord is it that spoke in you?

25 And Michaias said, Behold, you shall see on that day when you enter the innermost storeroom to hide.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Michaias and return him to Emer the ruler of the city, and to Joas the king's son

27 say to put this man in prison and to feed him bread of affliction and water of affliction until I return in peace.

28 And Michaias said, If you do return in peace, the Lord has not spoken in me.

29 And the king of Israel went up, and Josaphat king of Judah with him, to Remmath Galaad.

30 And the king of Israel said to Josaphat king of Judah, I shall disguise myself and enter into the battle, and you put on my clothing. And the king of Israel disguised himself and entered into the battle.

31 And the king of Syria commanded the thirty-two commanders of his chariots, saying, Do not fight small or great, but only the king of Israel.

32 And it happened when the commanders of the chariots saw Josaphat king of Judah that they said, This appears to be the king of Israel; and they surrounded him to fight, and Josaphat cried out.

33 And it happened when the commanders of the chariots saw that this was not the king of Israel that they turned away from him.

34 And one drew the bow with good aim and struck the king of Israel between the lung and the breastplate. And he said to his charioteer, Turn your hands and bring me out of the battle, for I am wounded.

35 And the battle turned on that day, and the king stood upon the chariot opposite Syria from morning until evening, and he was pouring the blood from the wound into the hollow of the chariot; and he died in the evening, and the blood of the rout was flowing as far as the hollow of the chariot.

36 And the army herald stood as the sun was setting, saying, Each to his own city and to his own land,

37 for the king is dead. And they came to Samaria and buried the king in Samaria.

38 And they washed the chariot at the spring of Samaria, and the swine and the dogs licked up the blood, and the prostitutes bathed in the blood, according to the word of the Lord that he had spoken.

39 And the rest of the deeds of Achaab and all that he did, and the ivory house that he built, and all the cities that he made, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 And Achaab slept with his fathers, and Ochozias his son reigned in his stead.

41 And Josaphat son of Asa reigned over Judah. He reigned in the fourth year of Achaab king of Israel.

42 Josaphat was a son of thirty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Azouba daughter of Selei.

43 And he walked in all the way of Asa his father; he did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the eyes of the Lord;

44 but he did not remove the high places; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

45 And Josaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

46 And the rest of the deeds of Josaphat and his acts of power, as many as he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

51 And Josaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Joram his son reigned in his stead.

52 And Ochozias son of Achaab reigned over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Josaphat king of Judah; and he reigned in Israel two years.

53 And he did evil before the Lord and walked in the way of Achaab his father and in the way of Jezabel his mother and in the sins of the house of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin.

54 And he served the Baals and worshiped them and provoked the Lord God of Israel according to all that had happened before him.

2 Kings

Chapter 1

1 And Moab rebelled against Israel after Achaab died.

2 And Ochozias fell through the lattice in his upper room in Samaria and became ill. And he sent messengers and said to them, Come and inquire of Baal Myian, god of Akkaron, whether I shall live from this illness of mine; and they went to inquire through him.

3 And an angel of the Lord spoke to Eliou the Thesbite, saying, Arise, come to meet the messengers of Ochozias king of Samaria, and speak to them: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you go to inquire of Baal Myian, god of Akkaron?

4 And not so; for thus says the Lord: The bed onto which you went up there, you shall not come down from it, for there you shall surely die. And Eliou went and spoke to them.

5 And the messengers returned to him, and he said to them, Why have you returned?

6 And they said to him, A man came up to meet us and said to us, Come, return to the king who sent you and speak to him: Thus says the Lord: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to seek Baal Myian, god of Akkaron? Not so; the bed onto which you went up there, you shall not come down from it, for you shall surely die.

7 And he spoke to them, saying, What was the appearance of the man who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you?

8 And they said to him, A hairy man, with a leather belt girded about his waist. And he said, This is Eliou the Thesbite.

9 And he sent to him a leader, a captain of fifty, and his fifty; and he went up and came to him, and behold, Eliou was sitting on the top of the mountain. And the captain of fifty spoke to him and said, Man of God, the king has summoned you; come down.

10 And Eliou answered and said to the captain of fifty, And if I am a man of God, fire will come down from heaven and devour you and your fifty. And fire came down from heaven and devoured him and his fifty.

11 And the king again sent to him another captain of fifty and his fifty, and he went up, and the captain of fifty spoke to him and said, Man of God, thus says the king: Come down quickly.

12 And Eliou answered and spoke to him and said, If I am a man of God, fire will come down from heaven and devour you and your fifty. And fire came down from heaven and devoured him and his fifty.

13 And the king again sent a third leader, a captain of fifty, and his fifty; and the third captain of fifty came to him and bent upon his knees before Eliou and entreated him and spoke to him and said, Man of God, let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your eyes;

14 behold, fire came down from heaven and devoured the first two captains of fifty and their fifties, and now let the life of your servants be precious in your eyes.

15 And an angel of the Lord spoke to Eliou and said, Go down with him; do not be afraid of them. And Eliou arose and went down with him to the king.

16 And he spoke to him, and Eliou said, Thus says the Lord: Why did you send messengers to seek Baal Myian, god of Akkaron? Not so; the bed onto which you went up there, you shall not come down from it, for you shall surely die.

17 And he died according to the word of the Lord that Eliou had spoken.

18 And the rest of the deeds of Ochozias, as many as he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

18 a And Joram son of Achaab reigns over Israel in Samaria for twelve years in the eighteenth year of Josaphat king of Judah.

19 And he did evil before the Lord, though not like his brothers or like his mother;

20 and he removed the pillars of Baal, which his father had made, and crushed them; but he clung to the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin; he did not depart from them.

21 And the Lord was angry with anger against the house of Achaab.

Chapter 2

1 And it happened when the Lord was taking Eliou up in a whirlwind as into heaven, that Eliou and Elisaie went from Galgala.

2 And Eliou said to Elisaie, Stay here, please, for the Lord has sent me as far as Bethel. And Elisaie said, As the Lord lives and as your soul lives, I shall not leave you. And they came to Bethel.

3 And the sons of the prophets in Bethel came to Elisaie and said to him, Do you know that the Lord today is taking your master from above your head? And he said, I too know; be silent.

4 And Eliou said to Elisaie, Stay here, please, for the Lord has sent me to Jericho. And Elisaie said, As the Lord lives and as your soul lives, I shall not abandon you. And they came to Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets in Jericho approached Elisaie and said to him, Do you know that today the Lord is taking your master from above your head? And he said, Indeed I too know; be silent.

6 And Eliou said to him, Stay here, please, for the Lord has sent me as far as the Jordan. And Elisaie said, As the Lord lives and as your soul lives, I shall not abandon you. And they both went.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets stood opposite at a distance, and the two stood at the Jordan.

8 And Eliou took his sheepskin mantle and rolled it up and struck the water, and the water was divided this way and that, and the two crossed in the wilderness.

9 And it happened when they crossed that Eliou said to Elisaie, Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken up from you. And Elisaie said, Let there be, please, a double portion of your spirit upon me.

10 And Eliou said, You have made a hard request. If you see me being taken up from you, then it shall be so for you; and if not, it shall certainly not happen.

11 And it happened as they went along and talked, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two, and Eliou was taken up in a whirlwind as into heaven.

12 And Elisaie saw and cried out, Father, father, chariot of Israel and its horseman! And he saw him no more, and he grasped his garments and tore them into two tears.

13 And he lifted up the sheepskin mantle of Eliou, which had fallen from above Elisaie, and Elisaie returned and stood on the bank of the Jordan;

14 and he took the sheepskin mantle of Eliou, which had fallen from above him, and struck the water, and it did not part. And he said, Where is the God of Eliou, affo? And he struck the waters, and they were split this way and that, and Elisaie crossed.

15 And the sons of the prophets in Jericho saw him opposite and said, The spirit of Eliou has rested upon Elisaie. And they came to meet him and bowed to him to the ground.

16 And they said to him, Behold now, with your servants are fifty men, sons of strength; let them go, please, and seek your master, lest the spirit of the Lord have lifted him and thrown him into the Jordan or upon one of the mountains or upon one of the hills. And Elisaie said, Do not send them.

17 And they pressed him until he was ashamed, and he said, Send them. And they sent fifty men, and they searched three days and did not find him;

18 and they returned to him while he was staying in Jericho, and Elisaie said, Did I not say to you, Do not go?

19 And the men of the city said to Elisaie, Behold, the dwelling place of the city is good, as my lord sees, but the waters are bad and the land is barren.

20 And Elisaie said, Bring me a new small jar and put salt there. And they brought it to him.

21 And Elisaie went out to the outlet of the waters and threw salt there and said, Thus says the Lord: I have healed these waters; no longer shall death and barrenness come from there.

22 And the waters were healed to this day according to the word of Elisaie that he spoke.

23 And he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up on the road, small children came out of the city and mocked him and said to him, Go up, bald one, go up.

24 And he turned behind them and saw them and cursed them in the name of the Lord, and behold, two bears came out of the thicket and tore forty-two children from among them.

25 And he went from there to Mount Carmel and returned from there to Samaria.

Chapter 3

1 And Joram son of Achaab reigned in Israel in the eighteenth year of Josaphat king of Judah, and he reigned twelve years.

2 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord, though not like his father and not like his mother, and he removed the pillars of Baal that his father had made;

3 but he clung to the sin of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin; he did not depart from it.

4 And Mosa king of Moab was a noked, and at the revolt he rendered to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs and a hundred thousand rams with fleeces.

5 And it happened after Achaab died that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And King Joram went out from Samaria on that day and inspected Israel;

7 and he went and sent to Josaphat king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me; will you go with me to Moab for war? And he said, I shall go up; I am like you, my people like your people, my horses like your horses.

8 And he said, By which road shall I go up? And he said, By the wilderness road of Edom.

9 And the king of Israel and the king of Judah and the king of Edom went, and they went around on a road of seven days, and there was no water for the camp and for the beasts following in their steps.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas, for the Lord has called these three kings who are passing through to give them into the hand of Moab.

11 And Josaphat said, Is there no prophet of the Lord here, that we may seek the Lord from him? And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, Here is Elisaie son of Saphat, who poured water upon Eliou's hands.

12 And Josaphat said, The word of the Lord is with him. And the king of Israel and Josaphat king of Judah and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 And Elisaie said to the king of Israel, What is there between me and you? Go to your father's prophets. And the king of Israel said to him, No, for the Lord has called these three kings to deliver them into the hands of Moab.

14 And Elisaie said, As the Lord of hosts lives, before whom I stand, if I did not regard the face of Josaphat king of Judah, would I look at you or see you?

15 And now bring me someone who plays. And it happened as the player played that the hand of the Lord came upon him,

16 and he said, Thus says the Lord: Make this torrent bed pits upon pits;

17 for thus says the Lord: You shall see no wind and shall see no rain, yet this torrent bed shall be filled with water, and you and your possessions and your beasts shall drink;

18 and this is a light thing in the eyes of the Lord, and I shall deliver Moab into your hand,

19 and you shall strike every fortified city and fell every good tree and stop up every spring of water and ruin every good portion with stones.

20 And it happened in the morning, as the sacrifice was going up, behold, waters came from the direction of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

21 And all Moab heard that the kings had gone up to fight them, and they called out everyone who girded on a belt and upward, and stood at the border.

22 And they rose early in the morning, and the sun rose upon the waters; and Moab saw the waters opposite, red like blood,

23 and they said, This is blood of the sword; the kings have fought and each man has struck his neighbor, and now to the spoil, Moab.

24 And they entered the camp of Israel, and Israel rose and struck Moab, and they fled before them. And they entered, going in and striking Moab,

25 and they pulled down the cities, and upon every good portion each man threw a stone and filled it, and they stopped up every spring of water and felled every good tree, until leaving the stones of the wall pulled down; and the slingers surrounded and struck it.

26 And the king of Moab saw that the battle had prevailed against him, and he took with him seven hundred men who drew the sword to break through to the king of Edom, and they were unable.

27 And he took his firstborn son, who reigned in his stead, and offered him as a whole burnt offering upon the wall; and great regret came upon Israel, and they departed from him and returned to the land.

Chapter 4

1 And one woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisaie, saying, Your servant my husband has died, and you know that he was a servant fearing the Lord; and the creditor has come to take my two sons as slaves for himself.

2 And Elisaie said, What shall I do for you? Tell me what you have in the house. And she said, Your servant has nothing in the house except oil with which I shall anoint myself.

3 And he said to her, Go, ask for vessels for yourself from outside, from all your neighbors, empty vessels; do not make them few,

4 and you shall enter and shut the door behind you and your sons and pour into these vessels, and what is filled you shall take away.

5 And she went from him and did so and shut the door behind herself and her sons; they brought them near to her, and she poured,

6 until the vessels were filled. And she said to her sons, Bring another vessel to me. And they said to her, There is no other vessel. And the oil stopped.

7 And she came and told the man of God, and Elisaie said, Go and sell the oil and pay your interest, and you and your sons shall live on the remaining oil.

8 And a day came when Elisaie passed through Souman, and a great woman was there and pressed him to eat bread. And it happened after some time that whenever he entered he turned aside to eat there.

9 And the woman said to her husband, Behold now, I know that this is a holy man of God who passes by us continually;

10 let us make for him a small upper room, and let us put there for him a bed and a table and a stool and a lamp, and when he comes to us he will turn aside there.

11 And a day came when he entered there and turned aside to the upper room and slept there.

12 And he said to Giezi his servant, Call this Somanite woman for me. And he called her, and she stood before him.

13 And he said to him, Say to her, Behold, you have gone through all this trouble for us; what must be done for you? Is there a matter for you with the king or with the commander of the force? And she said, I dwell among my people.

14 And he said, What must be done for her? And Giezi his servant said, Indeed she has no son, and her husband is old.

15 And he called her, and she stood by the door.

16 And Elisaie said to her, At this time, as at the hour, while living, you shall be embracing a son. And she said, No, my lord, do not deceive your servant.

17 And the woman conceived and bore a son at this time, as at the hour, while living, as Elisaie had spoken to her.

18 And the child grew strong; and it happened when the child went out to his father, to the reapers,

19 that he said to his father, My head, my head! And he said to the servant, Carry him to his mother.

20 And he carried him to his mother, and he lay on her knees until noon and died.

21 And she carried him up and laid him on the bed of the man of God and shut the door behind him and went out.

22 And she called her husband and said, Send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, please, and I shall run as far as the man of God and return.

23 And he said, Why are you going to him today? It is neither a new moon nor a sabbath. And she said, Peace.

24 And she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, Lead on, go; do not hold me back from riding unless I tell you.

25 Come, and she went and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. And it happened when Elisaie saw her coming that he said to Giezi his servant, Behold, that Somanite woman;

26 now run to meet her and say, Is it peace with you? Is it peace with your husband? Is it peace with the child? And she said, Peace.

27 And she came to Elisaie on the mountain and grasped his feet. And Giezi approached to push her away, and Elisaie said, Leave her, for her soul is in pain within her, and the Lord has hidden it from me and has not told me.

28 And she said, Did I ask my lord for a son? Did I not say, Do not mislead me?

29 And Elisaie said to Giezi, Gird your waist and take my staff in your hand and go; if you meet a man, do not greet him, and if a man greets you, do not answer him; and place my staff on the child's face.

30 And the mother of the child said, As the Lord lives and as your soul lives, I shall not abandon you. And Elisaie arose and went after her.

31 And Giezi went ahead of her and placed the staff on the child's face, and there was no voice and no hearing; and he returned to meet him and told him, saying, The child has not awakened.

32 And Elisaie entered the house, and behold, the child was dead, lying on his bed.

33 And Elisaie entered the house and shut the door behind the two of them and prayed to the Lord;

34 and he went up and lay upon the child and put his mouth upon his mouth and his eyes upon his eyes and his hands upon his hands and bent himself over him, and the child's flesh grew warm.

35 And he returned and walked in the house back and forth and went up and bent himself over the child seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And Elisaie cried out to Giezi and said, Call this Somanite woman. And he called her, and she came in to him. And Elisaie said, Take your son.

37 And the woman came in and fell at his feet and bowed to the ground and took her son and went out.

38 And Elisaie returned to Galgala, and there was famine in the land, and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And Elisaie said to his servant, Set up the large cauldron and cook a stew for the sons of the prophets.

39 And one went out to the field to gather arioth and found a vine in the field and gathered from it a wild cluster, filling his garment, and threw it into the cauldron of stew, for they did not know.

40 And he poured it out for the men to eat, and it happened as they ate from the stew that, behold, they cried out and said, Death is in the cauldron, man of God! And they could not eat.

41 And he said, Take flour and throw it into the cauldron. And Elisaie said to Giezi his servant, Pour it out for the people, and let them eat. And there was no longer any evil thing in the cauldron.

42 And a man came from Baithsarisa and brought to the man of God from the firstfruits twenty barley loaves and cakes of pressed fruit, and he said, Give to the people, and let them eat.

43 And his attendant said, What shall I set this before a hundred men? And he said, Give to the people, and let them eat, for thus says the Lord: They shall eat and leave some.

44 And they ate and left some according to the word of the Lord.

Chapter 5

1 And Naiman commander of the force of Syria was a great man before his master and admired in person, because through him the Lord gave deliverance to Syria; and the man was mighty in strength, afflicted with leprosy.

2 And the Syrians went out in bands and took captive from the land of Israel a little young girl, and she was before the wife of Naiman.

3 And she said to her mistress, If only my master were before the prophet of God in Samaria, then he would remove him from his leprosy.

4 And he went in and reported to his master and said, Thus and thus spoke the girl from the land of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria said to Naiman, Come, go in, and I shall send a letter to the king of Israel. And he went and took in his hand ten talents of silver and six thousand gold pieces and ten changes of garments.

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, And now when this letter comes to you, behold, I have sent to you Naiman my servant, and you shall remove him from his leprosy.

7 And it happened when the king of Israel read the letter that he tore his garments and said, Am I God, to put to death and to make alive, that this man sends to me to remove a man from his leprosy? But know now and see that this man seeks a pretext against me.

8 And it happened when Elisaie heard that the king of Israel had torn his garments that he sent to the king of Israel, saying, Why did you tear your garments? Let Naiman come to me, please, and let him know that there is a prophet in Israel.

9 And Naiman came with horse and chariot and stood at the door of Elisaie's house.

10 And Elisaie sent a messenger to him, saying, Go and wash seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh shall return to you, and you shall be clean.

11 And Naiman became angry and went away and said, Behold, I had said that he would come out to me and stand and call upon the name of his God and put his hand upon the place and remove the leprous condition;

12 are not Abana and Pharphar, rivers of Damascus, better than the Jordan and all the waters of Israel? Shall I not go and wash in them and be clean? And he turned aside and went away in anger.

13 And his servants approached and spoke to him, A great word the prophet spoke to you; would you not do it? And because he said to you, Wash and be clean.

14 And Naiman went down and immersed himself in the Jordan seven times according to the word of Elisaie, and his flesh returned like the flesh of a little child, and he was cleansed.

15 And he returned to Elisaie, he and all his camp, and came and stood and said, Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; and now take the blessing from your servant.

16 And Elisaie said, As the Lord lives, before whom I stand, I shall not take it. And he pressed him to take it, but he refused.

17 And Naiman said, And if not, let a load of a pair of mules be given to your servant, and you shall give me from the red earth, for your servant shall no longer make whole burnt offering and sacrifice to other gods, but to the Lord alone;

18 and may the Lord show mercy to your servant when my master enters the house of Remman to worship him and rests upon my hand and I bow in the house of Remman as he bows in the house of Remman; may the Lord show mercy to your servant in this matter.

19 And Elisaie said to Naiman, Go in peace. And he went away from him to debratha of the land.

20 And Giezi the servant of Elisaie said, Behold, my master spared this Syrian Naiman by not taking from his hand what he had brought. As the Lord lives, I shall surely run after him and take something from him.

21 And Giezi pursued Naiman, and Naiman saw him running after him and turned from the chariot to meet him.

22 And he said, Peace. My master sent me, saying, Behold, just now two young men have come to me from Mount Ephraim, from the sons of the prophets; give them, please, a talent of silver and two changes of garments.

23 And Naiman said, Take two talents of silver. And he took it in two bags and two changes of garments and gave them to two of his servants, and they carried them before him.

24 And they came to the dark place, and he took them from their hands and put them in the house and sent the men away.

25 And he himself entered and stood before his master. And Elisaie said to him, Where have you come from, Giezi? And Giezi said, Your servant has gone nowhere at all.

26 And Elisaie said to him, Did not my heart go with you when the man turned from the chariot to meet you? And now you have taken the silver and now you have taken the garments, and with it you shall acquire gardens and olive groves and vineyards and sheep and cattle and male and female servants;

27 and Naiman's leprosy shall cling to you and your offspring forever. And he went out from before him afflicted with leprosy like snow.

Chapter 6

1 And the sons of the prophets said to Elisaie, Behold now, the place where we dwell before you is too narrow for us;

2 let us go as far as the Jordan and take from there, each man, one beam, and make for ourselves a place there to dwell. And he said, Go.

3 And one said, Please, come with your servants. And he said, I shall go.

4 And he went with them, and they came to the Jordan and were cutting the wood.

5 And behold, as one was felling the beam, the iron fell into the water; and he cried out, Alas, master, and it was borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Where did it fall? And he showed him the place. And he broke off a piece of wood and threw it there, and the iron floated.

7 And he said, Lift it for yourself. And he stretched out his hand and took it.

8 And the king of Syria was warring against Israel and took counsel with his servants, saying, At such and such a place, elmoni, I shall encamp.

9 And Elisaie sent to the king of Israel, saying, Beware of passing through this place, for Syria is hidden there.

10 And the king of Israel sent to the place of which Elisaie had spoken to him and guarded himself from there, not once or twice.

11 And the soul of the king of Syria was shaken over this matter, and he called his servants and said to them, Will you not tell me who betrays me to the king of Israel?

12 And one of his servants said, No, my lord king, for Elisaie the prophet in Israel tells the king of Israel all the words you speak in the storeroom of your bedchamber.

13 And he said, Go, see where he is, and I shall send and take him. And they told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothaim.

14 And he sent there horse and chariot and a heavy force, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 And Elisaie's attendant rose early and went out, and behold, a force was surrounding the city, with horse and chariot, and the servant said to him, Alas, master, what shall we do?

16 And Elisaie said, Do not fear, for those with us are more than those with them.

17 And Elisaie prayed and said, Lord, open the eyes of the servant, and let him see. And the Lord opened his eyes, and he saw, and behold, the mountain was full of horses, and a chariot of fire was around Elisaie.

18 And they came down toward him, and Elisaie prayed to the Lord and said, Strike this nation with inability to see, please. And he struck them with inability to see according to the word of Elisaie.

19 And Elisaie said to them, This is not the city and this is not the road; come after me, and I shall lead you to the man whom you seek. And he led them to Samaria.

20 And it happened when they entered Samaria that Elisaie said, Open their eyes, please, Lord, and let them see. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they saw, and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said when he saw them, Shall I strike them down, father?

22 And he said, You shall not strike them. Unless you have taken them captive with your sword and your bow, do you strike them? Set bread and water before them, and let them eat and drink and go to their master.

23 And he set a great meal before them, and they ate and drank; and he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the Syrian bands no longer continued to come into the land of Israel.

24 And it happened after this that the son of Ader king of Syria gathered all his camp and went up and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria, and behold, they were besieging it, until a donkey's head was fifty shekels of silver and a fourth of a kab of doves' dung was five shekels of silver.

26 And the king of Israel was passing along on the wall, and a woman cried out to him, saying, Save me, my lord king.

27 And he said to her, May the Lord not save you; from where shall I save you? From the threshing floor or from the winepress?

28 And the king said to her, What is the matter with you? And she said, This woman said to me, Give your son and we shall eat him today, and my son we shall eat tomorrow;

29 and we cooked my son and ate him, and I said to her on the second day, Give your son and let us eat him, but she hid her son.

30 And it happened when the king of Israel heard the woman's words that he tore his garments, and as he passed along on the wall the people saw sackcloth against his flesh underneath.

31 And he said, May God do thus to me and add thus if the head of Elisaie shall remain on him today.

32 And Elisaie was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And he sent a man before him; before the messenger came to him, he himself said to the elders, Do you know that this son of the murderer has sent to take away my head? See, when the messenger comes, shut the door and press him back at the door; is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?

33 While he was still speaking with them, behold, a messenger came down to him and said, Behold, this evil is from the Lord; why should I wait for the Lord any longer?

Chapter 7

1 And Elisaie said, Hear the word of the Lord: Thus says the Lord: At this time tomorrow a measure of fine flour for a shekel and two measures of barley for a shekel at the gates of Samaria.

2 And the officer upon whose hand the king leaned answered Elisaie and said, Behold, even if the Lord makes floodgates in heaven, shall this thing happen? And Elisaie said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but from it you shall not eat.

3 And four men afflicted with leprosy were by the door of the city, and one said to his neighbor, Why are we sitting here until we die?

4 If we say, Let us enter the city, famine is in the city and we shall die there; and if we sit here, we shall also die. And now come, let us fall into the camp of Syria; if they preserve our lives, then we shall live, and if they put us to death, then we shall die.

5 And they arose in the darkness to enter the camp of Syria and came to the edge of the Syrian camp, and behold, there was no man there.

6 And the Lord made the camp of Syria hear the sound of a chariot and the sound of a horse and the sound of a great force, and one said to his brother, Now the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Chettites and the kings of Egypt to come against us.

7 And they arose and fled in the darkness and left their tents and their horses and their donkeys in the camp as it was, and fled for their lives.

8 And these men afflicted with leprosy entered as far as the edge of the camp and went into one tent and ate and drank and took from there silver and gold and clothing and went away; and they returned and entered another tent and took from there and went and hid it.

9 And one said to his neighbor, We are not doing right; this day is a day of good news, and we are silent and wait until the light of morning, and we shall find guilt; and now come, let us enter and report to the king's house.

10 And they went in and cried out to the gate of the city and reported to them, saying, We entered the Syrian camp, and behold, there is no man there and no human voice, except a tethered horse and a donkey and their tents as they were.

11 And the gatekeepers cried out and reported inside the king's house.

12 And the king arose at night and said to his servants, Let me tell you what Syria has done to us: they know that we are hungry, and they have gone out from the camp and hidden in the field, saying, They will come out of the city, and we shall catch them alive and enter the city.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let them take five of the horses remaining, which have been left here; behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel that is perishing. And we shall send there and see.

14 And they took two horse riders, and the king of Israel sent them after the king of Syria, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them as far as the Jordan, and behold, all the road was full of garments and vessels that Syria had thrown away in their alarm; and the messengers returned and reported to the king.

16 And the people went out and plundered the Syrian camp, and a measure of fine flour came to be a shekel and two measures of barley a shekel, according to the word of the Lord.

17 And the king appointed the officer upon whose hand the king leaned over the gate, and the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had spoken when the messenger came down to him.

18 And it happened as Elisaie had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, and it shall be at this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria;

19 and the officer answered Elisaie and said, Behold, even if the Lord makes floodgates in heaven, shall this thing happen? And Elisaie said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but from it you shall not eat.

20 And it happened so, and the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

Chapter 8

1 And Elisaie spoke to the woman whose son he had revived, saying, Arise and go, you and your household, and sojourn wherever you may sojourn, for the Lord has called a famine upon the land, and indeed it has come upon the land for seven years.

2 And the woman arose and did according to the word of Elisaie and went, she and her household, and sojourned in the land of the foreigners for seven years.

3 And it happened at the end of the seven years that the woman returned from the land of the foreigners to the city and came to cry out to the king concerning her house and her fields.

4 And the king was speaking to Giezi, the servant of Elisaie the man of God, saying, Tell me, please, all the great things that Elisaie did.

5 And it happened as he was telling the king how he had revived a dead son that, behold, the woman whose son Elisaie had revived was crying out to the king concerning her house and her fields; and Giezi said, My lord king, this is the woman and this is her son whom Elisaie revived.

6 And the king questioned the woman, and she told him; and the king gave her a eunuch, saying, Restore all that belongs to her and all the produce of her field from the day she left the land until now.

7 And Elisaie came to Damascus, and the son of Ader king of Syria was ill, and they told him, saying, The man of God has come here.

8 And the king said to Azael, Take manaa in your hand and go to meet the man of God and inquire of the Lord from him, saying, Shall I live from this illness of mine?

9 And Azael went to meet him and took manaa in his hand and all the good things of Damascus, a load of forty camels, and came and stood before him and said to Elisaie, Your son, the son of Ader king of Syria, has sent me to you, saying, Shall I live from this illness of mine?

10 And Elisaie said, Go, say to him, You shall surely live; and the Lord has shown me that you shall surely die.

11 And he stood before his face and fixed it until shame, and the man of God wept.

12 And Azael said, Why does my lord weep? And he said, Because I know what evil things you will do to the sons of Israel: you will send their fortresses into fire and kill their chosen men with the sword and dash their infants and tear open their pregnant women.

13 And Azael said, What is your servant, the dead dog, that he should do this thing? And Elisaie said, The Lord has shown me you reigning over Syria.

14 And he departed from Elisaie and went in to his master, and he said to him, What did Elisaie say to you? And he said, He said to me, You shall surely live.

15 And it happened on the next day that he took the machma and dipped it in water and laid it upon his face, and he died, and Azael reigned in his stead.

16 In the fifth year of Joram son of Achaab king of Israel, Joram son of Josaphat reigned as king of Judah.

17 He was a son of thirty-two years when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Achaab had done, for a daughter of Achaab was his wife; and he did evil before the Lord.

19 And the Lord was unwilling to destroy Judah because of David his servant, as he had said he would give a lamp to him and to his sons all the days.

20 In his days Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah and they set a king over themselves.

21 And Joram went up to Sior with all the chariots with him, and it happened when he arose that he struck Edom that had surrounded him and the commanders of the chariots, and the people fled to their tents.

22 And Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah until this day. Then Lobena rebelled at that time.

23 And the rest of the deeds of Joram and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joram slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Ochozias his son reigned in his stead.

25 In the twelfth year of Joram son of Achaab king of Israel, Ochozias son of Joram reigned.

26 Ochozias was a son of twenty-two years when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Gotholia daughter of Ambri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Achaab and did evil before the Lord as the house of Achaab had done.

28 And he went with Joram son of Achaab to war against Azael king of the foreigners at Remmoth Galaad, and the Syrians struck Joram.

29 And King Joram returned to be healed in Jezrael from the wounds with which they had struck him at Remmoth when he fought against Azael king of Syria; and Ochozias son of Joram went down to see Joram son of Achaab in Jezrael, because he was ill.

Chapter 9

1 And Elisaie the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, Gird your waist and take this flask of oil in your hand and go to Remmoth Galaad;

2 and enter there and see there Jou son of Josaphat son of Namessi, and enter and raise him from among his brothers and bring him into the innermost storeroom;

3 and take the flask of oil and pour it upon his head and say, Thus says the Lord: I have anointed you king over Israel. And open the door and flee and do not remain.

4 And the young man, the prophet, went to Remmoth Galaad

5 and entered, and behold, the commanders of the force were sitting, and he said, I have a word for you, commander. And Jou said, For which of all of us? And he said, For you, commander.

6 And he arose and entered the house, and he poured the oil upon his head and said to him, Thus says the Lord God of Israel: I have anointed you king over the people of the Lord, over Israel,

7 and you shall destroy the house of Achaab your master from before me and avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of the Lord at the hand of Jezabel

8 and at the hand of the whole house of Achaab, and you shall destroy from the house of Achaab anyone who urinates against a wall, and one held and one left in Israel;

9 and I shall make the house of Achaab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nabat and like the house of Baasa son of Achia;

10 and the dogs shall devour Jezabel in the portion of Jezrael, and there shall be no one to bury her. And he opened the door and fled.

11 And Jou came out to his master's servants, and they said to him, Is it peace? Why did this afflicted man enter to you? And he said to them, You know the man and his chatter.

12 And they said, Wrong; tell us, please. And Jou said to them, Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, Thus says the Lord: I have anointed you king over Israel.

13 And when they heard, they hurried and each took his garment and placed it beneath him upon the garem of the steps, and sounded a horn and said, Jou has become king.

14 And Jou son of Josaphat son of Namessi conspired against Joram; and Joram himself was keeping guard at Remmoth Galaad, he and all Israel, against Azael king of Syria,

15 and King Joram had returned to be healed in Jezrael from the wounds with which the Syrians struck him when he fought against Azael king of Syria; and Jou said, If your heart is with me, let no one escape from the city to go and report in Jezrael.

16 And Jou rode and went and came down to Jezrael, for Joram king of Israel was being treated in Jezrael for the arrow wounds with which the Aramin had shot him in Rammath in the war with Azael king of Syria, for he was mighty and a man of strength; and Ochozias king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

17 And the watchman went up on the tower in Jezrael and saw the dust cloud of Jou as he approached and said, I see a dust cloud. And Joram said, Take a rider and send him before them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 And a horse rider went to meet them and said, Thus says the king: Is it peace? And Jou said, What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me. And the watchman reported, saying, The messenger came to them and did not return.

19 And he sent a second horse rider, and he came to him and said, Thus says the king: Is it peace? And Jou said, What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me.

20 And the watchman reported, saying, He came to them and did not return; and the driver drives like Jou son of Namessi, for it has become a deviation.

21 And Joram said, Harness. And he harnessed a chariot. And Joram king of Israel and Ochozias king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and went out to meet Jou and found him in the portion of Nabouthai the Jezraelite.

22 And it happened when Joram saw Jou that he said, Is it peace, Jou? And Jou said, What peace, while the prostitutions of Jezabel your mother and her many sorceries remain?

23 And Joram turned his hands to flee and said to Ochozias, Treachery, Ochozias.

24 And Jou filled his hand with the bow and struck Joram between his arms, and the arrow went out through his heart, and he sank upon his knees.

25 And Jou said to Badekar his officer, Throw him into the portion of the field of Nabouthai the Jezraelite; for I remember, you and I riding in teams behind Achaab his father, and the Lord laid this pronouncement upon him, saying,

26 Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Nabouthai and the blood of his sons, says the Lord, and I shall repay him in this portion, says the Lord. And now lift him, please, and throw him into the portion according to the word of the Lord.

27 And Ochozias king of Judah saw and fled by the road of Baithaggan, and Jou pursued after him and said, Him too! And he struck him in the chariot on the ascent to Gai, which is Jeblaam, and he fled to Mageddon and died there.

28 And his servants put him on the chariot and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his tomb in the city of David.

29 And in the eleventh year of Joram king of Israel, Ochozias reigned over Judah.

30 And Jou came to Jezrael; and Jezabel heard and painted her eyes and adorned her head and looked out through the window.

31 And Jou was entering the city, and she said, Is it peace, Zambri, murderer of his master?

32 And he lifted his face toward the window and saw her and said, Who are you? Come down with me. And two eunuchs leaned out toward him;

33 and he said, Roll her down. And they rolled her down, and some of her blood was spattered on the wall and on the horses, and they trampled her.

34 And Jou went in and ate and drank and said, Attend to this cursed woman, please, and bury her, for she is a king's daughter.

35 And they went to bury her and found nothing of her except the skull and the feet and the traces of the hands.

36 And they returned and told him, and he said, It is the word of the Lord that he spoke by the hand of his servant Eliou the Thesbite, saying, In the portion of Jezrael the dogs shall devour the flesh of Jezabel, 37 and the corpse of Jezabel shall be like dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezrael, so that they cannot say, Jezabel.

Chapter 10

1 And Achaab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jou wrote a letter and sent it into Samaria to the rulers of Samaria and to the elders and to the guardians of Achaab's sons, saying,

2 And now when this letter comes to you, your master's sons are with you, and chariot and horses and fortified cities and weapons are with you;

3 see the good and upright one among your master's sons and set him on his father's throne and fight for your master's house.

4 And they were greatly afraid and said, Behold, the two kings did not stand before him, and how shall we stand?

5 And those over the house and those over the city and the elders and the guardians sent to Jou, saying, We are your servants, and whatever you say to us we shall do; we shall make no man king; we shall do what is good in your eyes.

6 And he wrote a second letter to them, saying, If you are for me and listen to my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and bring them to me at this time tomorrow in Jezrael. And the king's sons were seventy men; the great men of the city were raising them.

7 And it happened when the letter came to them that they took the king's sons and slaughtered them, seventy men, and put their heads in baskets and sent them to him in Jezrael.

8 And the messenger came and reported, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Put them in two heaps by the entrance of the gate until morning.

9 And it happened in the morning that he went out and stood in the gateway of the city and said to all the people, You are righteous. Behold, I conspired against my master and killed him; but who struck all these?

10 See, affo, that none of the word of the Lord that the Lord spoke against the house of Achaab shall fall to the ground; and the Lord has done all that he spoke by the hand of his servant Eliou.

11 And Jou struck all who remained of the house of Achaab in Jezrael and all his great men and his acquaintances and his priests, so as to leave him no remnant.

12 And he arose and went to Samaria. He was at Baithakad of the shepherds on the road,

13 and Jou found the brothers of Ochozias king of Judah and said, Who are you? And they said, We are the brothers of Ochozias, and we have come down for the peace of the king's sons and the sons of the ruling woman.

14 And he said, Seize them alive. And they seized them alive. And they slaughtered them at Baithakad, forty-two men; he left no man of them.

15 And he went from there and found Jonadab son of Rechab on the road to meet him, and he greeted him. And Jou said to him, Is your heart upright with my heart as my heart is with your heart? And Jonadab said, It is. And Jou said, If it is, give me your hand. And he gave his hand, and he brought him up to him upon the chariot

16 and said to him, Come with me and see me in my zeal for the Lord Sabaoth. And he seated him in his chariot.

17 And he entered Samaria and struck all who remained of Achaab in Samaria until he had destroyed him, according to the word of the Lord that he spoke to Eliou.

18 And Jou gathered all the people and said to them, Achaab served Baal a little, but Jou will serve him much;

19 and now call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants and his priests; let no man be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal; anyone missing shall not live. And Jou acted with deceit, in order to destroy the servants of Baal.

20 And Jou said, Consecrate a sacrifice for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Jou sent throughout all Israel, saying, And now all the servants of Baal and all his priests and all his prophets, let none be left out, for I am making a great sacrifice; anyone left out shall not live. And all Baal's servants and all his priests and all his prophets came; not a man was left who did not come. And they entered the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was filled from end to end.

22 And Jou said to the one over the house of mesthaal, Bring out garments for all Baal's servants. And the keeper of garments brought them out for them.

23 And Jou and Jonadab son of Rechab entered the house of Baal and said to Baal's servants, Search and see whether any of the Lord's servants are among you, but only Baal's servants alone.

24 And he entered to perform the sacrifices and the whole burnt offerings. And Jou stationed for himself eighty men outside and said, Any man who escapes from the men whom I bring into your hands, his life shall be in place of his life.

25 And it happened when he finished performing the whole burnt offering that Jou said to the runners and the officers, Enter and strike them; let no man come out from among them. And they struck them with the edge of the sword, and the runners and the officers threw them down and went as far as the city of the house of Baal.

26 And they brought out the pillar of Baal and burned it.

27 And they pulled down the pillars of Baal and demolished the house of Baal and made it into latrines until this day.

28 And Jou destroyed Baal from Israel;

29 but Jou did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin: the golden heifers in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And the Lord said to Jou, Because you did well to do what was right in my eyes and did to the house of Achaab all that was in my heart, sons to the fourth generation shall sit for you on the throne of Israel.

31 And Jou did not take care to walk in the law of the Lord God of Israel with all his heart; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin.

32 In those days the Lord began to cut Israel down, and Azael struck them throughout all the territory of Israel,

33 from the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, all the land of Galaad of Gad and Reuben and Manasseh, from Aroer, which is on the bank of the torrent Arnon, and Galaad and Basan.

34 And the rest of the deeds of Jou and all that he did and all his acts of power and the alliances that he made, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jou slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and Joachas his son reigned in his stead.

36 And the days that Jou reigned over Israel were twenty-eight years in Samaria.

Chapter 11

1 And Gotholia the mother of Ochozias saw that her sons had died, and she destroyed all the seed of the kingdom.

2 And Josabee daughter of King Joram, sister of Ochozias, took Joas the son of her brother and stole him from among the king's sons who were being put to death, him and his nurse, in the storeroom of the beds; and she hid him from Gotholia, and he was not put to death.

3 And he was hidden with her in the house of the Lord for six years, while Gotholia reigned over the land.

4 And in the seventh year Jodae the priest sent and took the captains of hundreds, Chorri and Rasim, and brought them to him into the house of the Lord and made with them a covenant of the Lord and put them under oath before the Lord; and Jodae showed them the king's son

5 and commanded them, saying, This is the thing that you shall do: let a third of you come in on the sabbath and keep guard of the king's house in the gateway,

6 and a third at the gate of the roads and a third at the gate behind the runners; and you shall keep guard of the house;

7 and two divisions among you, everyone going out on the sabbath, shall keep guard of the house of the Lord for the king;

8 and surround the king all around, each man with his equipment in his hand, and whoever enters the saderoth shall die. And be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in.

9 And the captains of hundreds did all that Jodae the wise commanded, and each man took his men who came in on the sabbath with those who went out on the sabbath and came to Jodae the priest.

10 And the priest gave the captains of hundreds the seiromastai and the trissoi of King David that were in the house of the Lord.

11 And the runners stood, each with his equipment in his hand, from the shoulder of the house on the right to the shoulder of the house on the left of the altar and the house, all around the king.

12 And he brought out the king's son and put upon him the nezer and the testimony and made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, Let the king live.

13 And Gotholia heard the sound of the people running and came in to the people in the house of the Lord.

14 And she saw, and behold, the king stood by the pillar according to the custom, and the singers and the trumpets were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and sounding trumpets; and Gotholia tore her garments and cried out, Conspiracy, conspiracy.

15 And Jodae the priest commanded the captains of hundreds, the overseers of the force, and said to them, Bring her out within the saderoth, and whoever enters after her shall surely be put to death by the sword; for the priest said, Let her not die in the house of the Lord.

16 And they laid hands on her, and she entered by the road of the horses' entrance of the king's house and died there.

17 And Jodae made a covenant between the Lord and the king and the people, that they should be a people for the Lord, and between the king and the people.

18 And all the people of the land entered the house of Baal and pulled it down and thoroughly shattered its altars and its images, and they killed Matthan the priest of Baal before the altars, and the priest appointed overseers for the house of the Lord.

19 And he took the captains of hundreds and Chorri and Rasim and all the people of the land, and they brought the king down from the house of the Lord, and he entered by the road of the gate of the runners of the king's house, and they seated him upon the throne of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet; and they put Gotholia to death with the sword in the king's house.

Chapter 12

1 Joas was a son of seven years when he began to reign.

2 In the seventh year of Jou, Joas reigned, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abia from Bersabee.

3 And Joas did what was right before the Lord all the days in which Jodae the priest enlightened him;

4 but the high places were not removed, and the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places there.

5 And Joas said to the priests, All the silver of the holy things that is brought into the house of the Lord, silver of assessment, each man's silver received for assessment, all the silver that comes into a man's heart to bring into the house of the Lord,

6 let the priests take for themselves, each from his sale, and they themselves shall strengthen the bedek of the house wherever bedek is found there.

7 And it happened in the twenty-third year of King Joas that the priests had not strengthened the bedek of the house.

8 And King Joas called Jodae the priest and the priests and said to them, Why do you not strengthen the bedek of the house? And now do not take silver from your sales, for you shall give it for the bedek of the house.

9 And the priests agreed not to take silver from the people and not to strengthen the bedek of the house.

10 And Jodae the priest took one chest and bored a hole in its board and placed it beside iamibin in the house of the man of the house of the Lord, and the priests who kept the station gave all the silver found in the house of the Lord.

11 And it happened when they saw that there was much silver in the chest that the king's scribe and the high priest went up and tied up and counted the silver found in the house of the Lord.

12 And they gave the prepared silver into the hands of those doing the work of the overseers of the house of the Lord, and they paid it out to the woodworkers and to the builders working in the house of the Lord

13 and to the wall builders and to the stonecutters to buy wood and hewn stones to attend to the bedek of the house of the Lord in all that was spent on the house to strengthen it;

14 but silver doors, nails, bowls and trumpets, any gold vessel or silver vessel, were not made for the house of the Lord from the silver brought into the house of the Lord,

15 for they gave it to those doing the work, and with it they strengthened the house of the Lord.

16 And they did not reckon with the men into whose hands they gave the silver to give to those doing the work, for they acted faithfully.

17 Silver for sin and silver for wrongdoing, whatever was brought into the house of the Lord, belonged to the priests.

18 Then Azael king of Syria went up and fought against Geth and took it first. And Azael set his face to go up against Jerusalem.

19 And Joas king of Judah took all the holy things that Josaphat and Joram and Ochozias, his fathers and kings of Judah, had consecrated, and his own holy things and all the gold found in the treasuries of the house of the Lord and the king's house, and sent them to Azael king of Syria, and he went up from Jerusalem.

20 And the rest of the deeds of Joas and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And his servants arose and bound every conspiracy and struck Joas in the house of Mallo in Gaalla.

22 And Jezechar son of Jemouath and Jezebouth his son Somer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amessias his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 13

1 In the twenty-third year of Joas son of Ochozias king of Judah, Joachas son of Jou reigned in Samaria for seventeen years.

2 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord and followed the sins of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin; he did not depart from them.

3 And the Lord was angry with wrath against Israel and gave them into the hand of Azael king of Syria and into the hand of the son of Ader son of Azael all the days.

4 And Joachas entreated the face of the Lord, and the Lord heard him, for he saw the affliction of Israel, for the king of Syria oppressed them.

5 And the Lord gave deliverance to Israel, and it went out from under the hand of Syria, and the sons of Israel dwelt in their tents as yesterday and the day before;

6 but they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin; in them they walked, and indeed the grove remained standing in Samaria.

7 For no people were left to Joachas except fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers, for the king of Syria had destroyed them and made them like dust for trampling.

8 And the rest of the deeds of Joachas and all that he did and his acts of power, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Joachas slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in Samaria, and Joas his son reigned in his stead.

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joas king of Judah, Joas son of Joachas reigned over Israel in Samaria for sixteen years.

11 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord; he did not depart from any of the sin of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin; in them he walked.

12 And the rest of the deeds of Joas and all that he did and his acts of power that he performed with Amessias king of Judah, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Joas slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne in Samaria with the sons of Israel.

14 And Elisaie became ill with the illness from which he died. And Joas king of Israel came down to him and wept upon his face and said, Father, father, chariot of Israel and its horseman.

15 And Elisaie said to him, Take a bow and arrows. And he took a bow and arrows to him.

16 And he said to the king, Put your hand upon the bow. And Joas put his hand upon the bow, and Elisaie placed his hands upon the king's hands.

17 And he said, Open the window toward the east. And he opened it. And Elisaie said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, An arrow of deliverance for the Lord and an arrow of deliverance in Syria, and you shall strike Syria at Aphek until its end.

18 And Elisaie said to him, Take bows. And he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, Strike the ground. And the king struck three times and stopped.

19 And the man of God was grieved over him and said, If you had struck five or six times, then you would have struck Syria until its end; but now you shall strike Syria three times.

20 And Elisaie died, and they buried him. And bands of Moab came into the land at the coming of the year;

21 and it happened as they were burying a man that, behold, they saw the band and threw the man into Elisaie's tomb, and he went and touched Elisaie's bones and lived and stood upon his feet.

22 And Azael oppressed Israel all the days of Joachas.

23 And the Lord had mercy on them and pitied them and looked toward them because of his covenant with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and the Lord did not wish to destroy them and did not cast them away from his face.

24 And Azael king of Syria died, and the son of Ader his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Joas son of Joachas returned and took the cities from the hand of the son of Ader son of Azael, which he had taken from the hand of Joachas his father in war; three times Joas struck him and restored the cities of Israel.

Chapter 14

1 In the second year of Joas son of Joachas king of Israel, Amessias son of Joas reigned as king of Judah.

2 He was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Joadin from Jerusalem.

3 And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, though not like David his father; he did according to all that Joas his father had done;

4 but he did not remove the high places; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

5 And it happened when the kingdom grew strong in his hand that he struck his servants who had struck his father;

6 but he did not put the sons of those who struck him to death, as it is written in the book of the laws of Moses, as the Lord commanded, saying, Fathers shall not die for sons, and sons shall not die for fathers, but each shall die for his own sins.

7 He struck Edom in Gaimele, ten thousand, and seized Petra in the war and called its name Kathoel until this day.

8 Then Amessias sent messengers to Joas son of Joachas son of Jou king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see each other face to face.

9 And Joas king of Israel sent to Amessias king of Judah, saying, The thorn in Lebanon sent to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as a wife; and the beasts of the field in Lebanon passed through and trampled the thorn.

10 Striking, you struck Idoumaia, and your heart lifted you up; be glorified while sitting in your house, and why do you strive in your wickedness? You shall fall, you and Judah with you.

11 And Amessias did not listen. And the king of Israel went up, and he and Amessias king of Judah saw each other face to face at Baithsamys of Judah;

12 and Judah stumbled before Israel, and each man fled to his tent;

13 and Joas son of Joachas king of Israel seized Amessias son of Joas son of Ochozias king of Judah at Baithsamys. And he came to Jerusalem and pulled down four hundred cubits of the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate;

14 and he took the gold and the silver and all the vessels found in the house of the Lord and in the treasuries of the king's house and the sons of the minglings and returned to Samaria.

15 And the rest of the deeds of Joas, what he did in his power, how he fought with Amessias king of Judah, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Joas slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel, and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

17 And Amessias son of Joas king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Joas son of Joachas king of Israel.

18 And the rest of the deeds of Amessias and all that he did, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 And they formed a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachis; and they sent after him to Lachis and put him to death there.

20 And they carried him on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

21 And all the people of Judah took Azarias, who was a son of sixteen years, and made him king in place of his father Amessias.

22 He built Ailoth and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Amessias son of Joas king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Joas reigned over Israel in Samaria for forty-one years.

24 And he did evil before the Lord; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin.

25 He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Aimath as far as the sea of the Araba, according to the word of the Lord God of Israel that he spoke by the hand of his servant Jona son of Amathi, the prophet from Gethchober.

26 For the Lord saw the humiliation of Israel, very bitter, and the few who were held and those who lacked and those left behind, and there was no one helping Israel.

27 And the Lord had not spoken of wiping out the seed of Israel from under heaven, and he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Joas.

28 And the rest of the deeds of Jeroboam and all that he did and his acts of power, how he fought and how he restored Damascus and Aimath to Judah in Israel, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel, and Azarias son of Amessias reigned in place of his father.

Chapter 15

1 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azarias son of Amessias king of Judah reigned.

2 He was a son of sixteen years when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Chalia from Jerusalem.

3 And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord according to all that Amessias his father had done;

4 but he did not remove the high places; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

5 And the Lord touched the king, and he was afflicted with leprosy until the day of his death and reigned in the house of affousoth, and Joatham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the deeds of Azarias and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 And Azarias slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Joatham his son reigned in his stead.

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azarias king of Judah, Zacharias son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria for six months.

9 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as his fathers had done; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin.

10 And Selloum son of Jabis and Keblaam conspired against him and struck him and put him to death, and Selloum reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of the deeds of Zacharias, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 The word of the Lord that he spoke to Jou, saying, Sons to the fourth generation shall sit for you on the throne of Israel; and so it happened.

13 And Selloum son of Jabis reigned; and in the thirty-ninth year of Azarias king of Judah, Selloum reigned for a month of days in Samaria.

14 And Manaem son of Gaddi went up from Tharsila and came to Samaria and struck Selloum son of Jabis in Samaria and put him to death.

15 And the rest of the deeds of Selloum and the conspiracy that he formed, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 Then Manaem struck Thersa and all within it and its territories from Thersa, because they did not open to him; and he struck it and tore open its pregnant women.

17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azarias king of Judah, Manaem son of Gaddi reigned over Israel for ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin.

19 In his days Phoul king of the Assyrians went up against the land, and Manaem gave Phoul a thousand talents of silver so that his hand would be with him.

20 And Manaem brought out the silver upon Israel, upon every man mighty in strength, to give to the king of the Assyrians, fifty shekels per man; and the king of the Assyrians returned and did not stay there in the land.

21 And the rest of the deeds of Manaem and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Manaem slept with his fathers, and Phakeias his son reigned in his stead.

23 In the fiftieth year of Azarias king of Judah, Phakeias son of Manaem reigned over Israel in Samaria for two years.

24 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin.

25 And Phakee son of Romeliou his officer conspired against him and struck him in Samaria before the king's house, with Argob and Aria, and with him fifty men of the four hundred; and he put him to death and reigned in his stead.

26 And the rest of the deeds of Phakeias and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 In the fifty-second year of Azarias king of Judah, Phakee son of Romeliou reigned over Israel in Samaria for twenty years.

28 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Phakee king of Israel, Thaglathphellasar king of the Assyrians came and took Ain and Abelbaithamaacha and Janoch and Kenez and Asor and Galaad and Galilaia, all the land of Nephthali, and deported them to the Assyrians.

30 And Osee son of Ela formed a conspiracy against Phakee son of Romeliou and struck him and put him to death and reigned in his stead in the twentieth year of Joatham son of Azarias.

31 And the rest of the deeds of Phakee and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 In the second year of Phakee son of Romeliou king of Israel, Joatham son of Azarias king of Judah reigned.

33 He was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerousa daughter of Sadok.

34 And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord according to all that Ozias his father had done;

35 but he did not remove the high places; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the Lord.

36 And the rest of the deeds of Joatham and all that he did, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

37 In those days the Lord began to send against Judah Raasson king of Syria and Phakee son of Romeliou.

38 And Joatham slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Achaz his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 16

1 In the seventeenth year of Phakee son of Romeliou, Achaz son of Joatham king of Judah reigned.

2 Achaz was a son of twenty years when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not faithfully do what was right in the eyes of the Lord his God as David his father had done,

3 and he walked in the way of Jeroboam son of Nabat king of Israel and even made his son pass through fire according to the abominations of the nations whom the Lord had removed before the sons of Israel,

4 and he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places and on the hills and under every wooded tree.

5 Then Raasson king of Syria and Phakee son of Romeliou king of Israel went up to Jerusalem for war and besieged Achaz, but they were unable to fight.

6 At that time Raasson king of Syria restored Ailath to Syria and drove the Judeans out of Ailath, and Idoumaians came to Ailath and lived there until this day.

7 And Achaz sent messengers to Thaglathphellasar king of the Assyrians, saying, I am your servant and your son; come up and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are rising against me.

8 And Achaz took the silver and the gold found in the treasuries of the house of the Lord and the king's house and sent gifts to the king.

9 And the king of the Assyrians listened to him, and the king of the Assyrians went up to Damascus and captured it and deported it and put Raasson to death.

10 And King Achaz went to meet Thaglathphellasar king of the Assyrians in Damascus. And he saw the altar in Damascus, and King Achaz sent to Ourias the priest the likeness of the altar and its pattern for all its workmanship;

11 and Ourias the priest built the altar according to all that King Achaz had sent from Damascus.

12 And the king saw the altar and went up upon it

13 and burned his whole burnt offering and his sacrifice and his drink offering and poured the blood of his peace offerings upon the altar.

14 And he brought the bronze altar that was before the Lord from before the house of the Lord, from between the altar and the house of the Lord, and placed it on the north side of the altar.

15 And King Achaz commanded Ourias the priest, saying, On the great altar offer the morning whole burnt offering and the evening sacrifice and the king's whole burnt offering and his sacrifice and the whole burnt offering of all the people and their sacrifice and their drink offering, and pour upon it all blood of a whole burnt offering and all blood of a sacrifice; and the bronze altar shall be for me for the morning.

16 And Ourias the priest did according to all that King Achaz commanded him.

17 And King Achaz cut off the fittings of the mechonoth and removed the basin from them, and took down the sea from the bronze oxen beneath it and put it upon a stone base.

18 And he built the foundation of the seat in the house of the Lord and turned the king's outer entrance in the house of the Lord because of the king of the Assyrians.

19 And the rest of the deeds of Achaz, as many as he did, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Achaz slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David, and Ezekias his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 17

1 In the twelfth year of Achaz king of Judah, Osee son of Ela reigned in Samaria over Israel for nine years.

2 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord, though not like the kings of Israel who were before him.

3 Salamanasar king of the Assyrians went up against him, and Osee became his servant and rendered manaa to him.

4 And the king of the Assyrians found wrongdoing in Osee, for he had sent messengers to Segor king of Egypt and had not brought manaa to the king of the Assyrians in that year, and the king of the Assyrians besieged him and bound him in a prison house.

5 And the king of the Assyrians went up through all the land and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years.

6 In the ninth year of Osee, the king of the Assyrians captured Samaria and deported Israel to the Assyrians and settled them in Alae and Abor, rivers of Gozan, and the mountains of the Medes.

7 And it happened because the sons of Israel sinned against the Lord their God, who had brought them up from the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and they feared other gods

8 and walked in the ordinances of the nations whom the Lord had removed before the sons of Israel, and in those of the kings of Israel, as many as had made them,

9 and as many as the sons of Israel had clothed themselves with words that were not so against the Lord their God, and they built high places for themselves in all their cities, from a watchmen's tower to a fortified city,

10 and set up for themselves pillars and groves on every high hill and under every wooded tree

11 and burned incense there on all the high places like the nations whom the Lord had deported before them, and they made associates and carved, to provoke the Lord,

12 and served idols, concerning which the Lord had told them, You shall not do this thing to the Lord.

13 And the Lord testified to Israel and Judah by the hand of all his prophets, of every seer, saying, Turn away from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my ordinances and all the law that I commanded your fathers, all that I sent to them by the hand of my servants the prophets.

14 And they did not listen and made their back harder than the back of their fathers,

15 and they did not keep his testimonies with which he testified to them and went after vain things and became vain and after the nations around them, concerning whom he commanded them not to do as they did;

16 they abandoned the commandments of the Lord their God and made for themselves a molten image, two heifers, and made groves and bowed to all the host of heaven and served Baal

17 and made their sons and daughters pass through fire and practiced divinations and took omens and sold themselves to do evil in the eyes of the Lord, to provoke him.

18 And the Lord became very angry with Israel and removed them from before his face, and none remained except the tribe of Judah alone.

19 And even Judah did not keep the commandments of the Lord their God and walked in the ordinances of Israel that they made,

20 and they rejected the Lord among all the seed of Israel, and he shook them and gave them into the hands of those plundering them, until he cast them away from before his face.

21 For Israel departed from the house of David and made Jeroboam son of Nabat king, and Jeroboam drove Israel away from following the Lord and caused them to sin a great sin;

22 and the sons of Israel walked in all the sin of Jeroboam that he committed; they did not depart from it,

23 until the Lord removed Israel from before his face, as the Lord had spoken by the hand of all his servants the prophets, and Israel was deported from its land to the Assyrians until this day.

24 And the king of the Assyrians brought from Babylon the one from Chountha and from Aia and from Aimath and Seppharouain, and they were settled in the cities of Samaria in place of the sons of Israel and inherited Samaria and dwelt in its cities.

25 And it happened at the beginning of their dwelling there that they did not fear the Lord, and the Lord sent lions among them, and they were killing among them.

26 And they said to the king of the Assyrians, saying, The nations that you deported and settled in the cities of Samaria do not know the judgment of the God of the land, and he sent lions among them, and behold, they are killing them because they do not know the judgment of the God of the land.

27 And the king of the Assyrians commanded, saying, Bring them from there, and let them go and dwell there, and they shall teach them the judgment of the God of the land.

28 And they brought one of the priests whom they had deported from Samaria, and he dwelt in Bethel and was teaching them how to fear the Lord.

29 And the nations made, each nation, their gods and put them in the house of the high places that the Samaritans had made, each nation in its cities where they dwelt;

30 and the men of Babylon made Sokchothbainith, and the men of Chouth made Nerigel, and the men of Aimath made Asimath,

31 and the Euaioi made Eblazer and Tharthak, and the Seppharouain burned their sons in fire to Adramelech and Anemelech, gods of Seppharouain.

32 And they feared the Lord and settled their abominations in the houses of the high places that they had made in Samaria, each nation in the city in which it dwelt; and they feared the Lord and made for themselves priests of the high places and made for themselves in the house of the high places.

33 They feared the Lord and served their gods according to the custom of the nations from which he had deported them.

34 Until this day they did according to their custom; they fear and they act according to their ordinances and according to their judgment and according to the law and according to the commandment that the Lord commanded the sons of Jacob, whom he named Israel,

35 and the Lord made a covenant with them and commanded them, saying, You shall not fear other gods and shall not bow to them and shall not serve them and shall not sacrifice to them,

36 but the Lord who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great strength and an uplifted arm, him you shall fear and to him you shall bow and to him you shall sacrifice;

37 and the ordinances and the judgments and the law and the commandments that he wrote for you, you shall take care to do all the days, and you shall not fear other gods;

38 and the covenant that he made with you, you shall not forget, and you shall not fear other gods,

39 but you shall fear the Lord your God, and he will deliver you from all your enemies;

40 and you shall not listen regarding their custom that they perform.

41 And these nations feared the Lord and served their carved images, and indeed their sons and their sons' sons do as their fathers did until this day.

Chapter 18

1 And it happened in the third year of Osee son of Ela king of Israel that Ezekias son of Achaz king of Judah reigned.

2 He was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abou daughter of Zacharias.

3 And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord according to all that David his father had done.

4 He removed the high places and crushed all the pillars and destroyed the groves and the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the sons of Israel had been burning incense to it, and he called it Neesthan.

5 He hoped in the Lord God of Israel, and after him no one like him arose among the kings of Judah or among those who were before him;

6 and he clung to the Lord, did not depart from following him, and kept his commandments, as many as he had commanded Moses;

7 and the Lord was with him; in all that he did he understood. And he rebelled against the king of the Assyrians and did not serve him.

8 He struck the foreigners as far as Gaza and its border, from a watchmen's tower as far as a fortified city.

9 And it happened in the fourth year of King Ezekias [the same year was the seventh of Osee son of Ela king of Israel] that Salamanassar king of the Assyrians went up against Samaria and besieged it;

10 and he took it at the end of three years, in the sixth year of Ezekias [the same year was the ninth of Osee king of Israel], and Samaria was captured.

11 And the king of the Assyrians deported Samaria to the Assyrians and placed them in Alae and Abor by the river Gozan and the mountains of the Medes,

12 because they had not listened to the voice of the Lord their God and had transgressed his covenant, all that Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded; and they neither listened nor did it.

13 And in the fourteenth year of King Ezekias, Sennacherim king of the Assyrians went up against the fortified cities of Judah and seized them.

14 And Ezekias king of Judah sent messengers to the king of the Assyrians at Lachis, saying, I have sinned; turn away from me; whatever you place upon me I shall bear. And the king of the Assyrians placed upon Ezekias king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Ezekias gave all the silver found in the house of the Lord and in the treasuries of the king's house.

16 At that time Ezekias cut off the doors of the temple of the Lord and the supports that Ezekias king of Judah had gilded, and gave them to the king of the Assyrians.

17 And the king of the Assyrians sent Tharthan and Raphis and Rapsakes from Lachis to King Ezekias with a heavy force against Jerusalem, and they went up and came to Jerusalem and stood by the aqueduct of the upper pool, which is on the road of the fuller's field.

18 And they called to Ezekias, and Eliakim son of Chelkias the steward and Somnas the scribe and Joas son of Asaph the recorder came out to him.

19 And Rapsakes said to them, Say, please, to Ezekias: Thus says the great king, king of the Assyrians: What is this trust in which you have trusted?

20 You said, Mere words of lips are counsel and strength for war. Now in whom have you trusted, that you have rebelled against me?

21 Now behold, you have trusted yourself to this broken reed staff, Egypt; if a man leans upon it, it will enter his hand and pierce it; so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

22 And if you say to me, We have trusted in the Lord God, is he not the one whose high places and altars Ezekias removed and said to Judah and Jerusalem, Before this altar you shall worship in Jerusalem?

23 And now make an agreement, please, with my master the king of the Assyrians, and I shall give you two thousand horses if you can provide riders for yourself upon them.

24 And how will you turn away the face of one district governor among the least of my master's servants? And you have trusted yourself to Egypt for chariots and horsemen.

25 And now did we come up against this place to destroy it without the Lord? The Lord said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it.

26 And Eliakim son of Chelkias and Somnas and Joas said to Rapsakes, Speak, please, to your servants in Syrian, for we understand, and do not speak with us in Judean; why speak in the ears of the people on the wall?

27 And Rapsakes said to them, Did my master send me to speak these words to your master and you? Was it not to the men sitting on the wall, to eat their dung and drink their urine together with you?

28 And Rapsakes stood and cried out in a great voice in Judean and spoke and said, Hear the words of the great king of the Assyrians:

29 Thus says the king: Let Ezekias not lift you up with words, for he shall certainly not be able to deliver you from my hand.

30 And let Ezekias not make you hope in the Lord, saying, The Lord will surely deliver us, and this city shall certainly not be given into the hand of the king of the Assyrians.

31 Do not listen to Ezekias, for thus says the king of the Assyrians: Make a blessing with me and come out to me, and each man shall drink from his vine and each man shall eat from his fig tree and drink water from his cistern,

32 until I come and take you to a land like your land, a land of grain and wine and bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil and honey, and you shall live and certainly not die. And do not listen to Ezekias, for he deceives you, saying, The Lord will rescue us.

33 Have the gods of the nations surely rescued, each his own country, from the hand of the king of the Assyrians?

34 Where is the god of Aimath and Arphad? Where is the god of Seppharouain? And did they deliver Samaria from my hand?

35 Who among all the gods of the lands delivered their lands from my hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?

36 And they were silent and did not answer him a word, for it was the king's command, saying, You shall not answer him.

37 And Eliakim son of Chelkias the steward and Somnas the scribe and Joas son of Asaph the recorder came to Ezekias with their garments torn and reported to him the words of Rapsakes.

Chapter 19

1 And it happened when King Ezekias heard that he tore his garments and put on sackcloth and entered the house of the Lord.

2 And he sent Eliakim the steward and Somnas the scribe and the elders of the priests, clothed in sackcloth, to Esaias the prophet son of Amos,

3 and they said to him, Thus says Ezekias: This day is a day of affliction and rebuke and provocation, for sons have come to the pangs of birth, but the woman giving birth has no strength;

4 perhaps the Lord your God will hear all the words of Rapsakes, whom the king of the Assyrians his master sent to reproach the living God and blaspheme with words that the Lord your God has heard, and you will offer a prayer for the remnant that is found.

5 And the servants of King Ezekias came to Esaias,

6 and Esaias said to them, Thus shall you say to your master: Thus says the Lord: Do not fear because of the words you have heard, with which the servants of the king of the Assyrians blasphemed;

7 behold, I put a spirit in him, and he shall hear a report and return to his land, and I shall bring him down by the sword in his land.

8 And Rapsakes returned and found the king of the Assyrians fighting against Lomna, for he had heard that he had departed from Lachis;

9 and he heard concerning Tharaka king of the Ethiopians, saying, Behold, he has gone out to fight against you. And he returned and sent messengers to Ezekias, saying,

10 Let your God in whom you trust not lift you up, saying, Jerusalem shall certainly not be given into the hands of the king of the Assyrians.

11 Behold, you have heard all that the kings of the Assyrians did to all the lands, to devote them to destruction; and will you be delivered?

12 Did the gods of the nations whom my fathers destroyed deliver them, Gozan and Charran and Raphes and the sons of Edem who are in Thaesthen?

13 Where is the king of Aimath and the king of Arphad? And where are Seppharouain, Ana and Aua?

14 And Ezekias took the letters from the hands of the messengers and read them; and he went up to the house of the Lord, and Ezekias spread them out before the Lord

15 and said, Lord God of Israel, who sits upon the cherubim, you alone are God in all the kingdoms of the earth; you made heaven and earth.

16 Incline your ear, Lord, and hear; open your eyes, Lord, and see, and hear the words of Sennacherim that he sent to reproach the living God.

17 For truly, Lord, the kings of the Assyrians have laid waste the nations

18 and have given their gods to the fire, for they are not gods but works of human hands, wood and stone, and they destroyed them.

19 And now, Lord our God, save us from his hand, and all the kingdoms of the earth shall know that you alone are the Lord God.

20 And Esaias son of Amos sent to Ezekias, saying, Thus says the Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel: I have heard what you prayed to me concerning Sennacherim king of the Assyrians.

21 This is the word that the Lord spoke against him: Virgin daughter Zion has despised and mocked you; daughter Jerusalem has shaken her head at you.

22 Whom did you reproach and blaspheme? And against whom did you lift your voice? And you raised your eyes on high against the Holy One of Israel.

23 By the hand of your messengers you reproached the Lord and said, With the multitude of my chariots I shall ascend to the height of the mountains, the flanks of Lebanon, and I cut down the greatness of its cedar, its choice cypresses, and came to the melon of its end, the forest of its Carmel.

24 I cooled and drank foreign waters and dried up with the sole of my foot all the rivers of the enclosure.

25 I formed it; now I have brought it about, and it became for the raising up of colonies of warriors, fortified cities.

26 And those dwelling in them were weak of hand, were terrified and ashamed; they became grass of the field or green herbage, grass of rooftops and a thing trampled before one standing.

27 And I have known your sitting and your going out and your coming in and your anger against me.

28 Because of your anger against me and your arrogance that rose into my ears, I shall put my hooks in your nostrils and a bridle in your lips and turn you back on the road by which you came.

29 And this shall be the sign for you: this year you shall eat what grows of itself and in the second year what springs up; and in the third, sowing and harvest and planting of vineyards, and you shall eat their fruit.

30 And the surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again put a root below and make fruit above.

31 For a remnant shall go out from Jerusalem and one escaping from Mount Zion; the zeal of the Lord of hosts shall do this.

32 Not so; thus says the Lord concerning the king of the Assyrians: He shall not enter this city and shall not shoot an arrow there, and no shield shall come before it, and he shall certainly not throw up a siege mound against it;

33 by the road by which he came he shall return, and into this city he shall not enter, says the Lord.

34 And I shall defend this city for my own sake and for the sake of David my servant.

35 And it happened by night that an angel of the Lord went out and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; and they arose early in the morning, and behold, all were dead bodies.

36 And Sennacherim king of the Assyrians departed and went and returned and dwelt in Nineveh.

37 And it happened while he was worshiping in the house of Nesserach his god that Adramelech and Sarasar his sons struck him with a sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat; and Asordan his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 20

1 In those days Ezekias became ill to the point of death. And Esaias son of Amos the prophet came in to him and said to him, Thus says the Lord: Give instructions to your house, for you are dying and shall not live.

2 And Ezekias turned his face to the wall and prayed to the Lord, saying,

3 Oh Lord, remember, please, how I walked before you in truth and with a full heart and did what was good in your eyes. And Ezekias wept with great weeping.

4 And Esaias was in the middle court, and the word of the Lord came to him, saying,

5 Return and say to Ezekias the leader of my people, Thus says the Lord God of David your father: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I shall heal you; on the third day you shall go up to the house of the Lord,

6 and I shall add fifteen years to your days, and I shall save you and this city from the hand of the king of the Assyrians, and I shall defend this city for my own sake and for David my servant.

7 And he said, Let them take a cake of figs and put it on the sore, and he shall recover.

8 And Ezekias said to Esaias, What is the sign that the Lord will heal me and I shall go up to the house of the Lord on the third day?

9 And Esaias said, This is the sign from the Lord that the Lord will do the word he spoke: shall the shadow go ten steps, or return ten steps?

10 And Ezekias said, It is a light thing for the shadow to incline ten steps; no, but let the shadow return ten steps backward.

11 And Esaias the prophet cried out to the Lord, and the shadow returned backward on the steps ten steps.

12 At that time Marodachbaladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent letters and manaa to Ezekias, for he heard that Ezekias had become ill.

13 And Ezekias rejoiced over them and showed them the whole house of the nechotha, the silver and the gold, the spices and the good oil, and the house of the vessels and all that was found in his treasuries; there was not a thing that Ezekias did not show them in his house and in all his dominion.

14 And Esaias the prophet entered to King Ezekias and said to him, What did these men say, and from where have they come to you? And Ezekias said, They have come to me from a distant land, from Babylon.

15 And he said, What did they see in your house? And he said, They saw all that is in my house; there was nothing in my house that I did not show them, including what is in my treasuries.

16 And Esaias said to Ezekias, Hear the word of the Lord:

17 Behold, days are coming, and all that is in your house and what your fathers stored up until this day shall be taken to Babylon; and not a thing shall remain, as the Lord said;

18 and your sons who will come forth from you, whom you shall beget, he shall take, and they shall be eunuchs in the house of the king of Babylon.

19 And Ezekias said to Esaias, Good is the word of the Lord that he spoke; let there be peace in my days.

20 And the rest of the deeds of Ezekias and all his acts of power and all that he did, the spring and the aqueduct and how he brought the water into the city, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And Ezekias slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David, and Manasses his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 21

1 Manasses was a son of twelve years when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Opsiba.

2 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord according to the abominations of the nations whom the Lord had removed before the sons of Israel,

3 and he turned and built the high places that Ezekias his father had pulled down and raised an altar for Baal and made groves, as Achaab king of Israel had done, and bowed to all the host of heaven and served them,

4 and built an altar in the house of the Lord, as he said, In Jerusalem I shall put my name,

5 and built an altar to all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the Lord,

6 and made his sons pass through fire and practiced omens and divination and made a consulter and knowers; he multiplied doing evil in the eyes of the Lord to provoke him.

7 And he put the carved image of the grove in the house of which the Lord had said to David and to Salomon his son, In this house and in Jerusalem, which I chose from all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name there forever,

8 and I shall no longer shake the foot of Israel from the land that I gave their fathers, if they keep all that I commanded according to the whole commandment that my servant Moses commanded them.

9 And they did not listen, and Manasses led them astray to do evil in the eyes of the Lord beyond the nations whom the Lord had destroyed before the sons of Israel.

10 And the Lord spoke by the hand of his servants the prophets, saying,

11 Because Manasses king of Judah did these evil abominations beyond all that the Amorite before him had done, and even caused Judah to sin with their idols,

12 therefore thus says the Lord God of Israel: Behold, I bring evils upon Jerusalem and Judah so that both ears of everyone hearing shall ring,

13 and I shall stretch over Jerusalem the measure of Samaria and the plumb line of the house of Achaab and wipe away Jerusalem as an alabaster vessel is wiped and turned over on its face,

14 and I shall reject the remnant of my inheritance and give them into the hands of their enemies, and they shall be for plunder and for spoil to all their enemies,

15 because they did evil in my eyes and have been provoking me from the day I brought their fathers out of Egypt until this day.

16 And indeed Manasses poured out very much innocent blood until he filled Jerusalem from end to end, besides his sins by which he caused Judah to sin, doing evil in the eyes of the Lord.

17 And the rest of the deeds of Manasses and all that he did and the sin that he sinned, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Manasses slept with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Oza, and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19 Amon was a son of twenty-two years when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Mesollam daughter of Arous from Jeteba.

20 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as Manasses his father had done,

21 and walked in all the way in which his father had walked and served the idols that his father had served and bowed to them

22 and abandoned the Lord God of his fathers and did not walk in the way of the Lord.

23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him and put the king to death in his house.

24 And all the people of the land struck all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josias his son king in his stead.

25 And the rest of the deeds of Amon, as many as he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And they buried him in his tomb in the garden of Oza, and Josias his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 22

1 Josias was a son of eight years when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jedida daughter of Edeia from Basouroth.

2 And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord and walked in all the way of David his father; he did not depart to the right or the left.

3 And it happened in the eighteenth year of King Josias, in the eighth month, that the king sent Saphphan son of Eseliou son of Mesollam, the scribe of the house of the Lord, saying,

4 Go up to Chelkias the high priest and seal the silver brought into the house of the Lord, which those keeping the station gathered from the people,

5 and let them give it into the hands of the workers appointed in the house of the Lord. And he gave it to the workers in the house of the Lord to strengthen the bedek of the house,

6 to the craftsmen and the builders and the wall builders, and to buy wood and hewn stones to strengthen the bedek of the house;

7 but they did not reckon the silver given to them with them, for they acted faithfully.

8 And Chelkias the high priest said to Saphphan the scribe, I found a book of the law in the house of the Lord. And Chelkias gave the book to Saphphan, and he read it.

9 And he brought it to King Josias and returned a word to the king and said, Your servants have melted down the silver found in the house of the Lord and given it into the hands of the workers appointed in the house of the Lord.

10 And Saphphan the scribe spoke to the king, saying, Chelkias the priest gave me a book. And Saphphan read it before the king.

11 And it happened when the king heard the words of the book of the law that he tore his garments.

12 And the king commanded Chelkias the priest and Achikam son of Saphphan and Achobor son of Michaiou and Saphphan the scribe and Asaia the king's servant, saying,

13 Go, seek the Lord concerning me and all the people and all Judah concerning the words of this book that was found, for great is the wrath of the Lord kindled among us because our fathers did not listen to the words of this book to do according to all that is written against us.

14 And Chelkias the priest and Achikam and Achobor and Saphphan and Asaias went to Olda the prophetess, wife of Sellem son of Thekoue son of Araas the keeper of garments; and she dwelt in Jerusalem in the masena, and they spoke to her.

15 And she said to them, Thus says the Lord God of Israel: Say to the man who sent you to me,

16 Thus says the Lord: Behold, I am bringing evils upon this place and its inhabitants, all the words of the book that the king of Judah read,

17 because they abandoned me and burned incense to other gods so as to provoke me with the works of their hands; and my anger shall be kindled against this place and shall not be quenched.

18 And to the king of Judah who sent you to seek the Lord, thus shall you say to him: Thus says the Lord God of Israel: The words that you heard,

19 because your heart was softened and you were humbled before the Lord when you heard what I spoke against this place and its inhabitants, that it should become a desolation and a curse, and you tore your garments and wept before me, I too have heard, says the Lord.

20 Therefore behold, I am adding you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your tomb in peace, and your eyes shall not see all the evils that I am bringing upon this place. And they returned the word to the king.

Chapter 23

1 And the king sent and gathered to himself all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up to the house of the Lord, and every man of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests and the prophets and all the people from small to great; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant found in the house of the Lord.

3 And the king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the Lord to walk after the Lord and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his ordinances with all his heart and all his soul, to establish the words of this covenant written in this book; and all the people stood in the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Chelkias the high priest and the priests of the second order and those keeping the station to bring out from the temple of the Lord all the vessels made for Baal and for the grove and for all the host of heaven, and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the sademoth of Kedron and carried their dust to Bethel.

5 And he put an end to the chomarim whom the kings of Judah had appointed, who burned incense at the high places and in the cities of Judah and around Jerusalem, and those burning incense to Baal and the sun and the moon and the mazouroth and all the host of heaven.

6 And he brought the grove out of the house of the Lord outside Jerusalem to the torrent Kedron and burned it in the torrent Kedron and ground it to dust and threw its dust into the grave of the sons of the people.

7 And he demolished the house of the kadesim in the house of the Lord, where the women wove chettiin for the grove.

8 And he brought up all the priests from the cities of Judah and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Gabaa to Bersabee. And he demolished the house of the gates by the entrance of the gate of Jesou ruler of the city, on the left of a man in the gate of the city.

9 But the priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem; rather, they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.

10 And he defiled Tapheth in the ravine of the son of Ennom, so that no man would make his son or his daughter pass through fire for Moloch.

11 And he put an end to the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun at the entrance of the house of the Lord by the treasury of Nathan the king's eunuch in pharourim, and he burned the chariot of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars on the roof of the upper room of Achaz that the kings of Judah had made, and the altars that Manasses had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord, the king demolished and pulled down from there and threw their dust into the torrent Kedron.

13 And the king defiled the house facing Jerusalem on the right of Mount Mosoath, which Salomon king of Israel had built for Astarte, an object of offense of the Sidonians, and for Chamos, an object of offense of Moab, and for Molchol, an abomination of the sons of Ammon.

14 And he crushed the pillars and destroyed the groves and filled their places with human bones.

15 And indeed the altar in Bethel, the high place that Jeroboam son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he pulled down and crushed its stones and ground them to dust and burned the grove.

16 And Josias turned and saw the tombs there in the city and sent and took the bones from the tombs and burned them upon the altar and defiled it according to the word of the Lord that the man of God spoke when Jeroboam stood at the feast by the altar. And turning, he lifted his eyes to the tomb of the man of God who had spoken these words

17 and said, What is that marker that I see? And the men of the city said to him, It is the man of God who came out of Judah and proclaimed these words that he proclaimed against the altar of Bethel.

18 And he said, Leave it; let no man move his bones. And his bones were spared with the bones of the prophet who had come from Samaria.

19 And also all the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria that the kings of Israel had made to provoke the Lord, Josias removed, and he did to them all the deeds that he did in Bethel.

20 And he sacrificed all the priests of the high places who were there upon the altars and burned human bones upon them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the Passover to the Lord our God as it is written in the book of this covenant;

22 for this Passover had not been held since the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor during all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah,

23 but in the eighteenth year of King Josias the Passover to the Lord was held in Jerusalem.

24 And indeed the consulters and the knowers and the theraphim and the idols and all the objects of offense that were in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem King Josias removed, to establish the words of the law written in the book that Chelkias the priest found in the house of the Lord.

25 Before him there was no king like him who turned to the Lord with all his heart and all his soul and all his strength according to all the law of Moses, and after him none like him arose.

26 But the Lord did not turn from the heat of his great anger, with which his anger burned against Judah for the provocations with which Manasses had provoked him.

27 And the Lord said, I shall also remove Judah from before my face as I removed Israel, and I shall reject this city that I chose, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.

28 And the rest of the deeds of Josias and all that he did, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 And in his days Pharaoh Nechao king of Egypt went up against the king of the Assyrians to the river Euphrates; and Josias went to meet him, and Nechao put him to death at Mageddo when he saw him.

30 And his servants put him, dead, on a chariot from Mageddo and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his tomb in the city of David, and the people of the land took Joachas son of Josias and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

31 Joachas was a son of twenty-three years when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Amital daughter of Jeremias from Lemna.

32 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh Nechao removed him at Deblatha in the land of Emath so that he would not reign in Jerusalem, and imposed a fine upon the land of a hundred talents of silver and a hundred talents of gold.

34 And Pharaoh Nechao made Eliakim son of Josias king over them in place of Josias his father and changed his name to Joakim; and he took Joachas and brought him to Egypt, and he died there.

35 And Joakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he assessed the land to give the silver at the word of Pharaoh; each man according to his assessment gave the silver and the gold with the people of the land to give to Pharaoh Nechao.

36 Joakim was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jeldaph daughter of Phedeia from Rouma.

37 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord according to all that his fathers had done.

Chapter 24

1 In his days Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon went up, and Joakim became his servant for three years; and he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And he sent against him the bands of the Chaldeans and the bands of Syria and the bands of Moab and the bands of the sons of Ammon and sent them into the land of Judah to prevail, according to the word of the Lord that he spoke by the hand of his servants the prophets.

3 But it was upon the anger of the Lord against Judah to remove it from before his face because of the sins of Manasses, according to all that he did;

4 and indeed he poured out innocent blood and filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the Lord was unwilling to show mercy.

5 And the rest of the deeds of Joakim and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 And Joakim slept with his fathers, and Joakim his son reigned in his stead.

7 And the king of Egypt no longer continued to go out of his land, for the king of Babylon had taken from the torrent of Egypt to the river Euphrates all that belonged to the king of Egypt.

8 Joakim was a son of eighteen years when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Nestha daughter of Ellanathan from Jerusalem.

9 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord according to all that his father had done.

10 At that time Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege.

11 And Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon entered the city, and his servants were besieging it.

12 And Joakim king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his servants and his mother and his commanders and his eunuchs, and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.

13 And he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of the Lord and the treasures of the king's house and cut up all the gold vessels that Salomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lord, according to the word of the Lord.

14 And he deported Jerusalem and all the commanders and the mighty in strength, ten thousand captives, and every craftsman and metalworker, and none remained except the poor of the land.

15 And he deported Joakim to Babylon and the king's mother and the king's wives and his eunuchs; and he led the strong men of the land into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon,

16 and all the men of the force, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and metalworkers, one thousand, all mighty men making war; and the king of Babylon brought them as exiles to Babylon.

17 And the king of Babylon made Matthanias his son king in his stead and gave him the name Sedekias.

18 Sedekias was a son of twenty-one years when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Amital daughter of Jeremias.

19 And he did evil before the Lord according to all that Joakim had done;

20 for the anger of the Lord was upon Jerusalem and Judah until he cast them away from before his face. And Sedekias rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Chapter 25

1 And it happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, that Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon and all his force came against Jerusalem and encamped against it and built a surrounding wall around it.

2 And the city came under siege until the eleventh year of King Sedekias;

3 on the ninth of the month the famine grew strong in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 And the city was breached, and all the men of war went out by night through the gate between the walls, which is by the king's garden, while the Chaldeans were all around the city. And he went by the road to the Araba,

5 and the force of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho, and all his force was scattered from him.

6 And they captured the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Deblatha, and he pronounced judgment upon him;

7 and he slaughtered the sons of Sedekias before his eyes, and blinded the eyes of Sedekias and bound him in fetters and brought him to Babylon.

8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh of the month [the same year was the nineteenth of Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon], Nabouzardan the chief cook, who stood before the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

9 And he burned the house of the Lord and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every house burned

10 the chief cook.

11 And the surplus of the people left in the city and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon and the rest of the support Nabouzardan the chief cook removed.

12 And the chief cook left some of the poor of the land as vine dressers and as gabin.

13 And the Chaldeans crushed the bronze pillars in the house of the Lord and the mechonoth and the bronze sea in the house of the Lord and carried their bronze to Babylon.

14 And he took the cauldrons and the iamin and the bowls and the censers and all the bronze vessels with which they ministered;

15 and the chief cook took the fire pans and the bowls of gold and of silver,

16 two pillars, the one sea and the mechonoth that Salomon had made for the house of the Lord; there was no weighing the bronze of all the vessels.

17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the bronze chothar upon it, and the height of the chothar was three cubits, sabacha and roai upon the chothar all around, all bronze; and the second pillar was like it with the sabacha.

18 And the chief cook took Saraias the first priest and Sophonias son of the second order and the three who kept the station,

19 and from the city he took one eunuch who was overseer of the fighting men, and five men who saw the king's face who were found in the city, and the scribe of the commander of the force who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land found in the city;

20 and Nabouzardan the chief cook took them and led them to the king of Babylon at Deblatha,

21 and the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Deblatha in the land of Aimath. And Judah was deported from its land.

22 And the people left in the land of Judah, whom Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon had left, he appointed Godolias son of Achikam son of Saphan over them.

23 And all the commanders of the force, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Godolias, and they came to Godolias at Massephath: Ismael son of Nathanias and Joanan son of Karee and Saraias son of Thanemath the Netophathite and Jezonias son of the Machathite, they and their men.

24 And Godolias swore to them and to their men and said to them, Do not fear the passage of the Chaldeans; dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

25 And it happened in the seventh month that Ismael son of Nathanias son of Elisama, of the royal seed, came with ten men; and he struck Godolias, and he died, and the Judeans and the Chaldeans who were with him at Massephath.

26 And all the people from small to great and the commanders of the forces arose and went into Egypt, for they feared the Chaldeans.

27 And it happened in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Joakim king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, that Evilmarodach king of Babylon, in the year of his reign, lifted the head of Joakim king of Judah and brought him out of his prison house

28 and spoke good things with him and placed his throne above the thrones of the kings who were with him in Babylon,

29 and changed his prison garments, and he ate bread continually before him all the days of his life;

30 and his provision, a continual provision, was given him from the king's house, a day's portion on its day, all the days of his life.

1 Chronicles

Chapter 1

1 Adam, Seth, Enos,

2 Kainan, Maleleel, Jared,

3 Enoch, Mathousala, Lamech,

4 Noe. Sons of Noe: Sem, Cham, Japheth.

5 Sons of Japheth: Gamer, Magog, Madai, Jovan, Elisa, Thobel, Mosoch and Thiras.

6 And sons of Gamer: Aschanaz and Riphath and Thorgama.

7 And sons of Jovan: Elisa and Tharsis, Kitians and Rhodians.

8 And sons of Cham: Chous and Mestraim, Phoud and Chanaan.

9 And sons of Chous: Saba and Euilat and Sabatha and Regma and Sebekatha. And sons of Regma: Saba and Oudadan.

10 And Chous fathered Nebrod; he began to be a giant hunter upon the earth.

17 Sons of Sem: Ailam and Assour and Arphaxad,

24 Sala,

25 Eber, Phalek, Ragau,

26 Serouch, Nachor, Thara,

27 Abraham.

28 And sons of Abraham: Isaac and Ismael.

29 And these are the generations of Ismael the firstborn: Nabaioth and Kedar, Nabdeel, Mabsan,

30 Masma, Idouma, Masse, Chodad, Thaiman,

31 Jettour, Naphes and Kedma. These are the sons of Ismael.

32 And sons of Chettoura, Abraham's concubine: she bore him Zembran, Jexan, Madan, Madiam, Sobak, Soe. And sons of Jexan: Saba and Daidan.

33 And sons of Madiam: Gaipha and Opher and Enoch and Abida and Eldaa. All these are sons of Chettoura.

34 And Abraham fathered Isaac. And sons of Isaac: Esau and Jacob.

35 Sons of Esau: Eliphas and Ragouel and Jeoul and Jeglom and Kore.

36 Sons of Eliphas: Thaiman and Omar, Sophar and Gootham and Kenez and, of Thamna, Amalek.

37 And sons of Ragouel: Nacheth, Zare, Some and Moze.

38 Sons of Seir: Lotan, Sobal, Sebegon, Ana, Deson, Osar, Daison.

39 And sons of Lotan: Chorri and Aiman and Ailath and Namna.

40 Sons of Sobal: Golam, Manachath, Gaibel, Sob and Onam. And sons of Sebegon: Aia and Ana.

41 Sons of Ana: Daison. And sons of Deson: Emeron and Eseban and Jethran and Charran.

42 And sons of Osar: Balaan and Zoukan and Jokan. Sons of Daison: Os and Arran.

43 And these are their kings: Balak son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dennaba.

44 And Balak died, and Jobab son of Zara from Bosorra reigned in his stead.

45 And Jobab died, and Asom from the land of the Thaimanians reigned in his stead.

46 And Asom died, and Adad son of Barad, who struck Madiam in the plain of Moab, reigned in his stead, and the name of his city was Geththaim.

47 And Adad died, and Samaa from Masekka reigned in his stead.

48 And Samaa died, and Saoul from Rooboth by the river reigned in his stead.

49 And Saoul died, and Balaennon son of Achobor reigned in his stead.

50 And Balaennon son of Achobor died, and Adad son of Barad reigned in his stead, and the name of his city was Phogor.

51 And Adad died. And there were leaders of Edom: leader Thamana, leader Gola, leader Jetheth,

52 leader Elibamas, leader Elas, leader Phinon,

53 leader Kenez, leader Thaiman, leader Mabsar,

54 leader Megediel, leader Eram. These are leaders of Edom.

Chapter 2

1 These are the names of the sons of Israel: Reuben, Symeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zaboulon,

2 Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Nephthali, Gad, Aser.

3 Sons of Judah: Er, Aunan, Selon, three; they were born to him of the daughter of Saua the Chanaanite. And Er the firstborn of Judah was evil before the Lord, and he killed him.

4 And Thamar his daughter-in-law bore him Phares and Zara. All the sons of Judah were five.

5 Sons of Phares: Arson and Jemouel.

6 And sons of Zara: Zambri and Aithan and Aiman and Chalchal and Dara, five in all.

7 And sons of Charmi: Achar the hinderer of Israel, who transgressed in the devoted thing.

8 And sons of Aithan: Azarias.

9 And sons of Eseron born to him: Jerameel and Ram and Chaleb and Aram.

10 And Aram fathered Aminadab, and Aminadab fathered Naasson, ruler of the house of Judah,

11 and Naasson fathered Salmon, and Salmon fathered Boos,

12 and Boos fathered Obed, and Obed fathered Jessai,

13 and Jessai fathered Eliab his firstborn; Aminadab the second, Samaa the third,

14 Nathanael the fourth, Raddai the fifth,

15 Asom the sixth, David the seventh.

16 And their sisters were Sarouia and Abigaia. And sons of Sarouia: Abessa and Joab and Asael, three.

17 And Abigaia bore Amessa; and Amessa's father was Jothor the Ismaelite.

18 And Chaleb son of Eseron fathered Gazouba a wife and Jerioth. And these were her sons: Joasar and Sobab and Orna.

19 And Gazouba died, and Chaleb took Ephrath for himself, and she bore him Or;

20 and Or fathered Ouri, and Ouri fathered Beseleel.

21 And after these things Eseron went in to the daughter of Machir father of Galaad, and he took her, being sixty years old, and she bore him Segoub.

22 And Segoub fathered Jair. And he had twenty-three cities in Galaad;

23 and Gedsour and Aram took the villages of Jair from them, Kanath and its villages, sixty cities; all these belonged to the sons of Machir father of Galaad.

24 And after Eseron died Chaleb went to Ephratha. And Eseron's wife Abia bore him Aschod father of Thekoe.

25 And the sons of Jeremeel the firstborn of Eseron were Ram the firstborn, and Baana and Aran and Asom his brother.

26 And Jeremeel had another wife, and her name was Atara; she was the mother of Ozom.

27 And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jeremeel were Maas and Jamin and Akor.

28 And the sons of Ozom were Samai and Jadae. And sons of Samai: Nadab and Abisour.

29 And the name of Abisour's wife was Abichail, and she bore him Achabar and Molid.

30 Sons of Nadab: Salad and Aphphaim. And Salad died without children.

31 And sons of Aphphaim: Jisemiel. And sons of Jisemiel: Sosan. And sons of Sosan: Achlai.

32 And sons of Jadae: Achisamai, Jether, Jonathan; and Jether died without children.

33 And sons of Jonathan: Phaleth and Ozaza. These were sons of Jeremeel.

34 And Sosan had no sons, only daughters; and Sosan had an Egyptian servant named Jochiel,

35 and Sosan gave his daughter to his servant Jochiel as a wife, and she bore him Eththi.

36 And Eththi fathered Nathan, and Nathan fathered Zabed,

37 and Zabed fathered Aphaleel, and Aphaleel fathered Obed,

38 and Obed fathered Jeou, and Jeou fathered Azarias,

39 and Azarias fathered Chelles, and Chelles fathered Eleasa,

40 and Eleasa fathered Sosomai, and Sosomai fathered Saloum,

41 and Saloum fathered Jechemias, and Jechemias fathered Elisama.

42 And sons of Chaleb brother of Jeremeel: Marisa his firstborn, he was father of Ziph; and sons of Marisa father of Chebron.

43 And sons of Chebron: Kore and Thapous and Rekom and Semaa.

44 And Semaa fathered Raem father of Jerkaan, and Jerkaan fathered Samai;

45 and his son was Maon, and Maon was father of Baithsour.

46 And Gaipha the concubine of Chaleb bore Arran and Mosa and Gezoue. And Arran fathered Gezoue.

47 And sons of Jadai: Ragem and Joatham and Gersom and Phalet and Gaipha and Sagaph.

48 And Mocha the concubine of Chaleb bore Saber and Tharchna.

49 And she bore Sagaph father of Marmina and Saou father of Machabena and father of Gaibaa; and Chaleb's daughter was Ascha.

50 These were sons of Chaleb. Sons of Or the firstborn of Ephratha: Sobal father of Kariathiarim, 51 Salomon father of Baithlaem, Arim father of Baithgedor.

52 And Sobal father of Kariathiarim had sons: Araa, Esi, Ammanith,

53 Emospheos, city of Jair, Aithalim and Miphithim and Esamathim and Emasaraim; from these came the Sarathaians and the Esthaolaians.

54 Sons of Salomon: Baithlaem, Netophathi, Ataroth of the house of Joab and half of the Manathi, Esarei,

55 families of scribes dwelling at Jabes: Thargathiim, Samathiim, Sokathiim; these are the Kenites who came from Mesema father of the house of Rechab.

Chapter 3

1 And these were the sons of David born to him in Chebron: the firstborn Amnon by Achinaam the Jezraelite, the second Daniel by Abigaia the Carmelite,

2 the third Abessalom son of Mocha daughter of Tholmai king of Gedsour, the fourth Adonia son of Aggith,

3 the fifth Saphatia by Abital, the sixth Jethraam by Agla his wife.

4 Six were born to him in Chebron, and he reigned there seven years and six months. And he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem,

5 and these were born to him in Jerusalem: Samaa, Sobab, Nathan and Salomon, four by Bersabee daughter of Amiel,

6 and Ibaar and Elisama and Eliphalet

7 and Nage and Naphag and Janoue

8 and Elisama and Eliada and Eliphalet, nine.

9 All were sons of David apart from the sons of the concubines, and Themar was their sister.

10 Sons of Salomon: Roboam, Abia his son, Asa his son, Josaphat his son,

11 Joram his son, Ochozias his son, Joas his son,

12 Amasias his son, Azarias his son, Joathan his son,

13 Achaz his son, Ezekias his son, Manasses his son,

14 Amon his son, Josias his son.

15 And sons of Josias: firstborn Joanan, second Joakim, third Sedekias, fourth Saloum.

16 And sons of Joakim: Jechonias his son, Sedekias his son.

17 And sons of Jechonias—asir: Salathiel his son,

18 Melchiram and Phadaias and Sanesar and Jekemia and Osamo and Denethi.

19 And sons of Salathiel: Zorobabel and Semei. And sons of Zorobabel: Mosollamos and Ananias, and Salomith their sister,

20 and Asoube and Ool and Barachia and Asadia and Asobaesd, five.

21 And sons of Ananias: Phalletia, and Isaia his son, Raphaia his son, Orna his son, Abdia his son, Sechenia his son.

22 And son of Sechenia: Samaia. And sons of Samaia: Chattous and Joel and Mari and Noadia and Saphath, six.

23 And sons of Noadia: Elithenan and Ezekias and Ezrikam, three.

24 And sons of Elithenan: Odouia and Eliasib and Phalaia and Akoun and Joanan and Dalaia and Anani, seven.

Chapter 4

1 And sons of Judah: Phares, Arson and Charmi and Or, Soubal

2 and Raia his son; and Soubal fathered Jeth, and Jeth fathered Achimi and Laad; these are the generations of the Sarathite.

3 And these were sons of Aitam: Jezrael and Ragma and Jabas, and their sister's name was Eselebbōn.

4 And Phanouel father of Gedor, and Azir father of Osan. These were sons of Or the firstborn of Ephratha father of Baithlaem.

5 And Saour father of Thekoe had two wives, Aoda and Thoada.

6 And Aoda bore him Ochazam and Ephad and Thaiman and Astheran; all these were sons of Aoda.

7 And sons of Thoada: Sareth and Saar and Ethnan.

8 And Kos fathered Enob and Sabeba. And generations of the brother of Rechab son of Jarim.

9 And Igabes was more honored than his brothers; and his mother called his name Igabes, saying, I bore as gabes.

10 And Igabes called upon the God of Israel, saying, If you will surely bless me and enlarge my borders and your hand be with me, then you will make knowledge so as not to humble me. And God brought about all that he asked.

11 And Chaleb father of Ascha fathered Machir; he was father of Assathon.

12 And Assathon fathered Bathrephan and Phessie and Thana father of the city Naas, brother of Eselon the Kenezite; these were men of Repha.

13 And sons of Kenez: Gothoniel and Saraia. And sons of Gothoniel: Athath.

14 And Manathi fathered Gophera. And Saraia fathered Joab father of Ageaddair, for they were craftsmen.

15 And sons of Chaleb son of Jephonne: Era, Ala and Noom. And sons of Ala: Kenez.

16 And his son Geseel, Ameachi and Zapha and Zaira and Eserael.

17 And sons of Esri: Jether, Morad and Apher and Jalon. And Jether fathered Maron and Semai and Mareth father of Esthemon.

18 And his wife [this is Adia] bore Jared father of Gedor and Aber father of Sochon and Jekthiel father of Zano; and these were sons of Gelia daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mored took.

19 And sons of the wife of Idouia sister of Nachem. And Dalia father of Keila, and Semeion father of Joman. And sons of Naem father of Keila: Agarmi and Esthemoe the Machathite.

20 And sons of Semeion: Amnon and Rana, son of Anan and Thilon. And sons of Jesei: Zoath and sons of Zoath.

21 Sons of Selom son of Judah: Er father of Lecha and Laada father of Maresa and generations of houses, ephrath abak, of the house of Esoba

22 and Joakim and men of Chozeba and Joas and Saraph, who dwelt in Moab; and he brought them back, abederin athoukiin.

23 These were potters dwelling in Nataim and Gadera; with the king in his kingdom they became strong and dwelt there.

24 Sons of Symeon: Namouel and Jamin, Jarib, Zare, Saoul;

25 Salem his son, Mabasam his son, Masma his son,

26 Amouel his son, Saboud his son, Zakchour his son, Semei his son.

27 And Semei had sixteen sons and three daughters; and their brothers had not many sons; and all their families did not increase like the sons of Judah.

28 And they dwelt in Bersabee and Sama and Molada and Esersoual

29 and in Balaa and Boasom and Thoulad

30 and Bathouel and Erma and Seklag

31 and Baithmarchaboth and half of Sosim and the house of Baroumseorim; these were their cities until King David.

32 And their settlements: Aitam and Enremmon and Thokkan and Aisan, five cities.

33 And all their settlements around these cities as far as Baal; this was their holding and their enrollment.

34 And Mosobab and Jemoloch and Josias son of Amasias

35 and Joel [and he was son of Isabia], son of Saraia, son of Asiel,

36 and Elioenai and Jakaba and Jasouia and Asaia and Ediel and Ismael and Banaia

37 and Zouza son of Sephei son of Allon son of Jedia son of Samari son of Samaiou.

38 These who passed by in names of rulers in their generations; and in the houses of their families they increased into a multitude.

39 And they went as far as the entrance of Gerara, to the east of Gai, to seek pastures for their livestock;

40 and they found rich and good pastures, and the land was broad before them and peaceful and quiet, for those dwelling there before were of the sons of Cham.

41 And these recorded by name came in the days of Ezekias king of Judah and struck their houses and the Minaeans whom they found there and devoted them to destruction until this day and dwelt in their stead, for there were pastures for their livestock there.

42 And from them, from the sons of Symeon, five hundred men went to Mount Seir, and Phalettia and Noadia and Raphaia and Oziel sons of Jesi were their leaders;

43 and they struck the remnant left of Amalek and dwelt there until this day.

Chapter 5

1 And sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, for he was the firstborn, but when he went up to his father's bed he gave his blessing to his son Joseph son of Israel, and he was not reckoned in the genealogy for the birthright;

2 for Judah was mighty in strength and among his brothers and a leader came from him, but the blessing belonged to Joseph.

3 Sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Enoch and Phallous, Arson and Charmi.

4 Sons of Joel: Semei and Banaia his son. And sons of Goug son of Semei:

5 his son Micha, his son Recha, his son Baal,

6 his son Beera, whom Thaglathphalnasar king of Assour deported; he was ruler of the Reubenites.

7 And his brothers by his family in their enrollments according to their generations: the ruler Joel and Zacharias

8 and Balek son of Ozouz son of Sama son of Joel; he dwelt in Aroer and as far as Nabau and Beelmaon,

9 and eastward he dwelt as far as the approaches of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, for their livestock were numerous in the land of Galaad.

10 And in the days of Saoul they made war against the sojourners, and they fell into their hands, dwelling in tents throughout the east of Galaad.

11 Sons of Gad dwelt opposite them in Basan as far as Selcha.

12 Joel the firstborn, Sapham the second, and Jani the scribe in Basan.

13 And their brothers by the houses of their families: Michael, Mosollam and Sebee and Joree and Jachan and Zoue and Obed, seven.

14 These were sons of Abichail son of Ouri son of Idai son of Galaad son of Michael son of Isai son of Jouri son of Zaboucham

15 son of Abdiel son of Gouni, ruler of a family house.

16 They dwelt in Galaad, in Basan and its villages and all the surrounding lands of Saron as far as the exit.

17 The enrollment of them all was in the days of Joatham king of Judah and the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 Sons of Reuben and Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh, of sons of strength, men bearing shields and sword and drawing the bow and trained for war, forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty going out in battle array.

19 And they made war with the Agarenes and Ituraeans and Naphisaeans and Nadabaeans

20 and prevailed over them, and the Agaraeans and all their encampments were given into their hands, for they cried to God in the war, and he heard them because they hoped in him.

21 And they took their baggage captive: five thousand camels and two hundred fifty thousand sheep, two thousand donkeys and one hundred thousand human souls;

22 for many wounded fell, for the war was from God. And they dwelt in their stead until the deportation.

23 And the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land from Basan as far as Baalermon and Sanir and Mount Aermon; and in Lebanon they multiplied.

24 And these were the heads of their family houses: Opher and Jesei and Eliel and Esdriel and Jermia and Odouia and Jediel, men mighty in strength, men of renown, rulers of their family houses.

25 And they rebelled against the God of their fathers and prostituted themselves after the gods of the peoples of the land whom God had removed before them.

26 And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Phaloch king of Assour and the spirit of Thaglathphalnasar king of Assour, and he deported Reuben and Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh and led them to Chalach and Chabor and to the river Gozan until this day.

27 Sons of Levi: Gedson, Kaath and Merari.

28 And sons of Kaath: Ambram and Issaar, Chebron and Oziel.

29 And sons of Ambram: Aaron and Moses and Mariam. And sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abioud, Eleazar and Ithamar.

30 Eleazar fathered Phinees, Phinees fathered Abisou,

31 Abisou fathered Bokai, Bokai fathered Ozi,

32 Ozi fathered Zaraia, Zaraia fathered Mariel,

33 and Mariel fathered Amaria, and Amaria fathered Achitob,

34 and Achitob fathered Sadok, and Sadok fathered Achimaas,

35 and Achimaas fathered Azarias, and Azarias fathered Joanan,

36 and Joanas fathered Azarias; he served as priest in the house that Salomon built in Jerusalem.

37 And Azarias fathered Amaria, and Amaria fathered Achitob,

38 and Achitob fathered Sadok, and Sadok fathered Salom,

39 and Salom fathered Chelkias, and Chelkias fathered Azarias,

40 and Azarias fathered Saraias, and Saraias fathered Josadak.

41 And Josadak went into exile with Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nabouchodonosor.

Chapter 6

1 Sons of Levi: Gedson, Kaath and Merari.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Gedson: Lobeni and Semei.

3 Sons of Kaath: Ambram and Issaar, Chebron and Oziel.

4 Sons of Merari: Mooli and Omousi. And these are the families of Levi according to their families:

5 for Gedson, Lobeni his son, Jeeth his son, Zemma his son,

6 Joach his son, Addi his son, Zara his son, Jethri his son.

7 Sons of Kaath: Aminadab his son, Kore his son, Asir his son,

8 Elkana his son, and Abiasaph his son, Asir his son,

9 Thaath his son, Ouriel his son, Ozias his son, Saoul his son.

10 And sons of Elkana: Amasi and Achimoth,

11 Elkana his son, Souphi his son and Naath his son,

12 Eliab his son, Idaer his son, Elkana his son.

13 Sons of Samuel: the firstborn Sani and Abia.

14 Sons of Merari: Mooli, Lobeni his son, Semei his son, Oza his son,

15 Somea his son, Aggia his son, Asaia his son.

16 And these are the ones whom David appointed over the hands of the singers in the house of the Lord at the resting of the ark,

17 and they ministered before the tent of the house of testimony with instruments until Salomon built the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, and they stood according to their ordinance for their services.

18 And these were those standing, and their sons, from the sons of Kaath: Aiman the singer, son of Joel son of Samuel

19 son of Elkana son of Edad son of Eliel son of Thie

20 son of Souph son of Elkana son of Meth' son of Amasias

21 son of Elkana son of Joel son of Azarias son of Saphanias

22 son of Thaath son of Asir son of Abiasaph son of Kore

23 son of Issaar son of Kaath son of Levi son of Israel.

24 And his brother Asaph stood on his right: Asaph son of Barachias son of Samaa

25 son of Michael son of Maasias son of Melchias

26 son of Athani son of Zarai son of Adia

27 son of Aithan son of Zamma son of Semei

28 son of Echa son of Gedson son of Levi.

29 And the sons of Merari their brother were on the left: Aithan son of Kisai son of Abdi son of Maloch

30 son of Asebi son of Amessias son of Chelkias

31 son of Amasai son of Bani son of Semmer

32 son of Mooli son of Mousi son of Merari son of Levi.

33 And their brothers by their family houses, the Levites, were given for every work of service of the tent of the house of God.

34 And Aaron and his sons burned incense upon the altar of whole burnt offerings and upon the altar of incense for every work of the holy of holies and to make atonement for Israel according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

35 And these were sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinees his son, Abisou his son,

36 Bokai his son, Ozi his son, Zaraia his son,

37 Mariel his son, Amaria his son, Achitob his son,

38 Sadok his son, Achimaas his son.

39 And these were their dwelling places in their villages within their borders, for the sons of Aaron of the family of Kaath—for the lot fell to them—

40 and they gave them Chebron in the land of Judah and its surrounding lands around it;

41 but the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Chaleb son of Jephonne.

42 And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge, Chebron and Lobna and its surrounding lands and Selna and its surrounding lands and Esthamo and its surrounding lands

43 and Jeththar and its surrounding lands and Dabir and its surrounding lands

44 and Asan and its surrounding lands and Attan and its surrounding lands and Basamys and its surrounding lands,

45 and from the tribe of Benjamin, Gabee and its surrounding lands and Galemeth and its surrounding lands and Agchoch and its surrounding lands; all their cities were thirteen cities according to their families.

46 And to the remaining sons of Kaath, from the families of the tribe, from the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities by lot.

47 And to the sons of Gedson according to their families, from the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Aser, from the tribe of Nephthali, from the tribe of Manasseh in Basan, thirteen cities.

48 And to the sons of Merari according to their families, from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, from the tribe of Zaboulon, twelve cities by lot.

49 And the sons of Israel gave to the Levites the cities and their surrounding lands;

50 and by lot they gave from the tribe of the sons of Judah and from the tribe of the sons of Symeon these cities, which he called by name.

51 And from the families of the sons of Kaath there were cities of their borders from the tribe of Ephraim.

52 And they gave him the cities of refuge, Sychem and its surrounding lands in Mount Ephraim and Gazer and its surrounding lands

53 and Jekmaam and its surrounding lands and Baithoron and its surrounding lands

54 and Eglam and its surrounding lands and Gethremmon and its surrounding lands

55 and from the half tribe of Manasseh, Anar and its surrounding lands and Jeblaam and its surrounding lands according to family for the remaining sons of Kaath.

56 To the sons of Gedson from the families of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan from Basan and its surrounding lands and Aseroth and its surrounding lands,

57 and from the tribe of Issachar, Kedes and its surrounding lands and Deberi and its surrounding lands

58 and Dabor and its surrounding lands and Anam and its surrounding lands,

59 and from the tribe of Aser, Masal and its surrounding lands and Abaran and its surrounding lands

60 and Ikak and its surrounding lands and Roob and its surrounding lands,

61 and from the tribe of Nephthali, Kedes in Galilaia and its surrounding lands and Chamoth and its surrounding lands and Kariathaim and its surrounding lands.

62 To the remaining sons of Merari from the tribe of Zaboulon, Remmon and its surrounding lands and Thachchia and its surrounding lands,

63 and from across the Jordan at Jericho, to the west of the Jordan, from the tribe of Reuben, Bosor in the wilderness and its surrounding lands and Jasa and its surrounding lands

64 and Kademoth and its surrounding lands and Mophaa and its surrounding lands,

65 and from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth Galaad and its surrounding lands and Maanaim and its surrounding lands

66 and Esebon and its surrounding lands and Jazir and its surrounding lands.

Chapter 7

1 And for the sons of Issachar: Thola and Phoua and Jasoub and Semeron, four.

2 And sons of Thola: Ozi and Raphaia and Jeriel and Jemou and Jebasam and Samuel, rulers of their family houses for Thola, mighty in strength according to their generations. Their number in David's days was twenty-two thousand six hundred.

3 And sons of Ozi: Jezria, and sons of Jezria: Michael and Obdia and Joel and Jesia, five, all rulers.

4 And with them according to their generations by their ancestral houses were thirty-six thousand mighty men for battle, for they had multiplied wives and sons.

5 And their brothers in all the families of Issachar, mighty in strength, numbered eighty-seven thousand in all.

6 Benjamin: Bale and Bachir and Jadiel, three.

7 And sons of Bale: Asebon and Ozi and Oziel and Jerimoth and Ouri, five rulers of ancestral houses, mighty in strength. And their number was twenty-two thousand and thirty-four.

8 And sons of Bachir: Zamarias and Joas and Eliezer and Elithenan and Amaria and Jerimoth and Abiou and Anathoth and Gemeeth. All these were sons of Bachir.

9 And their number according to their generations, rulers of their family houses, mighty in strength, was twenty thousand two hundred.

10 And sons of Jadiel: Balaan. And sons of Balaan: Jaous and Benjamin and Aoth and Chanana and Zaithan and Ramessai and Achisaar.

11 All these were sons of Jadiel, rulers of the families, mighty in strength, seventeen thousand two hundred going out in force to fight.

12 And Sapphin and Apphin and sons of Raom: his son Aer.

13 Sons of Nephthali: Jasiel and Goni and Issier and Salom, sons of Balaa.

14 Sons of Manasseh: Aseriel, whom his Syrian concubine bore; she bore Machir father of Galaad.

15 And Machir took a wife for Amphin and Mamphin; and his sister's name was Moocha. And the second one's name was Salpaad, and daughters were born to Salpaad.

16 And Moocha wife of Machir bore a son and called his name Phares, and his brother's name was Soros; his son was Oulam.

17 And sons of Oulam: Badan. These were sons of Galaad son of Machir son of Manasseh.

18 And his sister Malecheth bore Isadek and Abiezer and Maela.

19 And the sons of Semira were Jaaim and Sychem and Lakei and Aniam.

20 And sons of Ephraim: Sothala, and Barad his son, and Thaath his son, Eleada his son, Nomee his son,

21 Zabed his son, Sothele his son and Ezer and Elead. And the men of Geth born in the land killed them because they went down to take their livestock.

22 And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him.

23 And he went in to his wife, and she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Baraga, because, In evils it happened in my house.

24 And among those who remained he built lower and upper Baithoron. And sons of Ozan: Seera

25 and Raphi his sons, Raseph and Thale his sons, Thaen his son.

26 Laadan his son, Amioud his son, Elisama his son,

27 Noum his son, Jesoue his son.

28 And their holding and dwelling place: Bethel and its villages, to the east Naaran, to the west Gazer and its villages; and Sychem and its villages as far as Gaian and its villages.

29 And as far as the borders of the sons of Manasseh: Baithsaan and its villages, Thaanach and its villages and Balad and its villages, Mageddo and its villages, Dor and its villages. In these the sons of Joseph son of Israel dwelt.

30 Sons of Aser: Jemna and Isoua and Isoui and Beriga, and Sore their sister.

31 And sons of Beriga: Chaber and Melchiel, who was father of Berzaith.

32 And Chaber fathered Japhalet and Samer and Chotham and Sola their sister.

33 And sons of Japhalet: Phesechi, Bamael and Asith; these were sons of Japhalet.

34 And sons of Semmer: Achiouraoga and Oba and Aram

35 and Baneelam; his brothers were Sophas and Imana and Selles and Amal.

36 Sons of Sophas: Chouchi, Arnaphar and Soual and Bari and Imari, 37 Sobal and Od and Semma and Salisa and Jethran and Beera.

38 And sons of Jether: Iphina and Phaspha and Ara.

39 And sons of Ola: Orech, Aniel and Rasia.

40 All these were sons of Aser, all chosen rulers of families mighty in strength, leading rulers; their number in battle array for fighting was twenty-six thousand men.

Chapter 8

1 And Benjamin fathered Bale his firstborn and Asbel the second, Aara the third,

2 Noa the fourth and Raphi the fifth.

3 And Bale had sons: Ader and Gera and Abioud

4 and Abisoue and Nooma and Achia

5 and Gera and Sopharphak and Oim.

6 These were sons of Aod; these were rulers of families for those dwelling in Gabee, and they deported them to Manachathi;

7 and Nooma and Achia and Gera; he was iglaam and fathered Naana and Achichod.

8 And Saarim fathered in the plain of Moab after he sent away Osim and Baada his wife.

9 And by Ada his wife he fathered Jobab and Sebia and Misa and Melcham

10 and Jaos and Sabia and Marma; these were rulers of families.

11 And by Osim he fathered Abitob and Alphaal.

12 And sons of Alphaal: Obed, Messaam, Semmer; he built Ono and Lod and its villages.

13 And Beriga and Sama; these were rulers of the families for those dwelling in Ailam, and they drove out those dwelling in Geth.

14 And his brother Sosek and Jarimoth

15 and Zabadia and Orer and Oded

16 and Michael and Jespha and Jocha, sons of Bariga.

17 And Zabadia and Mosollam and Azaki and Abar

18 and Isamari and Jezlia and Jobab, sons of Elphaal.

19 And Jakim and Zechri and Zabdi

20 and Elioenai and Salthi and Elieli

21 and Adaia and Baraia and Samarath, sons of Samai.

22 And Isphan and Obed and Eleel

23 and Abadon and Zechri and Anan

24 and Anania and Ambri and Ailam and Anathothia

25 and Athin and Jepheria and Pheliel, sons of Sosek.

26 And Samsaria and Saaria and Ogotholia

27 and Jarasia and Elia and Zechri, sons of Iraam.

28 These were rulers of families according to their generations, rulers; these dwelt in Jerusalem.

29 And in Gabaon dwelt the father of Gabaon, and his wife's name was Maacha.

30 And her firstborn son was Abadon, and Sour and Kis and Baal and Ner and Nadab

31 and Gedour and his brother and Zachour and Makaloth;

32 and Makaloth fathered Semaa. For they too dwelt opposite their brothers in Jerusalem with their brothers.

33 And Ner fathered Kis, and Kis fathered Saoul, and Saoul fathered Jonathan and Melchisoue and Aminadab and Asabal.

34 And sons of Jonathan: Meribaal. And Meribaal fathered Michia.

35 And sons of Michia: Phithon and Melchel and Theree and Achaz.

36 And Achaz fathered Joiada, and Joiada fathered Galemath and Asmoth and Zambri, and Zambri fathered Maisa;

37 and Maisa fathered Baana; Raphaia his son, Elasa his son, Esel his son.

38 And Esel had six sons, and these were their names: Ezrikam his firstborn, and Ismael and Saraia and Abdia and Anan; all these were sons of Esel.

39 And sons of Asel his brother: Ailam his firstborn, and Jais the second, Eliphalet the third.

40 And the sons of Ailam were mighty men of strength who drew the bow and had many sons and sons of sons, one hundred and fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.

Chapter 9

1 And all Israel, their enrollment, and these were recorded in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah with those deported to Babylon for their lawless deeds.

2 And the first inhabitants in their holdings in the cities: Israel, the priests, the Levites and those given.

3 And in Jerusalem there dwelt some of the sons of Judah and of the sons of Benjamin and of the sons of Ephraim and Manasseh:

4 Gothi son of Ammioud son of Amri son of the sons of Phares son of Judah.

5 And of the Selonites: Asaia his firstborn and his sons.

6 Of the sons of Zara: Jiel and their brothers, six hundred and ninety.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin: Salo son of Mosollam son of Odouia son of Sanaa

8 and Ibanaa son of Iraam, and these were sons of Ozi son of Machir; and Massalem son of Saphatia son of Ragouel son of Banaia

9 and their brothers according to their generations, nine hundred fifty-six, all men rulers of families by their family houses.

10 And of the priests: Jodae and Joarim and Jachin

11 and Azarias son of Chelkias son of Mosollam son of Sadok son of Maraioth son of Achitob, leader of the house of God,

12 and Adaia son of Iraam son of Paschor son of Malchias and Maasaias son of Adiel son of Jediou son of Mosollam son of Maselmoth son of Emmer,

13 and their brothers, rulers of family houses, one thousand seven hundred sixty mighty in strength for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites: Samaia son of Asob son of Esrikam son of Asabia, of the sons of Merari,

15 and Bakbakar and Ares and Galal and Manthanias son of Micha son of Zechri son of Asaph,

16 and Abdia son of Samia son of Galal son of Idithon and Barachias son of Ossa son of Elkana, who dwelt in the villages of Netophathi.

17 The gatekeepers: Salom and Akoub and Talman and Aiman and their brothers, Salom the ruler;

18 and until then at the king's gate to the east; these were the gates of the camps of the sons of Levi.

19 And Salom son of Kore son of Abiasaph son of Kore and his brothers in his father's house, the Korites, over the works of service guarding the watches of the tent, and their fathers over the camp of the Lord guarding the entrance.

20 And Phinees son of Eleazar was leader over them before, and these were with him.

21 Zacharias son of Masalami was gatekeeper of the entrance of the tent of testimony.

22 All the chosen at the gates, at the gates, were two hundred twelve; these were in their courts, their enrollment; David and Samuel the seer appointed them in their faithfulness.

23 And they and their sons were over the gates in the house of the Lord, in the house of the tent, to guard it.

24 The gates were toward the four winds, east, sea, north, south.

25 And their brothers in their courts were to come in every seven days from time to time with these;

26 for four mighty men of the gates were in trust. The Levites were over the chambers and the treasuries of the house of God,

27 and they encamped around the house of God, for the guard was upon them, and they were over the keys to open the doors of the sanctuary morning by morning.

28 And some of them were over the vessels of service, for they brought them in by number and brought them out by number.

29 And some of them were appointed over the vessels and all the holy vessels and over the fine flour, wine, oil, frankincense and spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests were makers of ointment for the ointment and for the spices.

31 And Mattathias of the Levites [he was the firstborn of Salom the Korite] was in trust over the work of the offering of the pan of the high priest.

32 And Banaia the Kaathite of their brothers was over the bread of the presentation to prepare it sabbath by sabbath.

33 And these were singers, rulers of the families of the Levites, assigned daily divisions, for day and night they had the work;

34 these were rulers of the families of the Levites according to their generations, rulers; they dwelt in Jerusalem.

35 And in Gabaon dwelt Jiel father of Gabaon, and his wife's name was Moocha;

36 and his firstborn son was Abadon, and Sir and Kis and Baal and Ner and Nadab

37 and Gedour and a brother and Zacharias and Makelloth.

38 And Makelloth fathered Samaa. And these dwelt among their brothers in Jerusalem with their brothers.

39 And Ner fathered Kis, and Kis fathered Saoul, and Saoul fathered Jonathan and Melchisoue and Aminadab and Isbaal.

40 And Jonathan's son was Maribaal, and Maribaal fathered Micha.

41 And sons of Micha: Phaithon and Malach and Tharach.

42 And Achaz fathered Jada, and Jada fathered Galemeth and Gazmoth and Zambri, and Zambri fathered Masa,

43 and Masa fathered Baana, Raphaia his son, Eleasa his son, Esel his son.

44 And Esel had six sons, and these were their names: Esdrikam his firstborn, Ismael and Saria and Abdia and Anan; these were sons of Esel.

Chapter 10

1 And foreigners fought against Israel, and Israel fled from before the foreigners, and wounded men fell on Mount Gelboue.

2 And foreigners pursued after Saul and after his sons, and foreigners struck Jonathan and Aminadab and Melchisue, sons of Saul.

3 And the battle became heavy upon Saul, and the archers found him with bows and pains, and he was pained from the bows.

4 And Saul said to the one bearing his gear, “Draw your sword and pierce me with it, lest these uncircumcised come and mock me.” And the one bearing his gear was unwilling, because he feared greatly; and Saul took the sword and fell upon it.

5 And the one bearing his gear saw that Saul had died, and he too fell upon his sword and died.

6 And Saul and his three sons died on that day, and all his house died together.

7 And every man of Israel who was in the valley saw that Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, and they abandoned their cities and fled; and foreigners came and settled in them. —

8 And it came to pass on the next day that foreigners came to strip the wounded, and they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gelboue.

9 And they stripped him, and took his head and his gear, and sent them around to the land of the foreigners, to announce good news to their idols and to the people.

10 And they put his gear in the house of their god, and they put his head in the house of Dagon.

11 And all the inhabitants of all Galaad heard all that the foreigners had done to Saul and to Israel.

12 And every valiant man arose from Galaad, and they took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabis, and buried their bones beneath the oak in Jabis, and they fasted seven days. —

13 And Saul died in his iniquities, which he had committed against the Lord, according to the word of the Lord, because he did not keep it; because Saul inquired at the ventriloquist, to inquire, and Samuel the prophet answered him;

14 and he did not seek the Lord, and he slew him, and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

Chapter 11

1 And all Israel came to David at Hebron, saying, “Behold, we are your bones and your flesh.

2 And yesterday and the third day, when Saul was king, you were the one leading out and bringing in Israel; and the Lord your God said to you, ‘You shall shepherd my people Israel, and you shall be a leader over Israel.’”

3 And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord; and they anointed David as king over Israel according to the word of the Lord through the hand of Samuel.

4 And the king and the men of Israel went to Jerusalem [this is Jebus], and there were the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You shall not enter here.” And he captured the stronghold of Zion [this is the city of David].

6 And David said, “Everyone striking a Jebusite first shall become ruler and commander.” And Joab son of Sarouia went up against it first, and became ruler.

7 And David dwelt in the stronghold; on account of this he called it City of David.

8 And he built the city round about; and he fought and took the city.

9 And David went on, going and becoming great, and the Lord Almighty was with him.

10 And these are the rulers of the mighty men who were with David, those strengthening with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king according to the word of the Lord over Israel.

11 And this is the number of David’s mighty men: Jesebaal son of Achamani, first of the thirty; he drew his sword once against three hundred wounded men at one time. —

12 And after him, Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite; he was among the three mighty men.

13 He was with David at Phasodomin, and the foreigners gathered there for war, and a portion of the field was full of barley, and the people fled from before the foreigners;

14 and he stood in the midst of the portion and saved it, and struck the foreigners, and the Lord worked a great salvation. —

15 And three of the thirty rulers went down to the rock, to David, to the cave of Odollam, and the camp of the foreigners had encamped in the valley of the giants.

16 And David was then in the stronghold, and the troop of the foreigners was then in Bethlehem.

17 And David desired and said, “Who will give me water from the well of Bethlehem, the one at the gate?”

18 And the three broke through the camp of the foreigners and drew water from the well in Bethlehem, the one at the gate, and took it and came to David; and David was unwilling to drink it, and poured it out as a libation to the Lord.

19 And he said, “May God be propitious to me to do this thing! Shall I drink the blood of these men with their lives? For with their lives they brought it.” And he was unwilling to drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

20 And Abessa, brother of Joab, he was ruler of the three; he drew his sword against three hundred wounded men at one time, and he was renowned among the three,

21 more glorious than the two among the three, and he was their ruler, but he did not come as far as the three. —

22 And Banaias son of Jodae, son of a mighty man, his works were many above Kabasael; he struck the two Ariel of Moab; and this same one went down and struck the lion in the pit on a day of snow.

23 And this same one struck the Egyptian man, a visible man of five cubits, and in the Egyptian’s hand was a spear like a weaver’s shuttle; and Banaias went down against him with a rod, and took the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear.

24 These things Banaias son of Jodae did, and he had a name among the three mighty men.

25 He was more glorious than the thirty, but he did not come to the three; and David appointed him over his clan.

26 And mighty men of the armies: Asael brother of Joab, Eleanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,

27 Sammoth the Adi, Chelles the Pheloni,

28 Horai son of Ekke the Thekoi, Abiezer the Anathothi,

29 Sobochai the Asothi, Eli the Ahoi,

30 Moorai the Netophathi, Cholod son of Nooza the Netophathi,

31 Aithi son of Ribai from the hill of Benjamin, Banaias the Pharathoni,

32 Uri from Nachaligaas, Abiel the Garabeththi,

33 Azmoth the Beermi, Eliaba the Salaboni,

34 Bennaias, Hosom the Gennouni, Jonathan son of Sola the Arari,

35 Achim son of Sachar the Arari, Elphal son of Ur,

36 Opher the Mochorathi, Achia the Pheloni,

37 Esrai the Charmali, Naarai son of Azobai,

38 Joel brother of Nathan, Mebaar son of Agari,

39 Selec the Ammonite, Nachor the Berthi, bearer of the gear of Joab son of Sarouia,

40 Ira the Jetheri, Gareb the Jetheri,

41 Urias the Chettite, Zabet son of Achlia,

42 Adina son of Saiza the Reubenite, a ruler, and thirty were with him,

43 Anan son of Moacha and Josaphat the Baithani,

44 Ozia the Astarothi, Samma and Jehiel sons of Chothan the Arari,

45 Jediael son of Samri and Joazae his brother the Ieasi,

46 Eliel the Mii and Jaribi and Josia his son, Elnaam and Jethma the Moabite,

47 Aliel and Obed and Jesiel the Misabia.

Chapter 12

1 And these are those who came to David at Sikelag, while he was still being kept away from before Saul son of Kis; and these were among the mighty men helping in the war,

2 with bow to the right and to the left, and slingers with stones and bows. From the brothers of Saul, from Benjamin:

3 the ruler Achiezer, and Joas son of Asma the Gebothite, and Joel and Jophalelet sons of Asmoth, and Berchia and Jeuel the Anathothi,

4 and Samaia the Gabaonite, mighty among the thirty and over the thirty,

5 Jeremias and Jeziel and Joanan and Jozabad the Gadarathi,

6 Eliazai and Jarimuth and Baalia and Samaria and Saphatia the Charaiphi,

7 Elcana and Jesouni and Ozriel and Joazar and Jesboam the Corites,

8 and Elia and Zabada, sons of Iraam, sons of Gedor. —

9 And from Gad they separated themselves to David from the wilderness, mighty men of strength, men of battle array, carrying shields and spears; their faces were like the face of a lion, and they were swift as gazelles upon the mountains for speed.

10 Azer the ruler, Abdia the second, Eliab the third,

11 Masemannai the fourth, Jeremias the fifth,

12 Eththi the sixth, Eliab the seventh,

13 Joanan the eighth, Eleazar the ninth,

14 Jeremias the tenth, Machabannai the eleventh.

15 These, from the sons of Gad, were commanders of the army, one for a hundred, small, and great for thousands.

16 These crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they drove out all the inhabitants of the valleys from east to west. —

17 And from the sons of Benjamin and Judah they came to David’s aid.

18 And David went out to meet them and said to them, “If you have come to me in peace, may my heart be with you; but if to hand me over to my enemies, when there is no truth in my hand, may the God of our fathers see and reprove.”

19 And a spirit clothed Amasai, ruler of the thirty, and he said, “Go, and your people, David son of Jesse. Peace, peace to you, and peace to your helpers, because your God has helped you.” And David received them and appointed them leaders of the armies. —

20 And from Manasseh some joined David when the foreigners came against Saul for war; but he did not help them, because the rulers of the foreigners took counsel, saying, “At the heads of those men he will return to his lord Saul.”

21 When he went to Sikelag, from Manasseh there joined him Edna and Jozabad and Jodiel and Michael and Josabeth and Elimuth and Selathi; they were commanders of thousands belonging to Manasseh.

22 And they fought together with David against Geddur, because they were all mighty in strength, and were leaders in the army in power.

23 For day by day they came to David for a great force, like a force of God.

24 And these are the names of the commanders of the army, those who came to David at Hebron to turn the kingdom of Saul over to him according to the word of the Lord.

25 Sons of Judah, bearers of shields and bearers of spears, six thousand eight hundred mighty men of battle array.

26 From the sons of Simeon, mighty in strength for battle array, seven thousand one hundred.

27 From the sons of Levi, four thousand six hundred;

28 and Joadae, the leader belonging to Aaron, and with him three thousand seven hundred;

29 and Zadok, a young man mighty in strength, and from his father’s house twenty-two rulers.

30 And from the sons of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, three thousand; and most of them still kept watch over the house of Saul.

31 And from the sons of Ephraim, twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty in strength, men renowned according to their fathers’ houses.

32 And from half the tribe of Manasseh, eighteen thousand, who were named by name to make David king.

33 And from the sons of Issachar, knowing understanding for the times, knowing what Israel should do for their leaders: two hundred, and all their brothers with them.

34 And from Zebulun, going out in battle array with every weapon of war, fifty thousand, to help David without turning aside.

35 And from Naphtali, one thousand rulers, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shields and spears.

36 And from the Danites, arrayed for war, twenty-eight thousand eight hundred.

37 And from Asher, going out to help in war, forty thousand.

38 And from beyond the Jordan, from Reuben and Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh, with every weapon of war, one hundred twenty thousand.

39 All these were men of war, arranging themselves for battle with a peaceful soul; and they came to Hebron to make David king over all Israel; and the rest of Israel were of one soul to make David king.

40 And they were there three days, eating and drinking, because their brothers had prepared for them.

41 And those neighboring them, as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought to them on camels and donkeys and mules and calves foods, flour, cakes, raisins, wine and oil, calves and sheep in abundance, because there was joy in Israel.

Chapter 13

1 And David consulted with the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, with every leader,

2 and David said to the whole assembly of Israel, “If it is good to you, and if it is prospered by the Lord our God, let us send to our brothers who remain in all the land of Israel, and with them the priests, the Levites, in the cities of their possession, and they shall be gathered to us;

3 and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for they did not seek it from the days of Saul.”

4 And the whole assembly said to do so, because the word was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 And David assembled all Israel from the borders of Egypt and as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from the city of Jarim.

6 And David brought it up, and all Israel went up to the city of David, which was of Judah, to bring up from there the ark of the Lord God, who sits upon the cherubim, upon which his name was called.

7 And they placed the ark of God upon a new cart from the house of Aminadab, and Oza and his brothers drove the cart.

8 And David and all Israel were playing before God with all their might, and with singers and with lyres and with nablas, with tambourines and with cymbals and with trumpets.

9 And they came as far as the threshing floor, and Oza stretched out his hand to hold the ark, because the calf had turned it aside.

10 And the Lord became angry with anger against Oza and struck him there, because he stretched out his hand upon the ark, and he died there before God.

11 And David was disheartened because the Lord made a breach against Oza, and he called that place Breach of Oza to this day.

12 And David feared God on that day, saying, “How shall I bring the ark of God to myself?”

13 And David did not return the ark to himself, to the city of David, and he turned it aside to the house of Abeddara the Geththite.

14 And the ark of God dwelt in the house of Abeddara three months, and God blessed Abeddaram and all his things.

Chapter 14

1 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar timbers, and builders of walls, and workers of wood, to build him a house.

2 And David knew that the Lord had prepared him over Israel, because his kingdom was exalted to a height for the sake of his people Israel.

3 And David took still more wives in Jerusalem, and still more sons and daughters were born to David.

4 And these are the names of those born to him, who were in Jerusalem: Sammaa, Isobaam, Nathan, Solomon,

5 and Ibaar and Elisae and Eliphalet,

6 and Nage and Naphag and Janouou,

7 and Elisamae and Balegdae and Eliphalet.

8 And foreigners heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, and all the foreigners went up to seek David. And David heard and went out to meet them.

9 And foreigners came and gathered in the valley of the giants.

10 And David inquired through God, saying, “Shall I go up against the foreigners, and will you give them into my hands?” And the Lord said to him, “Go up, and I will give them into your hands.”

11 And he went up to Baalpharasin, and David struck them there; and David said, “God broke through my enemies by my hand like a breaking through of water.” For this reason he called the name of that place Breach of Pharasin.

12 And they left their gods there, and David said, “Burn them with fire.” —

13 And foreigners added still more, and gathered again in the valley of the giants.

14 And David inquired again in God, and God said to him, “You shall not go after them; turn away from them, and stand by them near the pear trees.

15 And it shall be, when you hear the sound of the shaking of the tops of the pear trees, then you shall go out to the battle, because God has gone out before you to strike the camp of the foreigners.”

16 And he did as God commanded him, and struck the camp of the foreigners from Gabaon as far as Gazara.

17 And David’s name came to be in all the land, and the Lord gave his fear upon all the nations.

Chapter 15

1 And he made houses for himself in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God and made a tent for it.

2 Then David said, “It is not for anyone to carry the ark of God except the Levites, because the Lord chose them to carry the ark of the Lord and to minister to him forever.”

3 And David assembled all Israel to Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the Lord to the place which he had prepared for it.

4 And David gathered the sons of Aaron and the Levites.

5 From the sons of Caath: Uriel the ruler and his brothers, one hundred twenty.

6 From the sons of Merari: Asaia the ruler and his brothers, two hundred fifty.

7 From the sons of Gersam: Joel the ruler and his brothers, one hundred fifty.

8 From the sons of Elisaphan: Samaia the ruler and his brothers, two hundred.

9 From the sons of Chebron: Eliel the ruler and his brothers, eighty.

10 From the sons of Oziel: Aminadab the ruler and his brothers, one hundred twelve. —

11 And David called Sadoc and Abiathar the priests, and the Levites Uriel, Asaia, Joel, Samaia, Eliel, Aminadab,

12 and said to them, “You are the rulers of the fathers’ houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brothers, and bring up the ark of the God of Israel to the place which I prepared for it;

13 because, in the former time, when you were not [there], our God broke through among us, because we did not seek him according to judgment.”

14 And the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the God of Israel.

15 And the sons of the Levites took the ark of God as Moses commanded, by the word of God, according to the writing, on carrying poles upon them. —

16 And David said to the rulers of the Levites, “Set their brothers, the singers, with instruments of songs, nablas and citharas and cymbals, to make a loud sound on high with a voice of gladness.”

17 And the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his brothers, Asaph son of Barachia; and from the sons of Merari, his brothers, Ethan son of Kisaios.

18 And with them were their second brothers: Zacharias and Oziel and Semiramoth and Iiel and Oni and Eliab and Banaia and Maasia and Mattathia and Eliphalia and Makenia and Abeddom and Iiel and Ozias, the gatekeepers.

19 And the singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were with bronze cymbals, to make them be heard.

20 Zacharias and Oziel, Semiramoth, Iiel, Oni, Eliab, Masaias, Banaia, with nablas upon alamoth;

21 and Mattathias and Eliphalias and Makenias and Abeddom and Iiel and Ozias, with citharas of amasenith, to strengthen.

22 And Chonenia, ruler of the Levites, was ruler of the songs, because he was understanding.

23 And Barachia and Elcana were gatekeepers of the ark.

24 And Sobnia and Josaphat and Nathanael and Amasai and Zacharia and Banai and Eliezer the priests were sounding the trumpets before the ark of God. And Abeddom and Iia were gatekeepers of the ark of God.

25 And David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of thousands were going to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the house of Abeddom with gladness.

26 And it came to pass, when God strengthened the Levites carrying the ark of the covenant of the Lord, that they sacrificed seven calves and seven rams.

27 And David was girded with a linen garment, and all the Levites carrying the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the singers, and Chonenias the ruler of the songs of the singers; and upon David was a linen garment.

28 And all Israel were bringing up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with signals and with the voice of a shofar and with trumpets and with cymbals, sounding aloud with nablas and with citharas.

29 And the ark of the covenant of the Lord came as far as the city of David, and Melchol daughter of Saul peered through the window and saw King David dancing and playing, and she despised him in her soul.

Chapter 16

1 And they brought in the ark of God and set it in the midst of the tent which David had pitched for it, and they brought whole burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

2 And David finished offering whole burnt offerings and peace offerings, and blessed the people in the name of the Lord.

3 And he distributed to every man of Israel, from man to woman, to each one a bread-loaf and a portion.

4 And he appointed before the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the Levites those ministering, raising their voices, giving thanks, and praising the Lord God of Israel:

5 Asaph the leader, and second to him Zacharia, Iiel, Semiramoth, Iiel, Mattathias, Eliab, Banaia, Abeddom, and Iiel, with instruments, nablas and citharas; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud;

6 and Banaia and Oziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 On that day then David appointed at the beginning of praising the Lord by the hand of Asaph and his brothers:

8 Give thanks to the Lord, call upon him in his name, make known among the peoples his deeds;

9 sing to him and hymn to him; recount to all his wonders which the Lord did.

10 Praise in his holy name; the heart seeking his good pleasure shall rejoice.

11 Seek the Lord and be strong; seek his face continually.

12 Remember his wonders which he did, his portents and the judgments of his mouth,

13 o seed of Israel, his servants, sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14 He himself is the Lord our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

15 Remembering forever his covenant, his word which he commanded for a thousand generations,

16 which he made with Abraham, and his oath with Isaac;

17 he established it for Jacob as an ordinance, for Israel as an eternal covenant,

18 saying, “To you I will give the land of Chanaan, a measured portion of your inheritance.”

19 When they were very few in number, when they were diminished, and sojourned in it,

20 and they went from nation to nation and from kingdom to another people,

21 he did not allow any man to exercise power over them, and he reproved kings on their account:

22 “Do not touch my anointed ones, and do not act wickedly among my prophets.”

23 Sing to the Lord, all the earth; announce his salvation from day to day.

25 For great is the Lord and exceedingly praiseworthy; he is fearful above all the gods.

26 For all the gods of the nations are idols, and our God made heaven.

27 Glory and praise are before him; strength and boasting are in his place.

28 Give to the Lord, families of the nations; give to the Lord glory and strength.

29 Give to the Lord the glory of his name; take gifts and bring them before him, and worship the Lord in his holy courts.

30 Let all the earth fear before him; let the earth be set right and not be shaken.

31 Let heaven rejoice, and let the earth exult, and let them say among the nations, “The Lord is reigning.”

32 The sea shall roar with its fullness, and the tree of the field and all that is in it;

33 then the trees of the forest shall rejoice before the Lord, because he came to judge the earth.

34 Give thanks to the Lord, because he is good, because his mercy is forever.

35 And say, “Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us from among the nations, to praise your holy name and to boast in your praises.”

36 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting and unto everlasting; and all the people shall say, “Amen.” And they praised the Lord.

37 And they left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to minister before the ark continually, from day to day;

38 and Abeddom and his brothers, sixty-eight, and Abeddom son of Idithon and Ossa, as gatekeepers.

39 And Sadoc the priest and his brother priests before the tent of the Lord in Bama, which is in Gabaon,

40 to offer whole burnt offerings to the Lord upon the altar of whole burnt offerings continually, morning and evening, and according to all that is written in the law of the Lord, as much as he commanded concerning the sons of Israel by the hand of Moses, the servant of God;

41 and with him Heman and Idithon and the rest chosen by name to praise the Lord, because his mercy is forever,

42 and with them trumpets and cymbals to sound aloud, and instruments of the songs of God; the sons of Idithon were at the gate.

43 And all the people went, each to his own house, and David turned back to bless his house.

Chapter 17

1 And it came to pass, when David dwelt in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, “Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, and the ark of the covenant of the Lord is under hides.”

2 And Nathan said to David, “Do all that is in your soul, because God is with you.” —

3 And it came to pass in that night, and the word of the Lord came to Nathan, saying,

4 “Go and say to David my servant, ‘Thus says the Lord: You shall not build a house for me to dwell in it;

5 for I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought Israel up until this day, but I was in a tent and in a dwelling.

6 In all the places through which I passed, throughout all Israel, did I ever speak to one tribe of Israel, whom I appointed to shepherd my people, saying, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?”’

7 And now thus you shall say to my servant David: ‘Thus says the Lord Almighty: I took you from the sheepfold, from behind the flocks, to be a leader over my people Israel;

8 and I was with you in all the places where you went, and I destroyed all your enemies from before you, and I made a name for you like the name of the great ones who are upon the earth.

9 And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant him, and he shall dwell by himself and shall worry no more; and injustice shall no longer continue to humble him as from the beginning,

10 and from the days when I appointed judges over my people Israel, I humbled all your enemies; and I will increase you, and the Lord will build a house for you.

11 And it shall be, when your days are fulfilled and you sleep with your fathers, that I will raise up your seed after you, who shall be from your belly, and I will prepare his kingdom.

12 He himself shall build a house for me, and I will make his throne stand upright forever.

13 I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me; and I will not remove my mercy from him, as I removed it from those who were before you.

14 And I will make him firm in my house and in his kingdom forever, and his throne shall be established upright forever.’”

15 According to all these words and according to all this vision, thus Nathan spoke to David. —

16 And King David came and sat before the Lord, and said, “Who am I, Lord God, and who is my house, that you have loved me forever?

17 And these things were small in your sight, O God, and you spoke concerning the house of your servant from afar, and looked upon me as a vision of a man, and exalted me, Lord God.

18 What further will David add to you, to glorify [you]? And you know your servant.

19 And according to your heart you did all this greatness.

20 Lord, there is none like you, and there is none besides you in all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And there is no nation still upon the earth like your people Israel, whom God guided to redeem for himself as a people, to make for himself a great and conspicuous name, to cast out from before your people the nations whom you redeemed from Egypt.

22 And you gave your people Israel to yourself as a people forever, and you, Lord, became their God.

23 And now, Lord, let your word which you spoke to your servant and concerning his house be made firm forever,

24 saying, ‘Lord, Lord Almighty, God of Israel, and the house of David your servant is established before you.’

25 For you, Lord, opened the ear of your servant to build a house for him; for this reason your servant found [occasion] to pray before you.

26 And now, Lord, you are yourself God, and you spoke these good things concerning your servant.

27 And now you began to bless the house of your servant, that it may be forever before you; for you, Lord, blessed it, and bless it forever.

Chapter 18

1 And it came to pass after these things that David struck the foreigners and routed them, and took Geth and its villages from the hand of the foreigners.

2 And he struck Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David, bringing gifts.

3 And David struck Adraazar king of Souba, Hamath, as he went to establish his hand upon the river Euphrates.

4 And David captured from them one thousand chariots and seven thousand horses and twenty thousand foot soldiers; and David dismantled all the chariots, and left one hundred chariots from them.

5 And a Syrian came from Damascus to help Adraazar king of Souba, and David struck among the Syrians twenty-two thousand men.

6 And David placed a garrison in Syria toward Damascus, and the Syrians became servants to David, bringing gifts. And the Lord saved David in all the places where he went.

7 And David took the golden collars which were upon the servants of Adraazar, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from Metabechas and from the chosen cities of Adraazar David took very much bronze; from it Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the bronze vessels.

9 And Thoa king of Hamath heard that David had struck the whole force of Adraazar king of Souba,

10 and he sent Idouram his son to King David to inquire of him about peace and to bless him concerning that which he had fought against Adraazar and struck him, because Thoa was a man at war with Adraazar, and all the vessels of silver and gold.

11 And these David sanctified to the Lord together with the silver and the gold which he took from all the nations, from Idumea and Moab and from the sons of Ammon and from the foreigners and from Amalek.

12 And Abessa son of Sarouia struck Idumea in the valley of salt, eighteen thousand,

13 and he placed garrisons in the valley; and all the Idumeans became servants of David. And the Lord saved David in all the places where he went.

14 And David reigned over all Israel, and he was doing judgment and righteousness for all his people.

15 And Joab son of Sarouia was over the army, and Josaphat son of Achiloud was the record-writer,

16 and Sadoc son of Achitob and Achimelech son of Abiathar were priests, and Sousas was the scribe,

17 and Banaias son of Jodae was over the Chereththi and the Phelethi, and the sons of David were the first successors of the king.

Chapter 19

1 And it came to pass after these things that Naas king of the sons of Ammon died, and Anan his son reigned in his place.

2 And David said, “I will do mercy with Anan son of Naas, as his father did mercy with me.” And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David’s servants came to the land of the sons of Ammon to comfort him.

3 And the rulers of Ammon said to Anan, “Is David not honoring your father before you, because he sent comforters to you? Have his servants not come to you in order to search out and spy out the land?”

4 And Anan took David’s servants and shaved them, and cut away half of their garments up to the upper edge, and sent them away.

5 And they came to report to David about the men, and he sent to meet them, because they were greatly dishonored. And the king said, “Stay in Jericho until your beards grow, and then return.” —

6 And the sons of Ammon saw that the people of David had been shamed; and Anan and the sons of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves from Syria of Mesopotamia, and from Syria of Mocha, and from Soba, chariots and horsemen.

7 And they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Mocha and his people; and they came and encamped opposite Maidaba. And the sons of Ammon gathered from their cities and came to wage war.

8 And David heard, and sent Joab and the whole army of the mighty men.

9 And the sons of Ammon went out and arrayed themselves for war by the gate of the city, and the kings who had come encamped by themselves in the plain.

10 And Joab saw that the opposing forces had come to fight against him in front and behind, and he selected from every young man of Israel, and they arrayed themselves opposite the Syrian;

11 and he put the rest of the people in the hand of Abessa his brother, and they arrayed themselves opposite the sons of Ammon.

12 And he said, “If the Syrian prevails over me, you shall be a salvation for me; and if the sons of Ammon prevail over you, I will save you.

13 Be manly, and let us grow strong for our people and for the cities of our God; and the Lord will do what is good in his eyes.”

14 And Joab and the people with him arrayed themselves for war opposite the Syrians, and they fled from him.

15 And the sons of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, and they too fled from before Joab and from before Abessa his brother, and came into the city. And Joab came to Jerusalem. —

16 And the Syrian saw that Israel had routed him, and he sent messengers, and they brought the Syrian out from beyond the river; and Sophach, chief general of the force of Adraazar, was before them.

17 And it was reported to David, and he gathered all Israel, and crossed the Jordan, and came upon them and arrayed himself against them; and the Syrian arrayed himself opposite David, and they fought against him.

18 And the Syrian fled from before David, and David killed from among the Syrians seven thousand chariots and forty thousand foot soldiers; and he killed Sophach, chief general of the force.

19 And the servants of Adraazar saw that they had stumbled before Israel, and they made an arrangement with David and served him; and the Syrian was no longer willing to help the sons of Ammon.

Chapter 20

1 And it came to pass in the coming year, at the going out of the kings, that Joab led out the whole force of the army, and they ravaged the land of the sons of Ammon; and he came and encircled Rabbah. And David was sitting in Jerusalem; and Joab struck Rabbah and demolished it.

2 And David took the crown of Molchol their king from his head, and its weight was found to be a talent of gold, and there was a precious stone in it, and it was upon David’s head; and he brought out very many spoils of the city.

3 And he led out the people who were in it, and sawed them with saws and with iron axes; and thus David did to all the sons of Ammon. And David and all his people returned to Jerusalem.

4 And it came to pass after these things that there was still war in Gezer with the foreigners. Then Sobochai the Ousathi struck Saphu from among the sons of the giants and humbled him. —

5 And there was still war with the foreigners. And Ellanan son of Iair struck Leemi, brother of Goliath the Geththite, and the wood of his spear was like a weaver’s shuttle. —

6 And there was still war in Geth, and there was a man exceedingly great, and his fingers were six and six, twenty-four; and this man was a descendant of the giants.

7 And he reproached Israel, and Jonathan son of Samma, brother of David, struck him. —

8 These were born of Rapha in Geth; all were four giants, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

Chapter 21

1 And an adversary stood in Israel and stirred David up to count Israel.

2 And King David said to Joab and to the rulers of the force, “Go, count Israel from Bersabee and as far as Dan, and bring [the count] to me, and I shall know their number.”

3 And Joab said, “May the Lord add to his people a hundredfold as many as they are, and may the eyes of my lord the king see them. All are servants to my lord. Why does my lord seek this? So that it may not become sin for Israel.”

4 But the word of the king prevailed over Joab. And Joab went out and passed through every border of Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave David the number of the mustered people; and all Israel was one million one hundred thousand men drawing the sword, and Judah was four hundred eighty thousand men drawing the sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin he did not number among them, because the word of the king had prevailed over Joab.

7 And this matter appeared evil before God, and he struck Israel.

8 And David said to God, “I have sinned exceedingly, because I did this thing; and now, please remove the evil of your servant, because I have acted foolishly exceedingly.”

9 And the Lord spoke to Gad, the seer of David, saying,

10 “Go and speak to David, saying, ‘Thus says the Lord: I am raising up three things against you; choose for yourself one of them, and I will do it to you.’”

11 And Gad came to David and said to him, “Thus says the Lord: Choose for yourself

12 either three years of famine, or three months for you to flee from before your enemies, with the sword of your enemies to destroy, or three days of the sword of the Lord and death in the land, with the angel of the Lord destroying in all the inheritance of Israel. And now see what I shall answer the one who sent me with a word.”

13 And David said to Gad, “All three are distressing for me exceedingly. Let me fall, then, into the hands of the Lord, because his compassions are exceedingly many; and into the hands of men I shall certainly not fall.”

14 And the Lord gave death in Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.

15 And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. And as he was destroying, the Lord saw and repented concerning the evil, and said to the destroying angel, “Let it be enough for you; release your hand.” And the angel of the Lord was standing at the threshing floor of Orna the Jebusite.

16 And David lifted his eyes and saw the angel of the Lord standing between earth and heaven, and his sword drawn in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem; and David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said to God, “Was it not I who said to count the people? And I am the one who sinned; doing evil, I did evil. And these sheep, what did they do? Lord God, let your hand be upon me and upon the house of my father, and not upon your people for destruction, O Lord.”

18 And an angel of the Lord said to Gad to say to David that he should go up to set an altar to the Lord at the threshing floor of Orna the Jebusite.

19 And David went up according to the word of Gad, which he spoke in the name of the Lord.

20 And Orna turned and saw the king, and four of his sons with him, methachabin; and Orna was threshing wheat.

21 And David came to Orna, and Orna went out from the threshing floor and bowed to David, with his face upon the earth.

22 And David said to Orna, “Give me the place of your threshing floor, and I will build upon it an altar to the Lord. Give it to me for its worthy silver, and the plague shall cease from the people.”

23 And Orna said to David, “Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good before him. See, I have given the calves for a burnt offering, and the plow and the wagons for wood, and the grain for an offering; I have given everything.”

24 And King David said to Orna, “No, for buying I shall buy it for worthy silver, because I shall certainly not take what is yours for the Lord, to offer a burnt offering to the Lord as a gift.”

25 And David gave to Orna, in his place, six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built an altar to the Lord there and brought up whole burnt offerings and peace offerings; and he cried out to the Lord, and he heard him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering, and consumed the whole burnt offering.

27 And the Lord spoke to the angel, and he put the sword into its sheath. —

28 At that time, when David saw that the Lord had heard him at the threshing floor of Orna the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

29 And the tent of the Lord which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of whole burnt offerings, were at that time in Bama, in Gabaon;

30 and David was not able to go before it to seek God, because he hurried away from before the sword of the angel of the Lord.

Chapter 22

1 And David said, “This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar for whole burnt offerings for Israel.”

2 And David said to gather all the proselytes in the land of Israel, and he appointed stonecutters to cut dressed stones for building a house for God.

3 And David prepared much iron for the nails of the doors and of the gates and for the pivots, and bronze in abundance, without weight;

4 and cedar timbers without number, because the Sidonians and the Tyrians brought many cedar timbers to David.

5 And David said, “Solomon my son is a tender boy, and the house to be built for the Lord is for greatness on high, for a name and for glory in all the earth; I shall prepare it for him.” And David prepared abundantly before his death. —

6 And he called Solomon his son and commanded him to build the house for the Lord God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, “Child, it came upon my soul to build a house for the name of the Lord God.

8 And the word of the Lord came upon me, saying, ‘You poured out blood in abundance and made great wars; you shall not build a house for my name, because you poured out much blood upon the earth before me.

9 Behold, a son is born to you; he shall be a man of rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about, because Solomon is his name, and I will give peace and quiet upon Israel in his days.

10 He shall build a house for my name, and he shall be a son to me, and I shall be a father to him; and I will make upright the throne of his kingdom in Israel forever.’

11 And now, my son, the Lord shall be with you, and he shall prosper, and you shall build a house for the Lord your God, as he spoke concerning you.

12 But may the Lord give you wisdom and understanding, and strengthen you over Israel, to keep and to do the law of the Lord your God.

13 Then you will prosper, if you keep to do the ordinances and the judgments which the Lord commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be manly and be strong; do not fear or be dismayed.

14 And behold, in my poverty I prepared for the house of the Lord one hundred thousand talents of gold and one thousand thousand talents of silver, and bronze and iron without weight, because it is in abundance; and I prepared wood and stones, and add to these.

15 And with you are many workers: craftsmen and builders of stones, and workers of wood, and everyone skilled in every work.

16 In gold, in silver, in bronze, and in iron there is no number. Rise and do, and may the Lord be with you. —

17 And David commanded all the rulers of Israel to assist Solomon his son,

18 saying, “Is not the Lord with you? And he gave you rest round about, because he gave the inhabitants of the land into your hands, and the land was subdued before the Lord and before his people.

19 Now give your hearts and your souls to seek the Lord your God, and rise and build a sanctuary for the Lord your God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord and the holy vessels of God into the house being built for the name of the Lord.”

Chapter 23

1 And David was old and full of days, and he made Solomon his son king in his place over Israel.

2 And he gathered all the rulers of Israel and the priests and the Levites.

3 And the Levites were counted from thirty years old and above, and their number, by headcount, was thirty-eight thousand men.

4 From these, overseers over the works of the house of the Lord were twenty-four thousand, and scribes and judges were six thousand,

5 and gatekeepers were four thousand, and those praising the Lord with the instruments which he had made to praise the Lord were four thousand. —

6 And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi: Gedsōn, Caath, and Merari;

7 and Parosom, Edan, and Semee.

8 Sons of Edan: the ruler Iiel, and Zethom, and Joel, three.

9 Sons of Semee: Salomith and Iiel and Aidan, three. These were the rulers of the fathers’ houses belonging to Edan.

10 And the sons of Semee: Ieth and Ziza and Joas and Beria; these were the sons of Semee, four.

11 And Ieth was the ruler, and Ziza the second; and Joas and Beria did not multiply sons, and they became one fathers’ house for one enrollment. —

12 Sons of Caath: Ambram, Issaar, Chebron, Oziel, four.

13 Sons of Ambram: Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was set apart to sanctify the holy of holies, he and his sons forever, to burn incense before the Lord, to minister, and to pray by his name forever.

14 And Moses, the man of God, his sons were called into the tribe of Levi.

15 Sons of Moses: Gersam and Eliezer.

16 Sons of Gersam: Shubael the ruler.

17 And Eliezer had sons: Raabia the ruler; and Eliezer had no other sons. And the sons of Raabia increased greatly.

18 Sons of Issaar: Salomoth the ruler.

19 Sons of Chebron: Idud the ruler, Amadia the second, Oziel the third, Ikemias the fourth.

20 Sons of Oziel: Michas the ruler and Isia the second. —

21 Sons of Merari: Mooli and Mousi. Sons of Mooli: Eleazar and Kis.

22 And Eleazar died, and he had no sons, but only daughters; and the sons of Kis, their brothers, took them.

23 Sons of Mousi: Mooli and Eder and Iarimoth, three. —

24 These are the sons of Levi according to their fathers' houses, the rulers of their fathers' houses according to their enrollment, according to the number of their names, by headcount, doing the works of the service of the house of the Lord from twenty years old and above.

25 For David said, "The Lord God of Israel has given rest to his people, and he has dwelt in Jerusalem forever.

26 And the Levites were not carrying the tent and all its vessels for its service,

27 because in the last words of David the number of the sons of Levi is from twenty years old and above,

28 because he set them under the hand of Aaron to minister in the house of the Lord, over the courts and over the chambers, and over the cleansing of all the holy things, and over the works of the service of the house of God,

29 for the showbread, for the fine flour of the offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for the frying pan, and for the mixed dough, and for every measure,

30 and to stand in the morning to praise and give thanks to the Lord, and likewise in the evening,

31 and over all the whole burnt offerings brought to the Lord on the Sabbaths and at the new moons and at the feasts, by number, according to the judgment concerning them, continually to the Lord.

32 And they shall keep the watches of the tent of the testimony and the watches of their brothers, the sons of Aaron, to minister in the house of the Lord."

Chapter 24

1 And for the sons of Aaron were divisions: sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abiud, Eleazar and Ithamar.

2 And Nadab and Abiud died before their father, and they had no sons; and Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

3 And David divided them, and Sadoc from the sons of Eleazar, and Achimelech from the sons of Ithamar, according to their enrollment, according to their service, according to their fathers’ houses.

4 And sons of Eleazar were found more numerous as rulers of the mighty than sons of Ithamar, and he divided them: for the sons of Eleazar, sixteen rulers of fathers’ houses, and for the sons of Ithamar, eight according to fathers’ houses.

5 And he divided them by lots, these with those, because they were rulers of the holy things and rulers of the Lord among the sons of Eleazar and among the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Samaia son of Nathanael, the scribe from Levi, wrote them before the king and the rulers, and Sadoc the priest and Achimelech son of Abiathar, and the rulers of the fathers’ houses of the priests and of the Levites: one fathers’ house each for Eleazar, and one each for Ithamar. —

7 And the first lot came out for Iarib, for Ideia the second,

8 for Charem the third, for Seorim the fourth,

9 for Melchia the fifth, for Miamin the sixth,

10 for Cos the seventh, for Abia the eighth,

11 for Jesus the ninth, for Sechenia the tenth,

12 for Eliasib the eleventh, for Iakim the twelfth,

13 for Ochophpha the thirteenth, for Isbaal the fourteenth,

14 for Belga the fifteenth, for Emmer the sixteenth,

15 for Chezir the seventeenth, for Aphesse the eighteenth,

16 for Phetaia the nineteenth, for Ezekiel the twentieth,

17 for Jachin the twenty-first, for Gamoul the twenty-second,

18 for Dalaia the twenty-third, for Maasai the twenty-fourth.

19 This was their enrollment according to their service, to enter the house of the Lord according to their judgment, through the hand of Aaron their father, as the Lord God of Israel commanded.

20 And for the remaining sons of Levi: for the sons of Ambram, Shubael; for the sons of Shubael, Iadia.

21 For Raabia, Iesias the ruler.

22 And for Issari, Salomoth; for the sons of Salomoth, Iath.

23 Sons of Iediou: Amadia the second, Iaziel the third, Iocom the fourth.

24 Sons of Oziel: Micha; sons of Micha: Samir.

25 Brother of Micha: Isia; sons of Isia: Zacharia.

26 Sons of Merari: Mooli and Mousi; sons of Ozia, sons of Bonni.

27 Sons of Merari belonging to Ozia: his sons Isoam and Zachour and Abdi.

28 For Mooli, Eleazar and Ithamar; and Eleazar died, and he had no sons.

29 For Kis: sons of Kis, Iramel.

30 And sons of Mousi: Mooli and Eder and Iarimoth. These are the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

31 And they also took lots, like their brothers the sons of Aaron, before the king and Sadoc and Achimelech and the rulers of the fathers' houses of the priests and the Levites, the patriarchs araab, like his younger brothers.

Chapter 25

1 And David the king and the commanders of the force appointed for the works the sons of Asaph and Heman and Idithon, those speaking forth with citharas and nablas and cymbals. And their number came to be by headcount, as they were working in their works:

2 sons of Asaph: Zachour and Joseph and Nethanias and Erael, sons of Asaph following Asaph the prophet, following the king.

3 For Idithon, sons of Idithon: Godolia and Souri and Isaias and Semei and Asabia and Mattathias, six, with their father Idithon, playing on the cithara, thanksgiving and praise to the Lord.

4 For Heman, sons of Heman: Boukias and Manthanias and Azarael and Shubael and Ierimoth and Ananias and Anani and Eliatha and Godollathi and Romemthi — ōd and Jesbacasa and Mallithi and Othēri and Meazoth;

5 all these were sons of Heman, the one playing for the king in the words of God, to raise up a horn; and God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were with their father, hymn-singing in the house of the Lord with cymbals and nablas and citharas, following the king and Asaph and Idithon and Heman.

7 And their number, with their brothers, those taught to sing to the Lord, everyone understanding, came to two hundred eighty-eight. —

8 And they too cast lots for the courses, for the small and the great, for the skilled and those learning.

9 And the first lot came out for his sons and brothers, for Asaph, for Joseph, Godolia; the second, Henaia, his brothers and sons, twelve;

10 the third, Zachour, his sons and brothers, twelve;

11 the fourth, Jesdri, his sons and brothers, twelve;

12 the fifth, Nethanias, his sons and brothers, twelve;

13 the sixth, Boukias, his sons and brothers, twelve;

14 the seventh, Iseriel, his sons and brothers, twelve;

15 the eighth, Josia, his sons and brothers, twelve;

16 the ninth, Manthanias, his sons and brothers, twelve;

17 the tenth, Semei, his sons and brothers, twelve;

18 the eleventh, Azaria, his sons and brothers, twelve;

19 the twelfth, Asabia, his sons and brothers, twelve;

20 the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and brothers, twelve;

21 the fourteenth, Mattathias, his sons and brothers, twelve;

22 the fifteenth, Ierimoth, his sons and brothers, twelve;

23 the sixteenth, Ananias, his sons and brothers, twelve;

24 the seventeenth, Jesbacasa, his sons and brothers, twelve;

25 the eighteenth, Anani, his sons and brothers, twelve;

26 the nineteenth, Mellethi, his sons and brothers, twelve;

27 the twentieth, Eliatha, his sons and brothers, twelve;

28 the twenty-first, Ethir, his sons and brothers, twelve;

29 the twenty-second, Godollathi, his sons and brothers, twelve;

30 the twenty-third, Meazoth, his sons and brothers, twelve;

31 the twenty-fourth, Romemthi — ōd, his sons and brothers, twelve.

Chapter 26

1 For divisions of the gates: for the sons of Koreim, Mosollamia son of Kore, from the sons of Abiasaph.

2 And Mosollamia had sons: Zacharia the firstborn, Idiel the second, Zabadas the third, Iethnouel the fourth,

3 Olam the fifth, Joanan the sixth, Eliōenai the seventh.

4 And for Abeddom, sons: Samaia the firstborn, Jozabad the second, Joaa the third, Sochar the fourth, Nathanael the fifth,

5 Amiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Phollathi the eighth, because God blessed him.

6 And for Samaia his son, sons were born: sons of the firstborn Rosai, for his fathers’ house, because they were mighty.

7 Sons of Samaia: Gothni and Raphael and Obed and Elzabad and Achiu, mighty sons; Eliou and Sabchia and Isbakom.

8 All these were from the sons of Abeddom, they and their brothers and their sons, doing mightily in the work; all of them, sixty-two, belonging to Abeddom.

9 And for Mosollamia, sons and brothers, eighteen mighty men.

10 And for Osa, from the sons of Merari, sons keeping the office, because he was not a firstborn, and his father made him ruler

11 of the second division; Tablai the third, Zacharia the fourth. All these, sons and brothers of Osa, were thirteen. —

12 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers, for the rulers of the mighty men, courses like their brothers, to minister in the house of the Lord.

13 And they cast lots, for the small and for the great, according to their fathers' houses, for gate and gate.

14 And the lot for the east fell to Salamia and Zacharia; the sons of Joas for Melchia cast lots, and the lot came out for the north;

15 for Abeddom, the south, opposite the house of esefin;

16 for the second; for Osa, westward, after the gate of the chamber of the ascent; watch opposite watch.

17 For the east, six by day; for the north, four by day; for the south, four by day; and for esefin, two;

18 for those relieving [the watch]; and toward the west, four; and at the path, two relieving [the watch].

19 These are the divisions of the doorkeepers, for the sons of Kore and for the sons of Merari.

20 And their brothers the Levites were over the treasures of the house of the Lord and over the treasures of the dedicated things.

21 Sons of Ladan, sons of Gershoni belonging to Ladan, rulers of fathers' houses belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Iiel.

22 And the sons of Iiel, Zethom and Joel, the brothers, were over the treasures of the house of the Lord.

23 For Ambram and Issaar, Chebron and Oziel:

24 and Shubael, of Gersam, of Moses, was leader over the treasures.

25 And for his brother Eliezer: Raabias his son, and Josaias and Joram and Zechri and Salomoth.

26 This Salomoth and his brothers were over all the treasures of the holy things which David the king and the rulers of the fathers' houses, commanders of thousands and of hundreds and leaders of the force, had consecrated,

27 which he took from the wars and from the spoils, and consecrated from them, so as not to delay the building of the house of God;

28 and over all the holy things of Samuel the prophet and Saul son of Kis and Abennēr son of Ner and Joab son of Sarouia; everything which they consecrated was by the hand of Salomoth and his brothers.

29 For Issaar, Chonenia and his sons were over the outside work for Israel, to write and to judge.

30 For the Chebronite, Asabias and his brothers, mighty sons, one thousand seven hundred, were over the oversight of Israel beyond the Jordan toward the west, for every service of the Lord and work of the king.

31 For the Chebronite: Ioudias was ruler of the Chebronites according to their generations, according to their fathers' houses. In the fortieth year of his reign they were enrolled, and a mighty man was found among them in Jazer of the Gileadite region.

32 And his brothers, mighty sons, were two thousand seven hundred, rulers of fathers' houses; and King David appointed them over the Reubenite and the Gaddite and half the tribe of Manasseh, for every command of the Lord and word of the king.

Chapter 27

1 And the sons of Israel according to their number: rulers of fathers' houses, commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and scribes serving the people and every matter of the king according to divisions, for every matter of one entering and going out, month by month, for all the months of the year; one division was twenty-four thousand.

2 And over the first division, for the first month: Iesboam son of Zabdeel; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

3 From the sons of Phares, chief of all the rulers of the force for the first month.

4 And over the division of the second month: Dodia the Echochi; and over his division were twenty-four thousand, rulers of the force.

5 The third, for the third month: Banaias son of Iodae the priest, the ruler; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

6 This Banaias was mightier than the thirty and over the thirty, and over his division was Amizabad his son.

7 The fourth, for the fourth month: Asael brother of Joab, and Zabdias his son and the brothers; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

8 The fifth, for the fifth month: the leader Samaoth the Iesrae; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

9 The sixth, for the sixth month: Oduias son of Ekkes the Thecoite; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

10 The seventh, for the seventh month: Chelles from Phallous, from the sons of Ephraim; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

11 The eighth, for the eighth month: Sobochai the Isathi, the Zarai; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

12 The ninth, for the ninth month: Abiezer from Anathoth, from the land of Benjamin; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

13 The tenth, for the tenth month: Meira from Netophath, the Zarai; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

14 The eleventh, for the eleventh month: Banaias from Pharathon, of the sons of Ephraim; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

15 The twelfth, for the twelfth month: Choldai the Netophathi, the Gothoniel; and over his division were twenty-four thousand.

16 And over the tribes of Israel: for Reuben, Eliezer son of Zechri; for Simeon, Saphatias son of Maacha;

17 for Levi, Hasabias son of Camouel; for Aaron, Sadoc;

18 for Judah, Eliab of the brothers of David; for Issachar, Ambri son of Michael;

19 for Zebulun, Samaia son of Abdiou; for Naphtali, Ierimoth son of Esriel;

20 for Ephraim, Hosea son of Ozias; for half the tribe of Manasseh, Joel son of Phadaia;

21 for half the tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iaddai son of Zabdiou; for the sons of Benjamin, Asiel son of Abennēr;

22 for Dan, Azarael son of Ioram. These are the patriarchs of the tribes of Israel. —

23 And David did not take their number from twenty years old and below, because the Lord said to multiply Israel like the stars of heaven.

24 And Joab son of Sarouia began to count among the people and did not finish; and in these things wrath came upon Israel, and the number was not entered in the book of the words of the days of King David.

25 And over the treasures of the king: Asmoth son of Odiel; and over the treasures in the field and in the villages and in the settlements and in the towers: Jonathan son of Ozias.

26 And over those tilling the land, the workers: Esdri son of Chouloub;

27 and over the rural lands: Semee from Rama; and over the treasures of wine in the rural lands: Zachri son of Sephni;

28 and over the olive groves and over the sycamores in the lowland: Balanas the Gedorite; and over the treasures of oil: Joas.

29 And over the cattle grazing in Asidon: Satrais the Sharonite; and over the cattle in the enclosures: Sophat son of Adli;

30 and over the camels: Obil the Ishmaelite; and over the donkeys: Iadias from Merathon;

31 and over the sheep: Iaziz the Agarite. All these were overseers of the possessions of King David. —

32 And Jonathan, David’s father’s brother, was a counselor, a discerning man and himself a scribe; and Iiel son of Achamani was with the sons of the king,

33 and Achitophel was the counselor of the king, and Chousi the first friend of the king,

34 and after this, Achitophel, followed by Jodae son of Banaia and Abiathar; and Joab was chief general of the king.

Chapter 28

1 And David assembled all the rulers of Israel: rulers of judges, and the rulers of the courses around the king’s person, and commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and the treasury keepers, and those over his possessions, and the mighty men and the warriors of the army, in Jerusalem.

2 And David stood in the midst of the assembly and said, “Hear me, my brothers and my people. It came upon my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and a standing-place for the feet of the Lord our God; and I prepared the things suitable for the dwelling.

3 And God said, ‘You shall not build a house for me, to call my name upon it, because you are a warrior man and have poured out blood.’

4 And the Lord God of Israel chose me from all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever; and in Judah he chose the kingdom, and from the house of Judah the house of my father; and among the sons of my father, in me he was pleased to make me king over all Israel.

5 And from all my sons [because the Lord gave me many sons] he chose Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel.

6 And God said to me, ‘Solomon your son shall build my house and my court, because I have chosen him to be a son to me, and I shall be a father to him;

7 and I will make his kingdom upright forever, if he is strong to keep my commandments and my judgments, as on this day.’

8 And now, before all the assembly of the Lord and in the ears of our God, keep and seek all the commandments of the Lord our God, so that you may inherit the good land and leave it as an inheritance to your sons after you forever.

9 And now, Solomon my son, know the God of your fathers and serve him with a perfect heart and a willing soul, because the Lord examines all hearts and knows every thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you; and if you forsake him, he will forsake you to the end.

10 See now that the Lord chose you to build a house for him as a sanctuary. Be strong and do. —

11 And David gave Solomon his son the plan of the temple and its houses and its zakcho and its upper rooms and its inner storerooms and the house of atonement,

12 and the plan which he had in his spirit, of the courts of the house of the Lord and all the chambers around, for the storerooms of the house of the Lord and the storerooms of the holy things,

13 and the dwellings of the courses of the priests and the Levites for every work of service of the house of the Lord, and the storerooms for the serviceable vessels of the service of the house of the Lord.

14 And the weight of their weighing, both of the gold and of the silver,

15 he gave him the weight of the lampstands and of the lamps;

16 likewise he gave him the weight of the tables of the presentation bread, each golden table, and likewise the silver ones,

17 and of the meat hooks and libation vessels and the golden bowls, and the weight of the gold and silver, kephphoure of each weight.

18 And he showed him the weight of the altar of incense, of tested gold, and the plan of the chariot of the cherubim, with their wings spread out and overshadowing the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

19 David gave everything in writing by the hand of the Lord to Solomon, according to the understanding of the working-out of the plan which had come to him. —

20 And David said to Solomon his son, “Be strong and be manly and do; do not fear or be dismayed, because the Lord my God is with you. He will not release you and will certainly not forsake you until you complete all the work of service of the house of the Lord.

21 And behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites are for every service of the house of God, and with you in every matter is everyone willing in wisdom according to every craft, and the rulers and all the people are for all your words.”

Chapter 29

1 And King David said to the whole assembly, “Solomon my son, the one whom the Lord chose in him, is young and tender, and the work is great, because the building is not for a man, but for the Lord God.

2 According to all my strength I prepared for the house of my God gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, stones of soom and of filling, and costly and various stones, and every precious stone, and much Parian stone.

3 And still, in my taking pleasure in the house of my God, there is for me what I have acquired, gold and silver; and behold, I have given it to the house of my God for height, apart from what I prepared for the house of the holy things:

4 three thousand talents of gold from Suphir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay with them the walls of the temple

5 by the hand of craftsmen. And who is willing today to fill his hands for the Lord?”

6 And the rulers of the fathers’ houses were willing, and the rulers of the sons of Israel, and the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and the overseers of the works, and the stewards of the king;

7 and they gave for the works of the house of the Lord five thousand talents of gold and ten thousand [pieces] of gold, and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And those among whom a stone was found gave it for the storerooms of the house of the Lord, by the hand of Iiel the Gershonite.

9 And the people rejoiced over the willingness, because with a full heart they willingly offered to the Lord; and King David also rejoiced greatly.

10 And King David blessed the Lord before the assembly, saying, “Blessed are you, Lord God of Israel, our father from everlasting and unto everlasting.

11 Yours, Lord, is the greatness and the power and the boasting and the victory and the strength, because you rule over all things in heaven and upon the earth; before your face every king and nation is troubled.

12 From you are wealth and glory; you rule over all, Lord, ruler of every rule; and in your hand are strength and power, and in your hand, Almighty, are the making great and the strengthening of all.

13 And now, we confess to you and praise the name of your boasting.

14 And who am I, and who is my people, that we were able to be willing for these things? Because all things are yours, and from what is yours we have given to you.

15 Because we are sojourners before you and dwellers, as all our fathers were; like a shadow are our days upon the earth, and there is no endurance.

16 Lord our God, all this abundance which I prepared to build a house for your holy name is from your hand, and all things are yours.

17 And I knew, Lord, that you are the one testing hearts and loving righteousness. In simplicity of heart I willingly offered all these things, and now I saw your people who were found here willingly offering to you with joy.

18 Lord God of Abraham and Isaac and Israel our fathers, keep these things forever in the intention of the heart of your people, and direct their hearts toward you.

19 And to Solomon my son give a good heart to do your commandments and your testimonies and your ordinances, and to bring the construction of your house to completion.

20 And David said to the whole assembly, “Bless the Lord your God.” And the whole assembly blessed the Lord, the God of their fathers, and bending their knees they worshiped the Lord and the king.

21 And David sacrificed sacrifices to the Lord and brought whole burnt offerings to God on the day after the first day: one thousand calves, one thousand rams, one thousand lambs, and their libations, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

22 And they ate and drank before the Lord on that day with joy, and they made Solomon son of David king a second time, and anointed him to the Lord as king and Sadoc as priest.

23 And Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father and was well-pleasing, and all Israel listened to him.

24 The rulers and the mighty men and all the sons of King David his father submitted themselves to him.

25 And the Lord magnified Solomon above before all Israel and gave him the glory of a king, which had not happened upon any king before him.

26 And David son of Iessai reigned over Israel

27 forty years: in Hebron seven years, and in Jerusalem thirty-three years.

28 And he died in a good old age, full of days, wealth, and glory; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.

29 And the remaining words of King David, the former and the later, are written in the words of Samuel the seer, and upon the words of Nathan the prophet, and upon the words of Gad the seer,

30 concerning all his kingdom and his might and the times which came upon him and upon Israel and upon all the kingdoms of the earth.

2 Chronicles

Chapter 1

1 And Solomon son of David was strengthened over his kingdom, and the Lord his God was with him and magnified him on high.

2 And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and to the commanders of hundreds and to the judges and to all the rulers before Israel, the rulers of the fathers' houses,

3 and Solomon and all the assembly with him went to the high place in Gabaon, where there was the tent of the testimony of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness;

4 but David had brought up the ark of God from the city of Cariathiarim, because he had prepared a tent for it in Jerusalem,

5 and the bronze altar, which Beseleel son of Uriou son of Hor had made, was there before the tent of the Lord; and Solomon and the assembly sought it,

6 and Solomon brought up there upon the bronze altar before the Lord, the one in the tent, and brought up upon it one thousand whole burnt offerings. —

7 In that night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask what I shall give you."

8 And Solomon said to God, "You have done great mercy with David my father, and have made me king in his place;

9 and now, Lord God, let your name be established upon David my father, because you have made me king over a numerous people, like the dust of the earth.

10 Now give me wisdom and understanding, and I shall go out before this people and enter in; for who can judge this great people of yours?"

11 And God said to Solomon, "Because this came to be in your heart, and you did not ask for wealth of possessions, or glory, or the life of your adversaries, or many days, but asked for yourself wisdom and understanding, in order to judge my people over whom I made you king,

12 wisdom and understanding I give to you, and wealth and possessions and glory I will give to you, as there has not been one like you among the kings before you, and after you there shall not be such."

13 And Solomon came from the high place in Gabaon to Jerusalem, from before the tent of the testimony, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen, and he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen; and he left them in the cities of the chariots, and the people were with the king in Jerusalem.

15 And the king placed the gold and the silver in Jerusalem like stones, and the cedars in Judea like sycamines in the lowland, in abundance.

16 And the going out of Solomon's horses was from Egypt, and the price of the king's merchants; they bought for trade.

17 And they went up and brought out of Egypt one chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and one horse for one hundred fifty; and thus they brought them in their hands to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

18 And Solomon said to build a house for the name of the Lord and a house for his kingdom.

Chapter 2

1 And Solomon assembled seventy thousand men and eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountain, and the overseers over them were three thousand six hundred. —

2 And Solomon sent to Hiram king of Tyre, saying, “As you did with David my father and sent him cedars to build himself a house to dwell in it,

3 behold, I, his son, am building a house for the name of the Lord my God, to sanctify it to him, to burn incense before him continually, and the presentation continually, and to offer whole burnt offerings continually, morning and evening and on the Sabbaths and at the new moons and at the feasts of the Lord our God; this is forever for Israel.

4 And the house which I am building is great, because our God is great above all gods.

5 And who shall be strong to build a house for him? Because heaven and the heaven of heavens do not bear his glory. And who am I, building a house for him? Is it anything except to burn incense before him?

6 And now send me a wise man who knows how to work in gold and in silver and in bronze and in iron and in purple and in scarlet and in blue, and who knows how to engrave an engraving, with the wise men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father prepared.

7 And send me cedar timbers and juniper timbers and fir timbers from Lebanon, because I know that your servants know how to cut timbers from Lebanon; and behold, your servants will go with my servants

8 to prepare for me timbers in abundance, because the house which I am building is great and glorious.

9 And behold, for the workers who cut timbers for food, I have given wheat as gifts to your servants: twenty thousand kors, and twenty thousand kors of barley, and twenty thousand measures of wine, and twenty thousand measures of oil. —

10 And Hiram king of Tyre said in writing and sent to Solomon, “Because the Lord loved his people, he gave you over them as king.”

11 And Hiram said, “Blessed is the Lord God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who gave to David the king a wise son, knowing understanding and knowledge, who shall build a house for the Lord and a house for his kingdom.

12 And now I have sent you a wise man, knowing understanding, Hiram my father,

13 [his mother from the daughters of Dan, and his father a man of Tyre] who knows how to work in gold and in silver and in bronze and in iron, in stones and in wood, and to weave in purple and in blue and in fine linen and in scarlet, and to engrave engravings and to devise every design, whatever you may give him, with your wise men and the wise men of David my lord, your father.

14 And now, let the wheat and the barley and the oil and the wine which my lord said be sent to his servants.

15 And we will cut timbers from Lebanon according to all your need, and we will bring them on rafts upon the sea to Ioppe, and you will bring them to Jerusalem.” —

16 And Solomon assembled all the proselytes in the land of Israel, after the numbering by which David his father had numbered them, and they were found to be one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred.

17 And he made from them seventy thousand back-bearers and eighty thousand stonecutters, and three thousand six hundred taskmasters over the people.

Chapter 3

1 And Solomon began to build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, on Mount Amoria, where the Lord appeared to David his father, at the place which David had prepared on the threshing floor of Orna the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the second month, in the fourth year of his kingdom.

3 And these are the things Solomon began to build for the house of God: the length in cubits, the first measurement, was sixty cubits, and the width was twenty cubits.

4 And the ailam in front of the house, its length across the front according to the width of the house was twenty cubits, and its height was one hundred twenty cubits; and he overlaid it inside with pure gold.

5 And he paneled the great house with cedar timbers and overlaid it with pure gold, and carved upon it palms and hanging ornaments.

6 And he adorned the house with precious stones for glory, and with gold, gold from Pharouaim;

7 and he gilded the house and the walls and the gates and the ceilings and the doors with gold, and carved cherubim upon the walls. —

8 And he made the house of the holy of holies; its length, across the front according to the width, was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with pure gold, for the cherubim, to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails, the weight of each one, was fifty shekels of gold. And he gilded the upper room with gold.

10 And he made in the house of the holy of holies two cherubim, wooden work, and gilded them with gold.

11 And the wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits in length; one wing was five cubits, touching the wall of the house, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub;

12 and the wing of the one cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the house, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub;

13 and the wings of the cherubim were spread out for twenty cubits; and they were standing upon their feet, and their faces were toward the house.

14 And he made the veil of blue and purple and scarlet and fine linen, and wove cherubim in it. —

15 And he made in front of the house two pillars, thirty-five cubits in height, and their capitals were five cubits.

16 And he made serseroth in the debir and gave them upon the capitals of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates and placed them upon the hanging ornaments.

17 And he set the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right and one on the left; and he called the name of the one on the right Uprightness, and the name of the one on the left Strength.

Chapter 4

1 And he made the bronze altar: twenty cubits in length, and its width twenty cubits, and its height ten cubits.

2 And he made the cast sea, ten cubits across its diameter, round all around; and its height was five cubits, and its circumference was thirty cubits.

3 And a likeness of calves was beneath it; they went around it in a circle; ten cubits encompassed the basin all around. Two kinds cast the calves in its casting,

4 by which they made them: twelve calves, three facing north and three facing west and three facing south and three facing east; and the sea was upon them above, and their backs were inward.

5 And its thickness was a palm, and its lip was like the lip of a cup, engraved with lily shoots; it held three thousand measures. And he finished it.

6 And he made ten lavers and placed five on the right and five on the left, to wash in them the works of the whole burnt offerings and to rinse in them. And the sea was for the priests to wash themselves in it.

7 And he made ten golden lampstands according to their ordinance and placed them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left.

8 And he made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left. And he made one hundred golden bowls.

9 And he made the court of the priests and the great court and doors for the court, and their doorways overlaid with bronze.

10 And he placed the sea at the right corner of the house, eastward, opposite.

11 And Hiram made the meat hooks and the firepans and the grate of the altar and all its vessels. And Hiram finished making all the work which he made for King Solomon in the house of God:

12 two pillars, and upon them golath at the chothareth, upon the heads of the two pillars; and two networks to cover the capitals of the chothareth which are upon the heads of the pillars,

13 and four hundred golden bells for the two networks, and two kinds of pomegranates in the one network, to cover the two golath of the chothareth which are above the pillars.

14 And he made ten mechonoth, and he made the lavers upon the mechonoth,

15 and one sea, and the twelve calves beneath it,

16 and the footstands and the analemptēras and the cauldrons and the meat hooks and all their vessels, which Hiram made and brought to King Solomon in the house of the Lord, of pure bronze.

17 In the region of the Jordan the king cast them, in the thickness of the earth, in the house of Sokchoth and between Sirdatha.

18 And Solomon made all these vessels in very great abundance, because the weighing of the bronze did not cease.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels of the house of the Lord and the golden altar and the tables [and upon them the presentation bread],

20 and the lampstands and the lamps for the light according to the ordinance, and before the debir, of pure gold,

21 and their tongs and their lamps and the bowls and the censers and the firepans, of pure gold;

22 and the inner door of the house to the holy of holies, and the doors of the house of the temple, were gold.

Chapter 5

1 And all the work which Solomon did in the house of the Lord was completed. And Solomon brought in the holy things of David his father, the silver and the gold and the vessels, and put them into the treasury of the house of the Lord.

2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the rulers of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers’ houses of the sons of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the city of David [this is Zion];

3 and all the men of Israel assembled to the king at the feast [this is the seventh month],

4 and all the elders of Israel came, and all the Levites took the ark,

5 and they brought up the ark and the tent of the testimony and all the holy vessels which were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up.

6 And King Solomon and all the assembly of Israel and those fearing and those gathered with them before the ark were sacrificing calves and sheep which could not be numbered and could not be counted because of the multitude.

7 And the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the Lord to its place, to the debir of the house, into the holy of holies, beneath the wings of the cherubim;

8 and the cherubim had spread out their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its carrying poles from above.

9 And the poles projected, and the heads of the poles were visible from the holy place toward the front of the debir; they were not visible outside. And they were there until this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses placed in Choreb, which the Lord established with the sons of Israel when they came out of the land of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass, when the priests went out from the holy place — because all the priests who were found had been sanctified, and they were not assigned according to a course —

12 and all the Levite singers, the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Idithoun, and their sons and their brothers, clothed in linen garments, were standing with cymbals and nablas and citharas opposite the altar, and with them one hundred twenty priests blowing trumpets,

13 and there was one voice when they trumpeted and when they sang and raised their voice with one voice, to give thanks and praise to the Lord — and when they raised their voice with trumpets and with cymbals and with the instruments of songs, and said, “Give thanks to the Lord, because he is good, because his mercy is forever,” the house was filled with the cloud of the glory of the Lord;

14 and the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, because the glory of the Lord filled the house of God.

Chapter 6

1 Then Solomon said: The Lord said to dwell in gloom;

2 And I have built a house for your name, holy to you and ready to dwell forever.

3 And the king turned his face and blessed all the assembly of Israel, and all the assembly of Israel was standing by.

4 And he said, “Blessed is the Lord God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and with his hands fulfilled, saying:

5 From the day on which I brought my people up from the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city from all the tribes of Israel to build a house for my name to be there, and I did not choose a man to be ruler over my people Israel;

6 and I chose in David, so as to be over my people Israel.

7 And it came upon the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the Lord God of Israel,

8 and the Lord said to David my father, “Because it came upon your heart to build a house for my name, you did well, because it came upon your heart;

9 nevertheless, you shall not build the house, because your son, who will come forth from your loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 And the Lord raised up his word, which he spoke, and I came to be in place of David my father and sat upon the throne of Israel, as the Lord spoke, and I built the house for the name of the Lord God of Israel

11 and I placed there the ark, in which there is the covenant of the Lord, which he made with Israel.

12 And he stood before the altar of the Lord, before all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands,

13 because Solomon had made a bronze base and set it in the midst of the court of the sanctuary, its length five cubits and its breadth five cubits and its height three cubits, and he stood upon it and fell upon his knees before all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven

14 and he said, “O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or upon the earth, keeping the covenant and the mercy for your servants, those who walk before you with a whole heart.

15 What you kept for your servant David my father, what you spoke to him saying, and you spoke with your mouth and fulfilled with your hands, as this day.

16 And now, O Lord God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father what you spoke to him, saying, “A man shall not be lacking to you from before me, sitting upon the throne of Israel, except if your sons keep their way to walk in my law, as you walked before me.”

17 And now, O Lord God of Israel, let your word, then, be made certain, which you spoke to your servant David.

18 For will God truly dwell with human beings upon the earth? If the heaven and the heaven of heaven do not suffice you, then what is this house which I built?

19 And may you look upon the prayer of your servant and upon my petition, O Lord God, to give ear to the petition and to the prayer which your servant prays before you today,

20 for your eyes to be open upon this house day and night, upon this place which you said your name would be called upon there, to hear the prayer which your servant prays toward this place.

21 And may you hear the petition of your servant and of your people Israel, whatever they may pray toward this place, and you hear in the place of your dwelling from heaven, and hear and be gracious. —

22 If a man sins against his neighbor, and he takes a curse against him to curse him, and he comes and curses before the altar in this house,

23 and you hear from heaven and act and judge your servants, to repay the lawless one and repay his ways upon his own head, to justify the righteous, to repay him according to his righteousness. —

24 And if your people Israel are shattered before the enemy, if they sin against you, and turn back and confess to your name and pray and make petition before you in this house,

25 and you hear from heaven and be gracious to the sins of your people Israel, and turn them back to the land which you gave to them and to their fathers. —

26 when the heaven is shut up and there is no rain, because they will sin against you, and they pray toward this place and praise your name and turn from their sins, because you will humble them,

27 and you hear from heaven and be gracious to the sins of your servants and of your people Israel, because you will show them the good way in which they will walk in it, and give rain upon your land which you gave to your people as an inheritance. —

28 famine, if it should happen upon the land; death, if it should happen; wind destruction and jaundice; locust and caterpillar, if they should happen; if the enemy afflicts him before their cities, according to every plague and every pain,

29 and every prayer and every petition which may happen to any human and to all your people Israel, if a man knows his touch and his weakness and spreads out his hands toward this house,

30 and you hear from heaven, from your prepared dwelling place, and be propitious, and give to a man according to his ways, as you may know his heart, because you alone know the heart of the sons of humans,

31 so that they may fear all your ways all the days which they themselves live upon the face of the land which you gave to our fathers. —

32 And every foreigner, who is not himself from your people Israel, and comes from a distant land because of your great name and your strong hand and your lifted arm, and they come and pray toward this place,

33 and you hear from heaven, from your prepared dwelling place, and do according to all things whatever the foreigner calls upon you for, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you as your people Israel, and know that your name has been called upon this house which I built. —

34 But if your people go out to war against their enemies on the way by which you send them, and they pray to you toward the direction of this city, which you chose in it, and of the house which I built for your name,

35 and you hear from heaven their petition and their prayer and do their judgment. —

36 Because they will sin against you [because there will not be a human who will not sin] and you will strike them and give them over before enemies, and those taking them captive will take them captive into the land of enemies, into a land far or near

37 and they turn their heart in their land, where they were deported there, and indeed they turn and make petition to you in their captivity, saying, “We have sinned, we have acted unjustly, we have acted lawlessly,”

38 and they turn toward you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of those who took them captive, and pray toward the way of their land, which you gave to their fathers, and of the city which you chose, and of the house which I built for your name,

39 and you hear from heaven, from your prepared dwelling place, their prayer and their petition, and do judgments and be gracious to the people who have sinned against you. —

40 Now, O Lord, let your eyes then be open and your ears attentive to the petition of this place.

41 And now arise, O Lord God, to your resting place, you and the ark of your strength. May your priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and may your sons rejoice in good things.

42 O Lord God, do not turn away the face of your anointed; remember the mercies of David your servant.

Chapter 7

1 And when Solomon completed praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offerings and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the house.

2 And the priests were not able to enter into the house of the Lord at that time, because the glory of the Lord filled the house.

3 And all the sons of Israel saw the fire coming down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, and they fell upon their faces upon the earth, upon the stone pavement, and worshiped and praised the Lord, because he is good, because his mercy is forever.

4 And the king and all the people were sacrificing sacrifices before the Lord.

5 And Solomon sacrificed the sacrifice of twenty-two thousand young bulls and one hundred twenty thousand livestock, and the king and all the people inaugurated the house of God.

6 And the priests were standing at their watches, and the Levites with the instruments of the songs of the Lord of David the king, for giving thanks before the Lord, because forever is his mercy, with the hymns of David through their hand; and the priests were blowing with the trumpets opposite them, and all Israel was standing.

7 And Solomon sanctified the middle of the court which is in the house of the Lord; because he made there the burnt offerings and the fats of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon made did not suffice to receive the burnt offerings and the manaa and the fats.

8 And Solomon held the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath and as far as the torrent of Egypt.

9 And he made a closing assembly on the eighth day, because he made the dedication of the altar a feast for seven days.

10 And on the twenty-third of the seventh month he sent the people to their tents, rejoicing and with a good heart over the good things which the Lord did to David and to Solomon and to Israel his people.

11 And Solomon completed the house of the Lord and the house of the king; and all that Solomon desired in his soul to do in the house of the Lord and in his house prospered.

12 And God appeared to Solomon by night and said to him, “I have heard your prayer and have chosen for myself in this place as a house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut up the heaven and there is no rain, and if I command the locust to eat the tree, and if I send death among my people,

14 and if my people are ashamed, upon whom my name has been called, upon them, and they pray and seek my face and turn away from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven and will be gracious to their sins and will heal their land.

15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayer of this place.

16 And now I have chosen and sanctified this house for my name to be there forever, and my eyes and my heart will be there all the days.

17 And you, if you walk before me as David your father and do according to all that I commanded you and guard my ordinances and my judgments,

18 and I will raise up the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, “A man ruling in Israel shall not be removed from you.”

19 And if you yourselves turn away and abandon my ordinances and my commandments which I gave before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them,

20 and I will take you out from the land which I gave to them, and this house, which I sanctified for my name, I will turn away from before my face, and I will give it as a parable and as a narrative among all the nations.

21 And this house, the high one, everyone passing by it will be astonished and will say, “For what reason did the Lord do this to this land and to this house?”

22 And they will say, “Because they abandoned the Lord, the God of their fathers, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, and took hold of other gods and worshiped them and served them; because of this he brought upon them all this evil.”

Chapter 8

1 And it came to pass after twenty years, in which Solomon built the house of the Lord and his own house,

2 and the cities which Hiram gave to Solomon, Solomon built them and settled the sons of Israel there.

3 And Solomon came to Aimath Soba and strengthened it.

4 And he built Thedmor in the wilderness and all the fortified cities which he built in Emath.

5 And he built Baithoron the Upper and Baithoron the Lower, fortified cities, walls, gates, and bars,

6 and Baalath and all the fortified cities which belonged to Solomon, and all the cities of the chariots and the cities of the horsemen, and whatever Solomon desired according to the desire to build in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all his kingdom.

7 All the people who remained from the Hittite and the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, who are not from Israel —

8 They were from their sons, those left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel did not destroy — and Solomon brought them up as tribute until this day.

9 And from the sons of Israel Solomon did not give any as servants for his kingdom, because they were men of war and rulers and mighty men and leaders of chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were chiefs of the overseers of King Solomon; two hundred and fifty taskmasters among the people.

11 And Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the city of David to the house which he built for her, because he said, “My wife shall not dwell in the city of David, king of Israel, because it is holy, where the ark of the Lord entered there.”

12 Then Solomon offered whole burnt offerings to the Lord upon the altar which he built in front of the sanctuary,

13 and according to the word of each day for offering, according to the commands of Moses, on the Sabbaths and on the months and on the feasts three times of the year: on the feast of unleavened things and on the feast of weeks and on the feast of tents.

14 And he set in order, according to the judgment of David, the divisions of the priests according to their services, and the Levites at their watches, to praise and to minister before the priests according to the word of the day, day by day, and the gatekeepers according to their divisions, at gate and gate, because thus are the commands of David, man of God;

15 They did not pass beyond the commands of the king concerning the priests and the Levites in every matter and in the treasuries.

16 And all the work was prepared from the day on which it was founded until Solomon completed the house of the Lord.

17 Then Solomon went to Gasiongaber and to Ailath, by the seaside in the land of Idumaea.

18 And Hiram sent ships and servants who knew the sea by the hand of his servants, and they went with the servants of Solomon to Sophira and took from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold and came to King Solomon.

Chapter 9

1 And the queen of Saba heard the name of Solomon and came to test Solomon with riddles in Jerusalem with a very heavy force, and camels carrying spices and gold in great quantity and a precious stone; and she came to Solomon and spoke to him all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon declared to her all her words, and no word passed from Solomon which he did not declare to her.

3 And the queen of Saba saw the wisdom of Solomon and the house which he built,

4 and the food of the tables and the seating of his servants and the standing of his ministers and their clothing and his cupbearers and their adornment and the burnt offerings which he offered in the house of the Lord, and she came to be outside herself.

5 And she said to the king, “True was the word which I heard in my land about your words and about your wisdom,

6 and I did not believe the words until I came and my eyes saw, and behold, half of the abundance of your wisdom was not reported to me; you have added upon the hearing which I heard;

7 blessed are the men, blessed are these your servants who are standing before you continually and hearing your wisdom;

8 let the Lord your God be blessed, who desired to give you upon his throne as king for the Lord your God; because the Lord your God loved Israel to establish it forever, and gave you over them as king to do judgment and righteousness.”

9 And she gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold and spices in great quantity and a precious stone; and there had not been like those spices which the queen of Saba gave to King Solomon.

10 [And the servants of Solomon and the servants of Hiram were bringing gold to Solomon from Sophir and pine wood and precious stone;

11 and the king made the pine wood into stairs for the house of the Lord and for the house of the king, and citharas and nablas for the singers, and such things had not been seen before in the land of Juda.]

12 And King Solomon gave Queen Saba all her desires which she asked, besides all that she brought to King Solomon; and she returned to her land.

13 And the weight of the gold brought to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,

14 except for that of the men subordinated and those trading, from whom they brought, and all the kings of Arabia and the satraps of the land were bringing gold and silver to King Solomon.

15 And King Solomon made two hundred large beaten gold shields, six hundred pure gold for one shield; six hundred gold were laid upon the one shield;

16 and three hundred beaten gold shields, three hundred gold were brought upon each shield; and the king gave them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 And the king made a great throne of elephant teeth, and overlaid it with tested gold;

18 and six steps were to the throne, bound with gold, and armrests here and there upon the throne of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests,

19 and twelve lions standing there upon the six steps, here and there; it did not come to be so in every kingdom.

20 And all the vessels of King Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were covered with gold; silver was not accounted for anything in the days of Solomon;

21 because a ship for the king went to Tharsis with the servants of Hiram; once through three years ships came from Tharsis for the king, filled with gold and silver and ivory teeth and apes.

22 And Solomon was magnified above all the kings both in wealth and in wisdom.

23 And all the kings of the earth were seeking the face of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God gave in his heart.

24 And they were each bringing his gifts: vessels of silver and vessels of gold and clothing, stacte and spices, horses and mules, year by year.

25 And there were for Solomon four thousand female horses for chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, and he placed them in the cities of the chariots and with the king in Jerusalem.

26 And he was ruling over all the kings from the river and as far as the land of the foreigners and as far as the boundary of Egypt.

27 And the king gave the gold and the silver in Jerusalem as stones, and the cedars as sycamores which are in the plain, in great quantity.

28 And the export of the horses from Egypt for Solomon and from all the land.

29 And the remaining words of Solomon, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the words of Nathan the prophet and in the words of Achia the Selonite and in the visions of Ioel the seer concerning Ieroboam son of Nabat.

30 And Solomon the king reigned over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon slept, and they buried him in the city of David his father, and Roboam his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 10

1 And Roboam came to Sychem, because all Israel was coming to Sychem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Ieroboam son of Nabat heard — and he himself was in Egypt, as he fled from before King Solomon and Ieroboam dwelt in Egypt — Ieroboam returned from Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him, and Ieroboam and all the assembly of Israel came to Roboam, saying,

4 “Your father made our yoke hard, and now release us from the hard service of your father and from his heavy yoke, which he put upon us, and we will serve you.”

5 And he said to them, “Go for three days and come to me”; and the people went away.

6 And King Roboam gathered the elders who had stood before Solomon his father while he was alive, saying, “How do you counsel to answer this people with a word?”

7 And they spoke to him, saying, “If today you are good to this people and please them and speak good words to them, they will be servants to you all the days.”

8 And he left behind the counsel of the elders who counseled him, and counseled with the young men who had been brought up with him, those who stood before him.

9 And he said to them, “What do you counsel, and I shall answer a word to this people who spoke to me, saying, ‘Ease us from the yoke which your father put upon us?’”

10 And the young men who had been brought up with him spoke to him: “Thus you shall speak to the people who spoke to you, saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, and you, release us from it’; thus you shall say, ‘My little finger is thicker than the loins of my father;

11 and now my father disciplined you with a heavy yoke, and I will add upon your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, and I will discipline you with scorpions.’”

12 And Ieroboam and all the people came to Roboam on the third day, as the king spoke, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

13 And the king answered harshly, and King Roboam abandoned the counsel of the elders

14 and he spoke to them according to the counsel of the younger men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add upon it; my father disciplined you with whips, and I will discipline you with scorpions.”

15 And the king did not listen to the people, because a turning was from God, saying, The Lord raised up his word, which he spoke by the hand of Achia the Selonite concerning Ieroboam son of Nabat

16 and all Israel, because their king did not listen. And the people answered the king, saying, “What portion is there for us in David, and inheritance in the son of Iessai? To your tents, Israel; now see to your house, David.” And all Israel went to their tents;

17 And the men of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Juda, and Roboam reigned over them.

18 And King Roboam sent Adoniram, the one over the tribute, and the sons of Israel stoned him with stones and he died; and King Roboam hurried to go up upon the chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel rejected the house of David until this day.

Chapter 11

1 And Roboam came to Jerusalem and assembled Juda and Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand young men making war, and he fought against Israel to turn the kingdom to Roboam.

2 And the word of the Lord came to Samaias, a man of God, saying,

3 Say to Roboam son of Solomon and to all Juda and Benjamin, saying,

4 “Thus says the Lord: You shall not go up and you shall not fight against your brothers; each of you, return to his house, because this word came from me.” And they heeded the word of the Lord and turned back from going against Ieroboam.

5 And Roboam dwelt in Jerusalem and built walled cities in Judaia.

6 and he built Baithleem and Aitam and Thekoe

7 and Baithsoura and Sochchoth and Odollam

8 and Geth and Marisan and Ziph

9 and Adoraim and Lachis and Azeika

10 and Saraa and Aialon and Chebron, which belongs to Juda and Benjamin, walled cities.

11 And he fortified them with walls and gave in them leaders and stores of provisions, oil and wine,

12 according to city and according to city, shields and spears, and he strengthened them exceedingly much; and Juda and Benjamin were his. —

13 And the priests and the Levites, who were in all Israel, gathered to him from all the borders;

14 because the Levites abandoned the dwellings of their possession and went to Juda, to Jerusalem, because Ieroboam and his sons cast them out so that they would not minister to the Lord,

15 and he set up for himself priests of the high places and for the idols and the vanities and the calves which Ieroboam made,

16 and he cast them out from the tribes of Israel, those who gave their heart to seek the Lord God of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the Lord God of their fathers

17 And they strengthened the kingdom of Juda and strengthened Roboam son of Solomon for three years, because he walked in the ways of David and Solomon for three years.

18 And Roboam took for himself as wife Mollath, daughter of Ierimouth son of David, Abaia daughter of Eliab the Iessai,

19 and she bore to him sons: Iaous and Samarian and Roollam.

20 and after these things he took for himself Maacha daughter of Abessalom, and she bore to him Abia and Ieththi and Ziza and Emmoth.

21 And Roboam loved Maacha daughter of Abessalom above all his wives and his concubines, because he had eighteen wives and thirty concubines; and he begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

22 And Roboam appointed Abia son of Maacha as ruler, to be leader among his brothers, because he intended to make him king;

23 and he grew beyond all his sons in all the borders of Juda and Benjamin and in the fortified cities, and gave them a great abundance of provisions and requested a multitude of wives.

Chapter 12

1 And it came to pass when the kingdom of Roboam was prepared and when it was established, he abandoned the commandments of the Lord, and all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass in the fifth year of the reign of Roboam, Sousakim king of Egypt went up against Jerusalem, because they had sinned before the Lord,

3 with one thousand two hundred chariots and sixty thousand horses, and there was no number of the multitude that came with him from Egypt: Libyans, Troglodytes, and Ethiopians.

4 And they seized the fortified cities that were in Juda, and he came to Jerusalem.

5 And Samaias the prophet came to Roboam and to the rulers of Juda, who had gathered in Jerusalem from before Sousakim, and said to them, “Thus said the Lord: You have abandoned me, and I will abandon you into the hand of Sousakim.”

6 And the rulers of Israel and the king were ashamed and said, “The Lord is righteous.”

7 And when the Lord saw that they were ashamed, the word of the Lord came to Samaias, saying, “They have been ashamed; I will not utterly destroy them, and I will give them a little for salvation, and by no means will my anger drip in Jerusalem,

8 because they shall be servants, and they shall know my service and the service of the kingdom of the earth.”

9 And Sousakim king of Egypt went up and took the treasures that were in the house of the Lord and the treasures that were in the house of the king; he took everything; and he took the golden shields which Solomon made,

10 and Roboam made bronze shields instead of them. And Sousakim appointed over him leaders of runners, those guarding the gate of the king;

11 And it came to pass, when the king entered the house of the Lord, the guards and the runners and those returning went in to meet the runners.

12 And when he was humbled, the wrath of the Lord turned away from him, and not to destruction at the end; for there were good words in Juda.

13 And Roboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned; Roboam was forty-one years old when he reigned, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, in the city which the Lord chose to name his name there from all the tribes of the sons of Israel; and the name of his mother was Noomma the Ammanite.

14 And he did the evil, because he did not direct his heart to seek the Lord.

15 And the first and last words of Roboam, are they not, behold, written in the words of Samaias the prophet and of Addo the seer, and his deeds? And Roboam was warring against Ieroboam all the days.

16 And Roboam died and was buried with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David, and Abia his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 13

1 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Ieroboam, Abia reigned over Juda;

2 he reigned three years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Maacha, daughter of Uriel from Gabaon. And there was war between Abia and between Ieroboam.

3 And Abia arrayed the battle with a force of mighty warriors, four hundred thousand mighty men, and Ieroboam arrayed against him the battle with eight hundred thousand, mighty warriors of force.

4 And Abia stood up from Mount Somoron, which is in Mount Ephraim, and said: Hear, Ieroboam and all Israel.

5 Is it not for you to know that the Lord God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel forever to David and to his sons, a covenant of salt?

6 And Ieroboam son of Nabat, the servant of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord.

7 And worthless men, sons of lawlessness, gathered to him and stood against Roboam son of Solomon; and Roboam was younger and cowardly in heart and did not stand before him.

8 And now you say you yourselves are standing against the kingdom of the Lord by the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and with you are golden calves which Ieroboam made for you as gods.

9 Have you not cast out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made yourselves priests from the people of the land? Everyone approaching to fill the hands with a calf from the cattle and seven rams becomes a priest to what is not God.

10 But we have not abandoned the Lord our God, and his priests, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, minister to the Lord in their courses;

11 they make smoke for the Lord: whole burnt offerings morning and evening, and compound incense, and the presentations of bread upon the pure table, and the golden lampstand and the lamps of burning, to kindle in the evening, because we keep the watches of the Lord God of our fathers, and you have abandoned him.

12 And behold, with us at the head is God and his priests and the trumpets of signaling to signal against you. Sons of Israel, you will fight against the Lord God of our fathers, because it will not prosper for you. —

13 And Ieroboam turned the ambush to come from behind them; and it came to be before Juda, and the ambush from behind.

14 And Juda turned, and behold, the battle was before them and from behind, and they shouted to the Lord, and the priests sounded the trumpets.

15 And the men of Juda shouted, and it came to pass while the men of Juda were shouting that the Lord struck Ieroboam and Israel before Abia and Juda.

16 And the sons of Israel fled from before Juda, and the Lord delivered them into their hands.

17 And Abia and his people struck a great blow among them, and wounded men fell from Israel: five hundred thousand mighty men.

18 And the sons of Israel were humbled on that day, and the sons of Juda were strengthened, because they hoped upon the Lord God of their fathers.

19 And Abia pursued after Ieroboam and took cities from him in advance: Baithēl and its villages, and Isana and its villages, and Ephron and its villages.

20 And Ieroboam had no more strength all the days of Abia, and the Lord struck him, and he died.

21 And Abia strengthened himself and took for himself fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

22 And the remaining words of Abia and his deeds and his words are written upon the book of the prophet Addo.

23 And Abia died with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David, and Asa his son reigned in his place. In the days of Asa, the land of Juda was quiet for ten years.

Chapter 14

1 And he did the good and the straight before the Lord his God.

2 And he removed the altars of the foreign ones and the high places, and broke the pillars and cut down the groves

3 and said to Juda to seek the Lord God of their fathers and to do the law and the commandments.

4 And he removed from all the cities of Juda the altars and the idols. And he had peace;

5 walled cities in the land of Juda, because the land had peace; and there was no war for him in these years, because the Lord gave him rest.

6 And he said to Juda, “Let us build these cities and make walls and towers and gates and bars, in which we shall rule over the land, because as we sought the Lord our God, he sought us and gave us rest round about and prospered us.”

7 And there was for Asa a force of arms-bearers carrying shields and spears, in the land of Juda three hundred thousand, and in the land of Benjamin peltasts and archers, two hundred and fifty thousand; all these were warriors of force.

8 And Zare the Ethiopian went out against them with a force, with a thousand thousands and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Marisa.

9 And Asa went out to meet him and arrayed battle in the valley to the north of Marisa.

10 And Asa cried to the Lord his God and said, “Lord, it is not impossible with you to save with many and with few; strengthen us, Lord our God, because on you we have trusted and upon your name we came against this great multitude; Lord our God, let not a man prevail against you.”

11 And the Lord struck the Ethiopians before Juda, and the Ethiopians fled;

12 and Asa and his people pursued them as far as Gedor, and the Ethiopians fell, so that there was no preservation among them, because they were crushed before the Lord and before his force; and they plundered much spoil.

13 And they cut down their villages around Gedor, because a terror of the Lord came upon them, and they plundered all their cities, because much spoil came to them;

14 and indeed tents of possessions, the Amazoneans, they cut down, and took many sheep and camels and returned to Jerusalem.

Chapter 15

1 And Azarias son of Oded, the spirit of the Lord came upon him,

2 and he went out to meet Asa and all Juda and Benjamin and said, “Hear me, Asa and all Juda and Benjamin; the Lord is with you when you are with him, and if you seek him, he will be found for you, and if you abandon him, he will abandon you.

3 And many days for Israel with no true God, and no priest teaching, and with no law;

4 and it will turn to the Lord God of Israel, and he will be found for them.

5 And in that time there is no peace for the one going out and for the one coming in, because a terror of the Lord is upon all who dwell in the lands.

6 And nation will fight against nation and city against city, because God astounded them in every affliction.

7 And you, be strong, and do not let your hands grow slack, because there is a reward for your labor.” –

8 And upon hearing these words and the prophecy of Adad the prophet, he strengthened himself and cast the abominations out from all the land of Juda and Benjamin and from the cities which he had captured in Mount Ephraim, and dedicated the altar of the Lord which was before the temple of the Lord.

9 And he assembled Juda and Benjamin and the proselytes who were resident with him from Ephraim and from Manasse and from Symeon, because many of Israel had been added to him when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

10 And they gathered to Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 And he sacrificed to the Lord on that day from the spoils which they had brought: seven hundred calves and seven thousand sheep.

12 And he passed into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers with all the heart and with all the soul;

13 and everyone who should not seek the Lord God of Israel shall die, from younger to older, from man to woman.

14 And they swore by the Lord with a great voice and with trumpets and with horns.

15 And all Juda rejoiced over the oath, because with all the soul they swore and with every willingness they sought him, and he was found for them, and the Lord gave them rest round about. –

16 And Maacha his mother he removed from serving Astarte, and he cut down the idol and burned it in the torrent of Kedron.

17 Except the high places did not depart; they still existed in Israel; but the heart of Asa became full all his days.

18 And he brought in the holy things of David his father and the holy things of the house of the Lord God: silver and gold and vessels.

19 And there was no war with him until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

Chapter 16

1 And in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of Asa, Baasa king of Israel went up against Juda and built Rama, so as not to give an exit and an entrance to Asa king of Juda.

2 And Asa took gold and silver from the treasures of the house of the Lord and of the king’s house and sent to the son of Ader king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

3 “Make a covenant between me and you and between my father and your father; behold, I have sent you gold and silver; come and scatter Baasa king of Israel away from me, and let him depart from me.”

4 And the son of Ader heard king Asa and sent the rulers of his force against the cities of Israel and struck Ion and Dan and Abelmain and all the surrounding regions of Nephthali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasa heard, he left off building Rama any longer and stopped his work.

6 And Asa the king took all Juda and took the stones of Rama and its timbers, which Baasa had built, and built with them Gabae and Maspha. –

7 And at that time Anani the prophet came to Asa king of Juda and said to him, “Because you have trusted in the king of Syria and have not trusted in the Lord your God, for this reason the force of Syria escaped from your hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and Libyans a great force in courage, in horsemen an exceedingly great multitude? And when you trusted in the Lord, he delivered into your hands.

9 For the eyes of the Lord look upon all the earth, to strengthen with every heart full toward him. You have acted ignorantly in this; from now on there will be war with you.”

10 And Asa became angry with the prophet and placed him in prison, because he was enraged at this; and Asa maltreated among the people at that time.

11 And behold, the words of Asa, the first and the last, are written in the book of the kings of Juda and Israel.

12 And Asa became diseased in his feet in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, until he was exceedingly diseased; and in his disease he did not seek the Lord, but the physicians.

13 And Asa slept with his fathers and died in the thirty-ninth year of his reign,

14 and they buried him in the tomb which he dug for himself in the city of David, and laid him on the bed and filled with spices and kinds of ointments of perfumers and made for him an exceedingly great funeral procession.

Chapter 17

1 And Josaphat his son reigned in his stead, and Josaphat grew strong against Israel.

2 And he placed a force in all the fortified cities of Juda and appointed leaders in all the cities of Juda and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had previously taken.

3 And the Lord was with Josaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father and did not seek the idols,

4 but sought the Lord, the God of his father, and walked in the commandments of his father, and not according to the works of Israel.

5 And the Lord established the kingdom in his hand, and all Juda gave gifts to Josaphat, and he had wealth and much glory.

6 And his heart was exalted in the way of the Lord, and he further removed the high places and the groves from the land of Juda.

7 And in the third year of his reign he sent his leaders and the sons of the mighty, Abdias and Zacharias and Nathanael and Michaias, to teach in the cities of Juda,

8 and with them the Levites Samouias and Nathanias and Zabdias and Asiel and Semiramoth and Jonathan and Adonias and Tobias, the Levites, and with them Elisama and Joram the priests,

9 and they taught in Juda, and with them was a book of the law of the Lord, and they went through the cities of Juda and taught the people.

10 And a terror of the Lord came upon all the kingdoms of the land around Juda, and they did not wage war against Josaphat;

11 and from the foreigners they brought Josaphat gifts and silver and presents, and the Arabs brought him seven thousand seven hundred rams of sheep.

12 And Josaphat went on becoming greater unto a height, and built dwellings in Judea and fortified cities.

13 And he had many works in Judea and mighty warriors, strong in Jerusalem.

14 And this was their number according to the houses of their families: for Juda, commanders of thousands, Ednas the ruler, and with him three hundred thousand mighty sons of force;

15 and after him Joanan the leader, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand;

16 and after him Amasias, the son of Zachri, who was eager for the Lord, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of force.

17 And from Benjamin, a mighty man of force, Eliada, and with him two hundred thousand archers and peltasts;

18 and after him Jozabad, and with him a hundred and eighty thousand mighty men of war.

19 These were those serving the king, besides those whom the king placed in the fortified cities in all Judea.

Chapter 18

1 And Josaphat still had wealth and much glory, and he allied himself by marriage in the house of Achaab.

2 And at the end of years he went down to Achaab in Samaria, and Achaab sacrificed many sheep and calves for him and for the people with him, and deceived him into going up with him to Ramoth of Galaaditis.

3 And Achaab king of Israel said to Josaphat king of Juda, “Will you go with me to Ramoth of Galaaditis?” And he said to him, “As I, so also you; as your people, also my people with you for war.”

4 And Josaphat said to the king of Israel, “Seek the Lord today, then.”

5 And the king of Israel gathered the prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, “Shall I go to Ramoth Galaad for war, or hold back?” And they said, “Go up, and God will give into the hands of the king.”

6 And Josaphat said, “Is there not yet a prophet of the Lord here, and we shall inquire of him?”

7 And the king of Israel said to Josaphat, “There is yet one man through whom to seek the Lord, and I have hated him, because he is not prophesying good concerning me, because all his days are for evil; this is Michaias son of Jemla.” And Josaphat said, “Let not the king speak thus.”

8 And the king of Israel called one eunuch and said, “Quickly, Michaias son of Jemla.”

9 And the king of Israel and Josaphat king of Juda were sitting, each upon his throne, and clothed in robes, sitting in the broad space at the door of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

10 And Sedekias son of Chanana made himself iron horns and said, “Thus says the Lord: With these you will gore Syria until it is brought to an end.”

11 And all the prophets were prophesying thus, saying, “Go up to Ramoth Galaad and you will be prospered, and the Lord will give into the hands of the king.”

12 And the messenger who went to call Michaias spoke to him, saying, “Behold, the prophets have spoken good concerning the king with one mouth, and let your words, then, be as one of theirs, and you shall speak good.”

13 And Michaias said, “The Lord lives, that whatever God should say to me, that I shall speak.”

14 And he came to the king, and the king said to him, “Michaias, shall I go to Ramoth Galaad for war, or hold back?” And he said, “Go up and you will prosper, and they will be given into your hands.”

15 And the king said to him, “How many times do I adjure you that you speak to me only truth in the name of the Lord?”

16 And he said, “I saw Israel scattered in the mountains as sheep that have no shepherd, and the Lord said, ‘They have no leader; let them return, each to his house in peace.’”

17 And the king of Israel said to Josaphat, “Did I not tell you that he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

18 And he said, “Not so; hear a word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting upon his throne, and all the force of heaven stood at his right and at his left.

19 And the Lord said, ‘Who will deceive Achaab king of Israel, and he will go up and fall in Ramoth Galaad?’ And this one spoke thus, and this one spoke thus.

20 And the spirit came out and stood before the Lord and said, ‘I will deceive him.’ And the Lord said, ‘With what?’

21 And he said, ‘I will go out and be a false spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ And he said, ‘You will deceive and will be able; go out and do thus.’

22 And now behold, the Lord has put a false spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the Lord has spoken evil against you.”

23 And Sedekias son of Chanana drew near and struck Michaias on the jaw and said to him, “By what way did the spirit of the Lord pass from me to speak to you?”

24 And Michaias said, “Behold, you will see on that day on which you enter a chamber from a chamber to hide yourself.”

25 And the king of Israel said, “Take Michaias and send him back to Emer ruler of the city and to Joas the ruler, the son of the king,

26 and you shall say, ‘Thus said the king: Put this one in a house of imprisonment, and let him eat bread of affliction and water of affliction until I return in peace.’”

27 And Michaias said, “If returning you return in peace, the Lord has not spoken in me; hear, all peoples.”

28 And the king of Israel and Josaphat king of Juda went up to Ramoth Galaad.

29 And the king of Israel said to Josaphat, “I will cover myself and enter the war, and you put on my clothing”; and the king of Israel covered himself and entered the war.

30 And the king of Syria commanded the rulers of the chariots who were with him, saying, “Do not fight the small and the great, but only the king of Israel.”

31 And it came to pass, when the rulers of the chariots saw Josaphat, they said, “He is the king of Israel,” and surrounded him to fight; and Josaphat cried out, and the Lord saved him, and God turned them away from him.

32 And it came to pass, when the rulers of the chariots saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned away from him.

33 And a man drew a bow with good aim and struck the king of Israel between the lung and the breastplate. And he said to the charioteer, “Turn your hand and take me out of the war, because I have been hurt.”

34 And the battle was turned to flight on that day, and the king of Israel stood upon the chariot until evening opposite Syria and died as the sun was setting.

Chapter 19

1 And Josaphat king of Juda returned to his house in peace, to Jerusalem.

2 And Ju, the son of Anani, the prophet, went out to meet him and said to him, “King Josaphat, do you help a sinner, or befriend one hated by the Lord? For this reason wrath from the Lord came upon you;

3 but good words were found in you, because you removed the groves from the land of Juda and directed your heart to seek the Lord.”

4 And Josaphat dwelt in Jerusalem and again went out to the people from Bersabee as far as Mount Ephraim and turned them to the Lord God of their fathers.

5 And he appointed judges in all the fortified cities of Juda, in city after city,

6 and said to the judges, “See what you are doing, because you judge for the Lord, not for man, and with you are the words of the judgment;

7 and now let the fear of the Lord come upon you, and keep watch and you shall act, because with the Lord our God there is no injustice, nor admiration of a face, nor taking of gifts.”

8 For also in Jerusalem Josaphat appointed from the priests and the Levites and the patriarchs of Israel for the judgment of the Lord and to judge those dwelling in Jerusalem.

9 And he commanded them, saying, “Thus you shall act in the fear of the Lord, in truth and with a full heart;

10 every man, the judgment coming upon you from your brothers dwelling in their cities, between blood and blood and between ordinance and commandment and statutes and judgments, and you shall give them directions, and they will not sin against the Lord, and there will be no wrath upon you and upon your brothers; thus you shall act and will not sin.

11 And behold, Amarias the priest is leader over you for every word of the Lord, and Zabdias son of Ismael, the leader for the house of Juda, for every word of the king, and the scribes and the Levites before your face; be strong and act, and the Lord will be with the good.”

Chapter 20

1 And after these things the sons of Moab and the sons of Ammon, and with them some of the Minaeans, came against Josaphat for war.

2 And they came and informed Josaphat, saying, “A great multitude has come against you from beyond the sea, from Syria, and behold, they are in Asasanthamar [this is Engaddi].”

3 And he was afraid, and Josaphat set his face to seek the Lord and proclaimed a fast in all Juda.

4 And Juda gathered to seek the Lord, and from all the cities of Juda they came to seek the Lord.

5 And Josaphat stood in the assembly of Juda in Jerusalem, in the house of the Lord, before the new court,

6 and said, “Lord God of our fathers, are you not God in heaven, and you rule all the kingdoms of the nations, and in your hand is strength of dominion, and it is not possible to stand against you?

7 Are you not the Lord who destroyed those dwelling in this land from before your people Israel and gave it to the seed of Abraham your beloved forever?

8 And they dwelt in it and built in it a sanctuary for your name, saying,

9 ‘If evils come upon us, sword, judgment, death, famine, we shall stand before this house and before you, because your name is upon this house, and we shall cry to you out of affliction, and you will hear and save.’

10 And now behold, the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, among whom you did not allow Israel to pass through them when they came out of the land of Egypt, because they turned aside from them and did not destroy them,

11 and now behold, they attempt to come out against us, to cast us out of our inheritance which you gave us.

12 Lord our God, will you not judge among them? Because we have no strength to stand against this great multitude that has come against us, and we do not know what we should do to them, but our eyes are upon you.”

13 And all Juda stood before the Lord, and their children and the women. –

14 And for Oziel, the son of Zacharias, of the sons of Banaias, of the sons of Eleel, of Manthanias the Levite, from the sons of Asaph, the spirit of the Lord came upon him in the assembly,

15 and he said, “Hear, all Juda and those dwelling in Jerusalem and king Josaphat; thus says the Lord to you yourselves: Do not fear nor be terrified before this great crowd, because the battle belongs to God, not to you.

16 Tomorrow go down against them; behold, they are coming up by the ascent of Asas, and you will find them at the end of the river of the wilderness of Jeriel.

17 It is not for you to fight; understand these things and see the salvation of the Lord with you, Juda and Jerusalem; do not fear nor be terrified to go out tomorrow to meet them, and the Lord is with you.” –

18 And Josaphat bowed upon his face, and all Juda and those dwelling in Jerusalem fell before the Lord to worship the Lord.

19 And the Levites from the sons of Kaath and from the sons of Kore stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel with a great voice on high.

20 And they rose early in the morning and went out to the wilderness of Thekoe, and as they went out Josaphat stood and cried out and said, “Hear me, Juda and those dwelling in Jerusalem; trust in the Lord your God, and you will be trusted; trust in his prophet, and you will be prospered.”

21 And he took counsel with the people and appointed psalm-singers and those praising to give thanks and praise the holy things as they went out before the force, and they said, “Give thanks to the Lord, because his mercy is forever.”

22 And when his praise of thanksgiving began, the Lord caused the sons of Ammon to fight against Moab and Mount Seir, those who had come out against Juda, and they were routed.

23 And the sons of Ammon and Moab rose against those dwelling on Mount Seir to destroy and wipe out; and when they made an end of those dwelling in Seir, they rose against one another to be destroyed.

24 And Juda came to the lookout of the wilderness and looked and saw the multitude, and behold, all were dead, fallen upon the ground; there was none escaping.

25 And Josaphat and his people came to plunder their spoils and found many cattle and baggage and spoils and desirable vessels, and plundered for themselves, and they spent three days plundering the spoils, because they were many.

26 And on the fourth day they gathered in the valley of blessing, for there they blessed the Lord; for this reason they called the name of that place Valley of Blessing until this day.

27 And every man of Juda returned to Jerusalem, and Josaphat leading them, with great gladness, because the Lord gladdened them on account of their enemies,

28 and they entered Jerusalem with nablas and lyres and trumpets, into the house of the Lord.

29 And a terror of the Lord came upon all the kingdoms of the earth when they heard that the Lord fought against the adversaries of Israel.

30 And the kingdom of Josaphat had peace, and his God gave him rest round about.

31 And Josaphat reigned over Juda, thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem, and his mother’s name was Azouba daughter of Sali.

32 And he walked in the ways of his father Asa and did not turn aside from doing the straight before the Lord;

33 but the high places still existed, and still the people did not direct their heart toward the Lord God of their fathers.

34 And the remaining words of Josaphat, the first and the last, behold, are written in the words of Ju the son of Anani, who wrote down a book of the kings of Israel.

35 And after these things Josaphat king of Juda joined with Ochozias king of Israel [and this one acted lawlessly]

36 in acting and going to him to make ships to go to Tharsis, and he made ships in Gasiongaber.

37 And Eliezer, the son of Dodias, from Marisa, prophesied against Josaphat, saying, “As you befriended Ochozias, the Lord shattered your work, and your ships were broken.” And he was unable to go to Tharsis.

Chapter 21

1 And Josaphat slept with his fathers and was buried beside his fathers in the city of David, and Joram his son reigned in his stead.

2 And he had six brothers, sons of Josaphat: Azarias and Jiel and Zacharias and Azarias and Michael and Saphatias; all these were sons of Josaphat king of Juda.

3 And their father gave them many gifts, silver and gold and arms, with walled cities in Juda; and he gave the kingdom to Joram, because this one was the firstborn.

4 And Joram rose over his kingdom and became strong and killed all his brothers with a sword, and some of the rulers of Israel.

5 When he was thirty-two years old, Joram was established over his kingdom, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Achaab did, because a daughter of Achaab was his wife, and he did the evil before the Lord.

7 And the Lord was unwilling to destroy the house of David because of the covenant which he made with David, and as he told him to give a lamp to him and to his sons all the days.

8 In those days Edom revolted from Juda, and they made a king reign over themselves.

9 And Joram went with the rulers, and all the cavalry with him; and it came to pass, he rose by night and struck Edom who surrounded him and the rulers of the chariots, and the people fled to their dwellings.

10 And Edom revolted from Juda until this day; then Lomna revolted at that time from his hand, because he abandoned the Lord God of his fathers.

11 For he also made high places in the cities of Juda and caused those dwelling in Jerusalem to commit fornication and led Juda astray.

12 And a writing came to him from Elias the prophet, saying, “Thus says the Lord, the God of David your father: Because you did not walk in the way of Josaphat your father and in the ways of Asa king of Juda,

13 and walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and caused Juda and those dwelling in Jerusalem to commit fornication, as the house of Achaab caused fornication, and killed your brothers, the sons of your father, who were better than you,

14 behold, the Lord will strike you with a great blow among your people and among your sons and among your wives and among all your baggage,

15 and you with an evil disease, with a disease of the belly, until your bowels come out with the disease from days to days.”

16 And the Lord stirred up against Joram the foreigners and the Arabs and the neighbors of the Ethiopians,

17 and they went up against Juda and oppressed and carried away all the baggage which they found in the king’s house, and his sons and his daughters, and no son was left to him except Ochozias, the youngest of his sons.

18 And after all these things the Lord struck him in the belly with a disease in which there is no healing;

19 and it came to pass from days to days, and when the time of the days came, two days, his bowels came out with the disease, and he died with an evil disease. And his people did not make a funeral procession as the funeral procession of his fathers.

20 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem; and he went away without praise and was buried in the city of David and not in the tombs of the kings.

Chapter 22

1 And those dwelling in Jerusalem made Ochozias his young son reign in his stead, because the band of robbers that came upon them, the Arabs and the Alimazoneans, killed all the older ones; and Ochozias son of Joram king of Juda reigned.

2 Ochozias became king when he was twenty years old, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem, and his mother’s name was Gotholia daughter of Ambri.

3 And this one walked in the way of the house of Achaab, because his mother was a counselor to sin;

4 and he did the evil before the Lord as the house of Achaab, because after his father died they were counselors to him to destroy him,

5 and he walked in their counsels. And he went with Joram son of Achaab for war against Azael king of Syria to Rama Galaad; and the archers struck Joram.

6 And Joram returned to Jezrael to be healed from the wounds with which the Syrians struck him in Rama when he fought against Azael king of Syria; and Ochozias son of Joram king of Juda went down to see Joram son of Achaab in Jezrael, because he was ill.

7 And from God came the downfall of Ochozias in coming to Joram; and when he came, Joram went out with him to Ju son of Namessi, the Lord’s anointed, the house of Achaab.

8 And it came to pass, when Ju avenged the house of Achaab, he found the rulers of Juda and the brothers of Ochozias serving Ochozias and killed them.

9 And he said to seek Ochozias, and they caught him being treated in Samaria and brought him to Ju, and he killed him. And they buried him, because they said, “He is a son of Josaphat, who sought the Lord with all his heart.” And there was none in the house of Ochozias to strengthen a force concerning the kingdom.

10 And Gotholia the mother of Ochozias saw that her son had died, and rose and destroyed all the seed of the kingdom in the house of Juda.

11 And Josabeth the king’s daughter took Joas son of Ochozias and stole him from among the king’s sons who were being put to death and placed him and his nurse in the chamber of the beds; and Josabeth, daughter of king Joram, sister of Ochozias, wife of Jodae the priest, hid him and hid him from the face of Gotholia, and she did not kill him.

12 And he was with her in the house of God, hidden for six years, and Gotholia reigned over the land.

Chapter 23

1 And in the seventh year Jodae strengthened himself and took the commanders of hundreds, Azarias son of Joram and Ismael son of Joanan and Azarias son of Obed and Maasaias son of Adaias and Elisaphan son of Zacharias, with him into a house.

2 And they went around Juda and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Juda and rulers of the families of Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the assembly of Juda made a covenant in the house of God with the king, and he showed them the king’s son and said to them, “Behold, let the king’s son reign, as the Lord spoke concerning the house of David.

4 Now this is the matter which you shall do: let a third of you, of the priests and the Levites, enter on the sabbath, and into the gates of the entrances,

5 and a third in the king’s house, and a third in the middle gate, and all the people in the courts of the house of the Lord.

6 And let none enter the house of the Lord except the priests and the Levites and those serving of the Levites; they shall enter, because they are holy, and let all the people keep the watches of the Lord.

7 And the Levites shall surround the king round about, a man’s weapon in his hand, and the one entering the house shall die; and they shall be with the king as he enters and goes out.”

8 And the Levites and all Juda did according to all that Jodae the priest commanded, and each took his men from the beginning of the sabbath until the departure of the sabbath, because Jodae did not dismiss the divisions.

9 And he gave the swords and the shields and the arms which belonged to king David in the house of God.

10 And he stationed all the people, each with his arms, from the right flank of the house as far as the left flank of the altar and the house, around the king.

11 And he brought out the king’s son and put upon him the crown and the testimonies, and Jodae and his sons made him king and anointed him and said, “Let the king live.”

12 And Gotholia heard the voice of the people running and giving thanks and praising the king, and entered to the king in the house of the Lord.

13 And she saw, and behold, the king at his station, and at the entrance the rulers and the trumpets around the king, and all the people rejoiced and sounded the trumpets, and the singers with the instruments, singing and hymning praise; and Gotholia tore her robe and cried out and said, “Attacking, you attack.”

14 And Jodae the priest went out, and Jodae the priest commanded the commanders of hundreds and the leaders of the force and said to them, “Cast her outside the house and go in behind her, and let her die by a sword”; because the priest said, “Let her not die in the house of the Lord.”

15 And they gave her room, and she went through the gate of the horsemen of the king’s house, and they put her to death there. –

16 And Jodae made a covenant between himself and the people and the king, to be a people for the Lord.

17 And all the people of the land entered the house of Baal and tore it down, and pulverized his altars and idols, and put Matthan the priest of Baal to death before his altars.

18 And Jodae the priest entrusted the works of the house of the Lord through the hand of priests and Levites and established the divisions of the priests and the Levites which David appointed over the house of the Lord, and to offer whole burnt offerings to the Lord, as it is written in the law of Moses, with gladness and with songs through the hand of David.

19 And the gatekeepers stood at the gates of the house of the Lord, and none unclean in any matter shall enter.

20 And he took the patriarchs and the mighty men and the rulers of the people and all the people of the land, and they brought the king up into the house of the Lord, and he entered through the inner gate into the king’s house, and they seated the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet; and they put Gotholia to death with a sword.

Chapter 24

1 Joas was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem, and his mother’s name was Sabia from Bersabee.

2 And Joas did the straight before the Lord all the days of Jodae the priest.

3 And Jodae took two wives for him, and he begot sons and daughters.

4 And it came to pass after these things, and it came upon the heart of Joas to repair the house of the Lord.

5 And he gathered the priests and the Levites and said to them, “Go out to the cities of Juda and gather silver from all Israel to strengthen the house of the Lord year by year, and hasten to speak”; and the Levites did not hasten.

6 And king Joas called Jodae the ruler and said to him, “Why did you not attend to the Levites to bring in from Juda and Jerusalem what was determined by Moses the man of God, when he assembled Israel for the tent of testimony?

7 For Gotholia was the lawless one, and her sons tore down the house of God, for they also used the holy things of the house of the Lord for the Baalim.”

8 And the king said, “Let a chest be made and let it be placed outside at the gate of the house of the Lord;

9 and let them proclaim in Juda and in Jerusalem to bring in for the Lord, as Moses the servant of God said concerning Israel in the wilderness.”

10 And all the rulers and all the people gave, and brought in and cast into the chest until it was filled.

11 And it came to pass, as they brought the chest to the king’s overseers through the hand of the Levites, and as they saw that the silver had increased, the king’s scribe and the overseer of the great priest came and emptied the chest and set it in its place; thus they did day by day and gathered much silver.

12 And the king and Jodae the priest gave it to those doing the works for the work of the house of the Lord, and they hired stonecutters and carpenters to repair the house of the Lord, and smiths of iron and bronze to repair the house of the Lord.

13 And those doing the works worked, and the extent of the works increased in their hands, and they restored the house of the Lord to its standing and strengthened it.

14 And when they finished, they brought the remainder of the silver to the king and to Jodae, and made vessels for the house of the Lord, vessels for the service of whole burnt offerings and gold and silver censers. And they offered whole burnt offerings in the house of the Lord continually, all the days of Jodae.

15 And Jodae grew old, full of days, and died, being a hundred and thirty years old when he died;

16 and they buried him in the city of David with the kings, because he did goodness with Israel and with God and his house.

17 And it came to pass after the death of Jodae, the rulers of Juda entered and bowed down to the king; then the king listened to them.

18 And they abandoned the Lord God of their fathers and served the Astartes and the idols; and wrath came upon Juda and upon Jerusalem on this day.

19 And he sent prophets to them to turn to the Lord, and they did not hear; and they testified to them, and they did not hear.

20 And the spirit of God clothed Azarias, the son of Jodae, the priest, and he stood above the people and said, “Thus says the Lord: Why do you pass by the commandments of the Lord? And you will not be prospered, because you abandoned the Lord, and he will abandon you.”

21 And they attacked him and stoned him by the command of Joas the king in the court of the house of the Lord.

22 And Joas did not remember the mercy which Jodae his father did with him, and put his son to death. And as he was dying, he said, “May the Lord see, and let him judge.”

23 And it came to pass after the completion of the year, a force of Syria went up against him and came against Juda and against Jerusalem and destroyed all the rulers of the people among the people, and they sent all their spoils to the king of Damascus.

24 For the force of Syria came with few men, and God delivered an exceedingly great force into their hands, because they abandoned the Lord God of their fathers; and he executed judgments with Joas.

25 And after they departed from him, leaving him with great diseases, his servants attacked him for the blood of the son of Jodae the priest and put him to death on his bed, and he died; and they buried him in the city of David, and did not bury him in the tomb of the kings.

26 And those who attacked him were Zabed, the son of Samath, the Ammanite, and Jozabed, the son of Somaroth, the Moabite,

27 and all his sons, and the five approached him. And the remaining things, behold, are written in the writing of the kings; and Amasias his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 25

1 Amasias became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem, and his mother’s name was Joaden from Jerusalem.

2 And he did the straight before the Lord, but not with a full heart.

3 And it came to pass, when the kingdom was established in his hand, he put to death his servants who murdered the king his father;

4 and he did not kill their sons, according to the covenant of the law of the Lord, as it is written, as the Lord commanded, saying, “Fathers shall not die for children, and sons shall not die for fathers, but each for his own sin they shall die.” –

5 And Amasias gathered the house of Juda and stationed them according to the houses of their families under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds in all Juda and Jerusalem; and he numbered them from twenty years old and upward and found them three hundred thousand, able to go out to war, holding spear and shield.

6 And he hired from Israel a hundred thousand mighty in strength for a hundred talents of silver.

7 And a man of God came to him, saying, “King, the force of Israel shall not go with you, because the Lord is not with Israel, all the sons of Ephraim;

8 for if you suppose that you will be strong with these, the Lord will also rout you before the enemies, because both being strong and being routed are from the Lord.”

9 And Amasias said to the man of God, “And what shall I do about the hundred talents which I gave to the force of Israel?” And the man of God said, “The Lord is able to give you much more than these.”

10 And Amasias set apart the force which had come to him from Ephraim to depart to their place, and they became exceedingly angry against Juda and returned to their place in furious wrath.

11 And Amasias strengthened himself and took his people and went to the valley of salts and struck there ten thousand of the sons of Seir;

12 and the sons of Juda captured ten thousand alive and brought them to the top of the cliff and threw them down from the top of the cliff, and all were torn apart.

13 And the sons of the force whom Amasias sent back so as not to go with him to war attacked the cities of Juda from Samaria as far as Baethoron and struck three thousand among them and plundered much spoil. –

14 And it came to pass, after Amasias came, having struck Idumea, he brought to them the gods of the sons of Seir and set them up for himself as gods, and bowed down before them, and he himself sacrificed to them.

15 And the wrath of the Lord came upon Amasias, and he sent prophets to him, and they said to him, “Why did you seek the gods of the people, who did not rescue their people from your hand?”

16 And it came to pass, as he spoke to him, he said to him, “Have I made you a counselor of the king? Take care that you are not scourged.” And the prophet fell silent. And he said, “I know that he wished concerning you to destroy you, because you did this and did not listen to my counsel.” –

17 And Amasias took counsel and sent to Joas son of Joachaz son of Ju, king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us be seen face to face.”

18 And Joas king of Israel sent to Amasias king of Juda, saying, “The achouch in Lebanon sent to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son as a wife.’ And behold, the wild beasts of the field in Lebanon will come; and the wild beasts came and trampled the achouch.

19 You said, ‘Behold, you struck Idumea,’ and the heavy heart lifts you up; now sit in your house, and why do you engage in evil, and you and Juda with you fall?”

20 And Amasias did not hear, because it came from the Lord to deliver him into hands, because he sought the gods of the Idumeans.

21 And Joas king of Israel went up, and he and Amasias king of Juda were seen by one another in Baethsamys, which belongs to Juda.

22 And Juda was routed before Israel, and each fled to the dwelling.

23 And Joas king of Israel caught Amasias king of Juda, the son of Joas, in Baethsamys and brought him into Jerusalem and tore down four hundred cubits of the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim as far as the corner gate;

24 and all the gold and the silver and all the vessels found in the house of the Lord and with Abdedom, and the treasures of the king’s house, and the sons of the interminglings, and he returned to Samaria. –

25 And Amasias, the son of Joas, king of Juda, lived fifteen years after the death of Joas, the son of Joachaz, king of Israel.

26 And the remaining words of Amasias, the first and the last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Juda and Israel?

27 And at the time when Amasias departed from the Lord, they attacked him with an attack, and he fled from Jerusalem to Lachis; and they sent after him to Lachis and put him to death there.

28 And they took him up upon the horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of David.

Chapter 26

1 And all the people of the land took Ozias, and he was sixteen years old, and they made him king in the stead of his father Amasias.

2 He built Ailath; he restored it to Juda after the king slept with his fathers.

3 Ozias became king as a son of sixteen years, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem, and his mother’s name was Chalia from Jerusalem.

4 And he did the straight before the Lord according to all that Amasias his father did.

5 And he was seeking the Lord in the days of Zacharias, who understood in the fear of the Lord; and in his days he sought the Lord, and the Lord prospered him.

6 And he went out and fought against the foreigners and tore down the walls of Geth and the walls of Jabne and the walls of Azotus, and built cities of Azotus and among the foreigners.

7 And the Lord strengthened him against the foreigners and against the Arabs dwelling upon the rock and against the Minaeans.

8 And the Minaeans gave gifts to Ozias, and his name reached as far as the entrance of Egypt, because he grew strong to a height.

9 And Ozias built towers in Jerusalem and at the corner gate and at the gate of the valley and upon the corners, and strengthened them.

10 And he built towers in the wilderness and hewed out many pits, because he had many cattle in Sephela and in the plain, and vine-growers in the hill country and in Carmel, because he was a lover of agriculture.

11 And Ozias had forces making war and going out to battle by number, and their number was through the hand of Jiel the scribe and Maasaias the judge, through the hand of Ananias the king’s deputy.

12 The whole number of the patriarchs, the mighty men for war, was two thousand six hundred,

13 and with them a warlike force, three hundred thousand and seven thousand five hundred; these were those making war with mighty strength to help the king against the adversaries.

14 And Ozias prepared for them, for all the force, shields and spears and helmets and breastplates and bows and slings for stones.

15 And in Jerusalem he made machines devised by a designer to be upon the towers and upon the corners, to shoot missiles and great stones; and their construction was heard of far away, because he was made marvelous in being helped, until he grew strong.

16 And when he grew strong, his heart was lifted up to destruction, and he did injustice against the Lord his God and entered the temple of the Lord to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azarias the priest entered after him, and with him eighty priests of the Lord, mighty sons,

18 and they stood against Ozias the king and said to him, “It is not for you, Ozias, to burn incense to the Lord, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who have been sanctified to burn incense; go out of the sanctuary, because you departed from the Lord, and this will not be for you unto glory from the Lord God.”

19 And Ozias became angry, and in his hand was the censer to burn incense in the temple, and when he became angry with the priests, leprosy sprang up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the Lord, above the altar of incense.

20 And the first priest and the priests turned toward him, and behold, he was leprous in the forehead; and they hurried him from there, for he himself also hastened to go out, because the Lord reproved him.

21 And Ozias the king was leprous until the day of his death, and sat leprous in a house of affousoth, because he was cut off from the house of the Lord; and Joatham his son was over his kingdom, judging the people of the land.

22 And the remaining words of Ozias, the first and the last, are written by Jessias the prophet.

23 And Ozias slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial of the kings, because they said, “He is leprous”; and Joatham his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 27

1 Joatham was a son of twenty-five years when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and his mother’s name was Jerousa daughter of Sadok.

2 And he did the straight before the Lord according to all that Ozias his father did, but he did not enter the temple of the Lord, and still the people were being corrupted.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the Lord and built much in the wall of Ophla;

4 and he built cities in the mountain of Juda, and in the forests both dwellings and towers.

5 He fought against the king of the sons of Ammon and prevailed against him; and the sons of Ammon gave him each year a hundred talents of silver and ten thousand kors of wheat and ten thousand of barley; these the king of Ammon brought him each year, in the first year and the second and the third.

6 And Joatham grew strong, because he prepared his ways before the Lord his God.

7 And the remaining words of Joatham and the war and his deeds, behold, are written in the book of the kings of Juda and Israel.

9 And Joatham slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David, and Achaz his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 28

1 Achaz was a son of twenty years when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do the straight before the Lord as David his father.

2 And he walked according to the ways of the kings of Israel; for he also made carved things for their idols

3 and sacrificed in Gaibenenom and led his children through fire according to the abominations of the nations which the Lord destroyed from before the sons of Israel,

4 and burned incense upon the high places and upon the roofs and underneath every leafy tree.

5 And the Lord his God delivered him through the hand of the king of Syria, and he struck among him and took a great captivity from them and brought to Damascus; for he also delivered him into the hands of the king of Israel, and he struck among him a great blow.

6 And Phakee, the son of Romelias, king of Israel, killed in Juda in one day a hundred and twenty thousand men mighty in strength, because they abandoned the Lord God of their fathers.

7 And Ezekri, the mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maasaias the king’s son and Esdrikam leader of his house and Elkana the king’s deputy.

8 And the sons of Israel took captive from their brothers three hundred thousand, women, sons and daughters, and plundered much spoil from them and brought the spoils to Samaria. –

9 And there was the prophet of the Lord, Oded his name, and he went out to meet the force of those coming to Samaria and said to them, “Behold, the wrath of the Lord God of your fathers is upon Juda, and he delivered them into your hands, and you killed among them in wrath; it has reached the heavens.

10 And now you say that you will acquire the sons of Juda and Jerusalem as male and female slaves; behold, am I not with you to testify to the Lord your God?

11 And now hear me and send back the captivity which you took captive from your brothers, because the furious wrath of the Lord is upon you.”

12 And rulers from the sons of Ephraim, Oudias the son of Joanos and Barachias the son of Mosolamoth and Ezekias the son of Sellem and Amasias the son of Chodli, rose against those coming from the war

13 and said to them, “You shall certainly not bring the captivity here to us, because you say that we should sin against the Lord, to add to our sins and to the ignorance, because our sin is great, and the furious wrath of the Lord is upon Israel.”

14 And the warriors left the captivity and the spoils before the rulers and all the assembly.

15 And men who were called by name rose and took hold of the captivity and clothed all the naked from the spoils, and dressed them and shod them and gave them to eat and to anoint themselves, and helped every weak one upon beasts of burden and brought them to Jericho, the city of palms, to their brothers, and returned to Samaria.

16 At that time Achaz sent to the king of Assour to help him,

17 also in this, because Idumeans attacked and struck in Juda and took a captivity captive,

18 and the foreigners attacked the cities of the plain and on the southwest of Juda, and took Baethsamys and Ailon and Gaderoth and Socho and its villages and Thamna and its villages and Gamzo and its villages, and dwelt there.

19 For the Lord humbled Juda through Achaz king of Juda, because he departed in revolt from the Lord.

20 And Thaglathphellasar king of Assour came against him and struck him.

21 And Achaz took the things in the house of the Lord and the things in the house of the king and of the rulers and gave to the king of Assour, and not for help to him.

22 But in his being afflicted he further departed from the Lord, and the king said,

23 “I will seek the gods of Damascus who strike me”; and he said, “Because they are the gods of the king of Syria, they will strengthen them; therefore I will sacrifice to them, and they will help me.” And they became a stumbling block to him and to all Israel.

24 And Achaz removed the vessels of the house of the Lord and cut them up and closed the doors of the house of the Lord and made himself altars in every corner in Jerusalem;

25 and in every city after city in Juda he made high places to burn incense to foreign gods, and they provoked the Lord, the God of their fathers, to anger.

26 And his remaining words and his deeds, the first and the last, behold, are written in the book of the kings of Juda and Israel.

27 And Achaz slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David, because they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel; and Ezekias his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 29

1 And Ezekias became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem, and his mother’s name was Abba daughter of Zacharias.

2 And he did the straight before the Lord according to all that David his father did.

3 And it came to pass, when he stood over his kingdom, in the first month he opened the doors of the house of the Lord and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites and stationed them on the side toward the east,

5 and said to them, “Hear, Levites; now purify yourselves and purify the house of the Lord God of your fathers and cast the uncleanness out of the holy things;

6 for our fathers departed and did the evil before the Lord and abandoned him and turned their face away from the tent of the Lord and gave the neck,

7 and closed the doors of the temple and extinguished the lamps and did not burn incense and did not bring whole burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

8 And the Lord was angry with wrath against Juda and against Jerusalem and gave them up to terror and disappearance and hissing, as you see with your eyes.

9 And behold, your fathers have been struck with a sword, and your sons and your daughters and your wives are in captivity in a land not their own, which is so even now.

10 On account of these things it is now upon the heart to make a covenant of the Lord God of Israel, and he will turn his furious wrath away from us.

11 And now do not leave off, because the Lord has chosen among you to stand before him to minister and to be those ministering to him and burning incense.” –

12 And the Levites rose: Maath the son of Amasi and Joel the son of Azarias from the sons of Kaath, and from the sons of Merari, Kis the son of Abdi and Azarias the son of Jallelel, and from the sons of Gedsoni, Joa the son of Zemmath and Jodan the son of Joacha,

13 and of the sons of Elisaphan, Sambri and Jiel, and of the sons of Asaph, Zacharias and Maththanias,

14 and of the sons of Aiman, Jiel and Semei, and of the sons of Idithon, Samaias and Oziel,

15 and they gathered their brothers and purified themselves according to the king’s command, through an ordinance of the Lord, to cleanse the house of the Lord.

16 And the priests entered within the house of the Lord to purify and cast out all the uncleanness found in the house of the Lord into the court of the house of the Lord, and the Levites received it to cast out into the torrent of Kedron outside.

17 And they began to purify on the first day, the new moon of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they entered the temple of the Lord and purified the house of the Lord in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

18 And they entered within to Ezekias the king and said, “We purified all the things in the house of the Lord, the altar of the whole burnt offering and its vessels, and the table of the setting forth and its vessels;

19 and all the vessels which king Achaz defiled in his reign, in his revolt, we have prepared and purified; behold, they are before the altar of the Lord.” –

20 And Ezekias the king rose early and gathered the rulers of the city and went up to the house of the Lord,

21 and brought up seven calves, seven rams, seven lambs, seven male goats of the goats for sin, for the kingdom and for the holy things and for Israel, and told the sons of Aaron, the priests, to go up upon the altar of the Lord.

22 And they slaughtered the calves, and the priests received the blood and poured it upon the altar; and they slaughtered the rams and poured the blood upon the altar; and they slaughtered the lambs and poured the blood around the altar;

23 and they brought the male goats for sin before the king and the assembly, and laid their hands upon them,

24 and the priests slaughtered them and made atonement with their blood toward the altar, and made atonement for all Israel, because the whole burnt offering and the things for sin were for all Israel, the king said.

25 And he stationed the Levites in the house of the Lord with cymbals and nablas and lyres according to the command of David the king and Gad the seer for the king and Nathan the prophet, because through the command of the Lord was the ordinance in the hand of the prophets;

26 and the Levites stood with David’s instruments and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Ezekias said to offer the whole burnt offering upon the altar; and when they began to offer the whole burnt offering, they began to sing to the Lord, and the trumpets with the instruments of David king of Israel.

28 And all the assembly bowed down, and the psalm-singers were singing, and the trumpets sounding, until the whole burnt offering was completed.

29 And when they finished offering, the king and all those present bent down and worshiped.

30 And Ezekias the king and the rulers told the Levites to hymn the Lord in the words of David and Asaph the prophet; and they hymned with gladness and fell down and worshiped.

31 And Ezekias answered and said, “Now you filled your hands for the Lord; bring near and bring sacrifices and offerings of praise into the house of the Lord”; and the assembly brought up sacrifices and offerings of praise into the house of the Lord, and everyone eager in heart, whole burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the whole burnt offering which the assembly brought up was seventy calves, a hundred rams, two hundred lambs; all these for a whole burnt offering to the Lord.

33 And the sanctified ones were six hundred calves, three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were few and could not skin the whole burnt offering, and their brothers the Levites helped them until the work was completed and until the priests were purified, because the Levites purified themselves more eagerly than the priests.

35 And the whole burnt offering was great, with the fats of the completion of the salvation offering and the libations of the whole burnt offering; and the work in the house of the Lord was set right.

36 And Ezekias and all the people rejoiced because God had prepared for the people, because the matter came to pass suddenly.

Chapter 30

1 And Ezekias sent to all Israel and Juda and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasse to come to the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover for the Lord God of Israel;

2 and the king and the rulers and all the assembly in Jerusalem took counsel to keep the Passover in the second month;

3 for they could not keep it at that time, because sufficient priests had not purified themselves, and the people had not gathered to Jerusalem.

4 And the matter was pleasing before the king and before the assembly.

5 And they established a word for a proclamation to go through all Israel from Bersabee as far as Dan, to come and keep the Passover for the Lord God of Israel in Jerusalem, because a multitude had not kept it according to the writing.

6 And the runners went with the letters from the king and the rulers to all Israel and Juda according to the king’s ordinance, saying, “Sons of Israel, turn to the God of Abraham and Isaac and Israel, and he will turn back those who escaped, who were left from the hand of the king of Assour;

7 and do not become as your fathers and your brothers, who departed from the Lord God of their fathers, and he delivered them to desolation, as you see.

8 And now do not harden your necks; give glory to the Lord God and enter his sanctuary which he sanctified forever, and serve the Lord your God, and he will turn furious wrath away from you.

9 For when you turn to the Lord, your brothers and your children will be in compassion before all who took them captive, and he will bring back to this land; because the Lord our God is merciful and compassionate and will not turn his face away from us if we turn to him.”

10 And the runners were passing from city to city in the mountain of Ephraim and Manasse and as far as Zaboulon, and they became as those laughing at them and mocking;

11 but men of Aser and from Manasse and from Zaboulon were ashamed and came to Jerusalem.

12 And in Juda the hand of the Lord came to give them one heart to come to act according to the ordinance of the king and the rulers, by a word of the Lord,

13 and many people gathered to Jerusalem to keep the feast of the unleavened things in the second month, an exceedingly great assembly.

14 And they rose and took down the altars in Jerusalem; and all the things upon which they burned incense to the false ones they tore down and cast into the torrent of Kedron.

15 And they slaughtered the Passover on the fourteenth of the second month; and the priests and the Levites were ashamed and purified themselves and brought whole burnt offerings into the house of the Lord.

16 And they stood at their station according to their rule, according to the command of Moses the man of God, and the priests received the blood from the hand of the Levites.

17 For a multitude of the assembly had not purified themselves, and the Levites were to slaughter the Passover for everyone unable to be purified for the Lord.

18 For most of the people from Ephraim and Manasse and Issachar and Zaboulon had not purified themselves, but ate the Passover contrary to the writing. And Ezekias prayed concerning them, saying, “Let the good Lord make atonement for 19 every heart directing itself to seek the Lord, the God of their fathers, and not according to the purification of the holy things.”

20 And the Lord listened to Ezekias and healed the people.

21 And the sons of Israel who were present in Jerusalem kept the feast of the unleavened things seven days with great gladness, and hymning the Lord day by day, and the priests and the Levites with instruments for the Lord.

22 And Ezekias spoke to all the heart of the Levites and of those understanding good understanding for the Lord; and they completed the feast of the unleavened things seven days, sacrificing sacrifices of salvation and giving thanks to the Lord God of their fathers.

23 And the assembly took counsel together to keep another seven days; and they kept seven days with gladness.

24 For Ezekias contributed for Juda, for the assembly, a thousand calves and seven thousand sheep, and the rulers contributed for the people a thousand calves and ten thousand sheep, and the holy things of the priests were in abundance.

25 And all the assembly rejoiced, the priests and the Levites and all the assembly of Juda and those present from Israel and the proselytes who came from the land of Israel and those dwelling in Juda.

26 And there was great gladness in Jerusalem; from the days of Solomon son of David king of Israel there had not been such a feast in Jerusalem.

27 And the priests, the Levites, rose and blessed the people; and their voice was heard, and their prayer came into his holy dwelling, into heaven.

Chapter 31

1 And when all these things were completed, all Israel, those present in the cities of Juda, went out and broke the pillars and cut down the groves and tore down the high places and the altars from all Judea and Benjamin and from Ephraim and from Manasse to the end, and all Israel returned, each to his inheritance and to their cities.

2 And Ezekias arranged the divisions of the priests and the Levites and the divisions of each according to his own service, for the priests and the Levites for the whole burnt offering and for the sacrifice of salvation, and to praise and give thanks and minister in the gates, in the courts of the house of the Lord.

3 And the king’s portion from his possessions was for the whole burnt offerings, the morning and the evening, and whole burnt offerings for sabbaths and for the new moons and for the feasts written in the law of the Lord.

4 And he told the people, those dwelling in Jerusalem, to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, so that they might be strong in the service of the house of the Lord.

5 And when he commanded the word, the sons of Israel increased the firstfruits of grain and wine and oil and honey and every produce of the field, and all the tithes in abundance were brought by

6 the sons of Israel and Juda. And those dwelling in the cities of Juda also brought tithes of calves and sheep and tithes of goats and sanctified them to the Lord their God and brought them in and placed heaps upon heaps;

7 in the third month the heaps began to be founded, and in the seventh month they were completed.

8 And Ezekias and the rulers came and saw the heaps and blessed the Lord and his people Israel.

9 And Ezekias inquired of the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps,

10 and Azarias the priest, the ruler for the house of Sadok, spoke to him and said, “Since the firstfruits began to be brought into the house of the Lord, we ate and drank and left over; because the Lord blessed his people, and we still left over this abundance.”

11 And Ezekias said to prepare chambers for the house of the Lord, and they prepared them.

12 And they brought in there the firstfruits and the tithes in faithfulness, and over them was Chonenias the Levite as overseer, and Semei his brother as deputy,

13 and Jiel and Ozazias and Naeth and Asael and Jerimoth and Jozabath and Eliel and Samachia and Maath and Banaias and his sons were appointed through Chonenias and Semei his brother, as king Ezekias and Azarias the leader of the house of the Lord commanded.

14 And Kore, the son of Jemna, the Levite, the gatekeeper toward the east, was over the gifts, to give the firstfruits to the Lord and the holy things of the holy things

15 through the hand of Odom and Benjamin and Jesus and Semei and Amarias and Sechonias, through the hand of the priests in faithfulness, to give to their brothers according to the divisions, to the great and the small,

16 besides the offspring of the males from three years old and upward, to everyone entering the house of the Lord for the account of days, day by day, for service in the divisions of their arrangement.

17 This was the enrollment of the priests according to the houses of families, and the Levites in their divisions from twenty years old and upward, in arrangement,

18 in enrollments, in all the offspring of their sons and their daughters, for all the multitude, because in faithfulness they purified the holy thing

19 for the sons of Aaron who served as priests, and those from their cities, in every city after city, men who were named by name, to give a portion to every male among the priests and to everyone counted among the Levites.

20 And Ezekias did thus in all Juda and did the good and the straight before the Lord his God.

21 And in every work which he began in labor in the house of the Lord, and in the law and in the ordinances, he sought his God with all his soul and acted and was prospered.

Chapter 32

1 And after these words and this truth, Sennacherim king of the Assyrians came and came against Juda and encamped against the walled cities and said to seize them.

2 And Ezekias saw that Sennacherim had come, and his face was to fight against Jerusalem,

3 and took counsel with his elders and the mighty men to stop up the waters of the springs which were outside the city, and they helped strengthen him.

4 And he gathered many people and stopped up the waters of the springs and the river that divides through the city, saying, “Let not the king of Assour come and find much water and grow strong.”

5 And Ezekias strengthened himself and built all the wall that had been demolished, and towers, and outside another outer wall, and strengthened the supporting wall of the city of David and prepared many arms.

6 And he placed rulers of war over the people, and they gathered to him in the broad place of the gate of the valley, and he spoke to their heart, saying,

7 “Be strong and act as men; do not be terrified before the king of Assour and before all the nation with him, because more are with us than with him;

8 with him are arms of flesh, but with us is the Lord our God, to save and to fight our war.” And the people took courage at the words of Ezekias king of Juda. –

9 And after these things Sennacherim king of the Assyrians sent his servants to Jerusalem, and he was at Lachis and all the army with him, and he sent to Ezekias king of Juda and to all Juda in Jerusalem, saying,

10 “Thus says Sennacherim the king of the Assyrians: In what have you trusted and sit in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Does not Ezekias deceive you to deliver you to death and to famine and to thirst, saying, ‘The Lord our God will save us from the hand of the king of Assour’?

12 Is this not Ezekias who removed his altars and his high places and spoke to Juda and those dwelling in Jerusalem, saying, ‘Before this altar you shall worship, and upon it you shall burn incense.’

13 Will you not know what I and my fathers did to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of all the earth at all able to save their people from my hand?

14 Who among all the gods of these nations which my fathers destroyed? Were they able to save their people from my hand, that your God will be able to save you from my hand?

15 Now let not Ezekias deceive you nor make you trust according to these things, and do not believe him; because the god of any nation and kingdom can certainly not save his people from my hand and from the hand of my fathers, because your God will certainly not save you from my hand.”

16 And his servants spoke further against the Lord God and against Ezekias his servant.

17 And he wrote a book to reproach the Lord God of Israel and spoke concerning him, saying, “As the gods of the nations of the earth did not rescue their peoples from my hand, so the God of Ezekias will certainly not rescue his people from my hand.”

18 And he cried with a great voice in the Judean tongue to the people of Jerusalem upon the wall, to frighten them and pull them down, so that they might seize the city.

19 And he spoke against the God of Jerusalem as also against the gods of the peoples of the earth, works of the hands of men. –

20 And Ezekias the king and Esaias son of Amos the prophet prayed concerning these things and cried to heaven.

21 And the Lord sent an angel and wiped out every mighty warrior and ruler and general in the camp of the king of Assour, and he returned with shame of face to his land. And he came into the house of his god, and some of those who came out of his belly struck him down with a sword.

22 And the Lord saved Ezekias and those dwelling in Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherim king of Assour and from the hand of all, and gave them rest round about.

23 And many brought gifts to the Lord in Jerusalem and presents to Ezekias king of Juda, and he was exalted in the eyes of all the nations after these things.

24 In those days Ezekias became ill unto death; and he prayed to the Lord, and he listened to him and gave him a sign.

25 And Ezekias did not repay according to the recompense which he gave him, but his heart was lifted up; and wrath came upon him and upon Juda and Jerusalem.

26 And Ezekias was humbled from the height of his heart, and those dwelling in Jerusalem, and the wrath of the Lord did not come upon them in the days of Ezekias.

27 And Ezekias had wealth and exceedingly great glory, and he made himself treasures of silver and gold and precious stone and for the spices, and armories, and for desirable vessels,

28 and cities for the produce of grain and oil and wine, and mangers for every beast, and folds for the flocks,

29 and cities which he built for himself, and possessions of sheep and cattle in abundance, because the Lord gave him exceedingly great possessions.

30 Ezekias himself stopped up the upper outlet of the water of Gion and directed them down toward the southwest of the city of David; and Ezekias was prospered in all his works.

31 And thus with the ambassadors of the rulers from Babylon who were sent to him to inquire from him about the wonder which came to pass upon the earth, the Lord also abandoned him to test him, to know the things in his heart.

32 And the remaining things of the words of Ezekias and his mercy, behold, are written in the prophecy of Esaias son of Amos the prophet and in the book of the kings of Juda and Israel.

33 And Ezekias slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David, and all Juda and those dwelling in Jerusalem gave him glory and honor at his death; and Manasses his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 33

1 Manasses was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2 And he did the evil before the Lord according to all the abominations of the nations whom the Lord destroyed from before the sons of Israel.

3 And he returned and built the high places which Ezekias his father tore down, and set up pillars for the Baalim and made groves and worshiped all the army of heaven and served them.

4 And he built altars in the house of the Lord, of which the Lord said, “In Jerusalem my name shall be forever.”

5 And he built altars for all the army of heaven in the two courts of the house of the Lord.

6 And he himself led his children through fire in Gai – banai – ennom, and practiced divination from sounds and from birds and sorcery, and made ventriloquists and enchanters; he multiplied doing the evil before the Lord to provoke him to anger.

7 And he placed the carved thing and the cast thing, an image which he made, in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, “In this house and Jerusalem, which I chose from all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name forever;

8 and I shall no longer shake the foot of Israel from the land which I gave to their fathers, provided they keep doing all that I commanded them, according to all the law and the ordinances and the judgments by the hand of Moses.”

9 And Manasses led Juda and those dwelling in Jerusalem astray to do the evil beyond all the nations which the Lord removed from before the sons of Israel.

10 And the Lord spoke against Manasses and against his people, and they did not listen.

11 And the Lord brought against them the rulers of the force of the king of Assour, and they caught Manasses in bonds and bound him in fetters and brought him to Babylon.

12 And when he was afflicted, he sought the face of the Lord his God and was exceedingly humbled before the God of his fathers;

13 and he prayed to him, and he listened to him; and he listened to his cry and returned him to Jerusalem over his kingdom; and Manasses knew that the Lord himself is God. –

14 And after these things he built a wall outside the city of David, on the southwest, along Gion in the torrent, and of those going out the gate round about, and into Ophla, and raised it exceedingly. And he appointed rulers of the force in all the walled cities in Juda.

15 And he removed the foreign gods and the carved thing from the house of the Lord and all the altars which he built on the mountain of the house of the Lord and in Jerusalem and outside the city.

16 And he set right the altar of the Lord and sacrificed upon it a sacrifice of salvation and praise, and told Juda to serve the Lord God of Israel;

17 except the people were still upon the high places, except the Lord was their God.

18 And the remaining things of the words of Manasses and his prayer to God and the words of the seers speaking to him in the name of the Lord God of Israel, behold, in the words of 19 his prayer, and how he listened to him, and all his sins and his revolts and the places upon which he built the high places and set up there groves and carved things before turning, behold, are written in the words of the seers.

20 And Manasses slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the garden of his house; and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 And he did the evil before the Lord, as Manasses his father did, and Amon sacrificed to all the idols which Manasses his father made and served them.

23 And he was not humbled before the Lord, as Manasses his father was humbled, because his son Amon multiplied transgression.

24 And his servants attacked him and struck him in his house.

25 And the people of the land struck those who attacked king Amon, and the people of the land made Josias his son king in his stead.

Chapter 34

1 Josias was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2 And he did what was upright before the Lord and walked in the ways of David his father and did not turn aside to the right and to the left.

3 And in the eighth year of his reign—and he was still a child—he began to seek the Lord, the God of David his father. And in the twelfth year of his reign he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem of the high places and the groves and the cast images,

4 and he pulled down before his face the altars of the Baalim and the high places upon them, and he cut down the groves, and he shattered the carved images and the cast images and ground them fine and threw them upon the surface of the tombs of those who sacrificed to them,

5 and he burned bones of priests upon the altars and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And in the cities of Ephraim and Manasseh and Symeon and Nephthali and in their places round about,

7 and he pulled down the groves and the altars and chopped the idols fine, and he cut down all the high places from all the land of Israel and returned to Jerusalem.

8 And in the eighteenth year of his reign, to cleanse the land and the house, he sent Saphan son of Eselias and Maasias ruler of the city and Joach son of Joachaz his recorder to strengthen the house of the Lord his God.

9 And they came to Chelkias the high priest and gave the silver brought into the house of God, which the Levites guarding the gate had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim and the rulers and from all the remnant in Israel and the sons of Judah and Benjamin and those dwelling in Jerusalem,

10 and those appointed in the house of the Lord gave it into the hand of those doing the works, and they gave it to those doing the works, who were working in the house of the Lord, to repair and strengthen the house;

11 and they gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy four-sided stones and timber for beams to roof the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed;

12 and the men were in faithfulness over the works, and over them were overseers, Jeth and Abdias, the Levites from the sons of Merari, and Zacharias and Mosollam from the sons of Kaath, to oversee, and every Levite, everyone skilled in instruments of songs,

13 was also over the burden-bearers and over all those doing the works, work by work; and from the Levites were scribes and judges and gatekeepers.

14 And as they brought out the silver brought into the house of the Lord, Chelkias the priest found a book of the law of the Lord through the hand of Moses.

15 And Chelkias answered and said to Saphan the scribe, I found a book of the law in the house of the Lord; and Chelkias gave the book to Saphan.

16 And Saphan brought the book to the king and further returned a report to the king: All the silver given is in the hand of your servants who are doing the work,

17 and they melted the silver found in the house of the Lord and gave it into the hand of the overseers and into the hand of those doing work.

18 And Saphan the scribe reported to the king, saying, Chelkias the priest gave me a book; and Saphan read it before the king.

19 And it happened, when the king heard the words of the law, that he tore his garments.

20 And the king commanded Chelkias and Achikam son of Saphan and Abdon son of Michaias and Saphan the scribe and Asaias the king's servant, saying,

21 Go, seek the Lord concerning me and concerning all that is left in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that was found; for great is the wrath of the Lord kindled among us, because our fathers did not heed the words of the Lord, to do according to all that is written in this book.

22 And Chelkias and those to whom the king spoke went to Olda the prophetess, wife of Sellem son of Thakouath son of Chelles, herself guarding the robes—and she dwelt in Jerusalem in masana—and they spoke to her according to these things.

23 And she said to them, Thus said the Lord, the God of Israel: Say to the man who sent you to me,

24 Thus says the Lord: Behold, I am bringing evils upon this place, all the words written in the book read before the king of Judah,

25 because they forsook me and burned incense to foreign gods, to provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; and my wrath was kindled in this place and will not be quenched.

26 And to the king of Judah who sent you to seek the Lord, thus you shall say to him: Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: The words which you heard,

27 and your heart was moved to reverence and you humbled yourself before my face when you heard my words against this place and against those dwelling in it, and you humbled yourself before me and tore your garments and wept before me, I also heard, says the Lord;

28 behold, I am adding you to your fathers, and you shall be added to your tombs in peace, and your eyes shall not look upon all the evils which I am bringing upon this place and upon those dwelling in it. And they returned a report to the king.—

29 And the king sent and gathered the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up to the house of the Lord, and all Judah and those dwelling in Jerusalem and the priests and the Levites and all the people, from great to small; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant found in the house of the Lord.

31 And the king stood upon the pillar and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk before the Lord, to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his ordinances with all the heart and with all the soul, the words of the covenant written in this book.

32 And he made all those found in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand, and those dwelling in Jerusalem made a covenant in the house of the Lord, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josias removed all the abominations from all the land which belonged to the sons of Israel, and he made all those found in Jerusalem and in Israel serve the Lord their God all his days; he did not turn aside from following the Lord, the God of his fathers.

Chapter 35

1 And Josias kept the Passover to the Lord his God, and they sacrificed the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month.

2 And he stationed the priests at their watches and strengthened them for the works of the house of the Lord.

3 And he told the Levites who were able in all Israel to sanctify themselves to the Lord, and they placed the holy ark in the house which Solomon son of David, the king of Israel, built. And the king said, You have nothing to carry upon shoulders; now therefore minister to the Lord your God and to his people Israel,

4 and prepare yourselves according to the houses of your families and according to your daily divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel and through the hand of Solomon his son,

5 and stand in the house according to the divisions of the houses of your families for your brothers, the sons of the people, and a portion of a family house for the Levites,

6 and sacrifice the Passover and prepare the holy things for your brothers, to do according to the word of the Lord through the hand of Moses.

7 And Josias contributed for the sons of the people sheep and lambs and kids from the offspring of the goats, all for the Passover for all those found, numbering thirty thousand, and three thousand calves; these were from the king's possessions.

8 And his rulers contributed to the people and to the priests and Levites; Chelkias and Zacharias and Jiel, the rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests, and they gave for the Passover two thousand six hundred sheep and lambs and kids, and three hundred calves.

9 And Chonenias and Banaias and Samaias and Nathanael his brother and Asabias and Jiel and Jozabad, rulers of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for the Passover five thousand sheep and five hundred calves.

10 And the ministry was set in order, and the priests stood at their station and the Levites at their divisions according to the king's commandment.

11 And they sacrificed the Passover, and the priests poured the blood from their hand, and the Levites flayed.

12 And they prepared the whole burnt offering to hand over to them according to the division by family houses, to the sons of the people, to bring to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses, and thus for the morning.

13 And they roasted the Passover in fire according to the ordinance, and they boiled the holy things in the bronze vessels and in the cauldrons; and it prospered, and they ran to all the sons of the people.

14 And after preparing for them and for the priests, because the priests were offering up the fat and the whole burnt offerings until night, the Levites also prepared for themselves and for their brothers, the sons of Aaron.

15 And the psalm-singers, the sons of Asaph, were at their station according to the commandments of David and Asaph and Aiman and Idithon, the king's prophets, and the rulers and the gatekeepers of gate after gate; they had no need to move from the ministry of holy things, because their brothers the Levites prepared for them.

16 And all the ministry of the Lord was set in order and prepared on that day, to keep the Passover and bring the whole burnt offerings upon the altar of the Lord according to the commandment of King Josias.

17 And the sons of Israel who were found kept the Passover at that time and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there had not been a Passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet, and all the kings of Israel had not kept one like the Passover which Josias and the priests and the Levites and all Judah and Israel who were found and those dwelling in Jerusalem kept to the Lord

19 in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josias.

19 a And the ventriloquists and the knowing ones and the tharaphin and the idols and the karasim which were in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, King Josias burned, to establish the words of the law written in the book which Chelkias the priest found in the house of the Lord.

20 There was none like him before him, who turned to the Lord with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his strength according to all the law of Moses, and after him none like him arose;

21 yet the Lord did not turn from the anger of his great wrath, with which the Lord was wrathfully angered in Judah over all the provocations with which Manasses provoked him.

22 And the Lord said, Indeed I shall also remove Judah from before my face, as I removed Israel, and I rejected the city which I chose, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.

20 And Pharaoh Nechao king of Egypt went up against the king of the Assyrians at the river Euphrates, and King Josias went to meet him.

21 And he sent messengers to him, saying, What is there between me and you, king of Judah? I have not come against you today to make war, and God said that I should hasten; beware of the God who is with me, lest he destroy you.

22 And Josias did not turn his face away from him, but strengthened himself to fight him, and did not heed the words of Nechao through the mouth of God, and came to fight in the plain of Magedon.

23 And the archers shot at King Josias; and the king said to his servants, Take me out, for I am in great pain.

24 And his servants took him out of the chariot and brought him up onto the second chariot which he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died and was buried with his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned over Josias,

25 and Jeremias lamented over Josias, and all the male rulers and the female rulers spoke a lament over Josias until today; and they made it an ordinance for Israel, and behold, it is written among the laments.

26 And the words of Josias and his hope were written in the law of the Lord;

27 and his first and last words, behold, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Chapter 36

1 And the people of the land took Joachaz son of Josias and anointed him and appointed him king in place of his father in Jerusalem.

2 Joachaz was a son of twenty-three years when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem,

2 a and his mother's name was Amital daughter of Jeremias from Lobena.

3 And he did what was evil before the Lord, according to all that his fathers did.

4 And Pharaoh Nechao bound him in Deblatha in the land of Emath, so that he would not reign in Jerusalem,

3 and the king removed him to Egypt, and imposed tribute upon the land, a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And Pharaoh Nechao appointed Eliakim son of Josias king of Judah in place of Josias his father, and changed his name to Joakim; and Pharaoh Nechao took Joachaz his brother and brought him into Egypt, and he died there.

4 a And they gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; then the land began to be taxed, to give the silver at Pharaoh's word, and each according to ability demanded the silver and the gold from the people of the land to give to Pharaoh Nechao.

5 Joakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Zechora daughter of Nerias from Rama. And he did what was evil before the Lord, according to all that his fathers did.

5 a In his days Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon came into the land, and he was serving him three years and withdrew from him.

6 And the Lord sent against them the Chaldeans and raiding bands of Syrians and raiding bands of Moabites and sons of Ammon and of Samaria, and they withdrew after this word according to the word of the Lord by the hand of his servants the prophets.

7 Yet the wrath of the Lord was upon Judah, to remove him from before his face because of the sins of Manasseh in all that he did,

8 and in the innocent blood which Joakim poured out, and he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the Lord was unwilling to destroy them.

6 And Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon went up against him and bound him in bronze fetters and led him away to Babylon.

7 And he carried away part of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon and placed them in his temple in Babylon.

8 And the rest of the words of Joakim and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the words of the days for the kings of Judah? And Joakim slept with his fathers and was buried in Ganoza with his fathers, and Jechonias his son reigned in his place.

9 Jechonias was a son of eighteen years when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. And he did what was evil before the Lord.

10 And at the return of the year King Nabouchodonosor sent and brought him into Babylon with the desirable vessels of the house of the Lord, and made Sedekias, his father's brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 Sedekias was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did what was evil before the Lord his God; he did not show reverence before Jeremias the prophet and from the mouth of the Lord,

13 in rejecting the obligations toward King Nabouchodonosor, which he had made him swear by God; and he hardened his neck and strengthened his heart so as not to turn to the Lord, the God of Israel.

14 And all the eminent men of Judah and the priests and the people of the land multiplied rejection in acts of rejection involving the abominations of nations and defiled the house of the Lord in Jerusalem.

15 And the Lord, the God of their fathers, sent by the hand of prophets, rising early and sending his messengers, because he was sparing his people and his sanctuary;

16 and they were sneering at his messengers and despising his words and mocking his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord rose among his people, until there was no remedy.

17 And he brought against them the king of the Chaldeans, and he killed their young men with the sword in the house of his sanctuary and did not spare Sedekias, and they did not pity their virgins and led their elders away; he handed everything over into their hands.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, the great and the small, and the treasures and all the treasures of the king and the magnates, everything he brought into Babylon.

19 And he burned the house of the Lord and pulled down the wall of Jerusalem and burned its fortresses with fire and every beautiful vessel to destruction.

20 And he deported the remaining ones to Babylon, and they became slaves to him and to his sons until the kingdom of the Medes,

21 so that the word of the Lord through the mouth of Jeremias would be fulfilled, until the land received its sabbaths to keep sabbath; all the days of its desolation it kept sabbath, to complete seventy years.

22 In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, after the word of the Lord through the mouth of Jeremias was fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of the Persians, and he ordered a proclamation throughout all his kingdom in writing, saying,

23 Thus says Cyrus king of the Persians: The Lord, the God of heaven, gave me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he commanded me to build him a house in Jerusalem in Judea. Who among you is of all his people? His God shall be with him, and let him go up.

1 Esdras

Chapter 1

1 And Josias held the Passover in Jerusalem to his Lord and sacrificed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month,

2 having stationed the priests according to daily divisions, robed in the temple of the Lord.

3 And he told the Levites, the temple servants of Israel, to sanctify themselves to the Lord at the placing of the holy ark of the Lord in the house which King Solomon, the son of David, built: You shall not have to carry it upon shoulders;

4 and now worship the Lord your God and serve his nation Israel, and prepare according to your families and your tribes, according to the writing of David king of Israel and according to the greatness of Solomon his son,

5 and standing in the temple according to your ancestral division, you Levites who are before your brothers, the sons of Israel, in order,

6 sacrifice the Passover and prepare the sacrifices for your brothers, and keep the Passover according to the ordinance of the Lord given to Moses.

7 And Josias gave to the people who were found thirty thousand lambs and kids, three thousand calves; these were given from the royal possessions according to promise to the people and to the priests and Levites.

8 And Chelkias and Zacharias and Hesyelos, the superintendents of the temple, gave to the priests for Passover two thousand six hundred sheep, three hundred calves.

9 And Jechonias and Samaias and Nathanael the brother and Asabias and Ochielos and Joram, commanders of thousands, gave to the Levites for Passover five thousand sheep, seven hundred calves.

10 And these were the things that happened: the priests and the Levites stood in good order,

11 having the unleavened bread according to the tribes

12 and according to the divisions of the fathers, before the people, to offer to the Lord according to the things written in the book of Moses, and thus the morning offering.

13 And they roasted the Passover with fire as is fitting, and boiled the sacrifices in the bronze vessels and cauldrons with a sweet smell and carried them to all those from the people.

14 And after these things they prepared both for themselves and for the priests, their brothers, the sons of Aaron; for the priests offered up the fat until a late hour, and the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, their brothers, the sons of Aaron.

15 And the temple singers, the sons of Asaph, were at their station according to the things ordered by David and Asaph and Zacharias and Eddinous, those from the king, and the doorkeepers at each gateway; each cannot leave his own daily service, for their brothers the Levites prepared for them.

16 And the matters of the sacrifice of the Lord were completed on that day, the holding of the Passover and the offering of the sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the command of King Josias.

17 And the sons of Israel who were found at this time held the Passover and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And such a Passover had not been held in Israel since the times of Samuel the prophet,

19 and all the kings of Israel had not held such a Passover as Josias and the priests and the Levites and the Judeans and all Israel who were found in their dwelling in Jerusalem held;

20 in the eighteenth year of Josias's reign this Passover was held.—

21 And the works of Josias were set upright before his Lord with a heart full of piety.

22 And the matters concerning him are recorded in the earlier times, concerning those who sinned and acted impiously against the Lord beyond every nation and kingdom, and the things which grieved him perceptibly; and the words of the Lord rose against Israel.

23 And after all this action of Josias it happened that Pharaoh king of Egypt came and stirred up war in Charkamys on the Euphrates, and Josias went out to meet him.

24 And the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What is there between me and you, king of Judea?

25 I have not been sent against you by the Lord God, for my war is on the Euphrates. And now the Lord is with me, and the Lord is with me, urging haste; withdraw and do not oppose the Lord.

26 And Josias did not turn himself back upon his chariot, but attempts to fight him, paying no attention to the words of Jeremias the prophet from the mouth of the Lord;

27 but he engaged in war against him in the plain of Mageddaous, and the rulers came down to King Josias.

28 And the king said to his servants, Remove me from the battle, for I have become very weak. And immediately his servants removed him from the battle line,

29 and he went up onto his second chariot; and, brought back to Jerusalem, he departed this life and was buried in the ancestral tomb.

30 And in all Judea they mourned Josias, and Jeremias the prophet lamented for Josias, and those presiding, together with women, lamented him until this day, and it was decreed that this should always be done among all the race of Israel.

31 And these things are recorded in the book of the accounts concerning the kings of Judea; and each individual deed of the action of Josias and of his glory and of his understanding in the law of the Lord, both the things done by him earlier and the present things, is recounted in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

32 And those from the nation took Jechonias son of Josias and appointed him king in place of Josias his father, being twenty-three years old.

33 And he reigned in Judah and Jerusalem three months. And the king of Egypt restored him to reign in Jerusalem, 34 and fined the nation a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

35 And the king of Egypt appointed his brother Joakim king, king of Judea and Jerusalem.

36 And Joakim bound the magnates, and seizing Zarios his brother, he brought him up out of Egypt.

37 And Joakim was twenty-five years old when he became king of Judea and Jerusalem, and he did what was evil before the Lord.

38 And Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon went up against him and, binding him in a bronze bond, led him away to Babylon.

39 And Nabouchodonosor took some of the holy vessels of the Lord and carried them away and deposited them in his temple in Babylon.

40 And the things recounted concerning him and his uncleanness and impiety are recorded in the book of the times of the kings.

41 And Joakim his son reigned in his place; for when he was appointed, he was eighteen years old,

42 and he reigns three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and he did what was evil before the Lord.

43 And after a year Nabouchodonosor sent and removed him to Babylon together with the holy vessels of the Lord,

44 and appointed Sedekias king of Judea and Jerusalem, Sedekias being twenty-one years old, and he reigns eleven years.

45 And he did what was evil before the Lord and did not show reverence at the words spoken by Jeremias the prophet from the mouth of the Lord.

46 And having been put under oath by King Nabouchodonosor in the name of the Lord, he broke his oath and withdrew, and, hardening his neck and his heart, transgressed the ordinances of the Lord, the God of Israel.

47 And the leaders of the people and of the priests acted impiously and lawlessly in many things, beyond all the uncleannesses of all the nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord which was sanctified in Jerusalem.

48 And the God of their fathers sent through his messenger to call them back, since he was sparing them and his dwelling.

49 But they sneered at his messengers, and on the day when the Lord spoke, they were mocking his prophets, until he, angered against his nation because of their impious acts, commanded that the kings of the Chaldeans be brought up against them.

50 These killed their young men with the sword all around their holy temple, and did not spare young man and virgin and elder and younger one, but he handed all over into their hands.

51 And they took all the holy vessels of the Lord, the great and the small, and the chests of the Lord and the royal storehouses, and carried them away to Babylon.

52 And they burned the house of the Lord and dismantled the walls of Jerusalem and burned their towers with fire,

53 and finished rendering all its glorious things useless; and he led the remaining ones away with the sword to Babylon.

54 And they were servants to him and to his sons until the Persians became kings, to fulfill the word of the Lord in the mouth of Jeremias:

55 Until the land takes pleasure in its sabbaths, all the time of its desolation, it will keep sabbath to complete seventy years.

Chapter 2

1 In the first year of Cyrus's reign over the Persians, for the completion of the word of the Lord in the mouth of Jeremias, the Lord stirred the spirit of Cyrus king of the Persians, and he proclaimed throughout his kingdom and at the same time through writings, saying,

2 Thus says Cyrus king of the Persians: The Lord of Israel, the Lord Most High, appointed me king of the inhabited world, and signified to me that I should build him a house in Jerusalem in Judea.

3 If therefore any of you is of his nation, let his Lord be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem in Judea and build the house of the Lord of Israel [this is the Lord who dwelt in Jerusalem].

4 As many therefore as dwell in various places, let those in his place help him with gold and silver, with gifts, with horses and livestock, together with the other things added according to vows for the temple of the Lord in Jerusalem.—

5 And the tribal heads of the families of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and the Levites and of all whose spirit the Lord stirred arose to go up to build a house for the Lord in Jerusalem,

6 and those around them helped in all things, with silver and gold, horses and livestock, and very many votive offerings from many whose mind was stirred.

7 And King Cyrus brought out the holy vessels of the Lord which Nabouchodonosor removed from Jerusalem and deposited in his own idol temple;

8 and Cyrus king of the Persians brought them out and handed them to Mithridates his own treasurer, and through him they were handed to Sanabassaros, governor of Judea.

9 And their number was: a thousand gold libation vessels, a thousand silver libation vessels, twenty-nine silver censers,

10 thirty gold bowls, two thousand four hundred ten silver ones, and a thousand other vessels.

11 And all the vessels conveyed, gold and silver, were five thousand four hundred sixty-nine, and they were brought up by Sanabassaros together with those from the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

12 And in the times of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, Beslemos and Mithradates and Tabellios and Raoumos and Beelteemos and Samsaios the scribe and the rest who were associated with them, dwelling in Samaria and the other places, wrote to him against those dwelling in Judea and Jerusalem the letter written below:

13 To King Artaxerxes, lord, your servants Raoumos, the officer of affairs, and Samsaios the scribe and the remaining judges of their council in Coele Syria and Phoenicia:

14 And now let it be known to the lord king that the Judeans who came up from you to us, coming to Jerusalem, are building the rebellious and evil city, and are repairing its marketplaces and walls and laying foundations for a temple.

15 If therefore this city is built and the walls are completed, they will certainly not endure paying taxation, but will even resist kings.

16 And since the matters concerning the temple are being worked on, we consider it good not to overlook such a thing, but to address the lord king, so that, if it seems good to you, an examination may be made in the books from your fathers;

17 and you will find in the records the things written about these matters and know that that city was rebellious and troubling kings and cities, and the Judeans were rebels and were organizing sieges in it from of old, for which reason this city was also desolated.

18 Now therefore we inform you, lord king, that if this city is built and its walls are raised, you will no longer have access to Coele Syria and Phoenicia.—

19 Then the king wrote back to Raoumos, the recorder of affairs, and Beelteemos and Samsaios the scribe and the rest who were associated with them and dwelling in Samaria and Syria and Phoenicia the things written below:

20 I read the letter which you have sent to me.

21 I therefore ordered an examination, and it was found that that city has been opposing kings from of old, and the men were carrying out revolts and wars in it,

22 and strong and harsh kings were in Jerusalem, ruling and taxing Coele Syria and Phoenicia.

23 Now therefore I ordered those men to be prevented from building the city,

24 and provision to be made that nothing happen contrary to these things and that the matters of wickedness not advance further to trouble kings.—

25 Then, when the writings from King Artaxerxes were read, Raoumos and Samsaios the scribe and those associated with them set out in haste to Jerusalem with cavalry and a battle array of people and began to hinder those building.

26 And the building of the temple in Jerusalem was idle until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

Chapter 3

1 And King Darius made a great reception for all those under him and all his household servants and all the magnates of Media and Persia,

2 and all the satraps and generals and local rulers under him, from India to Ethiopia, in the hundred twenty-seven satrapies.

3 And they ate and drank and, filled, departed; and King Darius departed to the bedchamber and slept and became awake.

4 Then the three young men, the bodyguards who guarded the king's body, said to one another,

5 Let each of us speak one word, which will prevail; and whoever's saying appears wiser than the other's, King Darius will give him great gifts and great victory rewards,

6 and purple to put on, and to drink in gold vessels and sleep upon gold, and a chariot with a gold bridle and a fine linen turban and a necklace around the neck,

7 and he will sit second to Darius because of his wisdom and will be called a kinsman of Darius.

8 And then each wrote his own word, and they sealed them and placed them under the pillow of King Darius and said,

9 When the king rises, they will give him the writing, and whoever the king and the three magnates of Persia judge to have the wiser word, to him the victory shall be given, as it is written.

10 The one wrote, Wine prevails.

11 The other wrote, The king prevails.

12 The third wrote, Women prevail, but above all things truth conquers.

13 And when the king rose, they took the writing and gave it to him, and he read it.

14 And he sent and called all the magnates of Persia and Media and satraps and generals and local rulers and high officials, and sat in the council chamber, and the writing was read before them.

15 And he said, Call the young men, and they will explain their words; and they were called and entered.

16 And they said to them, Tell us about the things written.

17 And the first, who had spoken about the strength of wine, began and spoke thus:

18 Men, how does wine prevail? It leads astray the mind of all the people who drink it.

19 It makes the mind of both the king and the orphan one, both that of the servant and that of the free man, both that of the poor man and that of the rich man.

20 And it turns every mind to feasting and gladness, and one remembers no sorrow and no debt.

21 And it makes all hearts rich, and one remembers neither king nor satrap, and it makes one speak of all things in terms of talents.

22 And one does not remember, when they drink, to be friendly with friends and brothers, and after a little while they draw swords;

23 and when they are free of the wine, one does not remember what they did.

24 O men, does wine not prevail, since it compels one to act thus? And he fell silent after speaking thus.

Chapter 4

1 And the second began to speak, the one who had spoken about the strength of the king:

2 O men, do people not prevail, holding dominion over the land and the sea and all things in them?

3 But the king prevails and rules them and is master over them, and everything he may say to them, they obey.

4 If he tells them to make war against one another, they do so; and if he sends them against the enemies, they go and subdue the mountains and the walls and the towers.

5 They kill and are killed and do not transgress the king's word; and if they conquer, they bring everything to the king, both whatever they plunder and all the other things.

6 And as many as do not serve as soldiers or make war, but cultivate the land, again, when they sow, they harvest and bring up to the king; and compelling one another, they bring up the tributes to the king.

7 And he is one alone; if he says to kill, they kill; he said to release, they release;

8 he said to strike, they strike; he said to desolate, they desolate; he said to build, they build;

9 he said to cut down, they cut down; he said to plant, they plant.

10 And all his people and his forces obey.

11 And besides these things he reclines, eats and drinks and sleeps, but they keep watch all around him, and each cannot go away and do his own works, nor do they disobey him.

12 O men, how does the king not prevail, since he is so obeyed? And he fell silent.

13 And the third, who had spoken about women and truth—this is Zorobabel—began to speak:

14 Men, is the king not great, and are people not many, and is wine not strong? Who then is master over them, or who rules them? Is it not women?

15 Women gave birth to the king and all the people who rule the sea and the land;

16 and from them they came to be, and these reared them, those who plant the vineyards from which wine comes.

17 And these make people's robes, and these give glory to people, and people cannot exist without women.

18 And if they gather gold and silver and every beautiful thing, and see one woman lovely in appearance and beauty,

19 then, leaving all these things, they gape at her and, opening their mouth, gaze at her, and all prefer her to gold and silver and every beautiful thing.

20 A man forsakes his own father who reared him, and his own country, and clings to his own wife;

21 and with his wife he gives up his life, and remembers neither father nor mother nor country.

22 And from this you must know that women rule you; do you not toil and labor and give and bring everything to women?

23 And a man takes his sword and goes out to travel and rob and steal and sail upon the sea and rivers;

24 and he faces the lion and walks in darkness, and when he steals and seizes and strips people, he carries it to his beloved.

25 And a man loves his own wife more than his father and mother;

26 and many went mad in their own minds because of women and became slaves because of them,

27 and many perished and stumbled and sinned because of women.

28 And now do you not believe me? Is the king not great in his authority? Do not all the countries fear to touch him?

29 I was watching him and Apame, daughter of the remarkable Bartakos, the king's concubine, sitting at the king's right,

30 and taking the diadem from the king's head and placing it upon herself, and she was slapping the king with her left hand.

31 And besides these things the king, opening his mouth, was gazing at her; and if she smiles at him, he laughs; but if she becomes embittered against him, he flatters her so that she may be reconciled to him.

32 O men, how are women not strong, since they act thus?

33 And then the king and the magnates looked at one another.—

34 And he began to speak about truth: Men, are women not strong? Great is the earth, and high is heaven, and swift in its course is the sun, because it turns in the circuit of heaven and runs back again to its own place in one day.

35 Is he who does these things not great? And truth is great and stronger than all things.

36 All the earth calls upon truth, and heaven blesses her, and all the works shake and tremble, and there is nothing unjust with him.

37 Unjust is wine, unjust is the king, unjust are women, unjust are all the sons of men, and unjust are all their works, all such things; and there is no truth in them, and in their injustice they will perish.

38 But truth remains and is strong for the age and lives and rules for the age of the age.

39 And with her there is no showing partiality or accepting bribes, but she does what is just apart from all things unjust and evil; and all approve of her works, and there is nothing unjust in her judgment.

40 And hers are the strength and the kingdom and the authority and the greatness of all the ages. Blessed is the God of truth.

41 And he ceased speaking; and all the people then cried out, and then they said, Great is truth, and it prevails.

42 Then the king said to him, Ask whatever you wish, more than the things written, and we will give it to you, since you were found wiser; and you shall sit next to me and shall be called my kinsman.

43 Then he said to the king, Remember the vow which you vowed to build Jerusalem on the day when you received your kingdom,

44 and to send out all the vessels taken from Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart when he vowed to cut down Babylon, and vowed to send there.

45 And you vowed to build the temple which the Idumeans burned when Judea was desolated by the Chaldeans.

46 And now this is what I request of you, lord king, and what I ask you, and this is the greatness from you; I therefore beg that you perform the vow which you vowed with your mouth to perform for the king of heaven.—

47 Then King Darius rose and kissed him and wrote for him the letters to all the stewards and local rulers and generals and satraps, that they should send him forward and all those with him going up to build Jerusalem.

48 And to all the local rulers in Coele Syria and Phoenicia and those in Lebanon he wrote letters to convey cedar timber from Lebanon to Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him.

49 And he wrote to all the Judeans going up from the kingdom to Judea concerning their freedom, that no powerful man or satrap or local ruler or steward should come against their doors,

50 and that all the country which they would possess should be free of taxation for them, and that the Idumeans should release the villages of the Judeans which they held,

51 and that twenty talents each year should be given for the building of the temple until it was built,

52 and for whole burnt offerings to be offered upon the altar daily, as they have a command to offer seventeen, another ten talents each year,

53 and that all those coming up from Babylonia to establish the city should have freedom, both they and their children and all the priests coming up.

54 And he also wrote concerning the provision and the priestly robe in which they serve in it.

55 And for the Levites he wrote that the provision should be given until the day when the house was completed and Jerusalem built,

56 and for all those guarding the city he wrote that allotments and wages should be given to them.

57 And he sent out all the vessels which Cyrus set apart from Babylon; and all the things which Cyrus said to do, he himself also commanded to do and send to Jerusalem.

58 And when the young man went out, he lifted his face to heaven toward Jerusalem and blessed the king of heaven, saying, 59 From you is victory, and from you is wisdom, and yours is glory, and I am your servant.

60 Blessed are you, who gave me wisdom; and to you I give thanks, master of the fathers.

61 And he took the letters and went out to Babylon and reported to all his brothers.

62 And they blessed the God of their fathers, because he gave them relief and release

63 to go up and build Jerusalem and the temple upon which his name was named, and they feasted with music and joy seven days.

Chapter 5

1 And after these things the leaders of family houses were chosen to go up according to their tribes, and their wives and sons and daughters and their male servants and female servants and their livestock.

2 And Darius sent with them a thousand horsemen until they were brought back to Jerusalem with peace and with music, drums and flutes;

3 and all their brothers were playing, and he made them go up together with those.

4 And these are the names of the men going up according to their families into the tribes according to their division.

5 The priests, sons of Phinees son of Aaron: Jesus son of Josedek son of Saraios, and Joakim son of Zorobabel son of Salathiel, from the house of David, from the lineage of Phares, and of the tribe of Judah,

6 who spoke wise words in the time of Darius king of the Persians, in the second year of his reign, in the month Nisan, the first month.—

7 And these are those from Judea who came up from the captivity of the sojourning, whom Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon deported to Babylon,

8 and they returned to Jerusalem and the rest of Judea, each to his own city, those who came with Zorobabel and Jesus, Neemias, Zaraios, Resaios, Enenios, Mardochaios, Beelsaros, Aspharasos, Borolios, Roimos, Baana, their leaders.

9 The number of those from the nation and their leaders: sons of Phoros, two thousand one hundred seventy-two.

10 Sons of Saphat, four hundred seventy-two. Sons of Aree, seven hundred fifty-six.

11 Sons of Phaathmoab belonging to the sons of Jesus and Joab, two thousand eight hundred twelve.

12 Sons of Olamos, one thousand two hundred fifty-four. Sons of Zatou, nine hundred forty-five. Sons of Chorbe, seven hundred five. Sons of Bani, six hundred forty-eight.

13 Sons of Bebai, six hundred twenty-three. Sons of Asgad, one thousand three hundred twenty-two.

14 Sons of Adonikam, six hundred sixty-seven. Sons of Bagoi, two thousand sixty-six. Sons of Adinos, four hundred fifty-four.

15 Sons of Ater Ezekias, ninety-two. Sons of Kilan and Azetas, sixty-seven. Sons of Azouros, four hundred thirty-two.

16 Sons of Annias, one hundred one. Sons of Arom, sons of Bassai, three hundred twenty-three. Sons of Ariphos, one hundred twelve.

17 Sons of Baiterous, three thousand five. Sons from Baithlomon, one hundred twenty-three.

18 Those from Netebas, fifty-five. Those from Enatos, one hundred fifty-eight. Those from Baitasmon, forty-two.

19 Those from Kariathiarios, twenty-five. Those from Kapira and Berot, seven hundred forty-three.

20 The Chadisai and Ammidioi, four hundred twenty-two. Those from Kiramas and Gabbe, six hundred twenty-one.

21 Those from Makalon, one hundred twenty-two. Those from Baitolio, fifty-two. Sons of Niphis, one hundred fifty-six.

22 Sons of another Kalamo and Onous, seven hundred twenty-five. Sons of Jerecho, three hundred forty-five.

23 Sons of Sanaas, three thousand three hundred thirty.—

24 The priests: sons of Jeddou son of Jesus belonging to the sons of Anasib, nine hundred seventy-two. Sons of Emmeros, one thousand fifty-two.

25 Sons of Phassouros, one thousand two hundred forty-seven. Sons of Charme, one thousand seventeen.—

26 And the Levites: sons of Jesus and Kadmielos and Bannos and Soudios, seventy-four.

27 The temple singers: sons of Asaph, one hundred twenty-eight.

28 The doorkeepers: sons of Saloum, sons of Atar, sons of Tolman, sons of Akoub, sons of Ateta, sons of Sobai, all one hundred thirty-nine.—

29 The temple servants: sons of Esau, sons of Asipha, sons of Tabaoth, sons of Keras, sons of Soua, sons of Phadaios, sons of Labana, sons of Angaba,

30 sons of Akoud, sons of Outa, sons of Ketab, sons of Agaba, sons of Sybai, sons of Anan, sons of Kathoua, sons of Geddour,

31 sons of Jairos, sons of Daisan, sons of Noeba, sons of Chaseba, sons of Gazera, sons of Ozios, sons of Phinoe, sons of Asara, sons of Basthai, sons of Asana, sons of Maani, sons of Naphisi, sons of Akouph, sons of Achiba, sons of Asour, sons of Pharakim, sons of Basaloth,

32 sons of Meedda, sons of Koutha, sons of Charea, sons of Barchous, sons of Serar, sons of Thomoi, sons of Nasi, sons of Atipha.

33 Sons of Solomon's servants: sons of Assaphioth, sons of Pharida, sons of Jeeli, sons of Lozon, sons of Isdael, sons of Saphythi,

34 sons of Agia, sons of Phakareth—sabie, sons of Sarothie, sons of Masias, sons of Gas, sons of Addous, sons of Soubas, sons of Apherra, sons of Barodis, sons of Saphat, sons of Amon.

35 All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants, three hundred seventy-two.—

36 These came up from Thermeleth and Thelersas, their leader Charaath, Adan and Amar,

37 and they could not declare their families and lineages, that they are from Israel: sons of Dalan son of Touban, sons of Nekodan, six hundred fifty-two.

38 And from the priests, those claiming priesthood and not found: sons of Obbia, sons of Akkos, sons of Joddous, who took Augia as wife from the daughters of Pharzellaios and was called by his name;

39 and when their genealogical record was sought in the register and was not found, they were excluded from serving as priests,

40 and Neemias and Attharias told them not to partake of the holy things until a high priest should arise clothed with the manifestation and the truth.—

41 And the total was: Israel from twelve years old, apart from male servants and female servants, forty-two thousand three hundred sixty; their male servants and female servants, seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven; singers and psalm-singers, two hundred forty-five;

42 four hundred thirty-five camels, and seven thousand thirty-six horses, two hundred forty-five mules, five thousand five hundred twenty-five beasts of burden.—

43 And some of the leaders according to the families, when they arrived at the temple of God in Jerusalem, vowed to raise the house upon its site according to their ability,

44 and to give to the sacred treasury for the works a thousand minas of gold and five thousand minas of silver and a hundred priestly robes.—

45 And the priests and the Levites and those from the people were settled in Jerusalem and the country, and the temple singers and the doorkeepers and all Israel in their villages.

46 And when the seventh month came, and each of the sons of Israel was in his own place, they gathered with one accord in the open space of the first gateway toward the east.

47 And Jesus son of Josedek and his brothers the priests and Zorobabel son of Salathiel and his brothers arose and prepared the altar of the God of Israel,

48 to offer whole burnt offerings upon it in accordance with the things prescribed in the book of Moses, the man of God.

49 And some from the other nations of the land gathered to them. And they set the altar upright upon its site, because all the nations upon the land were hostile to them and overpowered them, and they offered sacrifices according to the appointed time and whole burnt offerings to the Lord, the morning and the evening offering,

50 and held the feast of the pitching of tents, as it is commanded in the law, and sacrifices daily, as was fitting,

51 and after these things continual offerings and sacrifices of sabbaths and new moons and all sanctified feasts.

52 And as many as vowed a vow to God began to offer sacrifices to God from the new moon of the seventh month, and the temple of God had not yet been built.

53 And they gave silver to the stonecutters and carpenters, and food and drink and joy to the Sidonians and Tyrians, so that they would bring cedar timber from Lebanon and convey rafts to the harbor of Joppe, according to the ordinance written to them from Cyrus king of the Persians.—

54 And in the second year, having arrived at the temple of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zorobabel son of Salathiel and Jesus son of Josedek and their brothers and the priests, the Levites, and all those who arrived from the captivity in Jerusalem began,

55 and laid the foundation of the temple of God on the new moon of the second month of the second year after coming into Judea and Jerusalem.

56 And they stationed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord, and Jesus and the sons and the brothers and Kadmiel the brother and the sons of Jesus Hemadaboun and the sons of Joda son of Iliadoun, with the sons and brothers, all the Levites, stood with one accord as overseers working for the works in the house of God.

57 And the builders built the temple of the Lord, and the priests stood robed with music and trumpets, and the Levites, sons of Asaph, having the cymbals, singing hymns to the Lord and blessing according to David king of Israel,

58 and they cried out through hymns, giving thanks to the Lord, because his kindness and glory are for the ages toward all Israel.

59 And all the people sounded trumpets and shouted with a great voice, singing hymns to the Lord at the raising of the house of the Lord.

60 And from the priests, the Levites, and those presiding according to their families, the elders who had seen the house before this one came to its building with shouting and great weeping,

61 and many with trumpets and joy with a great voice,

62 so that the people could not hear the trumpets because of the people's weeping, for the crowd was sounding trumpets mightily, so as to be heard from afar.

63 And the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard and came to learn what the sound of the trumpets was.

64 And they learned that those from the captivity were building the temple for the Lord, the God of Israel,

65 and they approached Zorobabel and Jesus and the leaders of the families and say to them, We shall build with you;

66 for like you we heed your Lord and have sacrificed to him since the days of Asbasareth king of the Assyrians, who brought us here.

67 And Zorobabel and Jesus and the leaders of the families of Israel said to them, It is not for you and us to build the house for the Lord our God;

68 for we alone shall build for the Lord of Israel in accordance with what Cyrus king of the Persians commanded us.

69 But the nations of the land, pressing upon those in Judea and besieging them, kept them from building,

70 and making plots and popular agitations and conspiracies, prevented the completion of the building all the time of the life of King Cyrus.

71 And they were kept from the building two years until the reign of Darius.

Chapter 6

1 And in the second year of Darius's reign, the prophets Angaios and Zacharias son of Eddi prophesied to the Judeans in Judea and Jerusalem in the name of the Lord, the God of Israel, over them.

2 Then Zorobabel son of Salathiel and Jesus son of Josedek arose and began to build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, the prophets of the Lord being with them and helping them.

3 At that very time Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phoenicia and Sathrabouzanes and their companions came to them and said to them,

4 At whose order to you are you building this house and completing this roof and all the other things? And who are the builders completing these things?

5 And the elders of the Judeans had favor, oversight having come upon the captivity from the Lord,

6 and were not hindered from the building until Darius was informed about them and an answer was given.

7 A copy of the letter which Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phoenicia and Sathrabouzanes and their companions, the governors in Syria and Phoenicia, wrote to Darius and sent:

8 Greetings to King Darius. Let all things be known to our lord the king, that, arriving in the country of Judea and coming into the city Jerusalem, we found the elders of the Judeans from the captivity in the city Jerusalem building a great new house for the Lord with costly polished stones, timber being placed in the walls,

9 and those works being done diligently, and the work prospering in their hands, and being completed in all splendor and care.

10 Then we inquired of these elders, saying, At whose command to you are you building this house and laying the foundations of these works?

11 We therefore questioned them to make known to you and write to you the men leading, and we asked them for the list of names of those presiding.

12 And they answered us, saying, We are servants of the Lord who created heaven and earth.

13 And the house had been built many years earlier through a great and strong king of Israel, and was completed.

14 And since our fathers provoked to bitterness and sinned against the heavenly Lord of Israel, he handed them over into the hands of Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon, king of the Chaldeans;

15 and they pulled down the house and burned it and took the people captive to Babylon.

16 And in the first year of Cyrus's reign over the country of Babylonia, King Cyrus wrote that this house should be built;

17 and the holy vessels, the gold and the silver ones, which Nabouchodonosor brought out of the house in Jerusalem and deposited in his own temple, King Cyrus again brought out of the temple in Babylon, and they were handed to Zorobabel and Sanabassaros the governor,

18 and he was commanded to carry away all these vessels and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem, and that this temple of the Lord should be built upon the site.

19 Then that Sanabassaros arrived and laid the foundations of the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, and from then until now, being built, it has not reached completion.

20 Now therefore, if it is judged fitting, O king, let an examination be made in the royal archives of the lord king in Babylon;

21 and if it is found that the building of the house of the Lord in Jerusalem was undertaken with the approval of King Cyrus, and it is judged fitting by our lord the king, let him address us concerning these things.

22 Then King Darius commanded an examination to be made in the royal archives situated in Babylon, and in Ecbatana, the fortress in the country of Media, one scroll was found, in which these things had been recorded:

23 In the first year of Cyrus's reign, King Cyrus commanded the building of the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, where they sacrifice with continual fire,

24 whose height is sixty cubits, width sixty cubits, with three courses of polished stone and one course of new native timber, and that the expense be given from the house of King Cyrus;

25 and that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both gold and silver, which Nabouchodonosor brought out of the house in Jerusalem and carried away to Babylon, be restored to the house in Jerusalem where they had been laid, so that they may be placed there.

26 And he commanded Sisinnes governor of Syria and Phoenicia and Sathrabouzanes and their companions and the appointed governors in Syria and Phoenicia to take care to keep away from the place, but to allow the servant of the Lord, Zorobabel, governor of Judea, and the elders of the Judeans to build that house of the Lord upon the site.

27 And I also commanded it to be built completely, and attention to be given that they cooperate with those from the captivity of Judea until the house of the Lord is completed;

28 and that from the taxation of Coele Syria and Phoenicia an allowance be diligently given to these men for sacrifices to the Lord, to Zorobabel the governor, for bulls and rams and lambs,

29 and likewise also wheat and salt and wine and oil continually each year, as the priests in Jerusalem may prescribe to be expended daily, without dispute,

30 so that libations may be offered to God Most High for the king and the children, and they may pray concerning their life.

31 And he commanded that as many as transgress any of the things previously said and additionally written, or even annul them, a timber be taken from his own property and he be hanged upon it, and his possessions belong to the king.

32 For these things may the Lord also, whose name has been called there, destroy every king and nation who will stretch out his hand to hinder or harm that house of the Lord in Jerusalem.

33 I, King Darius, have decreed that it be diligently done according to these things.

Chapter 7

1 Then Sisinnes governor of Coele Syria and Phoenicia and Sathrabouzanes and their companions, following the things commanded by King Darius,

2 oversaw the sacred works more diligently, cooperating with the elders of the Judeans and the temple superintendents.

3 And the sacred works prospered as the prophets Angaios and Zacharias prophesied,

4 and they completed these things through the ordinance of the Lord, the God of Israel,

5 and with the approval of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes king of the Persians the holy house was completed by the twenty-third of the month Adar in the sixth year of King Darius.

6 And the sons of Israel and the priests and the Levites and the rest from the captivity who had joined did according to the things in the book of Moses;

7 and they offered for the dedication of the temple of the Lord a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs,

8 twelve male goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number from the twelve tribal chiefs of Israel;

9 and the priests and the Levites stood robed according to tribes over the works of the Lord, the God of Israel, according to the book of Moses, and the doorkeepers at each gateway.

10 And the sons of Israel from the captivity held the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month, because the priests and the Levites were purified together,

11 and all the sons of the captivity were not purified, because all the Levites were purified together,

12 and they sacrificed the Passover for all the sons of the captivity and for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

13 And the sons of Israel from the captivity ate, all those separated from the abominations of the nations of the land, seeking the Lord.

14 And they held the feast of unleavened bread seven days, rejoicing before the Lord,

15 because he turned the counsel of the king of the Assyrians toward them, to strengthen their hands for the works of the Lord, the God of Israel.

Chapter 8

1 And later than these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, Esdras came up, son of Saraios son of Ezerios son of Chelkias son of Salemos,

2 son of Saddoukos son of Achitob son of Amarios son of Ozios son of Bokka son of Abisoue son of Phinees son of Eleazar son of Aaron the first priest;

3 this Esdras came up from Babylon, being a gifted scribe in the law of Moses issued by the God of Israel,

4 and the king gave him glory, since he found favor before him for all his requests.

5 And some of the sons of Israel and the priests and Levites and temple singers and doorkeepers and temple servants went up together to Jerusalem in the seventh year of Artaxerxes's reign, in the fifth month [this is the king's seventh year];

6 for, leaving Babylon on the new moon of the first month, they arrived in Jerusalem on the new moon of the fifth month, according to the prosperous journey given them from the Lord over him.

7 For Esdras possessed much knowledge, so as to omit nothing from the law of the Lord, and to teach all Israel all the ordinances and judgments from the commandments.

8 And the written ordinance from King Artaxerxes arrived for Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, of which the following is a copy:

9 King Artaxerxes to Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, greetings.

10 And I, deciding upon humane things, commanded those willing from the nation of the Judeans who choose to go, and from the priests and the Levites, and those in our kingdom, to travel with you to Jerusalem.

11 As many therefore as intend it, let them set out together, as has been decreed by me and the seven friends who are counselors,

12 so that they may examine the matters concerning Judea and Jerusalem in accordance with what he has in the law of the Lord,

13 and carry gifts to the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and the friends vowed, and all gold and silver which may be found in the country of Babylonia, for the Lord in Jerusalem, together with what has been given by the nation for the temple of their Lord in Jerusalem,

14 both the gold and silver to be gathered for bulls and rams and lambs and the things accompanying them,

15 so as to offer sacrifices upon the altar of their Lord in Jerusalem.

16 And all that you may wish to do with gold and silver with your brothers, carry out according to the will of your God,

17 and the holy vessels of the Lord given to you for the service of the temple of your God in Jerusalem.

18 And the remaining things, whatever may occur to you for the service of the temple of your God, you shall give from the royal treasury;

19 and I, King Artaxerxes, commanded the treasurers of Syria and Phoenicia that whatever Esdras the priest and reader of the law of God Most High may send for, they should diligently give him, up to a hundred talents of silver,

20 and likewise up to a hundred kors of wheat and a hundred measures of wine and salt in abundance;

21 let all things according to the law of God be diligently carried out for God Most High, so that wrath may not come upon the kingdom of the king and the sons.

22 And it is also said to you that no taxation or other imposition should come upon any of the priests and Levites and temple singers and doorkeepers and temple servants and officials of this temple, and that no one should have authority to impose anything upon them.

23 And you, Esdras, according to the wisdom of God, appoint judges and justices to judge throughout Syria and Phoenicia all those who know the law of your God; and those who do not know it you shall teach.

24 And all who transgress the law of your God and the royal law shall be diligently punished, whether with death or punishment or a monetary fine or removal.

25 Blessed alone is the Lord, who put these things into the king's heart, to glorify his house in Jerusalem,

26 and honored me before the king and those giving counsel and all his friends and magnates.

27 And I became courageous according to the assistance of the Lord my God, and gathered men from Israel to go up with me.

28 And these are the leaders according to their families and divisions who went up with me from Babylon in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

29 from the sons of Phinees, Garsomos; from the sons of Jetamaros, Gamelos; from the sons of David, Attous son of Sechenias;

30 from the sons of Phoros, Zacharias, and with him, according to the record, a hundred fifty men;

31 from the sons of Phaathmoab, Eliaonias son of Zaraios, and with him two hundred men;

32 from the sons of Zathoe, Sechenias son of Jezelos, and with him three hundred men; from the sons of Adinos, Ben—Jonathos, and with him two hundred fifty men;

33 from the sons of Elam, Jesias son of Gotholios, and with him seventy men;

34 from the sons of Saphatios, Zaraias son of Michaelos, and with him seventy men;

35 from the sons of Joab, Abadias son of Jezelos, and with him two hundred twelve men;

36 from the sons of Bani, Assalimoth son of Josaphios, and with him a hundred sixty men;

37 from the sons of Babi, Zacharias son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight men;

38 from the sons of Asgath, Joanes son of Akatan, and with him a hundred ten men;

39 from the sons of Adonikam, the last ones, and these are their names: Eliphalatos, Jeouel and Samaias, and with them seventy men;

40 from the sons of Bago, Outhi son of Istalkouros, and with him seventy men.

41 And I gathered them at the river called Thera, and we camped there three days, and I examined them.

42 And finding none there from the sons of the priests and from the Levites,

43 I sent to Eleazar and Idouelos and Maasman and Elnatan and Samaias and Joribos, Nathan, Ennatan, Zacharias and Mesolamos, the leaders and knowledgeable men,

44 and told them to go to Addaios, the leader in the place of the treasury,

45 commanding them to speak to Addaios and his brothers and the treasurers in the place, to send us those who would serve as priests in the house of our Lord.

46 And according to the mighty hand of our Lord they brought us knowledgeable men from the sons of Mooli son of Levi son of Israel: Asebebias and the sons and the brothers, eighteen;

47 and Asebias and Announos and Osaias, a brother from the sons of Chanounaios, and their sons, twenty men;

48 and from the temple servants whom David and the leaders gave for the work of the Levites, two hundred twenty temple servants; the list of names of all was recorded.

49 And there I vowed a fast for the young men before our Lord,

50 to seek from him a prosperous journey for us and for our children and livestock with us.

51 For I was ashamed to ask the king for infantry and horsemen and an escort for safety against those opposing us;

52 for we said to the king, The strength of our Lord shall be with those seeking him for every restoration.

53 And again we entreated our Lord according to these things and found him gracious.

54 And I set apart twelve men from the tribal chiefs of the priests, and Serebias and Asabias, and with them ten men from their brothers,

55 and weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord which the king himself and his counselors and magnates and all Israel gave.

56 And having weighed them, I handed to them six hundred fifty talents of silver and silver vessels of a hundred talents and a hundred talents of gold and twenty gold vessels and bronze vessels from good bronze, shining, twelve vessels resembling gold.

57 And I said to them, You also are holy to the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the silver and gold are a votive offering to the Lord, the Lord of our fathers;

58 keep awake and guard them until you hand them to the tribal chiefs of the priests and the Levites and the leaders of the families of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of our Lord.

59 And the priests and the Levites who received the silver and gold and the vessels in Jerusalem brought them into the temple of the Lord.

60 And setting out from the river Thera on the twelfth of the first month, we entered Jerusalem according to the mighty hand of our Lord upon us; and he delivered us on the way in from every enemy, and we came to Jerusalem.

61 And when the third day there came, the silver and the gold were weighed and handed over in the house of our Lord to Marmothi son of Ourias the priest,

62 —and with him Eleazar son of Phinees, and with them were Josabdos son of Jesus and Moeth son of Sabannos, the Levites—everything by number and weight, and all their weight was written at that very hour.

63 And those who arrived from the captivity offered sacrifices to the Lord, the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-two lambs, twelve male goats for deliverance; everything a sacrifice to the Lord.

64 And they delivered the king's ordinances to the royal stewards and the governors of Coele Syria and Phoenicia, and they glorified the nation and the temple of the Lord.

65 And when these things were completed, the leaders approached me, saying,

66 The nation of Israel and the rulers and the priests and the Levites did not separate the foreign nations of the land and their uncleannesses, those of the Canaanites and Chettites and Pherezites and Jebusites and Moabites and Egyptians and Idumeans;

67 for both they and their sons dwelt with their daughters, and the holy seed was mingled with the foreign nations of the land, and the leaders and the magnates partook of this lawlessness from the beginning of the matter.

68 And as soon as I heard these things, I tore the garments and the sacred robe and plucked some of the hair of the head and the beard, and sat down pensive and deeply grieved.

69 And all who were ever moved by the word of the Lord of Israel gathered to me as I mourned over the lawlessness, and I sat deeply grieved until the evening sacrifice.

70 And rising from the fast with the garments and the sacred robe torn, bending the knees and stretching out the hands toward the Lord, I was saying,

71 Lord, I am ashamed, I am abashed before your face;

72 for our sins multiplied above our heads, and our acts of ignorance rose as far as heaven

73 from the times of our fathers, and we are in great sin until this day;

74 and because of our sins and those of our fathers we were handed over, with our brothers and our kings and our priests, to the kings of the earth, to sword and captivity and plunder with shame until this day.

75 And now in some small measure mercy came to us from you, Lord, that a root and a name should be left for us in the place of your sanctuary,

76 and to uncover our light in the house of our Lord, to give us sustenance in the time of our slavery;

77 and in our serving as slaves we were not forsaken by our Lord, but he put us in favor before the kings of the Persians,

78 to give us sustenance and glorify the temple of our Lord and raise desolate Zion, to give us a firm support in Judea and Jerusalem.

79 And now what shall we say, Lord, having these things? For we transgressed your ordinances, which you gave by the hand of your servants the prophets, saying,

80 The land into which you enter to inherit is a land defiled with the defilement of the foreigners of the land, and they filled it with their uncleanness;

81 and now do not marry your daughters to their sons, and do not take their daughters for your sons;

82 and you shall not seek peace in your relations with them for all time, so that, being strong, you may eat the good things of the land and leave it as an inheritance to your sons for the age.

83 And all the things happening to us come about because of our evil works and our great sins.

84 For you, Lord, lightened our sins and gave us such a root; again we turned back to transgress your law, to mingle with the uncleanness of the nations of the land.

85 Were you not angered with us to destroy us until no root and seed and name of ours remained?

86 Lord of Israel, you are true; for we were left a root today.

87 Behold, now we are before you in our lawless acts; for we cannot still stand before you because of these things.

88 And when Esdras, praying, was making confession, weeping, prostrate upon the ground before the temple, a very great crowd from Jerusalem gathered to him, men and women and youths; for there was great weeping in the multitude.

89 And Jechonias son of Jeelos, of the sons of Israel, called out and said to Esdras, We sinned against the Lord and married foreign women from the nations of the land; and now there is hope for Israel.

90 In this let there be an oath for us to the Lord, to cast out all our wives from the foreigners with their children, as was judged fitting by you and as many as obey the law of the Lord.

91 Rise and carry it out; for the matter is yours, and we are with you to give strength.

92 And Esdras rose and put the tribal chiefs of the priests and Levites of all Israel under oath to do according to these things; and they swore.

Chapter 9

1 And Esdras rose from the courtyard of the temple and went into the chamber of Joanan son of Eliasibos,

2 and lodging there, he tasted no bread and drank no water, mourning over the great lawless acts of the multitude.

3 And a proclamation was made throughout Judea and Jerusalem that all those from the captivity should gather in Jerusalem;

4 and as many as do not arrive within two or three days, according to the judgment of the presiding elders, their livestock shall be consecrated, and he himself shall be excluded from the multitude of the captivity.

5 And those from the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered within three days in Jerusalem [this is the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month],

6 and all the multitude sat together in the open space of the temple, trembling because of the present storm.

7 And Esdras rose and said to them, You acted lawlessly and married foreign women, adding sin to Israel;

8 and now give confession, glory to the Lord, the God of our fathers,

9 and do his will and separate yourselves from the nations of the land and from the foreign women.

10 And all the multitude cried out and said with a great voice, We shall do thus, as you have said;

11 but the multitude is large and the season wintry, and we cannot stand in the open air, and we did not find, and the work for us is not of one day or two; for we sinned extensively in these things.

12 But let the leaders of the multitude stand, and all those from our settlements who have foreign wives, let them arrive, having taken an appointed time;

13 and the elders and judges of each place, until the wrath of the Lord for this matter is removed from us.

14 Jonathas son of Azaelos and Jezias son of Thokanos undertook according to these things, and Mosollamos and Levis and Sabbataios assisted them in judgment.

15 And those from the captivity did according to all these things.

16 And Esdras the priest chose for himself men leading their families, all by name, and they sat together on the new moon of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And the matters concerning the men keeping foreign wives were brought to an end by the new moon of the first month.

18 And among the priests, those gathered were found having foreign wives:

19 from the sons of Jesus son of Josedek and the brothers, Maseas and Eleazaros and Joribos and Jodanos;

20 and they pledged their hands to cast out their wives, and rams for atonement for their ignorance.

21 And from the sons of Emmer, Ananias and Zabdaios and Manes and Samaios and Jiel and Azarias.

22 And from the sons of Phaisour, Elionais, Massias, Ismaelos and Nathanaelos and Okidelos and Salthas.—

23 And from the Levites: Jozabdos and Semeis and Kolios [this is Kalitas] and Pathaios and Ooudas and Joanas;

24 from the temple singers, Eliasibos, Bakchouros;

25 from the doorkeepers, Salloumos and Tolbanes.—

26 From Israel: from the sons of Phoros, Jermas and Jezias and Melchias and Miaminos and Eleazaros and Asibias and Bannaias;

27 from the sons of Elam, Matanias and Zacharias, Jezrielos and Obadios and Jeremoth and Elias;

28 and from the sons of Zamoth, Eliadas, Eliasimos, Othonias, Jarimoth and Sabathos and Zerdaias;

29 and from the sons of Bebai, Joannes and Ananias and Zabdos and Emathis;

30 and from the sons of Mani, Olamos, Mamouchos, Jedaios, Jasoubos and Asaelos and Jeremoth;

31 and from the sons of Addi, Naathos and Moossias, Lakkounos and Naidos and Beskaspasmys and Sesthel and Balnouos and Manasseas;

32 and from the sons of Annan, Elionas and Asaias and Melchias and Sabbaias and Simon Chosamaios;

33 and from the sons of Asom, Maltannaios and Mattathias and Sabannaious and Eliphalat and Manasses and Semei;

34 and from the sons of Baani, Jeremias, Momdios, Maeros, Jouel, Mamdai and Pedias and Anos, Karabasion and Eliasibos and Mamnitanaimos, Eliasis, Bannous, Elialis, Someis, Selemias, Nathanias; and from the sons of Ezora, Sessis, Ezril, Azaelos, Samatos, Zambris, Josepos;

35 and from the sons of Nooma, Mazitias, Zabadaias, Edais, Jouel, Banaias.—

36 All these married foreign women; and they sent them away with children.

37 And the priests and the Levites and those from Israel dwelt in Jerusalem and in the country. On the new moon of the seventh month—and the sons of Israel were in their settlements—

38 and all the multitude gathered with one accord in the open space of the temple gateway toward the east,

39 and told Esdras the high priest and reader to bring the law of Moses handed down by the Lord, the God of Israel.

40 And Esdras the high priest brought the law to all the multitude, from man to woman, and to all the priests to hear the law on the new moon of the seventh month;

41 and he was reading in the open space before the temple gateway from dawn until midday before both men and women, and all the multitude gave their mind to the law.

42 And Esdras the priest and reader of the law stood upon the wooden platform prepared,

43 and beside him stood Mattathias, Sammous, Ananias, Azarias, Ourias, Ezekias, Baalsamos on the right,

44 and on the left Phadaios, Misael, Melchias, Lothasoubos, Nabarias, Zacharias.

45 And Esdras took up the book of the law before the multitude—for he presided gloriously before all—

46 and when he unrolled the law, all stood upright. And Esdras blessed the Lord God Most High, God Sabaoth, almighty, 47 and all the multitude cried out, Amen, and raising their hands up, falling upon the earth, they worshipped the Lord.

48 Jesus and Anniouth and Sarabias, Jadinos, Jakoubos, Sabbataios, Autaias, Maiannas and Kalitas, Azarias and Jozabdos, Ananias, Phalias, the Levites, were teaching the law of the Lord and reading the law of the Lord to the multitude, at the same time imparting understanding of the reading.—

49 And Attarates said to Esdras the high priest and reader and to the Levites teaching the multitude, to all,

50 This day is holy to the Lord—and all were weeping as they heard the law—;

51 go therefore, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and send portions to those who have none,

52 for the day is holy to the Lord; and do not be grieved, for the Lord will glorify you.

53 And the Levites were commanding all the people, saying, This day is holy; do not be grieved.

54 And all went away to eat and drink and rejoice and give portions to those who had none and rejoice greatly,

55 because they were also given understanding in the words in which they were taught.—And they gathered together.

2 Esdras

Chapter 1

1 And in the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, so that the word of the Lord from the mouth of Jeremias would be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of the Persians, and he ordered a proclamation throughout his kingdom, indeed also in writing, saying,

2 Thus said Cyrus king of the Persians: The Lord, the God of heaven, gave me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem in Judea.

3 Who among you is of all his people? And his God shall be with him, and he shall go up to Jerusalem in Judea, and let him build the house of the God of Israel [he is the God in Jerusalem].

4 And everyone remaining from all the places where he himself sojourns, the men of his place shall take him up with silver and gold and equipment and livestock, together with the voluntary offering for the house of God in Jerusalem.—

5 And the rulers of the families of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and the Levites arose, of all whose spirit God stirred to go up to build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem.

6 And all those round about strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with equipment and livestock and gifts, apart from the voluntary offerings.

7 And King Cyrus brought out the vessels of the house of the Lord which Nabouchodonosor took from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his god,

8 and Cyrus king of the Persians brought them out into the hand of Mithradates the gasbarenos, and he counted them for Sasabasar ruler of Judah.

9 And this is their number: thirty gold cooling vessels and a thousand silver cooling vessels, twenty-nine assorted items,

10 thirty gold kephphoure and two hundred silver ones, and a thousand other vessels.

11 All the vessels of gold and silver, five thousand four hundred, all going up with Sasabasar from the deportation, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Chapter 2

1 And these are the sons of the country going up from the captivity of the deportation which Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon deported to Babylon, and they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each man to his city,

2 who came with Zorobabel: Jesus, Neemias, Saraias, Reelias, Mardochaios, Balasan, Masphar, Bagoui, Reoum, Baana. The number of men of the people of Israel:

3 sons of Phoros, two thousand one hundred seventy-two.

4 Sons of Saphatia, three hundred seventy-two.

5 Sons of Era, seven hundred seventy-five.

6 Sons of Phaathmoab belonging to the sons of Jesoue Joab, two thousand eight hundred twelve.

7 Sons of Ailam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four.

8 Sons of Zathoua, nine hundred forty-five.

9 Sons of Zakchou, seven hundred sixty.

10 Sons of Banoui, six hundred forty-two.

11 Sons of Babi, six hundred twenty-three.

12 Sons of Asgad, three thousand two hundred twenty-two.

13 Sons of Adonikam, six hundred sixty-six.

14 Sons of Bagoi, two thousand fifty-six.

15 Sons of Adin, four hundred fifty-four.

16 Sons of Ater belonging to Ezekias, ninety-eight.

17 Sons of Basou, three hundred twenty-three.

18 Sons of Jora, one hundred twelve.

19 Sons of Asem, two hundred twenty-three.

20 Sons of Gaber, ninety-five.

21 Sons of Bethlehem, one hundred twenty-three.

22 Sons of Netopha, fifty-six.

23 Sons of Anathoth, one hundred twenty-eight.

24 Sons of Asmoth, forty-two.

25 Sons of Kariathiarim, Kaphira and Beroth, seven hundred forty-three.

26 Sons of Arama and Gabaa, six hundred twenty-one.

27 Men of Machmas, one hundred twenty-two.

28 Men of Baithel and Aia, four hundred twenty-three.

29 Sons of Nabou, fifty-two.

30 Sons of Magebos, one hundred fifty-six.

31 Sons of Elam—ar, one thousand two hundred fifty-four.

32 Sons of Eram, three hundred twenty.

33 Sons of Lod, Aroth and Ono, seven hundred twenty-five.

34 Sons of Jericho, three hundred forty-five.

35 Sons of Sanaa, three thousand six hundred thirty.—

36 And the priests: sons of Jedoua belonging to the house of Jesus, nine hundred seventy-three.

37 Sons of Emmer, one thousand fifty-two.

38 Sons of Phassour, one thousand two hundred forty-seven.

39 Sons of Erem, one thousand seven.—

40 And the Levites: sons of Jesus and Kadmiel belonging to the sons of Odouia, seventy-four.

41 The singers: sons of Asaph, one hundred twenty-eight.

42 Sons of the gatekeepers: sons of Saloum, sons of Ater, sons of Telmon, sons of Akoub, sons of Atita, sons of Sabaou, all one hundred thirty-nine.—

43 The Nathinaioi: sons of Souia, sons of Asouphe, sons of Tabaoth,

44 sons of Keraos, sons of Soea, sons of Phadon,

45 sons of Labano, sons of Agaba, sons of Akaboth,

46 sons of Agab, sons of Samalai, sons of Anan,

47 sons of Kedel, sons of Gaer, sons of Reea,

48 sons of Rason, sons of Nekoda, sons of Gazem,

49 sons of Ousa, sons of Phase, sons of Basi,

50 sons of Asena, sons of Maonim, sons of Naphison,

51 sons of Bakbouk, sons of Akipha, sons of Arour,

52 sons of Basaloth, sons of Maouda, sons of Aresa,

53 sons of Barkous, sons of Sisara, sons of Thema,

54 sons of Nasoue, sons of Atoupha.

55 Sons of Abdeselma: sons of Sati, sons of Asepherath, sons of Phadoura,

56 sons of Jeela, sons of Darkon, sons of Gedel,

57 sons of Saphatia, sons of Atil, sons of Phacherath—aseboin, sons of Emi.

58 All the Nathinin and sons of Abdeselma, three hundred ninety-two.—

59 And these are those who came up from Thelmeleth, Thelaresa, Charoub, Edan, Emmer, and they were unable to declare their family house and their seed, whether they are from Israel:

60 sons of Dalaia, sons of Boua, sons of Tobia, sons of Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two.

61 And from the sons of the priests: sons of Chabia, sons of Akous, sons of Berzellai, who took a wife from the daughters of Berzellai the Galaadite and was called by their name;

62 these, the methoesim sought their record, and they were not found; and they were ἠγχιστεύθησαν [sense uncertain] from the priesthood,

63 and Athersatha told them not to eat from the holy of holies until a priest should arise with the enlightening things and the perfect things.—

64 And the whole assembly as one, forty-two thousand three hundred sixty,

65 apart from their slaves and their female servants, these seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven; and these male singers and female singers, two hundred;

66 their horses, seven hundred thirty-six, their mules, two hundred forty-five,

67 their camels, four hundred thirty-five, their asses, six thousand seven hundred twenty.—

68 And some of the rulers of families, when they came to the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, made voluntary offerings for the house of God, to establish it upon its prepared site;

69 according to their ability they gave to the treasury of the work pure gold, sixty-one thousand minas, and silver, five thousand minas, and a hundred kothonoi of the priests.—

70 And the priests and the Levites and those from the people and the singers and the gatekeepers and the Nathinim settled in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Chapter 3

1 And the seventh month arrived—and the sons of Israel were in their cities—and the people gathered as one man in Jerusalem.

2 And Jesus son of Josedek and his brothers the priests and Zorobabel son of Salathiel and his brothers arose and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer whole burnt offerings upon it according to the things written in the law of Moses, the man of God.

3 And they prepared the altar upon its prepared site, because terror was upon them from the peoples of the lands, and a whole burnt offering to the Lord went up upon it in the morning and toward evening.

4 And they kept the feast of tents according to what was written, and whole burnt offerings day by day, in number according to the ordinance, the requirement of a day on its day,

5 and after this continual whole burnt offerings, and for the new moons and for all the sanctified feasts, and for everyone voluntarily offering a voluntary offering to the Lord.

6 On day one of the seventh month they began to offer whole burnt offerings to the Lord; and the house of the Lord had not been founded.

7 And they gave silver to the stonecutters and carpenters, and food and drink and oil to the Sedanin and the Sorin, to bring cedar timber from Lebanon to the sea of Joppe, according to the concession of Cyrus king of the Persians to them.—

8 And in the second year of their coming to the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zorobabel son of Salathiel and Jesus son of Josedek and the remaining ones of their brothers, the priests and the Levites, and all those coming from the captivity to Jerusalem began, and they stationed the Levites from twenty years old and upward over those doing the works in the house of the Lord.

9 And Jesus and his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, sons of Judah, stood over those doing the works in the house of God, sons of Enadad, their sons and their brothers, the Levites.

10 And they laid foundations to build the house of the Lord, and the priests stood robed with trumpets, and the Levites, sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the Lord according to the hands of David king of Israel,

11 and they answered in praise and thanksgiving to the Lord, because it is good, because his mercy upon Israel is for the age. And all the people sounded a great voice to praise the Lord at the foundation of the house of the Lord.

12 And many from the priests and the Levites and rulers of the families, the elders who saw the first house at its foundation and this house with their eyes, were weeping with a great voice, and a crowd with shouting and gladness raised a song;

13 and the people were not distinguishing the sound of the shout of gladness from the sound of the people's weeping, because the people cried out with a great voice, and the sound was heard even from afar.

Chapter 4

1 And those afflicting Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the deportation were building a house for the Lord, the God of Israel,

2 and approached Zorobabel and the rulers of the families and said to them, We shall build with you, because like you we seek your God, and we sacrifice to him since the days of Asaraddon king of Assour, who brought us here.

3 And Zorobabel and Jesus and the remaining rulers of the families of Israel said to them, It is not for us and you to build a house for our God, because we ourselves together shall build for the Lord our God, as Cyrus king of the Persians commanded us.

4 And the people of the land were weakening the hands of the people of Judah, and they were hindering them from building,

5 and hiring those deliberating against them to scatter their counsel all the days of Cyrus king of the Persians and until the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

6 And in the reign of Asoueros, at the beginning of his reign, they wrote a letter against those dwelling in Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the days of Arthasastha, Tabeel wrote in peace to Mithradates, together also with his other fellow servants, to Arthasastha king of the Persians; the tax collector wrote a writing in Syrian and translated.

8 Raoum baaltam and Samsai the scribe wrote one letter against Jerusalem to King Arthasastha.

9 These things Raoum baaltam and Samsai the scribe and our remaining fellow servants determined, Dinaioi, Apharsathachaioi, Tarphallaioi, Apharsaioi, Archyaioi, Babylonians, Sousanachaioi [who are Elamites],

10 and the remaining ones of the nations whom the great and honored Asennaphar deported and settled in the cities of Somoron, and the remnant beyond the river;

11 this is the arrangement of the letter which they sent to him: To King Arthasastha, your servants, men beyond the river.

12 Let it be known to the king that the Judeans who came up from you to us came to Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and evil city, and they have repaired its walls and raised its foundations.

13 Now therefore let it be known to the king that if that city is rebuilt and its walls repaired, there will be no tribute for you, nor will they give it; and this harms kings.

14 And it is not permitted for us to see the king's disgrace; because of this we sent and made known to the king,

15 that he may examine the book of the record of your fathers, and you will find and know that that city is a rebellious city and harms kings and countries, and there have been flights of slaves in its midst from times of old; because of these things this city was desolated.

16 We therefore make known to the king that if that city is built and its walls repaired, there is no peace for you.

17 And the king sent peace to Raoum baaltam and Samsai the scribe and their remaining fellow servants dwelling in Samaria and the remaining ones beyond the river, and says,

18 The tax collector whom you sent to us was called before me.

19 And a decision was issued by me, and we examined and found that that city rises against kings from days of old, and rebellions and flights occur in it,

20 and strong kings arise over Jerusalem and rule all the west of the river, and full tribute and a portion are given to them.

21 And now issue a decision to stop those men, and that city shall no longer be built, so that according to the decision

22 you may be on guard against allowing relaxation in this matter, lest destruction multiply to the harm of kings.

23 Then the tax collector of King Arthasastha read before Raoum and Samsai the scribe and their fellow servants; and they went in haste to Jerusalem and into Judah and stopped them with horses and force.

24 Then the work of the house of God in Jerusalem ceased, and was idle until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

Chapter 5

1 And Angaios the prophet and Zacharias son of Addo prophesied a prophecy to the Judeans in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel over them.

2 Then Zorobabel son of Salathiel and Jesus son of Josedek arose and began to build the house of God in Jerusalem, and with them were the prophets of God, helping them.

3 At that very time Thanthanai governor beyond the river and Satharbouzana and their fellow servants came against them and said such things to them: Who issued you a decision to build this house and complete this provision?

4 Then they said these things to them: What are the names of the men building this city?

5 And the eyes of God were upon the captivity of Judah, and they did not stop them until a decision was carried to Darius; and then a message was sent to the tax collector concerning this.

6 A transcript of the letter which Thanthanai governor beyond the river and Satharbouzana and their fellow servants, the Apharsachaioi beyond the river, sent to King Darius;

7 they sent a statement to him, and these things are written in it: To King Darius, all peace.

8 Let it be known to the king that we went into the country of Judea, to the house of the great God, and it is being built with choice stones, and timber is being placed in the walls, and that work is being done skillfully and prospers in their hands.

9 Then we questioned those elders and said thus to them, Who issued you a decision to build this house and complete this provision?

10 And we asked them their names to make known to you, so as to write to you the names of the men who are their rulers.

11 And they answered us with such a statement, saying, We are slaves of the God of heaven and earth, and we are building the house which had been built many years before this, and a great king of Israel built it and completed it

12 for them. But from the time when our fathers provoked the God of heaven to anger, he gave them into the hands of Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon, the Chaldean, and he demolished this house and deported the people to Babylon.

13 But in the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a decision that this house of God should be built.

14 And the vessels of the house of God, the gold and silver ones, which Nabouchodonosor brought out of the house in Jerusalem and carried away to the king's temple, King Cyrus brought out of the king's temple and gave to Sasabasar the treasurer over the treasury,

15 and said to him, Take all the vessels and go, place them in the house in Jerusalem in their own place.

16 Then that Sasabasar came and laid foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem; and from then until now it has been built and has not been completed.

17 And now, if it is good to the king, let an examination be made in the treasury house of the king of Babylon, so that you may know that a decision was issued by King Cyrus to build that house of God in Jerusalem; and when the king knows concerning this, let him send to us.

Chapter 6

1 Then King Darius issued a decision and examined in the libraries where the treasure is laid in Babylon.

2 And in a city, in the fortress of the city of the Medes, one scroll was found, and this was written in it: Memorandum:

3 In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a decision concerning the house of God in Jerusalem: Let a house be built, and a place where they sacrifice the sacrifices; and he set an elevation, a height of sixty cubits, its width sixty cubits;

4 and three strong stone courses and one wooden course; and the expense shall be given from the king's house;

5 and the vessels of the house of God, the silver and gold ones, which Nabouchodonosor brought out of the house in Jerusalem and conveyed to Babylon, let them be given and go to the temple in Jerusalem, to the place where they were placed in the house of God.

6 Now you shall give, governors beyond the river, Satharbouzana and their fellow servants, the Apharsachaioi beyond the river, being far from there,

7 leave the work of the house of God alone; let the leaders of the Judeans and the elders of the Judeans build that house of God upon its site.

8 And a decision was issued by me that you should never do anything with the elders of the Judeans toward building that house of God; and from the king's possessions, the tributes beyond the river, let expenses be diligently given to those men, so that it may not be stopped;

9 and whatever deficiency there may be, both offspring of oxen and rams and lambs for whole burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, oil, according to the word of the priests in Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day, whatever they ask,

10 so that they may offer sweet smells to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

11 And a decision was issued by me that every man who changes this word, a timber shall be taken down from his house, and he shall be raised upright and fixed upon it, and his house shall be dealt with according to me.

12 And God, whose name dwells there, will overthrow every king and people who stretches out his hand to change or destroy that house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, issued a decision; it shall be done diligently.

13 Then Thanthanai governor beyond the river, Satharbouzana and his fellow servants did thus diligently according to what King Darius sent.

14 And the elders of the Judeans were building, and the Levites, through the prophecy of Angaios the prophet and Zacharias son of Addo, and they rebuilt and completed it by the decision of the God of Israel and by the decision of Cyrus and Darius and Arthasastha, kings of the Persians.

15 And they completed this house by the third day of the month Adar, which is the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

16 And the sons of Israel, the priests and the Levites and the remaining sons of the deportation, held the dedication of the house of God with gladness.

17 And they offered for the dedication of the house of God a hundred calves, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, twelve male goats for sin for all Israel, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they stationed the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their portions for the service of God in Jerusalem, according to the writing of the book of Moses.

19 And the sons of the deportation kept the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites were cleansed to a man, all clean, and slaughtered the Passover for all the sons of the deportation and for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

21 And the sons of Israel ate the Passover, those from the deportation and everyone separating from the uncleanness of the nations of the land to join them, to seek the Lord, the God of Israel.

22 And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with gladness, because the Lord gladdened them and turned the heart of the king of Assour toward them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the house of the God of Israel.

Chapter 7

1 And after these words, in the reign of Arthasastha king of the Persians, Esdras went up, son of Saraios son of Azarios son of Elkia,

2 son of Saloum son of Saddouk son of Achitob,

3 son of Samaria son of Esria son of Mareroth,

4 son of Zaraia son of Saouia son of Bokki,

5 son of Abisoue son of Phinees son of Eleazar son of Aaron the first priest;

6 this Esdras went up from Babylon, and he was a swift scribe in the law of Moses which the Lord, the God of Israel, gave; and the king gave to him, because the hand of the Lord his God was upon him, in all that he himself sought.

7 And some of the sons of Israel and some of the priests and some of the Levites, and the singers and the gatekeepers and the Nathinim, went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Arthasastha.

8 And they came to Jerusalem in the fifth month; this is the king's seventh year;

9 for on the first of the first month he himself laid the foundation of the ascent from Babylon, and on the first of the fifth month they came to Jerusalem, because the hand of his God was good upon him.

10 For Esdras put it in his heart to seek the law and do it and teach ordinances and judgments in Israel.

11 And this is the transcript of the decree which Arthasastha gave to Esdras the priest, the scribe of the book of the words of the Lord's commandments and his ordinances for Israel:

12 Arthasastha king of kings to Esdras, scribe of the law of the God of heaven: The word and the answer are completed.

13 A decision was issued by me that everyone in my kingdom from the people of Israel and priests and Levites who volunteers to go to Jerusalem should go with you;

14 he was sent from before the king and the seven counselors to examine concerning Judea and Jerusalem according to the law of their God in your hand.

15 And for the house of the Lord, silver and gold which the king and the counselors voluntarily offered to the God of Israel dwelling in Jerusalem,

16 and all silver and gold, whatever you may find in all the country of Babylon, together with the voluntary offering of the people and priests voluntarily offering for the house of God in Jerusalem,

17 and everything coming in, readily enter this in this book: calves, rams, lambs and their sacrifices and their libations, and you shall offer them upon the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

18 And if it seems good to you and your brothers to do anything with the remainder of the silver and gold, do as is pleasing to your God.

19 And the vessels given to you for the ministry of the house of God, hand over before God in Jerusalem.

20 And the remainder of the need of the house of your God, whatever it seems to you to give, you shall give from the king's treasury houses.

21 And from me—I, King Arthasastha, issued a decision to all the treasuries beyond the river—that everything which Esdras the priest and scribe of the law of the God of heaven asks of you should be done readily,

22 up to a hundred talents of silver and up to a hundred kors of wheat and up to a hundred baths of wine and up to a hundred baths of oil, and salt for which there is no written limit.

23 Let everything which is in the decision of the God of heaven be done. Take care lest anyone attempt anything against the house of the God of heaven, lest wrath come upon the kingdom of the king and his sons.

24 And it has been made known to you: among all the priests and Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Nathinim and ministers of this house of God, let there be no tribute for you; you shall not have authority to enslave them.

25 And you, Esdras, according to the wisdom of God in your hand, appoint scribes and judges, so that they may judge all the people beyond the river, all those knowing the law of your God, and to the one not knowing you shall make it known.

26 And everyone who does not readily do the law of God and the law of the king, judgment shall be executed upon him, whether to death or discipline or loss of possessions or bonds.

27 Blessed is the Lord, the God of our fathers, who put it thus in the king's heart to glorify the house of the Lord in Jerusalem,

28 and inclined mercy toward me in the eyes of the king and his counselors and all the king's exalted rulers. And I was strengthened, as the good hand of God was upon me, and gathered rulers from Israel to go up with me.

Chapter 8

1 And these are the rulers of their families, the guides going up with me in the reign of Arthasastha king of Babylon:

2 from the sons of Phinees, Gersom; from the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; from the sons of David, Atous;

3 from the sons of Sachania, from the sons of Phoros, Zacharias, and with him the company, a hundred fifty;

4 from the sons of Phaathmoab, Eliana son of Zaraia, and with him two hundred males;

5 from the sons of Zathoe, Sechenias son of Aziel, and with him three hundred males;

6 and from the sons of Adin, Obeth son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males;

7 and from the sons of Elam, Jesia son of Athelia, and with him seventy males;

8 and from the sons of Saphatia, Zabdia son of Michael, and with him eighty males;

9 and from the sons of Joab, Abadia son of Jiel, and with him two hundred eighteen males;

10 and from the sons of Baani, Salimouth son of Josephia, and with him a hundred sixty males;

11 and from the sons of Babi, Zacharia son of Babi, and with him seventy-eight males;

12 and from the sons of Asgad, Joanan son of Akatan, and with him a hundred ten males;

13 and from the sons of Adonikam, the last ones, and these are their names: Aliphalat, Jiel and Samaia, and with them sixty males;

14 and from the sons of Bago, Outhi, and with him seventy males.

15 And I gathered them at the river coming toward Eui, and we camped there three days. And I examined among the people and among the priests, and I found none of the sons of Levi there;

16 and I sent men to Eleazar, Ariel, Samaia and Alonam and Jarib and Elnathan and Nathan and Zacharia and Mesoulam, and discerning men to Joarib and Elnathan,

17 and brought them out before a ruler in the silver of the place and put words in their mouth to speak to their brothers, the Nathinim in the silver of the place, to bring us singers for the house of our God.

18 And there came to us, as the hand of our God was good upon us, a man sachol from the sons of Mooli son of Levi son of Israel; and at first his sons and brothers came, eighteen;

19 and Asebia and Osaia from the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty;

20 and from the Nathinim whom David and the rulers gave for the service of the Levites, two hundred twenty Nathinim; all were gathered by names.

21 And I proclaimed a fast there at the river Aoue, to humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a straight way for us and our children and all our possessions.

22 For I was ashamed to ask the king for a force and horsemen to save us from an enemy on the way, because we said to the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all those seeking him for good, and his might and his wrath upon all those forsaking him.

23 And we fasted and sought from our God concerning this, and he heeded us.

24 And I set apart twelve from the rulers of the priests, for Saraia, Asabia and with them ten from their brothers,

25 and weighed out to them the silver and gold and the vessels of the first offering of the house of our God, which the king and his counselors and his rulers and all Israel who were found lifted up.

26 And I weighed out into their hands six hundred fifty talents of silver and a hundred silver vessels and a hundred talents of gold,

27 and twenty gold kaphoure for the journey, a thousand chamanim, and various vessels of good shining bronze, desirable among gold.

28 And I said to them, You are holy to the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the silver and gold are voluntary offerings to the Lord, the God of your fathers;

29 keep awake and guard them until you stand before the rulers of the priests and the Levites and the rulers of the families in Jerusalem, in the tents of the house of the Lord.

30 And the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and gold and the vessels, to bring to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.

31 And we set out from the river Aoue on the twelfth of the first month to come to Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of an enemy and foe on the way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem and stayed there three days.

33 And it happened on the fourth day that we weighed out the silver and gold and vessels in the house of our God into the hand of Merimoth son of Ouria the priest—and with him Eleazar son of Phinees, and with them Jozabad son of Jesus and Noadia son of Banaia, the Levites—

34 everything by number and weight, and all the weight was written. At that time,

35 those who came from the captivity, sons of the sojourning, offered whole burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve calves for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, twelve male goats for sin, all whole burnt offerings to the Lord.

36 And they gave the king's ordinance to the king's administrators and governors beyond the river, and they glorified the people and the house of God.

Chapter 9

1 And when these things were completed, the rulers approached me, saying, The people Israel and the priests and the Levites were not separated from the peoples of the lands in their abominations, the Chanani, the Ethi, the Pherezi, the Jebousi, the Ammoni, the Moabi, the Moseri and the Amori,

2 for they took from their daughters for themselves and for their sons, and the holy seed was brought among peoples of the lands, and the hand of the rulers was foremost in this faithlessness.

3 And when I heard this word, I tore my garments and was leaping, and I was plucking from the hairs of my head and from my beard, and I sat remaining still.

4 And everyone pursuing the word of the God of Israel gathered to me over the faithlessness of the exiled community, and I was sitting, remaining still until the evening sacrifice.

5 And at the evening sacrifice I arose from my humiliation; and as I tore my garments, I was leaping, and I bend upon my knees and spread out my hands toward the Lord God

6 and said, Lord, I was ashamed and abashed to lift my face toward you, for our lawless deeds multiplied above our head, and our offenses grew great as far as heaven.

7 From the days of our fathers we are in great offense until this day; and in our lawless deeds we were handed over, we and our kings and our sons, into the hand of kings of the nations, with sword and with captivity and with plunder and with shame of our face, as this day.

8 And now the Lord our God dealt leniently with us, to leave something for us for salvation and to give us a support in the place of his sanctuary, to enlighten our eyes and give a little quickening in our slavery.

9 For we are slaves, and in our slavery the Lord our God did not abandon us, and he inclined mercy upon us before kings of Persians, to give us quickening, for them to raise the house of our God and restore her desolate places, and to give us a fence in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 What should we say, our God, after this? For we abandoned your commandments,

11 which you gave us by the hand of your slaves the prophets, saying, The land into which you enter to inherit it is a land being displaced by the displacement of peoples of the nations in their abominations, with which they filled it from mouth to mouth in their uncleannesses;

12 and now do not give your daughters to their sons, and do not take from their daughters for your sons, and you shall not seek out their peace and their good forever, so that you may grow strong and eat the good things of the land and bequeath them to your sons forever.

13 And after everything coming upon us in our evil deeds and in our great offense; for there is none like our God, for you lightened our lawless deeds and gave us salvation;

14 for we turned back to scatter your commandments and to intermarry with the peoples of the lands; do not be provoked against us to the point of consummation, so that there is no remnant and survivor.

15 Lord, God of Israel, you are righteous, for we were left surviving, as this day; behold, we are before you in our offenses, for it is not possible to stand before you on account of this.

Chapter 10

1 And as Esdras prayed and as he confessed, weeping and praying before the house of God, a very great assembly gathered to him from Israel, men and women and young men, for the people wept and raised their voice, weeping.

2 And Sechenias son of Jiiel, from the sons of Elam, answered and said to Esdras, We acted faithlessly toward our God and settled foreign wives from the peoples of the land; and now there is endurance for Israel in this.

3 And now let us make a covenant with our God to cast out all the wives and what was born from them, as you wish; arise and frighten them with the commandments of our God, and let it happen according to the law.

4 Arise, for the matter is upon you, and we are with you; be strong and act.

5 And Esdras arose and made the rulers, the priests and Levites and all Israel swear to act according to this word, and they swore.

6 And Esdras arose from before the house of God and went into the treasury of Joanan son of Elisoub, and he went there; he did not eat bread and did not drink water, for he was mourning over the faithlessness of the exiled community.

7 And they carried a proclamation through Judah and through Jerusalem to all the sons of the exiled community, to be gathered into Jerusalem,

8 and everyone who does not come within three days, according to the counsel of the rulers and the elders, all his property shall be devoted to destruction, and he shall be separated from the assembly of the exiled community.

9 And all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered into Jerusalem within the three days; this was the ninth month. On the twentieth of the month all the people sat in the square of the house of God, because of their disturbance concerning the matter and because of the storm.

10 And Esdras the priest arose and said to them, You acted faithlessly and settled foreign wives, to add to Israel's offense;

11 and now give praise to the Lord, the God of your fathers, and do what is pleasing before him, and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives.

12 And the whole assembly answered and said, Great is this word of yours for us to do;

13 but the people are many, and the season is wintry, and there is no ability to stand outside; and the work is not for one day and not for two, for we multiplied wrongdoing in this matter.

14 Let our rulers, then, stand for the whole assembly, and let all those in our cities, whoever settled foreign wives, come at times by arrangements, and with them elders of each city and judges, to turn away the wrath of the anger of our God from us concerning this matter.

15 Only Jonathan son of Asael and Jazia son of Thekoue were with me concerning this, and Mesoulam and Sabbathai the Levite were helping them.

16 And the sons of the exiled community did so. And Esdras the priest and men who were rulers of ancestral families were set apart by house, and all by names, for they turned on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter.

17 And they finished with all the men who settled foreign wives by the first day of the first month.

18 And among the sons of the priests were found those who settled foreign wives: from the sons of Jesus son of Josedek and his brothers, Maasea and Eliezer and Jarib and Gadalia,

19 and they gave their hand to put out their wives, and a ram from the sheep as an offering for offense, concerning their offense;

20 and from the sons of Emmer, Anani and Zabdia;

21 and from the sons of Eram, Masaia and Elia and Samaia and Jiiel and Ozia;

22 and from the sons of Phasour, Elioenai, Maasaia and Ishmael and Nathanael and Jozabad and Elasa. –

23 And from the Levites: Jozabad and Samou and Kolia [he is Kolitas] and Phathaia and Jodom and Eliezer;

24 and from those singing, Elisaph; and from the gatekeepers, Sellem and Telem and Odoue. –

25 And from Israel: from the sons of Phoros, Ramia and Jazia and Melchia and Meamin and Eleazar and Asabia and Banaia;

26 and from the sons of Elam, Mathania and Zacharia and Jaiel and Abdia and Jarimoth and Elia;

27 and from the sons of Zathoua, Elioenai, Elisoub, Mathania and Jarmoth and Zabad and Oziza;

28 and from the sons of Babi, Joanan, Anania and Zabou, Othali;

29 and from the sons of Banoui, Mesoulam, Malouch, Adaias, Jasoub and Salouia and Remoth;

30 and from the sons of Phaathmoab, Edene, Chalel, Banaia, Masea, Mathania, Beselel and Banoui and Manasse;

31 and from the sons of Eram, Eliezer, Jessia, Melchia, Samaia, Semeon,

32 Benjamin, Malouch, Samaria;

33 and from the sons of Esam, Mathani, Mathatha, Zabed, Eliphaleth, Jerami, Manasse, Semei;

34 from the sons of Bani, Moodi, Amram, Ouel,

35 Banaia, Badaia, Chelia,

36 Oujechoa, Jeremoth, Eliasib,

37 Mathania, Mathanai, and they acted,

38 the sons of Banoui and the sons of Semei

39 and Selemia and Nathan and Adaia,

40 Machnadabou, Sesi, Sarou,

41 Ezerel and Selemia and Samaria

42 and Saloum, Amaria, Joseph;

43 from the sons of Nabou, Jiiel, Mathathia, Sedem, Zambina, Jadai and Joel and Banaia. –

44 All these took foreign wives and begot sons from them.

Chapter 11

1 Words of Neemias son of Achalia. And it happened in the month Chaseelou, in the twentieth year, and I was in Sousan abira,

2 and Anani, one of my brothers, came, he and men of Judah, and I asked them concerning those saved, who were left from the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said to me, Those remaining, who were left from the captivity there in the country, are in great evil and in reproach, and the walls of Jerusalem are torn down, and her gates were burned with fire.

4 And it happened, when I heard these words, I sat and wept and mourned for days, and I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven

5 and said, Not so, Lord, God of heaven, the strong, the great and the fearsome, keeping the covenant and mercy for those loving him and those keeping his commandments;

6 let your ear, then, be attentive and your eyes opened to hear your slave's prayer, which I pray before you today, day and night, concerning the sons of Israel, your slaves, and I confess concerning the sins of the sons of Israel which we sinned against you. Both I and my father's house sinned;

7 with dissolution we acted dissolutely toward you, and we did not keep the commandments and the ordinances and the judgments which you commanded Moses your servant.

8 Remember, then, the word which you commanded Moses your servant, saying, If you act faithlessly, I will scatter you among the peoples;

9 and if you turn toward me and keep my commandments and do them, if your dispersion is from the end of heaven, from there I will gather them and bring them into the place which I chose for my name to dwell there.

10 And they are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed with your great power and with your mighty hand.

11 Not so, Lord, but let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your slave and to the prayer of your servants who wish to fear your name, and give success, then, to your servant today and give him into compassion before this man. – And I was cupbearer to the king.

Chapter 12

1 And it happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year for King Arthasastha, and the wine was before me, and I took the wine and gave it to the king, and there was no other before him;

2 and the king said to me, Why is your face evil, and are you not being moderate? This is nothing except evil of heart. And I feared very greatly.

3 And I said to the king, Let the king live forever; why should my face certainly not become evil, since the city, the house of my fathers' tombs, was made desolate, and her gates were consumed with fire?

4 And the king said to me, Concerning what do you seek this? And I prayed to the God of heaven

5 and said to the king, If it is good to the king, and if your servant will be favored before you, so as to send him to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, then I will rebuild it.

6 And the king and the concubine sitting beside him said to me, Until when will your journey be, and when will you return? And it was pleasing before the king, and he sent me away, and I gave him a limit.

7 And I said to the king, If it is good to the king, let him give me letters to the governors beyond the river, so as to convey me through until I come to Judah,

8 and a letter to Asaph, keeper of the garden which belongs to the king, so as to give me timber to roof the gates, and for the wall of the city, and for a house which I will enter into it. And the king gave to me according to the good hand of God.

9 And I came to the governors beyond the river and gave them the king's letters, and the king sent commanders of the force and horsemen with me. –

10 And Sanaballat the Aroni and Tobia the slave, the Ammoni, heard, and it became evil to them that a man had come to seek good for the sons of Israel.

11 And I came into Jerusalem and was there three days.

12 And I arose at night, I and a few men with me; and I did not report to a man what God puts into my heart to do with Israel, and there is no beast with me except the beast upon which I ride.

13 And I went out by the gate of the golela and toward the mouth of the spring of the figs and to the gate of the dung, and I was breaking in the wall of Jerusalem which they themselves pull down, and her gates were consumed by fire.

14 And I passed to the gate of Ain and into the king's pool, and there was no place for the beast beneath me to pass through.

15 And I was going up on the wall of the torrent at night, and I was breaking in the wall. And I was at the gate of the ravine and returned.

16 And those guarding did not know what I went for and what I do, and to the Jews and to the priests and to those honored and to the generals and to the remaining ones doing the works, until then I did not report it.

17 And I said to them, You see the evil in which we are in it, how Jerusalem is desolate and her gates were given to fire; come, and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be a reproach.

18 And I reported to them the hand of God, which is good upon me, and the king's words which he said to me, and I said, Let us arise and build. And their hands were strengthened for good. –

19 And Sanaballat the Aroni and Tobia the slave, the Ammoni, and Gesam the Arabi heard and laughed at us and came against us and said, What is this matter which you do? Are you rebelling against the king?

20 And I returned a word to them and said to them, The God of heaven, he himself will give us success, and we are his clean slaves, and we will build; and for you there is no portion and righteousness and memorial in Jerusalem.

Chapter 13

1 And Elisoub the great priest and his brothers the priests arose and built the sheep gate; they themselves sanctified it and set up its doors, and as far as the tower of the hundred they sanctified, as far as the tower of Ananeel,

2 and at the hands of sons of men of Jericho, and at the hands of sons of Zakchour son of Amari.

3 And the sons of Asana built the fish gate; they themselves roofed it and set up its doors and its locks and its bars.

4 And at their hand, from Ramoth, a son of Ouria son of Akos held firm. And at their hand Mosollam son of Barachiou son of Masezebel held firm. And at their hand Sadok son of Baana held firm.

5 And at their hand the Thekoin held firm, and adoriem did not bring their neck into their service.

6 And Joida son of Phasek and Mesoulam son of Basodia made firm the gate of Isana; they themselves roofed it and set up its doors and its locks and its bars.

8 And at their hand Ananias son of Rokeim made firm, and they left Jerusalem as far as the broad wall.

9 And at their hand Raphaia, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made firm.

10 And at their hand Jedaia son of Eromaph made firm, also opposite his house. And at his hand Atous son of Asbania made firm.

11 And second, Melchias son of Eram and Asoub son of Phaathmoab made firm, also as far as the tower of the thannourim.

12 And at his hand Saloum son of Alloes, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made firm, he and his daughters.

13 Anoun and those dwelling in Zano made firm the gate of the ravine; they themselves built it and set up its doors and its locks and its bars, and a thousand cubits in the wall as far as the gate of the dung.

14 And Melchia son of Rechab, ruler of the district of Bethacharm, made firm the gate of the dung, he and his sons, and they covered it and set up its doors and its locks and its bars.

15 And the wall of the pool of the fleeces, at the king's shearing, and as far as the stairs descending from the city of David.

16 Behind him Neemias son of Azabouch, ruler of half the district of Bethsour, made firm as far as the garden of David's tomb and as far as the pool that had been made and as far as Bethanggabarim.

17 Behind him the Levites made firm, Raoum son of Bani. At his hand Asabia, ruler of half the district of Keila, made firm for his district.

18 After him their brothers made firm, Beni son of Enadad, ruler of half the district of Keila.

19 And at his hand Azour son of Jesus, ruler of Masphe, made firm a second measure of the tower of the ascent adjoining the corner.

20 After him Barouch son of Zabou made firm a second measure, from the corner as far as the door of Bethelisoub the great priest.

21 After him Meramoth son of Ouria son of Akos made firm a second measure, from the door of Bethelisoub as far as the end of Bethelisoub.

22 And after him the priests, men of Achechar, made firm.

23 And after him Benjamin and Asoub made firm opposite their house. After him Azaria son of Maasea son of Anania made firm beside his house.

24 After him Bani son of Enadad made firm a second measure, from Bethazaria as far as the corner and as far as the bend,

25 Phalal son of Euzai opposite the corner, and the tower projecting from the king's house, the upper one belonging to the court of the guard. And after him Phadaia son of Phoros.

26 And the nathinim were dwelling in Ophal as far as the garden of the water gate eastward, and the projecting tower.

27 After him the Thekoin made firm a second measure opposite the great projecting tower and as far as the wall of Ophla.

28 Above the gate of the horses the priests made firm, each man opposite his house.

29 After him Saddouk son of Emmer made firm opposite his house. And after him Samaia son of Sechenia, keeper of the gate of the east, made firm.

30 After him Anania son of Selemia and Anoum son of Seleph, the sixth, made firm a second measure. After him Mesoulam son of Barchia made firm opposite his treasury.

31 After him Melchia son of Saraphi made firm as far as Bethanathinim, and the dealers in small wares opposite the gate of Maphekad and as far as the ascent of the bend.

32 And between the ascent of the sheep gate the smiths and the dealers in small wares made firm.

33 And it happened, when Sanaballat heard that we are building the wall, it was evil to him, and he was greatly angered and laughed at the Jews.

34 And he said before his brothers, Is this the power of Somoron, that these Jews build their own city?

35 And Tobias the Ammanite came beside him, and they said to one another, Surely they will not sacrifice or eat at their place? Will not a fox go up and pull down their wall of stones? –

36 Hear, our God, for we became an object of mockery, and turn their reproach upon their head, and give them over to mockery in a land of captivity, 37 and do not cover over lawlessness.

Chapter 14

1 And it happened, when Sanaballat and Tobia and the Arabs and the Ammanites heard that growth had risen on the walls of Jerusalem, that the breaches began to be blocked up, it appeared very evil to them;

2 and they all gathered together to come to array themselves for battle in Jerusalem.

3 And we prayed to our God and stationed advance guards against them day and night because of them.

4 And Judah said, The strength of the enemies was broken, and the loose earth is much, and we will not be able to build in the wall.

5 And those afflicting us said, They will not know and will not see until we come into their midst and murder them and stop the work.

6 And it happened, when the Jews dwelling beside them came and said to us, They are coming up against us from all the places,

7 then I stationed men in the lowest parts of the place behind the wall in the sheltered places, and I stationed the people by communities with their swords, their spears and their bows.

8 And I saw and arose and said to those honored and to the generals and to the remaining people, Do not fear before them; remember our great and fearsome God, and array yourselves for battle for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.

9 And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God scattered their counsel, we all returned to the wall, each man to his work.

10 And it happened, from that day half of those shaken out were doing the work, and half of them were holding out, and spears and shields and the bows and the breastplates and the rulers were behind the whole house of Judah,

11 of those building in the wall. And those lifting with the carrying apparatus were with weapons; with one hand he was doing the work itself, and one was holding the missile.

12 And the builders, each man girded with his sword upon his loin, were building, and the one sounding the horn was beside him.

13 And I said to those honored and to the rulers and to the remaining people, The work is broad and great, and we are scattered upon the wall, each man far from his brother;

14 in whatever place you hear the sound of the horn, there you shall gather to us, and our God will fight for us.

15 And we were doing the work, and half of them were holding the spears, from the rising of dawn until the coming out of the stars.

16 And at that time I said to the people, Lodge in the midst of Jerusalem, and let the night be for you an advance guard and the day work.

17 And I was there, and the men of the advance guard were behind me, and there was not a man among us taking off his garments.

Chapter 15

1 And there was a great cry of the people and their wives against their brothers the Jews.

2 And there were some saying, With our sons and with our daughters we are many; and we will take grain and eat and live.

3 And there are some saying, Our fields and our vineyards and our houses, we pledge; and we will take grain and eat.

4 And there are some saying, We borrowed silver for the king's taxes, our fields and our vineyards and our houses;

5 and now our flesh is like the flesh of our brothers, our sons like their sons; and behold, we subject our sons and our daughters to oppression as slaves, and some of our daughters are being oppressed, and there is no power in our hands, and our fields and our vineyards belong to those honored. –

6 And I was greatly grieved when I heard their cry and these words.

7 And my heart took counsel within me, and I contended with those honored and the rulers and said to them, By exaction you exact, each man from his brother. And I set a great assembly against them

8 and said to them, We have acquired our brothers the Jews who are sold to the nations, of our own free will; and do you sell your brothers? And they were silent and did not find a word.

9 And I said, The matter which you do is not good; not so, in the fear of our God you shall go away from the reproach of the nations, our enemies.

10 And my brothers and my acquaintances and I placed silver and grain among them; let us abandon this exaction, then.

11 Return to them, then, as of today, their fields, their vineyards, their olive trees and their houses; and from the silver bring out to them the grain and the wine and the oil.

12 And they said, We will give back and will not seek anything from them; thus we will do, as you say. And I called the priests and made them swear to act according to this word.

13 And I shook out my mantle and said, Thus may God shake out every man who will not establish this word, from his house and from his labor, and thus he shall be shaken out and empty. And the whole assembly said, Amen, and they praised the Lord; and the people did this thing.

14 From the day on which he commanded me to be their ruler in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year and until the thirty-second year for Arthasastha, twelve years, I and my brothers did not eat their forced levy;

15 and the former forced levies, which before me they imposed heavily upon them, and they took from them in bread and in wine, in addition silver, forty didrachms, and those of theirs shaken out exercise authority over the people, and I did not act so because of fear of God.

16 And in the work of the wall of these I did not take hold; I did not acquire a field; and all those gathered were there for the work.

17 And the Jews, a hundred and fifty men, and those coming to us from the nations around us were at my table.

18 And what was prepared for one day was one calf and six choice sheep, and a young goat was prepared for me, and at intervals of ten days, among all things, wine in abundance; and with these things I did not seek bread of the forced levy, for the service was heavy upon this people. –

19 Remember for me, God, for good, all that I did for this people.

Chapter 16

1 And it happened, when it was heard by Sanaballat and Tobia and Gesam the Arabi and the remaining ones of our enemies that I built the wall, no breath was left in them. Until that time I had not set doors in the gates.

2 And Sanaballat and Gesam sent to me, saying, Come, and let us gather together in the villages in the plain of Ono; and they were considering doing evil to me.

3 And I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work and will not be able to go down, lest the work stop; when I complete it, I will go down to you.

4 And they sent to me according to this word, and I sent to them according to these things.

5 And Sanaballat sent to me his servant, and an opened letter in his hand.

6 And it was written in it, It was heard among nations that you and the Jews consider rebelling; for this reason you build the wall, and you become their king;

7 and in addition to these things you stationed prophets for yourself, so that you may sit in Jerusalem as king in Judah; and now these words will be reported to the king; and now come, let us take counsel together.

8 And I sent to him, saying, It did not happen according to these words which you say, for from your heart you fabricate them.

9 For they all frighten us, saying, Their hands will grow slack from this work, and it will not be done; and now I strengthened my hands.

10 And I entered into the house of Semei son of Dalaia son of Meetabel – and he was confined – and he said, Let us gather into the house of God, into its midst, and close its doors, for they are coming at night to murder you.

11 And I said, Who is the man who will enter into the house and live?

12 And I recognized, and behold, God did not send him, for the prophecy was a word against me, and Tobias and Sanaballat hired

13 a crowd against me, so that I might fear and do thus and sin and become an evil name for them, so that they might reproach me. –

14 Remember, God, for Tobia and Sanaballat according to these deeds of his, and for Noadia the prophet and the remaining prophets who were frightening me.

15 And the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of Eloul, in fifty-two days.

16 And it happened, when all our enemies heard, all the nations around us feared, and fear fell greatly in their eyes, and they knew that it came about from our God for this work to be completed. –

17 And in those days letters from many honored men of Judah were going to Tobia, and those of Tobia were coming to them,

18 for many in Judah were bound by oath to him, for he was son-in-law of Sechenia son of Erae, and Joanan his son took the daughter of Mesoulam son of Barachia as wife.

19 And they were saying his words to me and carrying out my words to him, and Tobias sent letters to frighten me.

Chapter 17

1 And it happened, when the wall was built, I set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and those singing and the Levites were appointed.

2 And I gave orders to Anania my brother and to Anania, ruler of the bira in Jerusalem, for he was like a truthful man and one fearing God beyond many,

3 and I said to them, The gates of Jerusalem shall not be opened until the sun is up, and while they are still watching, let the doors be closed and wedged shut; and station advance guards from those dwelling in Jerusalem, each man at his guard post and each man opposite his house.

4 And the city was broad and great, and the people few in it, and there were no houses built.

5 And God put it into my heart, and I gathered those honored and the rulers and the people into companies; and I found a book of the company, those who went up among the first, and I found written in it,

6 And these are sons of the country who went up from the captivity of the exiled community which Nabouchodonosor king of Babylon exiled, and they returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each man to his city,

7 with Zorobabel and Jesus and Neemias, Azaria, Daemia, Naemani, Mardochaios, Balsan, Maspharath, Esdras, Bagoi, Naoum, Baana, Masphar. Men of the people Israel:

8 sons of Phoros, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two.

9 Sons of Saphatia, three hundred and seventy-two.

10 Sons of Era, six hundred and fifty-two.

11 Sons of Phaathmoab, for the sons of Jesus and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

12 Sons of Ailam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four.

13 Sons of Zathoua, eight hundred and forty-five.

14 Sons of Zakchou, seven hundred and sixty.

15 Sons of Banoui, six hundred and forty-eight.

16 Sons of Bebi, six hundred and twenty-eight.

17 Sons of Asgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two.

18 Sons of Adenikam, six hundred and sixty-seven.

19 Sons of Bagoi, two thousand and sixty-seven.

20 Sons of Edin, six hundred and fifty-five.

21 Sons of Ater, for Ezekia, ninety-eight.

22 Sons of Esam, three hundred and twenty-eight.

23 Sons of Besi, three hundred and twenty-four.

24 Sons of Ariph, one hundred and twelve.

25 Sons of Gabaon, ninety-five.

26 Sons of Bethlehem, one hundred and twenty-three. Sons of Netopha, fifty-six.

27 Sons of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight.

28 Men of Bethasmoth, forty-two.

29 Men of Kariathiarim, Kaphira and Beroth, seven hundred and forty-three.

30 Men of Arama and Gabaa, six hundred and one.

31 Men of Machemas, one hundred and twenty-two.

32 Men of Bethel and Aia, one hundred and twenty-three.

33 Men of Nabi – aar, fifty-two.

34 Men of Elam – aar, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four.

35 Sons of Eram, three hundred and twenty.

36 Sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five.

37 Sons of Lod, Adid and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one.

38 Sons of Sanaa, three thousand nine hundred and thirty. –

39 The priests: sons of Jodae, for the house of Jesus, nine hundred and seventy-three.

40 Sons of Emmer, one thousand and fifty-two.

41 Sons of Phassour, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven.

42 Sons of Eram, one thousand and seventeen. –

43 The Levites: sons of Jesus, for Kadmiel, for the sons of Oudouia, seventy-four.

44 Those singing: sons of Asaph, one hundred and forty-eight.

45 The gatekeepers: sons of Saloum, sons of Ater, sons of Telmon, sons of Akoub, sons of Atita, sons of Sabi, one hundred and thirty-eight. –

46 The nathinim: sons of Sea, sons of Asipha, sons of Tabaoth,

47 sons of Kiras, sons of Souia, sons of Phadon,

48 sons of Labana, sons of Agaba, sons of Salami,

49 sons of Anan, sons of Gadel, sons of Gaar,

50 sons of Raaia, sons of Rason, sons of Nekoda,

51 sons of Gezam, sons of Ozi, sons of Phese,

52 sons of Besi, sons of Meinom, sons of Nephosasim,

53 sons of Bakbouk, sons of Achipha, sons of Arour,

54 sons of Basaloth, sons of Meida, sons of Adasan,

55 sons of Barkous, sons of Sisara, sons of Thema,

56 sons of Nisia, sons of Atipha.

57 Sons of Solomon's slaves: sons of Souti, sons of Sapharath, sons of Pherida,

58 sons of Jeale, sons of Dorkon, sons of Gadel,

59 sons of Saphatia, sons of Etel, sons of Phacharath, sons of Sabaim, sons of Emim.

60 All the nathinim and sons of Solomon's slaves, three hundred and ninety-two. –

61 And these went up from Thelmeleth, Aresa, Charoub, Eron, Jemer, and could not report the houses of their ancestral families and their seed, whether they are from Israel:

62 sons of Dalaia, sons of Tobia, sons of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two.

63 And from the priests: sons of Ebia, sons of Akos, sons of Berzelli, for he took wives from the daughters of Berzelli the Galaadite and was called by their name;

64 these sought their record of the company, and it was not found, and they were ἠγχιστεύθησαν [sense uncertain] from the priesthood,

65 and Athersatha said that they should not eat from the holy of holies until the priest arises to enlighten. –

66 And the whole assembly became as one, forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,

67 besides their slaves and their female servants, these being seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and male singers and female singers, two hundred and forty-five;

68 horses, seven hundred and thirty-six; mules, two hundred and forty-five;

69 camels, four hundred and thirty-five; donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty. –

70 And some of the chiefs of the ancestral families gave for the work to Neemias, into the treasury, a thousand gold pieces, fifty bowls and thirty chothonoth of the priests.

71 And some of the chiefs of the ancestral families gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand of gold and two thousand two hundred minas of silver,

72 and the remaining people gave twenty thousand of gold and two thousand two hundred minas of silver and sixty-seven chothonoth of the priests. –

73 And the priests and the Levites and the gatekeepers and those singing and those from the people and the nathinim and all Israel settled in their cities. And the seventh month arrived – and the sons of Israel were in their cities –

Chapter 18

1 and all the people gathered as one man into the broad space in front of the water gate. And they told Esdras the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord commanded Israel.

2 And Esdras the priest brought the law before the assembly, from man to woman, and everyone understanding to hear, on the first day of the seventh month,

3 and he read in it from the hour when the sun shines through until the middle of the day, before the men and the women, and they were understanding, and the ears of all the people were toward the book of the law.

4 And Esdras the scribe stood upon a wooden platform, and beside him stood Mattathias and Samaias and Ananias and Ouria and Elkia and Maasaia on his right, and on the left Phadaias and Misael and Melchias and Osam and Asabdana and Zacharias and Mosollam.

5 And Esdras opened the book before all the people – for he was above the people – and it happened, when he opened it, all the people stood.

6 And Esdras blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered and said, Amen, lifting their hands, and they bent down and worshiped the Lord upon their face on the earth.

7 And Jesus and Banaias and Sarabia were instructing the people in the law, and the people were at their station.

8 And they read in the book of the law of God, and Esdras taught and explained distinctly in knowledge of the Lord, and the people understood in the reading. –

9 And Neemias and Esdras the priest and scribe and the Levites instructing the people spoke and said to all the people, The day is holy to the Lord our God; do not mourn or weep; for all the people were weeping when they heard the words of the law.

10 And he said to them, Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks and send portions to those who do not have, for the day is holy to our Lord; and do not fall apart, for it is your strength.

11 And the Levites were quieting all the people, saying, Be silent, for the day is holy, and do not fall down.

12 And all the people went away to eat and drink and send portions and make great rejoicing, for they understood the words which he made known to them.

13 And on the second day the rulers of the ancestral families for all the people, the priests and the Levites, gathered to Esdras the scribe to attend to all the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the Lord commanded Moses, that the sons of Israel should dwell in tents during a feast in the seventh month,

15 and that they should signal with trumpets in all their cities and in Jerusalem. And Esdras said, Go out to the mountain and bring olive leaves and leaves of cypress trees and myrtle leaves and palm leaves and leaves of a dense tree, to make tents according to what is written.

16 And the people went out and brought them and made tents for themselves, each man upon his roof, and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God and in the squares of the city and as far as the gate of Ephraim.

17 And the whole assembly, those returning from the captivity, made tents and settled in tents; for from the days of Jesus son of Naue the sons of Israel had not done so until that day; and there was great rejoicing.

18 And he read in the book of the law of God day by day, from the first day until the last day; and they held a feast for seven days, and on the eighth day a closing observance according to the judgment.

Chapter 19

1 And on the twenty-fourth day of this month the sons of Israel gathered in fasting and in sackcloth.

2 And the sons of Israel separated themselves from every foreign son and stood and confessed their sins and the lawless deeds of their fathers.

3 And they stood at their station and read in the book of the law of the Lord their God, and they were confessing to the Lord and worshiping the Lord their God.

4 And on the ascent of the Levites stood Jesus and sons of Kadmiel, Sachania son of Sarabia, sons of Chanani, and they cried with a great voice to the Lord their God.

5 And the Levites Jesus and Kadmiel said, Arise, bless the Lord your God from age to age, and they will bless the name of your glory and exalt it above every blessing and praise.

6 And Esdras said, You yourself alone are Lord; you made heaven and the heaven of heaven and all their array, the earth and all that is in it, the seas and all that is in them, and you give life to all things, and the armies of the heavens worship you.

7 You are the Lord God; you made your choice in Abram and brought him out of the country of the Chaldeans and placed upon him the name Abraham;

8 and you found his heart faithful before you and made a covenant with him to give him the land of the Chananites and Chettites and Amorrites and Pherezites and Jebousites and Gergesites, and to his seed; and you established your words, for you are righteous.

9 And you saw the humiliation of our fathers in Egypt and heard their cry at the Red Sea.

10 And you gave signs in Egypt, in Pharaoh and in all his servants and in all the people of his land, for you knew that they acted arrogantly against them, and you made a name for yourself, as this day.

11 And you broke open the sea before them, and they passed through the midst of the sea on dry ground, and those pursuing them you threw into the deep like a stone in mighty water.

12 And in a pillar of cloud you guided them by day, and in a pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way in which they will travel.

13 And you descended upon Mount Sina and spoke to them from heaven and gave them upright judgments and laws of truth, good ordinances and commandments.

14 And you made known to them your holy sabbath; commandments and ordinances and law you commanded them by the hand of Moses your slave.

15 And you gave them bread from heaven for their lack of grain and brought out water from rock for them for their thirst. And you told them to enter to inherit the land concerning which you stretched out your hand to give it to them.

16 And they and our fathers acted arrogantly and hardened their neck and did not hear your commandments;

17 and they refused to listen and did not remember your wonders which you did with them, and they hardened their neck and gave a beginning to return to their slavery in Egypt. And you are a merciful and compassionate God, long-suffering and abundant in mercy, and you did not abandon them.

18 And moreover they also made themselves a cast calf and said, These are the gods who brought us out of Egypt; and they made great provocations to anger.

19 And you in your many compassions did not abandon them in the wilderness; you did not turn away from them the pillar of cloud by day to guide them in the way, and the pillar of fire by night to light for them the way in which they will travel.

20 And you gave your good spirit to instruct them, and you did not withhold your manna from their mouth, and you gave them water for their thirst.

21 And forty years you nourished them in the wilderness; they did not lack; their garments did not grow old, and their feet did not split open.

22 And you gave them kingdoms and peoples and divided them for them, and they inherited the land of Seon king of Esebon and the land of Og king of Basan.

23 And you multiplied their sons like the stars of heaven and brought them into the land which you spoke of to their fathers, and they inherited it.

24 And you wiped out before them those dwelling in the land of the Chananites and gave them into their hands, and their kings and the peoples of the land, to do to them as was pleasing before them.

25 And they seized high cities and inherited houses full of all good things, hewn pits, vineyards and olive groves and every tree for food in abundance; and they ate and were filled and grew fat and lived luxuriously in your great goodness.

26 And they changed and departed from you and threw your law behind their body and killed your prophets, who testified among them to turn them toward you, and they made great provocations to anger.

27 And you gave them into the hand of those afflicting them, and they afflicted them; and they cried out to you at the time of their affliction, and you heard from your heaven and in your great compassions gave them saviors and saved them from the hand of those afflicting them.

28 And when they rested, they turned back to do evil before you; and you abandoned them into the hands of their enemies, and they ruled over them. And again they cried out to you, and you listened from heaven and rescued them in your many compassions.

29 And you testified to them to turn them to your law, and they did not hear, but in your commandments and in your judgments they sinned, which, if a man does them, he will live in them; and they gave a disobedient back and hardened their neck and did not hear.

30 And you prolonged matters over them for many years and testified to them by your spirit through the hand of your prophets; and they did not give ear, and you gave them into the hand of peoples of the land.

31 And you in your many compassions did not make an end of them and did not abandon them, for you are strong and merciful and compassionate.

32 And now, our God, the strong, the great, the mighty and the fearsome, keeping your covenant and your mercy, let not all the hardship be made little before you which found us and our kings and our rulers and our priests and our prophets and our fathers, and among all your people, from the days of kings of Assour and until this day.

33 And you are righteous in all things coming upon us, for you acted in truth, and we sinned.

34 And our kings and our rulers and our priests and our fathers did not do your law and did not attend to your commandments and your testimonies which you testified to them.

35 And they in your kingdom and in your abundant goodness which you gave them, and in the broad and rich land which you gave before them, did not serve you and did not turn away from their evil practices.

36 Behold, today we are slaves, and the land which you gave our fathers to eat its fruit,

37 is for the kings whom you gave over us in our sins, and they exercise authority over our bodies and over our beasts as is pleasing to them, and we are in great affliction.

Chapter 20

1 And in all these things we make a pledge of faithfulness and write, and all our rulers, our Levites, our priests affix seals.

2 And among those sealing were Neemias son of Achalia and Sedekias

3 son of Saraia, and Azaria and Jermia,

4 Phasour, Amaria, Melchia,

